A For one reason because it was his time to be promoted. It wasn't out of order. His time for promotion happened to come up.

Q Did a man get a promotion for a certain length of time in grade or was he promoted for the good work he was doing?

A Well of course he had to do work that was useful and if you had been an assistant for so and so long and you wanted to prove somebodies position in general you make him a secretary, and that is what was done to him.

Q How did you know what type of work he was doing over at the Gestapo, whether he was doing a good job or a poor job or no job at all.

A Well we could tell from his personal files what kind of work he was doing--in my opinion of course. The Gestapo was asked about this deal too, but I don't know I have to assume that much.

CAPTAIN VANCE: Nothing further.

REDIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY DEFENSE COUNSEL:

Q Do you know whether or not Koehler was at any time invited to join the Gestapo?

(Examination cont)

A Well I don't know, but I think it must have been upon orders for him to be detailed to the Gestapo. He wasn't there because he liked it. I know that from experience.

QUESTIONS BY DR. AHRENS:

Q Mr. Kramer, did you, at any time talk to Koehler about whether he wanted to be taken over by the Gestapo or not?

A Yes. That must have been about 1943. I think I was coming back from the cemetery and met him on some street of the town. He was together with his kid. I don't know why I asked this or what I asked him. "Did you want to become unfaithful/ete me?" "Don't you like my place anymore?"

Q What did Koehler say upon that?

A He had rather stay with his old outfit with the Criminal Police. That he liked to combat crime. That he would rather be there. That is the gist of it.

Q So there must have been some cause according to which he might have been transferred to the Gestapo?

A I can't say anymore what the occasion for the question was. It has been too long.

Q He was not transferred to the Gestapo?

A No.

Q You were talking about Koehler's promotion to the rank of criminal secretary. Do you still remember at what time that took place?

A I don't remember the exact time anymore. It has been too long.

Q Do you remember the year?

A It might have been 1943 or maybe up to the middle of 1944.

Q You have been asked by the prosecutor whether it might not have been immediately after the 19th of October, 1944. Now that you have just stated it was during 1943 or up to the middle of 1944, do you consider that possible?

(Kramer-redirect)

A I can't say that so exactly because I don't remember the time so well.

Q What was the usual time for German civilian servants to be promoted? I mean what particular dates of the year would it be?

A There were several days. One of them for instance, at the birthday on April 20.

Q You meant Hitler's birthday?

A Yes. But then it also happened that somebody was promoted at such dates as the first of June.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Nothing more.

PRESIDENT: No questions by the court. The witness is excused.

(Thereupon the witness was excused and withdrew.)

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Bring in Alfred Richard Ernst.

ALFRED RICHARD ERNST, called as a witness by the defense, being first duly sworn, took the stand and testified through an interpreter as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY DEFENSE COUNSEL:

Q What is your full name?

A Ernst.

Q Your full name I said.

A Richard.

Q Your name is Ernst, Alfred Richard, right name?

A Yes.

Q What is your present status?

A I am an internee here in camp.

Q Do you know Wilhelm Koehler?

A Yes.

Q If he is in this courtroom will you please point him out?

A Number five (Indicating).

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Let the record show that the witness identified Koehler as number five.

Q During the year 1944 and 1945 what was your occupation?

A Criminal Police official.

Q Where?

A At the state Police Branch office which was in Wiesbaden.

Q When did you first occupy that position?

A In 1942.

Q How long did you stay there?

A Until the end. Until the dissolution.

Q When did you first meet Koehler?

A 1941.

Q Where was that?

A In the office.

Q Which office.

A At the State Police Branch Office, Wiesbaden.

Q Can you tell the court to what organization Koehler belonged at the time you first met him?

A He came from the Wiesbaden criminal police.

Q To your knowledge was Koehler ever a member of the Gestapo?

A No.

Q How do you know?

A Because he was carrying identification papers from the Criminal Police and also his badge.

Q So far as you know, did he have any papers from the Gestapo?

A He didn't.

Q From time to time were you present at meetings in your office in Wiesbaden?

A Yes.

Q Was Koehler with you there from time to time?

A Yes.

Q At any time was there ever any discussion held at any meeting which you attended at which treatment of allied flyers was discussed?

A No, never.

Q In your headquarters would a man have a right to give orders to another man just because he held a little higher rank and for no other reason?

A I don't get it, what do you mean?

Q Do you know Arthur Fuehr?

A Yes.

Q Did you have a higher rank than Fuehr or did he have a higher rank than you?

A No, I did.

Q Did you have a right to give Fuehr orders just because your rank was higher than his rank?

A No.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Your witness.

QUESTIONS BY DR. AMEREN:

Q Did you know that Koehler was a member of the SS?

A Koehler was not a member of the SS.

CROSS EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q Were you working for the Gestapo in Wiesbaden?

A Yes.

Q Did you belong to the Gestapo?

A Yes.

Q Who did Koehler work for in Wiesbaden?

A At the State Police.

Q Is that the Gestapo?

A Gestapo.

(Ernst-cross)

Q Was he there all the time that you were working for the Gestapo?

A After 1941 he was.

Q Was the Gestapo an agent of the SD?

A No.

Q Who did the Gestapo belong to?

A To the State Police Office, Frankfurt. Wiesbaden was the branch office.

Q Was that Major Breder the chief over at Frankfurt?

A Yes.

CAPTAIN VANCE: Nothing further.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Nothing further here, sir.

PRESIDENT: No questions by the court, witness is excused.

(Whereupon the witness was excused and withdrew.)

PRESIDENT: The court will recess until 1330.

(Whereupon at 1205 hours the court recessed.)

(Whereupon the court reconvened at 1330 hours.)

PRESIDENT: Court will come to order.

PROSECUTION: May it please the court, let the record show that all the members of the court; all the members of the prosecution; all the members of the defense, except Dr. Trost, who is absent sick; all of the accused; the reporter and interpreter are present.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: The defense would like to recall Hoehler for one question, with the court's permission.

PRESIDENT: Permission granted.

WILHELM HOEHLER, an accused, voluntarily resumed the stand in his own behalf and continued to make the following unsworn statement through an interpreter:

REDIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY DEFENSE COUNSEL:

Q What was the date of your promotion from assistant criminal secretary to secretary?

A 20th of April, 1943.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: You may question.

CAPTAIN VANCE: No questions.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Questions by the court?

PRESIDENT: No questions by the court. The witness will take his place in the dock.

(Whereupon the witness resumed his seat in the dock.)

DEFENSE COUNSEL: The defense now calls Arthur Fuehr.

ARTHUR FUEHR, an accused, voluntarily took the stand in his own behalf and made the following unsworn statement through an interpreter:

DIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY DEFENSE COUNSEL:

Q Your full name is Arthur Fuehr?

A Arthur Fuehr.

Q You are an accused in this case?

A Yes.

Q What is your marital status?

A Married, two children, six and eight years.

Q Where do your wife and two children now live?

A They have no permanent residence. At this time, she is in Kleinludera near Fulda. She is a refugee.

Q What was your civilian occupation?

A Driver and car mechanic.

Q When did you first become affiliated with the police system of Germany?

A In April, 1937.

Q And what police organization did you then join?

A The STAPO, Wiesbaden.

Q How long did you stay with the STAPO in Wiesbaden?

A Until the end of the war.

Q What were your duties with the Gestapo in Wiesbaden?

A I myself made repairs on the vehicles; I drove out to interrogations with the officials, and I had to keep the heating system and the garden in shape.

Q In the headquarters at Wiesbaden, there were people who did the janitor work and cleaning up around the headquarters in Wiesbaden, were there not?

A Yes. Quite often I had prisoners of the police jail who helped me at my work.

Q When you first joined the police, what rank did you have?

A I was an SS Sergeant.

Q Were you a sergeant from the very beginning?

A No, I only got that after my training.

(FUHRER-Direct)O

Q How long were you a sergeant?

A I was a sergeant until 1934, until 1937. I was an unter officer, sergeant, for that period of time.

Q What rank did you hold in 1944?

A I was an SS master sergeant in 1944.

Q Was that the rank you held till the end of the war?

A Yes.

Q Outside of the Gestapo, did you belong to any other organizations?

A No.

Q Have you read the text of Charge I, in which you are named as an accused?

A Yes.

Q Are you guilty or any of the charges or accusations made under Charge I?

CAPTAIN VANCE: We object on the same ground as has been previously stated.

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

QUESTIONS BY DEFENSE COUNSEL:

A No.

Q How many of the accused in this case did you know prior to the end of the war?

A Five accused.

Q Who are they?

A Best.

Q Name the others.

A Koehler, Trumpler, Sommer and Stroop.

Q When did you first meet Best?

A I have known Best for 25 or 26 years, since 1925 or 1926. The last time I saw him was in 1935. That was in a transport from Wiesbaden to Dachau.

DR. WACKER: I have to object to a translation. I think it was misunderstood.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: What would you say the translation should be?

DR. WACKER: The witness said, "I saw him the last time in 1935 and then again on the transport," and not that it was translated here, "That was in a transport."

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I will straighten that out now.

QUESTIONS BY DEFENSE COUNSEL:

Q When did you last see Best before the end of the war?

A Before the end of the war? In 1935.

Q And after 1935, when did you next see him?

A On a trip from the Wiesbaden jail to over here, Dachau.

Q During those years, did you have any correspondence with him of any kind?

A No.

Q How long have you known Hoehler?

A I have known Hoehler since 1941. He was in our office.

Q Did you ever sit down to any meetings with Hoehler in which the treatment of Allied air personnel was discussed?

A No.

Q How long have you known Trumpler?

A I have known Trumpler since the time Colonel Somann left and when he was sent to the Wiesbaden office.

Q How long have you known Somann?

A I have known Somann since 1943.

Q How well did you know him?

A I had to take a teletype over to his place one evening, late in the evening.

Q Did you ever sit down to any meetings with Somann?

A. At one time, I asked him for some advice. There was a report against me around.

Q. Were you ever present at any conference that Sassen was present at in which the treatment of Allied fliers was discussed?

A No.

Q How long have you known Strong?

A I saw Strong once driving past me on Hilhalmstrasse.

Q. Was that your only contact with Strong?

A. Yes.

Q. Who were your superiors?

A. Colonial Counciler Lochard, Government Counciler Kroder, and Colonel Trumpler.

Q. Was Koehler your superior in the sense that he could give you orders?

[illegible] VARES: We object. He is leading the witness.

[illegible] COUNSEL: I ask the court's judgment. I am defining the sense in which he is supposed to be superior.

[illegible]: Objection overruled.

QUESTIONS BY [illegible] COUNSEL:

A. Yes.

Q. Who held a higher rank, you or Koehler?

A. Koehler.

Q. Coming down to the date of on or about October 19th, 1944, do you remember that date?

A Yes.

Q. It was on that date that you had spoken, or some business involving an American flier, is that true?

A Yes.

Q. What was the first thing that came to your attention, or what was the first thing that happened in this episode as far as you are concerned?

(FURTHER direct)

A That was shortly after lunch. Fremmit came up to my apartment and said, "Put on your clothes. We will have to see Colonel Trumbler right away."

Q Where was your apartment?

A I had an official apartment right next to the office.

Q Did Fremmit at that time tell you how he was informed, or how he knew that Trumbler wanted to see the two of you?

A No.

Q After having received this message from Fremmit, you dressed, and what then happened?

A I dressed, put on my belt, and went to Colonel Trumbler together with Fremmit.

Q Did you see him?

A Yes.

Q There?

A In his office.

Q About what time of day?

A It was between 1 and 2 o'clock.

Q Who else was in the office besides Fremmit, yourself and Trumbler?

A The secretary was sitting in the anteroom to Colonel Trumbler's office.

Q Who was sitting in Colonel Trumbler's office?

A In the office, Trumbler was by himself.

Q Did you there have some talk, you, Fremmit and Trumbler?

A No. We walked in, snapped to, and reported.

Q What happened after that?

A Upon that, we received the following order.

Q From whom?

A From Trumbler.

Ta 170-ps-60-8/17-7

Q What was the order?

A As follows: "There is a parachuted flier in my office, and he will be shot on the way in the direction of Frankfurt tonight. Then he will be taken to the rural policeman in charge and he is to see to it that the man is buried."

Q Just stop there. Was the flier that you are talking about in Trummler's office at that time?

A No.

Q Was anything said as to where you would find the flier?

A No.

Q To whom was Trummler's order directed?

A To me and Fraundt.

Q In that order -- did that order tell you when you were to execute this mission?

A Yes.

Q When did he order it?

A After dark.

Q Was anything said about where it was to be executed?

A On the way to Frankfurt.

Q What happened after you got the order?

A We about-faced and walked out.

Q What was the next thing you did?

A I kept on doing my work.

Q And what was that?

A In the car, in the yard.

Q What happened to Fraundt, do you know?

A Fraundt went back to the office, too.

Q Do you know where Fraundt's office was?

A Nextdoor to Trummler's office, the next house.

(FUHUR-Direct)

Q Do you know whether or not that was the same building that Koehler worked in?

A Yes.

Q Who was Freundt's superior officer?

A Criminal Counciler Lenhard.

Q Lenhard was the superior to Freundt, Koehler and yourself, is that right?

A Yes.

Q Did you ever find out how it happened that you and Freundt were sent to Trumpler's office?

A No.

Q What was the next thing?

A I kept on doing my work, and in the evening about 7 or 8 o'clock Freundt tells me I will drive up a car to Colonel Trumpler.

Q Something was said about a plan as to how this thing was going to be done. Was that plan ever discussed with you?

A No.

Q Coming down to the evening, you were told by Freundt to have your car where, did you say?

A To the office, in front of Colonel Trumpler. I was supposed to drive it up there.

Q What is the next thing that happened, so far as you know?

A Koehler and Freundt then came out of Colonel Trumpler's office with the files.

Q You heard Koehler testify to some talk he had with Freundt about going along with you and with Freundt. Did you know anything about that?

A I didn't hear it.

Q All right, then the two men brought out the prisoner. What happened next?

(Further direct)

A Hoehler and the flier sat down in the back seat, Fraundt next to me. An air raid alarm was on. I dimmed my lights and started off in the direction of Frankfurt.

Q In your own words, tell the court just what happened.

A On the way, Fraundt whispered in my ear softly, "At the Wandersmann, stop. I will nudge you and that will be the sign."

Q Did he tell you what the nudge would be a sign of?

A He didn't say.

Q Go ahead and tell the story in your own words.

A When we were at the Wandersmann, I turned my car off, turned the motor off. I got out and did some work on the motor.

Q At that time, had you been nudged?

A Yes.

Q Go ahead.

A I went back one time and said, "How about getting me my flashlight out of the glove compartment?" He gave me the flashlight. I went out front to the motor and shortly thereafter several shots fell.

Q What were you doing on the motor?

A Well, I simulated that the car had broken down.

Q Why did you do that?

A In order not to make the facts plain to the flier.

Q How did you know what was going to happen?

A Well, I heard that at Colonel Trumbler's.

Q Did you see who did the shooting?

A I did not.

Q Did you see who got out of the car?

A Fraundt left the car with the flier.

Q Did you see whether or not Hoehler left the car?

A Hoehler remained sitting in the car.

(Fuehrer-Direct)

Q How many shots?

A Might have been two or three shots.

Q What kind of a weapon did you have?

A I had a Walther PPK, caliber 7,65.

Q What kind did Freundt have?

A He had the same pistol.

Q And Hoehler?

A The same one, too. Everybody in the office, everybody in the police, had the same type pistol.

Q What did you do after you heard the shots?

A I went around the car from the left side, around the left, saw the flier lying on the ground.

Q What happened after that?

A Freundt said, "Give me a hand. We will carry it away from the road a little bit." Upon that, Hoehler helped us with the flashlight.

Q And what happened after you put the body of the flier on the side of the road?

A I turned my car around and then Freundt said, "Now, we will go and see this rural policeman, this gendarme.

Q Who drove the car in the search for the gendarme?

A We drove to the house of the gendarme.

Q Who was driving?

A I was driving. Nobody else was driving to Wiesbaden except me. Freundt and Hoehler then went into the house of the gendarme.

Q Did you make a report of any kind to anybody about what happened that night?

A I didn't make a report, only this evening when we reported back in.

Q To whom did you report then?

A I drove Hoehler home and Fraundt and I went to Colonel Trummler's office and we reported back there according to our orders, "Mission accomplished.

End ta 170
wfj fols

Q Was that the same day?

A That was the same day.

Q Who went back to make the report, just you and Frenzit you say?

A Frenzit and I on the same evening went to Colonel Trumbler and reported back.

Q Was Koehler with you and Frenzit at any time when you made a report to Colonel Trumbler about this case or when you received orders about this case?

A No.

Q Now, Herr Fuchs, let's go down to December of that same year. Sometime during that month you had occasion to have something to do with another American flyer, did you not?

A Yes.

Q Tell the Court the whole story about that from the beginning to the end, in your own words.

A I was changing a tire in the garage. It was about noon, shortly after twelve. Frenzit came over to me and said "We'll have to go see Trumbler." I said to Frenzit "Look here, I have to wash my hands and put my coat on." I went up to my kitchen and washed my hands and put on my coat and pistol belt.

Q Go ahead.

A We went over to Trumbler's office. Trumbler was coming up from the cellar, together with Captain Freder and he gave us the following order.

Q Just a moment. Who was Freder?

A That was Colonel Trumbler's adjutant.

Q Go ahead.

(Fuchs - Direct)

A We went up to Trumler and Freder in a military manner and upon that received the following order.

Q From whom?

A From Trumler. He said the following "There is a flyer in the office and on the way in the direction of Frankfurt he will be shot tonight and he will be turned over to the gendarmerie just like the other time and they will take care of the burial."

Q Continue Herr Fuchr.

A We about faced and then I went back to work. In the evening when it was dark, it might have been between eight or nine o'clock, -- no there is something else before this. When I got through with the car I did some work in the office. I repaired the blackout curtains and I also passed through the room the flyer was sitting in. The following people were present in that room, Miss Fine, Brentano, Captain Freder and nobody else. The flyer was sitting next to a radiator in a chair. Then Freder gave me the order to take the flyer down to the cellar. I went ahead of the flyer because we were using the rear staircase. I came down to the cellar to the cell, opened it up, lighted a cigarette for myself and gave one to the flyer too. Then I opened the window and I motioned him to close the window when he got through with the cigarette. I closed the door and went up to Freder and reported that I had taken the flyer down. Then I continued with my work. In the evening, about eight or nine o'clock, Fraundt came over to me at that time and told me to drive up to the rear entrance. Fraundt came out with the flyer and took his place in the car and then we drove in the direction of Frankfurt.

Q In this case where did Fraundt sit in the car?

A In the rear.

Q How many doors did that car have?

A Two.

Q In order to get out from the car, a person sitting in the back would have to do what or go through what door?

A He could get out at the right side only because the seat where the driver is sitting, you couldn't tip the back of the seat over because the steering wheel would be in the way.

Q With a man sitting behind the driver's seat and another man sitting in the front seat next to the driver, could anyone sitting in the back seat escape without knocking out one or both men sitting in front?

A Well, it was a two-door limousine and we had a regulation to the effect that somebody, some official, was always supposed to sit behind the driver.

Q What happened after that?

A Then Freundt and the flyer came up from the cellar and we drove in the direction of Frankfurt and I stopped at almost the same place as the last time. We all got out of the car, including the flyer. After the flyer was outside of the car, about a meter and a half away from it, I walked around to the front of the car and fired one shot. Freundt also fired.

Q At the time when you were firing was the door of the car open or closed?

A The door was closed.

Q What happened after that?

A The flyer was lying on the ground. Freundt made sure that the flyer was dead. The flyer was lying like this (indicating) and Freundt said "He is still alive" and fired another shot.

Q How many shots were fired all together?

A About four.

Q How many did you fire?

A I fired one.

Q What happened after that?

A Then we went to the gendarmerie.

Q And did the arrangements for the burial happen just as you testified in court?

A Yes.

Q Now you say that you had occasion to go to Somsen to get some advice. What was that about?

A Yes, there was one shipment of American flyers which were to be sent from the Rhine jail to the Wiesbaden jail. They had come from France in civilian clothes. We had a truck belonging to somebody privately because we didn't have an official truck in our office. I had to watch behind the truck and guard them so nobody would escape. We then drove from Rhine to Wiesbaden. The officials went into the court jail of Wiesbaden and I stayed behind with the prisoners. I talked to the flyers. One of them spoke some German. I asked him whether he was married and he said that he was and that he had two children. Then a plane passed by, a Messerschmidt, and he said that these were the ones that shot them down in France. I distributed one pack of cigarettes. Then one official came out and had the prisoners come in. As I went to the jail the director of the jail came up to me and asked me, "What is your name?". I said, "I don't have to give you my name. I don't even know you and if you want to do something about me, then go to my office and report me." Then the flyers were sent to their cells and we drove to our office. About one hour later Criminal Commissar Knabe had me called up to his office. That was in the summer of 1944. He reprimanded me and said he would have to report the matter to Frankfurt. I then left the office and met Colonel Semann's driver.

(Fuehr - Direct)

Q Just a moment. What was he going to report to Frankfurt?

A What I did. The way I behaved toward prisoners of war. I talked to Colonel Semann's driver and he told me "Why don't you go see the boss. You can talk to him." I went to Colonel Semann and told him about the incident and Colonel Semann said "Don't worry about it, go get back to work and I'll fix it up." I didn't hear anything more about it.

Q Were you ever present at any meeting at which orders were discussed or read which had to do with the treatment of Allied flyers?

A No, never.

Q When did you first hear that there existed such orders?

A I never heard about it.

Q How do you believe or feel that what you did in connection with either of these two shootings was right?

A Well, I received the order and being an SS man ----

Q Please ask him to answer.

CAPTAIN VANCE: May it please the court, we believe that the question is being answered.

PROSECUTION: I asked if he thought he was doing right or wrong. He said "Yes" and started off on something. I want to make my examination as I have it lined up in my mind.

CAPTAIN VANCE: We think the answer should be translated. I can't speak German and I want to know what the witness said.

PRESIDENT: The reporter will read the answer.

(Whereupon the answer was read by the reporter as follows:

Answer: Well, I received the order and being an SS man ---)

QUESTIONS BY DEFENSE COUNSEL:

Q Go ahead and tell the court why you thought it was right.

A If I, as an SS man, receive an order from a Colonel then I have to assume that the order is right and for us in the SS the supreme duty for anybody in his life was obedience and everybody who receives an order has to carry it out.

Q Now prior to the first episode in October, 1944, have you had occasion to transport allied air flyers before that time?

A Yes, I took several flyers to Oberursel and also picked some up out in the country.

Q Prior to this date of October 19, 1944, what happened to every allied airman so far as you know with whom you had contact.

CAPTAIN VANCE: I don't object to going into that but I just want to say that if he opens up the field I want to put him on notice that we will introduce evidence as to what happened before these cases.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I said as far as he knows.

CAPTAIN VANCE: I ask for a recess in place.

PRESIDENT: The court will recess in place.

(Thereupon the court recessed in place.)

PRESIDENT: Court will come to order.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I will strike the question.

QUESTIONS BY DEFENSE COUNSEL:

Q Having in mind the answer you gave to the question to which

CAPTAIN VANCE: We think the answer should be translated. I can't speak German and I want to know what the witness said.

PRESIDENT: The reporter will read the answer.

(Whereupon the answer was read by the reporter as follows:

Answer: Well, I received the order and being an SS man ---)

QUESTIONS BY DEFENSE COUNSEL:

Q Go ahead and tell the court why you thought it was right.

A If I, as an SS man, receive an order from a Colonel then I have to assume that the order is right and for us in the SS the supreme duty for anybody in his life was obedience and everybody who receives an order has to carry it out.

Q Now prior to the first episode in October, 1944, have you had occasion to transport allied air flyers before that time?

A Yes, I took several flyers to Oberursel and also picked some up out in the country.

Q Prior to this date of October 19, 1944, what happened to every allied airman so far as you know with whom you had contact.

CAPTAIN VANCE: I don't object to going into that but I just want to say that if he opens up the field I want to put him on notice that we will introduce evidence as to what happened before these cases.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I said as far as he knows.

CAPTAIN VANCE: I ask for a recess in place.

PRESIDENT: The court will recess in place.

(Whereupon the court recessed in place.)

PRESIDENT: Court will come to order.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I will strike the question.

QUESTIONS BY DEFENSE COUNSEL:

Q Having in mind the answer you gave to the question to which no objection was taken that you had picked some flyers up in the country and had helped transport some to Oberursel and now coming down to this particular case in which you received this order, did the fact that such an order was given to you suggest to your mind a cause for the order. Please answer that yes or no.

A Well if Colonel Trumpler gives me an order to shoot a flyer I have to carry it out.

Q Did you think that there was a reason why you were given the order to shoot this man and such an order had not been given to you before. Please answer yes or no.

A I can't pass judgment on that.

Q Is there anything else you would like to say to the Court as to how you feel about what you did in both of these two cases?

A I did nothing but my duty as an SS man and any order given to me by my superiors or by a Colonel I have to carry out. In peacetime disobeying an order would carry expulsion from the SS and a severe long term in a concentration camp. In wartime the only punishment possible in case of refusing an order was death.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Dr. Wacker would like to ask a question.

QUESTIONS BY DR. WACKER:

Q Did you think that Colonel Trumpler intended to commit a crime on this flyer when he gave you this order?

A No.

Q How come you didn't think of that?

A On account of the severe attacks -- the strafing attacks where the flyers were shooting at the women and children and where the life of eighty children were lost in a kindergarten in Rudesheim. For that reason I thought that when I received this is a good enough reason.

PROSECUTION: I move to strike the testimony just offered by the witness elicited by the German defense counsel, the last few questions of this witness. Will the court please rule on my motion. Will the court allow me to be heard on this subject at this time?

PRESIDENT: Granted.

PROSECUTION: I have asked the question of the defense what is the purpose of this testimony. The reason I asked that was because if the defense is offering justifiable reprisal, I would like to argue that point. If not, then my objection will be on other grounds. I have asked the court to have the defense define their purpose. If it is justifiable reprisal for the action of the accused to shoot unarmed prisoners of war, then I would like to be heard on that point at this time.

order from Colonel Prumler it was all right. My two children spent every night of two years in the cellar and during these two years they barely saw daylight because they were so afraid of the flyers.

MR. MAHER: No further questions.

PROSECUTION: The prosecution moves to strike out the testimony offered by the witness as elicited by the German defense counsel. I believe that counsel is offering that line of testimony to show justifiable reprisal on the part of the accused. I would like to have counsel make that statement to this court.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: The defense does not feel that it is obliged to indicate at this time the purpose for which this testimony is offered. However, we would say that we offer it for several reasons. First, in extenuation. I don't mean to convey in any manner or means that that is the only reason, but submit that it

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I don't feel, may it please the Court, that we should be compelled to disclose at this time the legal basis which we have in mind to offer as a legal defense to the actions in this case. I don't think we should be compelled to disclose now, prior to the completion of our case, our purpose. However, the prosecution and ourselves, with the court, are here for just one purpose in mind and that is to bring out the truth or what has been done in these cases, so justice might be meted out where justice has been called for. If the court feels that that statement which I have just made and upon which the defense stands, calls for the defense to now state its legal purpose with respect to this case, I will do so, although I am not fully prepared to do it because I am going to have to do it extemporaneously, when I had in mind to do it in writing at the very end of the testimony. So, may it please the court, let me have your decision. If it is my duty to state it now, I will do so, subject to my right to amplify it later on as we go along.

PRESIDENT: Court will be closed.

(Thereupon the court was closed at 1425.)

(Whereupon the court was opened at 1625 hours.)

PRESIDENT: Court will come to order.

PROSECUTION: May it please the court, let the record show that all the members of the prosecution; all the members of the defense, except Dr. Thost who is absent sick; all the accused; the reporter and interpreter are present.

PRESIDENT: The court will not require the defense counsel to state the purpose for which it has offered the testimony now being offered, any further than already stated as that it is offered in extenuation as one reason. Before passing on the motion of the prosecution to strike, the court will hear argument on the question of the admissibility of evidence offered in support of the theory of justifiable reprisal as a defense, if the prosecution so continues. I would PROSECUTION: The prosecution has nothing to add. In support of the motion to strike the evidence to which I previously made objection, the prosecution states that this line of testimony is immaterial, irrelevant and incompetent. If the defense particularly desires to offer that evidence as general or individual reprisal, either as a defense or by way of extenuating circumstances or in mitigation, it is particularly objectionable and the evidence should, therefore, not be received by this court.

The question is not new. It was taken up before the Nuernberg Tribunal. The question came up in this manner, and I would like to quote to the court an excerpt from the record before that Military Tribunal from pages 5931 and 5932 of the transcript of the evidence taken in that case.

"THE PRESIDENT: The Tribunal does not propose to hear an unlimited number of defendant's counsel, but I observe that Dr. Exner is there, and they are prepared to hear one other counsel; if counsel wish, Dr. Exner open the subject.

DR. EXNER (Counsel for defendant Jodl): May it please the Tribunal, indeed, we are all interested in that question of reprisals, and I would like to say a few words. Having taught 10 years of international law at the University, I believe that I understand something about it. Reprisals are among the most disputed terms of international law. One can say that only on one point is there absolute certainty. That is the point which Justice Jackson has mentioned as the first one. Reprisals against prisoners of war are not permitted. Everything else is matter for dispute and not at all accepted in international law. It is not correct that it would be the practice among all states, and therefore international law, that a protest is a prerequisite for taking reprisals. Neither is it correct that there has been a so-called sensible connection. It was asserted that there must be a connection in time and a relationship of proportion ought to be between the violation and the reprisals, and there are experts on international law, who assert it and say that there should be a demand, but existing international law, in the sense that an agreement has been made to that effect or that it would be a law, say that is not the case.

It will have to be said therefore, on the basis of violations of international law by the other side, we can never take reprisals against prisoners of war. However, every other form of reprisals is admissible. I just wanted to state this in general terms, and perhaps I still could say that it has been asserted that at this time we should not speak about the reason for mitigation. I would like to remind the Court that we are only permitted to make one address, and if in this speech which takes place before the decision has been reached about the question of guilt, we are not permitted to speak about mitigation, then we would not have any opportunity to speak about it at all."

Now, the record, we feel, is this --

"THE PRESIDENT: The Tribunal will adjourn now (a recess was taken.)"

The court reconvened. The President made this statement:

"THE PRESIDENT: The Tribunal rules that the evidence is admissible on the question of reprisals and the weight that should be given this, or similar evidence, will be reserved for future consideration."

There is no question that individual reprisals are forbidden.

The Rules of Land Warfare on Page 17 say that very definitely:

"In power of enemy power; treated with humanity; reprisals prohibited -- Prisoners of war are in the power of the enemy power, but not of the individuals or bodies of troops who capture them.

They must at all times be treated with humanity and protected, particularly against acts of violence, insults, and public curiosity.

Measures of reprisal against them are prohibited."

And they make reference to the Geneva Convention.

Now, there is no question at all in this case that all of the people who we allege to have been killed by the accused were unarmed prisoners of war and that it all occurred in the front line area. Now, the court must keep in mind in this argument that the accused apparently are offering as a defense evidence of justifiable reprisals by the accused or by the German people, or by the German army against the methods of warfare of the Allied Nations, which, I suppose they are calling reprisals. So it appears, therefore, that this evidence is in support of what might be termed counter reprisals. Now, if the acts of the American army and the Air Force in the warfare here in Europe were reprisals, then I am sure the court realizes without special proof being offered on the subject, that the American Air Force and the American Army followed the Rules of Land Warfare laid down in Field Manual 27-10, which was given to them many months ago as a guide for that purpose.

On pages 89 and 90 the rules are laid down for the American Army -- the definition of reprisals, when and how employed, and who may commit them. If the American Army committed acts of justifiable reprisal, we call the court's attention to the definition:

> "Reprisals are acts of retaliation resorted to by one belligerent against the enemy individuals or property for illegal acts of warfare committed by the other belligerent, for the purpose of enforcing future compliance with the recognized rules of civilized warfare.
>
> Reprisals are never adopted merely for revenge" -- and I am still quoting from the Field Manual --

> "but only as an unavoidable last resort to induce the enemy to desist from illegitimate practices."

The Field Manual goes on to say:

> "Illegal acts of warfare justifying reprisals may be committed by a government, by its military commanders, or by a community or individuals thereof, when it is impossible to apprehend, try, and punish.

> The offending forces or populations generally may lawfully be subjected to appropriate reprisals.
>
> The acts resorted to by way of reprisal need not conform to those complained of by the injured party, but should not be excessive or exceed the degree of violence committed by the enemy. Villages or houses, etc., may be burned for acts of hostility committed from them, where the guilty individuals cannot be identified, tried, and punished."

Many years ago authorities on international law took up this problem. Wheaton, who is recognized by all as an authority on the subject, in Seventh English Edition, page 213, makes this remark:

> "The fundamental principle of war law, then, authorises us to use against an enemy such a degree of violence, and such only, as may be necessary to secure the object of hostilities. The same general rule, which determines how far it is lawful to destroy the persons of enemies, will serve as a guide in judging how far it is lawful to ravage or lay waste their country."

Wheaton points out that the German position is this, and refers to one of their manuals on the subject:

> "The German Manual expresses the rule in a positive and in a negative form: No damage must be done, not even the most trivial, which is not necessitated by military reasons."

On the other hand, in the same Manual, they say:

> "Every damage, even the very greatest, is justifiable, if war demands it or if it is a consequence of the proper prosecution of war."

He makes this observation:

> "The whole international code is founded upon reciprocity."

Speaking of aerial warfare, he makes the following observations on page 353 of that work, with particular reference to World War I:

> "Bombing of hospitals occurred frequently in World War I, and Dr. Spaight's efforts to explain away the German action in these matters on various hypotheses is not convincing in view of the deliberate opinion of the extremely well-qualified and fair-minded experts whom he reports. What is true, doubtless, is that systematic bombing was not practiced by the Germans. Nor is it easy to sympathise with his defence of German bombing of a Palestine hospital in May 1917, alleged > to be a reprisal for British shelling of a Mosque which was used to store powder. Reprisals of that character are too obviously invented to have any value. The Austrian air attacks on Italian artistic buildings are morally far more defensible, and it is curious that they appear to elicit more reprobation than the inhumanity of destruction of the defenceless and their nurses. The German attacks in the war of 1939 onwards were without excuse."

Now I end the quotation from Dr. Cheston.

I'd like to remind this court that history records that in 1943 the Allied powers issued explicit warnings to Germany to cease violations of international law that had occurred at the outbreak of World War II, particularly in Poland and the bombings of the City of London. Germany did not desist but increased her efforts to disregard the laws of war. I do not have before me State Department documents of the United States of America nor the documents of the Foreign Office of the British government or other Foreign Offices of the other Allied powers, but it is without question that they would reveal the efforts of the Allied powers, particularly the personal efforts of the President of the United States and the Premier of Great Britain to persuade the Axis powers to desist from the unusual type of total war that they had launched and continued to pursue. The evidence is certainly available to show that the Axis powers were instructed and warned that after it became apparent that the Axis powers, particularly Germany, were determined to complete the total war in utter disregard of all the rules of warfare and in violation of decent standards of humanity, that the inevitable result would be reprisals by the Allied powers.

More to the point, history will record, and we, who are still living with the memory of the war green and fresh in our minds, know, that it was not necessarily a reprisal that caused the Allied nations to resort to the bombing of large cities and other objectives of that nature but that because those places contained within their very walls military objectives, that was the only way to put a stop to it all.

Because of the absence of a vivid memory on the part of the defense, the prosecution, on behalf of the Government of the United States, asks this court to take thought of all that happened in the past years preceding and since the beginning of World War I, that culminated in what the defense now says, in effect, is the unjustifiable attitude on the part of the Government of the United States of America.

The offer of this defense, either by way of a defense or extenuating circumstances or in mitigation is shocking to me, at least, and I therefore ask the court to bear with me for a few minutes more.

It is perhaps not inappropriate to remark at this point that neither the Government of the United States of America nor the American people are on trial before this court, nor are any of the Allied powers.

I have a few more remarks:-- Since the Nuernberg Judgment is before this court, the court having taken judicial notice thereof, it might not also be inappropriate to point out the evidence in that case was a clear and concise indictment of all that Germany did from the time, at least, when the concept of Nazism was born.

Planning and preparation are essential to the making of war, particularly aggressive war. In the opinion of the Nuernberg Tribunal, aggressive war is a crime under international law. According to the indictment, aggressive action was planned by Germany and carried out against Austria and Czechoslovakia in 1936 and 1938, followed by the planning and waging of war against Poland, Denmark, Norway, Belgium, Netherlands, Yugoslavia, Greece, France, England, Russia and then persuading Japan to do the same thing against us.

The Fuehrer said, and I read from page 1684-3 of the Judgment:

> "Everybody shall have to make a point of it that we were determined from the beginning to fight the Western Powers. Struggle for life or death . . . destruction of Poland in the foreground. The aim is elimination of living forces, not the arrival at a certain line. Even if war should break out in the West, the destruction of Poland shall be the primary objective. I shall give a propagandist cause for starting the war -- never mind whether it be plausible

Tr 172 pls Feb 17

[illegible] nation, the terrorism of the seven years, into unbelievable wars [illegible]. The victor shall not be asked later on whether we told the truth or not. In starting and making a war,

[illegible] the Right is not supreme, but Victory. [illegible] 16757 of the world not like to remind the court that Hitler could not make aggression possible by himself. He had to have the cooperation of statesmen, military leaders, diplomats and business men. Had they resigned in their posts by a dictator does not absolve them from responsibility for their acts. These are clear words which express our understanding at the time they were assigned to these terms and after hearing all the evidence. Remember as we study the judgment where all of these things are discussed "To initiate a war of aggression, therefore, is not only an international crime; it is the supreme international crime differing only from other war crimes in that it contains within itself the accumulated evil of the whole."

(Nuremberg Judgment 16070) Into the war, over five million human beings [illegible]. If the court will again look at the Nuremberg judgment which will give to the court for its convenience, particularly pages 16019 and 16068, some of these shocking things will be recalled.

Germany went a step further and withdrew from the International Disarmament Conference and the League of Nations and openly violated the Rhineland Pact. (See pages 16016 and 16069 of the Nuremberg Judgment) the court also read pages 16015 to 16016 of the Nuremberg Judgment.

The twenty-one remaining leaders of the remaining leaders of the Nazi state were indicted at Nuremberg on four counts. The first was the common plan or conspiracy which in fact includes the other three charges of criminality. The common plan or conspiracy count states that these men

[illegible] what it today as raw material, as [illegible]. That is now

[illegible] prisoners died in [illegible] and hundreds of thousands of unknown planned consciously for a period of years to wage aggressive war and to employ -- in the event of such war -- every criminal means they could devise in violation of international treaties and agreements and national law, to insure victory. [illegible] digging and [illegible] only insofar as the [illegible] our purpose is finished. (See pages 16000 and 16011 of the Judgment.)

Their common plan began in the beer halls of Munich and proceeded through the Nazi seizure of power in Germany through the Roehm Purge and the blood bath (see page 16011 of the Judgment) with which we are familiar, continued with secret rearming and the deformation of the life of the German nation, the perversion of the German people, into undeclared wars whose full and monstrous horror has been exposed for the first time in the unsifted documents of that trial. (Please see page 16797 of the Judgment) The common plan was stopped forcibly by your A[illegible] Forces; otherwise you and I and the American defense counsels would all be living according to that common plan today. (See page 16825 of the Judgment)

The Germans organized their crimes as if they were running a vast industry, nothing was forgotten. (Will the court please read pages 16825 to 16827 of the Nuremberg Judgment where all of these things are admirably described.)

Sauckel, one of the Nuremberg defendants, admitted that under his supervision, preceding our entry into the war, over five million human beings were deported into forced labor. (See page 17068 of the Judgment)

About the destruction of Norway; will the court please read page 17027 of the Nuremberg Judgment.

[illegible] the court read what Frank had to say on page 17000 of the Judgment and what Streicher said on pages 17009-17010 and what Doenitz and Raeder said about the U-Boat problem, pages 17028 to 17034. And will the court also read pages 16918 to 16924 of the Nuremberg Judgment?

On the subject of Russian prisoners of war, Himmler said in 1943:

> "At the time we did not value the mass of humanity as we value it today as raw material, as labor. What is now deplorable by reason of the loss of labor is that the prisoners died in tens and hundreds of thousands of exhaustion and hunger."

And Himmler further said:

> "Whether 10,000 Russian females fall from exhaustion while digging an antitank ditch interests me only insofar as the antitank ditch for Germany is finished." (See pages 16900 and 16911 of the Judgment.)

And so it goes on and on, the disgusting record of brutality and murder. Frank, one of the defendants at the Nuernberg trial, said in 1941: "As a matter of principle we shall have pity only for the German people and for no one else in the world."

The crimes against humanity proven at the Nuernberg trial were the extermination of whole peoples and races or the attempted extermination of whole peoples and races.

They killed one-third of the population of Poland and two-thirds of all the Jews of Europe. They tried systematically to murder the intelligentsia in occupied countries because these men would carry on the tradition of their people and keep alive their love of freedom.

They organized death as a mass industry: Auschwitz, Belsen, Treblinka, Mauthausen, Sachsenhausen, Flossenburg, Neuengarme, Gusin, Natzweiler, Lublin, Buchenwald, Dachau, in which over four million people were murdered. (See Judgment, page 16991) Will the court also read page 16886 of the Judgment?

Frank said on page 16899 of the Judgment:

> "If I wished to order that one should hang up posters about every seven Poles shot, there would not be enough forests in Poland with which to make the paper for these posters."

These are but reminders of what preceded air warfare in which we, the American Government, by our army and Air Force, played a forceful part.

Nevertheless, and this I say in conclusion, these accused now come in here and in my opinion mock this court of the American Government by offering for our consideration a defense, whether it be absolute or in mitigation, that they were justified, as late as 1944 and 1945, in murdering unarmed prisoners of war.

PRESIDENT: Court will recess until tomorrow morning.

(Whereupon at 1706 hours the court recessed until 0900, 18 February 1947.)

CA/GI 13 Legal Form No. 8

MILITARY GOVERNMENT COURT

1177

CASE RECORD. Pages 1170 - 1235

(19)

Case No. Superior Orders

*~~Summary~~
*~~Intermediate~~ Military Court.
*General

Place DACHAU, GERMANY

Date 18 FEBRUARY 194 7

Prosecutor Lt. Col. Dwinell

Defence Counsel Lt.Col. Berman
Rudolf M. Nathanson

Interpreter Herbert B. Rosenstock

Reporter Patricia Stewart, Evelyn Cohen, Sally Rose Hayett, John McDonald, Paula Silverman, Peter DiCurti

~~Members of Court~~

WITNESSES:

ARTHUR FUEHR
MICHAEL KLEIN
ADOLF KAHN
JULIUS LOWENTHAL
CLAIRE GUTTMAN
KARL MANNES
KARL FRANZ STATTMAN

Accused JURGEN STROOP, et al

Address Sex Age

	First Charge	Second Charge
Pleas
Findings
Previous Convictions

Sentence
- Imprisonment
  - Term
  - Beginning 194
- Fine
  - Amount
  - To be paid before 194 or in case of default of payment to serve a *further term of imprisonment.

Charge Sheet and Record of Testimony are annexed hereto.

(Signature of member of court.)

REVIEW

Action of Reviewing Authority

(Signature of reviewing authority)

*Strike out words not applicable.

RECORD OF TESTIMONY

in trial of

THE UNITED STATES versus JOSEPH STROOP, et al

by

GENERAL MILITARY GOVERNMENT COURT

tried at

DACHAU, GERMANY BEGINNING 10 JANUARY 1947

1st FEBRUARY 1947 Pages 1170 - 1283

TESTIMONY

	Direct	Cross	Redirect	Recross
ARTHUR FURER	~~1182~~	~~1183~~	1198
CLAIRE GUTTMAN	1201	1205
KARL MEES	1206	1212	1215
MICHAEL KLEIN	1213	1215
ADOLF KAHN	1216	1217
JULIUS LOWENTHAL	1217	1218	1219
KARL FRANZ STATTMANN	1228

EXHIBITS

No.	Description	Marked	Received
D-15	Book, Winthrop's Military Law & Precedents - 2nd Edition - Volumes 1 and 2	1221	Not received
D-16	Extract from D-15	1221	Not received
D-17	Extract from D-15	1221	Not received

Tabo 173 - 80
2-18-47;JCMcD;1

Camp Dachau, Germany

18 February 1947

MORNING SESSION

(Whereupon the court reconvened at 0900 hours.)

PRESIDENT: Court will come to order.

PROSECUTION: May it please the court, let the record show that all the members of the court, all the members of the prosecution, all the members of the defense except Dr. Trost, who is absent sick, all of the accused, the reporter and interpreter, are present.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: May it please the court, I would like to reply briefly, I hope, to the argument advanced by the prosecution at the end of yesterday's session. Before I go into that I would like to be sure that I understand, or rather that the defense understands, the question which is before the court.

Yesterday two motions were made, one that the defense be ordered to state the ground upon which certain evidence was offered. That motion was ruled upon by the court, as we understand it, to the effect that the defense would not be obliged to go beyond the statement which I, for the defense, made to the court, that that evidence was offered, among other grounds, for the purpose of mitigation. And then a motion was made to strike that evidence out on the ground that it was not admissible, either by way of defense or by way of mitigation. That is the motion now before the court, and that is the subject to which I now desire to address myself.

We listened yesterday with a great deal of interest to the argument of the prosecution, and I say with all due respect, may it please the court, that after it was finished, and even after a great deal of thinking about it last night, I still fail to see or understand the relevancy or pertinency of most of it to the question at hand.

We representing the accused have never intended to raise any question involving the war guilt of certain leaders of the German people or of certain organizations or groups. That is not an issue in this case. That issue was decided by the consciences of free peoples a long time ago. That conscientious conviction was cast into legal terminology by the Nuernberg decision. It is not a question at all, and most of it was adduced, as we understood it, to proving that the German people and the German leadership had been guilty of war crimes.

The second purpose of the address, as we understood it, was to repel in advance an anticipated attack by the defense on the President of the United States or upon the leadership of the American Army or upon the strategy and tactics of the Air Corps. If that was its reason, the defense states that it was unnecessary to advance the argument for that purpose. We have never entertained an intent to attack in any way the leadership of the President of the United States or the Allied Forces or the tactics or strategy of the Air Corps. We do not have to. However, it is almost a self-evident matter that despite the leadership of the German Army and the criminality of some of its leaders, there were men in the German Army who fought a chivalrous war, according to the rules of warfare.

Without attacking in any way the leadership or the tactics or strategy of the American or Allied Forces, it is no reflection at all to say that all the men who took to the air or fought on the ground were not Sir Galahads, and that some of them did violate the laws of war. That is all our position requires us to take, and that is the furthest our position does take.

Despite the Nuernberg decision and the conscience of the world, may it please the court, that certain individuals and certain organizations were guilty of the most horrible crimes the world has ever seen--despite that fact, certain leaders of the German people were found not guilty at Nuernberg and certain organizations were found not guilty at Nuernberg, which axiomatically leads to the conclusion that everybody in Germany was not proven to be a war criminal, and, consequently, are entitled to the presumption of innocence of war crimes.

Despite that finding, the Nuernberg decision, as the prosecution says, admitted evidence of what was called reprisal, by way of mitigation, and that should seem to be binding upon this court if we offer it by way of mitigation. Furthermore, cases which have been tried since Nuernberg have settled one additional proposition, and that is the fact that despite the guilt of the leadership of some people in the German Army, that guilt did not deprive other members of the army of the defense of reprisals. The latest case is the case of General von Mackensen and one of his friends, who were tried in Italy, not for ordering and executing reprisals, but only for ordering and executing excessive reprisals.

Unless I am mistaken, General Kesselring is now being put to trial, not because he ordered reprisals but because he ordered excessive reprisals. I do not know whether it was 10 to 1 or 100 to 1, but the defense of reprisal was not taken away from him even in the charge, because the charge is excessive reprisals.

So there is authority for the defense to put in evidence of this kind in mitigation and evidence of this kind by way of reprisals.

May it please the court, this evidence is being offered. We are going to meet the situation raised and uncover our complete case to the court, not as we will prove it but as we hope to prove it, provided the evidence we have and the evidence we are trying to produce enables us to meet those two propositions.

I submit, may it please the court, that whereas the defense could not compel the prosecution at the beginning of its case to elect the theory upon which it put the accused to trial, but could put in all the evidence it had on two or three or a half a dozen theories of guilt, and then leave it to the court to decide what the evidence proved and what the evidence failed to substantiate, we have the same right to do the same thing--to put before the court all evidence by way of mitigation, by way of showing the intent in the minds of these people, what they thought--what they reasonably thought about the propriety of what they did.

When this court comes to judge these men it is going to judge them upon what they did in the light of what they thought they had a right to do as reasonable men. If this court should believe that any one of these men reasonably believed that what he did was right, I venture to assert now to this court that not a single member of this court would vote for a verdict or a finding of guilty of murder, if you believe that he reasonably thought he was right in doing what he did.

We have a right to produce any evidence which tends to establish before this court the reasonableness of what these people did, not in our minds, but in their minds. Whereas they might be found guilty of things which you and I would not do, yet if we believe that they reasonably did what they thought was right, you would have to find them not guilty.

May it please the court, the evidence we have to offer we offer for a still further ground, one by way of mitigation, one by way of legitimate reprisals, one by way of showing what these people reasonably thought, and the fourth is an absolute defense on the theory that this was not reprisal at all but legitimate warfare.

The court must bear in mind from the evidence which has gone in that at this time Himmler was in command, not only of the police on both sides of the chart, but in command of the internal defense of Germany and the reserve army of Germany, and that reserve army consisted of all the German people--the lame, the blind, the halt, the one-eyed, the man with shrapnel in his brain, the police, and the civilians. They were all part of the internal defense of Germany.

The court will also bear in mind that there are times and conditions and circumstances wherein it is perfectly legal for civilian populations to engage in warfare--offensive warfare, defensive warfare, passive defense, and active defense. There are such times, and this, we contend, was one of those times, when what was left to Germany was mobilized for its last stand. The circumstances which bear that out are the well known war situation, for one, and there is one other aspect to it too.

We want to produce evidence--a substantial amount of evidence--there has to be a substantial amount of evidence to be worth the effort it is taking--to show that there was warfare conducted by certain elements of the Air Force which did not play the game according to the rules laid down for them by their superiors,--let us make thatplain,--and who did engage in this business of strafing civilians in the open fields and non-military targets, and leaving a people subjected to that sort of thing in this situation: They could not counterattack, they could not reach them, they could not fire on them, they could not surrender to them, they had nothing they could do except to trust to God and luck to get away from this sort of thing.

And so they did carry out the only type of warfare or defense which was available to them under the circumstances, and that was to handle those representatives of that illegal sort of thing who came into their hands. That, we contend, is not reprisals, it is not murder, but it is warfare, the only kind left to them unless they were to submit without any reaction whatsoever.

Ga 178 - 80
8-18-47;JCMcD;7

There was some talk by the prosecution of individual reprisals and that no individual has a right to execute a reprisal by himself. There is no doubt that this whole business was organized by those men in control of the German people and that it covered the entire length and breadth of what remained under the control of those in control of the German people. They laid down the rule and passed it down. The only thing that happened was that the reprisals that were ordered by the government, or what to them was the government, were carried out by one or two or three individuals instead of by squads and by companies and battalions and regiments. That is the only difference, and it makes no difference.

May it please the court, there is one other thing that I would like to address myself to, and that is with respect to the question of mitigation. How far can we go in offering evidence of mitigation? Shall Fuchs, for instance, be limited to testifying as to what his family went through, or can he testify, in addition to that, what he saw with his own eyes as to what other families went through, known to him and strangers to him? Or can he go farther than that? Can he rely on what might be termed propaganda--the stuff that Goebbels hashed out out of the devil's code? We submit, may it please the court, that he can. He could come in and say, or anybody else involved could come in and say, "I read that stuff. I heard it on the radio. I heard talk of it in the streets. I believed it."

Do the things that motivate men have to be real? Do the things which affect men's reason have to be real? There are more people in insane institutions today driven there by fancied things, figments of their own imagination, but which are powerful enough to disease them and result in their incarceration in institutions for the insane.

This business here is not a strange thing to us--the pressure these people worked under. We had a first-class imitation in Louisiana under Huey Long. If they as reasonable people believed the guff that was handed out to them, they are no different from some of our own people, who believe the guff they read in some political newspapers. I venture to assert that every member of the court has felt as I have dozens of times in my life when listening to political arguments of some of my friends and the things they will tell you as truth. You would swear before God that it was the purest hokum. They believed it. And so, to save your own sanity, you stopped arguing with them. The same thing might well be true here. Did they believe it or didn't they believe it? Was it a reasonable thing for them to believe or wasn't it? If it was it should come in for two reasons: one on the question of the reasonableness of their belief and the rightness of what they did, and the propriety and justification for what they did, and also on the question of mitigation.

We could argue on all kinds of questions, but I think I have presumed enough now on the time and patience of the court. When does a man become a prisoner of war? What good would it do to argue that? The question of reprisals and counter-reprisals and still counter-reprisals--what is the good of that?

It is a simple situation which we argue before this court, and that is our right to produce this evidence for the benefit of these accused, without the slightest desire to attack or reflect upon the leadership of the nation to which we belong, or at least to which the American counsel belong. We can do that by attacking the actions of individuals. That is all we propose to do. We propose to show what actually took place, for purposes of mitigation, for such defense as reprisal may offer to this court after it has heard the testimony, on the question of the reasonableness of their belief as to what they did, and on this theory of warfare, the validity of which I do not know.

It is something which has come to our minds, and we are going to present it to the court for whatever the court sees fit to do with it when the case is over.

All we are asking is a chance to produce what evidence we can for the court to consider in the light of whatever value the court may give to it, both as matters of fact and as questions of law.

PROSECUTION: When the prosecution resisted the offer of proof made by the defense, leading to the affirmative defense of reprisal, either directly as an affirmative defense or in extenuation, we resisted for the reasons which we stated yesterday, but it appears now that the defense is beginning to go far afield. Mitigation, completely as a proof, has its place in these trials at a later time, especially when the theory is involved that what they did is because they reasonably thought it was correct. That is strictly a matter of mitigation to be considered by this court only after the facts in the case have been weighed and the judgment rendered.

The court will recall that I pointed out yesterday that at the Nuernberg trial, Dr. Exner proposed his theories on reprisal and the court concluded to consider it at a later time in mitigation. Now, it is quite apparent from reading the judgment, that they disregarded that theory and gave it little or no weight whatever. That is apparent from the reading of the judgment as a whole and from the fact that the twelve principal military leaders were sentenced to death.

Now, it appears from the remarks of the defense that the issue has narrowed down to this: -- that they desire to show individual violations of the laws of war by certain individual members of the American Army Air Force. To say the least, it is a novel principle of law when an accused is charged with a crime by a state or government, for that accused to come in and offer as a defense the individual wrongs of the agents of that government that brings them to trial. Assuming that those people, those agents of our government, committed offenses -- assuming that for the purposes of this argument, then I will narrow it further down to one issue -- two wrongs never made a right.

One final remark in answer to the defense, which is a matter that was discussed yesterday in my argument, and I would like to remind the court that this case, if it has any justifiable theory of reprisal as a defense, must come down to the question which the facts show to be a question of individual reprisal, and the law is clear, very clear on that subject. Individual reprisal against prisoners of war -- each of the nine men in this case throughout the ten charges, -- each of the nine American soldiers who were killed, -- each and every one of those nine men were unarmed prisoners of war, and that is clear. We have proven in each one of those charges that they were killed by the efforts of one or two or three men who took reprisal against prisoners of war in violation of the law, which has been stated before by our field manual, and which was stated by the Nuernberg judgment. Mr. Piney gave his opinion, which the court immediately accepted, -- that that law was unquestionably sound and correct and binding on all of us.

Nothing further from the prosecution.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: May it please the court, there is little that I would like to add because I think the court has all the assistance it wants in deciding this issue.

The prosecution makes the statement that we are going far afield. As a matter of fact, we have not even gone to bat yet. One witness slips out a statement about his children being in a dugout and we are asked to explain whether his testimony is in mitigation or justifiable reprisal. We ourselves do not know. We do not know yet what we are going to be able to show us. Now, if the court please, if this evidence is admissible for any reason at all, it has to be received, and then when the case is over, I can get up and state that that evidence which is received has such-and-such an effect and such-and-such a result. If the court decides it is a lot of "hoah-tuah" and that it is a lot of hokum, the court does not have to justifiably explain its decision. I can argue that you have to receive it as a complete defense, but when you come to decide and decide that it is nonsense, and it has to go that way, it does not mean we cannot offer it for some other reason. If it is illegitimate for one reason, we can argue that it is legitimate for another reason.

The only reason we are putting in this evidence by way of stipulation is because we were told we could not put it in after the findings; we had to put it in before the findings. It is only sensible that we are going to produce such evidence when the case is on trial and not put in evidence in stipulation in bulk and have the court sort it out in its mind. We are proceeding in an orderly fashion.

The court, in considering the motion, will naturally, of course, make a ruling. That ruling will either permit us to go ahead and offer other evidence or will limit our right to offer evidence of a particular kind. So, I request that the court consider the remarks I made this morning as to the type of evidence we expect to offer and the purposes for which it is offered, so that if the court comes in and instructs us, the record already contains the offer of proof and the purposes for which the offer of proof was made, that when this record goes up, the reviewing authorities will have a complete story in front of them.

MR. HART: Court will be closed.

(Thereupon at 0955 hours the court was closed.)

Tr 175-ge-60-6/18-1

(Whereupon the court opened at 1140 hours.)

PRESIDENT: Court will come to order.

PROSECUTION: May it please the court, let the record show that all the members of the court; all the members of the prosecution; all the members of the defense, except Dr. Trost, who is absent duty; all of the accused; the reporter and interpreter are present.

PRESIDENT: The court will admit evidence of the character sought to be introduced by the defense and will consider it as being offered in mitigation or as required by the accused, providing it is not irrelevant, immaterial or otherwise incompetent. The weight that should be given this or similar evidence will be reserved for future consideration. The court already has common knowledge of the propaganda that was disseminated generally by the German Government and further evidence of this nature is deemed unnecessary. Motion of the prosecution to strike is denied.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: May it please the court, while the court was in recess, personnel of the prosecution and defense were furnished additions and changes to the manual for the trial of cases before courts such as this. One of the changes deals with the administration of oaths, and it says that the accused may elect to make either a sworn or unsworn statement. These changes are dated 1 February 1949. Acting on this change, we will now ask permission to administer an oath to Fusso.

PRESIDENT: Permission is granted.

ARTHUR FUSSO, an accused, voluntarily resumed the stand in his own behalf, being first duly sworn, and testified through an interpreter as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY DEFENSE COUNSEL:

Q Do you have in mind the evidence you have already given to this court as a witness, the questions that were asked you and the answers that were given? Do you have all of that in mind?

A Yes.

Q Was the testimony you have and the answers you gave to these your questions directed to you the truth?

A Yes.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Your witness.

CROSS EXAMINATION

CROSS EXAMINATION:

Q Fuehr, when did you first join the SS?

A 1932.

Q And when did you become a member of the Gestapo?

A 1937.

Q Did you remain a member of both of those organizations until the end of the war?

A Yes.

Q Yesterday, you were asked by Colonel Herman if you had ever heard of any of the orders that were issued or any of the discussions that were had about the treatment of Allied fliers, and you answered "No," is that correct?

A Yes.

Q Did you ever read a German publication called "Das Reich"?

A No.

Q You have never seen a copy of that newspaper?

A No.

Q Did you ever read any of Dr. Goebbels' articles that were printed in other German newspapers?

A No.

Q Did you own a radio back before the end of the war?

A I listened to the radio, but I didn't hear this from Goebbels.

Q Did you hear it from any other source than Dr. Goebbels?

Ta 275-ps-60-2/18-3

A No.

Q Do you have very much enjoyment to have during the proceedings of this trial about the going on in Germany back in 1944 and 1945, have you?

A [illegible]

Q You have testified about the automobile that was used to take this flight out where he was shot in Czechoslovakia [illegible] another Pilot. Was the same automobile used on both occasions?

A Yes, [illegible]

Q What was the make of that automobile?

A BMW, [illegible]

Q What model was it?

A Model 1939.

Q I hand you a document which has been introduced in evidence as Prosecution Exhibit 64 and ask you to examine this document and tell the court what it is. [illegible]

A I wrote this, [illegible]

Q When? [illegible]

A On the 4th of February, 1946. [illegible]

Q Is that declaration made by you in your own handwriting? Does that speak the truth? [illegible]

A Yes, it [illegible]

Q Now, I hand you another document that has been introduced in Prosecution Exhibit 65 and ask you to examine this document and tell the court what it is. [illegible]

A This, too, is a statement by me, but I didn't write it.

Q Who wrote that? [illegible]

A I only signed it.

Q Can you read it? [illegible]

A Of course.

Q Did you read it before you signed it?

A Yes, I read it, but very quickly.

Q Do you want to read it now before I ask you some questions about it?

A Yes.

CAPTAIN VANCE: May it please the court, let the record indicate that the accused Fosler has spent the last four minutes reading the exhibit.

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q At the time this statement, Prosecution Exhibit 65, was written and signed by you, were you sworn at that time to speak the truth?

A But I told my interrogating officer, Mr. Tell, that I have to make corrections, this was not entirely correct, but Mr. Tell told me I should do this in front of the court, it wouldn't be so important right now. It was sufficient for him when I admitted that I had shot in the second case.

Q Now, will you answer the question? When you signed this statement, did you swear to it, and did you swear to it before Major John P. Hagner?

A I like to say the following to the court: I was on the flight for five months with my family, and in these five months, I had lived like a dog and my nerves were completely gone to pieces. Then my wife was taken into custody and the children were all on their own. I reported myself to the Military Police at Frankfurt. Then I heard that my wife was taken into custody. Then in Frankfurt, at Bonameshaus, I came into custody, in the prisoners of the Americans. Three days later, I was called at 1:30 during the night and was brought to Wiesbaden.

CAPTAIN VANCE: May it please the court, I move to strike that answer. It is not in response to my question. I asked this witness a simple question, if he swore to this statement, which can be answered yes or no, and I move that it be physically stricken from the record.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I agree it is not responsive, but he would be making the same statement afterwards in explanation. We might as well let it stay in the record now.

PRESIDENT: Motion to strike is denied.

CAPTAIN VANCE: Wait a minute, I am asking the questions. I am objecting to him sitting here and talking at length during my cross examination. I think the court should instruct him.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: My only answer is this: He is half way down the line on this statement, which we admit is not quite responsive. We might just as well let him finish.

PRESIDENT: This evidence should be brought out in the proper manner, and he will answer the questions of the prosecution.

QUESTION BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q Now, will you answer the question, whether or not you swore to the truthfulness of this statement?

A Yes.

Q What was that happened at 1:30 at night that you were talking about?

A When I was taken from Frankfurt to Wiesbaden.

Q This statement was not taken at 1:30 at night, was it?

A No.

Q Do you remember my being present with Mr. Till and Luke Rogers at the time you were questioned in the Wiesbaden jail?

A Yes.

Q Now, does this statement contain the truth, yes or no?

A No.

PRESIDENT: Court will recess until 1:30.

(Whereupon the court recessed at 1200 hours.)

End ta 175
pls fols

SO Ta 176
pls/1

AFTERNOON SESSION

(Whereupon the court reconvened at 1330 hours.)

PRESIDENT: Court will come to order.

PROSECUTION: If it please the court, let the record show that all the members of the court; all the members of the prosecution; all the members of the defense except Dr. Trost who is absent sick; all the accused; the reporter and interpreter are present.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Let the record indicate that the accused, Fuehr, resumes the stand and I ask that he be reminded he is still under oath.

ARTHUR FUEHR, an accused, resumed the stand, and being reminded he was still under oath, testified further through an interpreter as follows:

CROSS EXAMINATION (continued)

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q Fuehr, I hand you Prosecution Exhibit 65 again, which you have described as being your statement and I call your attention to certain corrections throughout the statement. The initials "AF" appear by these corrections. Tell the court what that "AF" is.

A "AF" that's my name.

Q Are those your initials?

A "AF", yes.

Q I notice that appears two times on the first sheet, two times on the second sheet, four times on the next sheet, three or four times on the next sheet. Are these your initials on all of these sheets?

A Initials?

Q Yes, your initials. Are these your initials contained on these various sheets?

A Yes.

Q You read this statement before these corrections were made and initialed by you?

A Yes, but I'd like to say something about that.

Q You can say later. Now, if you will just answer my questions, please --

A Yes.

Q Fuehr, after this statement was written down in the Wiesbaden jail by Mr. Kurt Teil who writes the German language, you signed and swore to the statement and then told myself, Major Rogers and Mr. Tiel you would like to make another statement, is that correct?

A I had told that only to Tiel.

Q All right. After you told that to Tiel you were then furnished with paper and pencil and left alone and you wrote this second statement in your own handwriting which was made by you on the same date, is that correct?

A No.

Q Did you make it on some other date?

A Before that I made the first one first. He wanted to get away fast and he said, "Write it down quickly."

Q You wrote the one you wrote before the second one was written, is that right?

A Yes.

Q Did he leave or stay there and take the second statement?

A He left during the first statement and a few days later I made the other one.

Q Look at both of these statements and see if they weren't made on the same day?

A I made this one (indicating) in the office and this one (indicating) down in the cell and I put this date down because I had to put the same date down, too. Because I thought that is the date of the first statement I had made.

(Fuehr-cross)

Q Now wait a minute. If the one you made you wrote first, how did you pick out the date to write on the second one?

A The date? I didn't invent one.

Q Well, you put this date on here in your own handwriting, didn't you?

A On the first one.

Q So if you wanted to use the same date -- the other one had already been made, had it not?

A Not, it wasn't written.

Q Now, this statement that you gave -- were you forced with any threats, pressure or was anything done to you to cause you to make this statement?

A No, there was no pressure, nor was there any force.

Q I want to get down to October 19, 1944. Did Hoehler go with you to Trummler's office on that day when Trummler gave you the order in reference to shooting this flier?

A No.

Q You know in this statement you stated that he did go with you, is that right?

A Yes, I wrote that in the statement.

Q Why did you say that?

A I explained that before. My nerves were completely shot and I was glad that it was over.

Q Fuehr, were you confused at the time you made that statement or were you deliberately lying about it?

A I was confused. The first thing I had to do was to get straight in my mind the position I was in there. In the first place my family was in the streets without any quarters.

Q At that time you had not been confronted with the accused, Koehler, had you?

A No.

Q And at that time you were telling the investigator the story, weren't you, as to what happened?

A Yes, briefly.

Q Who did go with you on that day to see Dr. Trumpler?

A Freundt.

Q Why were you and Freundt selected to go and see Dr. Trumpler?

A I don't know that.

Q Who sent you to see Dr. Trumpler?

A Freundt came up in my apartment and called for me. It was shortly after noon.

Q So the only reason you went to Dr. Trumpler's office was because Freundt wanted you to do so, wasn't it?

A Freundt told me that we had to see Colonel Trumpler right away.

Q What else did he say?

A He didn't say anything else. I just put on my clothes and went along.

Q When you got to Dr. Trumpler's office, who was there?

A In the anteroom his secretary was sitting and we went into the office of Dr. Trumpler.

Q As best you can remember, Fuehr, tell us exactly what Dr. Trumpler told you and Koehler.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I pray the court's judgment. I object to that question.

CAPTAIN VANCE: What is wrong with it? Oh, yes, you are right. I'd like to correct it. Make it "Freundt".

(Fuehr-green)

THE WITNESS: We reported to Colonel Trumpler in the military manner. We received the following order: "In my office building there is an American flier. On his way in the direction of Frankfurt and Oberursel he will be shot tonight and he will be turned over to the nearest gendarme who will see to it that he is buried."

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN WARCH:

Q Did he say anything else?

A No. We did an about face and went out.

Q Whom did he say was to shoot the flier?

A We received this order together.

Q Did he say who was to shoot the flier?

A No, he didn't say that.

Q Didhe say that Koehler was supposed to go on this trip?

A No.

Q After it got dark did you receive the order from Freundt to bring the car around to Dr. Trumpler's office?

A Not behind the office, in front of the office. Freundt told me, "Take your car and drive it up in front of Colonel Trumpler's office."

Q Did you have to do what Freundt told you?

A Well, of course. We had had the order to drive up there that night.

Q I am talking about when Freundt was there. Dr. Trumpler wasn't around at that time, was he?

A Well, of course he told me, "Drive your car up there", so I had to drive it up there.

Q Did Freundt give you an order and did you have to obey his order?

(Fuehr-cross)

A No.

Q But you did obey it?

A Well, driving the car up -- every official who ever left said, "Drive a car up."

Q On that date, when is the first time you saw Koehler?

A As he came out of Colonel Trummler's office with the flier.

Q The first time that you know he had anything to do with this killing job, Koehler had the flier in his possession, is that right?

A No, no. He received this order at noon.

Q Let's back up again. When is the first time you saw Koehler on that day?

A In the evening when I took the car out of the garage and drove it up to the front of Colonel Trummler's office.

Q Did Koehler have the American flier with him at that time?

A No.

Q Was Koehler alone or was he with anyone?

A When I went over to Colonel Trummler's office?

Q At the first time you saw Koehler on that date is what we are talking about.

A At that time Fraundt and Koehler went up to Colonel Trummler's office.

Q How did they get from where they worked to Colonel Trummler's office? Did they walk or did they go with you in the car?

A Our office is the house next to Colonel Trummler's office. It was the house of the Gestapo, and I took the car out of the garage and around the gate and that is where Colonel Trummler's office was.

Q Were Koehler and Fraundt going into Colonel Trummler's office when you first saw them or were they coming out of Colonel Trummler's office?

(Fuehr-cross)

A They walked ahead and I drove my car behind them without them. They were walking and I was driving.

Q Did the two of them go into Colonel Trummler's headquarters?

A Yes.

Q You don't know what took place while they were in Colonel Trummler's office, do you?

A No, a very short time afterward, that was a few moments only, they came back out and had the flier with them.

Q Was Hoehler wearing a pistol at that time?

A I didn't see it.

Q Was Fraundt wearing a pistol at that time?

A He was wearing a uniform with a pistol holster, yes.

Q Tell me again what happened when you stopped the car at Wandersmann.

A This Wandersmann is about twelve kilometers outside of Wiesbaden and on the way Fraund told me, "When I nudge you, that will be the sign for you to stop." I stopped the car, took the ignition key out and got out. I went up to the hood of the car and opened up the hood and tinkered around the motor. I went back one more time and told Fraundt to get my flashlight out of the glove compartment and then I did some more work on the motor. A few seconds later several shots were fired. I went around the car and saw the flier lying on the ground dead.

Q Who fired the shots?

A Well, I didn't.

Q Who did?

A Hoehler had been sitting in the car, he remained sitting in the car. He was sitting in the back of the car as I went back there. He was still sitting back there behind my seat.

(Fuehr-cross)

Q You say that Koehler did not get out of the car, is that what you mean?

A No, Koehler did not get out.

Q Now I want to read you a paragraph of your statement on Prosecution Exhibit 65A and want you to listen to it:

"I drove the car on the Reichsstrasse from Wiesbaden in the direction of Frankfurt on Main. About a distance of twelve kilometers from Wiesbaden I stopped the car on the above mentioned road. The point of stopping was the Wanderermuseum. Both officials, Wilhelm Koehler and Richard Fraundt got out of the car with the flier. I turned the car around. Suddenly I heard shooting. I could not observe whether several shots were fired because the motor of my car had been running. I also did not ask about it. Besides, at the same time there was an air raid alarm and bomber formations were flying above us. The aviator lay dead on the ground two or three meters distance from the edge of the road."

Q Do you remember saying that in this statement?

A Yes.

Q Why did you tell that story?

A Well, it had been a year and a half.

Q Well, it's been longer than that nowsince your telling this story. Today it has been two and a half years.

A Yes, and I did calm down some in this period, too, and I had a chance to remember the matter as it really did happen.

Q Do you think your memory is better today than it was a year ago, is that correct?

A Yes, my nerves were pretty well down at that time. In the first place, the constant air attacks and then with my family on the move.

Q At the time you made this statement you hadn't had an opportunity to confer with Koehler, had you?

A No.

(Fuehr-cross)

Q And of course since this trial has begun you have had plenty of opportunity to talk to him about this?

A Not so much.

Q Well, have you discussed it?

A Yes, of course, but not about this matter. At the time this was read here in court I didn't even know what I had written anymore.

Q [illegible] the time of the [illegible] flyer?

A [illegible] Colonel Trumbler's office, and the way the orders read, there was one way you could look at it; if we didn't we'd be punished.

Q Did Mr. Trumbler tell you anything about expecting to receive another [illegible] flyer, were you not?

Q Who did Mr. Trumbler tell you about keeping this matter highly secret? You knew that they had another flyer in custody, did you not?

A All he said was there will be no talking about this. I went up there [illegible] why he didn't want any talking about it?

A It was the same thing as to that original business was not different, was it?

Q Certainly not that kind of business, that is right isn't it?

A [illegible] to our superiors, I believe that is what you took [illegible] down into the cellar, is that right?

Q Now it will be [illegible] December, 1944. I believe you said that you were working on [illegible] and you got a message sometime in December, that Mr. Trumbler, is that right?

A Yes. I did give it to him.

Q [illegible] to go see Mr. Trumbler on this occasion?

A Trumbler came over to my garage and said, "Come on let's go.", and I went over to my place and washed up a little bit and I went over to see Colonel Trumbler.

Q Did you know what you were going to see Colonel Trumbler about?

A No. [illegible] from the front.

Q Why did you say on direct examination, "I washed up, put on my coat and pistol and went to see Mr. Trumbler." You said that, didn't you?

A Yes. Into the body of the American pilot?

A Yes, I saw his uniform and I held my pistol at the height of his [illegible] we always had to report to our superiors in the military manner.

(Fuehr-Cross) You are not saying that you shot this American flyer are you?

(Fuehr-Cross)

Q Did you always have to report with a pistol on you?

A Always. In fact even when we [illegible] on the way we were checked to see if we had our pistols on us and if we didn't we'd be punished.

Q At the time you went to Mr. Brundige you were expecting to receive another order to kill another flyer, were you not?

A No.

Q You knew that they had another flyer in custody, did you not?

A I didn't know that either. I only knew that when I went up there he was sitting there.

Q You knew that would have happened to all flyers that were there in the office, didn't you?

A No, I didn't know that.

Q After you reported up there I believe that that afternoon you took the flyer down into the cellar, is that right?

A Yes, that is right.

Q You were very kind to this flyer and I believe you said you gave him a cigarette?

A Yes, I did give it to him.

Q You knew right then that later that day you were going to kill him, didn't you?

A Yes, I knew that.

Q And did kill him?

A I fired one shot from the front.

Q Into the body of the American pilot?

A It was dark.

Q You could see him couldn't you?

A Yes, I saw his outlines and I held my pistol at the height of his chest.

Q You are not denying that you shot this American flyer are you?

(Further cross)

A I had the order to do it.

Q You are not denying that you did do it?

A Fraundt fired too.

Q Both of you fired bullets into his body, that is correct is it not?

A Yes, that is right.

Q Did he die?

A Died? He was lying on the ground dead.

Q Fuchr, you have testified about your poor children having to sleep in air raid shelters for a period of two years as a result of bombing, is that correct?

A Yes. My biggest daughter, in fact, didn't even go up to daylight at all. She was even eating down there.

Q Have you ever heard of the old men women and children that were bombed and strafed by the Germans in Coventry, England?

A No, I didn't hear about that.

Q That is news to you know, isn't it?

A Yes, that is news.

Q You are surprised to hear that that was done, aren't you?

A Well, surprised.

CAPTAIN VANCE: Nothing further.

REDIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY DEFENSE COUNSEL:

Q You started to make an explanation before dinner in answer to some question you were asked and were stopped. Did you want to tell the court what that explanation was? I think it had to do with the circumstances under which you made that statement.

A Well I was asked before that whether I had been reading the Voelkischer Beobachter das Reich. I thought we were talking about this article of Dr. Goebbels. I did not read it.

(Fuehrer-redirect)

Q I want you to answer the question.

A Could you please repeat the question?

Q You started to explain to the court the circumstances under which you made that statement in Wiesbaden. Do you remember that?

A Yes.

Q You had gotten down to the point when they took you to Wiesbaden at half past one in the morning.

A Yes.

Q From that point on finish the circumstances.

A Yes. At one thirty I was picked up at the Bruchsheim jail of the Americans and that same evening was taken to an American jail in Wiesbaden. The next morning I was picked up and taken to the CIC and from there Mr. Teil picked me up and took me to the jail at Albrecht Strasse. My wife was sitting there too. What I wanted to get done was to see if my wife got back to the children and Mr. Teil took care of that. A few days later I was taken out and was questioned about this matter concerning the flyers and I said what happened without ever denying it as far as I was able to remember.

Q When you were asked about your initials on that exhibit you wanted to make an explanation about the initials. What was that explanation?

A Yes. I forgot to put my name down there some place and Mr. Teil, in the little interrogation room, told me to put my name down there too, and there wasn't any room there anymore so I put "A. F." down there.

Q You mean that you put the initials "A. F." on the bottom of the sheet instead of your name?

A No, that is not it.

Q Well what was it?

A Why I put my name down?

Q You were asked a question about the appearance of your initials on that sheet of paper. I am showing you Prosecutions Exhibit Number 65

(Funkr-redirect)

A Yes, that is my name here, "A. F.".

Q You said you wanted to explain your initials to the court?

A Yes.

Q Do you still want to explain that?

A Yes.

Q Go ahead and do it.

A These letters "A. F." are supposed to mean Arthur Fouhr and I forgot to put this in there so I abreviated it "A. F.".

Q In other words wherever you intended to put your name and left it out you substituted your initials, is that what you say?

A Yes.

Q When you first saw Hoehler with the flyer was anyone else with the two of them at the time?

A Hoehler and Fraundt.

MR. [illegible]: Nothing further.

RECROSS EXAMINATION:

Q Mr. Fuehr, Captain Vance has accused you here of having made statements about the acts of Mr. Hoehler which are not in agreement with the statements introduced in evidence. What I would like to ask you is, did Hoehler occasion you here to change your statement?

A No.

Q Then what is the reason that your statements now are different from the ones you made in your original statement?

A Because I now am in a position to get a clear picture, that is not now, but I was in that position after four or five weeks in Wiesbaden and I said to myself that wasn't right.

Q So what you are trying to say by that is that what you said today is the truth?

A Yes.

(Further recess)

CAPTAIN VANCE: Nothing further by the prosecution.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Anything by the court?

PRESIDENT: No questions by the court. The witness will take his place in the dock.

(Thereupon the accused was excused and resumed his seat in the dock.)

PRESIDENT: The court will recess in place.

(Thereupon the court recessed in place.)

(Thereupon the court reconvened.)

PRESIDENT: The court will come to order.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Will you call in Mrs. Gutman.

CLAIRE GUTMAN, called as a witness by the defense, being first duly sworn, took the stand and testified through an interpreter as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY DEFENSE COUNSEL:

Q What is your full name, please?

A Claire Gutman.

Q Are you married?

A Yes.

Q Where do you live now?

A In Wiesbaden.

Q You live there with your family?

A I was in the concentration camp with my family and my husband and my son did not come back.

CAPTAIN VANCE: I was going to object because she didn't answer the question. It looks to me as though the answer is not responsive. You asked the question--

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I asked herself she was living with her family and she said she was a survivor of a concentration camp.

Q Do you know the accused Arthur Fuchs?

A Yes.

Q Will you please point him out to the court?

A Number four. (Indicating)

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Let the record show that the witness properly identified the accused Arthur Fuehr.

Q Where did you meet Fuehr?

A At the Secret State Police--Gestapo--Wiesbaden.

Q Can you tell the court when it was that you first met him?

A That was probably in 1939.

Q How long did you know him?

A Until the time I was taken in the camp.

Q When was that?

A In 1942 we were sent to the kaserne in Frankfurt to Wiesbaden and in 1943 we were taken to camp.

Q Why were you sent into camp?

A Because I and my family are Jewish.

Q Did you have any particular reason that brought you to Gestapo Headquarters at Wiesbaden?

A Yes.

Q What was that?

A My husband had been an attorney by profession and the Chief of the Jewish Community.

Q What were you doing personally in the Gestapo Headquarters?

A For a while the state police in Wiesbaden did not permit the Jews to come there individually and my husband had to appear for the various members of the community, as their representative.

Q Do you mean by that that whenever he had occasion to go there you kept him company?

A No. It happened that, professionally, he was unable to appear there at the proper moment and on that occasion I just happened to be sent there.

Q Did you do any work around headquarters of the Gestapo?

A No. I don't understand the question. Are we talking about Fuehr?

Q Did you meet other people, Jews as well as non-Jews, at the headquarters of the Gestapo at Wiesbaden?

A [illegible] place of my [illegible] stand as a representative

CAPTAIN VANCE: I object to the question as being immaterial, irrelevant and incompetent. If we are going to bring out testimony about the Jewish---

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I am just laying the foundation to ask her what the opinion was of people like herself of Fuehr as a group, for character testimony.

CAPTAIN VANCE: I have no objection if you ask her what her opinion was of him, how did he treat you? What did you tell me in my office as the may be or

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

QUESTION BY DEFENSE COUNSEL: and toward me over as his superior officer.

Q Did you, from time to time, meet other people at the Gestapo Headquarters in Wiesbaden who also knew Fuehr?

A Yes, [illegible] ever receive [illegible] that you did not receive as the bar

Q What was Fuehr's reputation among persons like yourself and these others whom you met in the Gestapo Headquarters in Wiesbaden?

CAPTAIN VANCE: I object to that question. I object to this woman testifying what his reputation was among these other people. As to her own opinion I have no objection whatsoever.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I am saying what his reputation was among this group. [illegible] particular [illegible] with you did not receive

CAPTAIN VANCE: That is the very reason of my objection. [illegible]

PRESIDENT: Objection sustained.

(Cuttman-direct) [illegible]

(Cuttman-direct)

QUESTIONS BY DEFENSE COUNSEL:

Q What is your opinion about Fuehr, and upon what do you base your opinion?

A I don't understand the question. Are you talking about Fuehr?

Q Yes. [illegible] did you know Arthur Fuehr in the year 1944 and the year [illegible] when I went to the headquarters in place of my husband as a representative of the members of the Jewish Community I found Fuehr there in a what you might call subordinate position as a doorman.

Q What is your opinion about Fuehr based on your personal experiences with him?

A I don't know anything disadvantageous about Fuehr and I didn't hear from any third parties that he ever treated Jewish persons in a manner which is common to Gestapo members.

Q But did he treat you? What did you tell me in my office was the way he treated you?

A He opened the door and turned me over to his superior officer.

Q Were you ever ill treated by him in any way?

A No.

Q Did you ever receive courtesies at his hands that you did not receive at the hands of other Gestapo members?

CAPTAIN VANCE: I object. He is leading his witness.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I am trying to get the answer. I agree I am leading.

CAPTAIN VANCE: Nothing further.

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

Any questions?

MR. WITNESS: [illegible] questions by the court, the witness is excused.

Q Were there any particular things which he did which you did not receive from other members of the Gestapo that you can tell the court about?

[illegible], called as a witness by the defense, being first duly sworn, took the stand and testified through an interpreter as follows:

Q Did he know who you were?

A Yes. DIRECT EXAMINATION

[redacted] Your witness.

What is your [redacted]

[redacted] CROSS EXAMINATION

Q Mrs. Dettmann did you know Arthur Fuchs in the year 1944 and the year 1945? Wiesbaden.

A No, [redacted] I wasn't at Wiesbaden.

Q Do you know anything about his reputation during that period of time? If he is in the courtroom will you please point him out?

A Number four. (Indicating.)

Q I didn't understand from your questions propounded by the defense counsel just what your answer is to Fuchs's reputation. Is it good or bad?

A [redacted] don't know anything of disadvantage.

Q Whether it is good or bad?

A [redacted] I don't know anything at all between 1943 and 1945. A At the Gestapo. At the [redacted] in Paulinenstrasse.

Q If I were to tell you that Arthur Fuchs took an American Prisoner-of-war on a dark night out to the side of the road and fired a pistol into his body and killed him, would you consider one of such character and characteristics to work there.

Q DEFENSE COUNSEL: I pray the court's judgment.

A PRESIDENT: Objection [redacted] I was sent to work at the [redacted] Nothing further.

Q DEFENSE COUNSEL: Did the court question at this Gestapo headquarters? PRESIDENT: No questions by the court, the witness is excused.

(Thereupon the witness was excused and withdrew.)

Q DEFENSE COUNSEL: Herr Hammer [redacted] work in Gestapo Headquarters room [redacted] ROOM, called as a witness by the defense, being first duly sworn, took the stand and testified through an interpreter as follows:

(Recess.)
(Continued.)

DIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY DEFENSE COUNSEL:

Q What is your full name, please?

A Karl Ramhuber.

Q Where do you live?

A Wiesbaden.

Q Do you know Arthur Fuehr?

A Yes.

Q If he is in the courtroom will you please point him out?

A Number four. (Indicating)

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Let the record indicate that the witness identified Fuehr as Number four.

Q How long have you known Fuehr?

A Since 1942.

Q Where did you meet him?

A At the Gestapo. At the STAPO in Paulinenstrasse.

Q In Wiesbaden?

A Yes.

Q Were you there in the headquarters of the Gestapo very often?

A I had to work there.

Q Why?

A Because I am a Jew. By the Nuremberg Legislation? I had to work at the cemetery and also at the STAPO.

Q Were there other Jews there, like yourself, working at this Gestapo headquarters?

A Yes.

Q Did you, in the course of your work in Gestapo Headquarters come in contact with Fuehr?

(Witness directed)

A I had to walk [illegible] about.

Q Do you know whether the others who worked there in some way also [illegible] to talk or have something to do with Fuehr?

A Will all of them who worked there? He talked to them [illegible]

Q That was Fuehr's reputation among the people who like yourself worked in Gestapo Headquarters, sometimes gave [illegible]

CAPTAIN VANCE: I object on the grounds already stated.

The proper way to prove a character witness is to ask the witness if he knows the character. If he says he does ask him if it is good or bad.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: All right.

PRESIDENT: Objection sustained. [illegible] the witness.

QUESTIONS BY DEFENSE COUNSEL: [illegible]

Q Do you know what Fuehr's character was?

A No.

Q Do you know what his character was among the people who like yourself---

CAPTAIN VANCE: We object on the ground that he did not know what the others thought his character was.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I agree that that is what he said. I submit that I have a right to ask him what his character was among the group that met him.

CAPTAIN VANCE: We object to the group. He can't speak for other people.

PRESIDENT: Objection sustained.

QUESTIONS BY DEFENSE COUNSEL:

Q What was your personal opinion of Fuehr and upon what was that opinion based?

CAPTAIN VANCE: That is irrelevant. What his opinion is about Fuehr is irrelevant. He has asked him about his character and the man has testified that he knows nothing about his character.

QUESTIONS BY DEFENSE COUNSEL:

Q What is your personal opinion about Fuehr based upon your experience with him?

A When I worked there he sometimes gave me a sandwich and he sometimes gave me a cup of coffee.

Q What else was your experience with him?

A Nothing else.

Q Were you ever mistreated by him?

CAPTAIN VANCE: We object, he is leading the witness.

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

THE WITNESS: No.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I would like to ask a question and would like to have the court rule on it before it is answered.

QUESTIONS BY DEFENSE COUNSEL:

Q Was the treatment you received from him better or worse than the treatment you received from others at the same place during the same period of time?

CAPTAIN VANCE: We object to it.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I ask the court's judgment.

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

THE WITNESS: I can't say.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Nothing further.

QUESTIONS BY DR. WACKER:

Q How often would you meet Fuehr?

A Almost daily.

Q During what period of time was that?

A I went there at 6:30 in the morning and worked at the furnace and I cleaned up the yard, and when I got through with this I could leave because I had a job, too, besides this.

Q And beginning from what year until what time did this take place?

A From '42 up to the end of '44.

Q Were there some more people employed there in the same manner as you were?

A Yes.

Q Did you talk to them about Fuehr?

A Well, I didn't talk much about Fuehr; nothing in particular.

Q Did anything of disadvantage ever reach your ears from somebody else?

CAPTAIN VANCE: We object, if it please the court. If the court would like to hear something on these types of witnesses, it would bear me out. I would like to read the court something about what a character witness can testify to and cannot testify to.

PRESIDENT: Proceed and read that.

CAPTAIN VANCE: Reading Paragraph 170 on page 299 of Underhill's Criminal Evidence, Fourth Edition. The title is "Mode of Proof--Competency of witnesses":

> "Character, i.e., the general reputation which the accused possesses and enjoys among his acquaintances may be shown by the testimony of such persons only. The witness is not competent unless it is first shown that he knows such reputation, which must be that which is current in the neighborhood where both he and the accused reside. If witness does not know where accused lived, he is incompetent. The witness can not give an opinion which is merely the result of observing the disposition and conduct of the defendant. What is required of him is his knowledge of the existing general reputation which he has obtained by hearing the comments of others on the accused while he lived among those who knew him, and not his own exclusive personal knowledge. The qualification of character witnesses is largely within the discretion of the trial court.
>
> "Evidence of the good actions of the accused is inadmissible to prove his good reputation." * * *

PRESIDENT: Have it translated.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I will dispense with the translation of it. They say they understood it.

DR. WACKER: I would like to say something further about it, however. These statements here are about criminal cases, which differ in some respects from a case of this type. I ask the court not to lose sight of the fact that this accused is charged with being a member of a criminal organization, and for that reason evidence of this type seems to be of different value to me. The evidence admitted here is of a somewhat different nature, and I therefore think that these rules should be evaluated somewhat differently also.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: May I add just one brief word: As the German counsel has said, this sort of evidence is by way of mitigation. But here is the point: You have these people of the Jewish faith, whose opportunities to know what a man's reputation was in his own community were practically non-existent for years before this time. And so, in an attempt to build up a community within which he might have an opinion, I started to ask these questions about these other people working there and asked what their opinion was of his reputation among them, thinking to substitute them as a small community particularly sensitive to their reception, in lieu of a man's normal community, with which, of course, they could know nothing.

PRESIDENT: This is a matter in which the court has considerable discretion, and the court will permit the question to be answered. The objection is overruled.

QUESTIONS BY DR. WACKER:

Q Do you know anything about the air-raid shelter construction?

A Yes.

Q Who was constructing this air-raid shelter?

A Those were foreigners together with Germans.

Q What did Fuehr have to do with this air-raid shelter construction?

A I don't know what Mr. Fuehr had to do with this air-raid shelter construction.

Q Did he come in contact with the foreigners who worked there?

A Well, as far as I was along I guess he did come in contact with them all right, but I don't know of him doing anything.

Q Can you say anything about how Fuehr treated these prisoners?

A As a matter of fact, I was able to watch him give several of them a piece of bread.

Q Anything else?

A I don't know anything else.

Q Did you see whether he treated those prisoners well or badly?

A I am sure I couldn't say he treated them badly while I was around.

DR. MACKER: Nothing further.

CROSS EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q You do not know very much about Arthur Fuehr's reputation at all, do you?

A I wouldn't know anything else.

Q I say you don't know anything much about it, do you?

A No, I don't.

Q You do not know what his reputation is for truth and veracity, do you?

A Well, I guess he was friendly to us, all right, who were working there and didn't do anything to us.

Q I did not ask you about his being friendly. I asked you if you knew anything about his reputation as to truth and veracity.

Q Did he come in contact with the foreigners who worked there?

A Well, as far as I was along I guess he did come in contact with them all right, but I don't know of him doing anything.

Q Can you say anything about how Fuehr treated these prisoners?

A As a matter of fact, I was able to watch him give several of them a piece of bread.

Q Anything else?

A I don't know anything else.

Q Did you see whether he treated those prisoners well or badly?

A I am sure I couldn't say he treated them badly while I was around.

DR. WACKER: Nothing further.

CROSS EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q You do not know very much about Arthur Fuehr's reputation at all, do you?

A I wouldn't know anything else.

Q I say you don't know anything much about it, do you?

A No, I don't.

Q You do not know what his reputation is for truth and veracity, do you?

A Well, I guess he was friendly to us, all right, who were working there and didn't do anything to us.

Q I did not ask you about his being friendly. I asked you if you knew anything about his reputation as to truth and veracity.

A I don't know anything about it.

Q And you do not know anything about his reputation as to whether he was a quiet sort of man or a hostile sort of a man, do you?

A Well, as far as I know he was always calm, because I never heard him holler at anybody.

Q All you know about Buehr is that he never did you any harm; that is right, is it not?

A No.

Q You do not know whether he harmed other people or not, do you?

A I don't know.

CAPTAIN VANCE: Nothing further.

REDIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY DR. WACKER:

Q Do you know what the general treatment was that Gestapo men accorded to persons persecuted because of their race?

MR. RACHAEL: I object to that question.

PRESIDENT: Objection sustained.

DR. WACKER: No further questions.

PRESIDENT: No questions by the court. The witness is excused.

(Thereupon the witness was excused and withdrew.)

MICHAEL KLEIN, called as a witness by the defense, being first duly sworn, testified through an interpreter as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY MR. RACHAEL:

Q What is your full name?

A Michael Klein.

Q Where do you live?

A Wiesbaden, Scharnhorststrasse 28.

Q Do you know the defendant Arthur Fuehr?

A Yes, I know him.

Q Do you see him in the courtroom? If so, point him out to the court.

A Here. Number 4 (indicating).

MR. RACHLIN: Let the record show that the witness identifies the accused Arthur Fuehr, wearing placard No. 4.

Q When did you first know Arthur Fuehr?

A About 1942.

Q What was the occasion on which you happened to meet Arthur Fuehr?

A We had to do some forced labor there at the Gestapo building Saturday afternoon and Sunday after our work.

Q What was Arthur Fuehr doing there?

A He was a supervisor there where we worked.

Q About how many people worked there at those times?

A Well, there were up to five, six, or seven of us.

Q What kind of work did you do and why did you have to do it?

A Well, as a Jew I had to work there.

Q About how long did you work there? What period of time?

A Oh, several years. Worked there several years.

Q What is your opinion concerning the character of Arthur Fuehr? Is it good or bad?

A Michael Klein.

Q Where do you live?

A Wiesbaden, Scharnhorststrasse 28.

Q Do you know the defendant Arthur Fuehr?

A Yes, I know him.

Q Do you see him in the courtroom? If so, point him out to the court.

A Here. Number 4 (indicating).

MR. RACHLIS: Let the record show that the witness identifies the accused Arthur Fuehr, wearing placard No. 4.

Q When did you first know Arthur Fuehr?

A About 1942.

Q What was the occasion on which you happened to meet Arthur Fuehr?

A We had to do some forced labor there at the Gestapo building Saturday afternoon and Sunday after our work.

Q What was Arthur Fuehr doing there?

A He was a supervisor there where we worked.

Q About how many people worked there at those times?

A Well, there were up to five, six, or seven of us.

Q What kind of work did you do and why did you have to do it?

A Well, as a Jew I had to work there.

Q About how long did you work there? What period of time?

A Oh, several years. Worked there several years.

Q What is your opinion concerning the character of Arthur Fuehr? Is it good or bad?

A Well, my personal opinion of him was not a bad one; because he always treated us well when we worked there.

MR. RACHAEL: Your witness.

CROSS EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q Mr. Klein, about all you know about Arthur Fuehr and all that you can say for him is that he never mistreated you; is that correct?

A I can't say anything else about him.

Q You cannot say anything else good for him or anything else bad for him, can you?

A No, I don't know anything else that happened.

Q How many times did you work under Fuehr?

A I don't know how long. I was there every Sunday.

Q Were you working for him in 1944?

A Yes, in 1944 we still did.

Q Were you working for him in 1945?

A We did, too.

CAPTAIN VANCE: Nothing further.

MR. RACHAEL: Any questions by any member of the court?

PRESIDENT: No questions by the court. The witness is excused.

(Whereupon the witness was excused and withdrew.)

MR. RACHAEL: The defense calls Adalf Kahn as its next witness.

ADOLF KAHN, called as a witness by the defense, being first duly sworn, testified through an interpreter as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY MR. RACHAEL:

Q What is your full name?

A Adolf Kahn.

Q Where do you live?

A Wiesbaden.

Q Do you know Arthur Fuehr?

A Yes.

Q If he is in the courtroom, will you point him out?

A Over there (indicating). Number 4.

MR. RACHAEL: Let the record show that the witness identifies the defendant Arthur Fuehr, wearing placard No. 4.

Q How long have you known Arthur Fuehr?

A Since about 1942.

Q What was the occasion when you met Arthur Fuehr?

A I had to work at the Gestapo.

Q What kind of work did you do at the Gestapo and why did you do it?

A I had to do occasional work coming up occasionally.

Q What kind of work?

A We had to dig up the garden, carry coal, move around, and so forth.

Q Who was your supervisor there?

A Well, we didn't really have a supervisor. Mr. Fuehr, I guess.

Q What was the character of Arthur Fuehr, if you know, good or bad?

A He was always decent to me.

MR. RACHAEL: Your witness, [illegible]

CROSS EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE: [illegible]

Q. Can you answer the question asked you--whether that man's character is good or bad?

A Well, he was decent to me, and I can't say anything else. [illegible]

Q You do not know anything about his character, do you?

A No, I don't know any more about it.

CAPTAIN VANCE: Nothing further.

MR. RACHAEL: Any questions by any member of the court?

PRESIDENT: No questions by the court. The witness is excused. [illegible]

(Thereupon the witness was excused and withdrew.)

MR. RACHAEL: The next witness is Julius Lowenthal.

JULIUS LOWENTHAL, called as a witness by the defense, being first duly sworn, testified through an interpreter as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY MR. RACHAEL: [illegible]

Q What is your full name?

A Julius Lowenthal. [illegible]

Q Where do you live? [illegible]

A Wiesbaden, Scheirstein.

Q Do you know Arthur Fuehr?

A Yes. [illegible]

Q If he is in the courtroom, will you point him out?

A Number 4 (indicating). [illegible]

MR. RACHAEL: Indicating the defendant Arthur Fuehr, wearing placard No. 4.

Q How long have you known Arthur Fuehr?

A Since September 1942.

Q What was the occasion on which you first came to know him?

A Because I had to work at the Gestapo.

Q What kind of work did you do and why did you do it?

A We had to work there Saturday noon and on Sunday, and we had to haul coal and dig up the garden--cultivate the garden.

Q Who was your supervisor?

A Mr. Fuehr.

Q About how many persons worked with you there?

A Sometimes there were five or even six.

Q How did Arthur Fuehr treat you?

A He treated me well.

Q How did Arthur Fuehr treat or handle the other persons working there?

A Good, too.

Q What is your opinion as to the character of Arthur Fuehr? Is it good or bad?

A He treated us well--the ones who were working there.

MR. MACHAN: Your witness.

CROSS EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q Was there any reason why Fuehr should not treat you well while you worked there?

A No. As long as we did our work it was all right.

Q Did you always do your work like he wanted it done?

A Yes.

Q And you were afraid that if you did not do it that he would slug you, were you not?

A Well, what do you want me to say to that?

Q I want you to answer it.

A That is hard to say--whether he would do something or not.

Q Well, you thought he would, did you not?

A Well, if we hadn't worked.

Q When he told you to work you worked and worked hard, did you not?

A He did what we were told.

Q And as long as you did what you were told Fuehr never did mistreat you; is that correct?

A No, never.

Q You do not know whether he mistreated other people or not, do you?

A No.

Q All you are talking about is your personal experience with him?

A Yes.

Q And you do not know whether all over Wiesbaden his character is good or bad, do you?

A I don't know. He treated everybody well who was working.

CAPTAIN VANCE: Nothing further.

REDIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY DR. WACKER:

Q Did this work detail of Fuehr's also get tobacco?

A Yes.

(Whereupon court reconvened at 1330 hours.)

DR. RACHAEL: Nothing further.

MR. RACHAEL: Any questions by any member of the court?

PRESIDENT: No questions by the court. The witness is excused.

(Whereupon the witness was excused and withdrew.)

MR. RACHAEL: At this time, if the court please, the defense will proceed to Charges 6 and 10, without waiving its right to return to Charges 4 and 5, if in the future evidence is found which may materially bear on the issues in the case on those charges.

PRESIDENT: Court will recess until 1530.

(Whereupon at 1500 hours, the court recessed until 1530 hours.)

(Thereupon Court reconvened at 1530 hours.)

PRESIDENT: Court will come to order.

PROSECUTION: May it please the court, let the record show that all the members of the court, all the members of the prosecution, all the members of the defense, except Lieutenant Colonel Berman and Major Saxon, who are absent on business of the accused, and Dr. Trost, who is absent sick, all of the accused, the reporter and interpreter are present.

MR. RATNER: Will you mark these Defense Exhibits D-15, D-16 and D-17 for identification, please?

(Thereupon the documents referred to were marked Defense Exhibits D-15, D-16 and D-17 for identification.)

MR. MICHAEL: If the court please, the defense will now start the introduction of evidence in support of the defense of Charges VI and I, which will be tried together.

The defense would like to offer into evidence as Defense Exhibit 15, a book entitled "Winthrop's Military Law and Precedents, 2nd Edition, Volumes I and II, Reprint, 1920," which has been marked Defense Exhibit 15 for identification, with leave to withdraw this book at the close of the case. The purpose of the book is not to offer the entire book into evidence, but two extracts from it.

PROSECUTION: The prosecution states that this is an unusual precedent. Winthrop's treatise on Military Law is a text book that has been used in the army and by lawyers for many years. It is always before this court. It is not a proper matter to be offered into evidence.

LAW MEMBER: It has been my impression that the law of this case will be determined by this court and that law of any other jurisdiction outside the jurisdiction of this court is a question of fact, and about Charges VI and I.

as a question of fact, the defense offers this book into evidence, the court to take into consideration as a fact the precedents as established by various jurisdictions so that in its deliberation will determine the law based on these facts.

PROSECUTION: I cannot subscribe to that. If it is a question of fact or foreign law, then somebody must come to court and prove it. It is a matter of law that the court can take notice of. It is always available to the court and should not be received as evidence.

PRESIDENT: The objection is sustained.

MR. BACHAUS: If the court please, in order to refresh the recollection of the court of the substance which the defense originally attempted to introduce into evidence, the defense would like to read to the court those two points which we believe are vital as the law on these two charges.

PROSECUTION: May I ask the defense counsel, is that the extract from Winthrop, a copy of which was given to me a few minutes ago?

MR. BACHAUS: That is right.

PROSECUTION: I object to the defense arguing the question of superior orders. The time for that argument will be at the end of his case.

MR. BACHAUS: If the court please, as a foundation for the introduction into evidence of the testimony of the defense in charges VI and X, the defense asks the permission to read to the court two extracts from Winthrop, which is believed pertaining to the evidence in the case. We are not attempting to introduce it into evidence. We just want to refresh the recollection of the court as to what Winthrop says about Charges VI and X.

Tr 179-erh-Feb 16-1

Tr 179-erh-Feb 16-3

PROSECUTION: May it please the court, the prosecution has no objection to the court having these extracts before it. I do object to evidence on the law of superior orders at this time. There is a footnote: 'The inferior is plea, whether a defense in one or more [illegible] obedience to the commands of the latter.' Hareourt, 25-2.

MR. MCHAEL: If the court please, I do not intend to argue. I am just reading to the court, to refresh the court's recollection. This rule the officer first reads in the conclusion which to observe it. It is the British system all military authority and discipline. The objection is overruled. Petitioners are granted [illegible] to read such extracts of [illegible] as represents the President, as the Commander-in-Chief and executive power of the Nation, and the [illegible] If the court please, this extract is taken from

Winthrop's Military Law and Precedents, Second Edition, Volumes 1 and 2, Reprint in 1920, at page 972. It is entitled "Disobedience of Lawful Command by Subordinate." The Constitution has submitted the [illegible] of his superior officers, (thereby) vested and controlled in every thing by the supreme commander, from whom, by a number of communicating [illegible] to evidence in gradation. The importance of this [illegible] is rather merely to find that this is [illegible] the specific and capital offense of disobedience of orders. 'Obedience to all orders is the very principle of [illegible] officer or soldier is chiefly [illegible]' To which may be added from Clode, There is a footnote: 'orders of subordinates must be consistent with [illegible] and, in case of conflict, they must be obeyed [illegible] 'Obedience to command is the point of military virtue, in relation to which all others are secondary and subordinate; it is, for the soldier, the first and last virtue of a soldier.' Hareourt, 16. 'The first, second, and third point in a soldier is obedience.' Sutherne. Command, 1 Term, 168. 'The first duty of a soldier is to obey, and without this there can be neither discipline nor efficiency in an army.' McCall v. McDowell, Deady, 214. 'To [illegible] efficiency an army must be, to a certain extent, a despotism. Each officer [illegible] is invested with an arbitrary power over those beneath him, and the soldier who enlists in the army [illegible] in some particular [illegible] voluntarily surrenders his personal liberty during the term of his enlistment, and consents to be governed beyond [illegible] will of his superior officers. He ceases to become answerable to the military courts, to be disciplined for offenses inimical to the [illegible] to relinquish his rights of action by flight, and to receive punishment without [illegible] civilian, deserts out of all proportion to the magnitude of the offense.' U.S. v. Clarke, Fed. Cas. 14,813; (Opinion of Judge Woods.) And see Trumbull v. Bennett, 2 Mich. 322. 'Another obligation must be met in connection with this; neither personal authority, nor political favoritism, nor personal safety, nor pecuniary advantages from other services fill the duties of this [illegible] like analogy according to the theory of military obedience. It consists in that one duty of obeying the command of the officer set over him.' Clode, 2 M.F., 37. 'And this records of Secretary of War [illegible] Judge Advocate General, Army Dept., 1880, performance.' (In Ex parte Johnson, 1 Fed. 736)

"—the fundamental rule, in peace and in war, for all inferiors through all the grades from the general of the army to the newest recruit. [illegible] peculiar [illegible]

There is a footnote:

1223

[illegible]

1223

Yee Bench, 88, (note 47) 653. But where a discretion is taken to be

There is a footnote:

"... military subordinate is compelled to make obedience a matter of personal responsibility entailing a complete performance ..." (Yee v. Johnson, 1 Yee, 364)

"... nothing short of a physical impossibility excusing a complete performance ..." (Yee v. Johnson, 1 Yee, 364)

While a certain discretion in the execution of an order may sometimes be permitted to officers high in rank or command, or officers charged with expert or peculiarly responsible duties —

There is a footnote:

Yee Bench, 88, (note 47) 653. But where a discretion is taken to be

There is a footnote:

"The inferior in place, whether standing one or more behind those below his superior, is bound to show implicit obedience to the commands of the latter." Barnett, 13-14.

This rule the officer finds rooted in the conditions which he accepts, and the soldier, in his oath of allegiance, swears to observe (4). As in the British system all military authority and discipline are derived from the power — the Sovereign — (Clode, Ed., 167) he in our very superior, in giving a lawful command, acts for and represents the President, as Commander-in-chief and Executive power of the Nation, and the source from which his operational and authority proceed. —

There is a footnote:

The following extract from Aquai, (p. 83) is equally applicable to our military system: "The Constitution has committed the action of the Army to the direction and controlled to everything by the supreme commander, from whom, by a number of gradations branches, is a multitude of subordinate officers, all acting in subordination and united in the same design, the whole body being moved to the will of the individual, who is the head to the military body which animates, and directs all the energies of the whole mass. Every officer is entitled implicitly to the obedience of those who are placed under him (Ibid.Ed.) —All orders of subordinates must be executed with the utmost promptitude, and with as much precision as the nature of circumstances will admit. The whole authority, and responsibility of command rests with the superior officer, and his subordinates are only to obey his orders, and not to question the propriety of them. The habit of implicit obedience is the first duty of a soldier, and the characteristic of a good one." (Ibid.Ed.)

There is a footnote:

Under the disciplinary system of a Armed Military order, and under the liberty of the citizen which is imposed upon the interior of the military, the obligation to obey is not to be fulfilled without hesitation, with alacrity, and to the full —

There is a footnote:

Of military subordinate is compelled to make obedience a matter of personal responsibility entailing a complete performance ..." (Yee v. Johnson, 1 Yee, 364)

"... nothing short of a physical impossibility excusing a complete performance ..." (Yee v. Johnson, 1 Yee, 364)

While a certain discretion in the execution of an order may sometimes be permitted to officers high in rank or command, or officers charged with expert or peculiarly responsible duties —

There is a footnote:

Yee Bench, 88, (note 47) 653. But where a discretion is taken to be depart materially from the terms of an order, the officer makes himself amenable to charges, in case the result does not justify his action. Thus, of Lord Nelson's proceedings at Copenhagen, in not complying with his superior's signal to return and not engage the enemy, which resulted in a victory, Hough observes that, 'if he had failed, he would have been brought to trial by court-martial.'

"-- the inferior cannot, as a general rule, be permitted to raise a question as to the propriety, expediency, or feasibility of a command given him, or to vary in any degree from its terms." --

There is a footnote:

'If it were open to a soldier to be the judge of the propriety of the orders given him, there would at once be an end of all military discipline.' Harcourt, 14. 'In military affairs it would be intolerable. Clode, M.L., 75. 'A subordinate officer must not judge of the danger, propriety, expediency, or consequence of the order he receives.' Sutton v. Johnstone, 1 Term, 546. 'While subordinates are pausing to consider whether they ought to obey, or are scrupulously weighing the evidence of the facts upon which the commander-in-chief exercises the right to demand their services, the hostile enterprise may be accomplished without the means of resistance.' Martin v. Mott, 12 Wheaton 30. Soldiers should obey 'without cavil or inquiry;' they 'have no right to inquire of their superior officer as to the object of a detail upon which they are ordered by him.' Riggs v. State, 3 Cold, 90. And see McCall v. McDowell, Deady, 244-5; Fineman v. Wilkes, 12 Howard, 103; Trammell v. Bassett, 21 Ark., 199; 2 Opins. At. Gen., 715.

"-- Even where the order is arbitrary or unwise, and its effect must be injurious to the subordinate, he should first obey, postponing till after compliance his complaint and application for redress."

There is a footnote:

'Soldiers may complain of the command of a superior, but they are bound in the first instance to obey.' Samuel, 265. 'The orderly and proper course in all cases is to obey orders and afterwards, if any hardship or oppression is practised, appeal to superior authority for redress.' G.O. 10, Army of the Potomac, 1862. And see Harcourt, 16; Morrison, 82; G.C.M.O. 26, 87, Dept. of the East, 1871. Where indeed there is ample time for the purpose -- the time being peace, and the order not calling for present action but relating to something to be done in the future -- the subordinate, if he apprehends that its execution will seriously impair his rights or privileges, may, at his own risk, respectfully remonstrate, setting forth his grounds."

The second extract is from Winthrop's Military Law and Precedents, Second Edition, Volumes 1 and 2, Reprint of 1920 at page 575. Such is entitled

"Lawful Command." (Reading:)

"The word 'lawful' is indeed surplusage, and would have been implied from the word 'command' alone, but, being used, it goes to point the conclusion affirmed by all the authorities that a command not lawful may be disobeyed --"

There is a footnote citing several authorities.

"-- no matter from what source it proceeds. But to justify an inferior in disobeying an order as illegal, the case must be an extreme one and the illegality not doubtful." --

There are some cases cited there.

"--The order must be clearly repugnant to some specific statute, to the law or usage of the military service, or to the general law of the land."

There is a footnote:

The following orders have been held to be not 'lawful' in the sense of the Articles: -- An order given by a company commander to a soldier to have his washing done by a particular laundress. G.C.M.O. 57, Dept. of the East, 1871. An order requiring a soldier to assist in building a private stable for an officer; an order requiring a soldier to act as an officer's servant. An order forbidding a soldier to contract marriage. An order requiring a post band to play in a neighboring town for the pleasure of the citizens. An order directing a soldier to go within Mexican territory, to make the arrest of a deserter from our army. An order in contravention of par. [illegible] 1, A.W., giving to a prisoner in the guard house awaiting trial. 'A superior officer has no right to take advantage of his military rank, to give a command which does not relate to military duty or usages, or which has for its sole object the attainment of some private end. Such a command is not such a lawful command as will make disobedience to it criminal.' Manual 17. In an early case in our service, that of Colonel Thomas Butler, (New Orleans, 1804,) the officer refused to obey, as illegal, an order to crop his hair. He was tried and sentenced to be reprimanded; and, on again disobeying, was rearrested. Some seventy-five persons, civil and military, headed by Major General Jackson, addressed to Congress a formal protest against his treatment, and asked that he be relieved from 'persecution.' This appears to have been the end of the matter. M. S. P., Mil. Af., vol. 1, p. 173-4. For late cases of orders of which the legality was disputed, but which were held legal under the circumstances -- see G.C.M.O. 31, Dept. of Dakota, 1887; No. 8, Dept. of [illegible], 1888; No. 47, Id. 1889.

Interesting naval cases involving the legality of orders given to offices are published in G.O. 140, Navy Dept., 1869 (Asst. Surgeon Green's case,) and No. 182, Id., 1873.

The code of Gustavus Adolphus makes punishable, as a specific military offence, the giving of an unlawful command. See his Arts. 27 and 46, and compare his Art. 45, in Appendix.

"The unlawfulness of the command must then be a fact and, in view of the general presumption of law in favor of the authority of military orders emanating from official superiors, the onus of establishing this fact will, in all cases -- except where the order is establishing this fact will, in all cases -- except where the order is palpably illegal upon its face -- devolve upon the defense, and clear and convincing evidence will be required to rebut the presumption. The legality of the order may depend upon the period, whether one of peace or war, (or other emergency,) in which it is issued. An order which would be unlawful in peace or in the absence of any public exigency, may be perfectly lawful or may be justified by the usages of civilized warfare. Thus an order for the seizure of citizens' property for the subsistence or transportation of the troops, the construction of defenses, etc., or for the destruction to facilitate the operations with of the army in the field, or to prevent its falling into the hands of the enemy, would be not only authorized, but to disobey it would be a grave military crime. But, in general, in time of peace an order similarly in disregard of private right would be repugnant to the first principles of law, and to fail to obey it would constitute no violation of the present Article."

"But while a military inferior may be justified in not obeying an order as being unlawful, he will always assume to do so on his own personal responsibility and at his own risk. Even where there may exist in fact ample warrant for his act, he will, in justifying, commonly be at a very considerable disadvantage in the presumption of law being against him, while, in favor of the legality of the order as an executive mandate, and the facts of the case and reasons for the action are being often unknown in part at least to himself and in the possession only of the superior. In the great majority of cases therefore it is found both safer and wiser for the inferior, instead of resisting an apparently arbitrary authority, to accept the alternative of obeying even to his own detriment, thus also placing himself in the most favorable position for obtaining redress in the future. On the other hand, should injury to a third person, or damage to the United States, result from the execution of an order by a subordinate, the plea that he acted simply in obedience to the mandate of his proper superior will be favored at military law, and a court-martial will almost immediately justify and protect an inferior who has been exposed to prosecution by reason of his unquestioning fidelity to duty, holding the superior alone responsible."

[illegible] to be sworn.

[illegible] on behalf, being first duly sworn, testified through the interpreter as follows:

[illegible]

[illegible] state your full name to the court.

[illegible]

[illegible]

MR. RACHAEL: The defense will call as its next witness the defendant Stattmann.

PROSECUTION: May it please the court, may we have a recess in place? I have a matter to take up with the law member.

PRESIDENT: The court will recess in place.

(Whereupon the court recessed in place.)

PRESIDENT: The court will adjourn to chambers in order to confer with Colonel Rosenfeld.

(Whereupon the court was closed at 1610 hours.)

(Whereupon the court was opened at 1630 hours.)

PRESIDENT: The court will come to order.

PROSECUTION: Let the record show all the members of the court, the prosecution and the defense with the exception of Colonel Berman, Major Simon and Dr. Trost, all the accused, the interpreter and reporter are present.

MR. RACHAEL: The defense will call as its next witness the accused Stattmann.

PRESIDENT: Will you stand please?

(Whereupon the accused Stattmann did as directed.)

PRESIDENT: Do you desire to be sworn or do you desire to make an unsworn statement?

ACCUSED STATTMANN: I desire to be sworn.

KARL FRANZ STATTMANN, an accused, called as a witness in his own behalf, being first duly sworn testified through an interpreter as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY DR. AMELUNG:

Q Mr. Stattmann, please state your full name to the court.

A My name is Franz Karl Stattmann.

Q Are you an accused in this case?

A Yes, I am.

Q How old are you?

A Thirty-five.

Q Are you married?

A I am.

Q Since when?

A Since 1939.

Q Have you children, if so which?

A I have one girl about six years old now.

Q Where does your family reside?

A My family live in Blomberg Lippe.

Q What is your status at the present time?

A I am a civilian internee in Dachau.

Q What is your profession?

A Towards the end I was a criminal police official.

Q Have you been a criminal official since the beginning?

A No, at first I had the profession of dental technician and practiced this profession until 1933.

Q And when did you come to the police?

A After Austria returned to the Reich, I turned to the police.

Q When was that?

A That was in the first of April 1938.

Q What outfit in the police did you join at that time and what were you?

A I was inducted into the border police.

Q Did you stay with the border police?

A No, at the end of the war I was a member of the secret state police.

Q Give the court a brief description of your career in the police.

A After Austria returned to the Reich, the Reich Fuehrer made a speech to the Vienna police.

Q When you say Fuehrer, who do you mean?

A The Reich Fuehrer Heinrich Himmler. He described to the former Austrian police what their actions in the SS would be and challenged the SS men present to volunteer for the German police.

Q Were you an SS man and if so, when?

A Yes, I had belonged to the SS since 18 September 1937, belonged to the Seventh SS Regiment, Vienna. A few days later I had some business at the SS district "Danube". There I saw a list. That listed men who wanted to join the police, with permission to register. I registered and a few days later received an induction order to report to the border police school Pretz Schotelby. After a short period of training at Prets Schotelby I was used in the frontier service until 1943, thereby serving in several headquarters.

Q Did this organization in any way belong to the SD or Gestapo?

A Yes, the frontier police was the secret state police at the frontiers.

Q With that, were you a member of the secret state police?

A No, that is not right. It is true, for instance, the frontier police was subject to the secret state police, but until the war it was prohibited for members of the secret state police to join the frontier police.

Q When you came to the frontier police, did you have to sign statements forcing you to do certain things?

A Yes. At the time I was inducted into the German police, I was a member of the Allgemeine SS. In view of my service with the police, I would no longer carry out my duties with the Allgemeine SS and therefore had to have myself furloughed, therefore, for all practical purposes, I left the Allgemeine SS on the 12th of April 1938 and had to request my admission into the SD, and since a large amount of papers were required for this, my admission into the security service of the SS did not take place until February 1940.

Q Did you have to sign up for anything else after you joined the SD?

A At the time we were dismissed from the school and sent to our actual posts of duty, we had to sign the so-called SD requirement statement.

Q Can you quote this SD statement either verbatim or substantially?

A I can only do it in substance.

Q Do it please.

A In this SD statement all members of the SD pledged to submit to any punishment of their superior officers without trial, if they disobeyed orders from superior officers.

Q Could you be assigned to the SD without signing this statement?

A I cannot answer this question. All I can say is that me ming this group I was in, everybody had to sign the statement when we joined the frontier service, or rather, signed it.

Q Did you stay with the frontier service until the end of the war?

A No. In 1942 I was supposed to be sent for further training at the criminal police for four months for state police and security service. In September 1943 I was sent to criminal police, Darmstadt. In March 1944, I was sent to the state police office in Darmstadt and that is where I stayed and wasn't sent anywhere else. This program was interrupted and I was therefore returned to the frontier police.

Q What was the exact name of the state police office in Darmstadt? Who was the chief of the state police at that time?

A At the time I was sent to the state police office, the last chief of this office left and his representative was the SS Major Hellenbroich.

Q When you say Sturmbannführer Hellenbroich, you mean the accused Number 20 in this case?

A Yes, that is the one I mean.

Q Later on, was this position of the chief of state police filled and if so by whom and when?

A To the best of my knowledge SS Major Cirke was appointed to this job of chief of state police office in July of 1944.

Q Do you mean the accused Number 19 when you say Cirke?

A Yes, that is the one I mean.

Q Who was your immediate superior?

A The immediate superior was the chief of the department in every case. Above him was Major Hellenbroich and over him the chief of the office, Major Cirke.

Q Under what department chief and what department were you working?

A During my training, I was sent from one department to another. I was employed merely in order to gain information and I think work under everybody who was there.

Q Did you at any time in particular in 1945 belong to any military organization?

A Yes. The secret state police was a military organization at that time.

Q Were you officially informed of this and if so in what form and manner?

A In the fall of 1943, in the course of an official formation of the frontier police in Luxembourg, we were told the following by somebody, the frontier police chief SS Captain Walter Runker or SS Lieutenant Colonel Hartmann, who at that time was the chief of the action detail of the security detail in Luxembourg, one of these men told us in the course of this meeting that the whole security police had been reported to the International Red Cross, Geneva as an organization subject to high command and of a military nature. Also, the uniform and weapons carried by this organization were reported at that time. We had to take off our military insignia which the security police used to use only when employed in foreign countries and we put the German insignia on the uniforms.

PRESIDENT: Court will adjourn to 0900.

(Whereupon the court adjourned until 0900 hours, 19 February 1947.)

Legal Form No. 8

MILITARY GOVERNMENT COURT
MILITÄRGERICHT

CHARGE SHEET
ANKLAGESCHRIFT

Place .....
Ort

Date .....
Datum

Name of accused .....
Name des Angeklagten

is hereby charged with the following offences:
wird hiermit wegen der folgenden strafbaren Handlungen angeklagt:

First Charge: ..... Erste Anklage: .....

.....

.....

.....

Particulars: ..... Einzelheiten: .....

.....

.....

.....

Second Charge: ..... Zweite Anklage: .....

.....

.....

.....

Particulars: ..... Einzelheiten: .....

.....

.....

.....

.....

The above charges are referred for trial to the *Summary *Intermediate Military Court to be held *General

Die Verhandlung wird vor dem *Einfachen *Mittleren Militärgerichte *Oberen

at ..... on ..... 194.....
in (Address of Court) am
(Anschrift des Gerichtes)

at .....
um Uhr stattfinden. By Order
Im Auftrage von

.....

*Strike out words not applicable.
*Nichtzutreffendes ist durchzustreichen.

(Signature of person preferring charges)
(Unterschrift des Vertreters der Anklagebehörde)

Copy of above served on accused ..... 194.....
Abschrift dem Angeklagten zugestellt am

.....

(Signature of person making service)
(Unterschrift des Zustellers)

CA/GI 13 Legal Form No. 8

Court

(20)

MILITARY GOVERNMENT COURT

CASE RECORD.

Pages 1234 - 1321

Case No. Superior Orders

*~~Summary~~
*~~Intermediate~~ Military Court.
*General

Place DACHAU, GERMANY

Date 19 February 1947

Members of Court:

WITNESSES:
KARL FRANZ STATTMAN
MICHAEL RAAF

Prosecutor Lt Col Dwinell

Defence Counsel Lt Col Berman

Interpreter Rudolf M Nathanson
Herbert B Rosenstock

Reporter Patricia Stewart, Sgt William F Jones, John McDonald, Peter L DiCurti, Sally Rose Hayett, Evelyn Cohen

Accused JURGEN STROOP, et al

Address ..... Sex ..... Age .....

	First Charge	Second Charge
Pleas
Findings
Previous Convictions

Sentence
- Imprisonment
  - Term .....
  - Beginning ..... 194.....
- Fine
  - Amount .....
  - To be paid before ..... 194.....
  - or in case of default of payment to serve a *further term of ..... imprisonment.

Charge Sheet and Record of Testimony are annexed hereto.

.....
(Signature of member of court.)

REVIEW.

Action of Reviewing Authority .....

.....

.....
(Signature of reviewing authority)

*Strike out words not applicable.

RECORD OF TESTIMONY

in trial of Camp Dachau, Germany

THE UNITED STATES versus JURGEN STROOP, et al

convened by [redacted]

(Thereupon [redacted] entered the room.)

PRESIDENT: The court will come to order.

DACHAU, GERMANY, [redacted] Now it pleases the court, [redacted] BEGINNING 10 JANUARY 1947

[redacted] all 10 JANUARY 1947 [redacted] Pages 1254 to 1321 inclusive, who is [redacted] authority; all the members of the court, [redacted] defense, except [redacted] the accused, who is absent sick; all of the accused; the reporter and the interpreter are present.

TESTIMONY

	Direct	Cross	Redirect	Recross	Court
KARL FRANZ STATTMAN	1254	1258	1288	1291
MICHAEL RAAF	1292	1313	1320

MR. MACHAUS: If the court please, at the close of the session [redacted] and was being examined by defense counsel. He will resume the stand.

PRESIDENT: Resume the stand. You are reminded you are still under oath.

KARL FRANZ STATTMAN, a witness, voluntarily resumed the stand in his own behalf, and being reminded that he was still under oath, testified further through an interpreter as follows:

FURTHER EXAMINATION

CONTINUED BY DR. ARNDTS:

[redacted]: May I ask that Sievel be excused so that he might be talked to by one of his lawyers? He is not involved in this.

PRESIDENT: Permission granted.

(Whereupon the accused Sievel was excused and withdrew.)

PRESIDENT: May it please the court, let the record show that I was in error at the beginning of this session when I said that all of the accused were present. I note that the accused Goss, No. 15, and the accused Seebler, No. 5, are absent also.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Yes, as the record tells us.

Pa 151-ps-80-2/19-1

Pa 151-ps-80-2/19-1

PROSECUTION: Let the record show that Camp Ansbach, Germany has left the courtroom with the permission of the court on 19 February 1947 to defense counsel. MORNING SESSION

QUESTION: (The Eighth Trial resumed at 0900 hours.)

Q PRESIDENT: Court will come to order. Yesterday's session, you testified that the PROSECUTION, May it please the court, let the record show that all the members of the court, except Colonel Pierce, who is temporarily absent, having been temporarily excused by the appointing authority, all the members of the prosecution, all the members of the defense, except Major Schuyler, who is absent on business of the court and the record, show it should also show all of the accused the reporter is and the interpreters are present in our offices. Later on, when I was ordered to MR. MORRIS, Of the court please, at the close of the session yesterday, this defendant Hartmann was on the witness stand and was being examined by defense counsel. He will resume the stand.

Q PRESIDENT: Because the witness was reminded you are still under testimony in the German Wehrmacht?

A MAX THEIN HARTMANN, an accused, voluntarily resumed the stand in his own behalf, and being reminded that he was still under oath, testified further through an interpreter as follows:

Q Were any official trips, did you receive any special MORRIS EXAMINATION any kind?

QUESTION BY DR. MORRIS: transfer to the German Wehrmacht, we were subject to all the MORRIS EXAMINATION May I ask that Michel be excused, that he might be advised to by one of his lawyers. He is not involved in this. We had to MORRIS furlough granted Hartmann. During our furloughs, we h

(Thereupon the accused Michel was excused and withdrew.)

PROSECUTION: May it please the court, let the record show that I was in error at the beginning of this session when I said that all of the accused were present. I note that the accused Lang, No. 15, and the accused Buehler, No. 5, are absent sick. As far as I am recollect, on this of 19 MORRIS EXAMINATION. Then, on the ground talks up... of 1943, PROSECUTION: Let the record show that the accused Kiehel has left the courtroom with the permission of the court to confer with defense counsel.

QUESTIONS BY DR. ARNDTS:

Q Mr. Gerstein, at the end of yesterday's session, you testified that the German Security Police had been supported to Geneva as a part of the German Military Service. Did you finish your testimony in this respect yesterday?

A No, that was not finished yet. The following has to be added: During this official roll call, this official meeting, we were requested to turn in our Army identification papers, as it is usual when a unit is transferred in Germany to turn into our offices. Later on, when I was ordered to the training course which I had mentioned before, through the State Police Headquarters in Darmstadt, I received my number, my Army pass, and pay book, and furthermore, I was paid through them.

Q Do you refer to the same identification number and pay book as formerly was customary in the German Wehrmacht?

A Yes, I am referring to that.

Q Starting from this time, when you had to make any official trips, did you receive any special official papers of any kind?

A Yes. With the transfer to the German Wehrmacht, we were subject to all the rules and regulations applicable to the German Wehrmacht. On the railroads, we travelled with German Wehrmacht tickets. On our trips, we had to use the billets of the German Wehrmacht. During our furloughs, we had to report to the local post commander, etc.

Q Please tell the court once more, as far as you can recollect, when this transfer to the German Wehrmacht took place.

A From the fact that the German Security Police had become a part of the German Wehrmacht, I was informed, as far as I can recollect, on this official meeting which I think took place in the fall of 1943.

Ta 181-ps-80-2/22-3

Q And since when did you receive your identification number, pay book and Wehrmacht papers?

A This pay book I received only later, because I had left my home offices. I can remember that during August of 1944 there was talk about at the Gestapo Headquarters at Darmstadt that I should receive my number and pay book. They were there already, but before they had a chance to hand these papers out to me, through an air raid the Gestapo Headquarters was bombed out and with it all these papers. For this reason, I received the pay book only on the 1st of December, 1944.

Q And your number, your serial number?

A The serial number, I can't say that exactly any more, might have been before or later.

Q But on the 25th of February, 1945, you were already in the possession of these military papers?

A Yes, I had them.

Q What was your last rank in the Gestapo or in the SS respectively?

A I was criminal assistant and SS technical sergeant in the service of the Reichsführer SS.

Q Since when did you have your rank with the SS?

A I can't say that exactly any more. It was already for seven weeks.

Q In the, I believe, asked all SS men to request front-line service.

A That could have been before that.

THE COURT: Let the record show that Q. You mentioned yesterday that you came to Darmstadt only for instructions and training, and that you went there through several departments. Do you know the reason why this training was interrupted and you were put on duty at Darmstadt?

A No. When my four months' service with the Gestapo Darmstadt were over, I reported to the SS Major Hahlenbroich, and he told me I had to stay with Gestapo Headquarters, Darmstadt. There was no leader at that time. I can't give you any information why I had to stay with the Gestapo Headquarters, Darmstadt. I please asked this question from Kaimer SS Major Hellenbreich. My transfer to the mountain troops of the SS.

Q Then you stayed with this headquarters without any further incidents?

A Yes, because I was still on temporary duty with the Gestapo Headquarters, and I was transferred to them only on the 1st of February, 1945. [illegible] was in August, 1944.

Q Did you make the attempt in any way or at any time to get a transfer from there? A. I was called to my unit commander, SS Major Berger, who A Yes. During the war, I made four applications requesting to. front-line service. anything in reply to these Q Can you give the approximate date of these requests? to make an [illegible] The first request I made in Trier. It was after the beginning of the war. The second request I made in June or July, at the beginning of the eastern campaign. [illegible] were called again. I remained it Q Which year? Honor as a [illegible] to stay away from the front line.

A It was in 1941.

Q The third request? [illegible]

A The third request I made when the Reichsfuehrer SS Heinrich Himmler took the command over the replacement army. At that time, the Reichsfuehrer SS publicly asked all SS men to request front-line service.

MR. CAPTAIN VANCE: May it please the court, let the record show that the accused Goth, No. 15, and the accused Koehler, No. 5, have resumed their seats in the dock.

QUESTIONS BY DR. AHRENDS: [illegible] Darmstadt be kept away?

Q Please continue. [illegible] was burned out at the night from [illegible]

A The fourth and last request I made in fall, 1944. It must have been shortly after the air attack on Darmstadt, which took place at the beginning of September, 1944. The reason for this application again was the request that all men with special training should ask for front-line

Gestapo Headquarters, Darmstadt. I please asked this question from Sturmbann SS Major Hellenbreich. My transfer to the Mountain troops of the SS.

Q Then you stayed with this headquarters without any further incidents?

A Yes, because I was still on temporary duty with the Gestapo Headquarters, and I was transferred to them only on the 1st of February, 1945. [illegible] was in answer, I did.

Q Did you make the attempt in any way or at any time to get a transfer from there? [illegible]

A Yes. During the war, I made four applications requesting to front-line services. [illegible]

Q Can you give the approximate date of these requests? [illegible]

A The first request I made in Trier. It was after the beginning of the war. The second request I made in June or July, at the beginning of the eastern campaign. [illegible] Which year? [illegible]

A It was in 1941.

Q The third request? [illegible]

A The third request I made when the Reichsfuehrer SS Heinrich Himmler took the command over the replacement army. At that time, the Reichsfuehrer SS publicly asked all SS men to request front-line service.

CAPTAIN VANCE: May it please the court, let the record show that the accused Goetz, No. 15, and the accused Koehler, No. 5, have resumed their seats in the dock.

QUESTIONS BY DR. AHRENDS: [illegible]

Q Please continue. [illegible]

A The fourth and last request I made in fall, 1944. It must have been shortly after the air attack on Darmstadt, which took place at the beginning of September, 1944. The reason for this application again was the request that all men with special training should ask for front-line service. Since through the conditions at my home I was a good mountaineer and skier, I requested my transfer to the mountain troops of the SS.

Q I am referring again to the third request. When did this one take place?

A The third request?

Q Which month and year?

A The third request, as far as I can remember, was in summer, 1944.

Q Which reply did you get to your third request?

A At that time, I was called to my unit commander, SS Major Gierger, who told me that every soldier has to stick to the job he is assigned to.

Q Did you say anything in reply to that?

A I asked him once more whether it wouldn't be possible to make an exception, since I was young and healthy, and at that time already older men were inducted, family fathers, etc., and as testimony in this trial has proven already, men badly wounded were called again. I considered it incompatible with my honor as a German to stay away from the front line.

Q What was the reply?

A I can't say that exactly any more. I was in my office at that time, but I was told that it was rejected in very strong words.

Q But approximately, please?

A It was rejected in very strong words.

Q What happened to the fourth request?

A The fourth request, I was just called to the administration and in short words I was told that it was impossible to be transferred to front-line service.

Q When was your headquarters at Darmstadt bombed out?

A The headquarters at Darmstadt was bombed out at the night from September 11th to 12th, 1944, when the City of Darmstadt, through a heavy air raid attack, was nearly completely destroyed.

Q What happened then to the headquarters?

A The headquarters Darmstadt was transferred to Bensheim on the Bergstrasse.

Q And you, too, moved to Bensheim?

A With the Gestapo Headquarters, also all members of the Gestapo Headquarters were transferred to Bensheim, with the exception of a few men who continued a separate office at Darmstadt.

Q Do you still recall the 15th of February, 1945?

A No, I can't recall the 15th of February, 1945. It was a day like any other day, but the fact that a few days later -- it must have been between the 22nd and the 25th of February -- a terror flier from the rural police of the County Worms was brought into the Gestapo Headquarters.

Q When on this day and how did you get knowledge of this on this day?

A With the transfer of the Security Police to the German Reichswehr, we had to work over there together with the members of the Wehrmacht. Then, on this day, the day the terror flier was brought to headquarters, I came from breakfast, it must have been around 8:30 in the morning, the low-flying flier was already present in my office.

Q Who else was present in your room?

A Of course, I can't say who was present in my office at that time, but I assume that the SS 2nd Lt. Dengler and the female typist Bendinger, who was his secretary, were present; but it is possible also that only the guard post of the permanent guard was present, and that Dengler came with me from breakfast.

Q Please tell us what happened with this flier, or in regard to this flier, after you arrived at your office.

A After breakfast was over, all men who were present there returned to their offices, and when they heard that a terror flier was in the house, very soon some of them came to my offices, so that then several persons were present there.

Q Continue, please.

A A short while later, SS Major Hellenbroich arrived. I assume in the meantime he received a report from the guard that this flier had been delivered. Anyway, he entered the room and sent everybody who had no business in this room away. [illegible] sends through the air

Q Who stayed in the room? (D.) Then I [illegible]

A As far as I can recall, there was the flier, SS Major Hellenbroich, SS 2nd Lt. Dengler, his secretary, and I.

Q Did SS Major Hellenbroich interrogate the flier in any way, or what did he do? [illegible] low-flying flier [illegible] terror flier had

A Yes. SS Major Hellenbroich at that time tried to make an [illegible] interrogation of the flier, but it didn't become a real interrogation, because for an interrogation, as far as I understand it, belong questions and answers. Furthermore, Hellenbroich didn't speak English perfectly. For this reason, later on the SS 1st Sergeant Freudenberger was called, who, too, knew the English language only halfway.

Q You said before it was not a real interrogation because there were no questions and answers. Didn't SS Major Hellenbroich propound certain questions? [illegible] in a position to know what they did there.

A Yes. Hellenbroich asked the flier for his name, rank and serial number, and his unit. The terror flier answered the question for his name and his rank. He kept silent to the question about his unit. Since we assumed he didn't understand the English of Freudenberger and Hellenbroich, we tried to explain to him through motions what we wanted to know from him. I can recall that, for instance, I made the following motion to him: I went with my hands through the air and made a sound like (demonstrating). Then I let my fist drop and made a sound (demonstrating.)

Q What did you want to say by that?

A I wanted to ask him in this way whether he was a member of a bomber crew.

Q What did the flier answer in reply, if anything at all?

A He laughed and denied with his hand.

Ta 183-sp-80-2/19-8

Q Did you make any other attempt to make yourself understood through motions or signs?

A Yes. Then I continued to show with my hands through the air and make a sound like (demonstrating.) Then I tried to imitate the sound of a machine gun (demonstrating) and told him "civilians."

Q What did he do in reply to that?

A He laughed and didn't either say yes or no to this question.

Q You said before that a low-flying flier or a terror flier had been brought in. How did you come to the conclusion this was a low-flying flier or a terror flier?

A When the rural police delivered this flier to headquarters, they made a report also that this terror flier had been interrogated by the rural police already. During the interrogation of the rural police, the flier had admitted ——

CAPTAIN VANCE: May it please the court, I am going to object to this testimony now unless it is first shown that this man was over at the rural police. He isn't in a position to know what they did there.

MR. RACHAEL: If the court please, the witness is testifying to a report made, an official report made by the gendarme upon the capture of the flier.

CAPTAIN VANCE: If he is, he has failed to tell this court that that is what he was doing. He has not testified about an official report. He said when he got to work from breakfast, the flier was there; he walked in the room; that they started interrogating him. He hasn't said anything about seeing an official report at all.

MR. RACHAEL: The witness has stated that the gendarme made a report and that in the report they said the following, and the witness is testifying what was in that report.

PRESIDENT: The objection is overruled, but I want to caution the German defense counsel that it seems that we are not getting anywhere with this questioning so far. What are you trying to prove?

Ta 181-ps-80-2/19-9

DR. [illegible] May it please the court, the purpose of this question is to bring out that this flier had not been shot down when he made air attacks in connection with the report, but that the utterance about the written report from the rural police at Worms to which our Gestapo Headquarters at Mainz in that this flier had [illegible] civilian population. [illegible] this is important for the question that had happened later on to this flier; later in the day, we had also [illegible] the same question that you put to the point as briefly as possible, at least to the man in charge of the detail.

QUESTIONS BY DR. [illegible]: In charge of the detail of the rural police [illegible] was the part of the report of the rural police at Worms that this flier had strafed the civilian [illegible] what furthermore that [illegible] The flier had been shot by the rural police at Worms and had admitted this. This was part of the report; it ought not to be the [illegible] I am referring to the report of the rural police at Worms.

[illegible] May it please the court, I am going to make my objection. They have never proved that this man saw the report or even that he talked to these rural police. Until they do that, how is the court going to permit him to tell what this report is about?

DR. [illegible]: I would like to explain that in the German language, when we speak about a report, we are always referring to a written report in cases of this character, and it is obvious from the replies which were given so far that the witness saw this report, but I will ask him further whether he saw this report himself and read it.

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled. Go ahead and ask him.

[illegible] The answers were being read and I could [illegible] and I couldn't help [illegible] understand German and

End ta 181
wfj fols

Q Did you yourself see this written report of the rural police eh Wenne and did you read it? Pardon me, he was sitting. On account of this [illegible] I myself had the report in my hands and read it. Furthermore I can remember that it was said in this report that the terror flyer when taken into custody had used his pistol. Since the rural policemen who had brought the flyer to headquarters were still present, since their train back left later in the day, we had also the possibility to talk to the rural policemen and Hellenbreich in my presence, spoke at least to the man in charge of the detail. [illegible] rural Q And did the man in charge of the detail of the rural police confirm what was said in the written report? [illegible] otation at that time auxiliary Yes, he not only confirmed it but added furthermore that besides the fact that this flyer who had been shot down was a terror flyer, he had not delivered this flyer to the Wehrmacht but to the Gestapo headquarters.

Q What happened after Hellenbreich had interrogated the flyer and had read the written report, if he read it at all? I passed with it [illegible] Please, I can't say exactly whether he was present in the room during the entire interrogation. Due to the difficulties in understanding each other, this interrogation took as far as I can to recall at least three-quarters of an hour. [illegible] called Hellenbreich or Girse. [illegible] Q What do you recall next when you got in any contact with the flyer? [illegible] understood German and for this reason he didn't want to make it. I know that after this, three-quarters of an hour Hellenbreich left the room and the flyer stayed in the room standing. He was standing close to a desk on which several papers were lying and looked into these papers. SS Second Lieutenant Dengler and I couldn't help but get the impression that the terror flyer understood German and was reading in these papers. Pardon me, he was sitting. On account of this Dengler asked him to get up and turn his face to the wall in German language. Then the flyer got up, turned around with his face to the wall.

Q Was any harm done to the flyer while he was in this room?

A No, the flyer was not touched.

Q Was anything taken away from him?

A His personal belongings had been taken away already by the rural police during their interrogation and they were brought over to us in an envelope. Since at the rural police station at that time auxiliary policemen were used and we had bad experiences with these men, the flyer was searched by us once more.

Q Was anything found on him?

A No.

Q After Hellenbreich had left, what happened then?

A In my estimation an hour and a half or an hour passed without anything happened. Since the flyer was still standing there, Dengler got up and told me that he would inquire what should be done and left the room. Later on he told me that he went to the opposite room of the CQ and that from there he had called Hellenbreich or Girke. I think it was Hellenbreich. The reason for that he said he thought that the flyer understood German and for this reason he didn't want to make the call in his presence.

Q What happened then?

A Anyway Second Lieutenant Dengler returned five or ten minutes later and ordered me to report to SS Major Hellenbreich.

Q Did you do that?

Take 182 - SO 2/19 - wfj 3
Take 182 - SO 2/19 - wfj 4

A Yes, I did that. The order was carried out.

Q What happened there? A I myself was a witness of the events. SS Major Hollenbreich told me that SS Major Girke had given us the order to shoot the flyer who had been bombed daily by low flying planes and captured. Did he say anything who should take over the execution?

A No, I asked him how this should be done, that I had never myself Q What did he say in reply? A We were working in the field; that they Q He said to me that we have to ask the SS Major Girke. SS to Major Hollenbreich and I went to SS Major Girke and SS Major Girke ordered that the flyer should be shot in the forest in the neighborhood of Bottrop. Then Raaf and I left the headquarters. We walked up the dr Q Did he say who should do it? A.

A I hadn't finished that. He furthermore ordered me to take along the SS 1st Sgt. Raaf as an older official. The order was given also for Raaf and I had to transmit this order to him, which I did and that he was Q A Did you do that? A Afterwards and that only in January he had gone. I then went to Raaf into his office and I told him in the presence of four or five comrades who were present there the order which SS Major Girke had given. (Lasted at 1:30 hours.)

Q What happened then?

A I asked the SS 1st Sgt. Raaf to come over into my office.

I myself returned to the office where the flyer was kept, took my belt. In the meantime Raaf came. We asked the terror flyer to come along with us and left with him the headquarters.

Q After you had received this order from SS Major Girke, did you express in any way that you would not follow the order or that you would follow the order, that you would obey the order?

A No, it was not usual in the German Army when a man who received an order liked to carry out this order or didn't like it.

(Stattman - Direct)

1245

(Proceedings in court reconvened at 1050 hours.)

PRESIDENT: The court will come to order.

Q Did you consider the order justified or not?

MR SCHMIDT: May it please the court, let the record show that all the members of the court, all the members of the prosecution, all the members of the defense except Major Eaton are in court and the entire neighborhood had been bombed daily by low flying planes and based on my own observations that these low flying flyers had strafed civilian populations, children and women, that I had seen myself and had strafed farmers who were working in the field; that they had shot the people running away and that they always returned to them, I considered this order justified. [illegible], continue.

Q How did you carry out this order?

A 1st Lt. Raaf and I left the headquarters. We walked in the direction of the village of Schoenberg. Please continue with your story.

Q I forgot to ask you before. Did you have any knowledge of the nationality of the flyer when the village of Schoenberg we took a path in the [illegible] Yes. The flyer had a paper with him which indicated that he was a member of the American airforce and that only in January he had been promoted to Captain. [illegible] PRESIDENT: Court will recess for twenty minutes. [illegible]

(Whereupon the court was closed at 1000 hours.)

A The flyer collapsed and still moved. Then the 1st Sergeant Raaf stepped over to the flyer fired a mercy shot at the flyer.

Q After the court was in session, what happened to the body?

A We, the whole [illegible] of the flyer to the side from the roads and covered it with twigs. A return to headquarters was reported to Lt Major Hallenbruch. He ordered it to be buried with full military honors.

A That's correct.

(Continued)

(Stattman - Direct)

(Whereupon the court reconvened at 1020 hours.)

PRESIDENT: The court will come to order. [illegible]

PROSECUTION: May it please the court, let the record show that all the members of the court, all the members of the prosecution, all the members of the defense except Major Seton who is absent on business of the defense and Dr. Trost who is absent sick; all of the accused with the exception of Eichel, who is out conferring with his defense counsel, the court reporter and interpreter are present. [illegible]

KARL FRANZ STATTMAN, an accused, being duly reminded that he was still under oath, resumed the stand and testified as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION, continued

QUESTIONS BY DR. AHRENS:

Q Mr. Stattman, before the recess you testified that you and Raaf left headquarters at Bensheim with the flyers. Please continue with your story.

A After we had left headquarters at Bensheim we walked in the direction of Schoenberg. Before we reached the village of Schoenberg we took a path in the direction of the forest and inside the forest we took another path in the direction of back to Bensheim. On this forest path in the direction of Bensheim on the last third of the road I shot at the flyer who was walking in front of me one shot out of my duty pistol, the German Army pistol '08.

Q Was this shot fatal?

A The flyer collapsed and still moved. Then the SS First Sergeant Raaf stepped over to him and fired a mercy shot at the flyer.

Q Did the corpse stay on the spot, or what happened to the body?

A No. We carried the body of the flyer to the side into the woods and covered it with twigs. We returned to headquarters and reported to SS Major Hellenbroich. He ordered us to report back also to SS Major Girke.

Q This happened?

(Stattman-direct)

1243

A That was some [illegible] had driven in the

Q Did you also make a written report in regard to this execution?

A Yes. It was usual that a report was made in regard to all major incidents. At that time I made a written report which said that the American flyer, as far as I can recall Captain Ray Herman, had been shot in accordance with orders on such and such date at such and such hour. This report I attached to the report which was made by the rural police attached to which was another list which contained all the personal belongings which had been taken away from the flyer. [illegible]

Q What happened with this file, then? [illegible]

A This report was passed through and finally came through SS Major Hellenbreich and was then filed. [illegible]

Q Can you tell the court anything about your feelings when you executed the flyer? [illegible] told me I would report to SS Major Hellenbreich in the [illegible] I felt sorry for the flyer. I went to the guardroom and reported there.

Q Now we have to take up the second case of 24 March, 1945. Did anything unusual happen on this day?

A Yes. On this day Gestapo Headquarters, Bensheim was ready for the retreat. American forces, at that time, had already crossed the Rhine. They had reached the village of Haenlein approximately six kilometers from Bensheim and were advancing from Darmstadt on the Reichs autobahn in the direction of Mannheim. Were present SS Major Hellenbreich and an American flyer and in the evening hours at Bensheim you could hear the noise made by the chains of the moving tanks. [illegible]

Q That was the reason why headquarters got ready to retreat? [illegible]

A Yes. [illegible] flyer who was standing there had to be [illegible]

Q Did anything unusual happen in regard to American flyers on this day? [illegible] SS Major Hellenbreich asked [illegible] (Stattmann Street) [illegible] SS Major Hirsch ordered that the [illegible]

A Yes. Shortly before with SS Major Seiler I had driven in the direction of Koenigsin in order to find out the position of the enemy. We got in touch with the enemy for a short time, returned then and SS Major Seiler reported this to SS Major Hellenbroich or Girke. I don't recall anymore to exactly whom of these two. On occasion I should be careful about Q At what time of the day was this? shot. I gave the flyer

A In my estimation we must have returned at approximately eight or eight-thirty first one shot at the flyer. The flyer collapsed dead.

Q In the morning or evening? then went from there back?

A In the evening. I went to the room where most of my comrades stayed and we discussed the position of the enemy. For a few minutes--five or ten minutes--might have passed when in the hall my name was called. I left the room and one of the men outside there--one of the group who was lately standing around there told me I should report to SS Major Hellenbroich in the guardroom. He had asked for me. I went to the guardroom and reported there to SS Major Hellenbroich.

Q Since at that time a special air landing alarm had been given, since American troops had landed in the neighborhood of Cressgoran, the guardroom was blacked out at that time. Only a little table light was burning which was covered too. But it was dead.

Q Continue with your story. The name of this flyer?

A In this room were present SS Major Hellenbroich and an American flyer and in the back there were a few more people standing. I couldn't recognize them, but I think they were comrades of mine. Special case to my attention. After I had reported to Hellenbroich, Hellenbroich told me that SS Major Girke had ordered that this flyer who was standing there had to be shot. I asked where this should be done. At this moment SS Major Girke entered the room for a moment and SS Major Hellenbroich asked SS Major Girke where this should be done. SS Major Girke ordered that the execution should take place in the backyard of headquarters since there was no more time left. I went back in our waiting room, picked up my official pistol and went to the guardroom where Hellenbreich and the flyer were present. Now I don't know anymore whether SS Major Hellenbreich told me on the first occasion or only at the second occasion I should be careful since the flyer had been told that he would be shot. I gave the flyer a sign that he should come out with me, went with him to the garden and in the garden I fired one shot at the flyer. The flyer collapsed dead.

(Statement cont.) on this table. SS Major Hellenbroich had a little silver

(Statement cont.)

Q Did you fire the shot from the front or from the back?

A When we had reached the end of the garden we came in the shadow of a house and close to the house there was a low fence. The moment we reached the shade the flyer tried to escape on the side. He only could make one step since I was carrying my pistol in my hand so I fired immediately at him. Did Hellenbreich say anything in reply?

Q This shot was fired from the back?

A You know what happened to the body of the flyer?

Q Can you say where you hit the flyer? A few more minutes and then SS F'A. S. pointed at his head and reported that he too had shot a flyer. Then it was

Q Did you make certain after the flyer fell that he was dead and so forth?

A Yes, I made certain that he was dead.

Q Do you know anything about the name of this flyer? (Pistol showing the person, the name is not known to me. Person with a picture with the name Willy Fox. What kind of clothes was the flyer wearing?

A At that time it was dark in the room. Nothing special came to my attention and for this reason I can't give any description of the clothes the flyer was wearing. The only thing which might be worth mentioning was, that he was wearing a jacket with a zipper. (picture to the corpse of the flyer

Q Did the flyer carry anything with him?

A Yes. The first time when I entered the room several belongings of the flyer were lying on the table. SS Major Hellenbreich had a little silver

(Statement continued) 1250

pld-183-8

chain in his hand--his aerial mentor.

Q The second time when I covered the room there things were not on the table anymore and I assume he put them in his pocket?

Q When you took the flyer to the ground was he carrying a pocket for his pistol or anything else of that kind?

A No, the flyer was not carrying any pocket for his pistol and this would have been impossible since during the combat all arms and other military equipment would have been taken away from him.

Q Did you see anything of a scabbard on the flyer?

A No, he didn't wear any scabbard.

Q What happened with the flyer after you had shot him?

A I returned and reported to Hillenkoetter that his orders had been carried out.

Q Hillenkoetter only carrying a flyer?

A No.

Q Do you know what happened to the body of the flyer?

A Yes. I stayed in the quarters for a few more minutes and then Staff Sergeant Hair came in and reported that he too had shot a flyer. Then Major Hillenkoetter ordered Hair to bury these flyers or have prepared by himself. I don't recall anymore exactly today.

Q I show you now a photograph bearing Prosecution Exhibit P-81 showing the personal belongings of a person with a picture with [illegible] Willy Pechmann. Was this the flyer you shot?

A No, that is not the flyer I shot. As far as I can recall the flyer I shot had a beard like [illegible]. I saw carefully because I didn't step up to the table at all.

Q Furthermore I show you now Prosecution Exhibit P-77 and ask you now whether the corpse lying in front of the picture is the corpse of the flyer you shot?

[illegible] examined [illegible] account of the bandage. After the [illegible] CAPTAIN VANCE, no object on the ground that this witness cannot possibly know who this man in this photograph is because the photograph he is showing him has the face the other way.

DR. ALEXIM: I will withdraw that question and ask another.

Q I ask you if you have any indication that the corpse of the man lying in front of this picture is the body of the flyer you shot?

A I can't say neither yes nor no to this question, but based on the fact that this corpse is wearing a belt with a pistol pocket, it is impossible that this is the flyer I shot.

Q Furthermore I show you the Prosecution Exhibit P-79 and I ask you whether you have any indication that the man lying in front of this picture is the body of the flyer you have shot?

A The body of this flyer or better this man here in front is carrying a belt with ammunition pockets and some kind of a bag and scabbard. Based on this fact it is impossible that this is the man I shot because the flyer I shot did not carry these things.

(Thereupon the court recessed.)

Q So you want to say that he neither wore such a belt nor a pocket for ammunition nor a scabbard nor this kind of bag?

A Yes, that is what I wanted to say.

Q I show you now a few additional Prosecution Exhibits, P-96 and P-97 and P-98, identification papers for William Ferguson and I ask you whether the flyer who had been shot by you was carrying such identification papers or not?

A I can't know that, I didn't see any papers on him.

Q You said before that several belongings of the flyer were lying on the table when you entered the room. Did you look carefully at those belongings or not?

A No, I didn't look at them carefully because I didn't step up to the table at all.

Q You had said this forenoon that your headquarters had been transferred from Darmstadt to Bamberg on account of the bombings. After the bombing of your headquarters did the members of your office have anything

(Stattmann-direct)

Q You said before that your own experiences in to do with the burying of corpses and finding of the corpses in the woods?
Darmstadt convinced you that the order to shoot the flyer,
A Yes, at that time, on the initiative of SS Major Girke several which was given by SS Major Girke, was justified and correct.
auxiliary measures were put into effect and some members of headquarters
What did you have to do with the picking up of the corpses were put on so-called "corpse finding details". These details had the duty
A Darmstadt: to pick up the bodies which were lying on the streets and to take care of CAPTAIN VANCE: If it please the court, we object. their burial. At that time we picked up, as far as I can recall, six thousand
The court just two minutes ago ruled on this same question.
bodies during a period of four weeks.
It is repetitious.
CAPTAIN VANCE: We object to this line of questions on the ground
MR. MACHAN: If the court please, there is nothing that it is immaterial, has no bearing on this case whatsoever and we move in the record now to indicate the ruling of the court, and we that it be stricken from the record.
respectfully submit that defense counsel at this time is en-
PRESIDENT: Motion to strike is sustained.
titled, if the opinion of the court is the same as previously,
We will take a recess in place.
to lay a foundation for an offer of proof.
(Thereupon the court recessed.)
PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.
(Thereupon the court reconvened.)
DR. AHRENS: Please read the question once more.
PRESIDENT: The court will come to order.
(Thereupon the last question was read by the reporter.)
PROSECUTION: If it please the court, let the record show that THE WITNESS: I was a detail and had the job of pick-during the recess the accused Michel wearing placard number six resumed his ing up the corpses in the streets and in the basements. This seat in the dock and also that Dr. Mulzer has returned. job always lasted only for a few days and was then interrupted again, but altogether this job took over four weeks. It was impossible to work permanently on this detail, since through the sweet smell of the corpses--since they were burned--through the fact that they were already molding, every man on the detail was suffering so much that it was impossible to eat normally and so on.
CAPTAIN VANCE: If it please the court, the answer is not responsive to the question. The answer is not material to the issues before this court, and we move that this answer be stricken physically from the record.

Rahe 184 - 80
8-10-47; JMMcD; 1
8-13-47; JMMcD; 1

Q You said before that your own experiences in Darmstadt convinced you that the order to shoot the flyer, which was given by an Major Dirke, was justified and correct. What did you have to do with the picking up of the corpses at Darmstadt?

Major Dirke. The purpose of these questions was to lay a foundation for the personal knowledge of the actions of the accused in connection with the CAPTAIN VANCE: If it please the court, we object. The court just two minutes ago ruled on this same question. It is repetitious.

MR. BACHARI: If the court please, there is nothing in the record now to indicate the ruling of the court, and we respectfully submit that defense counsel at this time is entitled, if the opinion of the court is the same as previously, to lay a foundation for an offer of proof.

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

Q

MR. AREINER: Please read the question once more.

(Whereupon the last question was read by the reporter.)

THE WITNESS: I was a detail and had the job of picking up the corpses in the streets and in the basements. This job always lasted only for a few days and was then interrupted again, but altogether this job took over four weeks. It was impossible to work permanently on this detail, since through the sweet smell of the corpses--since they were burned--through the fact that they were already molding, every man on the detail was suffering so much that it was impossible to eat normally and so on.

CAPTAIN VANCE: If it please the court, the answer is not responsive to the question. The answer is not material to the issues before this court, and we move that this answer be excluded physically from the record.

(Stattman - Direct) I do not want to make any further argument.

DR. AHRIMER: I would like to say the following, may it please the court: The accused has testified before that his experiences at Darmstadt were of great importance for his belief in the righteousness of the order which he received from SS Major Girke. The purpose of these questions was to lay a foundation for the personal experiences and the actions of the accused in Darmstadt; and if this, as the accused said to himself, was determining for his belief in the legality and justifiableness of this order, it is important not only for the question of guilt but also for the question of sentence.

PRESIDENT: The motion to strike is denied.

QUESTIONS BY DR. AHRIMER:

Q Did you read carefully the charge sheet which was served to you?

A The charge sheet was read to me by the prosecution, and I read it too, myself.

Q Then you know that in Charge No. 1 you are accused of having participated in a conspiracy, as it is called by the prosecution?

A Yes. It is known to me.

Q In your convictions and opinions did you participate in such a conspiracy?

CAPTAIN VANCE: We object on the ground the question calls for a legal conclusion and it invades the province of this court. By the question itself he asked him for an opinion, which cannot be received. Not even if he were an expert on military law could he answer it, which he has not been qualified to do.

DR. AHRIMER: I do not want to make any further argument.

PRESIDENT: The objection is overruled.

DR. AHEIMER: Please read the question once more.

(Whereupon the last question was read by the reporter as follows: "Q Did you in your convictions and opinions did you participate in such a conspiracy?")

A No.

THE WITNESS: No. No way whatsoever have I participated in a conspiracy.

Q That means your entire activity connected with these orders to these orders?

QUESTIONS BY DR. AHEIMER:

A As far as I can remember, at least as far as my person is concerned, these orders were given only for the treatment of fliers--orders as they were presented to the court in the prosecution's case?

Q One more question to Charge No. 13: Did you hear when the statement of Kaminski was read by the prosecution?

A Yes, I did.

Q In which way did these orders come to your knowledge?

A During my service with the order police I was in charge of an independent front police office, and I had to participate on several official meetings of the guard leaders of these posts. In these meetings these orders were partly brought to our attention. Later on while I was attached to Gestapo Headquarters Darmstadt I was assigned to SS 2nd Lieutenant Dorrler, who was in charge of the department. Whenever SS 2nd Lieutenant Dorrler was absent on official trips it was my duty to participate on official meetings of the various department heads, since you might say I was his first assistant, since a department consisted only of two men. And during these occasions, if I understand rightly, other orders were brought to your attention to that right?

A Yes, as far as I can recall at least one or two orders were made known to us at that time, but it is also possible that I got knowledge of some of these orders through the fact that the orders had to be filed in Dangler's department.

Q Based on these orders of a general nature, did you at any time undertake any steps?

A No.

Q That means your entire activity consisted in listening to these orders?

A As far as I can remember, at least as far as my person is concerned, these orders were given only for our information.

Q One more question to Charge No. 10: Did you hear when the statement of Kaminski was read by the prosecution?

A Yes, I did.

Q Do you recall that Kaminski said in this statement that the fliers were brought by members of the Wehrmacht or the SS, and that a major of the Wehrmacht had requested that these fliers should be shot?

A Yes, I remember that. I was told later on--that means after the fliers had been shot--that this flyer had been delivered to our headquarters by members of the air force. When I reported back to SS Major Hellenbroich and stayed in the guardroom for a few more minutes, I remembered also the report which was made at the time the flyers were delivered to headquarters. As far as I can recall the report was written by an anti-aircraft unit in the area of Hoppenheim, but it is also possible that only the flyer had been shot down at Hoppenheim. Anyway, he was taken prisoner through an anti-aircraft unit, was for two or three days already in custody of this unit, and had been interrogated by the official Wehrmacht investigator in charge.

Take 184 - 30
2-19-47;JCMcD;5

Q Did you find this later on in the written report?

Q What happened to the American that you did kill in

A Yes, this was said in the written report. Other the back yard? Was he buried?

things were said there, too--that the second flyer had been

A After I made certain that the flyer was dead, we taken prisoner, too, two or three days later, that means the sun left there on the ground. When I had reported back to the same day he was transferred to us.

Major Hollenbeck and stayed in the guardroom for a few more

MR. AHLEMEYER: One question by Dr. Buerger.

minutes, at last Sergeant Haas entered the room and reported that he too had shot a flyer, and I think now that at last

QUESTIONS BY DR. BUERGER:

Q I bring to your attention Charge No. 6. What kind Sergeant Kaaf said that it wouldn't be right to leave the of weapon was Kaaf carrying when you went with him and the corpses of these two fliers lying in the garden, alone in flyer?

area of an occupation through the American troops, which had

A Kaaf was carrying a duty pistol, Walther PPK. That to follow any minute, the neighboring civilians could be en-means police pistol, 7.65.

dangered. I think then that in reply as last Sergeant Kaaf,

Q Are you absolutely certain of that?

together with four or five other men, got the order to bury

A Yes. I know definitely.

these two fliers. I myself did not participate on this burial.

MR. RACHAEL: You may examine.

Q The order to bury them where?

CROSS EXAMINATION

A In the garden of Gestapo headquarters. Hermstadt at

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Bensheim.

Q Stattman, Dr. Ahlemeyer showed you certain pictures

Your testimony is that there [illegible] that have been introduced in evidence as the bodies that that were dug up in the back yard of the Gestapo building in were buried up in the back yard of the Gestapo building in Bensheim. You say that that is not the body of the person buried in the back yard. Is that correct?

that you killed; is that correct?

Mr. Rachael: Just a minute.

A Yes, this is correct. It can't be the body.

A I didn't say--

Q How many American bodies did you bury in the back

Mr. Rachael: I object to the answer be stricken yard of the Gestapo at Bensheim?

out. I object to the question on the ground that it is pre-

A I didn't bury any corpses. judicial, so the

Q How many were buried by the Gestapo in the back yard

Does no evidence [illegible] there have been of the Gestapo headquarters in Bensheim?

any murders [illegible] the prosecution to understand

A That is unknown to me.

(Stattman - Cross)

to sign t. What happened to the American that you did kill in the back yard? Was he buried? than two I respectfully submit that A. After I made certain that the flyer was dead, he was left there on the ground. Then I had reported back to SS Major Hallenbrich and stayed in the guardroom for a few more minutes. SS 1st Sergeant Raaf entered the room and reported that he too had shot a flyer, and I think now that SS 1st Sergeant Raaf said that it wouldn't be right to leave the corpses of these two fliers lying in the garden, since in case of an occupation through the American troops, which had to follow any minute, the neighboring civilians would be endangered. I think then that in reply SS 1st Sergeant Raaf together with four or five other men got the order to bury these two fliers. I myself did not participate on this burial. this Q: The order to bury them there?

A In the garden of Gestapo headquarters, Darmstadt at Eberhein. that garden, and at no time does he say he was ordered. Your testimony is that these two American bodies that were dug up in the back yard of the Gestapo building were surplus and in excess of the man that you killed and was buried in the back yard. Is that correct? was in that area, I don't k MR. RACHAEL: Just a minute. killed these two men, A. I didn't say them.

MR. RACHAEL: I ask that the answer be stricken out. I object to the question on the ground that it is prejudicial to the substantial rights of the accused. There has been no evidence yet, none whatsoever, that there have been any surplus bodies around here. The prosecution has endeavored to show two, and the defense has testified to two, and until the prosecution can show more than two I respectfully submit that the question injuriously affects the substantial rights of the accused to a fair and impartial trial.

(Stattman - Cross)

You said when you were called into the guardroom it was dark and the curtains were down and you could not see the flyer; isn't that right?

CAPTAIN VANCE: If it please the court, the defense brought this situation up. The prosecution showed by the witness Kaminski that two people were killed; that they were buried in the back yard; that the Gestapo moved out on that night of the 24th; that he goes around and sees two fresh graves; that the Americans arrive two days later; he shows them two fresh graves, and these are the two bodies that were exhumed from the ground. Now, if this witness comes in and says that is not the man that he killed, then it is nothing but common sense that there must have been more. The defense brought this before the court. We didn't.

MR. RACHAEL: If the court please, Kaminski was not present in that garden, and at no time does he say he was present in that garden between the time when the fliers were buried and the time--I don't know where the bodies of the fliers are--these two bodies were pointed out. The Gestapo had moved out of that area and someone else was in that area, I don't know who. And I don't know who killed these two men, and I don't know who buried them.

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

THE WITNESS: I can say only that the flyer I had shot was not wearing a munitions belt, etc., and all the other things he was wearing.

Q . You said when you were called into the guardroom that it was dark and the curtains were down and you could not see the flyer; isn't that right?

Q Now, you said when you were called into the guard room, that it was dark and the curtains were down and you could not see the flier, is that right?

A Oh, yes, I could see him. It wasn't that dark.

Q Didn't Mr. Heimer ask you to describe what the flier was wearing and you said it was so dark you could only recognize one object, which was his zippered jacket?

A No, I said that I could recall that he had a jacket with a zipper on. I didn't notice anything else on this flier.

Q Are you German or Austrian?

A I am a German national.

Q I believe in 1938 you voluntarily joined the police force, is that right?

A Yes, I did.

Q You testified that that was when Austria was returned to the Reich. What do you mean by that?

A Until 1938 I lived in Austria and with the return of the Ostmark to Germany, I received again the German nationality. Through the fact that I became a German Reich government official theoretically and practically, I acquired German citizenship for a second time so that today I am a German national.

Q All right. I believe you testified that you registered and voluntarily went with the police and were sent off to school, is that correct?

A Yes.

Q I believe you joined the SS in 1937. Was that Waffen SS or the Allgemeine SS?

A That was the Allgemeine SS.

Q You have heard aloud please in answer to my question, tell what the purpose of the Allgemeine SS was. I want you to tell the court what your idea is of the purpose, duties and function of the Allgemeine SS.

A The Allgemeine SS, according to the words of the Reich Fuehrer SS Heinrich Himmler, was an order of men of German blood and conscious of their German nationality. They were kept to serve the personal protection of the leader and the fuehrer and the other leaders. They were subject to certain laws, they had duties. That is the most important part.

Q What duties?

A In the Allgemeine SS in voluntary discipline, they had to follow the orders of their superior officers, they had to do certain duties, for instance, during political meetings of the Nazi Party, they had to protect the speaker. They had, so far as possible, to be active as propagandists as far as they could do this in accordance with their mental faculties.

Q So you entirely disagree with Colonel Lasch on his version of the Allgemeine SS, is that right?

A It was so, that every unit commander imposed his will to his unit. If the unit commander was a man with military interests and manner, then his unit was good and well organized in discipline and military manners. If he wasn't, then the entire unit under his command was just a club.

Q The Allgemeine SS was a setup for certain civilians to join, who were members of the Nazi Party. That is correct, is it not?

A It wasn't absolutely necessary that they were members of the Nazi Party.

Q What I mean is, the Waffen SS was part of the military, that is correct, is it not?

(Steckman-direct)

A The Waffen SS was organized only during the war from the volunteer so-called troops at the immediate disposal; that was the Leib Regiment Adolf Hitler and the so-called Deutschland units which had charge of the concentration camps before. In addition to the Leib Regiment Adolf Hitler, there were other units like the Regiments Germany, Deutschland, and so forth. These regiments at that time had the main troops for emergency use.

Q Let us see if you can answer my question a little shorter, if you can. I just want to save time. The Waffen SS was part of the military -- members of the Waffen SS were soldiers. That is correct, is it not?

A Yes, men could be drafted into the Waffen SS.

Q Allgemeine SS was made up of civilians who belonged to the Nazi Party. That is correct, is it not?

A No, it consisted only of National Socialists. It wasn't necessary that these men were registered as members of the National Socialistic Labor Party.

Q It was a civilian organization though? It had nothing to do with the military?

A Yes, I remember.

Q Now, I believe you testified that when you decided to get into the SD you had to sign a statement that you would obey orders of your superior, to join, is that correct?

A No, I didn't sign this statement when I entered the SD, but I signed this statement when I was put on duty.

Q You did sign such a statement?

A Yes.

Q Did you agree to obey criminal orders or illegal orders, or both?

A There was no mention of criminal orders which I have to obey.

Q Were you forced to sign this paper or did you sign it
A I stayed in the service of the Secret Police until the voluntarily?
armistice.
A No, I wasn't forced, I did it voluntarily.
Q Now, from your testimony, are you trying to tell this court that in the year 1945 you were a member of the German Wehrmacht?
A Yes, I had an SS pay book.
A In 1945 I was a member of the Secret State Police, the Q I am not talking about the SS. I am talking about the Gestapo, which was a part of the German Wehrmacht.
Wehrmacht.
Q You have testified and told this court that Geneva was A The SS was a part of the German Wehrmacht. The Wehrmacht notified that you were taken into the Wehrmacht. You do not know was the name for all of them. Under the name Wehrmacht you had the anything about that yourself, do you?
army, air force, navy and the Waffen SS.
A I was only informed of this official meeting in the fall
Q I thought you were a member of the Allgemeine SS. Did you of 1945, that now the Security Police had been registered with the Red also belong to the Waffen SS?
Cross at Geneva as part of Germany's armed forces.
A I was a member in the Allgemeine SS until I entered the Q That is as far as you know about it, is it not?
service of the German police. When I entered the service of the police
A Yes, that's all.
I was transferred into the service of the German Security Police. With Q Do you remember that you were given a questionnaire to fill this statement my membership in the Allgemeine SS ceased. Through the out and to state in there what organizations you belonged to and that fact that the Security Police was made a part of the Wehrmacht, we were you signed?
members of the Wehrmacht and as members of the Security Police, we were A Yes, I remember.
carrying an SS pay book.
Q Did you ever enter that you belonged to the Wehrmacht or any Q Do you recall on March 24th, 1945 or a few days prior to that, part of the military regime of Germany?
when Major Girke issued new identification papers to every member at A Yes, I filled this out.
Bensheim to show that they were members of the Wehrmacht?
Q But did you put on there that you belonged to the Wehrmacht,
A Yes, I remember that.
Luftwaffe or any other part of the German machine?
If you were already members of the Wehrmacht, why was Major
A Yes, I said that I am a member of the Security Police.
Girke fixing papers out for you then, with the Americans right on your Q When did you first report to the Gestapo in Darmstadt?
toes.
A I think it was on the 28th of March, 1944.
A First of all, it isn't correct that all members of the head-
Q Did you remain with the Gestapo from that date until the 24th quarters Bensheim received new SS books. Through information agents of March, 1945?

(Stattmann-Gross)
(Stattmann-Gross)

A I stayed in the Service of the Secret Police until the armistice.

Q Now, did you tell the court that you were issued an identification card by the German Wehrmacht?

A Yes, I had an SS pay book.

Q I'm not talking about the SS. I am talking about the Wehrmacht.

A The SS was a part of the German Wehrmacht. The Wehrmacht was the name for all of them. Under the name Wehrmacht you had the army, air force, navy and the Waffen SS.

Q I thought you were a member of the Allgemeine SS. Did you also belong to the Waffen SS?

A I was a member in the Allgemeine SS until I entered the service of the German police. When I entered the service of the police I was transferred into the service of the German Security Police. With this moment my membership in the Allgemeine SS ceased. Through the fact that the Security Police was made a part of the Wehrmacht, we were members of the Wehrmacht and as members of the Security Police, we were carrying an SS pay book.

Q Do you recall on March 21th, 1945 or a few days prior to that, when Major Girke issued new identification papers to every member at Bensheim to show that they were members of the Wehrmacht?

A Yes, I remember that. [illegible] were entitled to [illegible]

Q If you were already members of the Wehrmacht, why was Major Girke fixing papers out for you then, with the Americans right on your toes?

A First of all, it isn't correct that all members of the headquarters Bensheim received new pay books. Through information agents [illegible] which came from the occupied zone, that means from the neighborhood of Aachen, we were informed that the American Front Line troops were shooting on the spot every single member of the German Security Police who fell in their hands. They would recognize them easily because they were carrying pay books which said they were members of the Secret State Police. At that time an order came from Berlin that all members of the Security Police who were in the front near the area in close contact with the enemy, should receive pay books, in which it wasn't said that they were members of the Secret State Police, but that they were members of the SS Replacement and Training Battalion Kemita. Since at that time we had an order -- as far as I can recall, there were seven or eight members of the headquarters Benshein -- since we had an order to go to Mannheim, which at that time was already occupied or was expected to be occupied at any minute, to go there for information. These men who had to go on this detail received pay books which were promptly issued with the name and birth date. I remember, for instance, in my pay book, the only change was that it wasn't said that I was a Criminal policeman, but that I was a dentist's technician, which was according to the fact, because I learned dentistry. These pay books were issued for this one purpose only, in case this undertaking did not succeed and the men would be taken prisoners, that they then would be protected as prisoners of war.

(Stattman-Cross)

Q Well, you knew that all members of the German Wehrmacht were entitled to be treated as prisoners of war, did you not?

A I thought so, but based on the reports of our agents, I knew it wasn't so.

Q At that time you knew that Geneva had already been notified that you and other members of the Gestapo were part of the Army?

A Yes, I knew that but I knew furthermore that the American troops, when they took members of the Gestapo as prisoners, they didn't care about it and shot them on the spot.

Q How do you know that?

A Through these agent reports.

CAPTAIN VANCE: If it please the court, this would be a convenient time to recess.

PRESIDENT: Court will recess until 1330 hours.

(Whereupon at 1220 hours the court recessed until 1330 hours.)

AFTERNOON SESSION

(Whereupon the court reconvened at 1330 hours.)

PRESIDENT: The court will come to order.

PROSECUTION: Let the record show all members of the court are present, the prosecution and defense, with the exception of Major Sanon, absent on business of the defense and Dr. Trost, absent sick, the reporter and interpreter are present.

CAPTAIN VANCE: Would the reporter please read the last two questions asked of the witness Stattmann before the noon recess, and the answers?

(Whereupon the reporter read the last two questions asked of the witness Stattmann before the noon recess, and the answers, as follows):

"Q At that time you knew that Geneva had already been notified that you and other members of the Gestapo were part of the Army?

"A Yes, I know that but I know furthermore that the American troops when they took members of the Gestapo, they wouldn't care about it and shot them on the spot.

"Q How do you know that?

"A Through these agent reports."

KARL FRANZ STATTMANN, an accused being duly reminded that he was still under oath, resumed the stand and testified further through an interpreter as follows:

CROSS EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE (cont'd)

Q Now, if the Americans were shooting all the Gestapo agents on the spot, how do you account for the fact that you, Hellenbroich, Girke, Raaf and many other Gestapo agents are still alive here in Camp Dachau?

A These men, to my knowledge were taken into a war crimes group only at a much later date, many of them were arrested at a much later date and many of them were captured together with other units of the Army.

Q Now, I believe you testified that you made several attempts to get transferred away from the Gestapo, is that correct?

A No, that's not exactly right. All I tried was to be sent to the front for the duration of the war; after the end of the war I would be sent back again.

Q You were perfectly happy, all you wanted was to be a front line soldier during the war?

A My profession was that of a criminal police official, and I was employed by the state police.

Q Did you want to get out of the Gestapo, or stay in it?

A No, I didn't want to get out of the Gestapo.

Q Well, yesterday didn't you tell the court that you talked to Major Girke that you wanted to get out and go to the front, and Major Girke would not permit that?

A That's right, I did want to get to the front for the duration of the war, but after all, being a police official was my profession.

Q Didn't Major Girke tell you you would have an opportunity to kill more men with the police than you would at the front?

A No. No such talk ever took place in the Gestapo offices.

Q Did he tell you you could render your government more and better service than you could with the Wehrmacht?

A No, he didn't say that either.

Q What was his reason for not letting you go?

A He told me that I as a soldier did not have the privilege of selecting a spot where I wanted to be used.

Q Now, do you as a soldier remember the date September 12, 1944?

A Yes. There was an attack on Darmstadt.

Q Do you remember anything unusual happening on that date?

A Anything that happened on that day was extraordinary because it was outside of usual daily routine.

Q What unusual happened outside of routine?

A The people were running around the streets with their hair singed; people running around with phosphorous injuries, everything was burning and everything destroyed.

Q I asked you if anything unusual happened at Gestapo headquarters, and if so, tell it.

A Yes. The state police was also completely bombed out, and people kept coming into the air raid shelter of the state police who were bandaged, and would get first aid.

Q Did anything else unusual take place at Gestapo headquarters that day?

A I wouldn't remember.

Q Now we will get down to sometime in February. I believe you said you could not recall the date of the 15th?

A Yes, that is correct.

Q At that time you had moved from Darmstadt to Bensheim, is that correct?

A No, we had moved from Darmstadt to Bensheim on the 12th of September 1944.

Q Well, I am talking about February 1945.

A That time I was in Bensheim.

Q On this particular morning when you got to work from breakfast, there was an American flier in headquarters?

A Yes, he was.

Q Who got there first that morning, you or the American flier?

A I can't say with certainty any more.

Q Who else was there besides the American flier?

A Well, there are two possibilities, either the Second Lieutenant Dengler was there, or else the guard was there.

Q Who else was there?

A I don't remember anybody else being there when I got there. The typist might have come in a little bit later.

Q Is that all you remember?

A Yes, I remember what I testified to this morning on direct.

Q Who else was there?

A Well, later on Major Hellenbreich came and several comrades who were sent out of the room by Major Hellenbreich. Later on Master Sergeant Freudenberger came in and then the interpreter.

Q Can you remember talking to anybody else that morning about these fliers?

A I didn't talk to anybody about these fliers, at least I don't remember.

Q This morning you told the court you talked to some people about a strafing at Worms. You don't remember that either?

A No, that was the truth. These people I talked to them after an air raid alarm had been called. They were in the guard room and I talked to them after it was over. There might have been a chance one or two of them were in the room.

Q You just can't remember on cross examination what you do on direct.

A Yes, I remember quite well.

Q You couldn't remember a moment ago.

A All I can say is what I already said on direct examination.

Q Now, I believe you said Hellenbreich tried to interrogate the flier, is that correct?

A Yes, that is right.

Q Hellenbreich speaks good English?

A He doesn't speak English very well.

And shortly after that time it was decided this flier would be killed, is that right?

Q Do you speak English?

A Very little. My it was right after, because I think it was at least an hour

Q How do you know he doesn't speak English very well, if I was you don't?

A Because he asked by his English translator in German while in order to make himself understood.

Q I believe you said Hallenbreich tried to make the flier say his name, rank and organization, is that correct?

A He asked him about those things.

Q And he wouldn't tell you his name, isn't that yes or no.

A No, as far as I know he didn't say that.

Q Now, you as a soldier, do you know what information is required to be given when a soldier is captured?

A Yes, I know that.

Q What?

A Rank and his nationality.

Q But Hallenbreich asked him questions in addition to those questions, didn't he?

A He asked him about his unit and that question the flier refused to answer, which impressed me as a soldier.

Q And Hallenbreich got mad about that, didn't he? I believe you said Hallenbreich left the room?

A No.

Q And I believe you question him some, didn't you?

A Yes, I talked to him also too and as I explained this morning on direct examination, tried to make myself understood by motions.

Q And what did he say?

A He shrugged his shoulders and upon my last question, he all laughed.

Q And you became furious, didn't you?

A I had no reason to become furious.

Tu 186 2/19
AC 7

Tu 186 2/19
MS 6

Q And shortly after that time it was decided this flier would be killed, is that right? mean "kept"?

A Q You couldn't say it was right after, because I think it was at least an hour or an hour and a half until the order came down and I was supposed to report to Major Hellenbroich.

Q How many statements do you remember making in regard to this incident for which you are on trial? to Major Hellenbroich.

A There was one single interrogation conducted and later I made a supplement to that, I said.

Q On any of these investigations, did you ever tell the investigator this flier had strafed people in Hemm -- you can answer that yes or no. was given These interrogations were done in question and answer form, and since I wasn't asked about this, I didn't have anything to say about it either. He didn't say anything else after that, but I asked him if he could Q When did you think up this story to tell the court?

A This story is not invented; this story is a pure and bare truth.

Q But you never told the American investigator about it, did you? told it to him until today, don't think right? conversation about that?

A I did too. It was obvious. During my captivity I was asked many times why I was in custody and I told about it, but the war crimes group only talked to me one single time about this flier.

Q After this interrogation of the flier concluded, I believe you said Hellenbroich left the room? conversation; a conversation is something in which all two, he said, express an opinion.

Q Did you know where he went? other, you, Hellenbroich and Gloss.

A No, I don't anymore. Major Girke now he thought the execution of the flier Then later Dengler told you to report to Hellenbroich? supposed to notify him, and that I think was about an hour or an hour and a half later, vicinity of the Dahlheim woods, and that was all the talk there was.

Q Now, who kept the flier during this period of an hour or an hour and a half?

A What do you mean "kept"?
A Yes, I did an about face and walked off.

Q Who guarded him?
Q Did you then go to see Raaf?

A Second Lieutenant Dengler was still present when I left the
A I then went down and saw Raaf and informed him of Major office.

Hirke's order.

Q Did you report to Hellenbroich on Dengler's instructions?
Q Why did Major Hirke want Raaf to go along?

A Dengler told me to report to Major Hellenbroich.
A Well, in our place it was unusual for prisoners to be known

Q My question was: Did you report to Major Hellenbroich? alone in a transport by only one man. And, since this was a case of

A Yes, I reported.
execution, it was at least to be obvious our prisoners had to come along or at

Q When you reported, what did he tell you?
any rate, a second person.

A In substance he told me the following: Sergeant Major Hirke
Q Were you afraid one armed Gestapo agent could not handle one has given the order this flier in your office is to be shot.

American prisoner?

Q What else did he say, if anything?
A No, that's not correct.

A He didn't say anything else after that, but I asked him if he Q Was it because he wanted two of you to shoot the flier, is couldn't give me more detailed instructions on the matter.

that correct?

Q Did he give them?
A No, two men were supposed to come along and two of them did

A No, he told me, "We will have to ask Major Hirke about that."
come along, and that was not according to the wishes of the flier, nor

Q Did you, Hellenbroich and Hirke have a conversation about that?
did we care.

A No, there was no conversation.
Q On all executions, I think you said you went in pairs?

Q After you asked for more instructions, what did you do?
A I did not say that.

A Major Hellenbroich went up to Major Hirke.
Q About what time of day or night did you start on the death

Q Isn't that what I asked you just a moment ago?
march with this American soldier?

A No, that wasn't a conversation; a conversation is something in which all participants express an opinion.
A Master Sergeant Raaf, the flier and myself left the office

about 10:00 in the morning.

Q Tell me if you all talked together, you, Hellenbroich and Hirke.
Q About how far did you walk with him until you killed him?

A Hellenbroich asked Major Hirke how he thought the execution of A About three meters to Hemmenberg and it might have been three the flier should take place, and Major Hirke gave the order I was supposed more kilometers up to Grastringen and down the mountain road.

to notify Master Sergeant Raaf and we were supposed to shoot the flier in the vicinity of the Benshein woods, and that was all the talk there was.

Q And after Hirke told you this, was that all?

Ta 186 2/19
EC 8

Ta 187-pm-50-2/13-1

Q Why did you go to the trouble to walk about six kilometers
A Yes, I did an about face and walked off.
with this man?
Q Did you then go to see Raaf?
A Well, we went three kilometers in one direction, and turned
A I then went down and saw Raaf and informed him of Major around and took a slightly longer road through the woods back.
Girke's order.
Q That is what I am asking you, why did you want to go out in Q Why did Major Girke want Raaf to go along?
the woods to kill this flier?
A Well, in our place it was unusual for prisoners to be taken
A Well, this order that I had been given was hard to carry out, along in a transport by only one man. And, since this was cause of and for that reason I hesitated in killing this flier until I couldn't do execution, it was at least to me obvious one witness had to come along or at anything else or else I would have landed back in Bensheim with the flier any rate, a second person.
again.
Q Were you afraid one armed Gestapo agent could not handle one
Q I believe you stated on direct that you thought you were American prisoner?
perfectly justified in killing this flier, didn't you?
A No, that's not correct.
A I considered the order legal, and I didn't say anything else.
Q Was it because he wanted two of you to shoot the flier, is Q Why didn't you kill him there at the Gestapo headquarters? Why that correct?
go hide in the woods, that is what I want to know?
A No, two men were appointed to come along and two of them did
A Because Major Girke had issued the order that the flier was come along, and that was not according to the wishes of the flier, nor to be killed in the woods, and inconspicuously so.
did we care.
Q Stattmann, don't you know that you didn't want to murder that
Q On all executions, I think you said you went in pairs?
American with good citizens that lived in Bensheim looking on?
A I did not say that.
A That is right. I did not want to kill this flier in the presence
Q About what time of day or night did you start on the death of civilians. After all, I was also a police official, and I as a police march with this American soldier? official cannot get myself in the position of carrying out an execution and
A Master Sergeant Raaf, the flier and myself left the office thereby causing a show for civilians.
about 10:30 in the morning.
Q You wanted to keep this matter highly secret, didn't you?
Q About how far did you walk with him until you killed him?
A No, that is not right. The matter was not kept secret, in fact.
A About three meters to Schoenberg and it might have been three Who shot this flier first?
more kilometers up to Grubenweise and down the mountain road.
I was the one who fired the first shot at the flier.

(Continued)
(Stattmann - Cross)

Ta 187-ps-50-2/19-1

Ta 187-ps-50-2/19-2

Q Why did you go to the trouble to walk about six kilometers
A One single time.

with this man?
Q Did you shoot him in the back or in the front?

A Well, we went three kilometers in one direction, and turned
A I shot him in his head, from the back.

around and took a slightly longer road through the woods back.
Q I believe you said that Graf wanted to get a shot at him, so

Q That is what I am asking you, why did you want to go out in when he shot him, is that right?

the woods to kill this flier?
A Graf stepped over to the flier in order to make sure that he was

A Well, this order that I had been given was hard to carry out, dead, and since the flier wasn't dead, he fired a mercy shot at the flier.

and for that reason I hesitated in killing this flier until I couldn't do anything else or else I would have landed back in Bensheim with the flier
A mercy shot?

Yes, a mercy shot.

again.
How many times did he shoot him?

Q I believe you stated on direct that you thought you were
A One single time.

perfectly justified in killing this flier, didn't you?
Q In what part of the body did he shoot him?

A I considered the order legal, and I didn't say anything else.
A In the head. In fact, I think in the temples, but I don't know

Q Why didn't you kill him there at the Gestapo headquarters? Why for sure.

go hide in the woods, that is what I want to know?
Did you then take the body and drag it off into the woods and

A Because Major Girke had issued the order that the flier was hide it under some brush?

to be killed in the woods, and inconspicuously so.
A We took the body and didn't drag it anywhere, but carried it

Q Stattmann, don't you know that you didn't want to murder that into the woods and covered it up with brush.

American with good citizens that lived in Bensheim looking on?
Q Why did you hide it under the brush?

A That is right. I did not want to kill this flier in the presence
A After all, it was a path through the woods, and it might have of civilians. After all, I was also a police official, and I as a police been possible that some civilians might have discovered the body had it official cannot put myself in the position of carrying out an execution and been left lying there, and would have done something, anything, to it.

thereby making a show for civilians.
Q And you didn't want the civilian population to know that the

Q You wanted to keep this matter highly secret, didn't you?
Gestapo was killing people, did you?

A No, that is not right. The matter was not kept secret, in fact.
A I don't know whether the population did any thinking about the Q Who shot this flier first?

matter or not, but it is a fact that as walked through the town in front

A I was the man who fired the first shot at the flier.
of flight and that later on the body was also carried through the streets

Q Was that man whom you shot Ray F. Herman? of the town.

A Yes, that was the flier, Captain Ray Herman.
Did you take anything from this dead body?

Q How many times did you shoot him?
A No, that was strictly prohibited.

A One single time.

Q Did you shoot him in the back or in the front?

A I shot in his head, from the back.

Q I believe you said that Knaf wanted to get a shot at him, so then he shot him, is that right?

A Knaf stepped over to the flier in order to make sure that he was dead, and since the flier wasn't dead, he fired a mercy shot at the flier.

Q A mercy shot?

A Yes, a mercy shot.

Q How many times did he shoot him?

A One single time.

Q In what part of the body did he shoot him?

A In the head. In fact, I think in the temples, but I don't know for sure.

Q Did you then take the body and drag it off into the woods and hide it under some brush?

A We took the body and didn't drag it anywhere, but carried it into the woods and covered it up with brush.

Q Why did you hide it under the brush?

A After all, it was a path through the woods, and it might have been possible that some civilians might have discovered the body had it been left lying there, and would have done something, anything, to it.

Q And you didn't want the civilian population to know that the Gestapo was killing people, did you?

A I don't know whether the population did any thinking about the matter or not, but it is a fact that we walked through the town in broad daylight and that later on the body was also carried through the streets of the town.

Q Did you take anything from this dead body?

A No, that was strictly prohibited.

(STEITZER-Cross)

Q You are sure about this?

A I am perfectly sure of that.

Q Now, then, I believe you returned back to Hellenbreich and said, "We have killed the man," is that right?

A Yes, that is right.

Q And Hellenbreich told you to go tell Girke that you had carried out the order, is that right?

A Yes, he did tell us that, but in my opinion, that was superfluous, because it would have been common practice to report back to the unit commander anyway.

Q All right. Then you made a written report on the killing, is that right?

A Yes, that is correct.

Q Dr. Aheimer asked you a question this morning. I will repeat it. You had testified that you made a written report, and he asked you this question, "Was that your regular procedure on these incidents," and you answered "Yes." What did you mean by your regular procedure on these incidents?

A In the case of any counter-activity which we would take part in in our capacity as members of the Security Police, it was necessary to make a written report. By that, I mean that a report was taken down every time anybody was arrested or a search of a house was made, or in case of any executive acts in conformance with police duty.

Q But what did you mean by the answer, "on these incidents?"

A These incidents? I hardly think that I could have said that.

Q You just don't think you said that, is that right?

A No, that is impossible, because these incidents just didn't take place. That was the first flier that I ever got in my office and which I had to shoot on orders.

Q That was the first one?

A That was the first one.

Q Now, I believe you told Dr. Aheimer that you felt very sorry for this flier, is that right?

A I did feel sorry for him, as I do for every man who has to die.

Q Why did you sympathise with him?

A The flier made a good impression. He looked well. He impressed me because he didn't answer this question about his unit. And in addition to that, on our way from the office to the woods, we did some talking, as far as that was possible.

Q Did you tell him you were going to kill him?

A No.

Q Did you give him an opportunity to make a prayer to his Maker before he died?

A No, I did not.

Q Did this flier, at any time you had him in custody, do you any harm or try to do you any harm?

A No, he did not.

Q Now, we will get down to the 24th of March. I believe Gestapo Headquarters was all packed up and ready to retreat, is that correct?

A Yes, that is correct.

Q And the Americans were knocking on the back door, weren't they, at that time?

A Yes, that is right.

Q You knew then, and felt then that the war was just about to come to a close, didn't you?

A No.

Q You thought Germany was still going to win the war at that time?

A Yes, I was convinced of it, all the more since on the 21st or 22nd of March, 1945, Major Girke had come back from a meeting, a formation, with Colonel Trumbler, and made all the men fall out in the yard of the office and explained to all the men that in the near future the war would now take a decisive turn and that the war would be finished in Germany's favor in the near future due to the use of new weapons.

Q When did the war end?

A The Armistice was signed on the 8th of May, 1945.

Q So about five weeks after this incident, you received a great shock, didn't you?

A Yes, that is right.

Q Now, on the 24th of March, about what time of day or night did you first talk to Hellenbroich about having to kill another flier?

A I didn't talk to Hellenbroich; I merely received an order from him. That might have been between 8 or 9 P. M.

Q He talked to you then?

A He gave me an order.

Q What was his order, as best you can remember?

A I don't remember it verbatim. He told me in substance that this flier that was standing in front of him was to be shot by order of Major Girke.

Q How many fliers did you have on that day in custody?

A On that day, I only saw one flier, and that was a flier whom I shot.

Q You said Hellenbroich gave you an order. Did Girke talk to you at any time on that day?

A No, Girke didn't talk to me personally. All he did was appear in the doorway to the guardroom for a very short period of time while I was in there, and when Major Hellenbroich asked him where this flier was to be shot, he said that there wasn't any time left and for the flier to be executed out in the yard.

Q Where was the flier when this conversation was taking place?

A He was present in that room.

Q Did he hear the conversation that you, Girke and Hellenbroich had about executing him?

A He heard it.

Q After Girke said to do it in the back yard, what did you do?

A I went back in the waiting room, picked up my pistol, returned, motioned the flier to walk ahead of me, walked into the garden with him, and killed him by means of a shot in the head.

Q Were you alone, or was anyone else present at that time?

A That evening, I was alone.

Q Do you understand this chart that was used while we were presenting this case, which is in evidence as Prosecution Exhibit 70?

A Yes, it is clear to me.

Q Step up here and show the court where you killed this man and where you left the body. Point out on the exhibit the spot where you shot this flier.

(Whereupon the witness left the stand.)

A I went along this path through the garden, and when we reached about this point here (indicating), the flier tried to get across this stone wall over here (indicating). However, he only took one step, because I had my pistol in my hand already, so he only took one step away from the road when I fired. The flier then fell down in the garden in a diagonal direction, and this is where he remained lying (indicating).

Q Is that where you left the body?

A Yes, that is where I left the body.

CAPTAIN VANCE: For the record, let the record indicate that the accused pointed to a spot located in the right bottom corner of the triangle in which the words "cultivated field" are written, and that is a cultivated field which appears right beneath the letters "A" and "B" on the map.

(Whereupon the witness resumed the stand.)

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q That wall you are talking about is six feet high, isn't it?

A No, it couldn't be.

Q How close were you to the flier when youshot him?

A Two or three paces, perhaps.

Q I believe you said he took one step before you fired on him, is that right?

A Yes, that is right.

Q He didn't have a chance to get away, did he?

A No, and I didn't claim I shot him while he was trying to escape.

Q Do you remember how many times you shot him?

A I fired one single shot at him.

Q Did that one single shot kill him?

A This shot was fatal.

Q The last time you saw that body is when you left it lying on the ground where you shot him, is that right?

A Yes, that is the way it was.

Q And the only thing you know about the burial is that Raaf told you he had buried him out in the back yard, is that correct?

A Yes, that is right.

Q Did you go around to take a look at the grave?

A No, I didn't.

Q So you don't know where the grave was located?

A I didn't know that.

Q Was this man an officer or an enlisted man, if you know?

A I can't say, because he didn't wear any insignia.

Q Did you remove anything off the body of this American after you killed him?

A No, nothing was taken away.

Q You are sure of that?

A Absolutely sure.

Q Do you remember on direct examination answering a question like this, "I removed his silver chain which had his name on it and took it back to Halbergmoos headquarters and out of [illegible], didn't it?

A A That is not right; I never said that.

Q Q After you killed this American, did you go back and report it to anyone that you talk to Rast about him having killed a soldier?

A A Yes, I went back in the guardroom and reported the execution of the order to Major Hellenbrandt [illegible].

Q Q Did you make a written report on this man you had killed?

A A No, that was not possible any more, because I left right after that, together with my [illegible], or five minutes later.

Q Q About what time of night did you kill this man?

A A It might have been about 9 o'clock, but I can't say with certainty.

Q Do you know why he killed him?

A No, I don't know that.

Q Did you see the man that he killed?

A No, I didn't see the man.

End ta 187 wfj folo

Q Did you have separate places to keep prisoners there in your headquarters?

A Where you could keep them? We never kept any flyers.

Q You must have had two there that night, didn't you?

A Yes, that is right.

Q Where did you keep them in confinement?

A As far as I know, the flyers weren't in confinement in our place.

Q You didn't confine flyers did you, as a matter of fact?

A No other flyers except the one of the end of February and the one in March was ever in confinement in our place.

Q Now this man that you killed, didn't you testify that this man was brought in by the civilians?

Q That same night after you and Reaf had completed your killings, the whole Gestapo headquarters moved out of Bensheim, didn't it?

A Yes, that's right.

Q How about how long after you reported you had killed your man was it that you talk to Reaf about him having killed a soldier?

A Reaf didn't talk to me any. The only way I found out was that he made a report to Major Hellenbreich.

Q How long as far as you know was that after you made your report?

A It might have been two or five minutes later.

Q Do you know who he killed?

A No, a flyer.

Q Do you know why he killed him?

A No, I don't know that.

Q Did you see the man that he killed?

A No, I didn't see the man.

Q Did you have separate places to keep prisoners there in your headquarters?

A There you could keep them? We never kept any flyers.

Q You must have had two there that night, didn't you?

A Yes, that is right.

Q There did you keep them in confinement?

A As far as I know, the flyers weren't in confinement in our place.

Q You didn't confine flyers did you, as a matter of fact?

A No other flyers except the one at the end of February and the one in March was ever kept in confinement in our place.

Q Now this man that you killed, didn't you testify that this man was brought in by the antiaircraft unit? report was added to the file A. Yes, that was the chaos from the rural police in Warna.

Q Did you hear any conversation that was had or any statements made by the antiaircraft soldiers who brought the Americans to the Gestapo Headquarters? CE: Is there something wrong with the translation?

A Soldiers who brought the flyers. word should be translated as

Q Did you not say that some members of some antiaircraft battalion brought the flyer to Gestapo headquarters? or question.

A Yes, there were a sergeant and two aircorps men.

Q Did you talk to these men? t was forwarded from your headquarters to

A No, I didn't talk to these men.

Q Did you hear anything these men said? brief by way of the

A No, I didn't on whatever happened to be necessary. It might

Q Did you see these men did know the legacy of the flyer or

A No, I didn't see these men either of the burial of the flyer

Q Do you know who these men talked to when they got to Gestapo headquarters? them together.

A I don't know that, but I assume that they talked to Major Hellenbroich. At any rate they would have to talk to the Sergeant of the Guard because he would have to take these flyers away from them.

Q Now you didn't have time to make your written report of your this killing that took place in Warna, do that right? him?

A I didn't have time that evening and later on it wasn't to be required.

Q Now what is the purpose of making these written reports on the killing of allied flyers?

Take 188 - 20 2/25 - wfj 3 4

A All I ever wrote was one report and that was about the Q Are you quite sure of that?
flyer at the end of February, 1945, and that report was added to the
A Quite sure of that, yes.
file which had been brought there from the rural police in Worms.
Q Where did that report go to from your office?
Q Are you just as sure of that as you are of everything
A That went into the files.
else you have told the court today?
CAPTAIN VANCE: Is there something wrong with the translation?
A Yes, I am sure of that.
DR. SUERGER: In my opinion this word should be translated Q This morning you spent about thirty minutes telling this court as "Channels".
about the deal that you had seen in Darmstadt and after describing that CAPTAIN VANCE: I will ask another question.
you said that made you feel justified in killing these two Americans,
QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:
is that right?
Q Do you mean that the report was forwarded from your headquarters
A That wasn't the only reason. to some other office?
Q Now you knew that neither of these flyers had taken part in A No, this report went to the Section Chief by way of the the raid on Darmstadt, didn't you?
Department Chief and then whatever happened to be necessary. It might
A Yes, I knew that.
go to the administration who would keep the legacy of the flyer or Q So you felt justified in killing them because somehow to the people who were supposed to take care of the burial of the flyer had raided Darmstadt?
and they would then take the bills etc. about the burial to the files
A That is not correct.
and staple them together.
Q That is what you said, isn't it?
Q Didn't those reports wind up in Wiesbaden?
A No, I didn't want to express that.
A I can't answer because I don't know. I couldn't say anything about what happened on a higher level than I was on.
CAPTAIN VANCE: Nothing further.
REDIRECT EXAMINATION
Q Now in your report that you made about killing this flyer,
QUESTIONS BY DR. SUERGER:
what did you put down for the reason that you killed him?
Q Mr. Statman, let's just stay on the subject that Captain
A In that report I wrote that I shot the flyer according to Vance asked you about. What did you want to express when you mentioned orders.
the air attack on Darmstadt in answer to my question?
Q Didn't you put down that you shot him while he was trying to escape?

(Statman - Redirect)

1286

(Statman - Cross)

Take 181 - 30 2/19 - wfj 5

Take 188 - 30 2/19 - wfj 4

A I wanted to express by that that I was not in any position to doubt the legality of the orders issued after living through [illegible] Are you quite sure of that, [illegible] attacks, etc., and I would like to [illegible] sure of that, your sole reason. I had the orders which I have [illegible] you are just as sure of that as you are of everything else you have told the court today? [illegible] that they had been students of law and that, I am sure of that.

[illegible] were [illegible] this morning you spent about thirty minutes telling this court about the deed that you had been in command and after describing that you felt that made you feel justified in killing these two Americans, is that right?

A [illegible] foot on the guard room for the first time.

Q Now you know that neither of these flyers had taken part in the raid on Darmstadt, don't you? I compared the name written on the bracelet with the name of the flyer.

A Yes, I know that.

Q So you are not justified in telling this court that you had raided Darmstadt, do you? [illegible] touched anything belonging to the flyer.

A That is not correct.

Q That is what you said, isn't it? [illegible] prosecution in cross examination about the [illegible] "Kohits". Were those services [illegible]

A No, I didn't mean to express that.

Q Certainly not. Nothing further. [illegible] service records it said "Service Record of the Waffen SS [illegible]

REDIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY DR. BUSCH:

Q Mr. Statt[illegible], any false personal data concerning the owner of this bag. [illegible] I didn't [illegible] the only reason there were [illegible] the air attack or [illegible] in answer to my question?

A [illegible] change any service records containing names of units at the time of commitment at the front and substituting therefor service records containing [illegible] updated.

Take 188 - 20 2/19 - wfj 5

Take 188 - 20 2/19 - wfj 6

A I wanted to express by that that I was not in any position to doubt the legality of the orders issued after living through Darmstadt and on account of the low flying attacks, etc., and I would like to emphasize that was not the sole reason. I had the orders which I had received from Major Hollenbroich and Major Girke, who were my superiors and I knew even at that time that they had been students of law and that was enough of a guaranty for me that those commands were likewise legal.

Q When and where were you informed about that?

Q Captain Wahl asked you about the cloth around the wrist of the flyer containing the identification tags. When and where did you see this cloth?

A When your regiment left Vienna and went to Germany proper, did you still [illegible]

A I can't think when I set foot on the guard room for the first time on the thirty-fourth of March 1945. At that time Major [redacted] it in his hand and compared the name written on the bracelet with the name of the flyer.

Everything you stated today about this subject merely pertained to [redacted]

Q You yourself didn't have this chain in your hand, did you?

A I had not touched anything belonging to the flyer.

Q You were struck by the prosecution in their examination about this service record with the entry "Kranke". Were these service records of the German SS?

A Yes, on the cover of these service records it said "Service Record of the German SS."

Q Was there any false personal data concerning the owner of this book in there?

A No, I didn't say that. No, the only reason these were issued was that it was standard operating procedure in the German Army to change my service records containing names of units at the time of commitment at the front and substituting therefor service records containing APO numbers.

(Statman - Redirect)

Q The personal data of the owners were stated correctly them?

A The names, birthdays, etc. were all the same as they had been.

Q In cross examination and upon questions by the prosecutor you made some statements as to the purposes, aims and goals of the Allgemeine SS. When and where were you informed about that?

A I was informed about that during my membership in the Eleventh SS Regiment in Vienna.

Q When your regiment left Vienna and went to Germany proper, did you still serve in the Allgemeine SS?

A No, jointly with my entry into the police I was furloughed from the Allgemeine SS.

Q Then everything you stated today about this subject merely pertained to what you saw in Vienna?

A It pertains solely to what I was told my unit in Vienna.

Q Do you know of the job of the Allgemeine SS that was carried on throughout the war?

A I can't say that because I wasn't in the Allgemeine SS anymore at that time but I doubt whether any large scale SS matters were still performed because the Allgemeine SS had been all drafted into the Army.

Q In that case you do not wish to state what your co-accused Lasaak said about the role of the Allgemeine SS in the war?

A I can't do that because I don't know what happened in his unit.

It said that I was a member of the unit and following it was the APO of the SS (enlistment) and training battalion, Krems.

I didn't know anything about the Gestapo, Mauthausen, Gusen, did it?

Tabs 188 - 30 2/22 - mfg 7.

4 fo. RECROSS EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE: It is all.

Q Just one question. I want to ask you about the fictitious papers that Girke issued to you shortly before the twenty-fourth of March, 1945. (The witness was excused and resumed his place in the witness' box.)

MR. RACHAEL: We object to the question -- the characterization made by the prosecutor.

MR. RACHAEL: The defense calls as its next witness the accused Michael Kanf.

CAPTAIN VANCE: He has already testified --

PRESIDENT: Do you desire to be sworn or do you want to make an unsworn statement?

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

THE WITNESS: I would like to be sworn.

Q They showed on that "Waffen SS", is that correct? Yes or no?

MICHAEL KANF, an accused, voluntarily took the stand in his own behalf and being first duly sworn, testified through an interpreter as follows:

A I can't answer that yes or no because it was phrased wrong by the prosecutor.

DIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY DR. NIEBERGALL:

Q Did those papers have "Waffen SS" on them, yes or no?

Q State your full name to the court.

A These papers were not issued on the twenty-fourth of March.

A Kanf, Michael.

Q I am talking about the papers that were issued about or by the twenty-fourth of March by Girke to his outfit there. Do you

Q When were you born and where?

A April '06 in Forstweiler in the District Alsa, Wurttemberg. know what papers I am talking about?

Q Are you married?

A Yes, those must be the papers issued to us but they showed our correct names, etc. Those were not fictitious papers.

A Married.

Q Do you have any children?

Q Did those papers show that you were a member of the Gestapo?

A Yes. Yes or no?

Q How many?

A No, it didn't say.

A Two.

Q Did they show that you were a member of the Waffen SS or

Q What was your civilian occupation? the Wehrmacht?

A I didn't have any civilian occupation.

A It said that I was a member of the unit and following it was the APO of the SS replacement and training battalion, Konitz.

(Kanf - Direct)

Q It didn't show anything about the Gestapo, Bensheim, Germany, did it?

A No.

Q How come you were in the German police then?

CAPTAIN VANCE: That is all.

A When I was eighteen years old in 1924 I went into the PRESIDENT: No questions by the Court. The witness will regular country police.

take his place in the dock.

Q Where?

(Whereupon the witness was excused and resumed his place in the prisoners' dock.)

Q MR. RAGHAM: The defense calls as the next witness the co-accused Michael Raaf, police of the state of Wurttemberg from the first of S

PRESIDENT: Do you desire to be sworn or do you want to make an unsworn statement charged from the police in 1935 or what did you do? THE WITNESS: I would like to be sworn.

MICHAEL RAAF, co-accused, voluntarily took the stand in his own behalf and being first duly sworn, testified through an interpreter as follows:

police of Wurttemberg State in Stuttgart.

Q No, if I understand correctly, you intended to stay

QUESTIONS BY MR. [illegible]: What is your occupation?

Q State your full name to the court. One year I was taken into the custody Reef, Michael.

Q When were you born and where?

A April 1906 in Feuerwehler in the District Aalen, Wurttemberg.

Q Where were you married? Police in Stuttgart.

A Married. That date you just mentioned in 1940 where were you at? Do you have any children?

A Yes. First of January 1941 I was detailed to the Secret

State Police [illegible] Stadt.

A Yes. What were the conditions under which you were detailed there?

Q What was your civilian occupation? service.

A I didn't have any civilian occupation. Permanent transfer?

A No, that was merely a detail.

(Reef - Direct)

(Reef - Direct)

Tulp 126 - 30.2/39 - Mfj 9 10

Q How come you were in the German police then?

And did you spend all this time that you were being tried

A When I was eighteen years old in 1924 I went into the out in Darmstadt?

regular country police.

A Yes.

Q Where?

And after this time of trying out, what happened to your professional career?

A In Stuttgart.

Q How long were you in this land police or protective police?

About four or five months after I was assigned there I put

A I was in the police of the state of Wurttemberg from the in an application to be transferred back to the protective police.

first of September 1924 until the thirtieth of December 1935.

After the trial year or before the trial year?

Q Were you discharged from the police in 1935 or what did you do?

During the trial year.

What was the results obtained by this application?

A On the first of January, 1936, I was sent to the technical

About four or five weeks after I made this application, I school of the police of Wurttemberg State in Stuttgart.

made an inquiry and I was promised to be sent back to the protective

Q So, if I understand you correctly, you intended to stay police in Stuttgart.

with the police and make that your occupation?

Did you then get a final decision on this application?

A This course took one year and after one year I was taken into

No, I kept on asking and kept on being promised to be the protective police.

sent back.

Q Then where were you after 1937?

And when no final decision was made, where did you get sent

A From 1937 until the thirtieth of December 1940 I belonged to to?

the Wurttemberg Protective Police in Stuttgart.

After my trial year I suddenly received an order that I

Q And after that date you just mentioned in 1940 where were would have to go to the security police school in Wurttemberg to take you sent?

a course there.

A On the first of January 1941 I was detailed to the Secret

That was the end of 1941 or the beginning of 1942, if I understand you correctly.

State Police in Darmstadt.

Q What were the conditions under which you were detailed there?

Yes.

A I was assured of one year of trial service.

And any decision on this application for transfer be made

Q Was 1941 then the date of your legal permanent transfer?

when you were sent to this security police school?

A No, that was merely a detail.

No.

Q And did you spend all this time that you were being tried out in Darmstadt? What to attend this course because I had the order to go to the [illegible] school.

Q And after this time of trying out, what happened to your professional career? You were for five months, from the first of January on. After. About four or five months after I was assigned there I put in an application to be transferred back to the protective police.

Q After the trial year or before the trial year?

A During the trial year. Q. Where were you sent back to?

Q What was the reaction obtained by this application? Chief of the [illegible] About four or five weeks after I made this application, I made an inquiry and I was promised to be sent back to the protective police in Wuerttemberg whether I still wanted to be transferred back to S[illegible] you then get a final decision on this application?

A No, I kept on asking and kept on being promised to be sent back. told the Chief yes, even though I do have this examination I don't want [illegible] Finally one day where did you get sent to? I went to the state police and told him that I wanted to get back to the regular police after my trial year I suddenly received an order that I would have to go to the security police school in Fuerstenberg to take a lecture there. regular police service?

Q That was the end of 1941 or the beginning of 1942, if I understood you correctly. State police Police Rat Schwinn and he told me to see Police Rat Schwinn and you will find out something.

Q Had any decision on this application for transfer be made when you were sent to this security police school? I mean, one [illegible] Albrecht.

Q And did you attend this course in Furstenberg?

A Yes, I had to attend this course because I had the order to go to that school, regulation way?

Q How long were you in that school?

A I had been an express to the agency, was in there for five months, from the first of January until May. A soldier wasn't able to say what he didn't want to go out front. If I would make another application, I would be court martialed by the SS and Police Court.

Q After this course was over, where were you still sent to?

A Sent to Arolsen. After this course was over I reported to the then Chief of the Office, Reichsführer-Himmler Fine.

Q And what did you find out when you reported back there and what?

A Fine asked me whether I still wanted to be transferred back to Stuttgart. I didn't have my family papers for the secret state police. I couldn't please him, so I was then told that I would have to bring [illegible] to me, even though I do have this examination I don't want to gain any benefits by this examination. I don't like the secret state police and told him that I wanted to get back to the regular police, that I wouldn't be transferred.

Q How was your request to be transferred from the secret police to the regular police granted?

A Yes. Fine sent me to the man who was in charge of the administration of the Secret State police Polizei Rat Schwinn and he told me to go see Polizei Rat Schwinn and you will find out something.

Q Did you find out anything from the Polizei Schwinn?

A Schwinn sent me to the man in charge of personnel, Kriminal Sekretary Albrecht.

Time 10:30 - 20 2/19 - Wiy 12

At the time that you were taken over to the Gestapo were

Q What did you find out there?

A Albrecht read me some regulations from Berlin.

Q What did that regulation say?

A It contained the following: That I had been an expense to the government; that I was supposed to do my job where they put me and that a soldier wasn't able to say that he didn't want to go out front either, and if I would make another application, I would be court martialled by the SS and Police Court.

Q So then did you finally take up your duties with the Gestapo in Darmstadt? your rank as an official when you started in the

A No, I was still on trial.

Q Were you finally transferred to the Gestapo in Darmstadt and when?

A Since I didn't have my family papers for the secret state police, I couldn't be taken in, so I was then told that I would have to bring in the papers showing the ancestry of my wife, but since the maternal ancestry of my wife came from France, I was in no position to get these papers and I didn't particularly hurry the matter, thinking that I wouldn't be transferred.

Q But you were finally transferred, so far as I know?

A Yes.

Q When?

A The first of September 1932 I was finally taken into the secret state police.

Q Who pronounced you transferred?

A This transfer I think came from the Reich Ministry of the Interior at the time.

(Thereupon the court reconvened.)

Q At the time that you were taken over to the Gestapo were

PRESIDENT: The court will come to order.

you a member of the NSDAP?

MR. [illegible]: May it please the court, let the record show that all the members of the court, all the members of the prosecution, all the members of the defense except Mr. Trogh who is absent sick, all of the accused, reporter and interpreter are present.

A Yes.

Q Since when?

A Since the 1st of May 1940.

Q Did you have any functions or rank in the NSDAP?

DR. [illegible]: I request that the accused be reminded that he is still under oath.

A No.

Q At the time that you were taken into the Gestapo were you

PRESIDENT: The accused is reminded that he is still under oath.

a member of the Allgemeine SS?

WILHELM RAFF, the accused, being reminded that he was still under oath, resumed the stand and testified further through an interpreter as follows:

Q What was your rank as an official when you started in the Gestapo and what was your title?

A [illegible] criminal Secretary, and you had to serve 15 months, promoted to Criminal Assistant.

? President: The court will recess for 15 minutes.

Q Did you serve in Wiesbaden with the SPAD, Darmstadt?

A (Whereupon etc.)

Q Commencing when and until when did you serve in the Darmstadt Office?

A I was with the SPAD Office, Darmstadt from the first of September, 1942 until the end of August, 1943.

Q Where were you sent towards the end of August, 1943?

A Since I was living separately from my family and since the Government was no longer willing to pay for separate quarters, I was ordered here to Berlin.

Q What do you mean by ordered into service?

A I was supposed to be sent to the foreign country.

Q Did you get sent to a foreign country?

A Not at first. I had to report to the Reich Main Security Office in Berlin.

(RAFF-direct)

[illegible]

pld-139-2

pld-139-1

(Thereupon the court reconvened.)

PRESIDENT: The court will come to order.

PROSECUTION: May it please the court, let the record show that all the members of the court, all the members of the prosecution, all the members of the defense except Dr. Kraus who is absent sick, all of the accused, reporter and interpreter are present.

DR. BERGER: I request that the accused be reminded that he is still under oath.

PRESIDENT: The accused is reminded that he is still under oath.

MICHAEL RAAP, an accused, being reminded that he was still under oath, resumed the stand and testified further through an interpreter as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION continued.

QUESTIONS BY DR. BERGER:

Q When, at the close of the last session, you said you had been promoted to Criminal Assistant--

A Yes.

Q Did you serve in that capacity with the SIPO, Darmstadt?

A Yes.

Q Commencing when and until when did you serve in the Darmstadt Office?

A I was with the SIPO Office, Darmstadt from the first of September, 1942 until the end of August, 1944.

Q Where were you sent towards the end of August, 1944?

A Since I was living separately from my family and since the government was no longer willing to pay for separate quarters, I was ordered into action.

Q What do you mean by ordered into action?

A I was supposed to be sent to the foreign country.

Q Did you get sent to a foreign country?

A Not at first. I had to report to the Reich Main Security Office in Berlin.

(Raap-direct)

Q Where did the Reich Main Security Office send you? When employed with.

A At first I was told that the Reich Main Security Office wanted me to stay there for orientation at some department for political passport forgeries. [illegible]

Q What do you mean by political passport forgeries?

A That was the office where all the passports and papers which were suspected of being forged were kept.

Q How long were you in that department? [illegible]

A I was there until the beginning of December, 1943. After that I got a furlough. [illegible]

Q And after that furlough you started in your service again?

A The first of January I had to report back to Berlin. [illegible]

Q. And what job did you get then?

A There I was to be there I and two comrades of mine were assigned to inspect army trains in the Eastern front.

Q What was the purpose of this inspection or control?

A All army personnel and army auxiliaries on those trains were inspected for proper papers.

Q Are those furlough trains from furlough from the Eastern Front? [illegible] You from the front as well as back to the front.

Q Was this a civilian position or a military position? [illegible] That was a military position. I received the uniform of the Security Police. [illegible] your civil service rank or title at that time?

Q For how long did you serve in that capacity? [illegible]

A I served in this capacity from January, 1944 until the end of August, 1944. A Yes.

Q After this position where were you transferred? [illegible] After that I had to report back to my office in Darmstadt.

(Recess taken)

Q What department of this office in Darmstadt were you then employed with?

A At first I worked on the subject of prohibited relations with prisoners-of-war concerning German women.

Q And then?

A On the 11th of September the office was bombed out.

Q Continue.

A And then the office was transferred to Bensheim.

Q Did you move the same night with this office or later?

A I only moved a few days later.

Q Why?

A That was for the reason that I was assigned to bury bodies--salvage bodies.

Q When you went to Bensheim with your office, what department of the office did you work in?

A There I worked in the Eastern Laborers Department.

Q Did you stay there?

A Yes.

Q In the meantime from 1942 until about September, 1944--I guess it was--were you promoted any?

A Since I had 12 years of active service I had to be promoted automatically. That was on the first of September, 1943.

Q What was your civil service rank or title at that time?

A On the first of November, 1943 I became Criminal Secretary.

Q Was that your last promotion?

A Yes.

Q With the exception of this commitment in the east were you in any other military organization during the war?

(Recd-direct)

A When I returned, or rather when I got to Bensheim I received an SS service record. I had already received my uniform.

Q What was the description of your rank in the SS service record?

A My rank was the same as my civil service rank had been. I became a Sturmscharführer.

Q Did you ever pay any membership dues to the SS?

A No, I didn't belong to the SS.

Q You remained with your office in this capacity as Sturmscharführer until the end of the war?

A Yes.

Q Was your name, your birthdate and birthplace stated in this service record?

A Yes.

Q When you received this service record were you informed that you now belonged to a military organization and were no longer a civilian?

A Yes. Beginning with the time I was issued my service record I received the army pay and no longer commutation for quarters, and I was fed by the army.

Q During the time which you were now with the State Police did you ever come back to your old application for transfer?

A Since I realized it was hopeless trying to get back to the Protective Police again I made several more applications to be sent to the army.

Q Were these applications in any way successful.

A All of these applications were disapproved.

Q Was any reason why these applications were disapproved given?

A I was told that I had to work where I was put.

Q About how many of these applications did you make?

pl4r20-6

A It might have been two or three of them. I don't know.

Q During your time in the State Police office in Darmstadt or Bensheim respectively did you receive any kind of orders concerning the treatment of parachuted flyers?

A No.

Q To get down to the case. Do you remember the incident on the 15th of February, 1945?

A Yes. However, I don't know exactly whether it was the 15th of February.

Q To the best of your recollection what is the date? Is it correct that it was about the middle of February?

A Yes.

Q Where were you then?

A I was in the office in the morning. In my office.

Q Where?

A In Bensheim.

Q In the course of the morning did you hear in your office that an enemy flyer had been turned in?

A In the morning we found out in the office that there was an American flyer in Bongil's office.

Q Did you then go into Bongil's office?

A Since I had never seen a flyer before and many of my comrades hadn't either, many of the men went in there to see or try to see the flyer.

Q Did you try to see this flyer too?

A Yes.

Q What happened?

A When I came into the room Major Hollenbreich was in there and so was the flyer. Several of my comrades went in with me and since the room was half filled up with people Major Hollenbreich chased us out.

(Recf-direct)

Q Did you get back in the office?

A Yes.

Q Continue telling us what happened.

A After a while—it might have been a half hour or an hour—I was called up by Major Girbe and told to report.

Q Did you then go over to Major Girbe promptly.

A No, I had an interrogation and I couldn't get away right away.

Q Continue.

A A short time later Technical Sergeant Stattman came into my room and he told me an order from Girbe. "You will have to come along for an execution."

Q Upon that did you say anything or do anything?

A I put my coat on and put my pistol belt on and went to his room with Stattman, and there this flyer was.

Q What did you do then?

A We went out with the flyer in the direction of town.

Q Were the quarters which you were in in Bensheim inside or outside of town?

A Somewhat outside of town.

Q Continue.

A Then we took the left in the direction of Schoenberg.

Q Did you go through Bensheim with the flyer?

A Yes, part of the way.

Q And then you continued towards Schoenberg you say? Now continue.

A After we had been walking in the direction of Schoenberg for a while we turned to the left through a path through a field in the direction of the woods.

Q Continue.

A Since we had the order to shoot the flyer we had to do it because otherwise we would have gotten back to Zamsheim.

Q Did you receive this order to shoot and kill this man or did you in any way get knowledge of it?

A Technical Sergeant Stutzman was the man to bring me this shooting order.

Q So you were going towards Zamsheim again in this woods. Continue.

A Everybody was scared to shoot and we continued on but we couldn't possibly take the flyer back to Zamsheim.

Q Why couldn't you come back home with the flyer?

A Because we had orders to shoot the flyer. Stutzman had his pistol in his hand and I had a pistol in my hand. However without the flyer's knowing it.

Q Was the flyer walking ahead of you?

A Yes. So we walked about 20 or 30 meters. Stutzman looked at me and I looked at him. Finally we didn't have any choice any more so Stutzman fired one shot.

Q Did you agree among yourselves who would shoot the flyer?

A No.

Q What happened after Stutzman fired that shot?

A The flyer collapsed and moaned. I saw that Stutzman was very excited and it was too much to expect of Stutzman to fire another shot so I fired one more shot at the flyer.

Q After those two shots was the flyer dead?

A Yes.

Q At what part of the body was Stutzman firing and at what part of the body were you firing?

A I can't say exactly where Technical Sergeant Stutzman was firing. I fired at the head.

Q Did you make sure the flyer was dead?

A Yes.

Q What did you do with the body then?

A We carried the flyer away and covered him up with twigs.

Q And then?

A Then we went back to the office and reported back into Major Hollenbreich.

Q Both of you?

A Yes.

Q And?

A As far as I remember Major Hollenbreich went up to Major Girke with us and reported the fact that the flyer had been shot there.

Q Did you make a written report later on?

A No, that wouldn't have been my job anyway.

Q Did you have anything done concerning the burial of the flyer?

A Major Hollenbreich gave me the order to report to the Army Headquarters in Bensheim and said that a vehicle had been ordered there. That was a home guard battalion at that time located in Bensheim.

Q Did you go there then?

A I reported there and the cart was in there in the yard already with two horses in front of it.

Q Did you tell the driver, the teamster, where to go or did you go along with the body?

A I went along because the driver didn't know where the place was where the flyer was lying.

Q The flyer was then taken in, is that right?

A We put the flyer on the cart and then drove him to Bensheim Cemetery.

(Knaf-direct) to your office?

A Yes.

Q Did you hear anything else about this case later?

A No.

Q After this incident did you continue your duties at the STAPO Office, Bensheim?

A Yes.

Q I draw your attention to the last days of March, 1945 and particularly to the 24th of that month. Do you remember that day?

A Yes.

Q How could you remember that day?

A Because something extraordinary happened.

Q Explain to the court what extraordinary happened?

A At that time I was supposed to watch a telephone in the office. That started at one p.m. and ended at one p.m. the next day. In the evening I went to eat in the town because I didn't have anybody to eat with in Bensheim. However, Major Hollenbreich did not know that. When I came back from eating

(Raaf-direct)

Q Did you take anything away from the flyer after the shots had been fired?

A No.

Q Do you know whether any personal property of the flyer had been taken away from him before that?

A I didn't see anything taken away from the flyer.

Q Do you know whether the flyer was interrogated before you moved out with him?

A When I had entered this room in the morning I noticed that Major Hellenbroich was trying to interrogate the flyer, but I was in there for a very short time only because Major Hellenbroich kicked me out.

Q After you had taken the flyer to the cemetery did you report back into the yard I heard my name being called and Stattmann's name.

I said nothing. [illegible] Stattmann

Q What time of day was that, approximately?

[illegible] one flyer and one guard with him, and I with another

A That was between 19 and 20 hundred hours, approximately.

flyer walked right behind him.

Q Continue.

You just said that Major Hellenbroich informed the

A I was supposed to see Major Hellenbroich.

flyers that they would be shot. [illegible] speaking English or

Q Did you report to him?

German?

A Yes. I thought I'd be chewed out that time. Major Hellenbroich

I can't say exactly anymore, but I think he spoke was in the room where I was supposed to watch the telephone.

English or German or perhaps both mixed.

Q Was that the guardroom?

Did he relieve from that he said that he was telling

A Yes. The lighting conditions were very dark because the lamp was that to these flyers, or did he expressly say to you that he pushed down on the table.

was telling them?

Q Why was this lamp pushed down?

No, I gathered it from his words he said, because

A I think there was an air raid alarm going on at that time--blackout.

half was English and half German.

Q Continue. Who did you see in the guardroom besides Hellenbroich?

Well, continue.

A There were several more people in the guardroom but I don't know

A Stattmann was the first one to leave with one of them the names, and two American flyers.

Q [illegible] immediately behind them in the direction of the

How did you know they were American flyers?

A [illegible] the other one. Stattmann went to the right, and I

I didn't know exactly, but I assumed they were.

Q [illegible] what is the left in the garden. So I said to myself,

Can you recognize these people exactly or see them?

A [illegible] in order to shoot this flyer, at least I took Major Hellenbroich informed the flyers that they would be shot and then [illegible] shot him from behind. He is a soldier and I won't be given an order. And I fired one shot from the front from a machine

Q Was any special order given as to when and where this execution was to take place?

A Yes. Major Hellenbroich said, "These two flyers will be shot and you are supposed to do this in the garden next to the office building."

Q What did you do or say to that?

[illegible] a machine pistol on the 15th of February?

A Mr. I had my police pistol at that time--PAK caliber 7.65.

(Recess - 1 hour)

Take 101 - 30
[illegible]

A I said nothing. Then Technical Sergeant Stattman took one flyer and one guard with him, and I with another flyer walked right behind him to the guard place. I told

Q You just said that Major Hellenbrelch informed the fliers that they would be shot upon speaking English or German more than one shot, and I didn't want to do that.

A I can't say exactly anymore, but I think he spoke English or German or perhaps both mixed.

Q Did you gather from what he said that he was telling that to these fliers, or did he expressly say to you that he was telling them [illegible] of the chest. I couldn't really aim because it No, I gathered it from his words he said, because half was English and half German, see.

Q Well, continue. I had set my machine pistol for a single shot. Stattmann was the first one to leave with one of them, and I left immediately behind them in the direction of the garden with the other one. Stattmann went to the right, and I went somewhat to the left in the garden. So I said to myself, "If you have this order to shoot this flyer, at least I don't want to shoot him from behind. He is a soldier and I won't be cowardly." And I fired one shot from the front from a machine pistol. As he fell?

Q Did you always have a machine pistol?

A Yes. [illegible] you do after the flyer was dead?

Q And did you also have a machine pistol on the 15th of February? [illegible] that I had assembled the mission.

A No. I had my police pistol at that time--PPK, caliber 7.65. [illegible] Major Hellenbrock on--these

(Raaf - Direct)

Q On this particular evening why did you not use your service pistol and why did you use your machine pistol?

A I had my machine pistol in the guard place. I told myself that I wouldn't want to use the service pistol, because I might not hit well perhaps, and then I would be forced to fire more than one shot, and I didn't want to do that.

Q You just said you did not want to kill the flyer from behind. What did you do? Come around and bury the fliers?

A It was very dark. I put the flyer against the wall and walked away about two or three yards, and then I put the barrel in the direction of the chest. I couldn't really aim because it was night.

Q Do you remember how the flyer you shot was dressed? How many shots did you fire?

A I fired one shot. I had set my machine pistol for a single shot, but it is possible that I pulled the trigger one more time in the excitement. It is possible.

Q Did the flyer collapse on account of your shot?

A Yes.

Q Did you distinguish any insignia of rank or anything else on him?

A I don't see any, and if I had seen any I wouldn't know them.

Q Did you make sure whether he was alive yet or whether he had died?

A Yes, he was dead.

Q What was the reason that this execution was ordered to take place in the garden to the office building?

Q What did you do after the flyer was dead?

A I went into the guardroom to Major Hellenbroich and I reported that I had accomplished the mission.

Q What happened then?

A The same thing I told Major Hellenbroich--these fliers have got to be buried. Then we all of us walked out in the yard on bicycles.

Q Did you then receive instructions to bury these For what purpose?
fliers?
To take off.
A Yes.
Q Was the office in Bensheim dissolved that night and moved?
Q Did you bury them?
A Major Hellenbroich told me to pick up a bunch of
A Yes.
more people in the yard to help me--five or six men that came Q Did you in any way object to the order after you along.
received it?
Q And did you then dig some graves and bury the fliers?
A No. I couldn't object to the order, because a couple of days ago Major Dirke had called a formation of all
A Yes.
Q Was anything taken away from the fliers yet?
the male employees, had called them together in the mess hall,
A No.
and said the following, among other things, substantially,
Q Do you still remember how the flyer you shot was "The enemy has succeeded in making substantial breaks on the dressed?
Western Front. However, there is no reason for any disquiet
A All I know, all I saw, was a zipper.
as yet, because after all the good old Father Rhine is still Q Don't you remember the face or the stature of the in front of them as a last obstacle. You followed your flag flyer anymore?
in good times. I challenge everybody to do his duty in these
A No.
dire times for the Fuehrer and his country. Anybody who gets Q Did you distinguish any insignia of rank or anything soft or cowardly now has no business living."
else on the uniform of the flyer?
Q In accordance with this did you think that dis-
A No, I didn't see any, and if I had seen any I obeying an order would cause punishment?
wouldn't have known them.
A Yes.
Q What was the reason that this execution was ordered Q Did you know of any punishments for what you called to take place in the garden to the office building?
getting soft or breaking the front?
A I knew that the Americans were 5 or 6 kilometers
A Yes.
away from Bensheim, and for that reason I assumed that the
Q How do you know that?
fliers were shot there.
A The papers from the SS and Police Court containing Q Had part of the office already moved or were all of the sentences passed came in monthly.
you there yet?
A Half my comrades had already fallen out in the yard
(Raaf - Direct)
on bicycles.

Mein 121 - 30
2-19-47;

Q For what purpose? I ask the court for a short re- a
A To take off [illegible] to convince itself that the Q Was the office in Ranshain dissolved that night and moved? be possible.
A Yes. The Court will recess in place.
Q Did you in any way object to the order after you received it? The Court will come to order.
A No. I wouldn't object to the order, because a couple of days ago Major Girke had called a formation of all the male employees, had called them together in the mess hall, and said the following, among other things, substantially, "The enemy has succeeded in making substantial breaks on the Western Front. However, there is no reason for any disquiet as yet, because after all the good old Father Rhine is still in front of them as a last obstacle. You followed your flag in good times. I challenge everybody to do his duty in these dire times for the Fuehrer and his country. Anybody who gets soft or cowardly now has no business living." [illegible] conclusion. Raaf, Q Did So in accordance with this did you think that disobeying an order would cause punishment?
A Yes. [illegible]
Q Did you know of any punishments for what you called getting soft or breaking the front? No.
A Yes.
Q How do you know that? The court will [illegible] think this
A The papers from the SS and Police Court containing the sentences passed come in monthly. [illegible] because I don't [illegible]

CROSS EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q Raaf, you spent about 25 minutes telling the court the accused is near collapse and further interrogation would hardly be possible.

Why didn't you want to go into the secret police?

PRESIDENT: Court will recess in place.

(Whereupon the court recessed in place.)

A Because I didn't like all this political business, and I was used to serving openly with the protective police.

QUESTIONS BY DR. BUERGER:

Q Is that the only reason?

A Yes.

Q No other reason that you can think of?

A No.

Q What did you say your rank was when you went with Major Girke's Gestapo headquarters?

A Sturmscharführer.

Q Did you consider these orders as binding?

CAPTAIN VANCE: What would that be in English, Mr. Interpreter?

THE INTERPRETER: Master Sergeant, approximately.

Q A few short questions now to draw to a conclusion. Did you say you were an SS Master Sergeant?

Raaf, did you read the charge sheet exactly?

A Yes.

A Yes.

Q But I believe you told the court you were not a member of the SS?

Q Did you read Charge No. 1?

A Yes.

A Yes.

Q Did you understand Charge No. 1?

Can you explain that?

A Yes.

A I received this rank of Sturmscharführer only on

Q Do you want to tell the court what you think of account of my official civil service rank as criminal secretary.

this Charge No. 1?

A Some time in February, I believe you said, you saw

A I was never engaged in any conspiracy, because I an American soldier in Mueller's office. And you said this was didn't know anything.

the first flyer you had ever seen; is that right?

MR. RACHAEL: Your witness.

(Raaf - Cross)
(Raaf - Direct)

CROSS EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q Kmaf, you spent about 25 minutes telling the court on direct examination why you did not want to go into this secret police; why didn't you want to go into the secret police?

A Because I didn't like all this political business, and I was used to serving openly with the protective police.

Q Is that the only reason?

A Yes.

Q No other reason that you can think of?

A No.

Q What did you say your rank was when you went with Major Girke's Gestapo headquarters?

A Sturmscharfuehrer.

Q CAPTAIN VANCE: What would that be in English, Mr. Interpreter?

THE INTERPRETER: Master Sergeant, approximately.

Q Did you say you were an SS Master Sergeant?

A Yes.

Q But I believe you told the court you were not a member of the SS?

A Yes.

Q Can you explain that?

A I received this rank of Sturmscharfuehrer only on account of my official civil service rank as criminal secretary.

Q Some time in February, I believe you said, you saw an American soldier in Dongley's office, and you said this was the first flyer you had ever seen; is that right?

(Kmaf - Cross)

A Yes.

Q You were at the Gestapo headquarters September 12th at Darmstadt when it was bombed, were you not?

A Yes.

Q Didn't you see some American fliers on that day?

A No.

Q This is the first American flier you ever saw?

A The first American flier.

Q You did not receive any orders about this shooting from any one except Stattman, did you?

A I received the order from Major Girke. The only thing Stattman did was transmit it.

Q Who had the higher rank, you or Stattman?

A I had the higher rank.

Q Could you give orders to Stattman?

A No.

Q Any kind of order?

A I could give Stattman an order when I had express authority to do so from a superior of mine.

Q Now, you told the court that at the time you and Stattman killed this flyer you said to yourself that you were not guilty of anything; is that right?

A Yes.

Q And you are still of that opinion now, are you?

A Yes.

Q Did you and Stattman both make the report back together after you had executed this flyer?

A We went into Major Hellenbroich's place together--reported back in.

(Raaf - Cross)

Q Now, when you got to this second killing--Stattman killed one and you killed one, on the 24th of March 1945, who buried those fliers?

A Those men whom I assigned, or rather who went along voluntarily were the ones who buried the fliers.

Q Were you present when the fliers were buried?

A Yes.

Q And was that the flyer that you had shot and the flyer that Stattman had shot?

A Yes.

Q Where were they buried?

A They were buried in the garden of the office building.

Q Were they buried in one grave or two graves?

A In two graves.

Q About how far apart were they buried?

A I can't say exactly anymore. In the first place, it was night; in the second place, it has been so very long.

Q Do you know of any other Americans that were buried in that garden besides these two?

A No.

Q Who was in the room at the time Major Hellenbroich told the two Americans that they were going to be shot?

A Several men were in there, but I can't say any more who they were exactly.

Q Was Stattman in there?

A Stattman was in there, yes.

(Raaf - Cross)

Q So when Stattman said that when he went in to get the flier they were alone, he was not telling the truth, was he?

A It is possible that he didn't even see me because if I remember correctly, he was standing behind Hellenbroich and couldn't see me.

Q At this time both of the Americans were in the room, were they not?

A Yes.

Q Could you see both of them?

A Yes.

Q Was there anything to keep Stattman from seeing two of them?

A I don't know how Stattman was standing because the light was all the way pushed down to the table.

Q When Stattman delivered the order to you to kill the first flier, did you make any protest whatsoever?

A I couldn't make any protest for Major Hellenbroich was my superior.

Q Well, Major Hellenbroich was not around when Stattman told you about the order, was he?

A Sturmbannfuehrer Hellenbroich was present.

Q Let us back up a little bit. Did you not tell the court Stattman came to you and told you you had to execute a flier?

A No, -- oh, the first flier, -- yes.

Q That is the one we are talking about.

A Yes.

Q Were just the two of you alone?

A No, there were several more in the office. It was in my office.

Q Did you make any protest about killing this flier?

A I couldn't make any protest. It was an order.

Q Did you or did you not?

(Raaf-Cross)

A No.

Q At the time when you, Hellenbroich and Stattmann and the two Americans were in the room and Hellenbroich issued the order to kill them, did Stattmann make any protest whatever about killing this flier?

A No.

Q Did you make a protest, then I withdraw the question.

A No, that was impossible. The order had been issued and Sturmbannfuehrer Hellenbroich would have told us off all right if we had done any protesting.

Q You have heard Stattmann testify that roughly about the 15th of March he was given his papers to show that he was a member of the Waffen SS and not the Gestapo. Did you get a paper like that? In evidence.

A When I returned in October I received an SS service record--

Q I do not want to talk about October, and you can understand the question. We are talking about March 1945, -- did you get a paper from Major Dirks showing you to be a member of the Waffen SS instead of the Gestapo, -- yes or no? I will show that I am pointing to a--

A No, I didn't get any such paper.

Q I want to ask you again, do you understand my question as to what paper I am talking about? I am not trying to trick you.

A I don't know what kind of papers the Captain is talking about. In that [illegible] bodies that you buried that night?

Q I will tell you again. You have heard Stattmann testify that about the 15th day of March 1945, about a week before you killed these two men, that Major Dirks issued some new identification papers. The new papers omitted to show that you were members of the Gestapo, but represented that you were members of the Waffen SS. My question is, did you get one of those papers?

A I didn't get any such papers.

(Rasf-Cross)

Q You know that other members of the headquarters were getting these papers, did you not?

DR. AUBINER: I object to this question on the ground that Stattman did not say that all members of the headquarters received these papers but that seven or eight of the men on a special detail received these papers. If the prosecutor wishes to limit his question to those seven or eight members, then I withdrew my question.

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

THE WITNESS: I didn't receive any such papers. Whether Stattman did, I don't know.

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q I am calling your attention to this large chart which shows the Gestapo headquarters in Bensheim, which has been introduced in evidence as Prosecution Exhibit Number 70, and I will ask you if you found a body on the night of the 24th of March at about this position? (Indicating)

A Yes.

CAPTAIN VANCE: Let the record show that I am pointing to a spot in the bottom righthand corner of the rectangular triangle marked "Cultivated Field" which is beneath the letters "A" and "B" which appear on the exhibit.

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q Is that one of the two bodies that you buried that night?

A Yes, I assume so.

You assume? Do you not know?

A Well, I didn't shoot that one.

Q I did not ask you if you shot him. I asked if you found a body at that place and you answered that you did.

A Yes.

(Real-Cross)

Q Now, I will ask you, pointing to the same exhibit, if you did not bury that body at a point that is marked around the letter "H" on this chart?

A I can't say exactly whether this man was buried where the "H" is, or the "G" is.

Q He was buried at where the [illegible] of the mark "H" appears on the chart, is that correct?

A Yes.

Q I will ask you if it is not a fact that the man that you shot and killed on that night was buried where the figure "G" or "H" appear?

A It might be the "G" or "H". I don't know it.

Q In other words, the two bodies, of which you cannot signify the one killed by you, or the one killed by Stattman, but anyhow, the two dead Americans were buried in the places marked "G" and "H", is that right?

A Yes, was in an inclination of rocks.

Q I believe you said that you did not know of any other American soldier being buried in this field.

A No; I [illegible]

Q Will you step over to this same exhibit we have been talking about and show the court where you shot the American that you killed on that night? [illegible]

A I think it was about here. (Indicating)

CAPTAIN VANCE: Let the record show that the witness is indicating a point just above the figure which represents a tree with the letter "L" in the center of it. I believe that is all.

(Raaf-Cross) [illegible]

REDIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY DR. PUERGER:

Q Reaf, could Stattman give you any orders if they came from higher authority?

A No, he couldn't give me any orders but he could transmit them, or Major Girke had called up and told me to go over and then there was a delay and then Stattman called, we didn't at all.

Q When were you appointed SS Sturmscharführer? When did you get that rank?

A I got that rank when I was promoted to Criminal Secretary, -- that was the first of November, 1944.

Q Was that about the time you were on the front, in the trains?

A Yes.

Q Was that merely an official rank, or did that include entrance into the SS?

A That was an assimilation of ranks, had some particular significance for army rank.

Q Can you tell the court how deep you dug those graves on the evening of the 24th?

A The graves could not have been very deep because Major Hellenbroich told us to make it snappy, the office had to move out.

Q I show you two pictures which have been marked Exhibit P-77 and P-79, and ask you whether these represent the two fliers which were shot that evening?

A I can't say yes, but I can't say no either. I didn't see a pocket here. (Indicating)

DR. PUERGER: Let the record show that when he said "pocket" he was pointing to the pistol holster, the pistol belt.

QUESTIONS BY DR. PUERGER:

Q When these dead bodies were taken to these two graves marked "G" and "H" over there, were you present?

CHARGE SHEET

A Yes.

Q Did you see the facial features or the wounds of these men in any way?

A No, it was pitch dark, night.

Q Did you dig the graves at night or did you have any kind of lighting?

A No, we didn't have any lighting, no lights at all.

Q So you did the whole burying in the dark?

A Yes.

Q Was there an air raid alarm going on at that time yet?

A I think it was, I think there was a parachute alarm too but I don't know exactly.

Q What do you mean by parachute alarm?

A Sirens were screaming in a high pitch constantly for more than five minutes.

Q Was this the kind of signal that had some particular significance for air raid wardens?

A Yes.

(Whereupon, at 1800 hours, the court recessed until 0900 hours Thursday, 20 February 1947.)

Legal Form No. 8

MILITARY GOVERNMENT COURT
MILITÄRGERICHT

CHARGE SHEET
ANKLAGESCHRIFT

Place .....
Ort

Date .....
Datum

Name of accused .....
Name des Angeklagten

is hereby charged with the following offences:
wird hiermit wegen der folgenden strafbaren Handlungen angeklagt:

First Charge: ..... Erste Anklage: .....

.....

.....

.....

Particulars: ..... Einzelheiten: .....

.....

.....

.....

Second Charge: ..... Zweite Anklage: .....

.....

.....

.....

Particulars: ..... Einzelheiten: .....

.....

.....

.....

.....

The above charges are referred for trial to the *Summary *Intermediate Military Court to be held *General

Die Verhandlung wird vor dem *Einfachen *Mittleren Militärgerichte *Oberen

at ..... on ..... 194.....
in (Address of Court) am
(Anschrift des Gerichtes)

at .....
um Uhr stattfinden.

By Order
Im Auftrage von

.....
(Signature of person preferring charges)
(Unterschrift des Vertreters der Anklagebehörde)

*Strike out words not applicable.
*Nichtzutreffendes ist durchzustreichen.

Copy of above served on accused ..... 194.....
Abschrift dem Angeklagten zugestellt am

.....
(Signature of person making service)
(Unterschrift des Zustellers)

CA/GI 13 Legal Form No. 8

MILITARY GOVERNMENT COURT

CASE RECORD.

Court (21)

1322 - 1404

Case No. Superior Orders

~~Summary~~/~~Intermediate~~ Military Court.
*General

Place DACHAU, GERMANY

Date 20 FEBRUARY 194 7

Prosecutor Lt Col Dwinell

Defence Counsel Lt Col Berman

Interpreter Rudolf M. Nathanson
Herbert B. Rosenstock

Reporter Peter L. DiCurti, Sgt William F Jones
John MacDonald, Evelyn Cohen, Paula Silverman
Irving J. Hayett

~~*Members of Court~~
WITNESSES:
~~*COMMISSION~~
FRANCESCA METER
MARTHA GELBRICH
WILHELMINA BUDINGER
HEINZ HELLENBROICH

Accused JURGEN STROOP, et al

Address ..... Sex ..... Age .....

	First Charge	Second Charge
Pleas
Findings
Previous Convictions

Sentence
- Imprisonment
  - Term .....
  - Beginning 194
- Fine
  - Amount .....
  - To be paid before 194
    or in case of default of payment to serve a *further term of ..... imprisonment.

Charge Sheet and Record of Testimony are annexed hereto.

(Signature of member of court.)

REVIEW

Action of Reviewing Authority .....

(Signature of reviewing authority)

*Strike out words not applicable.

R E C O R D O F T E S T I M O N Y

in trial of

THE UNITED STATES | Versus | JURGEN STROOP, et al

by

GENERAL MILITARY GOVERNMENT COURT

tried at

DACHAU, GERMANY | BEGINNING 10 JANUARY 1947

20 FEBRUARY 1947 | PAGES 1322 -1394

W I T N E S S E S

	DIRECT	CROSS	REDIRECT	RECROSS	COURT
FRANCESCA MEYER	1322	1328	1333
MARTHA GELBRICH	1334	1348	1352-4	1354
WILHELMINA BUDINGER	1355
HEINZ HELLENBROICH	1358	1388

Camp Dachau, Germany

20 February 1947

MORNING SESSION

(Whereupon the court reconvened at 0900 hours.)

PRESIDENT: Court will come to order.

PROSECUTION: Let the record show all the members of the court present, all members of the prosecution and all members of the defense with the exception of Dr. Trost, absent sick, all the accused except Wilhelm Hoehler, Number 5 and Georg Best, Number 14, absent sick, the reporter and interpreter, present.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: May I have the court's permission to withdraw Meller, Albrecht and Goehrendt? They are not needed in this charge.

PRESIDENT: Permission granted.

PROSECUTION: Let the record show these three accused have withdrawn from the courtroom with Colonel Berman.

MR. RACHAEL: The defense will call as its next witness Francesca Meter. With the court's permission, Dr. Aheimer will conduct interrogation of this witness.

FRANCESCA METER, called as a witness by the defense, being first duly sworn, testified through an interpreter as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY DR AHEIMER:

Q Please give the court your full name.

A Francesca Meter.

Q How old are you, Mrs. Meter?

A 41 years.

Q What is your profession?

A Housewife.

Q Where is your residence?

[redacted]

(Signature - Barnes)

Q Are you the same Mrs. Francesca Meter who testified here before as a prosecution witness?

A I am the same.

Q Are you in any way related with any accused in this trial?

A No.

Q I think, Mrs. Meter that you testified before that you were employed by the Gestapo headquarters at Darmstadt while it was located at Bensheim?

A Yes, I was employed there.

Q From when to when?

A From 3 September 1944 until 17 March 1945.

Q In which department did you work during that time?

A I worked in the filing department.

Q I think you have identified before already the accused, Stattmann, is that correct?

A It is correct.

Q Did you work together with Stattmann in the same office?

A No.

Q Did you hear or see an application of Stattmann to be transferred out of headquarters Bensheim?

A I read it personally.

Q Are you still in a position to tell us when that happened?

A January 1945.

Q Can you give the approximate contents of this application?

A No.

Q Can you tell us where Stattmann wanted to be transferred to according to his application?

A He requested transfer to front line service.

Q Did you talk to Stattmann about this application?

A Not with Stattmann, but with police counsellor Schwimm.

Q What were the duties of police counsellor Schwimm at headquarters?

A He was in charge of the administration.

Q Why did you talk with police counsellor Schwimm in regard to this application?

A Through a mistake, this application got among my incoming mail and I had to return it to him. On that occasion we had a few brief words about this application.

Q Do you know anything about the result of this application?

A No.

Q Do you know whether Stattmann remained with this headquarters after you had seen his application?

A When I was discharged on the 17th of March 1945, he was still present there.

Q I think, Mrs. Meter, during your interrogation by the prosecution, you had testified you were drafted into the Gestapo office, is that right?

A That's right.

Q Do you know a Mrs. Elisabeth Gantner?

A Yes.

Q How do you know Mrs. Gantner?

A She worked in the same office room with me.

Q Can you tell us from when Mrs. Gantner worked at Gestapo headquarters?

A She was employed together with me and discharged at the same time with me.

Q Do you know whether Mrs. Gantner came voluntarily to the offices, or was drafted the same way you were?

A She was drafted the same way I was.

Q Do you know whether Mrs. Gantner tried to fight the drafting to this office?

A I don't know that.

Q Would you recognize the signature of Mrs. Gantner if I showed it to you?

A Yes.

Q I show you Prosecution Exhibit 65 and ask you whether you can identify the signature on the last page of that statement? Is it the signature of Mrs. Gantner?

A It is Mrs. Gantner's signature.

Q Did it come to your attention during your employment at Gestapo headquarters, Bendheim that prisoners were treated cruelly?

A I never heard or saw anything.

Q Did Mrs. Gantner tell you in any way she did not want to go to this Gestapo headquarters because she knew how cruelly prisoners were treated there?

A No.

Q Were you interrogated together with Mrs. Gantner at any time?

A Yes.

Q When did that happen?

A We were taken into custody together with five other colleagues of mine on the 28th of March 1945.

Q Who was together with you? Give us the names.

A There was Mrs. Gantner, Miss Leonhard, Miss Hoe, Miss Metzger and myself.

Q Were you present during the interrogation of Mrs. Gantner which took place in Darmstadt on or about 16 April 1945?

A I was present, but I left the room several times.

Q I return now to my previous questions about possible cruel treatment at Gestapo headquarters, Bensheim. Do you know whether Mrs. Gantner testified during her interrogation on the 16th of April 1945 that she was forced to work for Gestapo headquarters and she didn't want to work there because prisoners were cruelly treated there?

A It was impossible she made this reply because I was present when Colonel Chaves asked her how she came to work for Gestapo headquarters, Bensheim.

Q And as far as you can remember, what did she say in answer?

A She said, "I was drafted."

Q As far as you can remember, she didn't add that prisoners were treated badly?

A No, she didn't add that.

Q In which physical condition was Mrs. Gantner on the day she was interrogated?

A She was in very bad condition.

Q How did it happen?

A We were all under the deep impression of the painful first interrogation.

Q When you refer to the first interrogation, are you referring to an interrogation which took place before the 16th of April 1945?

A I am referring to the statement of the 28th of March.

Q Was it possible this was still in effect until the 16th of April 1945?

A The effects were so strong that even on the 21st of April I had a nervous breakdown and it was impossible to interrogate me any Q Do you know if Mrs. Gantner suffered under similar conditions?

A Yes, I had to hold her in my arms and an American physician had to be called. She had cramps and dream ideas.

Q Which night are you referring to?

A The night of the 26th of March.

Q You were speaking of a painful and dishonorable treatment. Please tell us what you were referring to.

A We were cursed, we were beaten, dragged through the room; we were forced to take off our clothes. On top of it, Mrs. Gantner who was crying terribly -- cold water was poured on Mrs. Gantner when she started to cry terribly, in order to bring her back to consciousness. I brought it to the attention of the interrogator that as a result of the terrible treatment which we were subjected to, I and all the other women had their monthly period and I asked the gentlemen to take into consideration my gray hair.

Q Was this treatment stopped as a result of that?

A No, for approximately an hour and a half I had to stand at attention naked, like a soldier.

Q Do you know whether Mrs. Gantner had to go through the same kind of treatment?

A Mrs. Gantner had to go through the same, only her position was different.

Q What do you want to express by that?

A She had to kneel with her feet pressed together, her arms stretched out all the way to the side and on the front of each hand, a weight of approximately one and a half pounds was placed.

Q She treated you and Mrs. Gantner and all the other women in this manner? Do you know the names?

A I don't know the office. It was transferred the next morning.

Q And you said that happened on the 28th of March?

A Yes, it was on the 28th of March.

Q Were these civilian or uniformed men who treated you in this manner?

A They were wearing uniforms.

Q Can you determine the rank?

A I can't remember any more today.

Q If I understand you right, you want to say that this treatment had an influence on the testimony of Mrs. Gantner on the 16th of April 1945?

CAPTAIN VANCE: May it please the court, I have allowed Dr. Ahedmer to lead the witness by the hand, but I think he has gone far enough.

DR. AHEDMER: You may examine.

CROSS EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q Mrs. Meter, how many times have you talked to me about this case before you appeared before this court?

A I spoke with my colleagues only once or twice about this matter during the time we were in custody.

Q No, I asked how many times you talked to me.

A About this case?

Q Yes.

A Never.

Q Mrs. Meter, do you mean to tell the court you didn't come to my office on three occasions and go over your testimony in this case?

A I didn't speak to any American gentleman about the methods we were subjected to.

Q Now, at any time [illegible]

[illegible] with this statement?

(Meter - Cross)

CAPTAIN VANCE: Will the court please instruct the witness to answer my question. This is the second time I asked the question.

PRESIDENT: Read the question.

(Reporter repeated question.)

A You will have to excuse me, I am very nervous right now.

Q I realize that. Now, do you remember coming and speaking with me at least three times before you testified before this court?

A Yes, I can remember.

Q And did we go over the statement you had made before Colonel Chaves?

A Will you please repeat the question?

Q Do you recall you and I went over the statement you had made and signed before Colonel Chaves?

A Not not entirely as I had made it before Colonel Chaves.

Q Did you and I read that statement over together and discuss it?

A Not the entire statement.

CAPTAIN VANCE: Let the record show the accused Best resumed his seat in the dock.

PRESIDENT: What was the answer?

(Reporter repeated answer.)

Q Do you recall, Mrs. Meter we spent at least a half hour on more going over your statement, which is four pages long?

A That was referring only to the questions about the 5th of February and the 24th of March.

Q That's all I am asking you about.

A That is what I was asked by Captain Vance.

Q And then after discussing this statement, you were then told you would be called before this court to testify, is that right?

A Yes.

Q Now, at any time when you talked to me [illegible] was wrong with this statement?

A [illegible]

A No.

Q Now, do you mean to tell the court Colonel Chaves mistreated you in any way in order to obtain this statement?

A No, on the contrary.

Q And what you told Colonel Chaves and what you told this court is the truth, isn't it?

A You are referring to the 16th of April when we were interrogated by Colonel Chaves?

Q Yes.

A This statement was more correct than the statement made on the 28th of March 1945 because he was the first one who treated us decently.

Q As I understand you, Colonel Chaves didn't mistreat you in any manner?

A No.

Q And didn't force you to answer questions you didn't want to answer?

A No.

Q Now Mrs. Gantner -- did Colonel Chaves mistreat her in any way?

A No.

Q Did he force her to tell anything she didn't want to?

A Not that.

Q What did you say was wrong with her answer that Dr. Aheimer read to you?

A I don't want to say that it is wrong, only that Mrs. Gantner is a nervous wreck today, if you would see her today, you would realize you would have to give her a lot of good words in order to get a decent answer out of her.

Q But you did tell Dr. Aheimer that one of her answers was not correct?

In 193 2/20
Ge 193 2/20
MS 10

A Correct. She was under the influence of alcohol then on the 28th of March. (Counsel repeated question.)

Q She wasn't under the influence of anything when Colonel Chavez questioned her?

A On the 16th of April she was the same nervous wreck. In the meantime, her condition has improved somewhat. I have seen her ten to twelve times, whenever we were called to the GPU, Bonnheim, she was terribly frightened. I always had to tell her not to be frightened, nothing was going to happen to us, we were the two employees of the Gestapo hired the last, why are you afraid, but it was impossible to do anything with her. During this time she was under a doctor's treatment.

Q Now, you testified you were working for the Gestapo?

A Yes.

Q You testified you were drafted by the Gestapo?

A No, I didn't say that.

Q Well, did you go to work there voluntarily?

A I was drafted.

Q I just asked you if you were drafted and you said no.

DR. AHEIMER: If the court please, I object. That is not the question asked.

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

Q I will ask you were you drafted by the Gestapo.

A I got the request from the employment office.

Q Did you want to work for the Gestapo?

A I didn't have any free will — I got this job assigned from the employment office.

Q I understand that. Did you tell Dr. Aheimer you objected to working for the Gestapo?

DR. AHEIMER: I object. The witness did not say that on direct examination.

QUESTIONS BY DR. ANSLINGER:

Q Can you tell Mrs. Meier what was understood during the war under the expression, "drafted"?

A If I express myself correctly, you were transferred from one working assignment to another working assignment where the work probably seemed to be more important and more necessary.

Q Was there anything possible to take any steps against this drafting for work or not?

A No, it was not possible.

DR. ANSLINGER: That is all.

MR. MACNEIL: Are there any questions by the Court?

PRESIDENT: No questions by the court. The witness is excused.

(Thereupon the witness was excused and withdrew.)

(Meier - Redirect)

Take 194 - 50 2/20 - wjf 1

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled. Read the question.

(Reporter repeated question.) during those times, is that correct?

A I never said so, any objection.

Q Now you remember Mrs. Mater the testimony you have given throughout this trial?

A As a witness for the prosecution?

Q Yes.

A Yes.

Q Was it the truth?

A It was the truth.

CAPTAIN [illegible]: Nothing further.

May it please the court, let the record show that the accused, Mechler, Hunter F, has returned to the dock.

Q [illegible] objection to [illegible] the first witness?

[illegible] didn't make any objection.

Q [illegible] throughout this trial?

A As a witness for the prosecution?

Q Yes.

A Yes.

Q Was it the truth?

A It was the truth.

CAPTAIN VANCE: Nothing further.

Q Are you the same Mrs. Colkerich who testified before this May it please the court, let the record show that the accused, [illegible] already as a prosecution witness?

Koehler, Number 5, has returned to the dock.

Yes.

REDIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY DR. AMEIMER:

Are you with any of the accused here in [illegible]

No.

Q Can you tell Mrs. Meier what was understood during the war under the expression, "drafted"?

A If I express myself correctly, you were transferred from one working assignment to another working assignment where the work probably seemed to be more important and more necessary.

Q Was there anything possible to take any steps against this drafting for work or not?

A No, it was not possible.

DR. AMEIMER: That is all.

MR. RACHAEL: Are there any questions by the Court?

PRESIDENT: No questions by the court. The witness is excused.

(Thereupon the witness was excused and withdrew.)

(Meier - Redirect)

[illegible]

QUESTIONS BY DR. [illegible]:

Q The defense will call as its next witness, Martha Gallwich.

MARTHA GALLWICH, called as a witness by the defense, being first duly sworn, testified through an interpreter as follows:

Q Do you know how long Raaf was employed at this headquarters?

DIRECT EXAMINATION

A A few years, I can't say exactly.

QUESTIONS BY DR. [illegible]:

Q Do you know whether Raaf at any time during his employment

Q What is your name?

at Gestapo Headquarters at Darmstadt made an application to be transferred from there?

A Martha Gallwich.

Q Are you married or not?

A Yes.

A Yes, I am married.

Q How do you know that?

Q Are you the same Mrs. Gallwich who testified before this

A Applications of this type were given to the head of our Court already as a prosecution witness?

headquarters and during the course of business procedure they had to come through my hands.

A Yes.

Q Are you with any of the accused here in any way related?

Q As a stenographer-typist did you work for the head of this headquarters?

A No.

Q Where were you during the war -- that means from the 1st of September 1939 until the 8th of May, 1945?

A Yes.

Q Do you know how many applications, approximately, Raaf

A I was employed by the Gestapo Headquarters at Darmstadt.

made?

Q In which capacity?

A I remember three applications.

A I was a stenographer-typist.

Q Do you know approximately when the first application was

Q Do you know the accused Raaf?

made?

A Yes.

A I think it was in December 1942 or January 1943.

Q Can you point him out to the court, if he is in the court room?

Q Do you know where Raaf intended to be transferred to?

A Raaf requested a transfer to the regular police of the

A Yes.

State of Wurttemberg.

Q Please do so.

Q Do you know the result of this application?

A Number 22.

A The head of the headquarters at that time, Kriminal

MR. RACHAEL: Let the record show that the witness identified

Counsellor Schr, had informed Raaf that in view of the small number the accused, Raaf, wearing placard 22.

of men available it was not possible to approve his application.

(Gallwich - Direct)

(Continued)

QUESTIONS BY DR. BURGER:

Q Do you know approximately when the second application was made?

A I think, if I remember right, shortly before the attack on Darmstadt, on the night of September 11/12, Raaf again requested that his classification as indispensable should be changed.

Q You said before that he made a third application. When did he make this third application?

A The third application Raaf together with other comrades made after they were detailed to Darmstadt, approximately in December of 1944.

Q How do you know that?

A Applications of this type were given to the head of our headquarters and during the course of business procedure they had to come through my hands.

Q As a stenographer-typist did you work for the head of this headquarters?

A Yes.

Q Do you know approximately when the first application was made?

A I think it was in December 1942 or January 1943.

Q Do you know where Raaf intended to be transferred to?

A Raaf requested a transfer to the regular police of the State of Wurttemberg.

Q Do you know the result of this application?

A The head of the headquarters at that time, Government Councillor Mohr, had informed Raaf that in view of the small number of men available it was not possible to approve his application.

Q Do you know approximately when the second application was Q What was the result of the second and third applications made?

of Reaf?

A I think, if I remember right, shortly before the attack on A I assume there was no decision on the second request at Darmstadt, on the twelfth of September, 1944, Reaf again requested all. Probably it was burned together with other files, because in that his classification as indispensible should be changed.

his third application Mr. Reaf referred to his second application.

Q You said before that he made a third application. When
For this reason I assume that he had received no reply to the second did he make this third application?

application.

A The third application Reaf together with other comrades
Q Was this third application refused?

made after they were detailed to Darmstadt, approximately in December
A Yes.

of 1944.
Q Do you know the reason for the rejection?

Q Do you know the reasons Reaf gave in his applications?
A Yes.

A In these applications in general and also in Mrs. Reaf's
Q Please tell us.

request it was expressed the thought that these men did not consider
A Already shortly after the beginning of the war the decree their work for the security police so important any more and as young, was published that all members of the security police had to stay healthy men they preferred to do their duty in the front lines.

in the service of the security police and it should be made clear to

Q Do you know also whether this was the reason for the first those men that their work for the security police was just as application where he requested the transfer to the order police of important as the work for the Wehrmacht. Approximately the end of the State of Wurttemberg?

1944 another decree came out with the same meaning but even stronger

A No, at that time Mr. Reaf wanted, as he told me, to return since it was even said that if anyone should try to make an applicato the regular police where he had worked for such a long time and tion directly to the Wehrmacht without going through channels, he where he liked his duties much better.

could expect disciplinary action and in view of this decree all of Q What do you understand as you said, "After they were detailed these applications had to be rejected.

to Darmstadt"?
Q And where did those decrees just mentioned by you come

A After the heavy air attack on Darmstadt on the twelfth of from?

September, 1944, the officials of the Gestapo headquarters, together
A Those decrees were from Berlin and the first decree was with details of prisoners were used to pick up dead bodies for given as a copy from the commander of the security police at approximately three weeks.

Nienburg.

(Gellrich - Direct)

Q What was the result of the second and third applications submitted to the Gestapo under these conditions?

A I assume there was no decision on the second request at all. Probably it was summed together with other files, because in his third application he referred to the second application. Now, this means I assume that he did received no reply to the second application requested a transfer. Do you know the accused, Franz Karl Stein? Was this third application refused?

A Yes.

Q Do you know the reasons for the rejection?

A PRESIDENT: The court will recess in place.

(Whereupon the court recessed in place.)

A Already shortly after the beginning of the war the decree was published that all members of the security police had to stay in the service of the security police and it should be made clear to these men that their work for the security police was just as important as the work for the Wehrmacht. Approximately the end of 1944 another decree came out with the same meaning but even stronger wording. It was often said that if anyone should try to make an application directly to the Wehrmacht without going through channels, he could expect disciplinary action and in view of this decree all of these applications had to be rejected at this time, around December or January. And where did these decrees just mentioned by you come from? Do you know where Stein was wanted to be transferred?

A These decrees came from Berlin and the last decree was given to me as a copy from the commander of the security police at Wiesbaden.

(Gelbrich - Direct)

(Gelbrich - Direct)

1137

Q Was it possible or impossible for an official to be transferred from the Gestapo under these conditions?

A Insofar as I can judge it was not possible. [illegible] questions of Mr. Aumeier, also while they were in detail at Darmstadt to [illegible] Gottbrath, you testified before that in addition to Lenz, after the defeat in Darmstadt after the twelfth of September, [illegible] had requested a transfer. Do you know the accused, Frank Karl Stattmann? [illegible] number of personnel and simplified and one of the [illegible] or Ban. would be available then and I have to add that I told them[illegible] are IF you use him in court, please point him out. Their application[illegible] The court will recess in place, make such applications[illegible] (Thereupon the court recessed in place.) [illegible] was the wrong one [illegible] the PRESIDENT: The court will come to order, the detail of picking up the [illegible] Mr. Aumeier: at any time before the desire to permit Mr. Aumeier: Let the record show that the witness identifies the accused Stattmann, entering plaintiff's [illegible] as evaluation of this

QUESTIONS OF MR. AUMEIER:

Q Do you know whether Stattmann too made an application to be transferred? summer of 1944.

A When you are referring to the Wehrmacht, you are referring to [illegible] Can you still recall when he made his application?

A It was approximately the same time, around December or January. And this first request had been rejected before, in that [illegible]

Q Do you know where Stattmann wanted to be transferred?

A If I remember right, Stattmann too wanted to go to the Wehrmacht. [illegible] request, [illegible] which he made after the [illegible] Front, and it [illegible] was rejected as Ruff's request.

Q Do you know anything about the reasons for this application for transfer? Another question. Do you remember a day or

A Yes. These men came already before and tried to make such applications during the time while they were on detail at Darmstadt to pick up the bodies. At that time they thought it would be easier to have their applications approved because the headquarters at Darmstadt had been destroyed and they thought the headquarters would be decreased in number of personnel and simplified and one or the other of them would be available then did I have to tell them? I told those men that they should wait a little bit longer with their applications because it would be impossible that they make such applications at that time because I thought this moment was the wrong one and the men told me they thought just now after the termin of picking up the bodies, they felt more than at any time before the desire to do front line duty.

Q Do you know whether Stottmann made an application at this time, which I believe identified already before in this trial, had a telegram from Mr. Stottmann tried to be released to the Wehrmacht before, in the summer of 1944.

Q When you are referring to the Wehrmacht, you are referring to the front line troops referring to an American flyer because I was absent from my office for sometime and during this time I was the Q [illegible] this first request had been rejected before, is that [illegible] while -- sometime later -- I heard Government Councillor [illegible] Personal Council [illegible] talking to each other [illegible] Q [illegible] Stottmann's request, his second request, which he made after the Darmstadt detail, did it have the same results as Knaf's request?

(Selbrich - Direct)

(Selbrich - Direct)

A Yes.

Q Just another question. Do you remember a day on or approximately the fifteen of February, 1945, when an American flyer was at Gestapo headquarters at Bensheim?

A Yes.

Q Did you have anything to do with this incident?

A No.

Q Where was your office?

A In Bensheim I worked in the same room as the chief of this headquarters, Government Counsellor Girke.

Q Did you stay in your office during the entire forenoon of this day?

A I would like to say that just on this date I was not in my office only four hours on and off because my husband was on furlough from the front.

Q Do you know whether the chief of this headquarters, Girke, whom you have identified already before in this trial, had a telephone call or tried to make a telephone call in regard to this American flyer?

A Yes and I like to assume it for this reason that this telephone conversation was referring to an American flyer because I was absent from my office for sometime and during this time I saw the American flyer in the other office. When I returned to my office a short while -- sometime later -- I found Government Counsellor Girke and Criminal Counsellor Hellenbreich talking to each other and I just heard when Criminal Counsellor Hellenbreich said to Girke the same what the flyer had said to me before while I was in the other office and in this case Girke said I should get him as quickly as possible a telephone connection to the commander of the security police in Wiesbaden.

Q Do you know who was the commander of the Security Police at Wiesbaden at that time?

A Yes, it was Colonel of the SS, Trumpler.

PRESIDENT: Court will recess for thirty minutes.

(Whereupon at 1000 hours the court recessed until 1030 hours.)

Tr 198 60
pls/1

(Whereupon the court reconvened at 1025 hours.)

PRESIDENT: Court will come to order.

PROSECUTION: May it please the court, let the record show that all the members of the court; all the members of the prosecution; all the members of the defense except Dr. Frost who is absent sick; all the accused except the accused, Albrecht, Heller and Gebhardt, who are absent with the defense counsel; the reporter and interpreter are present.

DR. AHLEMEIER: The witness, Mrs. Gelbrich, is still on the witness stand.

PRESIDENT: You are reminded you are still under oath.

HANNA GELBRICH, called as a witness by the defense, resumed the stand and being reminded she was still under oath, testified further through an interpreter as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION (continued)

QUESTIONS BY DR. AHLEMEIER:

Q Mrs. Gelbrich, before the recess you told the court that during the middle of February 1945 you were supposed to make a telephone connection with the Commander of the Security Police at Wiesbaden. Did you get this telephone contact or did you only make a request for it.

A Because this was a very urgent call, first I tried to get the call through on our internal, so-called IBA lines. This line was busy so I had to make the request for this call over the Postal Emergency Service and of course to get this call through tuk more time and in the meantime I left the room.

Q So you really don't know whether this telephone call came through or not?

A Yes, the telephone call was entered on the telephone register the next day.

(Gelbrich-direct)

Q Did you listen to the telephone call?

A No, because I left.

Q Now we come to another case, the incident at the end of March 1945. If I remember right, you testified before that you did not know anything about the two fliers on the 24th of March '45. Did you hear anything later on about this incident?

A I can remember that on Sunday morning, the day after we had left Bensheim, Government Counciller Girke talked to SS Major Seiler from which I came to the conclusion that he intended to report something to Wiesbaden about two low flying fliers. And Seiler brought to his attention that since Saturday afternoon we had no more connection with Wiesbaden.

Q Do you know anything more about this case?

A No.

Q Now some other questions. Since when were you with Headquarters?

A Since February 1938.

Q You were always the secretary of the head of Headquarters?

A Since the beginning of 1940.

Q Do you know the name "Sprenger"?

A Yes.

Q Who was that?

A Sprenger was Gauleiter and Reichsstatthalter for Hessen.

Q Do you know where he had his headquarters?

A As Reichsstatthalter, at Darmstadt; as Gauleiter, at Frankfurt, on Main.

Q Did Sprenger, in his capacity as Reichsstatthalter, have anything to do with Gestapo headquarters at Darmstadt and later on at Bensheim?

A Yes.

Q What connections existed there as far as you know?

A The connection was that since 1940 the head of Headquarters at the same time was a political expert attached to the Reichsstatthalter.

Q Was it necessary that the Chief of Headquarters as a political expert had to report to the Reichsstatthalter on various occasions?

A Yes, once weekly.

Q Do you know whether the Reichsstatthalter was the superior officer of the Chief of Headquarters or not?

A I would say no.

Q How do you come to this conclusion?

A From the correspondence which existed between them.

Q To what did this correspondence refer?

A That varied.

Q Did the Reichsstatthalter give any orders to the Chief of your Headquarters?

CAPTAIN VANCE: We object, the question is leading. The witness has already answered that, Girke was a superior to him.

PRESIDENT: Objection sustained.

QUESTIONS BY DR. AHLEMER:

Q Did the Reichsstatthalter try to exercise any pressure on the Chief of your Headquarters?

A Yes, he did so on several occasions.

Q Do you know in which way the Chief of your Headquarters reacted to this?

A Mostly the Chief of our Headquarters heard of the different opinion which the Reichsstatthalter had in regard to actions taken by us only via the Reich Security Main Office at Berlin, and in this connection I can say that since 1943 the major part of my work consisted in taking reports for justification of our actions to Berlin, for the work Gestapo Headquarters, Darmstadt, had done in some cases.

Q You said that these reports were sent to Berlin? To which office did they go there?

A To the attention of the Chief of Department 4, Mueller.

Q In which government office was Mueller employed?

A Reich Security Main Office.

Q Did these justifications by the Chief of your Headquarters refer to the fact that he had acted too strictly or too softly?

A No, it was for this reason -- that often Gestapo Headquarters had not taken the strong measures which the Party had requested.

Q One more question on that point -- Was it possible for the Chief of Headquarters, Girke, to give any orders to the Reichsstatthalter, Sprenger?

A No.

Q Do you remember the time around the middle of March '45?

A What do you want me to remember?

Q Only the time.

A Yes.

Q At that time did you hear or see anything about pay books which were given out to employees of Headquarters?

A A few days before we moved from Bensheim I participated in the issuing of new pay books.

DR. AHLEMER: I don't want to make formal objection to the translation but only for the purpose of the record I'd like to say that yesterday the word "Soldbuch" was translated as "service record".

8) Ta 194
pls/5

CAPTAIN VANCE: I'd like to ask the interpreter what the witness said and have it translated as to what the witness answered.

MR. RACHER: If it please the court I believe that was done and I believe the counsel objected to the word "Soldbuch". Yesterday it was translated as "service record" and today it was translated as "pay book".

THE INTERPRETER: That refers to the same German expression.

DR. AHRENS: I brought this point to your attention only so that it is made clear to the court. The question yesterday was referring to the same kind of identification papers.

PRESIDENT: Is there an objection?

MR. RACHER: No, sir. That is only a notation for the record -- the objection by the defense counsel to the interpretation.

QUESTIONS BY DR. AHRENS:

Q Mrs. Gelbrich, you said just now that shortly before Headquarters moved from Bensheim you participated in the issuing of new pay books?

A Yes, I participated in writing out these books.

Q Were these pay books issued to all members of Headquarters?

A No, only for approximately seven or eight men.

Q Do you know the purpose of issuing these pay books?

A Yes, these pay books supposedly served for special detail at Mannheim or Ludwigshaven, I don't recall anymore.

Q At that time were Mannheim and Ludwigshaven already occupied by the enemy or was it shortly before the occupation?

A The were already occupied by the enemy.

Q How many male employees were at Headquarters?

A I can't say that, there were many.

Q Approximately 20?

A No, more. The total at Bensheim?

Q I mean only at Bensheim.

A At Bensheim there were more than 20.

Q Approximately 30, 40, 50? How many?

A I would say 40.

Q And only for seven or eight employees were these books issued on which you participated?

A Yes.

Q Do you know whether one or several of the accused in this trial received some of these pay books?

A I know definitely of three of them, Girke, Knaf and Stattmann. I am in doubt about Hollenbroich.

Q If you can remember, what were the contents of these pay books?

A The personal data of each and every one of these men.

Q Was the personal data given in these books, under which you understand name, date of birth, etc., correct or was it falsified?

A It was correct.

Q Do you know which office was given as the issuing office for these pay books?

A There was a stamp with an APO or field post office number. There was no other office mentioned in the stamp.

Q Do you know whether the other employees of Headquarters were in possession of other pay books?

A You mean in addition to these seven?

Q Yes.

A I would like to say, yes.

Q Do you know what was given as the issuing office in the pay books issued to all other employees of Headquarters?

A If I remember right, Police Training Battalion, Konitz.

Q Did these pay books indicate that the bearer was a member of the Waffen SS?

A With the office, Konitz?

Q Yes.

A Yes.

Q Do you know whether these seven or eight pay books which Q He wanted to go into the Wehrmacht, didn't he?
were issued to these seven or eight men indicated that these men were
A Yes.
members of the Waffen SS?
Well, was he already in the Wehrmacht?
A In the pay books of these seven men their SS rank was omitted.
A I don't know that.
Q To make it clear once more -- all other employees of Headquarters, What about Stattmann? Did he want to get out of the Gestapo and with the exception of these seven or eight, did their pay books indicate become a soldier in the Wehrmacht?
that they were members of the Waffen SS?
Yes, he did.
A I assume so.
Q Stattmann was a policeman and he desired to become a soldier,
CROSS EXAMINATION
is that correct?
QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:
A Yes, sir. Stattmann was supposed to become a policeman and he Q Mrs. Gelbrich, why did everyone want to get out of the Gestapo? preferred to become a soldier.
A I'd like to say that I didn't speak about everybody.
And he wanted to go into the Wehrmacht?
Q Well, how many do you know who wanted to get out?
A Yes.
A A large part of the employees.
And he wasn't a member of the Wehrmacht at the time you knew
Q Why did theywant to get out of the Gestapo?
him, was he?
A As I said before, I think because they were young men. I am
A No, he wouldn't.
referring mostly to the younger employees of Headquarters, and these men
That is right Mrs. Gelbrich wasn't a part of the Wehrmacht saw that much older men who partly were in pretty bad physical condition and Girke wasn't a part of the Wehrmacht, were they? were sent to the front while they, as young men, stayed home and worked A SS Major Girke, as I know from some talks, was a member of the
at the office.
Wehrmacht before and following the close of his health, he returned.
Q So you think they wanted to get out so they could be fighting
He returned to the police, to the Gestapo? soldiers?
A I don't think immediately.
A I assume so.
Well, somehow he seemed to be a soldier in the Wehrmacht
Q I believe you said that Rnaf told you he wanted to be transferred and came back to the Gestapo?
into the army, is that so?
A Yes.
A Yes, he told me about it.
What do you mean by "pressure"?
Q Rnaf was a policeman and he wanted to become a soldier, is that Under pressure I understand if somebody tries to become his correct?
will or somebody was under all conditions.
A Yes, in 1944 and '45 when the war situation was very critical
I believe you testified that Gestapo would use the pressure and decisive.

Q He wanted to go into the Wehrmacht, didn't he?

A Yes, criticising Dirke's actions at the highest authority in Berlin. Well, was he already in the Wehrmacht?

A [illegible] trips Dirks ever made to Berlin.

Q What about Stattmann? Did he want to get out of the Gestapo and become a soldier in the Wehrmacht?

A Yes, he was, to Kaltenbrunner's headquarters.

Q Stattmann was a policeman and he desired to become a soldier, is that correct? Various conferences would be go down to Wiesbaden to have on Wednesdays. Stattmann was supposed to become a policeman and he preferred to become a soldier.

Q He wanted to go into the Wehrmacht?

A Either the Commander of the Security Police or else the Higher SS and Q [illegible] wouldn't a member of the Wehrmacht at the time you knew him, who he?

A No, he couldn't, to these conferences frequently or infrequently?

Q That is right and Hullenbroich wasn't a part of the Wehrmacht and Dirke wasn't a part of the Wehrmacht, were they? [illegible] I believe Major Dirke, as I have from some time, and a number of the Wehrmacht before and following the [illegible] his health, he returned.

Q He returned to the police, to the Gestapo?

A I don't think immediately. Dirke, Graf and Stattmann all received one of [illegible] something he wanted to be a soldier in the Wehrmacht and came back to the Gestapo?

A Yes, Major Hullenbroich got sick.

Q What do you mean by "pressure"?

A Under pressure I understand if somebody tries to impose his will on somebody else under all conditions.

Q I believe you testified that Sprenger would put the pressure on Dirke, is that right?

A Yes.

80 Za 194
pls/s 194
pls/10

Q What pressure did he put on Girke?

A By criticising Girke's actions at the highest authority in Berlin as not being strong enough.

Q Do you know of any trips Girke ever made to Berlin?

A Yes, in connection with these matters he had to report to Berlin on several occasions.

Q Was that up to Kaltenbrunner's headquarters?

A Yes.

Q And on various occasions would he go down to Wiesbaden to in the Hague conferences?

A Yes.

Q Who would he go to see down there?

A Either the Commander of the Security Police or else the Higher SS and Police Leader. I can't say that definitely because I wasn't present.

Q Would he go off to these conferences frequently or infrequently?

A I can say very frequently.

Q I just want to ask you a few questions about these pay books. I believe they were issued a few days before Gestapo Headquarters left Arnsheim on the 24th of March, is that right?

A Yes.

Q I believe you are sure that Girke, Haaf and Stettman all received one of these new books, are you?

A Yes.

Q Did Major Hellenbreich get one?

A I said before, I am in doubt.

Q Yes.

(Colbrich-cross)

Q And his own and Hellenbreich and their [illegible]

A As far as I can recall, yes.

Q You just don't know is that right?

A I don't know.

Q On the front of this pay book there was written "Waffen SS" is that correct?

A I got these Soldbuchs when they were opened already and my job was to put in the stamp and to use the blotter to dry it.

Q Mrs. Gelbrich, you have seen these books, you have filled them out, and you know what they look like?

A No, I'd like to say as I said before, I only participated in the issuing of these pay books. It had to be done very quickly some evening and each and every one of us had one certain job to do on these books.

Q You didn't make but seven or eight of them, did you?

A I know that seven or eight were issued.

Q How long did it take to make out one of these books?

A It was done very quickly because everybody did something else on it.

Q What was the great rush about getting these books out?

A It was in the evening and these men had to go on this detail the same night.

Q So you didn't see the front cover of the book, is that right?

A No.

Q So you can't say yes or no, whether the Waffen SS was printed on the front of the book?

A No, I can't say that.

Q Now, on the inside of the book did it show the man's name to whom it was issued?

A Yes.

Q And his age and birthplace and other data?

A As far as I can recall, yes.

Q Did it say that he was a member of the Gestapo?

A No.

Q Why was that left out?

A I don't know. The detail on which they had to go was considered very dangerous and the men were not expected to return. It was expected that they would be taken prisoner by the enemy and they should not be identified then as members of the Gestapo. I know this so exactly because SS Major Girke told me so in reply to a question of mine.

Q So the idea of the book was to indicate that the particular person having the book was a member of the Waffen SS, is that correct?

A Yes, the men got also insignia of the Waffen SS on their collar.

Q When were these new insignia issued to them? At the same time the books were issued?

A As far as I can recall, yes.

Q Now, Major Girke had one. At that time was Major Girke a member of the Waffen SS?

A A member of the SS in the section of a fighting unit? No.

Q And at that time was Rauf a member of the Waffen SS?

A I would like to say the same.

Q Was Stattman a member of the Waffen SS?

A The same.

CAPTAIN VANCE: Nothing further.

REDIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY DR. AHRENS:

Q Mrs. Goldrich, when you speak here about a member of the Waffen SS or a member of the Wehrmacht, do you understand that always in the sense of fighting units?

(Goldrich-redirect)

A Yes. I am referring to the fighting units.

Q When you said before that Stattmann requested transfer to the troops, you were referring to the fighting troops?

A Yes.

Q Do you know whether the Waffen SS was a part of the Wehrmacht?

A I can't say that.

Q Do you know anything about the fact that members of the Security Police were reported to Geneva at sometime as part of the Wehrmacht?

CAPTAIN VANCE: Objected to as leading.

MR. RACHAEL: The question is "if" she knows. The very first words were "if you know".

CAPTAIN VANCE: He is suggesting by putting the words "reported to Geneva" in. I'll leave it to the judgment of the court.

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

THE WITNESS: I remember very vaguely to have heard something about it, some discussions.

QUESTIONS BY DR. AMELMER:

Q You don't know anything definite about it?

A No.

Q When you were asked before by the prosecuter whether Stattmann was a member of the Wehrmacht, in this case, too, you were referring to the Wehrmacht as a fighting unit, is that correct?

CAPTAIN VANCE: I object. She answered my question and I think the question propounded to her was very clear and she answered them very clearly.

MR. RACHAEL: I respectfully submit this is cross examination.

CAPTAIN VANCE: Since when do you cross examine your own witness?

MR. MACHER: Since the prosecution takes the witness as his own witness and asks questions not brought out on direct examination.

PRESIDENT: There will be no more arguing. Repeat the question, please.

(Whereupon, the reporter read the last question as follows:

"Q When you were asked before by the prosecutor whether Seetzen was a member of the Wehrmacht, in this case, too, you were referring to the Wehrmacht as a fighting unit, is that correct?")

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

THE WITNESS: I was referring to the fighting troops.

CROSS EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q Do you know what the Wehrmacht was?

A Yes.

Q The Wehrmacht is the army of the German Reich, is that not correct?

A Yes, but furthermore there were units of the Wehrmacht back home.

Q That is true, and there was a police force back home, too, wasn't there?

A Yes.

CAPTAIN VANCE: Nothing further.

REDIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY DR. AHRENS:

Q One more question. Were the air force and navy part of the Wehrmacht in your opinion?

A Yes.

Q As far as you know, was the Waffen SS part of the Wehrmacht?

A I was always of the opinion that the Waffen SS was a separate organization.

DR. AHLMER: That is all.

MR. RACHAEL: Any questions by members of the court?

PRESIDENT: No questions by any member of the court. The witness may be excused.

(Whereupon the witness was excused and withdrew.)

WILHELMINA BUDINGER called as a witness by the defense, being first duly sworn, testified through an interpreter as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY DR. AHLMER:

Q Mrs. Budinger, please give your full name to the court.

A Wilhelmina Budinger.

Q How old are you?

A 24 years.

Q Where do you live?

A In Lorsch in Hessen.

Q What is your profession?

A Stenographer-typist.

Q Are you the same Mrs. Budinger who testified before this court as a prosecution witness?

A Yes.

Q If I remember correctly you identified the accused Franz Karl Stattman before in this court?

A Yes.

Q Since when were you employed by the Gestapo Headquarters Darmstadt or Bensheim respectively?

A Since June 1940 until the end.

(Whereupon the court recessed.)

PRESIDENT: The court will come to order.

(Budinger-direct)

(Continued)

Q With whom did you work in the same office together with a certain [illegible]?

A During the last month I worked with Dengler, Stattman and Reninger.

Q Do you know anything about applications made by Stattman to be transferred from the Gestapo Headquarters [illegible] get in contact with the American?

A Yes, I know about two applications which Stattman made in order to be transferred to front line duty. [illegible] previous testimony you had testified that

Q Do you know when the first application was made? [illegible] was in your office?

A Yes. The first time Mr. Stattman told me about it in the summer of 1944. [illegible] this time an American flyer was there.

Q Did he tell you also about the result of his application? [illegible] office was?

A No, not directly, but it was refused because Stattman stayed at our headquarters, [illegible] approximately one hour to an hour and a half.

Q Do you know when the second application about which you were talking was made? [illegible].

A Yes, it was in January, 1945. I myself typed it on my typewriter.

Q Was there any reason given for this application and if so which one? During his presence was the flyer misinformed by anyone?

A Yes. Mr. Stattman gave his reason that he was not satisfied with his work at headquarters back home and, that he, like any other German soldier, would prefer to do his duty on the front line. [illegible] official of your headquarters? Did he give, in his application or in his discussion with you, [illegible] any other reasons for his application? [illegible] Counselor Hellenbrecht interrupts: No, that was the idea of that.

PRESIDENT: The court will recess in place.

(Whereupon the court recessed in place.) [illegible] interrupted about?

(Whereupon the court reconvened.) [illegible] from, as I said before, and whether

PRESIDENT: The court will come to order.

QUESTIONS BY DR. AMELUNG: [illegible] the answers of the flyer, if he gave any Q Do you know the result of the application?

(Dengler-direct)

A No, he didn't make any reply to the questions. He only said always,

A Yes. Mr. Stettman told me that it was rejected with a notation that applications of this character were useless since there were orders from higher authority that every man has to stick to his assignment and that he could expect disciplinary action if he would try to get in contact with the Wehrmacht directly. (He was excused and withdrew.)

Q One other question. In your previous testimony you had testified that on or about the 15th of February, 1945 and American flyer was in your office. (Witness: Do you desire to be sworn?

A Yes, around this time an American flyer was there.

Q Can you still recall how long after your arrival at your office on behalf of the following sworn statement through an interpreter: the flyer still stayed at this office?

MR. DAGAL: Dr. Aschner will conduct the direct examination of

A Yes. Approximately one hour to an hour and a half.

the witness.

Q But he was present already when you came to your office?

DIRECT EXAMINATION

A Yes.

BY DR. ASCHNER:

Q Did you remain in your office then during the entire time?

Q Please give the court your full name.

A Yes.

A My name is Heinz Hellenbroich.

Q During his presence was the flyer mistreated by anyone?

Q When were you born?

A No.

A I was born on the 21st of March, 1904.

Q You were interrogated before, during your interrogation, whether

Q Are you married?

you had listened to the interrogation of this flyer by some official of your

A Yes.

headquarters and according to the record you testified that you were present

Q Do you have any children?

for approximately five minutes while Criminal Counselor Hellenbroich

A Yes. I have a boy 5 years old.

interrogated the flyer, is that correct?

Q Where is your family residing?

A Yes.

A My wife and my boy are living at Borgentreich, Westphalia.

Q Can you still recall what the flyer was interrogated about?

Is that your real name too?

A Yes. He was asked for his personal data, as I said before, and

A Yes.

whether he had an order.

Q Next to your present station?

Q Can you still recall the answers of the flyer, if he gave any answers at all?

A [illegible]

(Dudinger-direct)

A No, he didn't make any reply to the questions. He only said always, "I have nothing to say." [illegible] aren't you now a civilian internee?

A [illegible] Your witness.

Q [illegible] No questions.

A [illegible] No questions by the court. The witness is excused.

(Thereupon the witness was excused and withdrew.) custody?

A [illegible] The defense calls as its next witness the accused Hollenbroich. When were you a prisoner of war?

A [illegible] Do you desire to be sworn?

Q [illegible] He is in uninterrupted custody since the 4th. HEINZ HOLLENBROICH, an accused, voluntarily took the stand in his own behalf and made the following sworn statement through an interpreter:

A Yes. Yes.

MR. RACHEAL: Dr. Aboimer will conduct the direct examination of

Q What are you by profession?

the witness.

A By profession I am a criminal counselor.

DIRECT EXAMINATION

Q What is the professional career you went through?

QUESTIONS BY DR. ABEIMER:

A After I had finished high school and graduated there I studied law

Q Please give the court your full name.

at the university until 1935--I was assistant, until 1936. Then I passed the

A My name is Heinz Hollenbroich.

first legal state examination and I was trained in the various departments

Q When were you born?

of the ministry of justice in the superior court district of Duesseldorf.

A I was born on the 31st of March, 1906.

Q When did you enter the service of the police?

Q Are you married?

A At the beginning of 1938 I left the legal service and transferred to the criminal police as a criminal counselor.

A Yes.

Q Do you have any children?

Q Please continue in the story of your background.

A Yes. I have a boy 5 years old.

A I was employed at the criminal police headquarters, Duesseldorf. That is the state criminal police. In 1941 I was transferred to the Secret State

Q Where is your family residing?

A My wife and my boy are living at Dortmund, Westphalia.

Police [illegible] Dortmund. There, unexpectedly, I was to be trained especially Q Is Dortmund your residence too?

for various purposes. That was done. I was on duty in Dortmund until 1942

A Yes.

as a [illegible] for counter espionage. Then I was transferred to Munster

Q What is your present status?

in the same organization and functioned as chief in the border police.

A I am a prisoner of war at Dachau.

From Munster I was transferred to Cologne [illegible] Nurses Home in 1946. There I was employed in the defense against sabotage and security of

Q Aren't you mistaken? Aren't you now a civilian internee?

A I am in custody here.

Q Since when are you in custody?

A Since August 1946. I don't know the exact date. Here in Dachau.

Q Before you came to Dachau you were already in custody?

A Before I was a prisoner of war.

Q Since when were you a prisoner of war?

A Since the 4th of May, 1945.

Q That means that you have been in uninterrupted custody since the 4th of May, 1945? Now previously? Then I became head of Department Four B. Now Two.

Q What are you by profession?

A By profession I am a criminal counselor.

Q What is the professional career you went through?

A After I had finished high school and graduated there I studied law at the university until 1935--I was mistaken, until 1930. Then I passed the first legal state examination and I was trained in the various departments of the ministry of justice in the superior court district of Duesseldorf.

Q. When did you enter the service of the police?

A At the beginning of 1932 I left the legal career and transferred to the criminal police as a criminal counselor.

Q. Please continue in the story of your background.

A I was employed at the criminal police headquarters, Duesseldorf. That is the State Criminal Police. In 1935 I was transferred to the Secret State Police--Gestapo--Dortmund. There, supposedly, I was to be trained especially for defense purposes. That was done. I was on duty in Dortmund until 1938 as a counselor for counter espionage. Then I was transferred to Munster in the same capacity and furthermore as chief in the border police.

From Muenster I was transferred to Gestapo Headquarters Vienna in 1940. There I was employed in the defense against sabotage and security of (Hollaenderisch-direct) 2397 leaders.

industrial enterprise. [illegible] were

CAPTAIN VANCE: Let the record show that the accused Albrecht, Moller and Goehrandt have resumed their seats in the prisoners dock and that Dr. Mackor, Dr. Berger and Dr. Ma have returned to the court [illegible]

DIRECT EXAMINATION, continued [illegible]

QUESTIONS BY DR. [illegible]:

Q Please continue with your story.

A Then in 1942 I was transferred to Gestapo Headquarters, Darmstadt. There I worked in the same capacity until Gestapo Headquarters was reorganized through the Reich Main Security Office. Then I became head of Department four in Darmstadt.

Q What do you mean Department four? [illegible]

A Well, Department four in the Gestapo contains various sections which have to do with the defense against the enemy. [illegible]

Q What was your rank when you came to Darmstadt? [illegible]

A I was SS Captain and as a civil service employee I was a criminal counselor. [illegible]

Q Were you a member of the SS? [illegible]

A In 1941 when the chiefs of the various departments were transferred into the SS at Vienna I too was taken over as an SS leader in the Security Police. [illegible]

Q Was this the Allegemeine SS or the Waffen SS or an SS of some special kind? [illegible]

A No, that was not the Allegemeine SS. That was only a manner through which we received, in the security police, in comparison the same ranks as they were given in the SS. For instance, since I wasn't criminal counselor for three years as yet I became only SS Captain. Whereas, in 1943, when I had three years in service as a criminal counselor I was promoted to SS Major. We were not members of the Allegemeine SS, but our personnel records were registered at the Security Service--SD--our personnel records were kept at the Gestapo Headquarters. I am referring now to our files as SS leaders.

Q If I understand you rightly these SS files were of not kept at any office or headquarters of the SS, but at the Gestapo headquarters at Darmstadt, a change took place the end of 19[illegible]

A Yes. There the records on files were kept, but were registered with the Reich security main office.

Q Were you a member of the Nazi Party? the time 44-45. Did any change in the person of the chief of headquarters take place [illegible] Since when 44-1945?

A Since let of May, 1933, I remember right, was transferred to [illegible] the end of March 1944, and SS Major Cirke was transferred to [illegible]

Q Did you have any official position in the Nazi Party? been

A As members of the security police persons not allowed to have any official position in the Party on the 1st or [illegible]

Q You said before that you were registered with Russian security service SD. Did you sign any statement when entering there? of personal matters, took charge of our headquarters at that [illegible]

A At the time of the transfer to the SS leader corps of the security police we had to sign a large number of that statements and papers. I know this SD statement, but I can't state definitely whether I signed it or not. But anyway we had to accept the jurisdiction of the SS and had to accept any punishment without legal procedure, and sanctions etc?

Q That is what was said in this statement of the SD, according to Stahlman's testimony yesterday; isn't that correct?

A Yes. Yes, I assume so you in any way in charge or not?

Q Who was in charge of Darmstadt headquarters when you came there? [illegible] at that time SS Colonel Semann had ordered that

A In charge of the headquarters was SS Colonel [illegible] representative Ashamer-Pifrader. [illegible] there were the heads of de- [illegible] and important decisions were requested

Take 196 - 81
2-20-47;JGMcD;S

Take 196 - 80
2-20-47;JGMcD;S

from [illegible] was there a change made in the person of the chief of headquarters, and if so, when? Was there any change made in [illegible] as far as I can remember, a change took place the end of 1943 or beginning of 1944. At that time SS Major Rühr became the head of Gestapo headquarters. [illegible], Mr. Clerk had ordered that I task you to limit your testimony to the time 44-45. Did any change in the person of the chief of headquarters take place during 1944-1945? A I order in this respect from the Fall Von SS Major Rühr, if I remember right, was transferred to Magdeburg in April 1944, or it might have been already the end of March 1944, and SS Major Ehlers was appointed to succeed to Rühr as chief of our headquarters; but as far as I know he was sick and started his duties only on the 1st or 2nd of June. In the meantime, the Inspektor at Wiesbaden was already in charge of our offices. Dr. Krieger, who was in charge of personal matters, took charge of our headquarters at that time. In the [illegible] courts of law [illegible] meant the Gestapo was Inspector of the security police at that time. [illegible] strong and heavy as statements passed on by others of SS Colonel Somann, has to be brought to the attention of [illegible] Dr. Krieger, whom you mentioned just now, the one attached to Rühr's headquarters, is that correct? A [illegible] as I said before, he took care of the personnel matters for Colonel Somann [illegible] members of the security police. During this time were you in any way in charge or respect in case they did not fulfill the requirements of their jobs? A At that time SS Colonel Somann had ordered that during this time each head of a department was a representative for his department. So with me there were the heads of departments one and two, and important decisions were requested from Wiesbaden and were made there.

Q After Oirke took office was there any change made in your position?

A Yes. Since I was the oldest and highest in rank at that time among the heads of the departments, Oirke had ordered that if he shouldn't be present I should represent him to the outside and that I should also have charge in the offices. There was no special order in this respect from the Reich security main office. As far as I know this arrangement was ordered by SS Colonel Ehrens.

Q You said before you were put under the jurisdiction and the authority of the SS and the police.

A Yes, that's correct.

Q Were any sentences of the SS and police courts brought to your attention?

A Yes. The jurisdiction of the SS and police courts was contrary to the regular courts of law. That meant the sentences of the higher SS and police courts were at least three times as strong and heavy as sentences passed on by other courts; and this fact had to be brought to the attention of the SS men at all times. For this reason, on regularly scheduled roll calls these sentences which came in lists from the Reich security main office were brought to the attention of the men, so that the members of the security police would know at all times what punishment they had to expect in case they did not fulfill the requirements of their jobs.

Q This information about sentences of the higher SS and police courts--was it given out on orders of higher authority?

Tube 106 - 50
[illegible]

A Yes. There was an order of the Higher SS Leader Heinrich Himmler, who had ordered that excerpts of the sentences and reasons for the sentences of the SS and police courts it should be compiled and should be currently forwarded by the various headquarters for the information of the men under their command. Approximately what time of the [illegible] was it when this order [illegible] Under these sentences were there any which referred to cases of disobedience of ordering when I came to my office. It must be between [illegible] time.

Q Can you remember what kind of punishment in individual cases was handed out for disobedience of orders since [illegible] Able: During the last years of the war only the death sentence was given. I still can remember a few individual cases. We were very much impressed with the sentences that Reichsführer SS had given to commanders and commanders who, after the invasion of the Allies, had not followed the order to fight to the last, and, furthermore, had not followed out special orders which were given for their individual discipline or [illegible]. They were, without any hesitation, sentenced to death. As we were told, these sentences were carried out [illegible]. Q If you speak here about commanders of units, and of your referring to commanders of the army or are you referring to commanders of police units? [illegible] report of the rural police station. A They were SS leaders who were commanders of units of the security police in France. Flyer No. [illegible] a low-flying plane. Q Do you remember a day around or about the 15th of February, 1945? I am referring to the day to which [illegible] No. 6 refers. [illegible] entirely. The reasons for [illegible]

A Yes, I do.

(Hollenbroich - Direct)

Q What happened on this day at your headquarters? was shot down

A I can't give you the exact date any more; but it seems happened around the 15th or 20th of February; one morning it was reported to me that at the office of Dengler a flyer had been delivered.

Q Approximately what time of the forenoon was it when this report was made to you?

A It was early in the morning when I came to my office. It must have been around breakfast time.

Q Can you give the exact time?

A I assume it must have been around 8:30 a.m. Since some other stuff was delivered together with the flyer, first it was assumed that this could be sabotage or espionage agent. My both, my major aids, ordered me to investigate and clarify this matter. I should find out what was the matter with this man. I then went to the room in which Dengler's office was located. There, first of all, I sent out of the room a lot of people who had come to this room out of curiosity, looking at the flyer. Then Dengler gave me his report--how this man had come to us. It was reported that this terror flyer had been transferred from the rural police in the neighborhood of Worms. The transfer report was also given to me, which I had checked first. According to the reports of the rural police station--I don't remember any more which station it was--it was a case of a parachuted terror flyer who, from a low-flying plane which was burning, had parachuted and who then later on, when he was surrounded, had shot at farmers and rural policemen who tried to take him into custody. The reports furthermore contained the remark that this low-flying flyer, before he was shot down by the anti-aircraft artillery, had strafed civilians. I first of all then looked over the stuff which had been brought in together with the flyer, and first of all then I questioned the flyer in regard to the things which were lying on the table, as far as it had any connection with his person.

(Hellenbroich - Direct)

Q You are speaking about stuff--material. What one you referring to?

A I have to add that together with the flyer from the rural police, parachutes had been brought in, equipment, maps, a knife, a rubber boat, and a few other things which had dropped to the ground from the air. My investigation showed as follows: that the terror flyer had nothing to do with these things. Anyway, he said that these things were not his things.

I have to say in this connection that it wasn't too easy to make myself understood to the flyer. At that time I spoke English the way I learned it in school, and had no training in speaking English, and, first of all, my vocabulary and my diction was very small. And so together with the others, as good as possible, I tried to make myself understood, and the terror flyer understood me too and the other comrades too who participated in this interrogation. I'd like to say you can't even say it was an interrogation. The terror flyer had such an excellent attitude--composed. You might say he made a very good impression as far as he was, so that he understood quite well what we wanted to know from him.

PRESIDENT: Court will recess until 1:30.

(Whereupon at 1200 hours the court recessed until 1330 hours.)

(Hollenbreich - Direct)

AFTERNOON SESSION

Q What was the contents of these pockets?

(Whereupon the Court reconvened at 1330 hours.)

A You know, the usual things you carry in a pocket, a wallet,

PRESIDENT: The Court will come to order.

papers, photographs and a handkerchief and the usual things.

PROSECUTION: May it please the Court, let the record show

Q Did those papers give anything about the person himself?

that all the members of the Court are present, all the members of the

A Yes. I think it said something about the person.

Prosecution are present, all the members of the Defense are present with the exception of Dr. Treet who is absent sick, that all the accused are

Q Do you remember the name of the flyer?

A I only remember the name when I read it in the charge sheet.

present with the exception of number 2, Trumler who is absent with counsel

That it might have been that name.

and that a reporter and interpreter are present.

Q You mean the name Ray Bernat?

MR. RACHAEL: At the close of the morning session the defendant

A The name Warren, the way I do not remember.

Hellenbreich was on the witness stand.

Q Continue please.

HEINZ HELLENBREICH, an accused, being first duly sworn, voluntarily took the stand in his own behalf and testified further through an interpreter as follows:

When we did stop speaking I was asking questions about his outfit

DIRECT EXAMINATION (Continued)

and he answered me did not answer all to. Then I tried to ask him about his family relationships and where he was from and he said little about that ACCUSED HELLENBREICH: Yes, sir.

PRESIDENT: The witness is reminded he is still under oath.

now. Then I asked him why he was fired at the German civilian population.

QUESTIONS BY DR. AHRENS:

Q In what manner did you ask that question?

Q This morning we stopped at the time of the interrogation of the

A The way I am asking it now. That is, at first I asked him whether flyer in the middle of February 1945. What was the nationality of this he had fired on German civilians and I told him those were the reports on flyer?

hand.

A The flyer was an American flyer.

Q What was his answer to that?

Q You said something about this interrogation which might have

A When that he shrugged his shoulders and gave a negative answer to taken place in a unilateral sort of way, will you continue with your answer to the question why he did it he only shrugged his shoulders.

description please?

Q About how long did this interrogation last?

A At first I asked the flyer about the things which had been

A In the meantime I again started working on these materials turned in together with him and the first thing I determined was that he did and also the other documents on their own took too, tried to read an not have anything to do with the matter that was turned in together with him.

understanding.

With the exception of a pistol which he had admitted to be his own and some

Q You just used a phrase, what do you mean by that?

of the matter that was found in his pockets which he admitted to be his own.

A Well, I gave Dr. Hellenbreich had been picked up with (Hellenbreich-direct) 1367

Q What was the contents of these pockets?

A. You know, the usual things you carry in a pocket, a wallet, some papers, photographs and a handkerchief and the usual things.

Q Did these papers show anything about the person himself?

A Yes. I think it said something about the person.

Q Do you remember the name of the flyer?

A I only remember the name when I read it in the charge sheet. That it might have been that name.

Q You mean the name Ray Herman?

A The name Herman, the Ray, I do not remember.

Q Continue please.

A I then asked the flyer about his name and about his personnel data which he did state including his number. Questions about his outfit and his missions he did not respond to. Then I tried to ask him about his family relationships and where he was from and he said little about that too. Then I asked him why he had fired at the German civilian population.

Q In what manner did you ask that question?

A The way I am asking it now. That is, at first I asked him whether he had fired on German civilians and I told him these were the reports we had.

Q What was his answer to that?

A Upon that he shrugged his shoulders and gave a negative answer. In answer to the question why he did it he only shrugged his shoulders also.

Q About how long did this interrogation last?

A In the meantime I again started working on these materials and also the other comrades on their own hook too, tried to reach an understanding.

Q You just spoke about other comrades whom do you mean by that?

A Well, Master Sergeant Freudenberger had been picked up and Stattmann was in the room. Those two tried to talk to him also.

Q What was the reason why Freudenberger was called?

A Well, I thought that I had not been able to make myself understood and I wanted to check on that.

Q What was the result of that check?

A That he behaved in a similar manner toward Freudenberger and about replied to his questions.

Q What happened at the conclusion of this interrogation?

A Now that I had found out that we were dealing here not with a possible saboteur agent or a parachuted spy but rather with a terror flyer, I left the room, having first ordered that he was to be kept there and said that I was going to ask the boss.

Q When you say "The Boss" you mean the accused Sima, do you not?

A Yes. I went out in the guard room and still found the rural police employee who had brought the flyer in. There were several of them. He stayed in the guard room and was having breakfast there. For some reason he did not leave. I asked him one more question about the report which had been sent along and I asked him who it had been that had determined that the flyer had come down in a burning fighter or bomber plane. He told me that that had definitely been determined by the anti-aircraft unit that had done the shooting down; that he himself was also present at the time of the arrest and when the flyer had been firing at the civilian population and figures.

Q What did you do when you received that report?

A I then walked into the office of Major Sima and reported the matter to him and told him that on account of this rural police report it was clear that we were dealing not with a saboteur or espionage agent but with a terror flyer. When I asked him what to do about it and that the man was still downstairs he said that he would hear about it and that he would like to take a look at the man first. I went back to my office because I had some visitors. After about one hour or perhaps about 45 minutes

(Hollenbreigh-direct)

I do not remember exactly how long it was, but it was a considerable amount of time -- after that period of time elapsed I was called up from downstairs and asked what was to be done with this flyer or whether any decision had been reached. So, I went over to Major Dirks' place as the officers were in the same building. I asked him whether any decision had been reached about the flyer and that apparently the Luftwaffe did not want to keep him there any longer. Upon that he told me, "well, the flyer will have to be shot in accordance with orders" and he mentioned that he had been talking to Colonel Prehler. Upon that I instructed the Unteroffizier downstairs to send one man up and Oberscharführer Stutzmann then showed up; I told him that the flyer was to be shot upon orders of Major Dirks. Stutzmann asked where was it supposed to happen and whether he was supposed to do it all by himself. Upon that I said that I wouldn't know that either and let's just both of us go over to the block. So, I, together with Stutzmann went over to Major Dirks' office and upon being asked Major Dirks instructed us that the flyer was to be shot in the vicinity of Buchenwald and that I, myself, together with Master Sergeant Graf were to carry out the execution. I call was made downstairs telling Graf that he would have to report. This took a while and then Stutzmann was instructed to unsaddle, in order to that and carry it out.

Q Did Stutzmann say anything after he had received these orders?

A Stutzmann said "Yes, Sir" and clicked his heels and saluted me. After a considerable period of time -- I cannot say exactly how long -- but after a considerable period of time, Stutzmann and Graf appeared and reported the mission completed.

Q What did report made to you?

A Yes it was not right after that I told the two of them to report and to report this to the boss and I went along and reported it to him.

(Hollenbreich-direct) 1570

to ppc 1st S
2/20 50

to 1st Lt 6
2/20 50

Q And that is what happened?

A Yes. That is what happened.

Q In what form did that report ... report was made besides this verbal report?

A In the form of military reports which is usual in our place.

Q Are you able to reproduce this report verbatim? Or a proper report in the ... Whether I can do it verbatim? I would have to reconstruct it first, but what they probably said is, "Tech Sgt Stettnis and Master Sgt Hauf returning from evacuation mission completed." ... to the post.

Q Do you still remember whether Stein made any reply?

A I think there was some talk about the burial ... after the gentle ... believe Hauf was instructed to take care of it. ... were retained.

Q Do you still remember in what manner the burial took place or was ordered to take place, either? ... were taken away from the flyer?

A No. As far as I remember correctly that was an army vehicle that was used upon which the body was placed and from there it was probably driven to the cemetery and turned over to the cemetery men.

Q Was anything taken away from the flyer before he was taken to that operation? ... happened on that date in connection with an American flyer?

A No. That had been taken away from him before, as I have mentioned, the contents of his pockets -- nothing was taken away from him besides that. That is to say, I was not present when those men searched him, so I cannot be any ... from my own observation but I am sure nothing was taken away from him ... of course in the guard room. However, I cannot tell you that.

Q While you were together with this flyer was he ever mistreated ... Luftwaffe offices. I was surprised because the officer appeared to be ...

Q Do you still remember whether the unit, the military unit or army unit which was to take care of the burial was a prisoner of war battalion?

A As far as I remember correctly that was a part of the home guard ... battalion which was stationed in Bensheim. They furnished the guard troops

(hollenbreich-direct)
(hollenbreich-direct)

A if I remember correctly it might have been around 1:30.

for prisoners of war.

Q You mean 1:30 p.m.?

A 1330 hours.

Q Do you know whether any written report was made besides this verbal report that was made to Girke?

A Yes. The department concerned downstairs sent up a proper report in the usual business channels with the files.

Q Do you know what happened to those documents?

A That matter went through me over to Major Girke- to the boss.

Q Do you know what happened to that later?

A It probably went to department 2, to the administration to settle the burial expenses and to keep the objects which were confiscated.

Q You do not know that from your own observations, do you?

A Oh, you mean the things which were taken away from the flyer? No. I do not know that from my own observations.

Q Let us now turn to the other case, charge number ten. Do you remember the date of the 26th of March 1945?

A Yes.

Q What happened on that date in connection with an American flyer?

A In the evening, when I returned from a reconnaissance mission I had performed in the vicinity of Darmstadt, by order of Major Girke, I found two American flyers in the office. A parachute air raid alarm had be issued a very short time before that, if I remember correctly and there were a number of comrades in the guard room, however, I cannot tell you their names, because we had been joined in our unit by men from all kinds of other retreating offices. I was surprised because the office appeared to be just moving out. The vehicles which were being loaded were standing outside and the men were working on their bicycles and part of them had already fallen out. I was annoyed because they had accepted two more flyers.

Q About what time of day was it when you returned from the reconnaissance mission?

(hellenbroich-direct)

tn 198 IdM 7
2/20 20
[illegible]
E 1

[illegible]

A If I remember correctly it might have been around 8:30.

Q You mean 8:30 P.M.?

A 2030 hours.

Q Then what happened to these Americans? Continue with the story.

A I asked who had accepted these men and who brought them in. [illegible] Upon that I was told that the two flyers had been brought in by the Air Corps together with some files lying on the table in the guard room and in addition to that there were some objects that were usually kept in pockets. Those had been taken away from these men when they were turned into the office or guard room and they had been searched then. I at once had a look at these files which were there and in these files, which consisted of two pages the interrogation of these two flyers had been recorded. This record indicated that they were two flyers who had come down separately. One of them must have come into the hands of the German Air Corps, one or two days perhaps before the other.

A That was supposed to [illegible] low altitude they would fly along in the roads in the country or even the streets in town, and fire at personnel in the streets as well as horses. That also included the running of personnel which had to get out of the trains or children playing. That included air planes which had been flying [illegible] streets in towns, also open terrain.

Q Was this statement "hunting along the streets" a common one in January for strafing?

A Yes, we [illegible] day after day, hour by hour.

Q Did you receive the flyers or the data which were described in the statement?

A I saved [illegible] I had been sent on their way [illegible] but I did not any

Q Did you ask [illegible]

Q Did these files indicate in what area these fliers had come down?

A Yes, it must have been in the area between Weinheim and Heppenheim, in the area of Weinheim and Heppenheim, the report indicated both of them had come down from shot down airplanes. One of the fliers in fact had been arrested in the vicinity of a place where his plane came down. One report indicated there were two fliers who had come down separately; one of these two must have come into the hands of the German air corps. He had been interrogated, been carried out by one first lieutenant, evidently senior officer of the outfit. These men had made statements about their personal data, their names, nationalities, their outfits and they had admitted they had been flying over Heppenheim and Weinheim and they had been having hunts along the streets there.

Q What do you mean by this "had been having hunts along the streets?"

A That was supposed to mean at low altitutde they would fly along in the roads in the country or even the streets in town, and fire at personnel in the streets as well as houses. That also included the strafing of personnel which had to get out of the trains which had been stopped. That included air planes which had been flying over persons in towns, also open terrain.

Q Was this expression "hunting along the streets" a common one in Germany for strafing?

A Yes, we experienced that day for day, hour for hour.

Q Did you accuse the fliers of the acts which were described in the statements?

A I asked these fliers whether it had been correct that they had been shooting at the civilian population, but I didn't get any answer to that.

Q Did you ask the fliers about their personal data?

A Yes, I did this later when I learned from Major Girke after I had read this statement from the air corps. Now, I didn't finish telling about this statement. After this record of the interrogation, there was a supplement addressed to the commanding officer of the security police in Rensheim signed by the commanding officer of some flak outfit and typed under the signature "Major". This supplement stated that these two Americans had not reached the status of prisoners of war, since they did not deserve the protection of the German armed forces, due to their actions, to wit, firing at the civilian population. They had been transferred to the security police headquarters with the request that the orders available there should be carried out. Signature, "Major".

Q Do you remember the signatures of the man who signed it?

A No, it was not typed under the signature.

Q But this report and the supplement was signed?

A It was not only signed, but was also affixed with the seal of the unit.

Q What did you do with these files?

A With this printed matter I went up to the first floor to try to see Major Girke, whom I finally found on the staircase. The first place I reported to him was that I had returned from this reconnaissance mission. He was rather mad at me apparently for the reason that I had returned rather later and that he had probably received other reports about the enemy situation. I reported to him that the enemy was advancing on a front of approximately six to eight kilometers parallel to the mountain road and that two flyers had been brought in downstairs, together with this file. I described this record to him briefly and explained this supplement to him and I asked him what was to be done now. Upon that he said "Don't ask me stupid questions just as we are about to move out. We have got to shoot them." I went downstairs again right away. I asked for the CQ. I found out his name from the guard book. Master Sergeant Raaf happened to be on duty that day and since I was supposed to use somebody who was on guard that day, I had Raaf called in and the next man whose name appeared on the particular slip and that was Stattmann.

Q Did you ask the flyers yourself?

A I had returned downstairs again and had called for these two men. I asked the flyers about their personal data, which I found to agree with the report, with the ones reported by the airforce. I then told these two sergeants who had appeared, I don't know whether they appeared at the same time or not, but I told them that these flyers were to be shot by order of Major Girke. I also mentioned that these were Americans who had fired upon the German civilian population and did not deserve the protection of the Army, who had turned them over to us. I also informed those two Americans at that time that they were going to be executed upon orders since they had fired upon German civilians and that they would not be treated as prisoners of war.

Q Do you still remember the personalities, I mean the names of those Americans?

A No, I read these names for the first time in the charge sheet.

Q Did you see any insignia of rank on those Americans?

A No, they didn't have any insignia of rank.

Q How were they dressed?

A As far as I remember, they have had coverall jackets on with zippers.

Q What happened after you gave this order to the two accused, Raaf and Stattmann?

A Well, I have to splice something in here. Girke had told me that I was supposed to use men who were on guard. He then came down behind me and showed up in the doorway for a short period of time and I think Stattman was the man who asked me where this was supposed to take place. So I asked Girke, "Well where are these men supposed to go?" and he said, rather hurriedly, "Let's go, let's go. We have to get out of here."

Q How many men were there in this room where this took place?

A I can't say this for sure. The room was very much darkened, blacked out. The reason for that was the blackout curtain in this guard room had always been defective and it was not permitted to have any light in the hallway either because otherwise a strong beam of light would have gotten out when the door to the house was opened. Out there we only had blue air raid protection lights.

Q Were these two Americans standing next to each other or standing separately?

A I think one was standing next to the wall and the other was standing in the center of the room.

Q Do you still remember whether Raaf and Stattman were present in the guard room at the same time or did they arrive at different times?

A Well, you shouldn't picture it as if these men had just lined up inside this guard room. Everything was pretty well moving. It is possible that I gave this order first to Stattman or that Stattman had left in the meantime to pick up his weapon while Raaf had his own weapon standing in the guard room.

Q Did these two people, Raaf and Stattman, then take these flyers out with them?

A Yes, each took one of the flyers. I can't say whether that happened together or not because everything was going on at that particular moment and in addition to that, since there was a parachute air alarm outside, men kept coming into the office even from the outside so business was really running high.

Q Do you know anything about the manner in which the execution order was carried out?

A No. After these men had left I followed my orders which I had to inspect the rooms downstairs. I was in charge of seeing that everything in these office rooms was cleared out completely and that no papers would remain behind.

Q Did you receive any reports about the carrying out of the order?

A Yes. Out in the hall as I stepped out of one of the rooms, Raaf reported to me and reported the completion of the mission. I then ordered that the bodies would be buried in the proper manner.

Q Did Stattman make that sort of report also?

A I am sure that he did. I don't remember right now but I am sure he did.

Q I show you an exhibit which is marked Prosecution Exhibit 81, the identification papers of William Perman. Do you remember this person pictured on this exhibit?

A No.

Q I show you two more pictures, marked Prosecution Exhibits 77 and 79 respectively. I ask you to examine these pictures and tell the court whether you are in any way able to state whether these bodies belong to the people you interrogated at one time?

A No. You couldn't recognize anything on these dead bodies anyway, but these things which these dead bodies have on them here, the Americans didn't have these.

Q By that you are referring to the belt and this holster on Prosecution Exhibit 79?

A Yes, I mean this belt and this piece of leather here and this little bag.

Q I am referring again to Charge I and I show you several more identification papers, Prosecution Exhibits 94, 97 and 98, of William Perl[illegible] - I ask you whether you saw such identification papers when searching the flyer, or not?

A. No, I saw these papers, or rather the photostatic copies, for the first time last Saturday in the office of my American colleague, [illegible] where I knew that he had received this order from his [illegible].

Q. I show you some more photostatic copies of identification papers, this time of one Robert Helmuth, Protestation Exhibit [illegible] and I am asking you again the same question, the Government of the Reich h[illegible] I know, there just as well, whether these orders constituted a viol[illegible]. In the case of Charge X, did you search those flyers upon have them searched? t the Reichsführer of the SS, who besides being [illegible] of I did not search those flyers. They had been searched [illegible] already when I entered the camp[illegible]er of the prisoner of war sys[illegible].

Q. And did they have identification papers on them?

A. I didn't see one[illegible] when you say "Reichsführer of the SS"?

Q. Were there any identification papers among the things which had been taken away from the flyers before? [illegible] Chief of the Prisoner of [illegible]. I didn't see that. I had those things which were remaining behind on the table reserved expressly so that nothing would [illegible] behind in our place. Replacement army. In the same manner the higher [illegible] and in that way did your agreement of the [illegible] with the [illegible] names given by the flak unit take place? [illegible] tower of war system and those [illegible] r[illegible]. As I have already said, I asked those flyers for their [illegible] names, one by one, and they agreed, [illegible] early observed the attacks of the [illegible].

Q. Finally, I am talking about Case Number X, you said that you transmitted Himmler's order to Hoef and Stoltzen, or that right [illegible] reference or[illegible]

A. [illegible] I received from Himmler the order that these flyers were to be shot and I transmitted that order to the two sergeants.

(Hellenbrecht - Direct)

Q What did you think about the legality or illegality of this order?

A I did not even have one seconds doubt about this. In the first place this order was given to me by my superior, Major Girth, and furthermore I knew that he had received this order from his superior, Colonel Brunnler, and that orders for such action were available, having been issued by the very highest headquarters and I am sure that before these orders were issued, the Government of the Reich had discussed the matter as to whether these orders constituted a violation of the international law or not. This I had to assume for the reason that the Reichsfuhrer of the SS, who besides being chief of the German Police and Chief of the German Replacement Army, was also the highest commanding officer of the prisoner of war system.

Q You mean Himmler when you say "Reichsfuhrer of the SS"?

A Yes.

Q Do you know since when Himmler became Chief of the Prisoner of War System?

A As far as I know on the first of October 1944 when he came to be Chief of the Replacement Army. In the same manner the higher SS and Police Leader of the Rhein-Westmark, General Stroop, was also the higher commanding officer of the prisoner of war system and these high ranking officers, I am sure, must have deliberated upon these questions. In addition to that we daily observed the attacks of the low flying aircraft among the population and the victims among the population. Furthermore we knew that after the non-interference order had been issued, the population engaged in lynching could not be who made this report and that he is thinking this up tomorrow.

(Hollenbreich - Direct)

1961

punished. In fact instructions to that effect had been issued even Q Do you remember whether Kuniaki was here this guard to the German courts by the Reichs Ministry of Justice. Now if room on that evening?
German courts wouldn't even call it illegal, then I certainly had no
A I didn't see him there and I didn't give any instructions reason for doing so.
concerning mess duty either. That never was my job.
Q Did you hear the statement of Kuniaki read here concerning
Q Another question. There has been talk here repeatedly Charge X?
about serving rotten meat allegedly, was a lawyer present the middle
A Yes.
of March, do you know anything about that?
Q Do you have anything to say about that?
A Well the first time I heard about these so-called false
A Yes, Kuniaki in one place claims that I had been standing papers are here through the testimony of Capt Rev. Gentner. I was in a spot which is described as "A" on this Exhibit "F". I am sure that one evening Major Girke came in. I think he had just returned Kuniaki made a mistake there. I was never out there and Reuf did from Colonel Traveler in Wiesbaden and he had a special mission. Just not report the carrying out of the execution to me there as Kuniaki evening he selected certain people and organized them into a detail claims. I did, in fact, remain in the building and that is where I which he put under his own command. I didn't even have anything to received the report.
do with that, nor did I receive any SS service records as Rev. Gentner Q When you talk about "Exhibit F" do you mean this chart states. I had my service record ever since the end of November, which is on the wall here?
Q Was that a service record of the Waffen SS or what kind
A Yes, this chart.
was it?
MR. AUSNER: Let the record indicate that this is supposed
A That was the number 63 Service Record of the Waffen SS.
to mean Prosecution Exhibit 70.
Q What was the office that you belonged to according to that Q Do you have anything else to say concerning the statement service record?
of Kuniaki?
A The headquarters stated there was the SS Training Battalion,
A Yes, Kuniaki mentioned something about insignia of rank Lenin. That was the outfit we were assigned to by the Reichs Main and other insignia which was on the flyers. That is not right.
Security Office.
I am sure he made another mistake there. Then he talks about an Q Was that outfit stated there in the flyer officer who is supposed to have come in and told something about a
A Yes, in fact it even was accused.
Major. I think Kuniaki must have picked up a few words that I Q Do you know whether those were released by Major Girke pertaining myself said there in connection with this Major of the air corps
Hitler or Himmler's different commands or not?

who made this report and that he is kicking this up improperly.

A I heard about it but I can't say anything of my own

Q Do you remember whether Kaminski got into this guard observation room on that evening?

A I didn't see him there and I didn't give any instructions

A I think Mrs. Goldrich had told me that they had some trouble concerning some sort either. That never was my job.

Q Another question. There has been talk here repeatedly

A Do you know what kind of a detail these men were supposed about service records which allegedly were issued about the middle of March, do you know anything about that?

A Well the first time I heard about these so-called false papers was rather a fantastic deal. What I was supposed to do was to prepare and have through the testimony of this Mrs. Gantner. I knew her across the Rhine to the other bank which was occupied already that one evening Major Girke came in. I think he had just returned and I do not know of observation in connection with the duties of from Colonel Brunhuber in Wiesbaden and he had a special mission. That the security police to me.

evening he selected certain people and organized them into a detail

A Did he tell you anything about why that was the reason for which he put under his own command. I didn't even have anything to Q Giving different service records to these men?

do with that, nor did I receive any SS service records as Mrs. Gantner

A I don't remember that.

claims. I had my service record even since the end of November.

Q The question raised here once before was whether the Gantner

A Our question raised here once before was whether the Gantner

Q Was that a service record of the Waffen SS or what kind was and military organization it was when that happened. Do you

was it?

know anything about that?

A That was the regular SS Service Record of the Waffen SS.

A Yes. In the last of my recollection the security police had

Q What was the office that you belonged to according to that already been at this uniform and remained in Garmisch as early as the service record?

end of 1944 and I think, if my memory serves me correctly, the question

A The headquarters stated there was the SS Training Battalion, became acute in January 1945 when the works protection service was Munich. That was the outfit we were assigned to by the Reichs Main supposed to receive military combatant powers, which was true and been

Security Office.

assigned as an area in charge of security already due to the increase

Q Was that outfit stated there in the clear?

of the front and Girke therefore came directly to the Reich Main Security

A Yes, in fact it even was stamped.

Office whether these members of this organization who didn't have

Q Do you know whether these men selected by Major Girke received different Soldbuche, different service records?

(Mellenbruch - Direct)

A I heard about it but I can't say anything of my own [illegible] were supposed from now on to wear combatant [illegible] observations.

Q Did you hear about that at that time, or just now?

A I think Mrs. Colbrich had told me that they had been work- [illegible] uniform or some part of the uniform had already been reported to [illegible] ing overtime until later in the office to change these service records. [illegible] military personnel anyway.

Q Do you know what kind of a detail these men were supposed [illegible] you have a military identification tag?

to be sent on? [illegible] I had one already prior to the time we were [illegible]

A To the best of my recollection the chief had told me that [illegible] Barracks but that were turned back in, required to be issued this was rather a dangerous deal. What he was supposed to do was to [illegible] later, service records and identification tags for inmates get across the Rhine to the other bank which was occupied already [illegible] who had already been received from Berlin and most of this and to do some kind of observation in connection with the duties of [illegible] the leading attacks. For that reason the majority of the the security police there. [illegible] Service Records only in December, 1944. We also

Q Did he tell you anything about why that was the reason for [illegible] receive any pay, we received our rations from the Army and so on, giving different service records to these men?

A I don't remember that. [illegible] you were on the whole, what kind of tickets did you use?

Q One question raised here once before was whether the Gestapo [illegible] had to use Army tickets, was declared a military organization and when that happened. Do you [illegible] did these service records have to say concerning the know anything about that? [illegible] and Yorrect?

A Yes. To the best of my recollection the security police had [illegible] 33 Training Battalion, Koslin was mentioned there. That already been put into uniform and reported to Geneva as early as the [illegible] Court will recess for thirty minutes. end of 1943 and I think, if my memory serves me correctly, the question [illegible] (Whereupon the Court was closed at 1505 hours.) became acute in January 1944 when the works protection service was supposed to receive military combatant papers, since our area had been defined as an area in danger of parachute attacks due to the approach of the front and Girke therefore made inquiry at the Reich Main Security Office whether these members of this organization who didn't have [illegible] court reconvened [illegible]

[illegible] will come to order.

uniforms to wear were supposed from now on to wear combatant arm[illegible] bands. The Reichs Main Security Office sent back a report in the effect that this was not necessary since all persons wearing this uniform or that part of the uniform had already been reported to Geneva as military personnel anyway.

Let the record show the accused, Hellenbrich, h[illegible]

Q Did you have a military identification tag?

A I think I had one already prior to the time we were bombed out in Darmstadt but that was turned back in, required to be turned back in later. Service records and identification tags for issuance to the men had already been received from Berlin and most of this was lost in the bombing attacks. For that reason the majority of the men received the SS Service Records only in December, 1944. We also received Army pay, we received our rations from the Army and so on.

Q Mr. Hellenbrich, let us return for a moment [illegible]
Did you look over [illegible], did you [illegible]

A Yes.

Q When you went on the train, what kind of tickets did you use?

A We had to use Army tickets.

Q What did these service records have to say concerning the membership in the Armed Forces?

Did you commit any of these acts?

A The SS Training Battalion, Benits was mentioned there. That belonged to the Waffen SS.

[illegible] of the accused in this case did you know in the time prior to May 1[illegible]?

THE MARSHAL: Court will recess for thirty minutes.

(Whereupon the court was closed at 1505 hours.)

A At the outfit in Darmstadt I knew the chief, Major Dirks, ever since we took the [illegible] and the two secretaries, Stamm and Graf. [illegible] was the deputy [illegible] Inspector of the Security Police from 1942 until the day I left Plaszow on 15 July 1944. [illegible] as a superior I would see occasionally while he was on inspection.

(Hellenbreich - Direct)

(Whereupon the court reconvened at 1530 hours.)

PRESIDENT: Court will come to order.

PROSECUTION: May it please the court, let the record show that all the members of the court; all the members of the prosecution; all the members of the defense except Dr. Trost who is absent sick; all the accused; the reporter and interpreter, are present.

Let the record show that the accused, Hellenbroich, has resumed the stand.

HEINZ HELLENBROICH, an accused, voluntarily resumed the stand and being reminded he was still under oath, testified further through an interpreter, as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION (continued)

QUESTIONS BY DR. AHEIMER:

Q Mr. Hellenbroich, let us return for a short while to Charge I. Did you look over Charge I, did you understand it?

A Yes.

Q What do you have to say to the accusation raised against you in that charge?

A Well, I do not feel guilty of the acts alleged against me in Charge I,

Q Did you commit any of these acts?

A No.

Q Which of the accused in this case did you know in the time prior to May 1945?

A At the outfit in Darmstadt I knew the chief, Major Girke, ever since he took the job there and the two comrades, Stattman and Raaf. I knew Col. Scmann in his capacity as Inspector of the Security Police from 1943 until his departure from Wiesbaden in July 1944. I knew him as a superior whom I would see occasionally while he was on inspections.

Q Did Col. Somann ever give you any orders pertaining to the treatment of Allied fliers?

A Yes, at one time in the middle of June or beginning of June, 1944, Col. Somann at an occasion when orders were issued at his office in Wiesbaden, announced the non-interference order to the various heads of offices. Although usually only the commanding officers of outfits were called to these meetings, I was called to this one because Major Girke was not present for duty that day. This non-interference order concerned the prohibition for the German police to take part in any disagreement that might arise between the German people and the parachutists.

Q The contents of that order are probably generally known here. What did you do concerning this order?

A I had transmitted this order which was only given verbally and also the supplement added by Col. Somann to Major Girke when I returned.

Q Which of the accused besides Somann did you know prior to May '45?

A During the time that Col. Somann was on duty I also met the Higher SS and Police Leader, Gen. Streop at one occasion of an introduction of the Security Police officers.

Q Did you have anything else to do with Gen. Streop?

A No, only in writing did we have direct communication with the Higher SS and Police Leader. Then, I also knew Col. Trummler when he became Commanding Officer of the Security Police in November 1944. Then I saw Trummler at the office in Bensheim once or perhaps twice, and one time I was ordered to go to Wiesbaden.

Q Did you do any of the things, personally, that are contained in Charge I?

A No, not to my knowledge.

CROSS EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANOS:

Q Hellenbroich, when you first reported to the Gestapo office at Darmstadt, at that time who was the Commanding Officer of the Security Police for Rhein-Westmark?

A At that time there was no such thing as a Commander of the Security Police in Rhein-Westmark but rather an Inspector for Wehrkreis XII, and that was Standartenfuehrer Pffrader.

Q What date did you report for duty with the Gestapo?

A That must have been the beginning of March. I don't remember the exact date.

Q What year?

A 1942.

Q Who succeeded this man you have just named?

A The SS Captain Fens was the successor for a few months. Before that time he had been the Deputy of the Darmstadt office.

Q I don't think you understand me. I am talking about the Rhein-Westmark Security Police.

A Oh, I did misunderstand you. The successor of Dr. Pffrader was Col. Somann.

Q During [illegible] the time that Col. Somann was in charge of the Wiesbaden office I believe you were in charge in Darmstadt of the Gestapo, is that correct?

A No, I was not the man in charge in Darmstadt during the time that Col. Somann served as Inspector of the Police in Wiesbaden. The man in charge of the Darmstadt office was a man by the name Mohr.

Q Who was in charge of the office in Darmstadt immediately before the time that Girke came there?

A From the time Mohr was transferred until Girke appeared, there was no Chief of this office.

30 Jan 201 Enj
pls/6 1/5

Q Were you the acting chief during that period?

A I was not the acting chief but I took care of the business of Department 4. not only ... to me but he read it to all other

Q During that period of time did you go to Wiesbaden and have a conference with Col. Scmann? ... all of the officers from

A During that time I went to Wiesbaden repeatedly. ... were

Q And on these occasions you had conferences with Col. Scmann, is that correct? ... put it that way. I think the ... who have been

A ... with Col. Scmann than with his personal representative, Capt. Krieger, because this man had been assigned by Col. Scmann to the take-care of the regular office business in Darmstadt. ... the Criminal Q On several occasions you and Col. Scmann discussed the ... treatment of Allied fliers, didn't you? ... was called in or I ...

A I really don't remember any case of that. Regulations might have come out during that time which might have been discussed.

Q Didn't you just finish telling Dr. Aheimer you were there at the time Scmann read the non-interference order?

A That was sometime later. That was at the time when Girke had just arrived and Girke had gone home for a day or two to Berlin, I don't know. At any rate he was authorized to do that by Col. Scmann and that is why I was sent down to receive the orders.

Q Girke was on leave at the time he was away?

A He wasn't on leave, he had official business in Berlin.

Q Anyhow you went to Wiesbaden to talk to Col. Scmann, is that right?

A I went there because I was ordered there.

(Hellenbroich-cross)

Did you [illegible] Colonel Ehrens?

Q I believe you have already said that Col. Semann read you the non-interference order, is that right?

A Yes.

After Colonel Semann had read the non-interference order, tell this

A Yes, he not only read it to me but he read it to all other

Court what else Colonel Semann said [illegible] on at that meeting?

chiefs of offices that were present.

When I arrived with this KRIPO [illegible] Colonel Semann had already Q That was a regular meeting where all of the officers from read the non-interference order to Major Broder and Major Berger of Frankfurt, around Frankfurt, Koblenz, Darmstadt and various other places were but they had already left. Then is the presence of the [illegible] chief of present, is that right?

Darmstadt, the [illegible] chief of Koblenz, Gerichtsrat and myself he read the

A I wouldn't put it that way. I think the ones who had been non-interference order.

called were the Chief of the Police Station, Frankfurt; also the Q I realize that, but after he read this order, what else did he

Chief of the Criminal Police, Main Office, Frankfurt; the Chief of the do then and the other persons present?

State Police Office, Koblenz; Lt. Col. Christmann. Then the Criminal

He then said that he was being urged to publish that order,

Police Chief joined with him; then the SD Section Chief of Koblenz that is was instructed to publish it orally only and that his superiors were there; also the Gripo Chief of Darmstadt was called in and I had been urged by him to publish it. Then he mentioned that of course was there for the State Police Chief of Darmstadt.

he didn't want to hear any reports about that from us. By that he meant the security police -- any files would ever be turned over to the air corps; now did he want to hear, as he heard of cases occurring, that anybody would be cowardly enough to give his pistol to somebody else to make this case stick. It would also have a chance on the transport.

Q When you said that Colonel Semann said that his superiors had urged him to publish that order, who did you understand him to mean by his superiors?

[illegible] I object to the question. He can ask him who was mentioned, but what he understood was said, I think is inadmissible.

[illegible] Objection overruled.

(Hellenbroich-cross) "Higher" or maybe I was misunderstood. The "higher" in our case meant the higher SD and police leaders. By his words seemed unquestionably imparted the impression that he was being urged by Streop to publish State [illegible] paper 1590 that he had received some sort of a

[illegible]

had been urging him to publish it. Then he mentioned that of course he didn't want to hear any reports about that from us. By that he meant the security police -- any flier would ever be turned over to the air corps. Now did he want to hear, as he heard of cases occurring, that anybody would be cowardly enough to give him pistol to somebody else to make that man shoot. We would also have a chance on the transports courts.

Q When you said that Colonel Ramann said that his superiors had urged him to publish this order, who did you understand him to mean by his superiors? [illegible] Stroop?

A DEFENSE COUNSEL: I object to the question. He can ask him who was mentioned, but what he understood was said, I think is inadmissible.

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

A I said the "higher" or maybe I was misunderstood. The "higher" in our usage meant the higher SS and police leader. By his words Ramann unquestionably imparted the impression that he was being urged by Stroop to publish that, and apparently that he had received some sort of a (Hollenbreith - Gross)

pld-202-1

Q Did you go thereupon orders of Colonel Seemann?

A Yes, I came with his orders and that is the only way you could enter.

Q After Colonel Seemann had read the non-interference order, tell this court what else Colonel Seemann told you men at that meeting?

A When I arrived with the KRIPO Chief Colonel Seemann had already read the noninterference order to Major Breder and Major Berger of Frankfurt, but they had already left. Then in the presence of the Kripo chief of Darmstadt, the SIPO chief of Koblenz, Christmann and myself he read the non-interference order in the high SS and police leader's office.

Q I realize that, but after he read this order, what else did he tell you and the other members present?

A He then said that he was being urged to publish that order, that he was prohibited to publish it really only and that his superiors reprimand from him to the effect that the treatment of the fliers had A No, such a sentence was passed in Koenigsberg or some other not been in accordance with his wishes and that is the only way you could term in that general area. I did know about that. understand the example in that supplement.

Q Was that in General Stroop's area?
Q Now, Major Hollenbreich, you testified about these higher SS
A No.
police courts in your previous testimony. Who was the man in charge of Q All my questions refer to the Rhein-Westmark area which was these higher SS police courts?
under General Stroop's command. Do you know of any one in General
A The SS main office for courts in Berlin was responsible for Stroop's courts executed for failure to shoot an unarmed prisoner of these SS and police courts, but there were local and SS police courts war?
everywhere as for instance in the high SS and police leader's office.
A Nothing was published about that by that court.
Q The courts I am talking about were the ones that were located Q Now, I believe on February the 15th you said you had a "terror in the Rhein-Westmark area.
flier" in your office. Is that right?
A I wasn't talking about any particular court this morning.
A This flier which we are talking about in charge of the described Q Well, did you have such courts located in the Rhein-Westmark as a "terror flier".
area?
Q Who labeled him as a "terror flier"?
A Yes.
A I called him a "terror flier" this morning and the foundation
Q Who appointed those courts and who was the reviewing authority for that description I find in the facts I know about this flier.
for those courts?
Q Do you know how many statements you have given in which you
A These courts were under the high SS and police leader who was have explained the circumstances under which this flier got his death the appointing and reviewing authority of the high SS and police courts.
on or about the 15th of February 1945?
The sentences of these courts were submitted to him and he had to confirm A Statements? them or refuse to do so.
Q Yes, written statements.
Q By the high SS and police fuehrer, you mean General Stroop?
A No.
A The Rhein-Westmark, yes.
Q You didn't make any?
Q Now you say you heard of death sentences being given for failure
A As far as I know, I didn't.
to obey orders, is that right?
Q Well, I will ask you to take a look at Prosecution Exhibit
A Yes.
Number 847 and ask you if that was one of the statements you made and if Q Do you know any person that was given the death sentence and that is not your signature that appears on that statement?
executed for the failure to shoot an unarmed prisoner of war?
A I beg your pardon, I thought you said the flier on the 15th of February. That is the incident of the 24th of March. Did I understand you?

A No, such a sentence was passed in Koenigsberg or some other town in that general area. I did know about that, we ask for a recess in place.

Q [illegible] talk about the records.

A [illegible] Recess in place.

Q [illegible] my questions refer to the Eighth Panzer Army which was under General Stroop's command. Do you know of any one of General Stroop's officers executed for failure to shoot an unarmed prisoner of war?

CROSS EXAMINATION, continued

A Nothing was published about that by that court.

Q Now, I believe on February the 25th you said you had a "terror flier" in your office, do that right? Got in with a parachute, a map, a knife, a rubber [illegible] this flier which we are talking about in charge of the described as a "terror flier". It was that the rural police brought these things in at the same time labeled him as a "terror flier"? The original impression was that they labeled him a "terror flier" this morning and the foundation for that determination I find in the facts I know about this flier, some things [illegible] Do you know how many statements you have given in which you have explained the circumstances under which this flier met his death on or about the 25th of February 1945? [illegible] questions didn't he?

A Statements? I answer three questions.

Q Yes, written statements. What did he tell you?

A He [illegible] him these things and mentioned to him and said to him, "What is your [illegible] You didn't make him the negative.

A As far as I know, I didn't [illegible] with the flier?

Q Well, I will ask you to take a look at Prosecution Exhibit [illegible] I handed that to you and ask you if that was one of the statements you made and if that is not your signature that appears on that statement?

A I beg your pardon, I thought you said the flier on the 25th of February. That is the incident of the 24th of March. Did I misunderstand you?

pid-202-5
pid-202-6

Q Probably like I described already, all the comrades tried to talk to him and CAPTAIN VANCE: If it please the court, we ask for a recess in place. Mr. Englert is back now and wants to talk about the records to the counsel for PRESIDENT: Recess in place, is that right?

(Thereupon the court recessed in place.) ion, but this, in conjunction with (Thereupon the court reconvened.) no the conversation with the rural policeman PRESIDENT: The court will come to order.

Now I believe you CROSS EXAMINATION, continued a former judge, is QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q Now this flyer was in your office. I am talking about the 15th of February, 1945. Now this he may brought in with a parachute, a map, a knife, a rubber hose and a few other small things, is that correct? or of the word lamp. What I said was that the rural police brought these things but at the same time that they did the flyer and that the original impression was that they belonged to him.

Q Well what changed your impression and made you think these things didn't belong to the flyer, a court of some kind?

A Because I asked him about the 's office in Duesseldorf, but I Q Well he refused to answer your questions didn't he? the German legal sys A No, he did answer these questions is not my any means with the exc Q Why what did you ask him? What did he tell you? l work.

A I showed him these things and motioned to him and said to him, "What is yours?" and he answered in the negative.

Q What else did you talk about with the flyer?

A As I said, I was trying to get some data concerning his personal I asked more questions about his family but he didn't answer those--just like the questions about the medicine and uniform.

Q Did you talk about anything else with this flyer? ever, as a (Hollenbrotherscross) judge and the jury and pronounced him guilty, didn't you?

(Hollenbrotherscross)

A That is not right.

A Well, just like I described already, all the comrades tried to talk
Q Didn't you say you yourself branded him as a "terror flyer"?
to him and he understood us all right.
A [illegible] used this term in my statements here, but this term is based on Q Based on this conversation you had with this flyer you came to the the determinations made by the police who were eye witnesses, and it is further conclusion that he was a "terror flyer", is that right?
based on the fact that this flyer did not deny firing upon the civilian
A Not purely because of that conversation, but this, in conjunction population.
with the report from the rural police and the conversation with the rural Q And you gave him a trial yourself and sentenced him to death, didn't policeman who confirmed that.
you?

Q Now I believe you had been a former lawyer and a former judge, is MR. NATHAN: I object to that. Those are not the facts. that right?
PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

A That is not true.
A No. In the first place I didn't have any authority to do so. I Q Tell me about your legal career again. That is what I understand-- had no authority to determine what was to happen to that man and I had to DR. AHRENS: Objection. I object to the translation of the word leave this decision up to the unit commander.
lawyer. It is translated here as Rechtsanwalt, but we usually understand it Q After you finished your interrogation didn't you go to Major as jurist.
Dirks and say this man strafed people over in Worms.

Q Did you study law?
A Those were not the only words contained in my report to Major
A Yes.
Dirks.

Q Did you work around a court of some kind?
Did you tell Major Dirks that, yes or no?
A I was trained in the public prosecutor's office in Duesseldorf, but CAPTAIN YAROS: I am going to ask the court to have this man
I was never permitted to work independently as a judge. Under the German legal answer my question.
system a person who completed his legal studies is not by any means with the PRESIDENT: The witness will answer the question.
authority to take a job as a judge or do any public legal work.
MR. NATHAN: If it please the court, the defense objects to the

Q You said you worked in the prosecutor's office, but you were never question on the ground that it is a trick question.
permitted to determine a case, is that right?
PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

A No, never.
CAPTAIN YAROS: If it please the court, I understood you to instruct Q When you had this American flyer, that was the first time you ever the witness to answer my question. It was a yes or no answer. I don't know had an opportunity to pass judgement on a man, was it?
what he is talking about, but it certainly is not yes or no.

A I did not pass judgement over that man.
DR. AHRENS: Just a second please. What was the question?

Q On that occasion you acted as investigator, as prosecutor, as a (Thereupon the reporter repeated the last two questions.)
defense counsel, the judge and the jury and pronounced him guilty, didn't PRESIDENT: The witness is to go ahead and answer the question.
you?
(Hellenbrock) Well, sir, he did answer the question and that has now

A That is not right.

Q Didn't you say you yourself branded him as a "terror flyer"?

A I used this term in my statements here, but this term is based on the determinations made by the police who were eye witnesses, and it is further based on the fact that this flyer did not deny firing upon the civilian population.

Q Well you gave him a trial yourself and sentenced him to death, didn't you?

MR. RACHAEL: I object to that. These are not the facts.

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

A No. In the first place I didn't have any authority to do so. I had no authority to determine what was to happen to that man and I had to leave this decision up to the unit commander.

Q After you finished your interrogation didn't you go to Major Cirko and say this man strafed people over in Worms.

A These were not the only words contained in my report to Major Cirko.

Q Did you tell Major Cirko that, yes or no?

CAPTAIN VANCE: I am going to ask the court to have this man answer my question.

PRESIDENT: The witness will answer the question.

Q Well, whatever you did tell Major Cirko you determined that yourself from your interrogation and investigation, didn't you?

MR. RACHAEL: If it please the court, the defense objects to the question on the ground that it is a trick question.

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

CAPTAIN VANCE: If it please the court, I understood you to instruct the witness to answer my question. It was a yes or no answer. I don't know what he is talking about, but it certainly is not yes or no.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Just a second please. What was the question?

(Thereupon the reporter repeated the last two questions.)

PRESIDENT: Tell the witness to go ahead and answer the question.

INTERPRETER: Well, sir, he did answer the question and that has not been translated yet.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I pray the court's judgment until the answer is translated. I would like to submit that before the court can determine whether the question has been answered properly or not that the answer should be translated.

PRESIDENT: He answered once and it was translated and then he answered the second time after we told him to answer yes or no.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: The answer may contain the effect of a yes or no answer, may it please the court.

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I would like the record to indicate that the witness answered and the answer has not been translated into the record.

THE WITNESS: No, I didn't say that with these words alone.

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANOS:

Q I didn't ask you anything about anything else. I want to know if you told him that or didn't tell him that?

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I think that that is an adequate answer. I ask the court's judgment.

PRESIDENT: The court considers that an answer.

Q Well, whatever you did tell Major Girke you determined that yourself from your interrogation and investigation, didn't you?

A The result of my investigation stems from the rural police report from the confirmation received from the rural police employee and from my questioning of the flyer.

Q After this, when you went to Major Girke, tell the court what you told Major Girke.

A I reported to Major Girke that this flyer we had downstairs was not a sabotage agent or a spy, but rather that the investigation had disclosed and the report that was turned in jointly with the flyer had disclosed that this was ----- a case of a low flying light bomber flyer who had been shot down, parachuted [illegible] I used the expression "Jabo". That was common usage with us and that this flyer who had been shot down from this light bomber had fired upon the civilian population before being shot down.

Q Now you had determined those facts yourself before you reported at that to Major Dirke, didn't you?

A I couldn't make personally sure that this man had strafed somebody. To determine that I had to rely on the report and upon the testimony of the rural police official. [illegible] flyer to [illegible] for special treatment [illegible]

Q This flyer came from Worms, didn't he?

A Not from the city of Worms or else he wouldn't have been brought in by the rural police, from the area around Worms.

Q What is the distance from Worms to Bensheim?

A I can't say exactly.

Q Would you say it is two hundred kilometers or more or less?

A Well, if I am not mistaken, it is a 45 minute ride at a normal speed in a car.

Q Why would they bring this flyer all the way from Worms to Dirke's outfit?

A I don't know.

Q It would have been easier to shoot him over in Worms wouldn't it?

A Well the rural police probably acted in accordance with their orders to turn single parachuted flyers over to the security police and furthermore this flyer had put up some stiff resistance when being captured so there might have been a chance of the police official's not being sure of themselves.

Q You were familiar with the orders that the rural police should turn over all the flyers to the Gestapo, weren't you?

(Hellenbroich-cross)

A I know that some orders existed to the effect that single parachuted flyers would be turned over to the Security Police.

Q That order was widely known among all police forces, wasn't it?

A That had been published.

Q And full descriptions given over all the Rhein-Weimark area, that is correct, isn't it?

A I don't know that because I didn't do it.

Q So those Rural policemen were just following their orders and instructions by bringing the flyer to Gestapo Headquarters for special treatment weren't they?

A They turned these parachutists over to the security police in accordance with their orders.

A I don't think that these men knew that this man had to be killed by us. I'd be doing an injustice to this official if I accused him of that.

Q Perhaps you do not know what he knew, so I will ask you what you know. You knew that terrors delivered to the Gestapo was to be killed, did you not?

A I knew the order given, told me by my superior, Major Hirke, which he had received from his superior, Colonel Brandis, to the effect that fliers were to be shot.

THE PRESIDENT: I obey the court's judgment. He said terror fliers.

THE INTERPRETER: Terror fliers were to be shot.

1899

DR. [illegible]: That is important.

BY DR. [illegible]:

Q Did you not also verbally hear of the fact that some [illegible]

A That wasn't an order of such a definite nature.

(Adjournment - Recess)

Tabs 205 - 20.
[illegible]

Q Did you bring any witnesses over from the Worms post area to tell you what happened over there in regard to this flyer? [illegible]

A No.

Q And you did not go over to Worms to look into it and to try to get up any witnesses and see what they had to say about it? [illegible]

A No, because I have been able to rely on the police courts. Why should I have any doubts about that?

Q So under their orders they just brought this flyer to the Gestapo at Bensheim to have him killed; that is right, is it not? [illegible]

A I don't think that these men knew that this man had to be killed by us. I'd be doing an injustice to this official if I accused him of that. [illegible]

Q Perhaps you do not know what he knew, so I will ask you what you knew: You knew that everyone delivered to the Gestapo was to be killed, did you not?

A I knew the order given, told me by my superior, Major Girke, which he had received from his superior, Colonel Trumpfer, to the effect that fliers were to be shot.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I pray the court's judgment. He said terror fliers.

THE INTERPRETER: Terror fliers were to be shot.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: That is important.

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q And you had also personally been given that same message by Colonel Scmamm when you were up in Wiesbaden?

A That wasn't an order of such a definite nature.

(Hellenbroich - Cross)

T Sake 203 - 50
2-20-47;

This order issued by Colonel Trummler was the order to shoot which came down from higher up, was a joint statement.

Q Let us back up. I know you got it from Trummler, but didn't Scmann give you the same order? Ask if that is an exhibit. Scmann had given us a similar order, with different words, however.

A Yes. It is 100.

Q Tell us as best you can remember what Scmann told you about shooting these terror fliegers. Do you want to see your statement before you answer that?

FLIERS

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Let him answer from memory. I pray the court's judgment, what that in this statement, as well. As supplemental to this non-interference order, the Scmann, as I have already stated, said, "I don't want to find out or I don't want to hear of any Allied fliers being turned over to the air corps, nor do I want to hear anything about anybody getting so soft he turns his weapon over to somebody else to shoot him. We will always have an opportunity on the shipment." That was substantially what was said.

Q Let me ask you if you did not say this, too: "The terror fliers turned over to the security police naturally were to be shot." I would like to explain the following:

A I don't remember these words, and he didn't say that. The were made verbally, and I had told it to interrogation officers.

Q Do you remember that being contained in this statement of yours made on 30 August 1946?

A To the best of my recollection I mentioned and talked about this supplement in my statement only in the same manner in which I have just done now.

Q To refresh your memory I want you to look at Prosecution Exhibit 106. This was signed when you and Michael Radf were jointly together and made a joint statement. (Handing document to witness.)

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I would like to ask if that is an exhibit.

CAPTAIN VANCE: Yes. It is 106.

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q Do you know where that is?

A I would like to read it in German.

Q All right.

A I'd like to say to that that in this statement, as well as in the other statement, I had some trouble with the interrogating officer concerning the terminology.

Q That statement you hold is written in the German language, is it not?

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I pray the court's judgment. I do not think he was finished with the answer, and I think he should be allowed to finish what he started out to say.

A Perhaps I may explain this.

PRESIDENT: Proceed.

A (continuing) I would like to explain the following: As you can see already from the typed record, several dis- cussions were made repeatedly, and I had told the interrogating officer that according to what I remembered about the wording of the non-interference order and the supplement thereto that I could not state that he had given an order to shoot. By that time he had already gotten started writing down that this was a shooting order, and that was X-d out. And then I said we'd have to put the explanation in, and he said that is all the same anyway, and then the text was put in that "terror fliers turned over to the SIPO were, of course, to be shot." And that we did have a disagreement will certainly be confirmed by the comrade Raaf, who was present there, because at the second statement concerning the issuance of orders I specifically requested the substance of the sentences to be recorded, which actually did take place.

Q This statement we have been talking about--Prosecution Exhibit 106--is written in the German language, is it not?

A Yes.

Q And you read and understand the German language?

A Yes.

Q And did you read it over before you signed it?

A Yes.

Q And did you swear to the truth of it at the time you signed it?

A No, afterwards. No, it was sworn afterwards. Can I say something to that? But even in this case I asked the interrogating officer that this be taken down in the manner I wanted to, and in the second statement that did in fact take place.

Q Why did you hold this investigation on the 15th of February, 1945?

A As I have already said in the beginning, I made this investigation in order to clear up a question as to whether we were dealing with a sabotage agent or with a flyer.

Q What difference did it make? You knew he had to be executed, did you not?

A That makes a lot of difference. If this had been a spy or a sabotage agent I would have had to investigate this man--evaluate this man--that is, an attempt would have to be made to find out from this man what his missions were, who his superiors were, and particularly in order to prevent further attacks.

FLIER ?

Q So the easiest way out was to call him a terror flieger and have him shot; is that right?

A I can't give a proper answer to this question, because I am on the witness stand.

Q When you went to Girke, Girke gave the order that the flyer was to be shot; is that correct?

A When I went up to Major Girke the second time and asked him what was to be done with that flyer, Major Girke told me that this flyer was to be shot in accordance with orders, and that order I transmitted.

Q Girke did not make an investigation of any kind, did he?

A When I reported to him the first time he told me, "I will have a look at this man myself."

PRESIDENT: Court will recess until tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock.

(Whereupon at 1645 hours the court adjourned until 21 February 1947 at 0900 hours.)

CA/GI 13 Legal Form No. 8

MILITARY GOVERNMENT COURT

CASE RECORD.

(22)

Pages 1405 - 1476

Case No. Superior Orders

Prosecutor Lt Col Dwinell

*~~Summary~~ ~~Military Court~~ Military Court.

Defence Counsel Lt Col Berman

*General

Place DACHAU, GERMANY

Interpreter Rudolf Mathensen
Herbert B Rosenstock

Date 21 February 194 7

Reporter Patricia Stewart, Peter L DiCurt, Imogene Butler, Paula Silverman, Evelyn Cohen, Irving J Hayett

~~Members of Court~~

WITNESSES:

HEINZ HELLENBROICH

FRITZ GIRKE

WILHELM HUCKO

Accused JURGEN STROOP, et al

Address ..... Sex ..... Age .....

	First Charge	Second Charge
Pleas
Findings
Previous Convictions

Sentence

- Imprisonment
  - Term .....
  - Beginning 194
- Fine
  - Amount .....
  - To be paid before 194
  - or in case of default of payment to serve a *further term of ..... imprisonment.

Charge Sheet and Record of Testimony are annexed hereto.

.....
(Signature of member of court.)

REVIEW

Action of Reviewing Authority .....

.....

.....
(Signature of reviewing authority)

*Strike out words not applicable.

RECORD OF TESTIMONY

in trial of

THE UNITED STATES Versus JURGEN STROOP, et al

by

GENERAL MILITARY GOVERNMENT COURT

tried at

DACHAU, GERMANY BEGINNING 10 JANUARY 1947

21 FEBRUARY 1947 PAGES 1403 - 1478

WITNESSES

	DIRECT	CROSS	REDIRECT	RECROSS	COURT
HEINZ HELLENBROICH		1403	1429
WILHELM BURG	1440
FRITZ SIRKS	1446	1462	1474	1476	1477

EXHIBITS

No.	Description	Marked	Received In Evidence
D-18	Statement of Fritz Sirks	1445

Ta 20k-po-20-2/21-2

I knew an additional crew, which [illegible] Camp Dachau, Germany at that time.

21 February 1947

I am HEINRICH HELLEBRANDT, a [illegible] on direct examination in this [illegible]

(Whereupon the court reconvened at 0900 hours.) [illegible]

PRESIDENT: Court will come to order. [illegible]

PROSECUTION: May it please the court, let the record show that all the members of the court; all the members of the prosecution; all the members of the defense, except Dr. Trost, who is absent sick; all of the accused, except the accused Hoehler, No. 5, who is absent sick, the accused Hast, No. 14, Oese, No. 15 and Mishaly, No. 16, who are absent conferring with counsel; the reporter and interpreter are present. [illegible] as before.

MR. MACHAN: If the court please, I believe at the close of the session yesterday the defendant Hellenbroich was being cross-examined.

HEINZ HELLENBROICH, an accused, voluntarily resumed the stand in his own behalf and having been previously duly sworn, testified further through an interpreter as follows: [illegible] been placed on the oath of [illegible]

CROSS EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q [illegible] You are reminded you are still under oath. [illegible] that right?

THE WITNESS: Yes. [illegible] soldiers at your headquarters.

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q We are still talking about the February 15th incident. After you completed your investigation and reported to Major Girke and you talked about the disposition of the flier and Major Girke ordered the flier to be executed, at that time you had in mind the order that had been received from Trunmler, did you?

A I knew that there was an order from higher authority, from to Dr. Trunmler. [illegible] Americans there," and that it was [illegible] because

Q At that time, you knew that there had been orders from higher authority, from Colonel Rauxloh, didn't you? [illegible] there was [illegible]

(HELLENBROICH-Cross) 1498

A I know an additional order which Colonel Sensen had given [illegible] at that time.

[illegible]

Q I believe that you were asked on direct examination if this [illegible] said no.
flier was mistreated in any manner, and you stated that he was not?
[illegible]

A No, he was not mistreated. He was not touched.
[illegible]

CAPTAIN VANCE: May it please the court, let the record show [illegible] No. Before [illegible] this one flier, [illegible] middle that the accused Koehler, wearing Plasard No. 5, has resumed his seat [illegible] Where [illegible] in the dock.

[illegible]

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

[illegible] In our headquarters we had no other [illegible] than or American Q Do you consider killing a man a mistreatment?
soldiers at all, and I [illegible]

A The flier was executed, not mistreated, and this execution [illegible] You seem to [illegible] that the three Americans that were took place on orders.
executed by [illegible] and that were the only three soldiers that you [illegible]

Q So you don't consider that a mistreatment?
[illegible] I pray the court's judgment. He didn't say

A Just an execution of an order. If I mistreat somebody, I have anything of the kind.
no right to do so.

[illegible] Objection overruled.

Q Now, we will pass on to Charge I, the incident that took place
[illegible]
on the 24th of March, 1945.

[illegible]

A Yes.

[illegible]

Q I believe you have testified that you went to your offices on [illegible]
that night and that you found two American soldiers at your headquarters, [illegible]
is that correct?
[illegible]

A There were two fliers in the guardroom.
[illegible] tell this court whether or not [illegible] any American soldiers

Q Do you know the names of either of these two Americans?
[illegible] at that time.

A No. As I said before, I read them only in the charge sheet.

[illegible]

Q Do you know if those are their names or not?
[illegible]

A I don't know that.
[illegible]

Q I believe you said on direct examination, "When I returned to [illegible]
the office there were two Americans there," and that "I was annoyed because [illegible]
they had been accepted," is that correct?
[illegible]

A I wanted to say with that that our headquarters was ready to [illegible]

move already and we really were not able to do any work at that time any more.

Q You did say you were annoyed about it?

A I said so.

Q At the time you saw these two Americans in your office, you had seen many American fliers prior to that time, hadn't you?

A No. Before, I had seen only this one flier, from the middle of February. Where should I get the opportunity?

Q At your office.

A In our headquarters, we had no other American fliers or American soldiers at all, and I didn't know their uniforms.

Q You mean to tell the court that the three Americans that were executed by Stattmann and Rauf were the only three soldiers that you saw?

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I pray the court's judgment. He didn't say anything of the kind.

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

A Yes.

Q Were you in your headquarters on September 12 at Darmstadt when it was bombed?

A Yes, I was at Darmstadt. I was there during the night of this bombardment.

Q Tell this court whether or not there were any American soldiers in your headquarters at that time.

A Now

Q If you had never seen any American soldiers until the time you executed this one in February, 1945, how did you know what an American flier was dressed in?

A I didn't say that I knew how an American flier is dressed. These men were delivered to our headquarters as fliers, and the ones who delivered them to us, they must have known how they came down.

Q You say that a total of only three American soldiers were brought to your headquarters?

A Yes.

Q And all three of those Americans, every one that was ever brought to your headquarters, met his death at your hands, Girke's hands, Stattmann and Raaf, is that correct?

A I didn't execute anyone. I only passed on the order for execution which was given to me.

Q Now, these two soldiers that were there on the 24th of March were wearing steel helmets with camouflage nets on them, weren't they?

A No.

Q And they had belts around their waists with a canteen hanging on it for the purpose of carrying water, didn't they?

A No. I said before, when I was shown the pictures, that I hadn't seen that and they were not carrying that.

Q And they had leather scabbards for the purpose of carrying a long knife in, didn't they?

A No.

Q They had leather holsters attached to their belts to carry a pistol in, didn't they?

A No.

Q One was an officer and the other one was an ordinary soldier, wasn't he?

A I don't know that. I couldn't distinguish that. I didn't see any insignia.

Q Didn't one of these soldiers wore an insignia on his collar that looked like a tank with a cannon protruding from the front end of the tank?

A No, certainly not.

Q You are sure of that?

A Yes, I would have noticed that.

Q Was Marian Kaminski in the headquarters on that night?

A Normally, he should have been there. He must have been there.

Q You heard what he said about the way these Americans were dressed, didn't you? [illegible] were taken prisoner by a unit [illegible]

A Yes. [illegible] had laid down their arms.

Q Where did these two American soldiers come from? By that, I mean where were they captured? [illegible] It is possible that two were [illegible]

A As far as I can remember, according to the report of the Air Force, they were captured in the area of Weisskirch-Hoppenlaith. [illegible] not [illegible]

Q That is the approximate distance from that place to Bamberg?

A I would figure 80 kilometers. [illegible] were delivered to us, they [illegible]

Q When you saw the two American soldiers, were they wearing some type of the American uniform? [illegible] Air Force did not give them the position [illegible]

A I assumed, since they were Americans, that they were wearing American uniforms. That must have been checked before. [illegible] escorted, the [illegible]

Q When you saw them, were they armed?

A No. [illegible] Air Force and no orders to do so. The Air Force [illegible]

Q When you saw them, were they under guard?

A Yes. [illegible] delivered them [illegible] as an agency to do the dirty work, [illegible]

Q How can you say that they were not prisoners of war?

A They were under guard by men at our guard room, and they were delivered to the headquarters of our unit because the Air Force had not transferred them in a position of prisoners of war, and they were not supposed to be given any mercy. [illegible] whether I can [illegible]

Q At the time, you were in the German Army, weren't you?

A Yes. As part of the Waffen SS, we were part of the German Wehrmacht.

Q You know what a prisoner of war is, don't you? [illegible] these men [illegible]

A Yes. [illegible] of war and that no mercy could be [illegible]

Q Tell the court what your idea of a prisoner of war is.

A A prisoner of war is an enemy, a soldier of the fighting unit, who has surrendered to the enemy.

Q Were these soldiers members of an enemy force who had surrendered to the Germans?

A. They were taken prisoner by a unit.

Q And they had laid down their arms?

A I don't know whether their weapons had been taken away, or whether they had laid them down themselves. It is possible that they were overpowered.

Q Tell this court, were they prisoners of war or were they not prisoners of war?

A When, at this time, the Americans were delivered to us, they were not prisoners of war. Otherwise, they would have been treated as such by the Air Force, but the Air Force did not give them the position as prisoners of war because they didn't give them any mercy, any pardon.

Q Now, if the Air Force wanted these two Americans executed, why didn't they do it?

A Because the Air Force had no orders to do so. The Air Force knew that the Security Police had orders.

Q So they delivered them to you as an agency to do the dirty work, is that right?

A The Air Force transferred these men to us because the Air Force knew that the Security Police had orders to execute terror fliers, terror fliers who were not put in the position of prisoners of war.

Q Did you check into the matter to investigate whether these men were terror fliers or not?

A I read carefully the report of the Air Force which came to us together with these two men, and this report had expressed why these men were not put in a position as prisoners of war and that no mercy could be shown to them.

Q Were these men given any kind of a trial?

A These men were interrogated in an orderly manner by a counter-espionage or legal officer of the Air Force, and therefore the facts were absolutely clear.

Q How do you know they were interrogated in an orderly manner? Were you there?

A I was not present myself, but I know that the legal officer of the Air Force, if he interrogated them, interrogated them in a properly orderly manner. I had no reason to doubt that.

Q Did you interrogate them?

A No. I only asked the Americans why they had acted in such a manner, and didn't get any reply from them.

Q After you finished this interrogation, you went to see Major Girke?

A Then I took the report and went upstairs to SS Major Girke, showed him the file, and reported to him the entire incident.

Q What did you say to Girke?

A I told Girke, "Downstairs we received two fliers delivered to us with this report from the Air Force. They are terror fliers." That was the exact wording as used in the report of the Air Force for fliers who had strafed civilian population in low-flying attacks. And I told him all the facts as they came out from this report. He looked through the report, and when I asked him what has to be done now, he said that these fliers have to be shot.

Q If you hadn't gone to see Girke on this occasion to make this report, then there would have been no occasion for Girke ordering the execution, would there?

A Yes, and Girke wouldn't have known about this incident, about this case.

Q That is right, and the fliers would not have been executed.

A I had to report this incident to my superior officer.

Q But if you hadn't done it, then the fliers' lives would have been saved, is that correct?

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I object to that question. It is a hypothetical question. [illegible] That is not in accordance with [illegible]

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE: [illegible]

A Yes, but then somehow a decision would have to be made in regard to them anyway. I couldn't have sent them out in the street. [illegible]

Q Why not? [illegible]

A You can't expect this from [illegible] fliers.

Q How far were the Americans from Bensheim then? [illegible] as an officer to [illegible]

A The Americans were six to ten kilometers, or even less, from Bensheim. Every hour, you could expect that they would move in.

Q Now, when you went up to report the fliers' presence to Girke, you had in mind at that time the orders that had been issued by Trumpler and by Sossna, didn't you? [illegible] they should be buried in a properly manner.

A I knew the orders which had been issued by higher authority in regard to the treatment of terror fliers. [illegible] That was [illegible] talk about the Q So after you and Girke had the conference, you went back and told the two Americans that you were going to have to have them shot, par is that right?

A The order which was given to me, I transmitted to my comrades Ba Raaf and Stattman. [illegible]

Q I am talking about what you told the Americans. Did you tell the Americans they were going to be executed?

A After I had passed on the order to my two comrades, I told the two Americans that in view of their actions, they could not expect any mercy from the Germans, and that they could not be treated as soldiers, and that based on orders from higher authority which I had received, they had to be executed. I saw this to be my duty as an officer as well as a human being.

Q Why did you want to tell these Americans they were going to be killed -- to torture them?

A I explained already before that I saw this to be my duty. It was far from me to torture these men. That is not in accordance with my character.

Q When you ordered the men, I mean, Girke ordered the men in February to be executed, you didn't tell him, did you?

A I had no opportunity at that time, because the last orders were given by SS Major Girke and the men left immediately afterwards. This order was not given in the presence of the fliers.

Q In February, you didn't feel it was your duty as an officer to notify that man he was going to be executed?

A I had no opportunity to do so.

Q After Rauf and Stattmann killed these two Americans that night in the back yard of the Gestapo, you had them buried, is that correct?

A Yes. I said that they should be buried in a properly manner.

Q And did you have those graves marked?

A I only said that they should be buried. That was some talk about that.

Q What did you mean when you said you had them buried in a proper manner?

A That the men shouldn't be left lying there, that they should be put in a proper grave.

Q You told them to dig a hole and bury those bodies and get out quick, didn't you?

A There was no talk at all about a hole.

Q You were hoping that those graves would never be discovered, weren't you?

A No, I didn't think at all about that and I had no reason to do so. If our headquarters would have intended to cover up anything, we could have that the fliers somewhere else and could have buried them there. They wouldn't have buried them in the back yard of our headquarters. [illegible]

Q Why didn't you bury them in a cemetery and have the graves marked?

A On this evening, there was no time left to do any such furthermore, I like you to take into consideration that at that hour, we really were in the front line, and the administration of the city, as for instance then cemetery administration and anything like that, didn't work any more.

Q I believe you testified that you had no doubt about the legality of the orders to kill the fliers?

A Yes.

Q And you studied law in school?

A Yes.

Q You are an educated man?

A I think from my parents' home I got a good education, yes.

Q Tell this court how you feel personally , or how you did feel personally, down in your own heart, at that time about these orders.

A I said before that in my heart and in my conscience I could not consider this order as an injustice. First of all, this order came down from the highest authority, and I had to assume that up there in the Reichs government and at the various departments where the orders came from, especially at the office of the Reichsfuehrer SS and the Chief of the German Police, who was in charge of all prisoners of war, they must have found out and clarified whether it was a violation of the Geneva Convention. And furthermore, if I may say so, in addition to the impressions which we received every day in the area of highest emergency where we were located, and furthermore, the knowledge we received, the knowledge of the fact that based on the German publications about the air terror, The American-English High Command in a publication to the German High Command had notified same that it was not at all in accordance with their will and intentions that American and English fliers attack German civilians, and that no orders had been issued to this effect, and that those fliers who did so in spite of it were doing wrong and would not be protected and covered by the American Government. And if then we received an order to execute terror fliers — and daily and hourly we had to see how, in spite of the orders of their High Command, the American fliers strafed the civilian population — then I certainly couldn't have the inner feeling that I was doing wrong if I passed on an order which was given to me.

Q Will you please read the question?

(Question was read by the reporter.)

A That it was a legal order I had to assume because it came to me from higher headquarters and under the conditions which I just described it had to be legal. I could not check the legality of the order.

Q I did not ask you anything about the legality of this order. Did you understand the question?

A You asked me whether I considered it right or just if a GAF were executed under these conditions.

Q I asked you whether you considered it moral.

A I did not have to decide that because I had to carry out an order. I think it is the case in any other army of the world, but it does not matter whether the man who carries the order out was thinking about the morality of the order.

End 2a 20k
ijh fols

Q Do you wish to answer this question? If you do not wish to answer it, it will be all right if you tell me so.

A I cannot answer this question with yes or no.

Q All right. I instruct you until an Air Force Tribunal has decided otherwise to answer this question.

(Question repeated)

Q Did you consider a order which required the taking of human life,
I don't think I said [illegible] I don't think I said so.
not in combat, to be moral?
I maintained that the order came from higher headquarters and that I had to A Outside the military life — assume that [illegible] regiment headquarters is correct to prisoners
MR. RACHAEL: May it please the Court, I move to strike out the of war had known [illegible] matter. [illegible] not present and I did not receive answer and object to the question on the ground that the Prosecution is [illegible] Himmler personally but that is my inner conviction. taking into consideration as evidence before this Court the character of the
Is it also your conviction that Reichsführer was in accord with accused without the accused first having brought his character into issue.
the treatment to be given allied flyers.
PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.
A Certainly.
CAPTAIN VANCE: Will you please read the question?
Q And [illegible] also?
(Whereupon the question was read by the reporter.)
A [illegible] about the matter, certainly.
ACCUSED HELLENBROICH: That it was a legal order I had to assume Q And [illegible]?
because it came to me from higher headquarters and under the conditions which
A Yes.
I just described it had to be legal. I could not doubt the legality of the Q And [illegible] also?
order.
A [illegible] certainly.
QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:
Q And [illegible]?
Q I did not ask you anything about the legality of this order. Did you understand the question?
A Yes.
Q And yourself?
A You asked me whether I considered it right and just if a man were
A Yes.
executed under these conditions.
Q And [illegible]?
Q I asked you whether you considered it moral.
A Yes.
A I did not have to think about that because I had to carry out an Q And [illegible]?
order. I think it is the same in any other army of the world, that it does
A Yes.
not matter whether the man who carried the order out was thinking about the Q So there is no dilemma, everybody was in accord and in every morality of the order.
as to what should be done with captured flyers?
Q Do you want to answer this question? If you do not want to answer
A In view of the orders which were [illegible] was clear what was to be it I will withdraw it and not force you to do so.
done with flyers and you cannot talk here about harmony of a certain
A I cannot answer this question with yes or no.
[illegible] people.
Q All right. I believe you said on direct examination that Himmler
A As [illegible] in the [illegible] you attended a meeting in Hirschberg was in accord with the treatment to be given flyers?
at which the treatment was discussed?

(Hellenbreich-cross)
[illegible]-cross)

ka 205 LME 1
2/21 50
ka 205 LME 2
2/21 50

I was present when Obersturmbannführer Brandt gave out orders but that A: I don't think I said that Himmler -- I don't think I said so. I explained that the order came from higher headquarters and that I had to assume that Himmler who was the highest headquarters in regard to prisoners of war had investigated this matter. I was not present and I did not receive any orders from Himmler personally but that is my inner conviction.

Q Is it also your conviction that Kaltenbrunner was in accord with the treatment to be given Allied flyers?

A: Certainly. Kaltenbrunner would do anything which would be necessary and as far Q: And Streep also? as I know I that is what I am aware of there. At no time A: That Streep knew about the matter, certainly, to the effect to kill anyone Q: And Trumler? whom he knew I part through life correctly and I was not Lee. advised.

Q: And Sussmann also? charge II and do you understand it?

A: Sussmann, certainly, charge in regard to membership to the organization and Q was And Siebert? arrested in the Nuernberg Trial.

A: Yes, the Court now you read about Charge II?

Q: And yourself? charge I will not be able to defend myself especially with A: Yes, only that I was a member of the Gestapo as an official. and Q: And Kaltenbrunner? Certainly not I would not get out of the Gestapo with A: Yes, enough, I was active, on several occasions, for front line service and Q: And Rauff? the war. I was not permitted to take front line duty but that Yes, was so fatal.

Q: So there did not exist any disparity, everybody was in accord and in harmony as to what should be done with captured flyers? Prior to a number of the

A: In view of the orders which were given it was clear what had to be done with flyers and you cannot talk there about harmony of a certain number of people. I was only with them.

Q: At length, on one occasion you attended a meeting in Hechingen at which the treatment was discussed, were to act illegally or unlawfully and I did not understand.

(Hellenbreich-cross)
(Hellenbrunner-cross)

A I was present at a meeting when Colonel Semann gave out orders but there can be no talk of discussion there. Orders were published and acknowledged.

Q I believe you told your lawyer that you had read and understood thoroughly Charge I against you?

A Yes.

Q You answered that you did not feel that you had done anything to be guilty of Charge I?

A I have not done anything which would amount to conspiracy and as far as I can understand Charge I that is what I am accused of there. At no time was I with anybody in a common plan or conspiracy to the effect to kill people in an illegal manner. Up to now I went through life correctly and I was never punished.

Q Have you read Charge II and do you understand it?

A Yes. That is the charge in regard to membership to the organization which was declared criminal in the Nuernberg Trial.

Q Tell the Court how you feel about Charge II?

A Against this charge I will not be able to defend myself especially since I cannot deny that I was a member of the Gestapo as an official. I was transferred to the Gestapo and I could not get out of the Gestapo anymore. Although, I was called, on several occasions, for front line service at the beginning of the war. I was not permitted to take front line duty but that is not my fault.

Q Do you understand Charge VI?

A Yes. In Charge VI I am accused of murder of a member of the Army of the United States. I never murdered an American.

Q What about Charge I?

A There I can say only the same.

Q What you mean is that you did not murder an American?

A No. If I murder somebody I have to act illegaly or wrongfully and I did not act wrongfully.

(Hellenbreich-cross)

Q During the Prosecution's case you heard the testimony of American officers to the effect that they dug up two bodies in the back yard of the Gestapo?

A I can remember that.

Q And you remember the testimony that there were pictures made of these two bodies that were taken there at the grave and which pictures have been introduced into evidence, do you not?

A Yes.

Q Do you remember the testimony that one of them was Lt. William H. Forman, Tank Destroyer, U.S. Army?

A I —

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I do not remember that there was any testimony about anyone to that effect.

PRESIDENT: Did you object to that question?

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Yes, sir. For the reason that I think cross examination can go far but not to the extent of stating evidence which was not introduced.

PRESIDENT: Will the Prosecution refresh the Court's memory about that matter being brought up before?

DEFENSE COUNSEL: It may have been some pictures, may it please the Court.

CAPTAIN VANCE: I will refresh the Court's memory. There was an AGO card of Lt. William H. Forman introduced into evidence showing that he was a Tank Destroyer. The witness testified that this AGO card came out of the pocket of one of the bodies that were dug up in the back yard of the Gestapo.

PRESIDENT: The objection is overruled. Will you read the question?

(Whereupon the question was read by the reporter.)

ACCUSED HELLENBROICH: No.

(Hellenbroich-cross)

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q Do you remember Kaminski's testimony to the effect that these two American soldiers were wearing steel helmets with camouflage nets?

A Kaminski said so.

Q That one of them was wearing an insignia that looked like a Panzer to him?

A I don't know that -- whether he said that.

Q Could you explain to this Court how the bodies of these two infantrymen got to the back yard of the Gestapo Headquarters?

A I have no explanation for that. I know that in the back yard these two Americans were buried, who were transferred to us from the Air Corps. I myself was not in the garden and for that reason I don't know that the men were buried on the spot "G" and "H" as shown on Exhibit E. Anyway the two men who were delivered to us had no insignia whatsoever, no knives, no pistols, no camouflage steel helmets, etc.

Q You heard Raif testify that he buried those two bodies at the places marked "G" and "H" on Prosecution Exhibit ?? did you not?

A Yes. He said so.

PRESIDENT: At this time the Court will recess for twenty minutes.

(Whereupon at 1000 hours the Court recessed.)

(Hellenbroich-cross)

plw/k Ta 206
pls/1

(Whereupon the court reconvened at 1048 hours.)

PRESIDENT: Court will come to order.

PROSECUTION: May it please the court, let the record show that all the members of the court; all the members of the prosecution; all the members of the defense except Dr. Trest who is absent sick; all the accused except the accused No. 14, 15 and 16 -- that is, Best, Goss and Michely, who are absent conferring with counsel; the reporter and interpreter, are present.

PRESIDENT: Let the record show that Colonel Flores has advised the president of the court that he has read all the testimony which transpired in court on Wednesday, February 19th on which day he was properly absent from the court.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: May it please the court, with the permission of the prosecution I have a matter I should like to present for the consideration of the court which it can decide at some recess before the day is over, but I think the court may want to think it over, so I should like to make it now.

At the rate this case is going we estimate that we will be through with the other two charges sometime Tuesday or Wednesday at the very latest. In our thinking in the past we had decided at the end of the direct evidence on Charge I that we would ask the court for a recess before presenting the general evidence which applies to all the charges and all the accused. Some indication of the nature of that evidence has come out in this talk of reprisals and legal defense, etc. Now, the presentation of that evidence can be put in haphazardly, without careful preparation, with the result it will try the patience of the court and will take a great deal of time, and from our point of view we believe we will not get the effect we hope to get.

I am, therefore, asking for two days so that all of us might sit down and prepare this evidence in a coherent and orderly fashion and accomplish the purposes I have mentioned.

The result is different from our anticipation in one respect. We had hoped to be through in ten days and then ask for a recess for Monday or Tuesday. However, despite the fact we will not be through before Tuesday or Wednesday with these cases, I am going to ask for that recess for Monday and Tuesday just the same for this reason: We are going to have to have it. When the prosecution's case was first finished we asked for two weeks and urged on the court we needed that amount of time as a minimum. The court thought that eight days was sufficient. We went to trial at the end of eight days and tried to proceed as speedily as possible without any undue interruptions. But we find, as we anticipated, we have to have a minimum of two days and I hope the court will believe me that that is not a bargaining figure.

There are any number of witnesses, I don't know how many. As a matter of fact there must be two or three dozens who have to be examined and discarded. Questions have to be asked to get them off the stand as quickly as possible.

Now, as long as we are going to have that interruption anyway, assuming we get it in the future, I'd rather have it now so that when the case is over so far as the direct charge is concerned, we can proceed forth without any interruptions. It is going to save the government a great deal of money if we can, and I think the entire case will be presented in a much more orderly fashion. We believe much more orderly and coherently from the point of view of an effective defense.

Now, I imagine and am taking it for granted that the prosecutor or part of them will object. I haven't asked them beyond telling them I was going to ask for this time.

PROSECUTION: May it please the court, the prosecution strenuously objects to any further delay. We should like to call the court's attention to the fact that before this trial began, the president of the court made a concession in that this court was not required to sit on Saturday which is the usual procedure in courts here in Dachau. The defense is represented by seven counsels and the court has made a further concession from time to time to allow this court and trial to be interrupted, almost daily, to permit the accused to leave the court and to confer with counsel and to allow the defense to leave the court at any time to prepare their defense. In the opinion of the prosecution, the defense has not proceeded expeditiously as it should have and there is only one delay that the prosecution will agree to and that is at the end of the defense case when we will agree to a reasonable delay to allow them to prepare final argument. We object to any other dealy at this time.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I should just like to add one sentence. I know of no court which sits on Saturday and the concession, not to sit, was not due to a request of this court but a change in policy. I don't know whether it came from Dachau or higher than that.

PRESIDENT: The court will take this matter under advisement.

SO Th 2/26
pl 9la/4

HEINZ HELLENBROICH, an accused, having previously been sworn, resumed the stand and testified further through an interpreter as follows:

before new [illegible] court, as follows:

CROSS EXAMINATION (continued)

A [illegible] was [illegible] with me. [illegible] were shown,

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

to me and [illegible] asked, like all the other comrades, whether I knew

Q Now, Hauf being the man who buried these bodies, he is in [illegible] would deny that, a better position to testify where he buried them than anybody else,

[illegible] you hear Wolecki testify he saw [illegible] there isn't he?

and that one was an American officer and one was an American soldier?

A I have to assume that,

A I think he testified so.

Q Do you deny to this court that the two bodies that were exhumed three days after you left Neusheim were the bodies of the two Americans who had been executed on the 24th of March 1945?

[illegible]

A I don't know that.

Q Do you consider your defense case stronger if this court believes that the two Americans were fliers and not members of the ground forces?

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I beg the court's judgment.

PRESIDENT: Objection sustained.

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q When did you first come to the conclusion that the two bodies of which pictures have been introduced in evidence, were not the bodies of the two fliers whom you interrogated in your office on the 24th of March 1945?

A I didn't draw any conclusions but in reply to the question of the defense counsel when he showed me the pictures of the bodies, I declared that I didn't know these two men.

(Hellenbroich-cross)

80 Ta 206
pls/5

Q Mr. , when you saw the two American soldiers, they were just a distance [illegible] very close now, is that correct?

Q You had discussed that proposition with defense counsel before you came into court, of course?

A Nothing was discussed with me. The pictures were shown to me and I was asked, like all the other comrades, whether I knew these men and I had to deny that.

Q Did you hear Kaminski testify he saw both of these soldiers and [illegible] and that one was an American officer and one was an American soldier?

A I think he testified so.

end ta 206
Evelyn fols

Q [illegible] Statheson and that brought the soldiers out, isn't that right?

A I think that is not correct. Kaminski didn't say he was in the yard. He was in a joint next to the building.

Q That's right, but he was outside of the building?

A He said so.

Q And he testified here, Kaminski testified and identified the photograph of Lieutenant Forest?

A I don't know now.

Q You don't remember that?

A No.

Q Major Hollingsworth, from your testimony here do you mean to tell this Court here that in 1945 while you were acting under [illegible] while you were a [illegible] soldier?

A Yes, as very members of the armed forces.

Q I believe you testified to being a member of the Communist Party, is that right?

(Recess - [illegible])

Q Now, when you saw the two American soldiers, they were inside Gestapo headquarters in a very dark room, is that correct?

A The room was blacked out because there was an air landing alarm.

Q And it was dark in there, wasn't it?

A You can't say it was dark, the light was covered; it was kind of twilight.

Q And Kaminski was outside in the yard, is that right?

A I don't know that.

Q Well, you heard Kaminski testify he was outside in the yard and he heard that Stattmann and Knaf brought the soldiers out, isn't that right?

A I think this is not correct. Kaminski didn't say he was in the yard. He was at a point near the building.

Q That's right, but he was outside of the building?

A He said so.

Q And he testified here, Kaminski testified he identified the photograph of Lieutenant Forman?

A I don't know that.

Q You don't remember that?

A No.

Q Major Hallenbroich, from your testimony here do you mean to tell this court here that in 1945 while you were working under Major Girke you were a German soldier?

A Yes, we were members of the armed forces.

Q I believe you testified you were a member of the Wehrmacht, is that right?

A The name "Wehrmacht" is a name for all various groups of the Wehrmacht, [illegible] issued to Q I understand that, and you say you were a member?

A Yes, [illegible] present.

Q Now, your witness brought here to testify named Martha Galbright, how long do you know her?

A Mrs. Galbright I knew since I started with Gestapo headquarters, Darmstadt. [illegible]

Q She worked longer at Gestapo headquarters than you did, didn't she? A I heard about it the next day, on the Major Kirke and

A She was working there before, yes. [illegible]

Q She was secretary of the commanding officer, wasn't she?

A She was the secretary of the man who was in charge of our headquarters, [illegible] only afterwards heard that Kirke

Q Did you hear her testify that you, Kirke, Stattmann and Reaf were all police officials and were not soldiers and not part of the Wehrmacht? [illegible]

A Yes, Mrs. Galbright must have been mistaken because she doesn't know the competions.

Q Is she a truthful woman? [illegible]

A Definitely. [illegible]

Q Now, you heard her also testify about certain pay books that were issued to certain members of the command shortly before you moved out of Darmstadt?

A Yes. I was wearing the uniform of the [illegible] police as prescribed

Q I believe she said one was issued to Kirke, one to Stattmann [illegible] and one to Reaf? [illegible]

A She said so.

Q Was one issued to you?

A No.

(Hollenbeck - Cross)

Tr 207 2/21
EC 3
[illegible]
[illegible] 4

Q And I believe she testified also at the same time these new identification pay books were issued, the SS insignia were issued to be placed on the lapel of the uniform, is that right?

A I don't know. She testified, but I wasn't present.

Q Now, did you ever talk to Cirke about these new pay books being issued?

A No, only heard there was talk about it.

Q Have you any explanation as to why these books were issued at this particular time when the Americans were closing in?

A I heard about it the next day, that SS Major Cirke had a special order from SS Colonel Trummler that he had to carry out. That had nothing to do with the fact the Americans were closing in on us.

Q What was the special mission?

A I don't know the special details, only afterward heard that Cirke had orders for Gestapo headquarters at Ludwigshaven or Mannheim [illegible] of [illegible]

Q Cirke didn't go along?

A Yes, Cirke was absent and it was even announced it was unknown when he would return and I think he returned after only twenty-four hours with his [illegible]

[illegible] Objection overruled.

Q Do you know who he took with him?

A I can't say that any more. There were approximately six or seven [illegible] seven men, as I heard in the testimony here. This might be correct.

Q Now, when you were working in Bensheim, did you wear the Waffen SS insignia?

[illegible] I object. The question is leading.

A No, I was wearing the uniform of the security police as prescribed.

Q Prior to the time Cirke and the other people left on this detail, did he wear the uniform of the Waffen SS? [illegible] negative answer?

A I don't know that subject. It is too broad. We don't [illegible]

Q And what about Reaf and Stattmann?

[illegible] I think he was [illegible] to [illegible]

just what he said. Q. By way of parenthesis, I understood the objection CAPTAIN VANCE: I object on the further grounds that this is repetition. To that, I am definitely examining this witness on behalf of a main PRESIDENT: Objection overruled. As an integral point of information. Yes, to somebody else or to several people, prior warning his. Q. Now, is it true that sometimes an order does say that someone or a group of people should do something, that sometimes an order says you shouldn't do something? Have you responded in an adverse way by [illegible] CAPTAIN VANCE: I object. The question is leading.

PRESIDENT: Objection sustained. As objected for that reason. Q. Are all orders usually issued in the positive sense or in the positive command, or are they sometimes in the negative sense? Witness shall [illegible] CAPTAIN VANCE: I object. It is too broad. We don't know whether it is an order from a general or a corporal. Have counsel here DEFENSE COUNSEL: I think the witness should be the one to answer.

(Hallenbrook - Redirect)

A I can't recall [illegible] overruled.

Q After the 15th of March, did you see them wearing Waffen SS insignia? [illegible] they are directed a certain definite attitude.

A I can't remember that. [illegible] orders which had been testified about in CAPTAIN VANCE: Nothing further. security police to kill Allied personnel who were [illegible] REDIRECT EXAMINATION [illegible], were that order CROSS BY DEFENSE COUNSEL.

Q Herr Hohlenbreich, what is an order? [illegible] what does [illegible] highest authority, an order is a military directive which requires a certain action by the man to whom this directive is given.

Q In other words, if I understand you correctly, this is a the statement by someone exercising authority which tells someone else to do a certain thing? was told to me by SS Major Ochs, [illegible] wording of this CAPTAIN VANCE: I object. [illegible] testimony delivered to the DEFENSE COUNSEL: I pray the court that is a fair statement of [illegible], PRESIDENT: Objection overruled. [illegible] question has been [illegible]. On any kind of orders issued by anybody, they expect from the one to whom they are directed a certain definite attitude. [illegible] lawyers in [illegible]. Well, let's come down to the orders which had been testified about in this case, which instructed the security police to kill Allied personnel who were captured in some circumstances, when was that order issued? [illegible] question.

A: The order that terror fliers should be shot came from highest authority of SS Colonel Brunner and was issued, as I was told by SS Major Girke, if I remember in September 1944. [illegible] may cross examine. Q: Now, as nearly as you can remember, state to the court the language of that order. [illegible] leading the witness in [illegible]. A: This order was told to me by SS Major Girke, the wording of this order was approximately as follows: "Terror fliers delivered to the security police have to be shot."

DEFENSE COUNSEL: By way of parentheses, I understood the objection to my former question was that it was leading and I would like to come back to that. I am definitely examining this witness on behalf of another accused, and I would like to have an an integral point of information, a ruling of the court as to my right to cross examine him. I would like to point out to the court that there is a difference of opinion. I am not examining Hellenbreich on his own behalf, I am representing Semann and his name has beenbrought in in an adverse way by this witness.

CAPTAIN VANCE: The prosecution has no objection for them to prove or show anything they see fit by their accused, but we do object to the defense counsel being in contest with and telling the witnesses what to say.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I take exception. When these accused were divided, we definitely kept away, but as long as the issue has been raised, I want to say I would never think of examining a witness of Mr. Rachmel's, for instance, but yesterday we had three German lawyers in there. I have not talked to Hellenbroich, haven't spoken a dozen words to him outside of today.

PRESIDENT: Court will recess in place.

(Whereupon the court recessed in place.)

(Whereupon the court reconvened.)

PRESIDENT: Court will come to order. In view of the [illegible] conflicting interests of the accused, the defense counsel may cross examine an accused in the interest of another accused and in view of the joint interests in certain charges, leading the witness in [illegible] certain other instances will be permitted if it cannot be avoided. You may [illegible]

A I can't say that.

Q Did you say it?

A I don't know.

Q Well, do you know whether or not someone did know of this one particular order to the Security Police to kill?

A I don't know that. Colonel Rauer knew of this order which came from or was through Colonel Knoblen.

Q Now let us go back to this meeting that you attended in Rauer's office. That was an order that police would not interfere with anything the civilian authorities were to do with captured flyers, is that correct?

A Yes.

Q Is that what you had here, in September, an order to the Security Police and the order which Rauer had which came from higher authorities merely stated that the relations between the Luftwaffe and the civilian population, is that correct?

(Continued on next page)

1432

Q This order which you say came down around September first, the according to information that an order to the Nichorheim Police that the Security Police would kill "terror flyers" delivered to them, is that true?

A [illegible]

Q Then did Sumann leave Nienhagen? [illegible]

A I don't know exactly. [illegible]

Q What is your best recollection? [illegible] I haven't completed my question. I think it was the end of July, when the new interrogation order and the order to that this order to the Security Police to kill came down, sometime after Sumann left Nienhagen. That is true, isn't it?

A [illegible] I would like to say further that I have no objection [illegible] I believe you said, in response to a question from the prosecution that Sumann knew of this order to the Security Police to kill. Did you say that? [illegible] the ruling of the court stands.

A I can't say that. [illegible] Would you mind reading to the question again please.

Q Did you say it? [illegible] in the same way?

A [illegible] I don't know. [illegible] read the last question as follows:

Q Well, do you know whether or not Sumann did know of that one particular order to the Security Police to kill? [illegible] Security Police to kill and the order which Sumann read which came down from higher authorities merely stated that the police would not interfere with the civilian

A I don't know that. Colonel Sumann knew of this order which came down to us through Colonel Trumbore. [illegible] my question.

Q Now let us go back to this meeting that you attended in Sumann's office. That was an order that police would not interfere with anything the civilian population wanted to do with captured flyers, is that correct? [illegible] [illegible] came from higher authority was [illegible] out?

Q So that you had here, in September, an order to the Security Police to kill and the order which Sumann read which came down from higher authorities merely stated that the police would not interfere with the civilian population, is that correct? [illegible]

A CAPTAIN VINCENT: I object to that, if it please the court. The court ruled that he could lead him if necessary. I don't think it is necessary. He has testified that Semann read the order and in addition to that said other things. Now the defense counsel is leading him in an attempt to show that he did nothing but read the order and he should only object at [illegible] PRESIDENT: Objection sustained.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: May it please the court, I haven't completed my examination. I am asking a comparison between this non-interference order and the order to kill. I pray the court to reconsider this. There is a vital fundamental difference between these two types of orders.

A CAPTAIN VINCENT: I would like to say further that I have no objection to him letting this man repeat what he said and tell everything that was said but I don't want the defense counsel to tell him what to say. [illegible] were you passing on? PRESIDENT: The ruling of the court stands.

A DEFENSE COUNSEL: Would you mind reading me the question again please so that I can avoid asking it the same way?

(Thereupon the reporter read the last question as follows:

A "This is that you had here, in September, last order to the Security Police to kill and the order which Semann read which came from higher authorities merely stated that the police would not interfere with the civilian population, is that correct?)

A DEFENSE COUNSEL: I will rephrase my question, rather by calling QUESTIONS BY DEFENSE COUNSEL:

Q Among other things that happened in Semann's office at that time that you made the visit to Stockstadt there was a reading by Semann of an order which came from higher authority was there not?

A First the non-interference order was brought to our knowledge.

Q In what fashion was that non-interference order brought to your knowledge? [illegible] Objection overruled.

(Hellmuth showed proof) 1453

A. As I said before, it was kind to me only eliminated through a

Q. All right. Now tell the court just what that order which was read to you said briefly, Krumler.

A. I still remember the chart saying, in substance, "It is not the duty of the German police to prevent actions of the German population against persecuted Jews or to interfere there."

Q. What, in your opinion, is the difference between an order to the police not to interfere with the civilian population in things the civilian population wanted to do and an order to the police that the police should kill? The answer that you gave was, was that the correct order to kill [illegible]. The difference is obvious already through the question.

Q. Now coming down to the two cases before the court today. When you passed down the order [illegible] to Sturmann and Hahn, which order were you passing down?

A. I transmitted the order which I had received from SS Major Girke. [illegible].

Q. That order was which? I address the court?

A. This is the order which SS Colonel Krumler had passed on to SS Major Girke. [illegible]. If it please the court, I think that everybody of this [illegible] order was which contained these numbers particularly the answers [illegible]. That was the order which came down from higher authority calling for executions. [illegible] repeating them and saying "what I understand your [illegible]. In other words the point that got over to Sturmann and Hahn was the order to the Security Police to kill and not the order to the Security Police not to interfere with civilians to anything and I don't want to cover up with CAPTAIN HANN. I object on the ground that it is leading with him. I object further on the ground that it is repetitious.

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled. [illegible] to answer.

(Hahn [illegible] testified.)

A No. This order by this time was already eliminated through a second order. The first order of Romman was already eliminated through the second order of Brunmler.

Q This order from Brunmler came from higher authority. That was the order to kill was it not?

A Yes.

Q The order not to interfere that was read by Romman also came from higher authority, didn't it?

A Yes.

Q The answer that you gave was, was that the second order to kill superceded and wiped out the first order not to interfere? Romman?

CAPTAIN VANCE: I object on the same grounds as stated.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: My question was that the answer you gave was to that effect.

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

THE WITNESS: Yes.

CAPTAIN VANCE: May I address the court?

PRESIDENT: Proceed.

CAPTAIN VANCE: If it please the court, I think that every member of this court can hear and understand these answers perfectly well the answers that the witness has given from the witness stand and I can't see any reason for Colonel Romman repeating them and saying "what I understand your testimony to be" and wording it exactly the way he wants it in his own mind and getting a positive answer from the witness. We strenuously object. I don't mind this witness testifying to anything and I don't want to cover up anything or keep it from the court, but Colonel Romman is testifying himself through the mouth of the witness.

PRESIDENT: That is a matter for the court to decide.

(Hollenbeich-redirect)

Q Coming back again to this meeting, in Wiesbaden, at the time this non-interference order was made) Was there anybody there, at the time the order was read to you, by the name of Breder or Berger? (question please.

A (Was that not in my presence? I complied to this before.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I would like to tell the witness, with the court's permission, that if I ask him a question it would save a lot of time if he would just answer it. (or the penalty points?)

PRESIDENT: That has the approval of the court.

THE WITNESS: Yes.

Q Did you hear any conversation at which this non-interference order was discussed which involved Christmann and Breder and Berger and Hemann?

A No.

Q Did you hear any request made by Christmann to Schmidt that all allied prisoners be turned over to Christmann?

A No.

Q Now you have quoted someone as having said to you after reading the order certain things of which I am going to quote a part.

A Yes, that was done in the presence of Christmann and Ralbe.

Q It is true, is it not, that when the order came down it instructed the police--the Security Police--that they should dispose of "terror flyers" that that order created a new situation for the security police?

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I understand that you object to it on the ground that it is leading.

CAPTAIN VANCE: Without taking the courts time I object to it.

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

(Hellenbroich-redirect)

[illegible] off the record [illegible] from the city of Surau to

(Off the record discussion)

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Would you mind reading the question please.

(Thereupon the reporter read the last question as follows: Limit of Q It is true, is it not, that when the order came down which instructed the police--the Security Police--that they should disregard 'Nuremberg figures' that that order created a [illegible] for the security police?)

[illegible] gives us your estimation, approximately, of the distance from DEFENSE COUNSEL: I withdrew that question.

[illegible] to the county limits of the county of Surau in kilometers?

Your witness.

A It must have been approximately eight to ten kilometers. The county

CAPTAIN VANCE: No questions.

[illegible] were sworn.

REDIRECT EXAMINATION

MR. RATHAUS: Dr. Berger is interrogating on behalf of the accused

QUESTIONS BY DR. ABSHER:

Q Do you know from when this so-called non-interference order was [illegible] BY DR. ABSHER:

dated?

Q The non-interference and the later order--were they made known to

A I didn't hold in my hands the non-interference order which was all employees of your headquarters?

brought to our knowledge at that time by Colonel Summa.

A No, they were not accessible to all employees. It is possible that

Q When, for the first time, did you hear of this order?

most of them did know them.

A At Colonel Summa's office.

[illegible] Past knew these orders?

Q Did you hear when this order was read here in the court with the

A I don't know [illegible].

date?

Haven't these orders [illegible] were secret orders brought to

A I think there was talk about that this order was issued already the knowledge of all employees of the prison?

in 1943, yes. If the order is issued it must be written.

[illegible] they were brought to the knowledge of the chiefs of the Q Did you know about this order already in 1943?

[illegible] departments. It is not absolutely necessary that half know about them.

A No.

Q Yesterday you were asked the distance between Dachau and Surau.

[illegible] Dear Head of the Department?

If I remember right you said the distance is approximately three quarters of an hour ride by car, is that correct?

A Yes.

[illegible] Dachau [illegible].

A It might be a little bit too much. In the meantime I investigated [illegible] [illegible] the [illegible] this [illegible] further.

this question. It must be thirty kilometers.

[illegible] [illegible] by the court. The witness will take his place [illegible].

(Hallenbreich-redirect)

Q Was the flyer in charge 8 brought from the city of Worms to Sandhofen?

(The witness Wolf stood up and resumed his place in the dock.)

A No, he came from the area around Worms, I do.

Q How far is it from the city of Sandhofen to the county limits of Worms?

A I think the county border of Worms is pretty close to the Bergstrasse.

Q Please give us your estimation, approximately, of the distance from Sandhofen to the county limits of the county of Worms in kilometers?

A It must have been approximately eight to ten kilometers. The county limits were near Lorsch.

MR. RACHAMIL: Dr. Berger is interrogating on behalf of the accused Raef.

QUESTIONS BY DR. BERGER:

Q The non-interference and the later order--were they made known to all employees of your headquarters?

A No, they were not accessible to all employees. It is possible that some of them did know them.

Q Do you know whether Raef knew these orders?

A I don't know that.

Q Weren't these orders secret orders? Were secret orders brought to the knowledge of all employees of the office?

A Mostly they were brought to the knowledge of the chiefs of the various departments. It is not absolutely necessary that Raff knew about them.

Q Was Raef head of the department?

A No.

DR. BERGER: Nothing further.

CAPTAIN VANCE: The prosecution has nothing further.

PRESIDENT: No questions by the court. The witness will take his place in the dock.

(Whereupon the Court was recessed at 1330 hours.)

(Thereupon the accused was excused and resumed his place in the dock.)

PRESIDENT: The court will recess until 1400. Court, let the record show that all members of the prosecution; all members of the defense, except Dr. Trost, who is absent sick; all of the accused, except Hamann, number 18, who is sick in the hospital; the accused Rost, 14; Goss, 15; and Richely, 16, who are absent temporarily conferring with counsel; the reporter and interpreter are present.

Lt. CACHAZA: The prosecution will call as its next witness Wilhelm Rusko.

WILHELM RUSKO, called as a witness by the defense, being first duly sworn, testified through an interpreter as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY Lt. CACHAZA:

Q What is your full name?

A Wilhelm Rusko.

Q What is your present status?

A Internment with the criminal police.

Q Are you at present interned at Camp Dachau?

A Yes.

Q Do you know a person by the name of Fritz Hirka?

A Yes.

Q If he is present in the court room, will you point him out?

A Number 10. 1480

Lt. CACHAZA: Let the record show that the witness identifies the defendant, Fritz Hirka, wearing glasses 10.

(Whereupon the Court reconvened at 1330 hours.)

PRESIDENT: The Court will come to order.

PROSECUTION: May it please the Court, let the record show that all members of the Court, all members of the Prosecution; all members of the Defense, except Dr. Trost, who is absent sick; all of the accused, except Hammann, Number 12, who is sick in the hospital; the accused Best, 14; Goss, 15; and Michely, 16, who are absent temporarily and conferring with counsel; the reporter and interpreter are present.

MR. RACHAEL: The Defense will call as its next witness Wilhelm Hucko.

WILHELM HUCKO, called as a witness by the Defense, being first duly sworn, testified through an interpreter as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY MR. RACHAEL:

Q What is your full name?

A Wilhelm Hucko.

Q What is your present status?

A Regierungsrat with the criminal police.

Q Are you at present interned at Camp Dachau?

A Yes.

Q Do you know a person by the name of Fritz Girke?

A Yes.

Q If he is present in the court room, will you point him out?

A [illegible] Number 10.

MR. RACHAEL: Let the record show that the witness identifies the defendant, Fritz Girke, wearing placard 10.

QUESTIONS BY MR. RACHAEL:

Q Were you ever a prisoner confined in a jail at Wiesbaden?

A Yes.

Q Was Girke a cellmate of yours?

A Yes, part of the time.

Q I show you a photostatic copy of a statement made by the defendant, Fritz Girke, which is in evidence as Prosecution's Exhibit 29, and ask you if you ever had a conversation with Fritz Girke regarding that statement.

A Well, I have to have a look at it.

Q Go ahead and look at it.

A Yes.

Q Now, when was that conversation held?

A It was at the end of May or, in June.

Q What did he say to you and what did you say to him in regard to that statement?

CAPTAIN VANCE: We object on the ground that this is immaterial, irrelevant and incompetent testimony regarding a conversation between Girke and this witness.

MR. RACHAEL: I respectfully submit to the Court that it is very material--that it concerns the statement which has been offered into evidence by the Prosecution without having laid a foundation for its offer, without Girke or anyone having taken the stand. I am trying to clarify the basis for that statement.

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

WITNESS: What was the question? Oh, yes, the substance. Girke told me that shortly after being sent to the Wiesbaden jail he had been interrogated and that sometime later he had had to write down the contents of this interrogation. He said that during this interrogation he had been asked whether he had received a letter regarding treatment of parachuted flier or fliers who had landed after being shot down. He said that he had not been able to recall that order right away, but then he had been told that such an order had existed, and upon this he said that upon his being told about that he remembered that he had once received an order which he remembered because of the special treatment described in it. That special treatment consisted of the order being transmitted to the employees and then being burned or destroyed at any rate. No files were to be started on this--that is, specific secrecy had been ordered about it; and he said that upon being told that such an order concerning the killing of fliers or treatment of fliers existed, he then thought that since he remembered this one particular order which was to be treated in this special manner--namely, to be transmitted to the employees orally and then destroyed, that this was the order concerning treatment of fliers, and for that reason in the statement which he later wrote and which was just now shown to me--at any rate, I guess it's the same one--he wrote that there had been such order signed either by Kaltenbrunner or Moller, and that this order which he had been forced to destroy had been an order dealing with the treatment of foreign fliers; and he said because he had reached this conclusion he had made a remark to that effect in this statement. That was the conversation in Wiesbaden, which, however, did not include any details.

QUESTIONS BY MR. RACHAEL:

Q Thereafter, did you meet Fritz Girke when you were both confined here in Camp Dachau?

A Yes.

Q When was that?

A On the first of July we were transferred from Wiesbaden to Dachau jointly.

Q And after the first of July in the year 1946, did you again speak or have a conversation with the defendant Fritz Girke concerning that statement?

A Yes.

Q What was the substance of that conversation?

A After one week in Dachau, we were sent to the same cell. Now as early as Wiesbaden, Girke had already intimated that this first statement he had made did not contain the factual truth, and he told me that upon due deliberation he had reached a conclusion that this order he had been forced to sign was an order dealing not with the treatment of enemy fliers, but with the joint responsibility of the family of a perpetrator; and he expressed his worries that if he would now go and correct this former statement of his that he might be charged with perjury. Upon that I told him that since at that particular time he had testified to the best of his knowledge, therefore the question of perjury was subjectively out of the question. The important thing was for him to tell the truth, if he had changed his mind.

Q Then what efforts did Girke make to bring the true facts to the Americans?

A At first he reported to an American officer, and one or two days after applying for this interrogation he was taken away from his cell for interrogation. He was informed by an American officer that the papers had not arrived from Wiesbaden as yet, and received paper in order to reduce his new statement in writing.

Q And did he reduce his new statement in writing?

A Yes

Q I show you this paper and ask you if you recognize it?

A Yes

Q What is that paper?

A That is the statement written by Dirks in the cell in my presence.

Q Then what other efforts were made to bring the true facts to the Americans?

A I don't understand the question--you mean this particular case?

Q That's right.

A Well, he wrote this down, and then he requested being called in again, but didn't receive an answer. Then he wanted to turn it over to somebody, but I don't think it was taken right away. Afterwards, however, he was under the impression that he had turned it over to somebody.

Q Do you know whether or not he did turn it over to somebody?

A Well, to the best of my knowledge I would say he did turn it over.

Q To whom--do you know?

A That must have been Albert in that case.

Q Was that Albert the first name or a last name?

A I never saw it written down--I think it was Fiedler, though.

Q And was Albert Fiedler told, if you know, what to do with the statement?

A Oh, yes, pardon me--it just occurs to me now--he was supposed to turn it over to Dr. Dortheimer.

Q Who is Dr. Dortheimer?

A The bunker commandant.

Q And what was Dr. Dortheimer supposed to do with the statement?

A He was supposed to send it to the Court. If I remember correctly, Girke attached another slip to it saying "To Dr. Dortheimer requesting transmittal." And I think at that time Girke was also told that if he wasn't called in again to turn the statement over to Dr. Dortheimer--oh, I remember that specifically now. He was supposed to turn it over to Dr. Dortheimer if he wasn't called back right away.

(Witness excused.)

MR. RACHAEL: Your witness.

CAPTAIN VANCE: Do any of the other counsel intend to question this witness?

MR. RACHAEL: I don't believe so.

CAPTAIN VANCE: No questions.

MR. RACHAEL: I hand the reporter a document and request that it be marked Defense Exhibit 18 for identification.

(The document referred to was marked Defense Exhibit 18 for identification.)

MR. RACHAEL: At this time the Defense offers in evidence this document which has been marked for identification as Defense Exhibit 18.

CAPTAIN VANCE: Would you mind us taking a look at it, or telling us what it is?

MR. RACHAEL: It's a German statement.

CAPTAIN VANCE: I can't read German.

MR. RACHAEL: Does the Court want it translated—it hasn't been accepted yet.

LAW MEMBER: No.

CAPTAIN VANCE: We have given them copies of our documents, and that was the agreement..

LAW MEMBER: We want it translated.

MR. RACHAEL: If the Court please, I will have a translation of this made and show it to the Prosecution, and at that time I will renew my offer to put it into evidence. No further questions of this witness.

PRESIDENT: No questions by the Court. The witness is excused.

(Whereupon the witness was excused and withdrew.)

MR. RACHAEL: The Defense will call as its next witness the defendant Fritz Girke.

PRESIDENT: Do you desire to be sworn?

ACCUSED FRITZ GIRKE: Yes.

FRITZ GIRKE, an accused, voluntarily took the stand in his own behalf, being first duly sworn, testified through an interpreter as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY MR. RACHAEL:

Q What is your full name?

A Fritz Girke.

Q And did you sign up for civil service?
A Yes.
Q What was your first position?
A After being separated from the service, and since I could not declare upon taking a judicial career, I became an associate with the Government in Liegnitz. There I was required to be transferred to the Reich Ministry of the Interior in Berlin in the middle of October. Under what circumstances did you first come to be assigned to the [illegible]
Q Are you a lawyer?
A I was just about to explain that. I was called into the Reich Ministry of the Interior for an interview in October, 1939, and I was thus have qualified for the job of a judge.
Q What year did you qualify for a job as a judge?
A 1939.
Q And then what happened to your career?
A After several artillery maneuvers with the Army before requiring all civil servants to do [illegible] kinds of administrative work from paralysis of the vocal chords; and, as being fit for professional duty only, I was discharged from the Army.
Since I did not intend to become a civil servant, since my former manual training as a metal worker seemed to make me desired to come back into industry instead, I was intending to get out of the civil service job with the Justice Department. This, however, was not possible for me, because I would have had to pay back the advance pay that I had received in my assistant job amounting to 40 marks a month. And since I figured that I would have to remain a soldier during war time anyway, I had to decide upon signing up for five years of civil service.

Q And did you sign up for civil service?

A Yes.

Q What was your first position?

A After being expatriated from the Sudetenland, and since I could not decide upon taking a judicial career, I became an assessor with the Government in Liegnitz. There I was required to be transferred to the Reichs Ministry of the Interior in Berlin in the middle of October.

Q Under what circumstances did you first come to be assigned to the Gestapo?

A I was just about to explain that. I was called into the Reichs Ministry of the Interior for an interview in October 1938, and I was presented to the people there. I was then permitted to return home to Liegnitz, or rather, to the place of my occupation, Landshut in Silesia, and about the end of November, I received the orders to report to the Munich state police for duty in Berlin towards the end of December, 1938. An attempt made by the government president of Liegnitz to keep me from being transferred to the Reichs Ministry of the Interior and the Gestapo was unsuccessful, and since a directive had just been issued that time before requiring all civil servants to do all kinds of administrative work regardless of what the branch of the service may be, I had to follow that call. Thus I started my service on the first of December, 1938, with the State Police office in Berlin.

Q What was your rank? For the record, in the first place, in order to [illegible] My rank was assessor, I was an Allied flier in our custody, [illegible] Q Just a moment. When did you become the chief of the Gestapo [illegible] in Sonnenstein? For the first time since we had taken over the job, the [illegible] A On the first of June, 1944. I arrived in Sonnenstein on the 1st or 2nd of June, 1944. [illegible] I related the facts as they had been told me by [illegible] Q What was your rank then? [illegible] A I was an SS major of the Security Police and Regierungsrat, in government counselor.

Q And you remained as chief of the Gestapo at Darmstadt until the end, is that right?

A Yes.

PRESIDENT: Court will recess in place.

Court will come to order.

MR. RACHAEL: What was my last question?

(Whereupon the last question was read by the court reporter.)

THE WITNESS: Yes.

QUESTIONS BY MR. RACHAEL:

Q I call your attention to a time about the middle of February, 1945. I also call your attention to the testimony given by the witness Hellenbroich and the witness Stattmann. Did you issue an order to kill, or rather, to shoot an American flier on that day?

A Yes, I issued this order on account of the reports transmitted to me by Major Hellenbroich and on account of the orders I had received from Colonel Trumler, whom I even called up prior to issuing the order to Hellenbroich.

Q Is that the telephone call you made concerning which the witness Colbrich testified she put in?

A Yes.

Q What was the substance of your conversation with Colonel Trumler on the phone?

A I put in this call for the reason, in the first place, in order to inform Colonel Trumler that there was an Allied flier in our custody, a terror flier was in our custody. By that, I wanted to signify to Colonel Trumler that for the first time since he had taken over his job, the Darmstadt police had a flier in its custody which had been turned over to it by the rural police. I remited the facts as they had been told me by my deputy, Major Hellenbroich, to Colonel Trumler, and upon my question, as to what was to be done, Colonel Trumler told me that I was to act in accordance with existing orders. Then there were other questions which were current and which were on this telephone discussed and cleared up by me and Colonel Trumbler. By that, I am trying to say that although the call cause of the call being put in was this flier case, it was not the only subject discussed during this conversation. I should like to describe the status of affairs. What were the existing orders referred to by Trumbler? October, 1944.

A About the end of September, I don't remember the time exactly, when Colonel Trumbler started on his job as commander of the Security Police and SD in Wiesbaden, I was supposed to report to him. At that time, he informed me of the shooting order which he had received from higher authorities, or arrived in fact, the Labor Protection Service, which

Q Is the shooting order which you refer to the shooting order of Reichs Minister Heinrich Himmler ordering the police to shoot? That was given

A Yes, this order, I believe, is the order which in my opinion stated issued from the Reichsführer SS Heinrich Himmler and which instructed and the police, in particular the Security Police, to shoot terror fliers. That was the order which Colonel Trumbler was referring to when he talked about existing orders on this telephone call about the 20th of February.

Main Q When you gave that order to your inferior, when did you give that order to Hellenbreich or Stattmann? necessary for the reason that these men. As far as my memory serves me correctly, Major Hellenbreich came up to to my room together with Sgt. Stattmann, and I told them that after over a parting with Colonel Trumbler, this flier was to be shot in accordance with existing order to receive these combatant persons and army airmen, hence

Q Was that order given to Stattmann to execute or was it given to Hellenbreich to execute? over as well as their army had. For that reason,

A The person to execute it was Tech. Sgt. Stattmann. this case to all

Q And he received that order from you directly, did he not? was a

A Yes, he was present when I, in the presence of Major Hellenbreich, issued the order. I think I have now given the answer of 13th the [illegible] There have been some questions regarding soldiers. Many witnesses have testified to an incident which occurred about the middle of March in which soldiers were issued to some members of the Gestapo. Will you tell the court why these soldiers were issued and what they contained?

A. [illegible] In answering this question, I should like to describe the status of the Secret State Police as a part of the armed forces after October, 1944.

[illegible] Q. [illegible] already said, that the secret state police was part of the armed forces. A. On account of my work with the Secret State Police in 1943, I found out in the fall of 1943 of an order of the Reichs Main Security Office directing that stating that the Gestapo was a part of the armed forces. Shortly after my arrival in Darmstadt, the Labor Protection Service, which in my district was an outfit assigned to protecting the armament industries, was supplied with combatant papers and steel forces symbols. That proved necessary because this area of Hessen and Nassau XII had been designated and was planned on by the Allies as an area for parachutists to land on, and for that reason the Labor Protection Service was to be put under the protection of the armed forces. And since there were in my office several people who were not wearing uniforms, I put in the request at the Reichs Main Security Office to issue to these men also this same combatant identification paper and steel symbols. That was necessary for the reason that these men, as members of the Secret State Police, were the superior officers to this Labor Protection Service. I received as an answer to that request a statement from the Reichs Main Security Office that it was not necessary for members of my office to receive these combatant papers and army symbols, because the Security Police had been reported to the Geneva Convention as early as 1941, their uniforms as well as their arms [illegible]. For that reason, issuance of these objects became unnecessary. I announced this fact to all the men at a formation, so that every one of my men realized that he was a member of the armed forces. And another fact from which you can see that we were members of the armed forces was that ever since the summer of 1944 the

Ta 210-po-90-2/21-5

Security Police kept working more and more exclusively in military matters. The changeover of the whole counter-intelligence system of the SiPo of the interior to the Security Police also caused quite a number of officers that was to be taken into my command. Two captains of the SiPo worked under my command as counter-intelligence officers until the end. They were subject to my command in disciplinary as well as a technical respect.

Another proof, to my mind, that the secret state police was furnished as a branch of the armed forces is that the secret state police was furnished as well as other services regarding [illegible] which were under my command.

Q. When were they first furnished with service records (Gen. 3, as Ankl. The first time they received these service records was in July or August, 1944, and any members of the Security Police who might have been serving outside the home country received theirs earlier. We also received identification tags at the same time and were assigned to the SS fighting battalion Kessler as our army outfit. were in. And since the enemy was only [illegible] that in the summer of 1944, did you not know that they were part of the armed forces of Germany? in this mission into some overseas.

I ask [illegible] CAPTAIN WAINE: We object. The question is leading, leads are [illegible] THE MARSHAL: Objection sustained. [illegible] eight men.

QUESTIONS BY MR. MICHAELS: [illegible] chief

Q. Continue. [illegible] were not service them. It was a matter of [illegible]. We also received our army pay just like the Waffen SS and just like, in fact, the entire armed forces did. I and my men received the same privileges concerning medical care. We received free treatment in army hospitals. Travel took place along the same lines as it did in the armed forces. In the case of furlough or official trips we would be under the command of the local commanding officer. They are not making any difference whether this man would be an officer of the Waffen SS, the Air Corps, or the Army. [illegible] record when the case in it had been shot

Q I think you have told us enough now about the fact that the

(DIRK-Direct)

To [illegible]

[illegible] the part of the Rhinemetall-Borsig yard down to March 1945 [illegible]. This explanation was necessary in order to explain [illegible] and that I had contact with [illegible] the contact altogether in the most unfortunately time that the left bank of the Rhine was occupied by the enemy. There was no possibility of communication with the [illegible] on the west bank of the Rhine since the bridges had been blown and [illegible] destroyed. The town of Duisburg, located on the left side of the Rhine, was part of Colonel Steinbrink's area of command. Duisburg-Hafen had its office of the Security Police which was under my command, and since all [illegible] had been disconnected with this office, [illegible] the chief of the office located nearest to it, was assigned by Colonel Trumbour the job of [illegible] to the right-in that office. I had the order to hold the present steps as far as the Security Police was concerned in Ruhrgebiet, particularly so far as the moving of the office was concerned

In case the enemy should approach or move in, and since the enemy was only eight kilometers away from Antwerpen, and had in fact already occupied the outskirts of Wuyken, I had to start on this mission this same evening. I assigned eight men from my office to this unit and was forced to issue my service records to them. Tech. Sgt. Steinman was among these eight men.

Q Was [illegible] of these eight men concerning us, the leave of the men, [illegible] was not among them. It was a matter of security, and I think it is common usage in all armies that on the eve of expecting contact with the enemy would not be war fighting with service records containing language in the clear. When I am talking about service records in the clear, I mean the comprehensive description of our unit, in our case, the 99 training battalion Hunts. G-2 from London had reported to us that the term 99 training battalion Hunts had been discovered by the enemy in making Gestapo attacks, and that any person, [illegible] having on himself a service record with that term in it had been with Army.

(CROSS-Direct)

without trial. These incidents had occurred in the vicinity of Aachen, when fighting took place there. For that reason, we had also requested from the Reichs Security Main Office the APO number of this SS training battalion Hamlin, with the APO number 07854, approximately, that might not be wrong. The last two numbers might be switched around. So all I was really doing was changing the service records containing the SS battalion Hamlin in the close to service records containing the APO number of this SS training battalion Hamlin. And in all France there was a prohibition against going into contact with service records in the close in order to make it impossible for the enemy intelligence to identify the APO numbers of these units in [illegible].

Q And so you issued these soldbuchs to eight men who went on that mission, is that right?

A Yes, only in that manner no deception of the enemy was intended by that at all. It was purely the procedure which is used throughout the world, or at any rate, throughout those parts of the world where German troops did fighting, [illegible] civilians in the street.

Q Let's come down to March 24, 1945. Did you issue an order to Hellenbrandt concerning Pilzer?

A On the 24th of March, the hours concerning us, the hours of the evening, and this was in the day after the Rhine had been crossed near Oppenheim on the 23rd. That was in the evening at 2300 hours, 1945. As to the military situation in Darmstadt, the enemy had crossed the Rhine and was proceeding along the autobahn towards Mannheim and also along the mountain road towards Bensheim. To our west, the enemy troops were at the autobahn near Lorsch, about seven kilometers west of Mannheim, and to our north, they were on the road leading from Darmstadt to Bensheim at the town of Mahlsein, about seven kilometers from Bensheim. That evening, I was in constant contact with the commanding officer of the First German Army.

(OIRE-Direct)

Q One moment. In the German Army, is an anti-aircraft unit a part of the Luftwaffe?

A Yes.

Q Continue.

A And he asked me, in view of the fact that it was definite that these men were terror fliers who had been strafing civilians in the street, what was to be done with them. Since I was in a hurry, I can understand the testimony of Hallenbreich that I reprimanded him and told him, "What is the idea of asking questions about that?" I had two men, staff officers, on my staff, and I could certainly assume that these staff officers, with the same position and responsibilities as I, would perform investigations properly. I therefore told Major Hallenbreich, "They are to be shot in accordance with orders."

(GIMEK-Direct)

For that reason, I was not in my office at all times during that evening, but rather had to convey on talks with those headquarters I have mentioned. Since I had the order to move back together with the fighting troops, and since no fighting troops were left at Remagen any more — and I might say here that the local army headquarters had already moved that same morning, as is mentioned in Kraiewski's statement — for that reason, I was the last armed unit in Remagen, with the exception of the anti-aircraft artillery unit which was to put the tank traps in the area between the Ohrenhild and the Rhine. Under these conditions, about 2100 hours Major Hellenbreigh showed me the report of this anti-aircraft unit and told me that two Allied fliers were in the guardroom. [illegible]

Q What orders were you referring to?

A Well, the order which I have already mentioned here, the Superior Order, transmitted to me by Col. Trumpler, that men who have been determined to be low flying, strafing, fliers, would be shot. I left the house again. I didn't see the fliers and all I received was a report that the mission had been accomplished and the fliers buried in the garden. It is entirely possible that I also gave the orders to have the fliers shot in the garden but I don't remember the details about that anymore. If I consider the fact that these fliers were buried in our garden and I had given this order to have them buried in our garden, in our own backyard, that would certainly throw the light that at that time we did not feel we were committing an unjust act because of the fact that when the enemy would occupy the town they would certainly investigate the headquarters of the Secret State Police and in the course of that investigation would certainly find the graves of these dead fliers. That was certainly clear to me. May I finish this sentence? If I tried to camouflage anything it certainly would have been easy for me to take these fliers somewhere into the forest, Oppenwald, and there shoot them and dig them in. The very openness with which we carried out our difficult orders in the middle of February as well as in March will certainly prove this.

Q Major Girke, you spoke about the orders issued through Colonel Trumpler. What would have happened had you refused to obey these orders?

A It was perfectly obvious to me that since we were living in this area of supreme emergency, as the witness Hildebrandt has described it, we as members of the SS would also have been executed promptly. And if the SS non-coms under me had in any way refused to obey this order, then I would certainly have reported them and would have had them taken care of by the legal office. The character of my superior officers, Col. Trummler and Gen. Stroop, being what it was, it was perfectly obvious to me that there was no other way out except to carry out the orders. And furthermore, I did not see any reason why I should not carry out this order as an officer, as the highest officer in this office.

SQ No 211
pls/2

Q Let me ask you this -- suppose you had refused to obey Trummler's order to carry out that mission to Ludwigshaven. What would have happened to you?

A That would have been the same sort of cowardice before the enemy. We were in an area of combat. In fact, we did cross the Rhein in an assault at the same time the enemy moved into Ludwigshaven. From these facts -- incidentally, you might also reconstruct with precision the exact time of our mission to Ludwigshaven --

Q Aside from the matter of what would have happened had you wilfully disobeyed the order, what was your opinion concerning the legality of these orders issued by Trummler?

A As I have already stated I had no reason to doubt its legality. I knew that this order came from the highest headquarters and I knew that the moral consciousness or better, the moral feelings of the whole population had been directed into these same channels through propaganda. I knew the non-interference order which concisely stated that the police are not authorized to prevent any excesses of the population directed against terror fliers. I knew the propaganda of the German government, particularly concerning the Goebbels article in the periodical called "Das Reich", and I remember exactly the pictures appearing in such magazines of such interests as "Murder Inc."

(Cirke-direct)

"Nazi Killers" and "Home Block Busters", and I also knew the statement of the Supreme Allied Headquarters, as a result of the Goebbels propaganda, stating that the Supreme Allied Headquarters had prohibited any warfare against civilians and that no Allied soldier had any right to demand the protection of the Geneva Convention or any other protecting treaty if he ever attacked civilians. I myself, in my own person, found the effects of warfare of terror fliers against the civilian population and I might add here that I did not consider this attack against me personally as any violation of international law.

All cities within my area were destroyed, you might say to 80%. I physically, myself, experienced the attack on Darmstadt, Mainz which were vast areas of ruins, and the old respected towns of Mainz and Worms are the same. Now, in this general state of mind when such orders came through I was completely and definitely sure that if any scruples would exist in accordance with international law it would not be up to me to examine these, but it had already happened before by higher authorities. Furthermore, there was the additional fact that these very orders came from authorities which were the ones in charge of protecting these rights according to the Geneva Convention. Therefore, if I received such an order from the Reichsfuehrer of the SS who is the commanding officer of all prisoners of war, then any possible doubts anybody might have as to international legality of this order are eliminated since this order came from the very office which was in charge of protection, according to the Geneva Convention. The only regulations I had to stick to were those of the Articles of War which, as in every other military organization, contained the requirements of absolute obedience. In the German code, and I think it is the same in the American code, there is only one condition under which a subordinate may refuse to carry out an order issued to him -- when it is perfectly clear and obvious to him that carrying out this order would perpetrate an injustice.

(Circe-direct)

Now, where are your possibilities of determining what is good and what is evil? That is based upon the influences of education, religion and morals.

CAPTAIN VANCE: If it please the court, I have sat here very patiently for about a half hour but I think the accused is arguing his case at this time rather than testifying.

PRESIDENT: The court agrees with the prosecution and directs him to answer questions pertaining to the issue.

QUESTIONS BY MR. HAGUAN:

Q Major Girne, what is your opinion concerning the morality of these orders?

A I think I already have answered this question because if I am unable to see the illegality of this order then I must also say I think I act in a morally justifiable manner.

PRESIDENT: Court will recess for thirty minutes.

(Whereupon at 1800 hours the court recessed until 1830 hours.)

(Girne-direct)

(Thereupon the court reconvened at 1546 hours.)

PRESIDENT: Court will come to order.

PROSECUTION: May it please the court, let the record show that all the members of the court, all the members of the prosecution, all the members of the defense except Dr. Trost who is absent sick, all of the counsel the reporter and interpreter are present as back to 1942, and makes out

FRANZ GIRKE, an accused, called as a witness by the defense in his own behalf, having been previously sworn, resumed the stand and testified further through an interpreter as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION, continued

QUESTIONS BY DR. SEIDL: I object to what is the truth. He can testify as to Major Girke. I show [illegible] exhibit D-80 in evidence and ask you to look at it. I particularly call you attention to the paragraph at the end of page four. As you will notice that is an exhibit--a statement made by the accused Hellenbroich in this case. Hellenbroich said in that [illegible] that is.

Q Were you, yourself, ever interrogated concerning that paragraph to which I called your attention, yes or no? [illegible] you ever

A Yes.

Q When and where was that?

A That must have been here in Dachau in the first half of September, 1948. [illegible] you are charged with to be a part of a conspiracy.

Q Who interrogated you?

A An American interrogated me--Dr. Coates, who has already been interrogated here on the witness stand. [illegible] to do the work set forth in

Q Did he ask you anything concerning the paragraph, yes or no?

A I said something to him about it. [illegible] that that question calls

Q What did you say to him? [illegible] the province of this court.

A I told him that I, as a superior of Major Hellenbroich, did not agree with his statements and that I requested to be particularly interrogated concerning this paragraph.

Q Were you so interrogated?

A Yes or no.

Q What is wrong with the substance of that paragraph?

A The effect created by this impression is to the effect that Major Hollenbreich connects up all orders, I think it goes back to 1942, and makes out of them a structure with the apparent purpose of invalidating and making useless the provisions of the Geneva Conventions. [illegible] you about Hollenbreich. Q [illegible] that is the truth? [illegible] that correct?

A CAPTAIN VANCE: How we object to what is the truth. He can testify as to whether he agrees with Hollenbreich or not but not ask him if it is the truth. No, because we don't know what that means this point in my case.

Q PRESIDENT: Objection sustained. I wanted to tell Mr. Coates that you have Q Do you agree with what the Defendant Hollenbreich said in that paragraph? Yes. Yes. There are statements which I wanted to make to Mr. Coates

A I have to contradict it in every point.

Q You have read charge one of the charge sheet have you until it to the [illegible]

A Yes.

Q Do you understand it?

A Yes. It gives you an opportunity to tell them

Q In that charge one you are charged with being part of a conspiracy, is that correct? charge of a conspiracy and during the whole time I have been

A Yes. any statements or in conference, that is about the part of

Q Were you ever part of a conspiracy to do the acts set forth in charge one? I am [illegible] I will give you an opportunity to explain it

CAPTAIN VANCE: We object on the ground that that question calls for a conclusion of law and invades the province of this court.

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled. [illegible] law in Europe, you took [illegible] (Circumstances) [illegible] qualified to be a [illegible] in 1943, is that right?

A Yes.

(Testimony)

QUESTIONS BY MR. RACHAEL: [illegible] a commissioned judge or a civil judge?

Q Are our military [illegible] are parts of the legal system--are they?

MR. RACHAEL: Your witness. [illegible] a German court?

A As Deputy Public [illegible]

CROSS EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANDER[illegible] prosecuting criminal cases?

Q You say that you asked Mr. Coates to reinterrogate you about Hollenbroich's statement, is that correct? [illegible] to testify against the accused?

A Yes.

Q And he did not reinterrogate you? [illegible] work [illegible] that already?

A No, because he said that that wasn't the point in my case.

Q Now, is there anything that you wanted to tell Mr. Coates that you haven't already told this court here today? Is that correct?

A Yes. Yes. Those statements which I wanted to make to Dr. Coates at that time I have not made today as yet, [illegible] who took charge and ran it.

Q Did you tell your lawyer you wanted to make those statements to the court? [illegible] that was the [illegible] of Major Hollenbroich.

A I think I did. [illegible] about being ordered by [illegible]

Q Has he given you an opportunity to tell them? [illegible] exactly what you want to tell them?

A Also I hope I shall have this opportunity yet, because this fact is connected to this charge of a conspiracy and during the whole time I have been in solitary confinement or in confinement, that is since the first of April, I have never been asked about these questions which I am thinking of. Therefore, I am quite sure the court will give me an opportunity to defend myself also with regard to charge one, or to answer questions about it.

Q I think they will also, sir, officer.

I believe that you said you studied law in Berlin, you took your two examinations and qualified to be a judge in 1939, is that right?

A Yes. [illegible] examined.

(Cross-cross)

Q Did you qualify to be a criminal judge or a civil judge? It was

A In the German educational system both are parts of the legal system are contained. What had transpired at that meeting?

Q Did you ever act as a judge in a German court?

A As Deputy Public Prosecutor, the first time you know that you had

Q In that capacity did you prosecute criminal cases?

A Yes. It was the time when Major Hollenbreich reported to me that

Q In trying those cases did you produce witnesses to testify against the accused that there was a breakdown a liaison of the apparatus. By

A The criminal police doing the preliminary work did that already and those witnesses were examined in court.

Q You were chief of the Gestapo at Darmstadt and Bensheim from June 1942 until the time you moved out of Bensheim, is that correct?

A Yes. Hollenbreich, did, in fact, present me with the arrest report

Q that you were away from your headquarters she took charge and ran it in your absence and his flyer had been a low flying aircraft circled

A There was the chief of Department four, Major Hollenbreich.

Q You have heard Major Hollenbreich testify about being ordered by Colonel Ramsay to come to Darmstadt and you have heard him testify what took place at that meeting. When Hollenbreich came back did he report that information to you? receive this instruction from Hollenbreich?you then called

A He reported to me that he had been at Colonel Ramsay's place and that the so-called non-interference order to the police had been conveyed there.

Q Did he tell you that other matters were taken up at that meeting?

A I don't recall any details but I do consider Major Hollenbreich absolutely reliable and truthful an officer existing we had to investigate

MR. MACHAN: I ask that that last be stricken from the record as not responsive.

PRESIDENT: Motion sustained.

(Cross-cross)

Q How will you see if you can answer my question? I think it can be answered yes or no. When Hellenbroich came back from Homann's meeting first did he tell you what had transpired at that meeting? [illegible]

A Yes, we [illegible] this matter.

Q On February 15, 1945 when is the first time you knew that you had an American prisoner in your headquarters? [illegible]

A That was at the time when Major Hellenbroich reported to me that a flyer was down in the guardroom who had been brought in by the Home Police and that there was a parachute a lifebelt and some apparatus. My impression was that by that he meant Radio apparatus. They also said that certain coded matter was there with the flyer. [illegible]

Q Did Major Hellenbroich also tell you that this man was a "terror flyer"? [illegible]

A Major Hellenbroich, did, in fact, present me with the arrest report of the Rural Police and this report made it clear that according to the regular term then used this flyer had been a low flying airman--a so-called "terror flyer". [illegible]

Q You had no knowledge of this until Hellenbroich came and told you about it did you? [illegible]

A I don't think I did.

Q After you received this information from Hellenbroich you then called up Dr. Trummler, is that correct? [illegible]

A No, I then instructed Major Hellenbroich to clear up this matter with the objects turned in--this lifebelt and parachute and apparatus.

Q What do you mean, "clear up the matter."?

A In accordance with regulations then existing we had to investigate any case of communication with the enemy by means of these radio apparatus and for counter intelligence purposes.

Q After that did you call Dr. Trummler?

(Girbs-cross)

A Then later, when Major Hellenbreich reported to me that this radio equipment and the lifebelt and so forth had nothing at all to do with the flyer and had been turned over to us at the same time purely by accident I told him he would hear more about the matter. Major Hellenbreich had already been over. This

Q Then did you call Dr. Trummler's attention to it?

A Then I did call Dr. Trummler--that is before the time that I issued the order to shoot to Hellenbreich and Stattmann.

Q What did you call Dr. Trummler for? [illegible] in connection with this flyer?

A I think I have already explained this once. In the first place because I wished to inform my direct superior, Dr. Trummler, that my office had just received the first "terror flyer". Furthermore, because I wished to find out whether this severe order which, after all, had been given me towards the end of September or the beginning of October, 1944, was still in existence. Furthermore some matters which had nothing at all to do with this flyer were discussed in the course of that telephone conversation, mostly they were matters concerning personnel or administration. [illegible] in our custody.

Q You knew what to do with the flyer without calling Dr. Trummler, didn't you? [illegible] We had no [illegible] flyer in our custody.

A I did know this order of September or October, 1944 to the effect that such flyers were to be shot.

Q I believe on direct examination you said, "I called Dr. Trummler because this was the first flyer we had had since he had taken command.", is that right?

A Yes, and that is also identical with the explanations I have just now given. [illegible] part of the direct [illegible] former?

Q If this was the first one you had since he was in command you mean you had other flyers since before Dr. Trummler took command, is that right?

A That isn't saying that.

(Cross-exam)

Q Well I will ask you: Was this the first flyer you had ever had in your custody?

A Yes. This flyer of the 15th or 20th of February, and I remember this date exactly because the incident of Major Link had already been over. This flyer was the first one the Gestapo in Darmstadt had in its custody. The Gestapo Darmstadt-Bensheim. In Darmstadt until it was bombed out and then it's Bensheim. Those two offices were identicals.

Q Do you remember when the headquarters were bombed out in Darmstadt on the 12th of September?

A Yes. I remember it very well.

Q Tell this court whether or not you had some American flyers in your headquarters at that time?

A This attack on Darmstadt took place at about 2330 hours on the 12th of September. Up to that time we had no American flyers in our custody and since, in the course of this attack, the whole office was completely destroyed all the way down to the cellar we never had any American flyer in our custody.

Q Did you say you did or did not have?

A No, we didn't. We had no American flyer in our custody.

Q Did you have any time during that day of September, 1944?

A No special answer to this.

Q You are just as sure of that as anything you tell this court are you?

A Yes.

Q I understand you to say that in 1945 you saw an order stating that the Gestapo was part of the German armed forces?

A Part of the armed forces of the German Reich.

Q Where did you see this order?

A At the State Police.

(Cirbo-cross)

Q Whereabouts?

A In Graz?

Q Who issued this order?

A That was a General order of the Reich Main Security office. Office number one in charge of organization.

Q Is that the same time you said that Geneva was notified about this fact?

A What was committed in that order, then later on in July, 1944 I asked about it again in Darmstadt and I remember that positively where I cited a special case in order to get the matter clarified.

Q There is no question in your mind about this proposition about Geneva being notified?

A According to my documents and to my knowledge there is none. The documents, I mean the set of orders--I don't have any now.

Q You are just as positive of that fact as you are of any other fact you have testified to before this court?

A That in July, 1944 we received instructions that we are part of the armed forces, I am, because this regulation of the fall of 1944 was a general order issued to all offices, whereas in 1944 I cited a special case and received a special answer to that.

Q When did you get your SS paybook?

A I had an SS paybook already at the time I started my work in Darmstadt and upon arriving there I received another one with a serial number of the Darmstadt office.

Q When did the other Gestapo agents receive there SS paybooks?

A Partly before this air attack on the 11th of September--during this air attack a large number of blank books were destroyed and the others them received theirs later on in October in Bensheim after a new batch came in.

Some of them didn't get them until after you moved to Bensheim, is that correct?

A Yes.

Q So you were taken into the army in 1943 and some of them got their identification after September 1944, is that right?

A In my opinion this question has not been phrased in a precise manner. The Secret Police in particular became incorporated into the German armed forces as a body and the issuance of pay books or identification tags had only a passing importance in comparison to that. That depended upon conditions of delivery and the presence of these supplies in higher headquarters.

Q Now, let's back up and see if you can answer my question. I didn't ask you about all this. You didn't like the way I asked it so I will ask it again. Some of the members of your force did not get these books until after you had moved from Darmstadt on 12 September over to Bensheim, is that correct?

A Some of them didn't have them yet.

Q And some of them didn't get them until about the 15th of March 1945, is that correct?

A No, that is not correct. All men had pay books or service records after the 1st of December 1944.

Q I realize they had them but did they have the Waffen SS pay books?

A Yes, we had the pay books of the SS, that means of the Waffen SS, because the Allgemeine SS didn't have any pay books.

Q These books that you issued to eight of your men on or about the 15th of March 1945 -- what changes were made from the books they had to the new books?

A In the new books which were issued, was the coded units, that is, the headquarters of the SS replacement, Kemks did not appear and in its place the unit belonged to the APO 07854. The same limitations which I put on that number before I put on it now -- the last two numbers might be 84 or 48.

(Girke-cross)

Q Did they mention these men were members of the Gestapo or not?

A That wasn't permitted to be there.

Q What else was fictitious about these books?

MR. BACHER: If it please the court, I object to that question on the characterization.

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

THE WITNESS: Everything that had any bearing as to membership in the Gestapo was fictitious. That only applied to some of the comrades whose rank was that of a criminal secretary because had that been in there it would have been obvious to enemy counter intelligence that this combination of criminal secretary and Waffen SS indicated Gestapo membership.

Q Do you know of anything else that was fictitious about these papers?

A By fictitious we mean counterfeit, forged?

Q Yes, untrue.

A Untrue. Everything else was correct. I remember my own pay book. In it it said Regierungsrat, Government Counsellor, which was my civilian title, which did not indicate I was a member of the Gestapo.

Q When and where, Girke, were you captured by the Americans?

A I was captured under my right name and with my correct papers and surrendered as an unarmed German soldier in the Tyrol on the 8th of May in St. Ulrich by the Rainbow Division, parachute division.

Q Girke, don't you know you were under an assumed name and had assumed papers on you?

(Girke-cross)

A Never in my whole life did I have an assumed name or assumed papers. You can check up on that because I was in Camp Messburg ever since the 21st of July.

Q Will you give me the correct spelling of your name, Girke?

A G - i - r - k - e.

Q On the 24th of March you didn't know anything about the two American soldiers on that occasion until Hellenbreich reported it to you?

A No.

Q I believe you testified that Hellenbreich said they had two Americans who were definitely terror fliers, is that correct?

A Hellenbreich, as he showed me the record of the interrogation together with the conclusion of this intelligence officer of the anti-aircraft unit --

Q Well, did he tell you that two Americans are definitely terror fliers, yes or no?

A If I am to answer this question, yes, without giving an explanation to it, I cannot give you this answer, yes, because Hellenbreich's opinion as to that matter can be gathered from the signature "Major" on that record. In other words, Hellenbreich told me that these men were terror fliers, as you can see from this report.

Q Did you go to see the fliers?

A No, I didn't have time to do that because I was in constant communication with the combat commander, being the last armed outfit in Bensheim.

Q You left it to Major Hellenbreich to make these determinations for you?

A In this case of the 21st of March?

Q Yes.

(Girke-cross)

A There were no determinations which needed to be made because a complete report was available and, furthermore, since Hellenbroich was a staff officer and in charge of the executive, the State Police Dept. of my office, all he had to do in my opinion was to determine whether these men who were turned over to us were identical with the ones mentioned in the report.

Q In that way, as I said, you left it to him to make this decision. You didn't make it yourself?

A There was no decision that needed making. All we had to do was to take him over and they were according to the description of the Air Corps terror fliers. All we had to do was establish the identity. In this report, over the signature of this Major, it said expressly the Air Corps had not put these men into the status of prisoners of war, they having been terror fliers, but rather were turning them over to us to act in accordance with our orders.

Q So all you had to do was establish their identity?

A Yes.

Q Well, who were these two men you had executed?

A I don't know the names. I didn't even see these fliers.

Q How long from the time Hellenbroich came and told you he had two terror fliers was it that you said, "execute them"?

A As I have already testified today, I was in a hurry and in a hallway where Hellenbroich approached me I told him, "What is the idea of asking questions. You know what the orders are."

Q So it was a matter of just a few seconds, was it?

A Seconds is an exaggeration because in addition, Hellenbroich made a report to me about his reconnaissance mission.

Q You ordered the two men killed, did you?

A Yes.

Q And you gave that order to Hellenbreich?

A Yes, as an answer to his question I said, "What do you mean asking silly questions. You know what the orders are. The fliers are to be shot."

Q You were asked if your conscience bothered you any about this killing. Did you say, no?

A I don't get the question.

Q You remember your lawyer asking you if your consedence bothered you any about these killings, don't you?

A Well, I think if I remember correctly my lawyer asked me whether I considered the order a legal one, a moral one.

Q I am talking about your conscience, did it bother you?

A None of my work ever caused me any pangs of conscience. If it did I wouldn't have done the work.

Q Well, by the time these two killings took place on March 24th you had become hardened by that time?

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I pray the court's judgment.

PRESIDENT: Will you repeat the question, please.

(Whereupon the reporter read the last question.)

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I think he has gone far enough with that line of questioning.

PRESIDENT: Objection sustained.

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q Well, let me ask you if your conscience ever bothered you after you had had this first man executed in February?

DEFENSE COUNSEL: He has answered that question, may it please the court, by saying that none of his work ever bothered his consciences.

THE WITNESS: No.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: We are just taking up the time of the court.

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q Now, Major Girke, I believe you testified that if you had not carried out the order to kill the Jews that you thought you would suffer some kind of punishment, is that correct?

A Yes.

Q I want to ask you this question: Did you execute these Jews because you feared that you yourself would be punished if you didn't, or did you execute these Jews because you saw nothing wrong with it?

A I had these Jews executed on account of the orders I had received. I had no fear of punishment. After all, I considered the order a legal one so why should I have moral scruples? Why should I fail to carry out the order and subject myself to punishment?

Q Did your ever have a Gestapo man working for you by the name of Wagner, Adolf, in Darmstadt?

A Adolf Wagner? Not in Darmstadt. He was Kommissar in Hanau.

Q Was he a subordinate, an employee of yours?

A Until January, until this last phase in the development of the Security Police in our area he was a subordinate of mine.

Q What about a man named Schultz, was he a subordinate and did he work for you?

A Schultz at first was in my branch office in Mainz. He was later transferred to Hanau and worked under Wagner.

CAPTAIN VANCE: Nothing further.

(Girke-cross)

REDIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY MR. RACHAEL:

Q Major Cirke, what statements did you want to make to Dr. Coates concerning your defense of Charge II?

A I didn't want to tell Mr. Coates anything about Charge II because I had no idea I'd be charged with a conspiracy in December. I didn't get the charge sheet until the 14th of December, about the 16th of December. But I think that the impression of Major Hellenbroich, citing all these orders beginning 1942 in a row, as if in a chain, gives you the impression that the Security Police started as early as 1942 systematically with orders that climaxed finally in this shooting order in 1944, particularly for the reason that Hellenbroich mentions, the fact that work was done systematically to invalidate the clauses of the Geneva Convention protecting prisoners of war. For that reason I assume that this might be a proof in favor of the conspiracy, and therefore, I must decidedly object to this statement which Hellenbroich made for perhaps his personal reasons, be used as a ground for proving conspiracy against all the other accused.

MR. RACHAEL: That is all. Any further questions?

RECROSS EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q Do you object to Hellenbroich stating what he thinks is the truth?

A The testimony of the witness Coates alone shows that this was not the intent of Hellenbroich when he made the statement as it appeared and the way it was reduced in writing. In fact, the testimony of Coates showed that these were his own opinions.

(Cirke-redirect,recross)

Ta 218 80
pel/8

CAPTAIN VANCE: I am going to object to his arguing the case instead of answering the question.

THE WITNESS: I think this is the only place and it is going to be the only place I will be able to defend myself against this conspiracy. Conspiracy, after all, is a mental concept rather than a criminal concept.

CAPTAIN VANCE: I am going to object if he keeps rambling. If he wants to say something he should tell it to his counsel. Do you remember my question?

PRESIDENT: Instruct the witness to answer the question. Do you remember the question?

THE WITNESS: If I remember correctly, you said, "Do you deny what Mellenbroich said?"

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q That wasn't the question. I asked you if you objected to Mellenbroich telling what he thought was the truth?

A I have no way of objecting to that.

CAPTAIN VANCE: That is all.

MR. RACHAEL: Any questions by members of the court?

EXAMINATION BY THE COURT

QUESTIONS BY THE PRESIDENT:

Q On direct examination did I understand you to say that during February and March Darmstadt was a combat area?

A I don't think we mentioned Darmstadt, we were talking about Bensheim. Darmstadt was finally captured on March 25th and on the 24th of March, the day of the evacuation, Darmstadt had been overrun from the west on the Autobahn so that we in Bensheim were in the immediate operational area on the 24th. The position of the enemy was six kilometers on the north and west.

(Girke-court)

PRESIDENT: That is enough. No further questions by the court. The witness is excused and will take his place in the dock.

(Whereupon the witness was excused and resumed his place in the dock.)

MR. RACHAEL: If it please the court, that concludes the evidence on Charge X with the exception of the opportunity for the defense to offer in evidence a statement which is being translated.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: We are prepared to go into Charge VII if the court wants to hear it. I can make a statement with respect to what the evidence is we expect to offer but I can save that.

LAW MEMBER: How long will that take?

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Two minutes.

PRESIDENT: We will have the statement now.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: The evidence which will be adduced, may it please the court, will show that any shooting in Charge VII was executed by Moller as the evidence of the prosecution indicated. A divergence of testimony will come out to show who gave the order to Moller which he relied upon. There will be some evidence that Eichel gave the order. Moller will claim he got it from Eichel. Moller will also claim he got something by way of an order from Albrecht. Our evidence will show that as far as knowledge of the case and participation in it are concerned, Goehrendt had practically nothing to do with the exception that he was asked to go along and he went along.

PRESIDENT: With reference to the request for two days recess, the request is granted. The court will now adjourn until February 26th, that is, Wednesday morning, at 9:00 o'clock.

(Whereupon the court at 1700 hours adjourned until 0900, 26 February 1947.)

Legal Form No. 8

MILITARY GOVERNMENT COURT
MILITÄRGERICHT

CHARGE SHEET
ANKLAGESCHRIFT

Place .....
Ort

Date .....
Datum

Name of accused .....
Name des Angeklagten

is hereby charged with the following offences:
wird hiermit wegen der folgenden strafbaren Handlungen angeklagt:

First Charge: ..... Erste Anklage: .....

.....

.....

.....

Particulars: ..... Einzelheiten: .....

.....

.....

.....

Second Charge: ..... Zweite Anklage: .....

.....

.....

.....

Particulars: ..... Einzelheiten: .....

.....

.....

.....

.....

The above charges are referred for trial to the *Summary *Intermediate Military Court to be held *General

Die Verhandlung wird vor dem *Einfachen *Mittleren Militärgerichte *Oberen

at ..... on ..... 194.....
in (Address of Court) am
(Anschrift des Gerichtes)

at .....
um Uhr stattfinden. By Order
Im Auftrage von

.....

*Strike out words not applicable.
*Nichtzutreffendes ist durchzustreichen.

(Signature of person preferring charges)
(Unterschrift des Vertreters der Anklagebehörde)

Copy of above served on accused ..... 194.....
Abschrift dem Angeklagten zugestellt am

.....

(Signature of person making service)
(Unterschrift des Zustellers)

CA/GI 13 Legal Form No. 8

MILITARY GOVERNMENT COURT

CASE RECORD.

Pages 1477 - 1561

(23)

Case No. Superior Orders

*~~Summary~~
*~~Intermediate~~ Military Court.
*General

Place DACHAU, GERMANY

Date 26 FEBRUARY 194 7

Prosecutor Lt. Col. Dwinell

Defence Counsel Lt. Col. Berman
Rudolf M. Nathanson

Interpreter Herbert B. Rosenstock

Reporter Patricia Stewart, Imogene Butler, Paula Silverman, Peter DiCurti

~~Members of Court:~~

WITNESSES:

HERMANN MOLLER
WILHELM ALBRECHT
WILHELM GOEHRENDT

Accused JURGEN STROOP, et al

Address Sex Age

	First Charge	Second Charge
Pleas
Findings
Previous Convictions

Sentence
- Imprisonment
  - Term
  - Beginning 194
- Fine
  - Amount
  - To be paid before 194 or in case of default of payment to serve a *further term of imprisonment.

Charge Sheet and Record of Testimony are annexed hereto.

(Signature of member of court.)

REVIEW

Action of Reviewing Authority

(Signature of reviewing authority)

*Strike out words not applicable.

RECORD OF TESTIMONY

in trial of

THE UNITED STATES versus JUROEN STROOP, et al

by

GENERAL MILITARY GOVERNMENT COURT

tried at

DACHAU, GERMANY BEGINNING 10 JANUARY 1947

26 FEBRUARY 1947 Pages 1477 - 1561

TESTIMONY

WITNESSES	Direct	Cross	Redirect	Recross
HERMANN MOLLER	1477	1510
WILHELM ALBRECHT	1511	1534
WILHELM GOEHRENDT	1550

EXHIBITS

None

Camp Dachau, Germany

26 February 1947

MORNING SESSION

(Whereupon the Court reconvened at 0900 hours.)

PRESIDENT: The Court will come to order.

PROSECUTION: May it please the Court, let the record show that all members of the Court except Colonel Ackerman, who is absent sick, all the members of the Prosecution, all the members of the Defense, except Dr. Troet, who is absent sick, all the accused, the reporter and interpreter are present.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: The Defense had made its opening statement on Charge 7 at the end of the recess, may it please the Court, and will now call as its first witness the Accused Moller. The Accused desires to be sworn.

PRESIDENT: Do you desire to be sworn?

ACCUSED: I ask to be.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: The witness will be examined by Dr. Buerger.

HERMANN MOLLER, an Accused, voluntarily took the stand in his own behalf, and having been first duly sworn, testified through an interpreter as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY DR. BUERGER:

Q State your full name.

A Hermann Ludwig Friedrich Moller.

Q Are you married or single?

A I am married.

Q Do you have any children?

A Yes, one boy, four years old.

Q How old are you?

A 45 years old.

Q What is your civilian profession?

A Clerical assistant.

Q Were you a member of the Party?

A Yes.

Q Since when?

A 1 May 1937.

Q Were you a member of the Leadership Corps of the Party?

A No.

Q Were you a member of the SS?

A No.

Q A member of the SD or Gestapo?

A No.

Q Did you belong to the Police?

A Yes.

Q From when until when?

A In November 1940 I was inducted into the reserve police of Offenbach on the Main in accordance with regulations.

Q Did you remain with the police until the end of the war?

A Yes.

Q Did you always remain a reserve policeman?

A No.

Q Did you become a regular policeman?

A Yes.

Q When?

A In June 1943.

Q What was your highest rank in the Party, in the police I mean.

A Technical Sergeant of the Protective Police.

Q What was the location of your office?

A Fifth District of Offenbach on the Main, Hieber.

Q Between January, 1945, and the end of the war, who was your immediate superior?

A First Lieutenant of the Protective Police, Albrecht.

Q Who was your next highest superior?

A Commanding Officer of the Protective Police, Kohlenbeck.

Q And further on up, who was your superior?

A Police Director Eichel of Offenbach on the Main.

Q Do you know Eichel?

A I had seen him two or three times.

Q Do you still remember the 21st of February, 1945?

A The way I remember, it was the 22nd of February, 1945.

Q What happened on 22 February, 1945?

A The incident concerning the flier.

Q Will you please speak louder?

A Yes.

Q What kind of an incident with the flier are you talking about?

A About 1300 hours, a civilian turned in a parachuted flier at the Police District Headquarters, Offenbach, Hieber.

Q How did you know it was an American flier?

A You could find that out from his identification papers.

Q Who was present at the Police Station when the flier was turned in there at 1300 hours, if you remember.

A The officials on duty at that particular time.

Q How many officers were there?

A 15 or 16 [illegible]

Q Were you yourself present there, too, when the flier was brought in? [illegible]

A At that instant I was in the air raid cellar of the Police Headquarters.

Q Do you know what happened to the flier after he was turned in to the Police Station at Hieber?

A His things were taken away from him.

Q What things, if you remember? [illegible]

A A map of Germany, an emergency ration, two packages of cigarettes, a lighter--I don't remember anything else.

Q Was the flier interrogated in any way?

A No. [illegible]

Q Then what was done to the flier after he had been searched and the things taken away from him?

A After the search, the flier was permitted to sit down. He asked for water, which he did get, and then he asked for permission to smoke. That also was granted.

Q Then was anybody notified for the flier to be picked up or was anything else done? [illegible]

A Police Director Michel was notified by telephone.

Q How do you know that?

A The way I remember it, I myself put in the call.

Q Were you in charge of the telephone at that time?

A No. [illegible]

Q Did they reach Police Director Michel by means of that phone call, if you know?

A I can't say, but at any rate he arrived in the car about 20 minutes later.

A 15 or 16.

Q Were you yourself present there, too, when the flier was brought in?

A At that instant I was in the air raid cellar of the Police Headquarters.

Q Do you know what happened to the flier after he was turned in to the Police Station at Minden?

A His things were taken away from him.

Q What things, if you remember?

A A map of Germany, an emergency ration, two packages of cigarettes, a lighter--I don't remember anything else.

Q Was the flier interrogated in any way?

A No.

Q Then what was done to the flier after he had been searched and the things taken away from him?

A After the search, the flier was permitted to sit down. He asked for water, which he did get, and then he asked for permission to smoke. That also was granted.

Q Then was anybody notified for the flier to be picked up or was anything else done?

A Police Director Michel was notified by telephone.

Q How do you know that?

A The way I remember it, I myself put in the call.

Q Were you in charge of the telephone at that time?

A No.

Q Did they reach Police Director Michel by means of that phone call, if you know?

A I can't say, but at any rate he arrived in the car about 20 minutes later.

Q Now what happened after Police Director Michel had arrived at the Police Station?

A Police Director Michel showed up—so did the Protective Police Captain Kiwitt, and the area commander of the Hitler Youth, Brandt.

Q In all these three men walk into the Police Station, or where did they keep themselves?

A All three walked into the Police Station.

Q Now, as these three men entered the guard room or the Police Station, what happened?

A Police Director Michel yelled, "You cowards, you ought to have your faces all beaten up," or, "What's the idea of having this flier still alive" and told him to get up, and he was not permitted to sit down any more.

Q Then what happened later?

A Police Director Michel, Captain of the Protective Police Kiwitt, Police Lieutenant Albrecht and Area Commander Brandt went into the Police Room.

Q What do you mean by the "Police Room"?

A That was the office of the Police District Commander.

Q Do you know what happened in that office?

A No.

Q Describe briefly to the Court what happened next.

A The door opened. I don't know who came back first, but the way I remember it was Kiwitt, and Police Director Michel also came out, and he said, "Who will volunteer to shoot this flier?"

Q Where were you at that time?

A In the Police Station.

Q Upon that, did anybody volunteer?

A Nobody volunteered; most of them left.

Q What do you mean--"left"?

A They moved into another room.

Q And what happened then?

A Police Director Eichel nodded his head to me, indicating I was to come along with him.

Q Did you then take off with Police Director Eichel?

A Yes.

Q Where to?

A Into the Police Headquarters.

Q Were you in the office of the District Commander of the Police with Director Eichel all alone?

A- Yes.

Q Now what was said upon that occasion?

A Police Director Eichel asked for my name. He asked whether I was a reserve man or a regular. I answered "regular". He told me, "I am giving you, as a regular policeman, the order to shoot this flier."

Q Did you reply anything?

A I said, "I can't do that."

Q What did the Police Director tell you then?

A "Then you will be court-martialled and you know what will happen to you."

Q Do you remember exactly that this was the way the incident occurred?

A That's the way I remember it.

Q Upon that, what did you do?

A I went out to the waiting room. Shortly after that, Police Lieutenant Albrecht came out, went over into his room and called me in.

Q Then were you alone with Albrecht in his room?

A Yes.

Q Continue.

A District Commander Albrecht then told me, "You know what the Police Director's orders are. I will send Como along with you and I will come along, too."

Q Then what did you do?

A He then said, "You and Como will take your carbines along and five rounds each and a steel helmet."

Q Who told you that--to take the carbine and ammunition and so on along?

A Police Lieutenant Albrecht.

Q Continue.

A I went down to the cellar and picked up the carbine. I got ready, put on my pistol belt; and I wasn't even ready yet as Police Lieutenant Albrecht came up the stairs and said, "Why are you people hiding out? Let's go."

Q Where was the flier at that time?

A I can't say that exactly, but when Como and I came out the flier was standing out in the yard.

Q And where was Police Director Aichel and the people accompanying him?

A They were standing in the vicinity of the car.

Q Continue with your story.

A I received the flier and walked out the gate with him.

Q Who did you receive the flier from?

A From nobody,really, He was standing out there in the yard, just like that.

Q Were any civilians around?

A They were standing around the car in the street.

Q Continue.

A The flier, Como and I went on out. Lieutenant Albrecht told me, "You will be going along Rebstock Strasse and Hamburg Strasse, and the path through the fields."

Q Were you told any destination to go to?

A No, that's all that was said.

Q Where did this path go to?

A That went towards the woods.

Q Did this path go towards Offenbach past the woods or did it not?

A It went to Offenbach as well.

Q Did you go along that path then?

A Yes.

Q Who was with you?

A Well, I will have to start with the time I left the door.

Q Tell the Court about it.

A We went out the door, and that's where I heard Police Director Eichel yell, "These are the murderers who will kill your wives and children and bomb your apartments." The flier was walking ahead of me and Como was behind me; and about a hundred meters down Rebstock Strasse I turned around. As I turned around, I saw the Police Sergeant Goehrendt, together with Lt. Albrecht.

Q Had you seen Goehrendt before this time?

A Only in the morning.

Q Did you see him during those incidents at the Police Station?

A No.

Q Continue.

A We went along Robstock Strasse, Hamburg Strasse and the field path.

Q Did the civilians follow you, or did you go along by yourself with the flier and the other officers?

A I didn't see anybody.

Q Continue.

A Starting from this path through the field, I went into the woods with the flier. There the path is cut into the ground, leaving from there; and I went into that path with the flier; and as we had walked a piece down that path, Goehrendt suddenly called, "Moller, where in the world are you going? Turn right."

Q Where would this path that was cut into the ground have taken you?

A That would have taken us to a settlement of the town of Offenbach.

Q Did you then follow this challenge or these instructions or orders to turn right?

A I turned right right away and went up the embankment of this path with the flier.

Q Continue, please.

A After I had walked into the woods about 20 meters with the flier, there were some bushes; and the thought flashed through my head at that time, "This is where you have to do your shooting." I fired.

Q How many times did you fire?

A. Twice.

Q Did the flier fall down on account of the shots?

A. Yes.

Q Did you examine the flier to determine whether he was dead?

A. I had a look at the flier and determined that he wasn't showing any life.

Q Continue telling what happened.

A. Police Master Sergeant Cochendt and Lieutenant Albrecht came over to me and talked to me.

Q What were they talking to you about?

A. I I couldn't comprehend it and I couldn't give an answer. Come along." He said, "Take a bicycle; I've got one, too." Why? together rode over to the place where the pilot A. I was so excited, standing a few paces away from Q. All right, continue. at the pilot and said, A. Police Lieutenant Albrecht ordered Cole to remain standing next to the body." and turned it over to Q. What did you do? in his pocket. left together, A. I went back to the Police Station with Albrecht. Q. And what happened then? rode back to the Police A. On the way, Lieutenant Albrecht, Commander Albrecht, told me, "This man was shot while attempting to escape."

Q Did you make any comments on that?

A I wasn't able to talk.

Q Continue.

A He told me, "I am giving you a leave until tonight. After all, you wouldn't be able to do any work anyway." When we returned to the Police Station I got ready to go home, and before that I had given my carbine to a comrade and I had asked him to unload it and clean it, and since I was in no condition to go home yet, I spent some more time in the waiting room. After a while, suddenly you heard talk, "Where's Moller?" I came on out and saw an officer.

A. After [illegible]

Q Who was this officer?

A At that time I was of the opinion, of the conviction, that it was Captain of the Police Hivitt. And he asked me, "Has this order been carried out" and when I affirmed that, he said, "I want to make sure, myself. Come along." He said, "Take a bicycle; I've got one, too." We together rode over to the place where the pilot was lying. Camo was standing a few paces away from the body. The officer had a look at the pilot and said, "Look at that. He's still got a ring on. Take that off right away." I took his ring off and turned it over to the officer, and he put it in his pocket. We left together, and when we got to Hausenstammer Weg the officer rode off in the direction of Offenbach, and I rode back to the Police Station. I locked up my bicycle there, and I used my own bicycle to go home.

Q Did you go home?

A I rode home.

Q About what time was that?

A About 1430 hours.

Q Did you spend all afternoon at home then?

A Yes.

Q What else happened?

A After I had spent about two hours at home,

Police Master Sergeant Heberer came, and he gave me a report which had been written at the Police Station. I had to sign it because the Courts were told by the report stated that the flier had been shot while attempting to escape among them for insubordination, and an order?

Q Did you sign that report?

A Yes.

Q Why did you sign this report?

A The report had been written in the Police Station, and no report ever left the Police Station without the Police Station commander having seen it. For that reason I had no reason not to sign the report.

Q Was the substance of the report true?

A No.

Q Did you then return to the Police Station?

A In the evening I returned to the Police Station.

Q Did you hear anything else about this matter, or did you have anything done about this matter afterwards?

A No.

Q Do you know whether this report was sent over to anybody else and if so to whom?

A Well, the report was sent out.

Q Do you know who this officer was that arrived at noon time whom you took to the body?

A I found out now that it was the Police Captain Blum.

Q What punishment would you have made yourself subject to by a court-martial had you refused to carry out the order?

A I would have been shot.

Q How do you know that?

A In the course of the orientation lectures we had to attend weekly, the reports of the Police and SS Courts were read to us.

Q Were there any sentences among them for insubordination or for refusal to carry out an order?

A Yes.

Q Did you know of any orders about the treatment of shot down allied fliers?

A I would like to add something here. In the course of these orientations we were read a supplement which was sent to the Police Station in October, 1944, and that was also posted in the Police Station.

Q What was the contents of this supplement?

A That was a supplement to the regulations concerning the use of arms. It read as follows: "The superior officer is permitted to use his weapon or to make use of his weapon in order to enforce obedience or to give the proper emphasis to his orders."

Q Now, let's back up to my last question. Did you know of any regulation concerning the treatment of murder shot down or captured allied fliers?

A No.

Q Are you familiar with the "non-interference regulations"?

A I only found out about that in Camp Hersbruck.

Q Which of the accused did you know?

A Police Director Eichel, Captain of the Police of Kiwitt--I knew him by his name only--First Lieutenant of the Police Albrecht, and Master Sergeant of the Police

A Didn't Como leave together with you?

Goehrendt. Both of us left together.

Q You didn't know any of the other accused at that time?

A No.

Q With the exception of this one case of alleged issuance of orders, did you have any conversations or talk with any of these men concerning allied fliers?

A No, many times?

A DEFENSE COUNSEL: I was just thinking that if any of the other German attorneys want to cross-examine this witness they will do it now and then let the Prosecution have the witness. Dr. Rau wants to cross examine on behalf of Albrecht.

End ta file pe fols

QUESTIONS BY DR. RAU:

Q Where were you standing when Albrecht told you to pick up your carbine?

A Behind his desk in the office of the District Commander.

Q Who else was present?

A Nobody.

Q Did you leave right away, or did you wait a while?

A I left the office of the Police District Commander right away.

Q Do you know what kind of orders Como received?

A I told Como, "You are coming along."

Q You didn't answer my question. Do you know what kind of an order Como had?

A I don't know anything about any order to Como.

Q Didn't you talk to Como about what the purpose of your leaving was?

(Moller-Direct) A I had no chance to do that.

Director Kimmel.

[illegible] thank you.

MR. [illegible] I am examining [illegible] counsel in behalf of Kimmel.

DIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY MR. [illegible]:

Q Mr. Moller, are you having difficulty with your eyes?

A I wouldn't know.

Q Did you ever suffer at any previous time that time?

A I was ill, all right.

Q What was wrong with you?

A I [illegible] kidney disease.

Q I mean eliminate [illegible] with your eyes.

A I didn't have any.

Q Mr. Moller, please give us a brief description of the incidents as you saw them [illegible] Pearl Harbor.

Ta 215-pm (-2/26-)

Q Didn't Gsme leave together with you?

A Both of us left together.

Q Didn't you have a chance to talk to Gsme at that time? I can't say that because I didn't turn around at that time any more.

Q Now, then, at that time, [illegible] your superior officer would not accompany you on your way? Did Gsme accompany you on your way?

A Gsme was walking behind me, my way.

Q How many meters? did you tell to Albrecht about this

A 15 meters.

Q Why was he walking behind you? Do you know that?

A I don't know.

End ta 214, pm fols

A Police District Commander Albrecht said to that if he had known of this crime, he would have tried to prevent it.

Q What did you answer?

A I said that would have been impossible. I had the order from Q How far behind you was Albrecht?

A About 10 meters behind [illegible] first interrogated about this case?

Q And when you reached the woods, how far behind was Albrecht then?

A I can't say that because I didn't turn around at that time any more.

Q You did not, then, at that time, fear that your superior officer would use his weapon in case you didn't carry out the order, did you?

A I was just about to carry out the order any way.

Q After the end of the war, did you talk to Albrecht about this case in the PW Camp Hershey? I mean at that time?

A It is possible, [illegible] Police Director Knoll at that time, this was the [illegible] Yes, in it, the guy. If you hadn't been sent away [illegible]

A Police District Commander Albrecht told me that if he had known about this order, he would have tried to prevent it.

Q What did you answer?

A I said that would have been impossible. I had the order from Director Kichel. [illegible] didn't get the question.

DR. HAU: Thank you. [illegible] of Knoll on the 23rd of February, was my question.

DR. WACKER: I am examining the accused in behalf of Kichel.

He was a Tech. [illegible] DIRECT EXAMINATION of the Reserve.

QUESTIONS BY DR. WACKER:

Q Mr. Keller, are you having difficulty with your memory?

A Q I wouldn't know. [illegible] ing to do with your [illegible]

Q. Did you never suffer of any diseases along that line?

A Q I was ill, all right. [illegible]. His statement that he would have taken action [illegible] you hadn't been sent away.

Q What was wrong with you?

A A severe kidney disease. explaining himself.

Q I mean ailments in connection with your memory. Interrogation of Knoll's

A I didn't have any [illegible] to the two Police Director Knoll, and

Q Mr. Keller, please give us this description of the incidents as you gave it the first time you were interrogated.

[illegible]

(KELLER-Direct)

In Sache 4 Ks 2/64

A What interrogation are you talking about? We are going to object to this. The first one. Where were you first interrogated about this case?

MR. MILLER: That was in Offenbach on the Main, from the then Police Director Knoll.

MR. STOLLE: I have to ask this question to be permitted because I would like to know when that happened yet. Since murdered by Kaiser Wilhelm, I have to present to the court his various statements that year.

A MR. MILLER: Objection overruled.

Q And what did you tell Knoll at that interrogation?

A When I had to see Police Director Knoll at that time, this was the way he greeted me: "Here he is, the guy. If you hadn't been under the protection of Knoll's, I would have bumped you off long ago. Now I'll tell you, to the best of my recollection, something was said to the effect: If you hadn't been sent away the other day, I would have bumped you off."

Q What did he mean, "this other day?"

A 23rd of February.

Q What was Knoll's position on the 23rd of February?

MR. STOLLE: Mr. Miller, what I primarily want you to do is to describe to the court what sort of description you gave Knoll at that time.

A I didn't get the question.

Q What was the position of Knoll on the 23rd of February, was the description I gave was the same I have just now given my question.

Exactly the same description you have given now?

A He was a Techn. Sgt. of the Police, of the Reserve.

A As far as I remember, sgt.

Q Where?

Was this interrogation reduced to writing?

A At the Vehicle Platoon in Offenbach on the Main.

As I have already said, Police Director Knoll dictated it into a typewriter and I signed it later.

Q Did he have anything to do with your headquarters?

A No.

Was you confronted with this statement later on sometime?

Q Then how do you explain his statement that he would have taken action against you yourself if you hadn't been sent away?

Was this a later interrogation?

A He told me that without explaining himself.

I don't remember.

Q Please continue with your description of this interrogation of Knoll's where were you interrogated the next time.

A I described the incident to the then Police Director Knoll, and was then interrogated in Hersbruck.

He dictated it into a typewriter.

What was that?

(MILLER-direct)

Ta 215-po-80-2/26-3
Ta 215-po-80-2/26

CAPTAIN VANCE: May it please the court, we are going to object to this on the ground it is immaterial. I don't know who this person is he claims interrogated him, but I don't see where it fits into this trial.

DR. WACKER: I have to ask this question to be permitted because I shall demonstrate very soon that the descriptions rendered by Moller varied, and for that reason I have to present to the court his various statements, one by one.

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled. What interrogation?

DR. WACKER: I would like to have the question repeated.

(Whereupon the last question was read by the court reporter as follows:

"Q. Please continue with your description of this interrogation of Knoll's.")

THE WITNESS: To the best of my recollection, something was omitted during that interrogation.

QUESTIONS BY DR. WACKER:

Q Mr. Moller, what I primarily want you to do is to describe to the court what sort of description you gave Knoll at that time.

A Yes.

A The description I gave was the same I have just now given.

Q Exactly the same description you have given now?

A As far as I remember, yes.

Q Was this interrogation reduced to writing?

A As I have already said, Police Director Knoll dictated it into a typewriter and I signed it later.

Q Were you confronted with this statement later on sometime?

A Yes, over there at the police headquarters.

Q I mean, at a later interrogation?

A I don't remember.

Q Where were you interrogated the next time?

A I was then interrogated in Hersbruck.

Q When was that?

(MOLLER-Direct)

Is fd 235-po-80-6/26-4

A In 1945, not during the time when you had given a copy of

Q Which month? an officer as being the man who had issued the order?

A July or August.

Q Who were you interrogated by at that time? that Michel was dead?

A By Mr Albrecht. I never stopped at that Michel was supposed to have Q Do you know his name? but upon that, I may said, "That is quite impossible. A No, he is too much of a coward to do that."

Q What did you say in the course of that interrogation? report that given In the course of this interrogation, I also stated that I received this order at this time, and the occasion I heard it was when

Q Mr. Moller, did you give this same description of the incident that you gave the Court today, that you gave to Knoll at this other time?

you A As far as I remember, it was the same description. read the order Q By that, do you mean to tell the court that your description of the incident was exactly the same today in court and to Knoll and to this American in Nuernberg? ly impossible.

A Yes. Now do you explain the fact that at that time you said that Albrecht

Q Mr. Moller, did you not write in one interrogation in Nuernberg, that Albrecht had given you this order, and at that interrogation, didn't you mention Michel at all? Michel gave the order?

A I don't explain this. What I meant to say by it was that Albrecht told me, "You know that the order of the Police Director is," me this order Q Mr. Moller, is it not a fact that you did not use the name Michel at all during that interrogation in Nuernberg? questions. me, it pleases the Court A I don't know that any more. I don't have the interrogation in mind, my memory right now. But I can withdraw this question for the and ask

Q Mr. Moller, a while back you testified that you had a talk with Albrecht in Nuernberg?

A Yes. Moller, I will back you to the incidents in the nature relative to Stalag. You to me that at that time Michel, Kiwitt and an

Q Was that not during the time when you had given the name of Albrecht to this American officer as being the man who had issued the order?

A I wouldn't know. [illegible] before that.

Q Mr. Muller, at that time was there some talk that Eichel was dead?

A At one time, the rumor cropped up that Eichel was supposed to have committed suicide by shooting, but upon that, Fay said, "That is quite impossible. He is too much of a coward to do that." Captain Kiwitt.

Q Do you know that Eichel's wife actually received the report that Eichel was dead? [illegible]

A I heard about this here, and the occasion I heard it was when Police Director Eichel said so himself, said that you had been asked by [illegible] Q in Mrs. Muller, in the course of this conversation with Albrecht, or you had made this statement declaring him to be the man who issued the order. Was it not then that, "Eichel is now dead, so we will put the blame of issuing the order on him[illegible] to do something.

A That is entirely impossible, for a police director to say a [illegible]

Q Then how do you explain the fact that at that time you said that Albrecht was the man who issued the order, and that on the other hand, today, you say that at that time you said that Eichel had given the order and that you even today say that Eichel gave the order? [illegible] Nobody paid any attention I am not at all convinced that I ever said that.

DR. WACKER: I ask for a short recess in order to examine [illegible] this record. I heard a police [illegible] like yourself and tell him, "come on in," or [illegible]

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I could ask him a few questions, may it please the court, while he searches, and save time, unless the court wants to recess.

DR. WACKER: But I can withdraw this question for a while and ask it after recess and go on. [illegible] actually [illegible] you in this

QUESTIONS BY DR. WACKER:

Q Mr. Muller, I will back up now to the incidents in the police station in Mainz. You told us that at that time Eichel, Kiwitt and an officer of the Hitler Youth had shown up?

A That is what I said. I gave you any of the details concerning the Q How long had you known Kiwitt before that?

A I hadn't known him at all, only his name.

Q Didn't you say, in reply to a question of your defense counsel, that you had known Kiwitt? was said at all about any other orders I was supposed to? I said that I knew the name of the Police Captain Kiwitt.

Q So that was the first time you saw Kiwitt, that particular such a incident at the police station? of a person that these orders be given in an official manner, the way you have just described it?

Q Mr. Moller, later on you also said that you had been asked by Eichel into the police leader's office, and that that asking had been done by means of a nod, is that right? between the time in which you claim you were You can't really talk about asking here. It wasn't SOP for a superior officer to ask a subordinate to do something.

Q Well, is it SOP, Mr. Moller, for a police director to ask a subordinate to come into a room by nodding his head?

A That was possible at that time already. We didn't know anything.

Q What do you mean by saying that you didn't know anything?

A I mean by that we didn't count anything. Nobody paid any special attention to us.

Q Isn't it unusual for a police director to be particularly explicit in his orders toward a police sergeant like yourself and tell him, "come on in," or something like that? ly and clearly was then the thing was to be done.

A All I can do is confirm what I have said already, and insist on it.

Q Mr. Moller, please tell us one more time, verbatim, if possible, or what the substance of this order that Eichel allegedly gave you in this office was?

CAPTAIN WAGE: We object, on the ground it is repetitious.

PRESIDENT: Objection sustained.

(MOLLER-Direct)

Ta 215-pp-80-2/26-7

QUESTIONS BY DR. WACKER:

Q Mr. Muller, did Eichel give you any of the details concerning the execution of this order?

A No, [illegible] you inform him?

Q Who was supposed to give you these orders?

A No one. Nothing was said at all about any other orders I was supposed to receive.

Q Mr. Muller, is it common practice in cases of orders of such a serious nature involving a life of a person that these orders be given in an indefinite manner, the way you have just described it?

A I don't know what was common practice, but at any rate, that is the way it was in this particular case, [illegible].

Q How much time had elapsed between the time in which you claim you received an order from Eichel and the time you left the police station with the flier?

A Four minutes.

Q What did you do in those four minutes?

A In those four minutes, I talked to District Chief Albrecht and got ready.

Q Did you talk to Albrecht about how this order was to be carried out?

A No.

Q Was there any talk about how, when and where the flier was to be shot?

A The order very curtly and clearly was that the flier was to be shot.

Q And why didn't you take the flier out in the yard and shoot him?

A I can't shoot a flier in the yard with a hundred people looking on.

Q Didn't you ask Albrecht then how to carry out the order?

A No.

Q According to your description, Albrecht told you that he was sending Gems along with you, is that right?

Q Mr. Miller, I show you now Prosecution Exhibit Number 115, a photostatic copy of your statement made on the 25th of May, 1945 and I ask you now, did you make this statement and did you sign it with your mark?

A Yes.

Q Do you still remember the statement you made at that time or would you like to read it through once more?

A I ask for permission to read it once more.

PRESIDENT: Permission granted.

DR. [illegible]: I ask the record to show that the accused Miller read through the statement made on the 25th of May, 1945 marked as Exhibit Number 115.

Q Is it correct Mr. Miller that in your statement at that time you said, "In the meantime the Station Leader Allraunt said to the policemen who had assembled there on orders of the Police Inspector Hofel that this man had to be shot"?

(Miller-direct)

1469-A

A Yes.

Q Was Capa informed what was supposed to happen on the way?

A I don't know. I've told the court, in the record now that all the [illegible] Colonel Schwarzen, who is almost sick, all the prosecution, all the members of the defense except Dr. Fraenkel [illegible]

Q Why didn't you do that if Albrecht told you he was sending Capa along?

DR. BUSCHER: I object to this question. It is suggestive and the accused made a very definite statement about this on direct examination.

DR. WACKER: I withdraw the question. [illegible] are still under oath.

PRESIDENT: Court will recess for twenty minutes. [illegible] still unsworn, remain the stand are cautioned [illegible] through an interpreter as follows:

(Whereupon the court recessed at 1005 hours.)

CROSS EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY DR. WACKER:

(Thereupon at 1020 hours the court reconvened.)

PRESIDENT: The court will come to order.

PROSECUTION: May it please the court, let the record show that all the members of the court except Colonel Ackerman, who is absent sick, all members of the prosecution, all the members of the defense except Dr. Frost who is absent sick, all of the accused, the reporter and interpreter are present. I know the order of Police Director Fickel."

DEFENSE COUNSEL: The accused Moller will resume the stand, and I assume Dr. Wacker will continue with his cross examination, sir?

A PRESIDENT: The are reminded that you are still under oath.

HERMANN MOLLER, an accused, being reminded that he was still under oath, resumed the stand and testified further through an interpreter as follows:

A Well I said so but I am not convinced of it.

DIRECT EXAMINATION

Q But you signed it didn't you?

QUESTIONS BY DR. WACKER:

A I can explain this only through my sentiment.

Q Mr. Moller, I show you now Prosecutions Exhibit Number 116, a photostatic copy of your statement made on the 29th of May, 1945 and I ask you now, did you make this statement and did you sign it with your name?

A I said before in my testimony that sometime before I was arrested and therefore a P.S. had been added.

A Yes.

Q Do you still remember the statement you made at that time or would you like to read it through once more?

A Yes, I read this once.

A I ask for permission to read it once more.

PRESIDENT: Permission granted.

DR. WACKER: I wish the record to show that the accused Moller read through the statement made on the 29th of May, 1945--Prosecutions Exhibit Number 116.

Q Is it correct Mr. Moller that in your statement at that time you said, "In the meantime the Station Leader Albrecht said to the policemen who had assembled there on orders of the Police Director Fickel that this man had to be shot"?

A That is correct that I said so.

Q Is it also correct that in your testimony you said that it wasn't Kiwitt who had to be shot?

A That is correct that I said so.

Q How do you explain this difference in the statements?

A I mean Captain of the Order Police Kiwitt and Captain of the Order Police Blum who said by name.

A I can't explain this. That must be a mistake when it was dictated by Knoll--when he dictated it into the typewriter, through the [illegible] from Kiebel.

Q Mr. Moller, how do you explain this mistake since in this statement you don't say at all that you were called into the room by Kiebel?

A I intended to express by this that my immediate superior was the Station Leader Albrecht, First Lieutenant Albrecht. First Lieutenant Albrecht told me, "You know the Order of Police Director Kiebel, of a matter you met the [illegible]

Q Aren't you saying now, also, that Kiebel asked for volunteers whereas in your statement you said that Albrecht asked for volunteers?

A Yes, Police Director Kiebel asked the flyer and in the forest where [illegible]

Q Why did you say, at that time, that Albrecht asked? It came to

A Well I said so but I am not convinced of it.

Q But you signed it didn't Albrecht tell you that he was

A I can explain this only through my excitement.

Q Did you also read the P.S. to this statement? You [illegible] along the way

A I said before in my testimony that something had been forgotten and therefore a P.S. had been added. I obliged to sheet without Albrecht and without Q Mr. Moller, I asked you only whether you read through this P.S. too, a few minutes ago. I had the definite order to do so.

A Yes, I read this too. During your first interrogation that the flyer

Q Is it correct that there you stated that Kiwitt was the man with whom you went to the dead flyer by bicycle?

A That is correct that I said so. In my testimony at that time that Q Is it also correct that in your testimony you said that it wasn't Kiwitt? A [illegible] wasn't released.

A That is correct. Is it correct that during your first interrogation

Q How do you explain this difference in the persons involved?

A I know Captain of the Order Police Kiwitt and Captain of the Order Police Klum both only by name. I saw at these times and I had [illegible]

[illegible] Objection sustained.

On account of the great excitement I made this mistake.

[illegible] BY MR. MCCARN:

Q Mr. Moller, how long would it have taken through the forest from Isn't it true that Albrecht was interrogated at the same time when Sieber to Offenbach?
you were interrogated for the first time?

A You mean to the Police Headquarters?
I didn't know that.

Q Yes.
Let's go did you have any thoughts about the statement you made on

A One hour.
the [illegible] May, 1948?

Q On direct examination you testified that all of a sudden you got an.
the idea that here I have to shoot. Please explain in detail what it means
How is it possible that only much later you changed from the persons for you when all of a sudden it came to your mind?
and that to Sieber and Kiwitt to them?

A I had the definite order to shoot the flyer and in the forest there because I heard here that Blum had admitted that he was the one.
were, as I testified before, bushes, and there all of a sudden it came to Mr. Moller, it is easy to understand that you were excited on the my head, "Here you have to shoot."
[illegible] May, [illegible], but why didn't you reconsider your statement very soon thereafter and make the necessary changes?

Q According to your testimony didn't Albrecht tell you that he was giving you Gomo for this purpose.
CAPTAIN VANCE: We object. He is arguing with the witness.

A First Lieutenant Albrecht said, "I am giving you Gomo along the way
[illegible] Objection sustained.
and I am coming along myself too."
Mr. Moller, did you hear the prosecution's arguments in the

Q Why, then, did you feel obliged to shoot without Albrecht and without Nuernberg [illegible]
Gomo?

A I heard many things about the Nuernberg Trial.

A Because I had the definite order to do so.
Then did you hear from those that the one who was acting on

Q Didn't you testify during your first interrogation that the flyer superior orders could expect extenuating circumstances?
really tried to escape and that for this reason you shot him?
[illegible] We object to that question, and this man testifying

A I can't remember that.
about something he heard about that happened up in Nuernberg when I daresay Can you remember the account of your testimony at that time that he was in confinement and nowhere near that tribunal.
Albrecht was discharged again at that time?
[illegible] He said he heard.

A Albrecht wasn't released.
[illegible] Heard from whom?

Q Mr. Moller, isn't it correct that during your first interrogation [illegible] I don't know. He said I heard a lot of things.
you stated that the flyer really tried to escape?
[illegible] Objection overruled.

CAPTAIN VANCE: We object on the ground that it is repetitious. I think he has asked the witness two or three times and he has answered.
A [illegible] hear it all.
(Mr. [illegible] directed.)

(Moller-direct)

PRESIDENT: Objection sustained.

QUESTIONS BY DR. HACKER:

Q Isn't it true that Albrecht was interrogated at the same time when you were interrogated for the first time?

A I didn't know that.

Q Later on did you have any thoughts about the statement you made on the 29th of May, 1945?

A No.

Q How is it possible that only much later you changed from the persons Albrecht to Michel and Kimitt to Blum?

A Because I heard here that Blum had admitted that he was the one.

Q Mr. Moller, it is easy to understand that you were excited on the 29th of May, 1945, but why didn't you reconsider your statement very soon thereafter and make the necessary changes?

CAPTAIN VANCE: We object. He is arguing with the witness.

PRESIDENT: Objection sustained.

Q Mr. Moller, did you hear the prosecution's arguments in the Nuernberg Trial?

A I heard many things about the Nuernberg Trial.

Q When did you hear from there that the one who was acting on superior orders could expect mitigating circumstances?

CAPTAIN VANCE: We object to that question, and this man testifying about something he heard about that happened up in Nuernberg when I daresay he was in confinement and nowhere near that tribunal.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: He said he heard.

CAPTAIN VANCE: Heard from whom?

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I don't know. He said he heard a lot of things.

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

A I didn't hear at all.

(Moller-direct)

A MR. BACK S: No more questions.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I would like to ask just a few, may it please the court, to the building that you talked about?

QUESTIONS BY DEFENSE COUNSEL:

Q Do you know who gave the flyer permission to have the water and to sit down and smoke? [illegible] angle.

A I don't know the person unfortunately the same place which [illegible] Then you left the Police Station with the flyer you went up first to what street? [illegible] were two were roads.

A Mauerfeld Street: one of those roads which goes to the right creates a [illegible] From Mauerfeld Street to Homburg Street, is that correct?

A Through the Rabstock [illegible] at is right.

Q At the end of Homburg Street that was the next street? you the instructor: The pass through the field [illegible] you remember saying that?

Q Was there a name to that?

A There was extended Richthofen. [illegible] through the woods could you Q Was that the street you took which lead in the direction of the woods? If that continued on the main road [illegible]

A Yes, certified that in the woods there is a road on the right from the [illegible] Now as you went up that street approaching the woods did you not come to a street at right angles to the street which approached the woods?

A Yes the Hill to Ostrowsky?

Q What is the name of that street?

A Hausenstammer Road, that is the Railway to go through the woods to [illegible] As a matter of fact, it is true, is it not, that you had to cross at this Hausenstammer Road in order to get to the woods? [illegible] through the woods.

A Yes.

Q Now this Hausenstammer Road, was that part of the boundary of the Police District of Bieber? [illegible] over the hill to Ostrowsky or how? you know?

A Approximately 30 meters.

Q As you crossed this Autobahnbruecke road into the woods you could, you might, to the Hohlweg that you talked about?

A Does not a road?

Q That goes slightly to the left, does it not?

A Yes, in a sharp angle, it is a pass.

Q Isn't there also a road that begins approximately the same place which turns to the right and goes through the woods? I it was because you [illegible] A There are two more roads.

Q Isn't it true that one of those roads which goes to the right crosses a little hill and goes to Offenbach?

A Over a little hill, that is right, remember, is why you had shot

Q When you were going up the Hohlweg when Gebhardt gave you the instructions, as you said, to turn right--you remember saying that?

A [illegible] you made about the time the ring involving Kindorf [illegible] after you turned right if you had continued through the woods would you have come to the road which goes over the hill to Offenbach?

A If I had continued on the main road--Obermeisterer Weg?

Q You testified that in the woods there is a road on the right from the Mühlweg that goes over a hill to Offenbach; do you remember that? You testified that?

A This pass goes through the woods, yes.

Q Over the hill to Offenbach?

A [illegible] the road to Offenbach through the woods to the [illegible] Now when you turned right on the Mühlweg to go through the woods, Gerichtsrat told you to go, if you had continued would you not have come to that road which goes over the hill to Offenbach--that continued through the woods.

A Yes.

Q How far was it from the place that you turned right on the Mühlweg to this little road that goes over the hill to Offenbach; as best you know?

(Miller-direct)

A Approximately 60 meters.

Q After going through 60 meters you would have been on the road which does go over the hill to Offenbach?

A It is not a real road [illegible].

Q It is a way [illegible] is that correct?

A [illegible] It is not a real road, it is a pass.

Q You have testified that after the shooting Gochrandt and Albrecht both said something to you and you don't remember what it was because you were so excited.

A I know only that Peter Gochrandt called, "Such an excited dog." I meant to say [illegible] you say that Albrecht said it was unnecessary to shoot?

Q You had anything said to you, do you remember, as to why you had shot and that your reply at that time was, "He was escaping."?

A I couldn't talk [illegible] of your own personal knowledge whether or not

Q Now, this mistake you made about who took the ring involving Kimitt and Klum--when and where did you first find out you had made that mistake?

A Approximately three weeks ago. [illegible]

Q And where? [illegible]

A Here.

Q That was during the course of the preparation of this case for the defense? [illegible]

A The trial was already going on.

Q You testified that the road to Offenbach through the woods to the office of the Police Director would take you about one hour, is that correct?

A [illegible]

Q That is by walking the entire distance, is that correct?

A Yes.

Q How long would it have taken you to go the shortest way to the same office, walking? [illegible]

(Keller-direct)

A Not much more than half an hour.

Q Are you certain that you signed the report on the same day that the thing happened? Don't walk.

A The same day, yes. On the next day I was transferred.

Q Do you know who wrote the report -- who directed it be written? Do you really know yourself? He would have to say, "No."

A Yes, approximately that.

Q When you say that Albrecht signed it you were just presuming, isn't that true? Given order to shoot?

A I didn't say that Albrecht signed the report.

Q I meant to say: Did you say that Albrecht saw it and authorized it before you signed it? Klee or Kimbel.

A What would have happened if Albrecht had tried to stop you?

Q But you don't know of your own personal knowledge whether or not that was true, do you?

A No. I can't state that as I wasn't present.

Q You say that you and Albrecht walked back together, or some back ation, together from the scene of the shooting to the Police Station?, nothing that Albrecht -- Klee would have stopped you from carrying out Kimbel's orders, is that -- Q It was during that walk back that Albrecht said to you "shot while trying to escape."?

A Yes. That is all.

Q What else was said at that same time?

A He told me, only that I should go home. He would give me furlough until the evening because I wasn't capable of going on duty anymore.

Q And added these other words, "shot while trying to escape."?

A Yes." [illegible] to do the same as Albrecht -- to do away with him in the forest.

Q Those four words were the only things said by him or by you the entire way home about what happened? Or [illegible] to me.

(Keller-direct)

A Yes, you asked a few questions at the time and did I refuse to answer?

Q During the entire way back you said absolutely not a word?

A Why, I couldn't talk.

Q You were asked by one of the German lawyers Herr Müller, about something that Albrecht said to this effect, "What if Albrecht had known what was going to happen he would have tried to stop it." Is this or this statement true?

A Yes, approximately that.

Q Do you remember saying that Albrecht couldn't have stopped it because you had the direct order to shoot? That came from whom initially. Is it?

A Yes.

Q From whom? The translation will say the original.

A From Police Director Eichel.

Q What would have happened if Albrecht had tried to stop you?

A CAPTAIN VANCE: We are going to object to that because it calls for speculation. Also, is this your signature?

PRESIDENT: Objection sustained.

Q I am going to ask one more question which may be subject to objection. In other words, having received the order from Eichel to shoot, nothing that Albrecht or did would have stopped you from carrying out Eichel's order, is that correct? Is that correct?

A No, that's not. The original exhibit will be used.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: What is allegedly the prosecution to show in the

QUESTIONED BY DR. SACHER:

Q Mr. Müller, I show you now the Prosecutions Exhibit 116, your interrogation of the 8th of May, 1946. I will ask you whether you were then asked the following question and gave the following answer, partition 5a.

"Q Was it your intention to go with the flyer to the settlement or to do away with him in the forest?

Q Mr. Müller, please read once more the question and answer which you have

A My intention was to keep on going until I would receive an additional order or something else would be said to me."

(Müller-direct)

1507 [illegible]

Were you asked t ese question at that time and did you give those answers?

A May I see it?

I know definitely that during my interrogation on the 8th of May, right at the beginning, twice on two spots I had two statements changed. I signed on the side the initials of my name. I can't find this on this statement here.

CAPTAIN VANCE: If it please the court, we would like to have this accused see the original statement that does have those initials. This is a copy.

PRESIDENT: The accused will see the original.

QUESTIONS BY DR. HACKER:

Q Mr. Moller, is that exhibit 116?

A Yes.

Q Mr. Moller, is this your signature?

PRESIDENT: He can ask that question. Rephrase it.

A Yes. That is correct now.

Q All this has nothing to do with the question I propounded. I had asked you whether the questions I read to you were asked you and whether you had given the answers as I read them to you? Would you like to read those questions once more?

PRESIDENT: The original exhibit will be used.

DR. HACKER: I would like to ask for the permission to show him the German translation.

PRESIDENT: Is there an original in German?

DR. HACKER: No, but this is certified to. It is a certified copy.

PRESIDENT: This is acceptable as long as it is certified to.

QUESTIONS BY DR. HACKER:

Q Mr. Moller, please read once more these questions and answers which were read to you before? From here up to here (indicating).

A Yes, I read it.

Q Were you asked these questions at that time and did you give the answers as shown in the statement?

A That is possible but I can't remember anymore.

Q Didn't you express, with these words, your opinion that it would need an additional order for you to shoot at all?

A If I got an order I don't have to have an opinion, I have to carry out the order.

Q Why didn't you say then, at that time, it was my intention to keep on going until I would get another order or something else would be told to me?

CAPTAIN VANCE: We object to that as arguing with the witness.

PRESIDENT: Objection sustained.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I would like to state to the court what I think he is trying to do. He is asking the witness to explain a statement made at one time in consistence with the testimony now given here and I submit that that is proper cross examination.

PRESIDENT: He can ask that question. Rephrase it.

QUESTIONS BY DR. JACKEL:

Q Mr. Moller you told us today that you shot on orders of Eichel. How is it then possible that in your interrogation of the 8th of May, 1946 you said you intended to keep on walking until you would get an additional order or you would be told something else?

A I was told something.

Q By whom?

A By Police Master Gochrendt.

Q What did Gochrendt tell you?

A "Where do you want to go? "Go to the right;

Q But that is not the way of shooting a flyer?

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I pray the court's judgement. That is argumentative.

PRESIDENT: Objection sustained.

QUESTIONS BY DR. MACK:

Q Moller, do you want to say that Goehrendt gave you an order of any kind?

A No.

Q Please explain then to the court why in your statement of May 8th you mentioned an additional order?

A I can't explain that.

DR. MACK: No more questions.

CAPTAIN VANCE: Are there any more questions by the defense?

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Not at this time.

CROSS EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q Herr Moller, you have been testifying before this court since 9 o'clock this morning and I want to ask you one question. Have you been telling the truth to this court?

A Yes.

CAPTAIN VANCE: Nothing further.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: We have nothing further.

PRESIDENT: There are no questions by the court. The witness will take his place in the dock.

(Whereupon the accused was excused and resumed his seat in the dock.)

PRESIDING COURT: The accused, Albrecht, will now take the stand. The examination will be conducted by Mr. Rau.

WILHELM ALBRECHT, an accused, voluntarily took the stand in his own behalf and having been duly sworn, testified through an interpreter as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY DR. RAU:

Q What is your name?

A Wilhelm Albrecht.

Q When and where were you born?

A On the 11th of September 1890 at Stendal.

Q What is your profession?

A I am a police official. My last rank was 1st Lieutenant of the Order Police.

Q Since when are you a police official?

A Since the 8th of January 1919.

Q What are you now?

A I am a prisoner of war in Dachau.

Q You are one of the accused in this trial?

A Yes.

Q Are you married?

A Yes, I am married.

Q Do you have children?

A Two children.

Q We turn back now to the year 1945. Was a flier delivered to your police station in 1945?

A Yes, on the 22nd of February 1945.

Q Where were you at that time?

A I was in the bunker. There was an air raid alarm going on and I saw that an airplane had been damaged and that the crew had to parachute.

Q At which place did that happen?

A That was between Bieber and Helheim.

Q The flier was brought to your police station?

A Yes.

Q Where was your police station located?

A The police station was located in Bieber on the Hebstock.

Q What was your assignment with the police at that time?

A I was the leader of the police station Bieber.

Q Who delivered the flier?

A As far as I can remember a man who worked in the woods.

Q What happened after the flier entered the police station?

A After the flier had entered the police station I searched him for weapons and other pieces of official equipment. He took away his maps; he had a lighter with him. Cigarettes were lying on the table, K rations, two compasses. That was all.

Q After he was searched, what happened then?

A After this was done I asked the flier to sit down.

Q Did you notice the name of the flier?

A Yes. I forgot to mention he had also an identification card. There was his name -- I don't know his first name exactly anymore, I think it was Lillium Duke.

Q Of which nationality?

A He was an American flier.

(Albrecht-direct)

Q After the flier had sat down, what happened next?

A I asked the Policemaster Lueck, he should make a list of all the things which had been taken from the flier.

Q Did the flier express any wishes?

A Yes, he asked me whether he was permitted to smoke. I said, "Yes" and told him to go ahead. Then he asked Master Lueck whether he could get a glass of water. I said, "Yes, if he wanted another one, give him another one."

Q What happened then?

A I then ordered that the flier should be brought to Headquarters of the Order Police, and gave this order to the Policemaster and the Police Sergeant Como.

Q Why should the flier be brought to this place?

A Because this was our order.

Q What was this headquarters of the Order Police?

A The headquarters of the Order Police was our superior office.

Q Was this order of yours carried out?

A Yes.

Q The flier was taken away?

A Yes.

Q By whom?

A The flier was taken away by Como and Moller.

Q Before the flier was taken away what happened?

A A car arrived and Police Director, Eichel, Capt. Kiwitt and some other person from the Party, I don't know whom, came to the police station.

Q Did it just happen that these individuals came to the station or had somebody called them?

A It seemed they just happened to drop in. As far as I remember they were not called.

Q You yourself didn't call for them?

A No.

Q Please continue your story.

A Police Director, Eichel, got very excited because we had treated the flier this way and Capt. Kivitt, too, said something, and we were all surprised that we were supposed to have done something wrong.

Q What was the objection?

A That he was allowed to smoke; that he was allowed to sit down and that he had received water.

Q What happened then?

A The Police Director was standing next to the door. He called me over and said to me, "This man has to be done away with." I replied, "Not by me." Then he said, "Then by some other people would do", or something like that. I won't insist on these exact words.

Q What did you do then?

A I returned to the table where the flier was sitting.

Q Do you know what Police Director Eichel did?

A He continued to stay there. I went to my room and changed my uniform.

Q Why did you change your uniform?

A Because I wanted to go along when the flier has to be taken away.

(Aldrecht-direct)

Q Did you have an order to go along?

A No. I intended to go along until the limits of my police station.

Q How far does your police station extend in the direction of the forest?

A In front of the forest is Heusenstammer Weg. That is as far as the station limits extend.

Q Why did you intend to go along until this road?

A When I was outside the station I heard that the crowd was very excited and incited and Police Director, Eichel, said something to the crowd, something like this -- "These are the men who destroy your houses and kill your women and children."

Q I think you didn't answer my question completely. Why did you intend to go along?

A I didn't want to walk through the excited crowd which was standing there.

Q Why?

A Because the crowd was yelling and I thought they intended to get hold of the flier.

Q After you changed your uniform jacket what happened then?

A Police Director Eichel called me outside once more and said, "Mr. Albrecht, I am now going to take the flier along on top of the motor hood and I am going to drive him through the City." Then I said, "Police Director Eichel, I wouldn't do that on account of the public and, furthermore, that is not a military manner", and then he was thinking for a moment and said, "All right, we'll let it go."

Q Where did this conversation take place?

A Outside on the street in front of the car.

Q Where was the flier at that time?

A The flier was still in the room. Then the Police Director said, "Get going and take the flier away." Then I told Como, "Bring the flier out" and he brought him out, too.

Q Do you know who brought the flier out?

A I can't say exactly, anymore whether Como did it or I myself.

Q Did you see Moller at that time?

A No, I didn't see Moller. I had ordered Lueck to come along and then I called upstairs, "Where is Lueck?" Then my subordinate said, "Lueck isn't there" and then Moller came and said, "Lieutenant, I am coming along and I am taking the flier away."

Q Did you say anything else to Moller?

A Yes. Police Director Eichel said, "Why isn't the flier being taken away" and then I went over to Moller and clapped on my hands and said, "Moller, get going and get dressed and see that you get out of here." Then I drove Moller to hurry up and even went into his room but I can't state this definitely. I think so anyway. Then Moller came out of the room. Police Director Eichel called, "Bring the flier to police headquarters" and then I said, "Yes."

Q What happened then?

A Moller came out of the house and Como came along and they left. I said, "I don't want to go through the crowd" and he said, "Yes, that's all right, take the back way."

Q Why didn't you want to go through the crowd?

A Because the crowd was restless. I thought I was doing right whatever I did then.

Q Were you afraid?

A This happened on several occasions that fliers had been attacked by civilians and that came in my mind.

Q If I understand you right you were afraid that on the normal road the flier might be attacked by the crowd?

A Yes.

Q And you took the other, more distant, road in order to protect the flier from the crowd?

A Yes.

Q Please continue.

A This road leads through a neighborhood which is nearly entirely uninhabited.

Q And how is it if you would have taken the normal road?

A The normal road is a little bit closer, the difference is perhaps ten minutes.

Q Does this road lead all the way through living quarters?

A On the normal road you first have to go through Sibor, then you pass by some stadium and then you pass police headquarters at Offenbach. Then you are already in Offenbach.

Q How is the situation on the way you picked?

A There were only a few houses when you left the police station, only very few buildings are located there.

Q Who accompanied the flier?

A The flier was escorted by Como and Moller.

Q Please describe the way these three people were walking.

A Moller and Como went with the flier.

Q At what distance?

A I have to add something else. When I turned around the corner from the station Policemaster Goehrendt came and I said, "Goehrendt, you too come along. We hold the people back if they try to follow us." And that was done. Goehrendt walked on the left of the road and I walked on the right.

Q Did the crowd follow you?

A Yes, some people followed us and we kept them back.

Q Did you hear any statements made by the crowd?

A Yes. "Give us the flier, we will take care of him ourselves" and some similar expressions. They were cursing but that was over very soon because we kept them back and they kept on going. At that time Moller and Como were about 20 or 30 meters away from us but the distance increased later on because a friend of ours came and asked us where we were going with the flier. We told him, "To police headquarters." This fellow left then and we followed them. When we came in front of the forest I and Goehrendt saw that Moller, instead of turning to the right, was turning to the left in the forest. Goehrendt brought this to my attention only. I said right away, "Go ahead, Goehr not, and bring them back." Then Goehrendt ran after them and brought the flier back and sent them off on the correct path to the right, to Offenbach. I called to them, "Where did you want to go with the flier right now?" and Moller said something about "engineers" and then I said, "No, he has to be taken to the headquarters of the Order Police and Goehrendt set them off on the path to Offenbach. Then I saw a man who was standing behind a tree and he started to talk to me. That was the witness, Semrod, and I talked with him.

(Albrecht-direct)

Q What did you say?

A He asked, "Where is the flier being brought" and I said, "He is being taken to Offenbach." I said, "No harm will be done to him" but, of course, the exact words which were used I can't remember anymore. While I was talking with him two shots were fired.

Q How far away from the place where the shots were fired were you at that time?

A I figured at least 40 to 50 meters.

Q At that time did you see Moller or the flier or both of them together?

A Yes, I saw that Moller and Goehrendt -- Goehrendt was a little bit more away -- that they had started to walk on the path to the right in the direction of Offenbach.

Q Did Goehrendt and Moller walk outside the forest or in the forest?

A They were not on the Hohlweg. He cut off a piece of the road and tried to get on the path to Offenbach.

(Albrecht-direct)

Q Can you describe in a few words how the forest looks like around the station?

A The forest isn't nice and goes already up to the houses where Offenbach starts already and whoever walks through Offenbach doesn't see much of the wood. First the Neuenhainer Weg runs into the Apfelgarten St., then he runs on the road which goes over the hill, leads to Offenbach. One can have a free hundred meters this way. Just to see what did you do when you heard the shots?

A Then I ran over and Keller, "Who did this nonsense?" Keller was standing there with his rifle and I said, "Why did you shoot?" and I was cursing him, too. "How could you do that?" and he said, "If he wouldn't have tried to run away, I wouldn't have shot." Gebrandt was already on the spot where the flier was lying and took the distance from Keller to the flier. Keller was standing about 10 to 15 steps from the flier.

Q What happened then?

A I told Gebrandt that he should take care of the body. I would leave the body picked up later on.

Q What did you say to Keller?

A I told Keller, "Just go back to the station."

Q Why didn't you leave Keller there? I had been told Keller was standing there very excited, he was sweating, he was pale, very pale. I told him to go home and I'll be there over, once 1:00 o'clock.

A What did you do then? Correct. I have no idea. I walked back with Keller to the station. After that I [illegible]

(Albrecht-direct)

Q What happened at the station?

A At the station I asked Moller once more, "Why did you shoot?" and he told me, "He made one jump into the forest and that's when I shot."

Q On account of this did you give any orders to your subordinates in the police station?

A After this had happened. "I don't want to see anymore that a flier is delivered here at the station by a policeman. They have to be brought to the air force immediately."

Q When did you say that?

A After this incident

Q And to whom?

A To the policemen who were present. flier brought

Q In which form did you say it? Was it only just a statement, or was it a direct order? was brought in

A That was an order.

Q After this incident was there any other flier brought to the police station?

A The same day, in the evening.

Q Who delivered this flier?

A I wasn't present because I was home. I had been on duty for 30 hours. There was an air raid alarm. I called up whether anything new had happened and Goehrendt told me that a flier was there.

CAPTAIN VANCE: May I interrupt. I have no objection to the defense counsel going into this matter but they may open up something -- I think you know what I am talking about.

Why were there two persons from the air force present? DEFENSE COUNSEL: We don't intend to open up a thing. I had ordered that immediately when there would be trouble. CAPTAIN VANCE: He is opening it up. That was done. DEFENSE COUNSEL: If he follows my instructions he won't. COURT: Mr. Berger would like to cross ex. CAPTAIN VANCE: I thought it my duty to warm him.

QUESTIONS BY DR. RAU:

Q Please continue with your story.

A Goehrendt told me that the flier was there at the station. I said, "He should be brought to the headquarters of the Order Police, the quickest possible way." That was done. He ordered two policemen and they took the flier over there.

Q After this time was there any other flier brought to the police station? Him where you intended to go with the flier?

A Yes, Sunday forenoon. This flier was brought in by the Catholic priest. He said, "Here is the flier being brought." Q How many days later did this happen? Order Police."

A Two days later, on your orders, told Koller to take the Q Were you present yourself? her follow Goehrendt's order? A No, I was informed about it by telephone.

Q Who was present in addition to the flier at the police station? Goehrendt go with him right away?

A I drove over right away with my bicycle and the gendarmes, the flier, the priest, Goehrendt was there, Lucck was there and let Lt. Blum and let Lt. Zager, court, let the record Q Did anybody else come over there? Give the distance later. A Yes, a Captain of the air force and a Sergeant of the air force. Goehrendt present when you talked to

Mr. Albrecht

Q Why were these two persons from the air force present?

A I had ordered that immediately when fliers would be brought in the air force should be informed and that was done in this case, too.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Dr. Buerger would like to cross examine.

QUESTIONS BY DR. BUERGER:

Q Where was Goehrendt at the time the flier was delivered?

A Goehrendt was on duty in the bunker because an air raid alarm was going on. He was not present when the flier was delivered.

Q He first came into the picture when he met you at the corner of the police station?

A Yes.

Q Did you tell him where you intended to go with the flier?

A Goehrendt asked me, "Where is the flier being brought?" I said, "To headquarters of the Order Police."

Q When Goehrendt, on your orders, told Moller to take the path to the right, did Moller follow Goehrendt's order?

A Yes, right away he went to the right.

Q Did Goehrendt go with him right away?

A Goehrendt was away from him a little bit, perhaps from here to the desk.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: May it please the court, let the record please show that the witness estimates the distance between Moller and Goehrendt at approximately five meters.

Q Was Goehrendt present when you talked to this Mr. Schrod?

A No, he was approximately, in my estimation, 25 to 30 meters away.

Q Do you remember exactly the words which Moller said when you arrived at the station?

A I asked Moller, "Why did you shoot?"

Q At that time was Moller in any position to give a clear answer?

A No, Moller was very excited. He was shaking. For this reason I sent him home.

DR. BURGER: Thank you.

QUESTION BY DR. WAGNER:

Q When, for the first time, did Michel give the order at the police station at Bieber, to deliver the flier to headquarters at Offenbach?

A As far as I can remember, already at the guardroom it was said, before he left the room, "He has to be brought to headquarters at Offenbach."

Q You have testified about a statement of Michel--"This man has to be done away with" or "this man WILL be done away with". When you testified about this statement on direct examination you made a move with your hand and you made a move with your right thumb in the direction of your back. Did Michel make this move at that time?

A Michel made with his head like this (indicating).

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Let the record indicate that Michel nodded with his head, pointing his head to the rear.

Q Under these conditions was Michel's statement to be considered by you as an order?

A First I thought it was an order but because I objected to it and Michel didn't say anything to Capt. Kiwitt, I then realized it couldn't be an order. That was, you might say, a remark made during a discussion.

Q How was Michel's attitude in office when he was in office, in general? Would Michel have accepted a refusal of an order the way it was testified to here by you?

A Michel was a man, when he gave an order thisorder had to be carriedout. He was feared even by the officers.

Q My question now is this -- If Michel intended to give you an order would he have accepted a refusal from your side with the short remark you made to him?

A No, he wouldn't in my opinion.

Q Was it know at that time that from the highest Party officials, from the Reichsfuehrer of the SS, orders had been issued in accordance with the treatment of fliers?

A We had no orders, only in October at an official meeting, Maj. Kuhlenbeck, our superior officer, read us the non-interference order.

Q Mr. Albrecht, I didn't ask you whether you, at the police, had orders. I asked you whether you knowor whether Michel knew, that such an order from the Party or other government office existed at the Party offices and other government departments.

A No, nothing was known to me.

Q When were you interrogated for the first time in this case?

A I was taken into custody on the 28th or 29th of April and I personally was brought to the Captain of the CIC by the Police Director, Knoll. The CIC Captain asked me for my name and he said, "You are 1st Lt. Albrecht. There is nothing against you. I have already many interrogations in the Bieber case. There is nothing against you. You can go home."

Q According to Knoll's statement had Moller been heard at that time?

A No, Moller had not been heard. He wasn't there.

Q A few days later did you hear about an interrogation of Moller?

A Yes, approximately eight days before I was arrested again.

Q Which description of the incident did Moller give at that time?

A First I have to say something else before I tell you that. May I do so? A policeman came to me and said, "Mr. Albrecht, be careful. You will be arrested again. The Director has said, 'We will get Albrecht anyway.' We will just say about him that he transmitted the order to Moller!" and a few days later I was arrested again. In the prison, we were brought to Frankfurt, the statement was shown to me and there it was written that Moller had said I had given the order.

PRESIDENT: Court will recess until 1:30.

(Whereupon at 1200 hours the court recessed until 1330 hours.)

(Albrecht - Direct)

AFTERNOON SESSION

(Whereupon the court reconvened at 1330 hours.)

PRESIDENT: Court will come to order.

PROSECUTION: May it please the court, let the record show that all the members of the court, except Colonel Schramm, who is in hospital, absent sick; all the members of the prosecution; all the members of the defense, except Dr. Ebert, who is absent sick; all of the accused, except the accused Trumbler, No. 2, who is absent conferring with defense counsel; the reporter and interpreter are present.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Albrecht, No. 6, will resume the stand.

WILHELM ALBRECHT, an accused, voluntarily resumed the stand as in his own behalf, and having been first duly sworn, testified further through an interpreter as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY DR. HAGEN:

Q Mr. Albrecht, before the recess, we just discussed that you were interrogated at Offenbach and then you were brought to Hersbruck?

A Yes.

Q When were you taken to Hersbruck?

A On the 1st of June, 1945.

Q When did Moller come to Hersbruck?

A Together with me.

Q Were you together at Hersbruck?

A Yes. We slept in the same room.

Q When, for the first time, did Moller tell you that he had received an order from Michel to shoot the fliers?

A That might have been in July, on the following occasion: I told Moller, "You shot that time. On account of you, several family fathers are arrested. If I would have known that at that time, I would have prevented it," and then he said, "You couldn't have prevented it. I had the order from the Police Director."

Q Was it known at that time that supposedly Eichel was dead?

A I hadn't heard anything about it. I heard this only here in Dachau.

Q You heard the report was made in regard to the shooting of the flier. Moller has testified that this report was false. Did you agree to, or did you give the order for a false report?

A To my knowledge, no false report was made. If Moller would have given the false report, he wouldn't have signed it. He would have changed it.

Q If Eichel would have given an order to shoot the flier, and if the flier would have been shot on account of Eichel's order, how would this report have been made out?

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I pray the court's judgment. It is one of those hypothetical, supposititious questions.

CAPTAIN VANEK: We join in with the objection on the same grounds.

PRESIDENT: Objection sustained.

QUESTIONS BY DR. HACKER:

Q If Eichel would have given an order to shoot the flier and if the flier would have been shot on account of Eichel's order, would you have made a false report?

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I pray the court's judgment. Same grounds.

PRESIDENT: Objection sustained.

QUESTIONS BY DR. HACKER:

Q Did you make false reports at your headquarters?

A No, never.

Q Did you talk to Moller at that time, how the report should be made out?

A No, Moller had left already, at home.

Q Do you know how the report was made out?

A Based on the statements which Keller had made to me

Q And he didn't mention anything about an order?

A No, he didn't mention anything.

DR. WACKER: No more questions.

QUESTIONS BY DEFENSE COUNSEL:

Q When Geshrandt came from the air-raid shelter back to the police station, and you said to him, "Geshrandt, come along," so far as you know at that time, did Geshrandt know what he was supposed to go along for?

A No, I had to tell him that.

Q At what time that day did Geshrandt's tour of duty end, or should it have ended?

A The tour of duty, which was overnight, was supposed to leave at 1 o'clock. We were on duty for 24 hours.

Q I pray that the witness will listen to the question. I asked you on what hour did Geshrandt's tour end that day, or should it have ended? At what hour, if you remember?

A Yes. At 1 o'clock, he should have gone home.

Q At about what time was it that he first showed up at the police station?

A Geshrandt was there in the morning. I don't know you were standing at.

Q I mean, at the time when you said, "Come along?"

A It was around noontime. I think it must have been 12:30, approximately.

Q Where did Geshrandt live?

A His residence, as far as I know, was on the Hamburger Street. We passed it with the flier.

Q Now, inasmuch as Geshrandt didn't know what the whole thing was about at the time he came up and you said, "Geshrandt, come along," what did you tell him?

A I told him that while we were keeping back the crowd. I said to him, "Help to keep the crowd away a little bit," and there Goehrendt asked me, "Where is the flier to be brought?" and I told him, "To headquarters of the Order Police.

Did you hear what Geshrandt said to Keller?

Q Did you tell him by which direction, by which route?

A I told him that we wouldn't take the main road because there was still air raid alarm going on, and that for this reason we were taking the back road.

Q Coming down to the point when you reached the Hausenstamer Weg, it was at that point, was it not, that Goehrendt called you, due to the fact, as you said, that Moller was going the wrong way?

A Yes.

Q And as a result of an order received from you, Goehrendt ran after Moller?

A Yes.

Q Just answer the question.

A Yes.

Q Did he reach Moller? Did he come up to Moller?

A It is possible that he didn't run all the way up there, that a few meters were missing.

Q Could you see down the Hohlweg from where you were standing at that time?

A I couldn't see into the Hohlweg, because it is deeper, but I could see Goehrendt, Moller, and flier.

Q And at that time, Moller and the flier were together in the Hohlweg, is that right?

A Yes.

Q And Goehrendt was near them? You don't know just how close, is that what you said?

A He was nearby, I could call to him, yes.

Q Did you hear what Goehrendt said to Moller?

(ALBRECHT-Direct)

In Chapter 4/15-5

A Yes. I heard this. "Where you went to go?"

Tell the court what you heard Goebrandt say to Heller.

A I heard that Goebrandt call to Heller. That also he said, I can't say any more, the three of them, Heller, the flier and Q I asked you what you heard. All you could hear that was said between Goebrandt and Heller was that you heard Goebrandt call after Heller?

A Yes.

Q And you didn't hear Goebrandt say anything to Heller about going to the left or going to the right, did you?

A No. I didn't hear that. I couldn't.

Q At that time, you could see the three of them, Heller, Goebrandt, and the flier?

A Yes, in which direction?

Q What did you see happen then? One thing at a time.

A I saw that Heller and the flier turned around and walked part of the Hohlweg briefly.

Q In which direction?

A Back in the direction where I was, in the direction of Bieber.

Q At the time that Heller and the flier turned around and came back a piece along the Hohlweg, back to where you were standing, what did Goebrandt do during that time?

A Goebrandt entered the woods immediately following the Q Did you see Heller and the flier at the time these two people left the Hohlweg and went into the woods?

A Yes. In order to get on the right road in the direction of Offenbach

Q In other words, you did see Heller and the flier leave the Hohlweg and go into the woods?

A Yes.

(ALTERNATE-Direct)

Re Filepp-22-6/26-6

Q- At the time that Muller and the flier left the road to go to the Hohlweg, what did Cochrandt do immediately before and immediately after?

A Cochrandt walked along the Hohlweg in my direction, towards me.

Q In other words, the three of them, Muller, the flier and Cochrandt, turned around and the three of them started back in your direction. So far, is that correct?

A Yes.

Q And after coming back a short way, Muller and the flier left the Hohlweg and went into the woods and Cochrandt continued on his way in your direction, is that correct? the prisoners too well.

A Yes. Cochrandt wasn't in the forest. He continued to walk on the Hohlweg.

Q In which direction? Gauleiter, Kreisleiter things?

A Cochrandt was, the leader of a local ward. He was an ortsgruppenleiter.

Q Did he talk to you? Did he come up to you?

A Not particularly. Local ward had complained about me. I don't know Q What happened? I was transferred.

A The shots were fired in testimony that you made a statement to Q Did you see what Cochrandt did when the shots were fired?

A He was in the direction of Hohlweg to this because I don't

Q In other words, Cochrandt entered the woods immediately following the sound of the shots, is that correct? ask him what it means. You didn't

A Yes, to

Q Prior to your coming to Bieber, where was your station?

A For 14 years, I was stationed at Buergel, a suburb of Offenbach.

Q What were your duties there? from Frankfurt. Here we say,

A I was the leader of the police station there at the end

Q Were prisoners of war kept in Buergel at that time, or prisoners of some kind? does that mean?

A We also had [illegible] difficulties.

(ALBRECHT-Direct)

1538

1538

A Yes, for this reason, that the prison for women at Offenbach had been destroyed by bombs and so I had the prison for women, together with the police station at Buergel. Did Generaal make such a report to you, Q You were at one time relieved from command at Buergal and sent to Buergal. Do you know why?

A First, I didn't know why. Inquire.

Q Do you know now? EXAMINATION

A Yes, BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q What was the reason? police at Bieber, were you not?

A Because I treated the prisoners too well.

Q Who told you that? Is that Lt. Willies name from?

A A party official by the name of Becker.

Q Do you mean one of those gauleiter, kreisleiter things?

A He wasn't even the leader of a local ward. He was an ortsgruppenleiter.

Q Did he tell you how he found out?

A The leader of the local ward had complained about me, I don't know to whom, and for that I was transferred. re Nickel came to your

Q In this case, there was testimony that you made a statement to someone using those words, "Er hat uns eine geschafft." 15 minutes.

CAPTAIN VANCE: I am going to object to that, because I don't know what he is asking.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I am going to ask him what it means. You didn't give me a chance to finish the question. why his official below me.

QUESTIONS BY DEFENSE COUNSEL:

Q What does that expression mean?

A This is an expression used around Frankfurt. When we say "Er hat uns eine geschafft," we mean the same as in other regions they would say by saying, "He cooked the soup for us."

Q What does that mean? He was in your office.

A He made us troubles and difficulties.

Direct)

Q How long did you keep him there before Eichel came to your headquarters?

A Oh, two, now complaining. No, two, said counting like, you play that about a long, at the most, might have been 15 minutes.

Q What did you do with the flier between the time you had him and Eichel came? What did he make by that?

A He was ordered, I took him the order to check his papers and to record his personal belongings, I mean, only his official belongings, not his private property, he has certified here.

Q Why did you send for Eichel?

A I didn't call for Eichel, no.

Q Who did? Oh, "The officer has to be dealt with."

A Nobody.

Q How did he know the flier was in your office?

ALBRECHT-Cross)

Q There was also some evidence in this case that Goehrendt made a report to you, "that while trying to escape" that may not be the exact language. That is as I remember it. Did Goehrendt make such a report to you, and if so, under what circumstances was it made?

A Goehrendt? He didn't make a report. I don't know.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: You may inquire.

CROSS EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VARNEY

Q You were the chief of police at Bisbee, were you not?

A In Bisbee, yes.

Q Where did you get this 2nd Lt. William Duke from?

A He had this on his identification papers.

Q Where did you get him from?

A The mail was brought by a civilian.

Q Who brought it to you, Michael Thor?

A To the station, yes.

A I don't know. I didn't know.

Q Where was Eichel's office located in reference to your office?

A Eichel's office was in the Bieberer Street, in the Caserne.

Q How far from your office?

A 15 minutes' walk.

Q When Eichel came to your office, who came with him?

A With Eichel came Captain Kiwitt and another man who was wearing a Party uniform, but I didn't know this fellow.

Q I believe you said that the flier had had some water and was smoking a cigarette when Eichel got there, is that correct?

A Yes.

THE WITNESS: I have to object to this question, because this

Q Is that when Eichel said that the flier must be done away with?

A Yes, after he had made his remarks about the flier being seated on the table smoking and drinking water.

Q That was Kiwitt with Eichel then?

A Yes.

Q What did Kiwitt say or do?

A Kiwitt, too, was complaining. He, too, said something like, "You play host to the flier and you let him sit down."

Q When Eichel said the flier must be done away with, what was he talking about? What did he mean by that?

DR. HACKER: I have to object to this question. First, the question was an assumption, and furthermore, the question is not asked exactly the way the witness has testified here.

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

A Eichel said, "The flier has to be done away with."

Q What did he mean by that?

A First, I thought it was an order to me.

(ALBRECHT-Cross)

Q To do what?

A That the flier should be killed.

Q Was Kinitz with him then?

A Kinitz was nearby, perhaps a few steps away, as far as I can remember.

Q What did Kinitz have to say about the flier should be done away with?

A To that, you said you understood that he meant that the flier. Kinitz did not participate in this discussion.

Q All right. Now at that time, you knew that Eichel wanted the flier killed, didn't you? I knew that Eichel's wishes were that the flier

DR. GARBER: I have to object to this question, because this question makes it necessary for the witness to make a conclusion of which he is incapable of doing. In this question a different way.

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANDER: Objection overruled.

A Yes, I will remember the question. I told him that I wouldn't do it, I wouldn't harm the flier in any way.

Q I didn't ask you what you said. This was my question: Your knew at that time that Eichel wanted the flier to be killed, didn't you?

A If Eichel would have said, "The flier is to be killed," then I would have known that the flier should be killed.

DR. RAU: I object to the translation. If the witness says Eichel said, "The flier is to be killed," my opinion, it should say, "The flier will be killed."

PRESIDENT: Doesn't the defense have a person designated to check on the translation?

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Not really, sir, because she is here to help us as a clerical assistant, and I don't know how fully competent she is. If the court wants us to name the person whom to question it, that instruction will have to be issued.

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

A The question could be misunderstood. It had a double meaning.

Q I am going to break up and ask you again. I think you misunderstood the question. Eichel said, "The flier will be done away with," is that right?

A Yes, Eichel said, "The flier will be done away with."

Q And by that, you said you understood that he meant that the flier would be killed, is that right?

A Yes, the first moment I understood it this way, but I am not sure.

Q So, at that time, you knew that Eichel's wishes were that the flier would be killed?

DR. HECKER: I have to object to this question, because in the morning the witness answered this question a different way.

CAPTAIN VANCE: I realize that, but anything that he said he wanted to get in.

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q So, now after this conversation with Eichel, you went to your room and changed your uniforms, is that correct?

A Eichel said to take the flier along sitting on the water hose and Q Did you get your pistol?

A No, I don't know whether I finished dressing completely. No, I didn't take it yet, I know I only changed my uniform jacket.

Q Why did you change your uniform?

A Because I was wearing an old jacket. That was a so-called house jacket.

Q Wasn't it because you were going to make a trip?

A No, not at that time.

Q At that time, you didn't intend to go anywhere, is that correct?

A

(ALLEGHENY-Cross)

A No, not at all.

Q I believe you talked to Eichel, and said, in substance, if this flier was killed, that that would not be committing him in a military manner, or something to that effect, is that correct?

A Yes.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Despite the fact that the question has been answered, I most respectfully want to repeat that I think a question which goes so far as to attempt to put in a witness' mouth something that not by the widest stretch of the imagination was said, transcends what I honestly and respectfully submit to this court is not the sort of question which should be asked before an American court.

CAPTAIN VANCE: Does the court wish to have this record read back to them? I certainly didn't dream that I wrote down on this pad.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: You dreamed up anything that he said he wanted to get dressed so as to do something in a military manner. He said it wasn't a military thing to carry a man around on the hood of an automobile.

CAPTAIN VANCE: I will withdraw that question.

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q What did you say should be done in a military manner?

A Eichel said to take the flier along sitting on the motor hood and driving through the city. And then I replied, "Mr. Police Director, I wouldn't do that; first, not on account of the public, and secondly, that is not a military manner.

Q At that time, you still knew that Eichel wanted this flier killed, didn't you?

DR. WACKER: I want to object to this question, too. This requests a conclusion on the side of the witness of which he is incapable.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I would to add to that that I think the objection is sound. He could be asked what he thought or understood was Eichel's opinion, but when he is asked what Eichel actually meant, that is something he couldn't answer.

PRESIDENT: Objection is overruled. The question that

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE: [illegible] would be attached by the [illegible] My I had spoken against it. I had said to Eichel, "Not through me," and since Eichel hadn't done anything against me, I thought, the matter was dropped now. [illegible] and took Goebrandt along.

Q Did you testify there was a large crowd of civilians around the police station who were angry?

A Yes. Let me ask you this--were the civilians trying to Q Did the crowd of people want to get the flier? the police [illegible] I didn't say that, and I didn't think so, because we were strong enough. We were protecting the flier--no question. No, the police.

Q Why did Eichel want to drive the flier through this angry mob on the hood of his car unless he wanted the flier killed?

A I thought that the flier was supposed to be shown all through the city, and that is the reason I objected to it.

Q The flier was already standing in the yard.

Q Who had him in custody?

End ta 218 idb fols

A As far as I can recall, Gene was already with the flier.

Q Were the civilians trying to bother the flier?

A Not there yet.

Q After Heller took the flier, he started walking away from the police headquarters, is that correct?

A Yes, Gene and Heller.

Q And did you go along, too, behind them?

A Yes.

Q And who else went along?

A Goebrandt.

Q And who else?

A Otherwise, [illegible].

(Albrecht - Cross)

Q Didn't you testify on direct examination that "I was afraid that the flier would be attacked by the civilians?"

A Yes, that's only logical. The crowd was incited, and for this reason I came along and took Goehrendt along, too, in order that the crowd couldn't put their hands on the flier.

Q Let me ask you this--were the civilians trying to protect this flier from the police or were the police trying to protect the flier from the civilians?

A I do not answer this question. We, the police, are the ones who were responsible for security and order and peace.

Q Where did Moller get the flier when he started to leave Headquarters with him?

A The flier was already standing in the yard.

Q Who had him in custody?

A As far as I can recall, Como was already with the flier.

Q Were the civilians trying to bother the flier?

A Not there yet.

Q After Moller took the flier, he started walking away from the police headquarters, is that correct?

A Yes, Como and Moller.

Q And did you go along, too, behind them?

A Yes.

Q And who else went along?

A Goehrendt.

Q And who else?

A Otherwise, nobody.

(Albrecht-Cross)

Q Now why did you and Goehrendt go along?

A I told Goehrendt, "You, too, come along part of the way." We didn't have the intention to go along all the way to Offenbach.

Q Well, for what did you go along at all?

A In order to protect the transport.

Q Protect him from whom?

A To protect him from the crowd or from other aggressors.

Q The crowd never did bother this flier, did they?

A Oh, pretty fine remarks were made by the crowd.

Q How many kilometers did you go?

A We walked along for approximately one and a half kilometers.

Q Did the civilian population follow you?

A No, we held them back. They couldn't follow, but from other side roads people were still coming and children.

Q How far back from where the flier was were you?

A That varied. The distance first was short. Then it enlarged a little bit, and to the forest when we stepped up a little bit because he took the wrong road--then the distance again decreased.

Q What was the closest you were ever to the flier?

A That was right in the beginning when we left--then we were right next to the flier.

Q Well, after you got started on the road, how close were you?

A We kept the crowd back, and for this reason the distance increased. Then we talked to some man, and he kept us for a few minutes.

Q At the time you left, where the crowd was at the Police Station and started following Moller, how far ahead of you was Moller at that time?

A Sometimes we were 50 meters behind, sometimes 30 meters.

Q You weren't in a position to do much protecting of the flier, were you, at a 30-meter distance?

A Yes, we could look over the terrain and see if and when other people would approach him.

Q Albrecht, you went along because you were curious, didn't you?

A Curious? The flier was at the station for 15 or 20 minutes.

Q Yes, but you wanted to see what was going to happen on the march?

A I had no idea--I had no intention whatsoever.

Q I believe you testified on direct examination that at one time while you were walking that Goehrendt ran up ahead and talked to Moller, but you could not hear what they were saying, is that correct?

A That was in the forest, yes, the forest.

Q That was before the flier had been shot, wasn't it?

A That was when the flier was brought back.

Q Was it before the flier was shot or after he was shot?

A That was before, yes.

Q Now you didn't hear what Goehrendt told Moller, did you?

A I heard only when Goehrendt called to Moller, "Where do you want to go with the flier? That's wrong--that's the way to Offenbach."

Q Didn't you just finish telling Colonel Birman that you heard him yell at him and you didn't hear anything else?

A I said only that he said, "This is the direction of Offenbach"--that was shortly before the flier was shot.

Q Didn't you just a few minutes ago in answer to Colonel Birman's question say, "I heard him yell at Moller, but I didn't hear anything that he said?"

A That was the case when he walked to the left, but that was at the time when he was already walking back and was already again in the direction of Offenbach.

Q Now you say somewhere on the road you stopped to talk to someone, is that correct?

A Yes.

Q Whom did you say you talked to?

A With a man named Bosse.

Q How long did you talk to this man?

A Yes, it might have been one minute; it might have been a minute and a half; it might have been two minutes.

Q And while you were talking to him, you heard some shots fired, is that right?

A No, that wasn't at that time--that was Mr. Schrod.

Q Well, when did you talk to Mr. Schrod?

A The moment the shots were just fired or they were fired immediately afterwards.

Q And that was while you were talking to Schrod?

A Yes.

Q What did you do when you heard these shots?

A Right away I ran to the spot--to Moller--and yelled, "Who did this nonsense?"

Q Now what was the distance from where you were standing, talking, and where Moller had shot?

A Right through the air I was perhaps only 35 meters, but I had to run at an angle, but when you first took the path and then stepped into the woods, it was approximately 50 meters.

Q How did you come to run to Moller? How did you know that's where these shots came from?

A Because I heard from which direction they were fired--at my back.

Q Did you know Moller had fired these shots, of course?

A No, I didn't know that.

Q Why did you run straight to Moller instead of going somewhere else?

A To Moller? I asked, "Who did this nonsense?"

Q -at you couldn't ask him until you got to the place where he was?

A No, no, of course not.

Q And you ran straight to him as soon as you heard the shots?

A No, I didn't run it straight away. I ran first on the path and then through the woods, and there I saw that Moller was standing there, and I saw Goehrendt running, too.

Q You knew Moller was going to fire some shots, didn't you?

A No, I didn't know that. How should I know that?

Q How?

A How should I know that?

Q Well, you knew that Eichel wanted the man shot, didn't you?

DR. WACKER: Once again, I have to object to this question. This question is asked the third time. It is repetitious.

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

WITNESS: That Moller had an order I heard only at Hersbruck. That was in July.

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q I didn't ask you about Moller's orders. I asked you about Eichel.

A I didn't know that Eichel had given an order to Moller.

Q Now, did you have your pistol at that time out there in the woods?

A Yes, whenever you wear your duty uniform, one has to wear the pistol.

Q Did Goehrendt have his gun?

A Yes, I don't know definitely, but I think so. It was part of the uniform.

(Albrecht-Cross)

said to Q What did Moller have to carry, and that's the way A Moller, in accordance with orders, had a steel helmet and a rifle, and Como, too. [illegible] wrote it.

Q Who ordered him to take the rifle and steel helmet?

A That was SOP for that uniform, because we had only two pistols. All the others had rifles. I cursed him.

Q Now, when you got to where Moller was, was the flier dead? [illegible] he [illegible] can still run.

A The flier was lying. He had fallen in front— to the front—his face down a little bit to the side, and Moller was standing there.

Q My question was, was he dead? Moller tells me the flier [illegible]

A Yes, he didn't give any more sign of life.

Q Now was that the same Second Lieutenant William A. Duke that you had had back in your office? cursed him. I said A "Why did it? Why did he do it?" and so on.

Q So that you ordered Como to stay with the body, and you and Moller went back to your headquarters, is that correct Because I didn't want to walk through the crowds.

A First, I cursed Moller because he had shot, and then he told me if he wouldn't have tried to escape, he wouldn't have shot, the long race. Now which was it?

Q You know he didn't try to escape, didn't you? and still A I hadn't seen it, and then we had to pass a [illegible]

Q Now, who prepared this written report that Moller signed? It [illegible] on the road to Offenbach, then A and Moller had left, and I asked whether Moller had made a report, and Goehrendt then said "no"; so I told Goehrendt to prepare a report; and I told him Moller had [illegible] already on the street. Otherwise, there said that he was shot while trying to escape, and that's the way the report was made. I don't know who wrote it--whether Gebhardt wrote it or whether Heberer wrote it.

Q Now, why did you curse Keller for killing this flier? You thought he was trying to escape, didn't you?

A That was right at the beginning when I cursed him. He was wearing heavy boots and heavy overalls. We would have caught him again. I, myself, can still run.

Q Well, what made you think, or even give you any idea, that Keller would have shot the man if he hadn't been trying to escape?

A Nothing. He has gotten us into trouble. I have to assume that when Keller tells me the flier was shot while trying to escape, it was the truth?

Q Why did you curse him, then?

A We were four; I don't know why I cursed him. I said, "Who did it? Why did he do it?" and so on.

Q Now, why did you take this flier on the long road to Offenbach?

A Because I didn't want to walk through the crowd.

Q Well, you just finished a few minutes ago telling Colonel Dinsmore that there was an air raid in progress; so you decided to take the long road. Now which was it?

A First, through the crowd, and secondly there was still an air raid alarm going on, and then we had to pass a bunker, and then he had to be taken on through Offenbach.

Q If there was an air raid on one road to Offenbach, there would be an air raid on the other, would there not?

A It wasn't the large alarm any more. It was then already given that the alarm would be over soon. For this reason the people were already on the street. Otherwise, there wouldn't be any people on the street.

(Albrecht-Cross)

Q Now, what you want this Court to believe is that when you started along towards the woods and Moller had the flier, that you knew nothing was going to happen to the flier, is that right?

A I didn't know anything what would happen to the flier. He was to be brought to Offenbach.

Q And when Moller shot and killed this American flier, it was a great shock to you, wasn't it?

A Yes, yes, it was. For this reason, I told him, "He has done us something. He has gotten us into trouble," I said to Cuno.

Q Can you give me any reason why four members of your police station went along to take this man to Offenbach?

A Not all of us wanted to go along to Offenbach. I told Goebrecht, "We go along part of the way."

Q What was your total police force at that time?

A As far as I can remember, 14 men.

Q How many were on duty at that time?

A All of them were still on duty. They weren't relieved yet.

Q Now, you say you had another flier in your office on that same day, is that correct?

A Yes.

Q Tell the Court what happened to that flier?

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I pray the Court's judgment.

CAPTAIN VANCE: I ask for a recess in place, may it please the Court.

PRESIDENT: Recess in place.

(Whereupon the Court recessed in place.)

PRESIDENT: The Court will come to order.

The objection is overruled.

WITNESS: This flier, I can't testify anything about it, because I was not on duty when the flier was brought in. My comrade, Coehrendt, was on duty.

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q Well, by your answer you mean you don't know what happened to him, is that correct?

A No, I can't say it. There was an air raid alarm going on, and then I always thought if there was anything new--

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I now request that he be made to answer questions and not make speeches.

PRESIDENT: The witness will answer questions.

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q Now, you testified on direct examination that later on some priest brought in a flier, is that right?

A Yes, that was on Sunday.

Q Do you know what happened to that flier?

A He was shot.

CAPTAIN VANCE: Nothing further.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: No questions.

PRESIDENT: No questions by the Court. The witness will take his place.

(Whereupon the Accused was excused and resumed his place in the prisoner's dock.)

DEFENSE COUNSEL: The Accused Coehrendt will now take the stand and desires to be sworn.

PRESIDENT: Let's recess first. The Court will recess for 30 minutes.

(Whereupon at 1455 hours the Court recessed.)

(Thereupon the court reconvened at 1525 hours.)

PRESIDENT: The court will come to order.

PROSECUTION: May it please the court, let the record show that all the members of the court except Colonel Ackerman, who is absent sick, all the members of the prosecution, all the members of the defense except Dr. Trost who is absent sick, all of the accused, the reporter and the interpreter are present.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: The accused Goehrendt will now take the stand, may it please the court.

PRESIDENT: Do you desire to be sworn?

ACCUSED GOEHRENDT: Yes.

WILHELM FRIEDRICH GOEHRENDT, an accused, called as a witness in his own behalf by the defense, being first duly sworn, took the stand and testified through an interpreter as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY DR. BERGER:

Q State your full name to the court.

A Wilhelm Friedrich Goehrendt.

Q When and where were you born?

A 9 May, 1898 in Lassas in Pomerania.

Q Are you married?

A Yes.

Q Do you have any children?

A One child.

Q Are you one of the accused in this case?

A Yes.

Q What is your civilian occupation?

A I studied to be a gardener.

Q Did you practice this profession?

A Until 1915.

(Thereupon)

Q And after 1918?

A I was drafted in the army.

Q Did you participate in the first world war?

A Yes. From 1914 until 1918.

Q After the world war?

A I was unemployed until 1921.

Q Did you then practice your profession as a gardener again?

A No.

Q What was the profession that you took up?

A In 1921 I joined the Police of the State in Darmstadt.

Q Did you then remain with the police until the end of the Second World War?

A Yes.

Q Did you participate in the second world war as well?

A From 1939 until 1944.

Q Then in 1944, what month?

A Until May, 1944.

Q Were you discharged from the army at that time?

A I was sent back to my own office in Offenbach.

Q Were you a member of the NSDAP?

A No.

Q Were you a member of the SS?

A No.

Q Of the SD or the Gestapo?

A No.

Q Did you do all your service in the Protective Police or the regular police?

A Until 1945.

Q What was your highest rank in the regular police?

A I was Master Sergeant of the Protective Police.

Q Where were you stationed between August 1944 and the end of World War Number Two?

A In the District Headquarters Bieber, Offenbach.

Q What were your official duties there?

A I was to do internal service.

Q What do you mean by internal service?

A I did all the clerical work that came up.

Q Do you still remember the 22nd or 21st day of March, 1945?

A The 22nd of February, 1945.

Q What happened that 22nd day of February, 1945?

A On the 22nd of February a flyer came down--crash landed in the vicinity of Offenbach. An airplane, that is, crashed and eight or nine members of the crew came down to the ground by means of parachute.

Q Was there an airraid alarm in Offenbach at that time?

A Yes.

Q Were you able to observe where these flyers who were parachuting down to the ground landed?

A No.

Q Did you see any of these flyers that landed?

A Yes.

Q When and where did you see them?

A That was on the 22nd of February, about noon, about 1330.

Q Where did you see the flyer?

A I saw him coming from the air raid shelter in the street Kaiserstock. I saw him walk up that street with Keller.

Q You said that you were coming from the shelter. What kind of shelter was that?

A That was a public air raid shelter.

(Continued-direct)

Q How many persons capacity?

A About four thousand persons.

Q Was there a headquarters of the police there?

A No.

Q Why were you in that shelter?

A I was in that shelter with some of the men in order to maintain order.

Q Was it common practice to have some policemen in that public shelter to maintain order?

A In case of every air raid alarm it was.

Q About what time did you leave that shelter?

A About one-twenty.

Q Were there a lot of people around?

A That was a preliminary end of the air raid attack and people were streaming out of the shelter.

Q Was there a rather large number of people collected in the streets?

A Yes.

Q When you saw the flyer, where was he?

A When I saw the flyer I saw him from a distance of about 100 or 150 meters.

Q Was that the first time you saw this flyer that noon or that forenoon?

A Yes.

Q Will you please tell the court now what happened then?

A I went past this guard Rebstock and went to go to the police station and pick up my bag.

Q Where is that guardroom located--that Police Station located?

A On the corner of Rebstock Strasse and Mauerfeldt Strasse.

Q Continue.

A A pretty large number of people were standing around these streets.

(Goehrendt-direct)

pls-lms-s
pld-220-s on account of the end of this air raid and I approached the corner of Rostock Strasse. There I saw Moller, whom I had seen before, walking about 100 meters ahead of me with the flyer. First Lieutenant Albrecht and one Sergeant Cuno were standing at the corner of the headquarters and were trying to push back the crowd which had collected there. [illegible] large of the Q Did that crowd follow Moller and the flyer?

A Not at that moment.

Q Did the crowd remain?

A Some shouts could be heards [illegible]

Q Who were these shouts directed at? [illegible]

A They were directed to the flyer as far as I could tell at present.

Q Then what did happen? What did you do?

A Lieutenant Albrecht, as soon as he saw me, called me over.

Q Was Lieutenant Albrecht your immediate superior? [illegible]

A Yes, [illegible] and after that to camp I guess.

Q Continue, please. [illegible] on your way, and where to?

A I asked him, "Where do you want to go with this man?" He said, "We want to go the Headquarters of the Protective Police." I asked him, "Why go this way?" He answered, "I don't want to go through the crowd." "You can come along a piece of the way in order to keep the men crowded back some." [illegible] empty.

Q Did you follow that bid? [illegible] with the main company.

A Yes. [illegible] Moller.

Q Did you now follow Albrecht and the flyer and Moller all by yourself?

A I went on the left side of the road. Albrecht about 10 meters behind me on the right side of the road and Cuno was about five meters behind Albrecht. [illegible]

(Testimony continued)

Q At that instant where was Moller with the flyer?

A At about the level of Flur Strasse about 70 meters ahead of us.

Q Where did they then go?

A Along this Rebstock Strasse towards Hamburg-Strasse.

Q Is that one of the ways of getting to the headquarters of the police in Offenbach?

A It is a roundabout way.

Q All right, continue.

A The distance decreased some until about 30 meters between me and Moller. Albrecht closed up too and we went along Rebstock Strasse-Hamburg Strasse. On Hamburg Strasse I met an acquaintance and for a short moment talked to him.

Q What did you talk to this acquaintance about?

A He asked us where we were going and I said, "Well this man will be taken to the headquarters and after that to camp I guess."

Q Did you then continue on your way, and where to?

A Moller then went towards the woods towards Housenstammer Strasse.

Q Could you get to Offenbach by way of this Housenstammer Way?

A Yes.

Q Is that the territory which is well cultivated and highly populated or is it more or less empty?

A That is entirely open terrain until the Health Insurance Company.

Q As you followed Moller and the flyer were you able to keep Moller and the flyer in your sight? Were you able to have a look at the terrain?

A Yes.

Q Continue telling what happened along the way.

A At the edge of the woods--at the limits of the Police District several people collected--primarily children.

(Ashren t-direct)

(Goehrendt-direct)

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Just a minute please. Did he mention the name of the street that was the limit?

INTERPRETER: No, sir.

QUESTIONS BY DR. BERGER:

Q What indicated the limits of the district?

A The Houcenstammer Way.

Q Did the woods start at Houcenstammer Way?

A At the place where the road goes to Offenbach, that is where the woods starts there.

Q Continue telling your story.

A I had a disagreement with the children there whom I tried to chase off home because I was trying to avoid them following us, and I turned around and didn't see Moller anymore.

Q Where was Moller at that time?

A As I saw him he went into the path out into the ground.

Q Now this path that is out through the ground, is that the right way to Offenbach?

A No.

Q What did you do then?

A I told Albrecht, who was walking behind me--he had closed up quite a bit, he was a little bit behind me--I asked him where was this man Moller going. He was going the wrong way. He looked at me and said, "Well where is he going?" So I ran after Moller--he was about 40 meters ahead of me already--and from about 20 meters distance I called over to him, "Moller, where are you going to? You are supposed to take a right here."

Q Did Moller understand that call?

A Moller turned around, looked at me, and immediately turned to the right.

(Cochran t-direct)

Q What did you do?

A I walked back toward Albrecht. I might have taken ten paces when the shot was fired. I stopped, completely frozen in my tracks and immediately thereafter another shot was fired and so I ran after Moller and said, "Dag, what are you doing here?"

Q At the time you heard those two shots did you see Moller and the flyer?

A When I turned around I did.

Q Where was Moller at the time?

A At that time he was about 80 meters away from the low path cut through the ground in the direction of the path through the woods.

Q What kind of a path through the woods?

A The path through the woods going to Offenbach.

Q Continue telling what happened after you called over to Moller?

A I ran over to Moller until I was about five meters away from him and I said, "Man, what in the world are you doing here?"

Q What did Moller answer?

A Moller wasn't able to answer at all. He was just standing there shaking.

Q He didn't give you any answer at all?

A He tried to answer but he couldn't spit it out.

Q Was Moller so excited?

A You could even see it.

Q Please continue.

A So I turned around back up to Albrecht and told Albrecht, "What is Moller doing here? I won't have anything to do with this."

Q What did Albrecht answer to that?

A Albrecht said, "Well, what is he doing?", and ran over to Moller.

Q And then?

(Continued-direct)

A I went to the edge of the woods and Coma was standing there.

Q Where?

A At the path to Offenbach.

Q Continue.

A I went to the police station.

Q Did you go to the Police Station all by yourself?

A Yes.

Q From the time you met Albrecht at the Police Station, then on your way to the edge of the woods as you were walking, until the time you pointed out to Albrecht that Moller was going the wrong way, did you have any conversation at all with Albrecht?

A Not a word.

Q You returned to the Police Station?

A Yes.

Q Continue telling your story.

A Sergeant Blunk was present at the police station. He asked me, "Man what do you look like?" I don't know what this is now but if the witness said so I guess it is right. I said, "Moller did something to us."

Q What did you mean to say by that?

A I wanted to express that this man had put the whole police in a bad shape by doing that--if a police offical shoots a prisoner.

Q Did you then leave the Police Station or did you spend any more time at the Police Station?

A I spent some more time at the Police station talking to Blunk and he told me about the incident which had taken place in the Police Station before then.

Q What incident?

A When Police Director Bichel and First Lieutenant Kiwitt had come to the Police Station.

(Cochrandt-direct)

Q And then?

A Then Albrecht and Moller came. Moller came up to me in my room. He had his cabinet where he kept his things there. I said,"Moller, what did you do? Did you even think of what you were doing?"

Q Did Moller answer you in any way?

A Yes.

Q Was he in any shape to talk?

A Hardly.

Q What did Moller tell you?

A Moller told me that he had received the order to shoot the flyer from Eichel.

Q Did you have any further conversation with Moller?

A I was so annoyed I didn't do any more talking to Moller.

Q What occured then?

A Then Moller left the room and then First Lieutenant Albrecht came into the door and said, "Did Moller write the report?" I said, "No, Moller went home." So Albrecht told me, "Write a report to the effect that the flyer was shot while trying to escape and send that to his house, to his apartment and have him sign it."

Q Did you write that report?

A I think so. I can't say for sure.

Q Were you familiar with the fact that the contents of it was not right in that form?

A Well, since Moller had told me he had an order I had to assume that it wasn't right.

Q Why was this report written in spite of this?

A First Lieutenant Albrecht gave me the instructions to write that report so I thought he probably had his reasons for that.

(Cochrond-direct)

Q Did you then take this report to Moller?

A No, Sergeant Lahre did that.

Q Did Moller sign the report?

A I don't know. I didn't see the report anymore.

Q Do you know what happened to the report afterwards?

A I imagine it went to the Protective Police Headquarters.

Q Do you know that of your own knowledge?

A No, but that was the official channels.

Q Was any order announced to you or did it come to your knowledge concerning captured flyers?

A No.

Q On that day did you know that there was any order available concerning this flyer who later on was shot?

A No.

Q Which of the accused did you know before the trial started?

A First Lieutenant Albrecht, the Police Corporal, Sergeant Moller personally. I knew those personally. I knew Police Director Michel from seeing him and Kiwitt by name.

Q You don't know any of the other accused?

A Yes, I also knew the accused Fay.

Q Was he an official in your headquarters too?

A No, I once made a report to him when I was a traffic cop.

Q Otherwise you didn't have any contact with any of these accused?

A No.

Q In your circle of friends was there ever any talk concerning the treatment of captured parachuted flyers?

A Yes, there was some talk about this Goebbles propoganda.

Q What kind of talk was that?

A Disparaging.

Q By that do you mean to say that the measures which were suggested by that propaganda did not meet with your approval?

A As a regular policeman, yes.

DR. BERGER: No further questions.

PRESIDENT: The court will close until 0900 hours tomorrow morning.

(Whereupon at 1555 hours the court was closed.)

Legal Form No. 8

MILITARY GOVERNMENT COURT
MILITÄRGERICHT

CHARGE SHEET
ANKLAGESCHRIFT

Place .....
Ort

Date .....
Datum

Name of accused .....
Name des Angeklagten

is hereby charged with the following offences:
wird hiermit wegen der folgenden strafbaren Handlungen angeklagt:

First Charge: ..... Erste Anklage: .....

.....

.....

.....

Particulars: ..... Einzelheiten: .....

.....

.....

.....

Second Charge: ..... Zweite Anklage: .....

.....

.....

.....

Particulars: ..... Einzelheiten: .....

.....

.....

.....

.....

The above charges are referred for trial to the *Summary *Intermediate Military Court to be held *General

Die Verhandlung wird vor dem *Einfachen *Mittleren Militärgerichte *Oberen

at ..... on ..... 194.....
in (Address of Court) am
(Anschrift des Gerichtes)

at .....
um Uhr stattfinden. By Order
Im Auftrage von

.....
(Signature of person preferring charges)
(Unterschrift des Vertreters der Anklagebehörde)

*Strike out words not applicable.
*Nichtzutreffendes ist durchzustreichen.

Copy of above served on accused ..... 194.....
Abschrift dem Angeklagten zugestellt am

.....
(Signature of person making service)
(Unterschrift des Zustellers)

CA/GI 13 Legal Form No. 8

Court (24)

MILITARY GOVERNMENT COURT.

CASE RECORD.

Pages 1562 - 1666

Case No. Superior Orders

*~~Summary~~
*~~Intermediate~~ Military Court.
*General

Place DACHAU, GERMANY

Date 27 FEBRUARY 194 7

Prosecutor Lt. Col. Dwinell

Defence Counsel Lt. Col. Berman
Rudolf Nathanson

Interpreter Herbert B. Rosenstock

Reporter Patricia Stewart, Imogene Butler
William F. Jones, Peter Di Curti, Paula Silverman

~~Members of Court~~ WITNESSES:

WILLIAM GOEHRENDT	OSKAR LUECK	WILHELM ALBRECHT
	PETER COMO	HERMANN MOLLER
JOSEF JOHANN KIWITT	KARL BLUM	ROSEL SCHWAB
PETER SCHROD	ELIZABETH BLUEMMEL	HANS EICHEL
GUNTHER NIEMANN	VALENTIN KAISER

Accused JURGEN STROOP, et al

Address Sex Age

	First Charge	Second Charge
Pleas
Findings
Previous Convictions

Sentence
- Imprisonment
  - Term
  - Beginning 194
- Fine
  - Amount
  - To be paid before 194
    or in case of default of payment to serve a *further term of imprisonment.

Charge Sheet and Record of Testimony are annexed hereto.

(Signature of member of court.)

REVIEW

Action of Reviewing Authority

(Signature of reviewing authority)

*Strike out words not applicable.

RECORD OF TESTIMONY

in trial of

THE UNITED STATES versus JURGEN STROOP, et al

by

GENERAL MILITARY GOVERNMENT COURT

tried at

DACHAU, GERMANY BEGINNING 10 JANUARY 1947

27 FEBRUARY 1947 Pages 1562 -

TESTIMONY

WITNESSES:	DIRECT	CROSS	REDIRECT	RECROSS	COURT
WILHELM FRIEDRICH GOERNERNDT	1562	1566	1576 1581	1581 1584
JOSEF JOHANN KIWITT	1586	1596	1606	1606
PETER SCHROD	1610	1617	1628
PETER COMO	1629	1633	1634
KARL BLUM	1634
ELIZABETH BLUEMMEL	1640	1648	1648
VALENTIN KAISER	1648	1651
WILHELM ALBRECHT			1653	1653
HERMAN MOLLER			1654	1655
ROSEL SCHWAB	1656
HANS RICHEL	1662

EXHIBITS

NONE

Camp Dachau, Germany

27 February 1947

MORNING SESSION

(Whereupon the court reconvened at 0900 hours.)

PRESIDENT: Court will come to order.

PROSECUTION: May it please the court, let the record show that all members of the court, except Colonel Ackerman, who is absent sick; all the members of the prosecution; all the members of the defense, except Dr. Trost, who is absent sick; all of the accused, except the accused Koehler, No. 5, who is absent sick; the reporter and interpreter are present.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: At the end of yesterday's session, the accused Goehrendt was on the witness stand, may it please the court, and Dr. Buerger has a few more questions. Before he starts, may I ask that the accused Hellenbroich be excused so that he may engage in some defense work. His presence is not necessary at this time.

PRESIDENT: Permission granted.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Have the record show that the accused Hellenbroich has been excused at the request of the defense for preparing his defense.

WILHELM GOEHRENDT, an accused, voluntarily resumed the stand in his own behalf, and having been first duly sworn, testified further through an interpreter as follows:

PRESIDENT: You are reminded you are still under oath.

THE WITNESS: Yes.

PRESIDENT: Proceed.

DIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY DR. BUERGER:

Q Mr. Goehrendt, you testified yesterday that after the shots were fired, you ran over to Moller and said, "You nervous dog, what have you done here?" And then you said to Albrecht, "I am leaving now.

I don't want to have anything to do with this matter." What did you mean with these sentences?

A I intended to express with these words that Moller was following the flier and was holding his rifle like a hunter under his arm. The first moment, I thought Moller had not been careful and had touched the trigger. For this reason, I used the expression, "nervous dog." That is a dialect expression. That is the word you use with a man who is extremely nervous and is doing more than he is supposed to do. Then I said afterwards, "I don't want to have anything to do with this matter." I said that because I thought for the first moment perhaps he was shot while trying to escape, and I was so angry, because no attempt was made to catch the man again and that he shot at him immediately that I expressed my excitement with these words. For this reason, I said, "I don't want to have anything to do with this matter."

Q Once more, let us return to your activities in both World Wars. On which fronts did you serve during the first World War?

A The first World War, I served on the Western Front from the North Sea down to the southwest border, Russia, Italy and Rumania.

Q What branch of the service were you in?

A I was with the 21st Engineer Battalion.

Q On these fronts, did you always serve in the front lines?

A From the first to the last day.

Q Were you decorated during the first war?

A Yes.

Q Which decoration did you receive?

A I received the Iron Cross, second class, 1914, and the Mecklenburg Service Medal, 1916.

Q On which fronts did you serve during the second World War?

A The last days of the Polish campaign, the Norway campaign, and Russia up to 1943.

Q In this war, too, you were decorated?

A Yes.

Q Which decorations did you receive?

A War Merit Cross, second class; Close Combat Medal; and for the second time, the Iron Cross, 1914-18.

PROSECUTION: May it please the court, let the record show that the accused Koehler, No. 5, has resumed his place in the prisoners' dock.

QUESTIONS BY DR. BUERGER:

Q Yesterday you testified that you came out of the air raid bunker when you met Albrecht?

A Yes.

Q Where did you intend to go then?

A I wanted to go to the guard room to pick up my breakfast case and to go home.

Q Where did you live?

A At the corner of Rebstock and Hamburger Streets.

Q Why, then, did you go with Moller and the others?

A Because Albrecht asked me to do so.

Q Your duty hours were over already?

A We policemen were always on duty.

Q The path you took passed by your house?

A Yes.

Q How far were you supposed to go along?

A I assumed that I should go along as far as Albrecht went along.

Q Did he tell you, anyway, how far he intended to go along?

A Part of the way.

DR. BUERGER: Thank you.

QUESTIONS BY DR. HACKER:

Q Mr. Goehrendt, after your arrest, were you at Hersbruck?

A Yes.

Q Were you together with Moller there?

A Yes.

DR. WACKER: Thank you. No more questions.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Prosecution may cross examine.

CROSS EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q Goehrendt, you were a master sergeant with the police force?

A Yes.

Q Who was the highest rank, you or Moller?

A My rank was higher.

Q On the 22nd of February, 1945, at what place did you first see the American flier?

A In the Rebstock street, approximately 50 meters from the police station.

Q Who had him in custody?

A Moller.

Q Had you seen him prior to this time on the inside of the police station?

A I wasn't at the police station.

Q Had you seen the flier at any place prior to the time you saw him in the street with Moller?

A It is possible that he was one of the men who came down with the parachute.

Q I believe you said that eight or nine fliers came down from one plane, is that correct?

A Eight or nine, yes.

Q And was that a large plane?

A As far as I could see, it was a four-motored bomber.

Q At the time you saw Moller with the flier, did you see Como?

A Yes.

Q Where was Como in reference to the flier?

A Como was standing with Albrecht at the corner of the Rebstock and Maufeld streets.

Q What were Como and Albrecht doing?

A They were talking to the crowd which was standing there.

Q Did you hear what they said?

A I couldn't hear that.

Q Did you see Kiwitt?

A No.

Q Did you see Eichel?

A No.

Q Did you have a conversation with Albrecht after you saw him standing there talking to the crowd?

A Only that what I testified to already yesterday. Albrecht called me over, "Come over." Then I asked Albrecht, "Where do you intend to go with this man?" "To headquarters of the Order Police," he said.

Q Where was that headquarters?

A At the corner of Kaiser and Dom streets in Offenbach.

Q In reference to directions, north, south, east and west, which direction was that headquarters from your headquarters?

A Northwest.

Q Which direction did they leave with the flier when they left?

A Southeast.

Q In other words, about the opposite direction, is that right?

A At the beginning, yes.

Q Did you leave in the direction that the flier, Como and Moller were going?

A I went in the direction in which Moller went.

Q Why did you go?

A Because I was requested so by Albrecht.

Q Were you requested, or were you ordered to go?

A I was requested.

Q I believe you testified yesterday that somewhere during this march, before the flier was killed, that you stopped to talk to some man, is that right?

A Yes.

Q How far were you from your police station at that time?

A Approximately 400 meters.

Q Did you make any more stops?

A Only at the edge of the woods.

Q What did you talk to this man about?

A We only talked for a short moment. He asked me, "Where do you want to go with this man? What is going to happen to him?" and I said, "He is being brought to headquarters of the Order Police, and from there, probably to the Air Force, to the camp at Oberursel."

Q What is the name of that man?

A Karl Bosse.

Q Do you remember Bosse saying that you were going in the opposite direction from Oberursel?

A Yes. He said, "Why are you taking the back road?" so I said, "Probably Albrecht doesn't want to walk through the crowd."

Q Now, you told Bosse that you were going to the police headquarters at Offenbach. How did you know that?

A Albrecht had told me so.

Q You went along because Albrecht asked you to do so, is that right?

A Yes.

Q What did Albrecht want you to do?

A We should hold back the crowd which was standing around the doors so that the flier could pass unmolested.

Q Who left the police headquarters first, you or Albrecht?

A Probably Albrecht, because he was standing outside on the corner.

Q He was holding the crowd back, wasn't he?

A Yes, he was talking to some of the men.

Q What were you doing?

A I came over then and talked to Albrecht.

Q After you left? You said you left.

A Then I followed Moller on the left side of the road.

Q So all you did was just follow, is that correct?

A Only follow.

Q And you followed to see what was going to happen, is that right?

A No, I followed in order to obey Albrecht's request to protect the flier.

Q Whatever Albrecht's orders were to you, you followed them, didn't you?

A I thought this request was justified, and I obeyed it.

Q Now, somewhere along the march, you chased some children away. Where was that?

A At the edge of the woods.

Q How far was that from where Moller killed the flier?

A Approximately 60 meters.

Q Why did you run those children away?

A I didn't want the children to follow the men who were escorting the flier, and this way would draw more curious people to the group.

Q Goehrendt, you didn't want those children to witness a murder, did you?

A I didn't know anything about a murder.

Q Were these children molesting the flier?

A No.

Q You just didn't want them around?

A They shouldn't follow us any longer.

Q They shouldn't follow you any longer after you got to the woods, is that what you mean?

A They shouldn't follow any longer, so that these two people could get away unmolested.

Q Where were you when you heard the shots?

A I was approximately 30 meters from the edge of the woods.

Q Where was Albrecht?

A He was standing at the edge of the woods.

Q Behind you or in front of you?

A Behind me.

Q Was he behind you or in front of you when you heard the shots fired?

A He was behind me.

Q He wasn't facing you?

A Yes, I was walking towards him.

Q How could he be behind you if you were walking towards him?

A In relation to the place of the crime, it was behind me, because he was at the edge of the woods.

Q Were you in the woods?

A I was in the forest, approximately 30 meters.

Q How many shots did you hear?

A Two shots.

Q After you heard the shots, I believe you testified that you ran to Moller and called him a dog, is that right?

A Yes, with the words, "nervous dog."

Q Were you in sight of Moller at the time he shot the flier?

A I was walking with my back turned towards Moller.

Q When you heard the shots, did you turn around?

A Yes, I turned around.

Q Did you see Moller then?

A Yes, I saw Moller.

Q Could you see the flier?

A I could see only the shadow of the flier, because he was lying on the ground.

Q What was that distance between where you were and where Moller and the flier were?

A I can't say exactly, but I estimate 25 to 30 meters.

Q You have heard various people testify, and also yourself, that you shouted something at Moller prior to the shooting. Do you remember that?

A Yes, that is correct.

Q What did you say to him when you shouted to him?

A "Moller, you are going the wrong way. You have to go to the right."

Q Why did you tell him that?

A Because he was taking the road, the Mohlweg, to Tempelsee, and he should have taken the road to the right.

Q How do you know what Moller was ———

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I don't think you finished, may it please the court. I think the witness said, "the road to the right, to Offenbach."

THE WITNESS: To the right, to Offenbach.

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q You didn't know what Moller's instructions had been to do with the flier, did you?

A No, I didn't know that.

Q Why did you make that remark?

A Because I was of the opinion, and Albrecht told me so, that he should be brought to Offenbach, and so he was walking in the wrong direction.

Q Were you in charge of that detail?

A No.

Q Why were you giving the instructions?

A Because Albrecht said, "Where does this man want to go? Where does this man want to go? He is going in the wrong direction." Then Albrecht said, "Where do you want to go?" Then I ran after him.

Q Haven't you just finished testifying that Albrecht was way down at the edge of the woods at that time? How could you talk to him?

A I was together with Albrecht when he told me so.

Q You were together with Albrecht when you shouted these instructions to Moller, is that what you say?

A No. At that time, I was already running after Moller and was about 30 meters away from Albrecht.

Q What were you running after him for?

A Because I thought this man is walking in the wrong direction. This way, he will never get to Offenbach.

Q Did Albrecht tell you to run up and catch Moller and give him these instructions?

A No. He said, "Where does Moller want to go? He is going in the wrong direction," and then I asked the policeman junior in rank, I am supposed to run after Moller.

Q Who was in charge of this detail?

A In charge? You can't say that. Moller had the order to go together with Goma and the flier to the headquarters of the Order Police.

Q How do you know that?

A Because Albrecht told me so.

Q If Moller had his orders and knew what to do, why did you and Albrecht go along?

A I don't know that, either.

Q What was it you said about to Moller to this effect, I don't remember exactly what it was, that by his actions he had put the whole police force on the spot?

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I don't remember hearing any such thing in the evidence, and I want to repeat an objection to putting words into a witness' mouth that by no stretch of the imagination can it be said he said.

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

THE WITNESS: I never said anything like this to Moller.

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q Didn't you tell this court yesterday that you said, "Moller, by your actions you are going to get the whole police force in trouble," or something to that effect?

A I never said that.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: If I remember rightly, if I may make the suggestion, the language to that effect was introduced in this case by the witness Lueck, who said that when Albrecht and Goehrendt got back to the police station, he told them what Moller had done and he said something about shooting the man in the presence of the whole Tempelsee, or something of that kind. Lueck was the man who brought in this testimony, not Goehrendt.

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q Are you willing to stand on the fact that you didn't say anything about this, is that right?

A I wouldn't know that I said so.

Q If you said it, you would know it?

A Yes.

Q After you ran up to Moller and called him a nervous dog, what did Moller tell you?

A Moller couldn't talk. He opened his mouth and he stuttered something, but you couldn't understand him at all.

Q When did Moller first talk to you after the killing?

Ta 221-pe-60-2/27-12

A At the station.

Q What did he tell you then about the killing?

A I complained to Moller, and told him how could he shoot the flier. And then he told me, I can't repeat the exact words, that he had the order from I don't know whether he said Police Director or Mr. Eichel.

Q Did you carry your weapon that day out into the woods?

A I always carry my weapon.

Q Did Albrecht carry his weapon?

A It was a duty regulation.

Q After you got back to the police station, did Albrecht order you to make up your report showing that the flier was killed while trying to escape?

A Albrecht asked for Moller. Then I said, "Moller went home." Then Albrecht asked "did he write a report?" I said, "I don't know, I don't think so." Then Albrecht said, "Get a report ready and write in it that the flier was shot while trying to escape."

Q Did you write the report?

A Yes, I wrote the report; at least, I think I did.

Q Did you know that the flier wasn't shot while trying to escape?

A Through my talk with Moller, who had told me something different.

Q So you knew you were making up a false report?

A False report? First lieutenant Albrecht should know better, because he was walking with Moller all the way.

Q I am not talking about Albrecht. I am talking about you.

A In this sense, I have to say yes to this question.

End ta 221
idb fols

Q Well, you knew it because you knew that all fliers that got into the hands of the police were executed, didn't you?

A I didn't know that.

Q You didn't know that?

A No.

Q Well, you knew that you had three fliers at your headquarters, didn't you, within a few days of this instance?

A I couldn't know that because that was the first flier. This flier here was the first flier.

Q You had two more after him, didn't you?

A After this one, yes.

Q And what happened to those other two fliers?

A As far as I know, they were shot.

Q And these are all the fliers that you know about ever coming to your headquarters, aren't they?

A These are the three.

Q As far as you know, everybody that ever came to your police headquarters was shot, is that correct?

A Yes, these three.

Q And were they shot while trying to escape, or do you know?

A The one case I heard about here and through the report of two of my men who returned to the station, and the others I heard about from hearsay.

Q Now, you knew about the orders that had come down to the effect that fliers would be killed, didn't you?

A I never heard about any order or read an order.

Q Did you ever see an order?

A No.

Q Were you familiar with the propaganda that was going around in Germany about terror fliers?

A Yes, I knew that.

Q What was supposed to be done with terror fliers?

A Goebbel's propaganda said, as far as I know, that the police should not interfere with the civilian population.

Q When you left the police station on that day, following along behind Moller, you knew that that flier was going to be executed, didn't you?

A No, I couldn't know that.

Q And it was a great shock and a great surprise to you when Moller shot that flier?

A I think so.

Q You think so? Do you know?

A Yes.

Q When you heard the shots, you knew Moller had fired them, didn't you?

A Yes.

Q How did you know that?

A Because there was nobody else.

Q You were expecting to hear those shots, weren't you?

A No.

Q How many automobiles did you have at your headquarters?

A At our headquarters there was only one car with a siren which was to be used when the electric siren was out of order.

Q How many motorcycles did you have?

A None.

Q Was that car there on the 22nd of February, 1945?

A I can't say that.

Q If they wanted to get this flier to Headquarters at Offenbach, do you know of any reason why they shouldn't have taken him there in this automobile?

A They weren't allowed to do so.

CAPTAIN VANCE: Nothing further.

REDIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY THE DEFENSE COUNSEL:

Q After this incident with Moller, was anything said in the police station by Albrecht with respect to the handling of any future allied flying personnel?

A After the second incident on the same day, Albrecht, at noon-time during the relief of the guards, said, "I don't want to see any more that a policeman brings a flier to the police station. If possible he is to be delivered immediately to the air forces or to the anti-aircraft units."

Q Were you on duty at the police station when this second flier was brought there?

A Yes.

Q By whom was he brought there?

A A civilian.

Q Did you have any talk with Albrecht about the second flier?

A Yes.

Q Tell the Court when and what the conversation was.

A The flier was brought in by a civilian at approximately seven o'clock P. M. He had surrendered voluntarily.

I searched him.

Q Well, just the talk that was had.

A There was an air raid alarm going on. Albrecht called over the phone, as he did usually during air raid alarms, whether anything new had happened. I said, "Yes, unfortunately, another flier is in the station," and Albrecht said, "Take this flier immediately, without delay, on the shortest route under safe conduct to the headquarters of the Order Police."

Q Where was that?

A At the corner of Kaiser and Dom Street in Offenbach.

Q Do you remember what time of night that conversation took place?

A That was perhaps 10 minutes after the flier had been delivered.

Q What did you do?

A I wrote out the report. I made a record of his belongings, ordered two men, who took this man on the shortest route to Offenbach to headquarters and delivered him there.

Q Who were these two men?

A That was First Sergeant Michel and Sergeant Schneider.

Q What did you tell them?

A They should bring the man to Offenbach on the shortest possible route and should deliver him there.

Q Did they bring this second American flier to the commando in Offenbach?

A Yes.

Q Now, come down to the third one. Were you there when he was brought in?

A Unfortunately, yes.

Q What time of day was that?

A Sunday morning at eight o'clock.

Q Did you have some talk with Albrecht about that?

A Yes.

Q What was that talk?

A I called Albrecht over the phone. I said, "Albrecht, unfortunately another flier is in the station. Come over immediately."

Q Going back to the second one for a moment. When did you last hear anything further about this second man who was brought to Offenbach at your order?

A In the evening at eleven o'clock.

Q And how did you hear that?

A The two men returned and reported that the man had been shot while trying to escape. They had gone to the Headquarters of the Order Police and there they had received the order to shoot him, but they didn't do it, and intended to return to me at Bieber. On the way back, an air raid alarm was given and they went to the bunker near the Bierbrauer Weg. There the flier started to escape and there he had been shot.

Q Did you make a report of this shooting of the second flier to Albrecht?

A In the morning at eight o'clock. I told him--he came from his home to our station--and reported to him, "Yesterday's flier has been shot while trying to escape."

Q And this report referred to the second flier--not to the first?

A Yes, to the second flier.

Q All right, you tell us about telling Albrecht about the second flier, and you say he came right down.

A Yes.

Q All right, what happened?

A I went home to wash up and to have breakfast, and handed the flier over to Lueck with the order to let him sit there on the stove until Albrecht did arrive.

Q Let's skip all that. Albrecht did arrive. What then?

A When I returned, Albrecht was just coming in.

Q Yes, go ahead.

A When I arrived, a car was already standing in front of the station. A Captain and First Sergeant of the Air Force were already present. As far as I can remember, Albrecht then handed the flier over to the Captain of the Air Force.

Q What happened?

A Then arrived a First Lieutenant named Zager of the headquarters of the Order Police.

Q What was his job there?

A He was in charge of the branch office of the police, and he was an adjutant of Major Kohlenbeck.

Q In that capacity, did he have command jurisdiction over the police force in Bieber?

CAPTAIN VANCE: I object to that question.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I will withdraw the question.

QUESTIONS BY THE DEFENSE COUNSEL:

Q What authority, if any, did he have over the police force in Bieber?

A He was a representative of Major Kohlenbeck, and whenever he was representing him he had full authority over the police station at Offenbach.

Q At any rate, Zager was there, a Captain of the Air Force was there, and Albrecht was there.

A Yes.

Q What happened after that, if you know?

A This I know only from hear say.

Q From whom?

A From Albrecht and the other men who were present at the station.

Q What did they tell you happened?

A The Captain of the Air Force interrogated the flier, and Zager came and requested the flier from the Captain of the Air Force. The Captain didn't want to hand over the flier, and then supposedly Zager gave him a receipt that after the flier's interrogation at the headquarters of the Order Police, he would deliver the flier at Oberursel; and it seemed that the Captain of the Air Force accepted this then, because afterwards he drove away with his car. As far as I can still remember, Albrecht came to my room and said, "Zager, the beast, wants to take away this flier from the Captain of the Air Force."

Q. At any rate, who took him away?

A Zager.

Q That was the last time you saw him?

A Yes.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Nothing further.

RECROSS EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q What did Zager do with him?

A As far as I heard, he shot him.

Q Why didn't Albrecht want any more fliers in his headquarters after 22 February 1945?

A On account of the incident of the first and second flier, we got wise and knew what would happen to the flier, if we didn't take some other steps.

Q Was Albrecht the chief of the police there at Bieber?

A He was the leader of the police station in Bieber.

Q Didn't he feel it was his duty to protect prisoners of war?

A Yes, he tried to do so.

Q But he didn't want any brought to his police headquarters after this incident?

A They should be delivered to the Air Force as far as possible.

Q But the last one you handed over, instead of going to the Air Force went to a man named Zager?

A He was brought by a Catholic priest to the station.

Q Yes, and wound up in the hands of Zager.

A After he was taken over already by the Air Force and the Air Force released him again.

CAPTAIN VANCE: Nothing further.

REDIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY DR. BUERGER:

Q Mr. Goehrendt, you testified before that you sent along with the second flier Michel and Schneider. Why did you send these two men along?

(Goehrendt-Cross) Re (Redirect)

A Michel and Schneider, they are my two most harmless policemen. They wouldn't do harm to anybody. If the flier would have escaped, then he would have been gone away for good. Until they would have made up their mind who has to do the shooting, he would have been far away.

PRESIDENT: The Court will recess for twenty minutes.

(Whereupon at 1002 hours, the Court recessed for twenty minutes.)

End ta 222, WFJ fols

(Whereupon court was opened at 1030 hours.)

PRESIDENT: Court will come to order.

PROSECUTION: Let the record show that all members of the court are present, with the exception of Colonel Ackerman, who is absent sick; all members of the prosecution are present; all members of the defense are present, with the exception of Dr. Trost, who is absent; that the accused are all present, with the exception of Hallenbreich, Number 20, who is temporarily absent in conference with defense counsel; that the interpreter and the reporter are present.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Goehrendt will resume the stand. I think Dr. Wacker has a question or two.

WILHELM FRIEDRICH GOEHRENDT, an accused, voluntarily resumed the stand in his own behalf and being reminded that he was still under oath, continued to make the following statement through an interpreter as follows:

RE DIRECT EXAMINATION (Contd)

QUESTIONS BY DR. WACKER:

Q Mr. Goehrendt, had the head police director Michel been informed that a second flyer had been delivered to the police station in Bieber?

A Deliberately I didn't do so.

Q Had Michel been informed of the presence of the third flyer?

A No.

Q In regard to the transport of the second flyer, you mentioned two policemen, Michel and Schneider, and you testified about the intelligence of these two men. Was the intelligence of these two men lower than that of Heller?

(Whereupon court was opened at 1030 hours.)

PRESIDENT: Court will come to order.

PROSECUTION: Let the record show that all members of the court are present, with the exception of Colonel Ackerman, who is absent sick; all members of the prosecution are present; all members of the defense are present, with the exception of Dr. Trost, who is absent; that the accused are all present, with the exception of Hellenbroich, Number 20, who is temporarily absent in conference with defense counsel; that the interpreter and the reporter are present.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Goehrendt will resume the stand. I think Dr. Wacker has a question or two.

WILHELM FRIEDRICH GOEHRENDT, an accused, voluntarily resumed the stand in his own behalf and being reminded that he was still under oath, continued to make the following statement through an interpreter as follows:

RE DIRECT EXAMINATION (Cont'd)

QUESTIONS BY DR. WACKER:

Q Mr. Goehrendt, had the head police director Michel been informed that a second flyer had been delivered to the police station in Bieber?

A Deliberately I didn't do so.

Q Had Michel been informed of the presence of the third flyer?

A No.

Q In regard to the transport of the second flyer, you mentioned two policemen, Michel and Schneider, and you testified about the intelligence of these two men. Was the intelligence of these two men lower than that of Heller?

A I didn't give them an IQ test.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Nothing further by the defense.

RECROSS EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q You said that you deliberately withheld from the knowledge of Michel that these other flyers were there. Why did you do this?

A On account of the incident in the morning.

Q Any other reason?

A No.

Q You were afraid that Michel wanted this man killed and would give you the order to do so, weren't you?

A Yes.

Q Once he had given the order in the morning?

A Yes.

Q Now, I am going to read some of your testimony that you gave in court yesterday. "Question. You returned to the police station? Answer. Yes. Question. Continue telling your story. Answer. Sergeant Gluck was present at the police station. He asked me, 'Man what do you look like?' I don't know what this is now but if the witness said so I guess it is right. I said 'Moller did something to us.' Question. What did you mean to say by that? Answer. I wanted to express that this man had put the whole police in a bad shape by doing that--if a police official shoots a prisoner." Do you remember telling that?

A Yes, that is what I testified.

Q Now, could the act of one enlisted man in the police force put the whole police force in a mess?

A It was to be expected that the war was lost and it would make a bad picture for the population if a policeman kills a prisoner. The last was my opinion.

Q That was in February, 1945?

A Yes, February 1945.

Q At that time I believe you said that you thought the war was lost?

A Yes.

Q Do you know the approximate distance from Bieber to Bensheim?

A I don't know Bensheim.

Q What is the approximate distance from Beiber to Frankfurt?

A Six to seven kilometers.

Q Beiber and Offenbach are on one side of the river and Frankfurt is on the other side, is that right?

A Not exactly. The river goes right through Frankfurt itself.

Q About six kilometers?

A Yes.

Q How far is Bieber from the bank of the Rhine River?

A I can't say that exactly.

Q Do you know where Bieber is?

A Yes.

Q Do you know where Bensheim is?

A Yes, I know where it is located.

Q Is it on the Rhine River or near the Rhine River?

A Bensheim on the Rhine. Bensheim is on the Bergstrasse.

Q Is it near the Rhine River?

A What you call near the river. I can't visualise anymore how far.

Q All right. Now I want to ask you this again. You said that Albrecht asked you to go along for part of the way, is that right?

A Yes, part of the way.

Q How far did he say he wanted you to go?

A He didn't say that.

Q Did you go any further than the place where the killing was?

A I would have gone up to the limits of our police station. That was at Rousenstammer Weg.

Q Why do you say that? You say that you didn't know how far Albrecht wanted you to go.

A It is not customary that the policemen of one district go into another police district.

Q Had you left the bounds of your district before the flyer was killed?

A At this moment, yes.

Q And you did go to the scene of the shooting?

A Yes.

CAPTAIN VANCE: Nothing further.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Any questions by the court?

PRESIDENT: No questions by the court. The witness will take his place in the dock.

(Whereupon the witness was excused and resumed his seat in the prisoners' dock.)

DEFENSE COUNSEL: The accused Kiwitt, Number 7, will now take the stand.

PRESIDENT: Do you desire to be sworn?

THE WITNESS: Yes.

JOSEF JOHANN KIWITT, an accused, voluntarily took the stand in his own behalf and being first duly sworn, testified through an interpreter as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY DR. BUERGER:

Q Please give your full name?

A Josef Johann Kiwitt.

Q When and where were you born?

A On the twentieth of February, 1895 at Essen on the Ruhr.

Q What is your civilian profession?

A I was a police official.

Q Was this your profession all your life?

A No, not always.

Q What kind of a profession did you learn?

A After the First World War, first I was a miner until 1925 and on the first of January, 1925, I entered the service of the police.

Q Are you married?

A Yes.

Q Do you have children?

A Yes.

Q Did you serve in the German Army during the first World War?

A Yes.

Q From when to when?

A From 1915 until the end.

Q Which branch of the service did you serve in?

A I was an infantryman. I was wounded three times.

Q Where did you serve as a police officer after you entered the service of the police in January, 1925?

A On the first of January, 1925, I started with the city police of the City of Gladbach. The city police was taken over by the state police in 1925 and so I entered the service of the state police. I was taken over as a sergeant into the order police.

Q How long did you serve in the police?

A Until the first of April, 1934, then I was discharged.

Q During the entire time until 1934 you were with the order police?

A Yes.

Q Why were you discharged in March, 1934?

A On account of political unreliability.

Q What kind of profession did you have afterwards?

A First for two years and four months I was without occupation, unemployed and then on the first of August, 1936, I was hired by the municipal administration of the City of Gelsenkirchen as City Secretary.

Q How long did you serve with the municipal administration there?

A Until the second of May, 1940.

Q And after the second of May, 1940?

A On the second of May, 1940, I was drafted into the police. I got a temporary assignment as first lieutenant in the order police. I did duty as an instructor in a police battalion. Then, for one year I was adjutant at a police school and then afterwards I was leader of a police station.

Q When were you transferred to Offenbach - Main?

A My permanent duty station was Strassburg in Alsace. From there I was transferred on a detail for temporary duty on the twenty-second of November, 1944, to Offenbach.

Q In which capacity were you transferred to Offenbach for temporary duty?

A I was an officer and whenever the commander, Major Kuhlenbeck, was not present I was representing him.

Q What were your main duties there?

A I got a special assignment from Major Kuhlenbeck. I had to work out a defense plan for the City of Offenbach. That occupied my entire time.

Q Major Kuhlenbeck was your immediate superior?

A Yes.

Q Who was the next higher superior officer?

A Police Director Richel.

Q You were a member of the Nazi Party?

A Yes.

Q Since when?

A From the first of May, 1933.

Q You were a member of the SS?

A No.

Q Were you a member of the Security Service of the Secret State Police?

A No.

Q Were you a member of the Leader Corps of the Party?

A No.

Q Now, I asked you do you still remember the twenty-first or twenty-second of February, 1945?

A Yes.

Q Where were you on this date?

A I was in the airraid headquarters on the Bierbrauerweg.

Q At what time of the day?

A It was around noon.

Q Where did you go from there?

A When we noticed that an airplane had been shot down and that several flyers parachuted in the neighborhood and two men in the immediate vicinity of Beiber, police director Eichel requested me to check the guards in the woods.

Q Did you follow this order?

A Yes.

Q Did you leave the airraid headquarters on foot, on bicycle by car, or how?

A We drove up to the edge of the forest in the duty car of the police director.

Q You said "we". Whom are you referring to?

A The Police Director, his driver and myself.

Q You all checked together whether the guard were on their assigned posts?

A Yes.

Q Did you hear whether parachuted flyers had been taken into custody?

A No. On our way home to police headquarters, the car was stopped in the village of Beiber by some civilians, whose names I do not know, and this civilian said to Police Director Eichel, "Mr. Eichel a flyer has been delivered to the police station in Beiber."

Q Did you then drive to the police station at Beiber?

A Yes, Police Director Eichel, he himself was driving the car, turned the car to the police station.

Q What did you find then in the police station at Beiber?

A We drove to the police station, left the car, the Police Director entered the station building, I followed him. Furthermore a third man, Brandt, I don't know him any further.

Q Who was Brandt and where did he come from?

A The Police Director had picked him up on the way.

Q Continue your story.

A When we were in the building we saw a flyer in the guard room sitting on the table, smoking and he had a glass of water in front of him. The Police Director Eichel got mad because the flyer was treated so well. This moment First Lieutenant Albrecht entered the room. First Lieutenant Albrecht reported to him. Now the Police Director Eichel complained to him and asked him who gave the permission that the flyer could sit down and smoke and be treated so well.

Q Did you participate in this discussion?

A I didn't participate. I only griped a little bit.

Q What do you mean?

A I made a few silly remarks.

Q Continue your story.

A Albrecht was wearing his house jacket and now from this spot, it was in the guard room, he went to his office room. The Police Director followed him and went into the room too and kept on admonishing him.

Q Did you too go into the room of the station leader?

A When I saw that the Police Director was admonishing the First Lieutenant, I didn't like to be present there when a comrade of mine was admonished and for this reason I didn't enter the room.

Q During this admonishment of the station leader, was the door to his room open or not?

A The door was open, it wasn't closed.

Q Did you hear anything about what was talked about?

A I heard only that all the time Eichel had complained to Albrecht that he had treated a flyer in this manner. I didn't bother with this anymore and because I didn't know this station, I started now to look over the various rooms. I went from one room to another and intended to leave the station again. There I heard when the Police Director Eichel said to Albrecht, "Albrecht bring this flyer to police headquarters but he shall not arrive or he will be done away with", I don't remember the exact words.

Q In which room were these remarks made and where were you at that time?

A I remember this happened at the exit from the guard room to the small hall outside. When I passed then I heard these remarks. The Police Director also asked, "Did you understand me?" and Albrecht said "Yes Police Director I understand the flyer is to be bumped off or shall be killed. I don't know exactly but not through me. I refuse to do it." I left then and went back to the car.

Q Where was the flyer during this talk between Eichel and Albrecht?

A I don't remember anymore.

Q Whom did you meet when you arrived at the car outside?

A There were a few civilians standing on the car and I started to talk to them. Shortly thereafter the Police Director Eichel left the building and called for First Lieutenant Albrecht. Albrecht then came out and Eichel then said to Albrecht, "Albrecht why aren't you leaving, why aren't you taking the flyer away?" Albrecht then replied "One man has to get ready yet. He has to get his carbine and steel helmet." At this moment a policeman arrived.

Q Do you know who he was?

A No, I don't know the policemen there. The Police Director sent him to police headquarters and then he entered the car and I entered the car and then we drove away.

Q Did you go then to the police headquarters?

A At the office of the Police Director I left the car and then I rode on my bicycle to headquarters of the Order Police and then I didn't leave this office building for the rest of the day.

Q Weren't you in Bieber once more in the afternoon?

A No, the entire day I didn't leave the building anymore.

Q Did you hear whether a report was made about this incident or what happened?

A Yes. In the afternoon, about five o'clock, that was the usual time when the reports came in from the various police stations, a report came in from Station Bieber with the contents, "On orders of the Police Director Eichel, a flyer was being brought to the the office building of the Police Director. On the way the flyer made an attempt to escape and was shot while trying to escape." That was approximately the contents. I can't give the contents too exactly.

DR. BUERGER: That is all.

DR. RAU: Cross examination on behalf of the accused, Albrecht.

DIRECT EXAMINATION (Contd)

QUESTIONS BY DR. RAU:

Q When Albrecht said to Eichel, "I refuse to shoot the flyer", what did Eichel say in reply?

A Eichel then said, "Then somebody else will do it or some other policeman will do it."

Q Did you notice whether Eichel gave an order to another police official?

A No, I didn't bother with the Police Director. I looked over the station and then left the building.

Q Did you notice in any way that the other policemen went out of Eichel's way?

A Yes, they took off.

Q Did you see whether Eichel spoke to Moller?

A I can't recall that. I didn't see that.

Q Did you see whether Albrecht spoke to Moller?

A No, I didn't bother with it.

Q Do you remember that shortly before he left Eichel expressed the desire to take the pilot along on his car?

A I can't testify in regard to this point either because I neither saw it nor heard it.

Q Weren't you always together with Riebel outside at the car? A

A No. First I was on the car alone and afterwards he came.

Q Is it possible that he made this remark while you were absent, that he intended to take the flyer along on the motor hood of his car?

A I don't know that. I didn't hear it.

Q I only asked you whether you were present all the time, or was it possible that he said this while you were away?

CAPTAIN VANCE: I object as to the possibility of what could have been done. This man has said that he didn't know.

PRESIDENT: Objection is overruled

THE WITNESS: This possibility exists, but I didn't hear it.

QUESTIONS BY DR. RAU:

Q What was your personal impression or opinion what would happen to the flyer at the time you left the police station at Riebel?

A My impression was that the flyer would be delivered according to the orders.

Q Why was this your impression, didn't you hear before that the flyer was to be shot on the way to police headquarters?

A The Police Director had made this request to First Lieutenant Albrecht, but Albrecht had refused this definitely so this case was settled.

Q What was the last utterance of the Police Director when you left?

A When I entered the car he called over to First Lieutenant Albrecht, "to police headquarters then". That was the last he said.

Q If I understand you right then the Police Director had given up his plan to have the flyer shot?

A I don't know that.

DR. RAU: Nothing further.

DR. WACKER: I have a few questions in favor of the accused Eichel.

DIRECT EXAMINATION (Contd.)

QUESTIONS BY DR. WACKER:

Q Do you have difficulty with your hearing?

A I don't hear so well. Will you please repeat the question.

Q Do you have bad hearing?

A Yes, I don't hear so well.

Q Is it possible that during this talk between Eichel and Albrecht you didn't hear everything right or didn't hear some remarks at all?

A That is all I heard. I don't make the story any better or any worse. I just said it as I heard it. I don't hear so well, but that is what I heard.

Q Was it an order by Eichel to Albrecht or wasn't it an order?

A My first impression was it was an order to Albrecht, but since the Police Director didn't take any action when First Lieutenant Albrecht definitely refused to do it, then I got the impression it wasn't an order.

Q For how long did you know Eichel before the twenty-second of February, 1945?

A When I started my duty I visited him. I paid him a visit and then four weeks later I was together with him several times at airraid headquarters.

Q Did it happen often that Eichel accepted a refusal to obey an order in this manner?

A That is the first time I saw it.

Q Was the remark made on the police station, "And this fellow is still alive."?

A I can't remember this.

Q Did you talk to Miller about the testimony of Goma?

A It might have been here in the bunker, when the charges were served.

Q What did Miller tell you at that time?

A We had meetings at that time and during one of these meetings I asked Miller what is Goma going to testify because I went together with him at that time. Then Miller told me, "Goma can say only, ' I shot him while he was trying to escape!".

Q Did you speak afterward at the police station that the flyer should be shot?

A No.

DR. HACKER: No further questions.

CROSS EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q Did you say, before you went to work for Albrecht, that you attended a police school?

A I was adjutant at the police school.

Q Did they teach a subject on the treatment of prisoners at that police school?

A Not even once was that talked about--this subject.

Q You talked about a Major Kuhlenbeck as being dead.

A Whether this is true, I don't know.

Q On February 22 you saw a plane shot down is that correct?

A Yes.

Q I believe you were in the car with Eichel, the driver and yourself and proceeded to the woods, is that right?

(Kivitt-direct)

A We drove to the forest, yes.

Q After you checked the guards you drove through Bieber?

A Yes. We checked the guards in the woods and then through Bieber we returned to police headquarters. We were returning to police headquarters.

Q Who was driving when you got to Bieber?

A Police Director Biehel.

Q What had happened to the driver?

A He was sitting next to him?

Q When is the first time you knew that they had an American flyer at the Bieber Police Station?

A We came through the village of Bieber. The car was stopped. A civilian reported or told the police director that a flyer had been delivered at the police station. That is where I heard, for the first time, about the flyer.

Q After you heard about it did you go to the Bieber Police Station?

A Yes. The Police Director turned and went to the Police Station, Bieber.

Q Why did he want to do that?

A I don't know that.

Q Did he discuss it with you before you got there?

A He didn't say anything.

Q You didn't know where he was going until you got there?

A The civilian told him that the flyer was already at the police station and when he turned with the car now, from the main road, I noticed that he was going to the police station.

Q Had he planned to go by the police station until he heard this flyer was there?

A No. We intended to return to police headquarters.

(Kiwitt-direct)

Q When you got there the American flyer was smoking and drinking some water, is that right?

A Yes.

Q Was there anything wrong with that in your opinion?

A It was all right.

Q Well you said you were a little griped about it.

A When Police Director Michel entered the room and First Lieutenant Albrecht reported to him the flyer didn't get up. The Police Director was in uniform.

Q Is that what griped you?

A And about this was my excitement.

Q Do you get up every time an American Officer comes in your room?

A Yes.

Q You weren't annoyed because he was smoking?

A No, that didn't bother me.

Q You had no objection to him drinking some water did you?

A No, not at all.

Q Well, was Michel a little mad or was he furious about this?

A Michel was furious.

Q He more or less flew into a tantrum when he arrived there didn't he?

A Yes, you might say he lost his nerves.

Q Tell the court everything that Michel did and said that you can remember.

A Michel cursed that the flyer was smoking. He also said, "Who gave him water?", and First Lieutenant Albrecht came then. He cursed Albrecht because the flyer was treated so well. Albrecht then took the cigarette away from the flyer. I don't know whether he threw it to the floor or put it in an ash tray. At this moment the Police director took the scarf which the flyer was wearing around his neck and pulled it off. Then the flyer took it off and put it on the table. In the meantime Albrecht went into his room and the police director followed him.

(Fwits-Direct)

Q Did Albrecht take the cigarette away from the flyer or did he slap it out of his mouth.

A He didn't slap it out of his mouth. The flyer was smoking. He was holding the cigarette in his hand. Albrecht took the cigarette out of the flyer's hand and put it on the ashtray.

Q Did Albrecht say who had given the flyer permission to smoke?

A I don't know that.

Q He didn't admit to Eichel that he did it, did he?

A I can't remember this anymore.

Q I believe you said that after this occurred that since you had never been in the Sieber Police Station that you walked through all of the rooms, is that correct?

A I had been once before at the Police Station, Sieber, but I didn't know the rooms yet and for this reason I looked them over.

Q What were you looking for?

A I wanted to get acquainted with the rooms. It is usual that a superior officer or another officer who is doing something with the police station looks over the locality.

Q Were you Albrecht's superior?

A Major Buhlenbeck.

Q Were you Albrecht's superior?

A I was a rank higher comrade of his.

Q How long did it take you to look through all of the rooms?

A Perhaps five to seven minutes.

Q During this five to seven minutes you were looking through the rooms you don't know what Eichel may have said to Moller, do you?

A No, I don't know that.

Q You don't know what Albrecht may have said to Moller, do you?

A All this I couldn't observe because I was walking from one room to another.

Q You did hear Eichel say that the flyer must be done away with, is that right?

A When I intended to leave the building again I had to pass both of them and then I heard.

Q Was that before you went around to look at the rooms or after you had looked at the rooms?

A After I had looked through the rooms and intended to leave the building again.

Q What did Eichel mean by that statement, "The flyer will have to be done away with."?

A He should be shot.

Q At the time he made that statement he was talking to Albrecht, is that correct?

A To Albrecht, yes.

Q Then Eichel asked Albrecht, "Do you understand?", is that right?

A Yes.

Q Then Albrecht said, "He will be bumped off, but not by me personally.", is that right?

A Albrecht said, "Not through me, I refuse that."

Q But did he say, "He will be bumped off."?

A Who?

Q The American flyer.

A I didn't understand you question.

Q All right I will repeat it. Albrecht said, "The flyer will be bumped off, but not by me."

A Not through me, yes.

Q Albrecht was an officer wasn't he; a first lieutenant?

A Yes.

Q Eichel wouldn't expect an officer to carry out an execution personally would he?

A If an officer gets an order he has to carry it out.

Q Well Eichel didn't order Albrecht to do the shooting, did he?

A I don't know that. I don't know whether this was a personal order for Albrecht or whether he meant something else with it too. I testified exactly what I heard.

Q After hearing Eichel make this remark to Albrecht you know what Eichel wanted done with this American Soldier, didn't you?

A Yes, I could know that.

Q After that you and Eichel went back to your headquarters, is that correct?

A Yes. Police Director Eichel returned to his headquarters. In the yard I left his car and rode away on my bicycle. We didn't talk at all anymore.

Q Do you know Geehrendt?

A I got acquainted with him here.

Q Did you see him on that day?

A I don't know. I didn't know anyone of the policemen. I knew only First Lieutenant Albrecht.

(Hiwitt-cross)

Q I believe you said that on the afternoon, on the same afternoon, a report came from Bieber to the effect that this flyer was shot while trying to escape, is that right?

A Yes, I said so.

Q Is it customary to make these type of reports on incidents?

A About all happenings at a police station reports had to be made to headquarters of the Order Police.

Q Of course you know that the report was falsified?

A No, I didn't know that.

Q You don't mean to tell the court you think the flyer was shot while trying to escape, do you?

A Yes, I assumed that.

Q That is what you thought at that time?

A Yes.

Q You were very much surprised to find out different later?

A Yes.

Q When did you find out he was murdered?

A Here in the bunker.

Q You were surprised even though you heard Bichel say he wanted him killed?

A First Lieutenant Albrecht had refused to obey this order so I had assumed that this would not be done.

Q Where did that report go after it came to your headquarters?

A Where it went, I don't know.

Q Well it goes on up to your next higher headquarters, doesn't it?

A That is the usual way.

Q Is that headquarters in Wiesbaden?

A We had no connection with them.

Q Who was your next higher headquarters?

(Kimitt-cross)

A There was a Commander of the Order Police.

Q Wasn't he in Wiesbaden?

A No, he was in Darmstadt. I heard that Nichel said to Albrecht, "The Q Who was he? Q. Did you understand." Please repeat exactly

A I don't know that.

Q Where was his next higher headquarters? The headquarters over the headquarters in Darmstadt. possible that he also said something about the

A Then came the Commander of the Order Police, whether those re-

Q Was he in Wiesbaden?

A This office was in Wiesbaden. repeated, "Yes, the flyer is to

Q Did those reports take that channel that you have mentioned to these various headquarters? another expression, but that was the meaning.

A Part of the report went through these channels but part of the reports also went through the headquarters of the Police Director.

Q Do you tell the court that Albrecht refused to carry out Nichel's order? of the matter?

A Yes. was the last order Nichel gave to Albrecht.

Q You have heard various witnesses and various accused talk about the punishment for refusing to carry out orders, haven't you?

A Yes. no more questions.

Q You have heard some of them testify that they would be given the death sentence for refusal to obey, haven't you?

A Yes, I do say, "being him to Police headquarters, but they him at?

Q Whatever happened to Albrecht for his refusal?

A For the time being nothing happened to Albrecht. For this reason I assumed that the Police Director didn't want to have this considered an order. this any questions by the court?

CAPTAIN VANCE: Nothing further. now. No witness will have his (Kiwitz-cross)

REDIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY DR. RAU:

Q You said before that you heard that Eichel said to Albrecht, "The flyer will be done away with. Did you understand." Please repeat exactly what Albrecht said in reply?

A "Yes, I understood. The flyer is to be bumped off, but not through me. I refuse that." It is possible that he also said something about the flyer shall not arrive, but I don't know that. I don't remember these expressions exactly anymore.

Q Are you certain that Albrecht repeated, "Yes, the flyer is to be bumped off."

A He might have used another expression, but that was the meaning.

Q If I understand you right, you don't want to stick exactly to the wording?

A I am of the opinion that is what he said.

QUESTIONS BY DR. WACKER:

Q What was the last order Eichel gave to Albrecht?

A That was at the end of the car. He called to Albrecht, "To Police Headquarters."

DR. WACKER: No more questions.

RECROSS EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q Didn't he say, "Bring him to Police Headquarters, but bump him off on the way."

A He said that before. He had said this before in the building.

CAPTAIN VANCE: Nothing further.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Any questions by the court?

PRESIDENT: No questions by the court. The witness will take his place in the dock.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: The defense now calls Lueck, Oscar.

I will have to change that, may it please the court. I can't find Lueck. I will now call Peter Schrod.

PRESIDENT: He will be sworn.

PETER SCHROD: I was sworn once before. Do I have to swear once more. I was already a witness for the prosecution.

PRESIDENT: You will swear once more and take the stand.

PETER SCHROD: I won't take a second oath.

PRESIDENT: Take him out of the courtroom.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I ask that he be held for contempt of court.

PRESIDENT: Recess in place.

(Whereupon the court recessed in place.)

(Whereupon the court reconvened.)

PRESIDENT: The court will come to order. You have

We want to ask him a few questions.

EXAMINATION BY THE COURT

LAW MEMBER: You were a witness in this case for the prosecution before this day, were you not?

PETER SCHROD: Yes.

LAW MEMBER: At that time you took an oath to tell the truth without any objection did you not?

PETER SCHROD: Yes.

LAW MEMBER: You are now called as a witness for defense, is that correct?

PETER SCHROD: Yes.

LAW MEMBER: You have just declined to be sworn as a witness?

PETER SCHROD: Yes.

LAW MEMBER: What is your reason for refusing to be sworn as a witness at this time?

PETER SCHROD: My personal opinion is: I tried to prevent the crime at that time and I said whatever I had seen at that time. I didn't withhold anything or add anything and I don't know why, for the defense, I should be sworn for a second time.

LAW MEMBER: Have you any religious scruples or beliefs as to why you should not take an oath before testifying?

PETER SCHROD: No. As far as religion is concerned, it has no meaning.

LAW MEMBER: This court requires that a witness, before he takes the stand, take an oath that he will tell the truth.

PETER SCHROD: Yes. I said already--I testified already to whatever I had seen and heard. I have nothing to add or to withhold and for this reason the case is settled as far as I am concerned.

LAW MEMBER: Mr. Schrod I don't want anymore arguments. You have been called as a witness for the defense. Are you willing to take the oath and testify as a witness?

PETER SCHROD: I don't know why a second oath is necessary.

LAW MEMBER: Answer the questions that I ask you and don't quibble.

PETER SCHROD: Then I would like to hear the reason why.

LAW MEMBER: Are you willing to take the oath before you testify?

PETER SCHROD: I referred to my first oath.

LAW MEMBER: I think the court should find him in contempt.

Do you understand that this court can find you as being in contempt of court and punish you for being in contempt?

PETER SCHROD: No.

LAW MEMBER: It can. How do you wish to take the oath before you testify or do you not?

PETER SCHROD: I need time.

PRESIDENT: We haven't any time.

LAW MEMBER: By your silence are you declining?

PETER SCHMOD: No, I would like to get, only once more, an answer to my question, why a second oath is necessary.

LAW MEMBER: Because the court ordered it, for you to testify.

PETER SCHMOD: All right, if it can't be helped. All right.

PETER SCHMOD, called as a witness by the defense, being first duly sworn took the stand and testified as follows:

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I would like a recess in place.

PRESIDENT: Recess in place.

(Whereupon the court recessed in place.)

(Whereupon the court reconvened.)

PRESIDENT: The court will come to order.

The court will take a recess until 1430.

(Whereupon at 1155 hours the court recessed.)

AFTERNOON SESSION

(Whereupon the Court reconvened at 1340 hours.)

PRESIDENT: The Court will come to order.

PROSECUTION: May it please the Court, let the record show that all members of the Court, except Colonel Ackerman, who is absent sick, all the members of the Prosecution, all the members of the Defense, except Dr. Trost, who is absent sick, all of the accused, the reporter and interpreter are present.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: We were just about to present the witness Peter Schrod when the court recessed. Bring in Peter Schrod.

(Whereupon the witness Peter Schrod was brought in.)

PRESIDENT: You are reminded you are under oath.

WITNESS: Yes.

PETER SCHROD, called as a witness by the Defense, resumed the stand and being reminded that he was still under oath, testified further through an interpreter as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY THE DEFENSE COUNSEL:

Q Your name is Peter Schrod?

A Yes.

Q And you have previously testified in this case?

A Yes.

Q Is the expression "er hat uns eins geschafft" familiar to you?

A Familiar? You hear it several times--quite often in our place.

Q What does it mean?

A Well, in my opinion, and I emphasize that this is only my subjective opinion, it means this doesn't suit me, or I can't make this agree with my conscience or something.

Q Now, in your direct examination, you testified that you heard a voice and the expression "The flier will be shot." Where did that voice come from? Did it come from inside the police station or from outside from some of the people standing around the police station?

A From the crowd outside.

Q Now, also in your testimony, you said something to the effect that your conscience bothered you because "we did not know of such orders on the front." In making this statement I have just quoted, were you referring to a voice which said "he will be shot"?

A In the Army we didn't have that sort of orders, and when they said "he will be shot", I had to assume that he will be shot.

Q What order are you talking about?

A Well, I am not talking about any orders. When I said "orders" I meant the Army.

Q You didn't hear anybody give any order to shoot this particular flier, did you?

A No. I didn't say so, either.

Q Could you hear at all what went on inside the police station?

A No, I wasn't able to hear what was going on inside the police station.

Q Now, coming down to the scene in the forest, are you acquainted with Heusenstammer Strasse?

A Heusenstammer Weg, yes.

Q And the forest, which has been mentioned in this case, begins on that Weg, does it not?

A Yes.

Q Do you know whether or not any streets or paths or Hohlweg which ran through the woods beginning at Heusenstammer Weg?

A There is one path going to a settlement, and I knew also of one Hohlweg and another one to the right.

Q And where does the one to the left go--the Hohlweg?

A It will take you down to the community of Tempelsee.

Q And this other Weg that you mentioned--where does that take you?

A If you go up to the right, you will get to the so-called Buchhegel.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: What's that?

INTERPRETER: A hill.

QUESTIONS BY THE DEFENSE COUNSEL:

Q And if you continue to follow that road over the hill, what will it take you to?

A You can get to the Offenbach Landstrasse or Bieber Strasse that way.

Q Now did you testify that you saw Moller leave the Hohlweg to go into the forest?

A I was engaged in a conversation with Albrecht then.

Q If Moller or any other person had turned right from the Mehlweg to go into the woods, could he, by going through the woods, have reached this road that you mentioned which goes over the hill to Offenbach?

A If you go to the right, it will take you directly into the woods.

Q If you continued going through the woods, would you come to that road that we have been talking about?

A You will get to the community of Tempelsee.

Q Now, the Mehlweg, if followed, goes to Tempelsee, that's true, isn't it?

A Yes.

Q Standing where you were standing with Albrecht and looking down the Mehlweg, that is the road that goes to Tempelsee, is it not?

A Yes.

Q Now, if Moller had followed the Mehlweg as the evidence is that he did, going from the spot where Albrecht was standing in the direction of Tempelsee and had turned right into the woods--I am making this explanation because I want you to understand which direction I mean by right--and gone through the woods, would he have reached the road we have been talking about?

A If he went left or else entirely about face and walked the same road back.

Q By going through the woods, could he have reached the main road to Offenbach or any road to Offenbach?

A If he had turned left, he would have gotten to Heusenstammer Weg, and he would have gone down Heusenstammer Weg.

Q Have you an idea of the approximate place at which Moller left the Mahlweg to go into the woods?

A Well, the approximate amount of meters from the cross roads to the place where Moller turned into the woods and where the shot was fired was about 800 meters.

Q My question was, are you familiar with the approximate place on the Mahlweg from which Moller went into the woods? Have you an idea where it was that he went into the woods?

A Yes, I had been at the place of the incident.

Q From the place of the incident to the road to Offenbach, how far was it?

A On the Offenbach Strasse to Offenbach?

Q From the place where the incident took place--occurred--how far was it, if you know, to this road which went through the woods to the hill that you mentioned?

A If he had gone back on the Weg to the hill, about 500 meters.

Q Gone back to which hill?

A To this Buchhegel hill, which further on goes back down to Offenbach.

Q I am going to repeat my question and ask your particular attention to it. From where this shooting took place, how far was it by the shortest line to this road which leads through the woods to the hill?

A I have to ask you again, straight through the woods past Heusenstammer Weg or straight through the woods past Heusenstammer Weg back to the road, which way?

Q You have testified that there was a road through the woods which went up to the hill which lead to Offenbach. Do you remember saying that?

A Yes, if you go back.

Q Is there such a road? I think you can answer that.

A I am not so good at geography.

Q Did you testify--and I ask you to answer this question yes or no--that there was a road through the woods which went up to a hill which went to Offenbach? Did you say that or did you not?

A Yes, back.

Q I want you to draw a sketch showing Heusenstammer Strasse or Weg, and this road you are talking about in the woods?

A That's the woods; that's the Hohlweg; that's the Heusenstammer Weg; and that's the road to Offenbach. (Indicating).

Q Now, Heusenstammer Strasse, right the name on there.

A This is Heusenstammer Weg. (Indicating).

Q Right the name down there. Now which is Hohlweg? Mark it. Now, which is the trail that goes through the woods to the hill?

A There should be another path here from Bieber.

Q Mark it. Mark it also where the incident occurred. Now, draw a straight line from the spot where it occurred to the road going to Offenbach at the nearest point.

CAPTAIN VANCE: May it please the Court, I am going to object to that because there is no testimony that anybody left the spot and went on a road to Offenbach.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I didn't say there had.

CAPTAIN VANCE: Then what's the purpose?

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I want to show how far it is from the scene of the killing to this road that goes to Offenbach, and I am having difficulty.

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

WITNESS: You have to go a piece through the woods.

QUESTIONS BY THE DEFENSE COUNSEL:

Q How far is that piece? Approximately. Give your best judgment.

A About 300 meters.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: That's all.

End ta 225 ps fols

CROSS EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q Mr. Schrod, you live in Bieber, don't you?

A Yes.

Q Are you familiar with the surrounding territory of Bieber?

A Yes, pretty well.

Q About what is the distance from Bieber to Offenbach?

A Three kilometers.

Q If you were at the police station in Bieber and wanted to go to Offenbach, which direction would you start out, north, south, east or west?

A The direct road, the Bieber-Offenbach Landstrasse.

Q Does that road run directly from Bieber to Offenbach?

A Yes.

Q What is the general direction of that road, north, south, east or west?

A West.

Q On this day, when you saw the flier being taken away from police headquarters, which street did they take?

A I don't know exactly which road it was, because I only met the flier later on in the woods, but they must have gone through the field.

Q Let me ask you this: When you met them with the flier, is it not true that they were going in the opposite direction from Offenbach?

A In my opinion, yes.

CAPTAIN VANCE: Nothing further.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: No further questions.

PRESIDENT: No questions by the court. The witness is excused.

(Whereupon the witness was excused and withdrew.)

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Defense offers as its next witness Gunther Niemann.

GUNTHER NIEMANN, called as a witness by the defense, being first duly sworn, testified through an interpreter as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY DR. WACKER:

Q State your full name, please.

A Gunther Niemann.

Q How old are you?

A 46 years.

Q Are you married?

A Yes.

Q Did you appear here once before as a witness?

A Yes.

Q Do you know one Police Director Eichel?

A Yes.

Q If you see him in here, will you please point him out?

A No. 6 (indicating).

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Have the record show he identifies No. 6 as Eichel.

QUESTIONS BY DR. WACKER:

Q What was your official position in February, 1945?

A I was commanding officer of the regular police, Wehrkreis XII.

Q And what was Eichel's position?

A Eichel was a police director of Offenbach.

Q Who was the immediate superior of Eichel?

A The Reichsstatthalter.

Q What was your relationship to Eichel?

A The protective police in Offenbach was under my command.

Q Were there any regulations applicable to the issuance of orders of a police director to his subordinates?

A Yes. This relationship was clarified in special regulations, because the positions of the commanding officer of the regular police and the police director had caused repeated friction.

Q What was the manner in which a police director would issue orders to his subordinates?

A I will have to give some more detail explanation here concerning the organisation of a police system in a city. The police director or police president -- in smaller cities, it would be the police director -- he would be the chief of the police, and thus he had under him the organisations which he was authorized to command, such as the protective police and the industrial police and several other branches of the police. For the protective police, he had as his officer the commanding officer of the protective police. In the case of Offenbach, that was a major.

Q Was that Kohlenbeck?

A Yes.

Q What I want to know from you, Mr. Niemann, is the following: Would it be common practice for a police director to issue orders to one of his subordinates directly?

CAPTAIN VANCE: We object to what is common practice. It is a question of what was done.

DR. WACKER: That is what I am asking. There would probably be certain exceptions, but I do want to know what was common practice.

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled. Let him answer.

DR. WACKER: I would like to have the question repeated.

THE WITNESS: I understood it. In this regulation concerning orders which I have just mentioned, the authority assigned a police administrator, that is, a police president, a police director, was defined. He could give instructions and orders to the commanding officer of the protective police, but he wasn't able to give any direct orders to any particular policeman of the protective police. That always had to be done through the commanding officer of the protective police.

QUESTIONS BY DR. WACKER:

Q Is it possible for a police director to give a direct order to a police sergeant in a police district headquarters in the presence of two officers?

A If a police director or police president would have done that, he would have been violating this command regulation. He had to give the order to a commanding officer.

Q Do you know what kind of orders existed in February, 1945, concerning the treatment of captured fliers?

A Yes, I have testified about this here once before.

DR. WACKER: No further questions.

CROSS EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q Colonel Niemann, you are talking about what a police director is supposed to do according to regulations, aren't you?

A According to those regulations, yes.

Q I say you are talking about what they are supposed to do, not what they actually do?

A All I was doing was answering the question I was asked. Do you want some specific answer? I don't quite understand the way the question is put.

Q All right. You said that if a police director gave a sergeant an order, he would be violating regulations, is that correct?

A Yes.

Q And a police director is supposed to follow the regulations?

A Yes, he is supposed to.

Q But you have often heard of people who violated regulations, haven't you?

A Well, what do you mean? Generally, of course, it happens once in a while that somebody does not act in accordance with instructions.

Q You don't know whether Police Director Eichel gave any orders or not concerning this flier, do you?

A No, I don't know a thing about it.

CAPTAIN VANCE: Nothing further.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Nothing further, may it please the court.

PRESIDENT: No questions by the court. The witness is excused.

(Whereupon the witness was excused and withdrew.)

OSKAR LUECK, called as a witness by the defense, being first duly sworn, testified through an interpreter as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY DEFENSE COUNSEL:

Q Your full name, please?

A Oskar Lueck.

Q And you have testified previously in this case, have you not?

A Yes.

Q Were you in the police station at Bieber the afternoon of the Moller incident?

A Yes.

Q Was anything said there by anyone about the future handling of any Allied fliers?

A Yes.

Q By whom was it said?

A By Lt. Albrecht.

Q Please tell the court on what day and about what time.

A That might have been about 4 o'clock on the 22nd of February.

Q That was the day that the flier was shot by Moller?

A Yes.

Q Who was present at this time?

A Well, several police officials were there.

Q What did Albrecht say?

A Well, we were talking about the matter, and Albrecht then said that if any police official would ever again pick up a flier anywhere, he wasn't supposed to take him to the police station any more, but to the army directly.

Q Do you know whether or not a second flier was brought to the Bieber police station that same day?

A Yes.

Q Was this order by Albrecht given before the second flier came or after the second flier came?

A Before.

Q Do you know Michel and Schneider?

A Yes.

Q What kind of police officials were they?

A They were reserve policemen.

Q I mean, what kind of men were they, cautious or incautious?

A They were harmless, harmless people.

Q What does that mean, this harmless business?

A They were pretty soft, you might say.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Your witness.

CROSS EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q When Albrecht made this speech, who was present? You said several officials.

A Well, so many of them were running up and down, I can't say the names today. It has been too long.

Q Can you name anybody that was there?

A No, I can't do it any more. I can't say.

Q Well, after he gave this instruction, did any more fliers come to the police headquarters?

A Yes.

Q They kept coming anyhow?

A Yes.

Q What happened to them after they got there?

A One of them was turned in the same evening by a civilian, and on Sunday, another one was turned in by a Catholic chaplain.

Q Any more you know of?

A No.

Q What is the matter? Couldn't Albrecht control his headquarters?

A Oh, how should I understand that?

Q You said he gave orders for not any more to come there, but they continued to come?

A Well, if a police official picks up one out there, but he didn't have anything to do -- he had no influence on those civilians.

Q Do you remember if Moller was present when Albrecht made this speech?

A No, as far as I remember, Moller went home right away.

Q What about Goehrendt? Was he there?

A I can't say. I don't really know.

Q You don't know of anyone who was there, is that right?

A No, I really can't remember any names now. Goehrendt might have been there, but I can't claim that he was.

Q Did you see Goehrendt at any time on that day?

A Yes.

Q Where?

A After the flier came to the police station.

Q Are you talking about the first flier, or the second one, or the third one?

A The first one.

Q Where did you see Goehrendt?

A He was in the room, in his office.

Q On the inside of police headquarters?

A Yes.

Q Was the flier present there at that time?

A Yes.

CAPTAIN VANCE: Nothing further.

REDIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY DEFENSE COUNSEL:

Q Herr Lueck, three fliers we are talking about now. The first one was the one shot by Moller, is that right?

A Yes.

Q And the second one was the one that came in that evening, is that right?

A Yes.

Q You have just said something about Goehrendt being in his office when the flier was there. Which flier are you talking about?

A The first one and the second one.

Q When did Goehrendt come to the police station that day for the first time?

A We had been together in the air raid shelter during the alarm, and when the airplane was shot down, he went on out to search for the fliers when they came down, and then I saw Moller leave with the flier and Goehrendt left with Albrecht.

Q Left from where?

A From the police station.

Q I will ask the interpreter to read to you a part of your testimony when you first appeared, from here to here.

(Whereupon the interpreter did as directed.)

Q That testimony you gave in the beginning ——

CAPTAIN VANCE: I am going to object to that. I don't know what he is talking about.

PRESIDENT: Read it in English.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: The following has been read to him:

"Q At the time Moller loaded his carbine, did you see Goehrendt?

A No.

Q Did you see him at any time after that?

A Yes, afterwards, because later on I was in the orderly room in the front. He had been on the road to look for persecuted fliers and I hadn't seen when he had returned and when Moller and the flier left the room Albrecht said to Goehrendt -- and only at that time I noticed that Goehrendt was back again -- 'Come with me.' And then these two went into the yard."

QUESTIONS BY DEFENSE COUNSEL:

Q Is that testimony correct?

CAPTAIN VANUS: I am going to object, may it please the court. He is attempting to impeach his own witness.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: He is also yours.

CAPTAIN VANUS: Not now. We released him and sent him home. The defense brought him back.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I have a right to ask him if what he testified as a prosecution witness is accurate, and anything he may have testified in this case, and I ask the court's judgment.

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

QUESTIONS BY DEFENSE COUNSEL:

A Yes.

Q So that you didn't see when Goehrendt came back, did you?

A No, I didn't see that.

Q And you didn't see where he left to go with Albrecht either, did you?

A No.

Q Or where he came from when Albrecht spoke to him, did you?

A No. When he returned, he was there, when he called me and called me into the room.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: No further questions.

RECROSS EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q I am going to read you a little of your testimony that you gave before. I will read it to you first and then let the interpreter read it.

"Q Did you know a man at that time by the name of Goehrendt?

A Yes.

Q Who was he?

A He was assistant to Albrecht.

Q At the time Moller loaded his carbine, did you see Goehrendt?

A No.

Q Did you see him at any time after that?

A Yes, afterwards, because later on I was in the orderly room in the front. He had been on the road to look for parachuted fliers and I hadn't seen when he had returned and when Moller and the flier left the room Albrecht said to Goehrendt -- and only at that time I noticed that Goehrendt was back again -- 'Come with me.' And then these two went into the yard."

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I submit it is the same thing I read him, unless I am very much mistaken.

CAPTAIN VANCE: That is right. I want to ask him about what he said.

End ta 226
pls fols

Q Now, did you see them on the inside of the police station?

A That was in the place outside.

Q Well, did you see them on the inside of the building or not?

A Yes.

Q Did you hear Albrecht talk to Goehrendt in there?

A Well, all he said was those few words, he didn't say anything else.

Q There is no question in your mind about Goehrendt being on the inside of the police headquarters, is there?

A Yes, I don't have any doubts. Where could he have come from otherwise?

Q Was Eichel there at that time?

A He was outside in the yard. He wasn't in at that time anyway.

Q Goehrendt was there before Eichel left in his automobile, wasn't he?

A I assume so because I didn't see Eichel anymore.

Q Did you see Kiwitt there on that day?

A Yes.

Q Did you see him talk to Goehrendt?

A No.

CAPTAIN VANCE: Nothing further.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: What was that last question about the automobile?

(Whereupon the reporter read the question as follows:

"Q Goehrendt was there before Eichel left in his automobile, wasn't he?")

(Luncheon recess)

REDIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY DEFENSE COUNSEL:

Q I will ask you the same question you were asked by the prosecution -- whether Goehrendt was there before Eichel left and your answer was, "Yes, I assume so because I didn't see Eichel anymore." Do you personally know whether Goehrendt was there before Eichel left or do you not? Do you personally know?

A I didn't see Eichel anymore so I can't make any statement about it because I didn't see Eichel anymore. I really don't know whether Eichel was out of the yard or not.

Q The answer to the question whether Eichel was there when Goehrendt came is that you don't know?

CAPTAIN VANCE: I object to his leading and putting words in the mouth of his own witness. He's been doing it constantly since this witness took the stand.

PRESIDENT: Objection sustained.

QUESTIONS BY DEFENSE COUNSEL:

Q In answer to another question as to whether Goehrendt came from the building of the police, inside the building, you answered, yes, where else could he have come from. Do you remember saying that?

A Yes.

Q Are you not then assuming --

CAPTAIN VANCE: I object. This is not cross examination, this is redirect you are conducting.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I haven't finished. All right, I'll start over again.

QUESTIONS BY DEFENSE COUNSEL:

Q Did you hear Albrecht say to Goehrendt, "Come along" or words to that effect?

CAPTAIN VANCE: I object to the question as leading and repetitious.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I pray the court's judgment.

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

THE WITNESS: Yes.

QUESTIONS BY DEFENSE COUNSEL:

Q Just exactly where were these words said, in the street, in the courtyard or inside the building?

A In the building itself.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Nothing further.

PRESIDENT: Anything further by the prosecution?

CAPTAIN VANCE: Nothing further.

PRESIDENT: No questions by the court. The witness will be excused.

(Whereupon the witness was excused and withdrew.)

DEFENSE COUNSEL: May I ask one thing. I'd like to clarify the agreement we have with the prosecution. As I understand it, with the exception of three witnesses you have named we can excuse permanently anybody who has testified and was excused by the court. We can excuse him?

CAPTAIN VANCE: That is right. I just want Miss Appel, Miss Geis and Miss Leonhard.

PETER COMO, called as a witness by the defense, having been first duly sworn, testified through an interpreter as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY DEFENSE COUNSEL:

Q Your full name is Peter Como?

A Peter Como.

Q And you have previously testified in this case?

A Yes.

(Como-direct)

Q Were you the police officer who captured this flier that Moller was involved with?

A Yes.

PRESIDENT: Will you ask the witness to speak louder?

THE WITNESS: Yes.

QUESTIONS BY DEFENSE COUNSEL:

Q I believe in your previous examination you testified that as you brought this American prisoner toward the station there was a crowd of people assembled at the railroad crossing. Is that true?

A Yes.

Q What was the attitude of the people at the railroad crossing towards the American flier as you led him along the road?

A Several people were threatening him.

Q Did they say anything?

A "Beat him to death."

Q In your opinion was there any chance that they might hurt him?

A Yes.

Q Now, you were present in the police station when the flier was given permission to drink and smoke and sit, etc?

A Yes.

Q By what person or persons was permission given to the flier to do these things?

A Sgt. Lueck and Lt. Albrecht.

Q What does the expression "Er hat uns eins geschafft" mean?

A Well, I guess Lt. Albrecht didn't like it, "er hat uns eins geschafft."

Q What does that expression mean to you?

A Well, what it means? Well, Moller got us into trouble.

(Como-direct)

Q Was there any regulation about smoking in the police station in Bieber?

A A prisoner wasn't supposed to smoke in a police station.

Q Now, are you familiar with the territory or with the geography of the woods involved in this case?

A Yes.

Q What is the boundary, the name of the road or street which is the boundary line for Bieber?

A The limits of the woods?

Q The boundary line of Bieber. Do you know Heusenstammerstrasse?

A Yes.

Q Was that part of the boundary of the City of Bieber?

A Yes.

Q Where did this woods begin?

A At Heusenstammer Weg.

Q Do you know whether or not there are any roads or paths which go through the woods beginning at or about Heusenstammer Weg?

A Yes.

Q Name them, one at a time.

A Well, the roads -- I can't name them exactly. I can't give you the names.

Q Well, what is the Hohlweg?

A The Hohlweg goes diagonally from the road to Heusenstammer road.

Q What settlement is that?

A The woods settlement.

Q Do you know the name of it?

A Community, they call it.

(Cross-direct)

Q Never mind. What was the name of the road or street that follows going up to Heussenstammer Road.

A Well, I don't know path Moller did take. I only observed him to the end of the wood.

Q In addition to the Mehlweg are there any other paths leading through the woods?

A Well, there is some little footpath there.

Q Is there any path to Offenbach?

CAPTAIN VANCE: I am going to object to his leading the witness. He is starting to tell the witness what to say.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I haven't finished that question.

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I will withdraw it.

QUESTIONS BY DEFENSE COUNSEL:

Q Is there an indirect road to Offenbach other than the main road that goes past the police station?

A Heussenstammer Weg goes back to the main street going to Offenbach.

Q You were present as a guard for the body for a time, were you not, Gene?

A Yes.

Q What was the distance between the spot where the body lay back to the road towards Offenbach, back by the shortest line. About how far is it?

A The body? Twenty minutes.

Q Not to Offenbach, back to the road leading to Offenbach.

A Ten minutes to the main street, main road.

Q What is the name of that main road?

A Offenbacherstrasse.

(Gene-direct)

Q We are talking about Heusenstammerstrasse. You just named the indirect road to Offenbach. How far is it in meters from the place where the body lay to the indirect road to Offenbach, not the direct road but the indirect road?

A There are quite a few indirect roads.

Q Is there an indirect road which goes over a hill to Offenbach? Is there such a road?

A By way of Heilandsruh.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: You may question.

CROSS EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q About what is the distance from the Bieber police station to the spot where the flier was killed?

A Twenty minutes.

Q About what is the distance from the Bieber police station to Offenbach?

A About twenty minutes walk, too.

Q So the place where the flier was killed would have been about forty minutes walk from there to Offenbach, wouldn't it?

A Well, the place where the flier was killed, that starts right at the kaserne. That wouldn't have been forty minutes anymore.

Q How far would it be from where the flier was killed to Offenbach?

A Half an hour to the City of Offenbach.

Q In other words, where the flier was killed they were further from Offenbach than when they left Bieber police station?

A Yes.

CAPTAIN VANCE: Nothing further.

(Cross-cross)

REDIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY DR. RAU:

Q When you say it was twenty minutes to Offenbach, what do you mean by Offenbach? Do you mean the center of the City or the City limits?

A Offenbach to me means a railroad crossing.

Q Where is that railroad crossing?

A At Biebererstrasse.

Q Is that where the town of Offenbach starts or is that in the center of the town?

A The City of Offenbach starts as far out as Bieber.

Q Where is the Offenbach headquarters of the Protective Police?

A The headquarters is at the corner of Kaiserstrasse and Domstrasse.

Q Is that in the center of town?

A Yes.

DR. RAU: I have nothing further.

PRESIDENT: Anything further by the prosecution?

CAPTAIN VANCE: Nothing further.

PRESIDENT: No questions by the court. The witness will be excused.

(Whereupon the witness was excused and withdrew.)

KARL BLUM, called as a witness by the defense, being first duly sworn, testified through an interpreter as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY DEFENSE COUNSEL:

Q What is your full name, please?

A Karl Blum.

Q What is your present status?

A At this time I am a merchant.

Q Where do you live?

A Offenbach on the Main.

Q In 1944 and 1945 what was your occupation?

A I was the 1st Lieutenant of the Protective Police Reserve.

Q In what town?

A In Frankfurt, in Bochum and Offenbach.

Q Mr. Blum, are you a prisoner in Dachau now?

A Yes, since January 6th.

Q Who was your superior in Offenbach in the police?

A My direct immediate superior was the assistant commanding officer, Capt. Kiwitt. Above him, the commanding officer, Major Kuhlenback, and above him, police director, Michel.

Q Where did you say you performed your duties? In whose office?

A In Offenbach?

Q Yes.

A At the Protective Police Headquarters, Darmstrasse.

Q Do you remember the 22nd of February 1945?

A I don't remember the date exactly.

Q Well, you remember a day in which an American flier was killed, sometime in February?

A Yes.

Q Do you know who was supposed to have killed this flier or shot him?

A I don't know.

Q Did you, sometime in February, go out to Bieber or to the neighborhood of Bieber to view the body of an American flier who had been shot?

A Yes, that was as follows: I left home and I was told that a foreigner had been shot in Bieber. Upon that I went to Bieber with a bicycle. On the way I met some police officials who told me this man was a flier. He showed me the way and I asked him where it was and I went to the place.

Q What did you see when you got there?

A I saw two guards standing there and I asked what the deal was and I was told that this flier had been shot while attempting to escape.

Q Did they say who had done the shooting?

A No.

Q Will you describe to the court just exactly where this body lay when you saw it?

A I was on the road which was on the high level in the woods that was going through and the body was lying in the woods there.

Q Is that the road through the woods from Offenbach to Bieber?

A Yes.

Q Do you know where Heusenstammer Weg is?

A No, I don't know what the name of this path is. I don't know Offenbach so well. I was there only on a detail. My regular station was Frankfurt.

Q Was this body you saw inside the wood?

A Yes, inside the wood.

Q Was that wood between Offenbach and Bieber?

A Yes.

Q While you were there did you happen to notice whether there was still a ring on the hand of the flier?

A Yes, I was told that on the way already that the flier still had a ring on him.

(Blum-direct)

Q Did you have something to do with that ring? If so, please tell the court what that was.

A Upon that I said that this ring will have to be turned over to the personal property of the flier and some police sergeant whose name I don't know gave me the ring. I said at first that this ring was supposed to be sent to the police station but I was told that all his personal property was at the police headquarters already so I was supposed to take it along. I then turned this ring over at police headquarters at the guardroom and the sergeant put it in the box with the other things there.

Q Where was that?

A Offenbach.

Q Do you know a man by the name of Como?

A I have heard the name but I don't know the man personally.

Q Have you seen a man by that name around the court recently here in Dachau?

A I just now heard the name "Como" being called outside. I don't know the man.

Q Will you describe the ring to the court as best you remember now?

A It was a ring thicker than this one (indicating).

Q Well, describt its thickness in meters or centimeters or however you do it.

A The front side might have been a little bit less than one centimeter wide.

Q What was it made out of?

A Gold probably. I can't tell, though, it might have been an imitation.

Q Did it have any jewels on it?

A No.

Q Was it something like a signet ring or some other kind of a ring?

A There wasn't any seal on there, that is, initials. There weren't any.

Q Was there any kind of emblem on it at all?

A I can't say today. I didn't look at it that close.

Q What time of day was that?

A I don't know that either. I'm sure it was in the afternoon sometime.

QUESTIONS BY DR. BUERGER:

Q In the afternoon when you came to Bieber were you at the police station?

A Yes, I went up to the police station.

Q Did you ask for a police sergeant there?

A I wouldn't remember.

Q Didn't you ask anybody to send to go along to show you the way?

A The man who showed me the way was assigned to me in front of the house.

Q Did you ask the man anything about the incident as you went to the place where the body was?

A No.

QUESTIONS BY DR. WACKER:

Q Do you know a man named Meller?

A I heard the name but I don't know who the man is.

Q You wouldn't know him if you saw him today?

A Well, you can tell me that this guy is Meller or that guy is Meller, I wouldn't know.

Q Did you have any conversation at the Bieber police station? I mean on that day in question?

A No, no conversation.

Q Did you there ask somebody the question, "Has the order been carried out?"

A No, since I didn't know anything of any order. After all, I was coming from home, I couldn't have asked that question.

Q What would you say if I told you that the police Sergeant has testified to this court that you came to the police station and asked if the order had been carried out?

A That would be completely incomprehensible to me.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Your witness.

CAPTAIN VANCE: No questions.

PRESIDENT: No questions by the court. The witness is excused.

(Thereupon the witness was excused and withdrew.)

PRESIDENT: Court will recess for thirty minutes.

(Thereupon at 1500 hours the court recessed until 1530 hours.)

(Thereupon the court reconvened.)

PRESIDENT: The court will come to order.

PROSECUTION: May it please the court, let the record show that all the members of the court except Colonel Ackerman, who is absent sick, all the members of the prosecution, all the members of the defense, except Dr. Frost, who is absent sick, all of the accused the reporter and the interpreter are present.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: The defense calls as its next witness Elizabeth Blummel.

ELIZABETH BLUMMEL, called as a witness by the defense, being first duly sworn, took the stand and testified through an interpreter as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY DEFENSE COUNSEL:

Q What is your full name?

A Elizabeth Blummel.

Q Where do you live?

A Offenbach on the Main.

Q What is your present occupation?

A I work inside a house--housekeeper.

Q During the years 1944 and 1945 what was your occupation?

A I had been drafted to work for the police.

Q Where?

A In Offenbach.

Q What police?

A At the Headquarters of the Protective Police.

Q In what Capacity?

A I was sitting in the anteroom of Major Kuhlenbeck.

Q What was your work?

A Oh, work I might be detailed to, clerical work.

Q Who was in charge of the office?

A Major Kuhlenbeck, and in the anteroom with me was First Lieutenant Zager.

Q What was Major Kuhlenbeck's position?

A He was the commanding officer of the Protective Police.

Q From what district?

A From Offenbach.

Q Whom did you say Zager was? What job did he have?

A He was a Police First Lieutenant.

Q What was his relationship to Major Kuhlenbeck, if any?

A Well, he worked for Major Kuhlenbeck.

Q Did you know Kiwitt?

A Yes.

Q Did you know Albrecht?

A Yes.

Q Did you know Gechrendt?

A Yes.

Q Came?

A Yes.

Q Meller?

A Yes.

Q How sometime in February of 1945 did you happen to have occasion to see an American pilot or somebody from the American air force?

A Yes.

Q What day and where was that?

A That was towards the end of February, 1945 at the District Branch Office in Bieber.

Q Do you know what day of the week?

A It was Sunday.

(Bluemmel-direct)

Q How did you happen to go there?

A Well, it was a Sunday and I live in Bieber and I was called in for the interrogation of the pilots.

Q By whom?

A By Lieutenant Zager.

Q How were you called in?

A He came to my apartment personally and picked me up.

Q What time of day did you say that was?

A Sunday.

Q I meant what time of day?

A It might have been nine or ten o'clock a.m.

Q What did he say to you?

A Come over to the District Headquarters right away. There is some work to be done there.

Q Did you go?

A Yes.

Q Where was that?

A That was the Bieber Branch Office of the police station.

Q Who did you see there?

A I saw Mr. Albrecht there, Mr. Lasch, some captain of the air corps, an adjutant, and the captured pilot. There were several more policemen over there too, but I can't say there names today anymore.

Q Will you tell the court in your own language just what transpired, beginning at the time of your arrival at the police station? Tell what happened and what was said.

A When I saw the pilot I went into the room next door. There was a catholic priest in there. I asked him what he was doing at the police station. He said, "I brought the flyer over here. He ran into my arms as I was coming out of church." I spent a short time in that room and, then heard Zager arrive.

Q Did he say anything as he came in?

A Yes, he did some talking and I recognised his voice, but I don't know what he said.

Q Yes?

A He was talking to this Captain of the Air Corps. In the meantime I left this room too, in order to find out what was going on.

Q Did you hear anything that he said to the Captain of the Air Force?

A Yes, he told this Captain of the Air Corps, "Why didn't you come five minutes later?".

Q Yes?

A "In that case I would have had him."

Q Yes, go ahead.

A He did some more talking. I don't know what. I didn't observe it so I couldn't understand all he said. Mr. Albrecht did some talking there too.

Q What did he say?

A I saw him arguing upon Zager, but I couldn't understand what he was saying. I asked Mr. Albrecht, "Why doesn't Mr. Zager send this pilot along?", because the Captain wanted to take the pilot along to a prisoner-of-war camp. Mr. Albrecht said, "I don't understand that either, why he doesn't send him along. After all he could send him along."

Q You just said the Captain of the Aircorps wanted to take the prisoner along. How do you know that?

A Well, because they were arguing together--Mr. Zager and this Captain.

Q Did you hear anything that was said?

A Yes. He wanted to take him along.

Q Repeat the words that the Captain and Zager said, nearly as you can remember, or if you don't remember the exact words repeat the sense of what he said as best you can.

(Blumenel-direct)

A Yes, he wanted to take the pilot along. He had a car with him and he wanted to take the pilot along to the prisoner camp.

Q What was said in reply to that?

A "No.", Mr. Zager said, "I have to keep him here for a while to interrogate him first. The purpose of that is not to find out any military information but just to get this priest involved."

Q Who said that?

A Mr. Zager. "But I got to get an interpreter first. It will be a while until he gets here because he is a long way off and he has a long way to go. I will take the pilot over to the prisoner camp myself then, but I am not sure of that anymore. I will bring you the pilot. I don't know exactly where."

Q Was any of that conversation reduced to writing?

A Yes, later.

Q Go ahead.

A The Captain wanted to make or get himself in a safe position and wanted a certificate to the effect that he had requested Mr. Zager to turn the flyer over to him. So I had to write a piece of normal size paper to the effect, approximately, that Mr. Zager was instructed to turn the flyer over. Captain signed it.

Q What happened to the paper?

A As far as I remember the Captain took it along.

Q Do you know whether or not Zager signed the paper too?

A I don't know that for sure anymore.

(Bluemel-direct)

he said as best you can.

A Yes, he wanted to take the pilot along. He had a car with him and he wanted to take the pilot along to the prisoner camp.

Q What was said in reply to that?

A "No.", Mr. Zager said, "I have to keep him here for a while to interrogate him first. The purpose of that is not to find out any military information but just to get this priest involved."

Q Who said that?

A Mr. Zager. "But I got to get an interpreter first. It will be a while until he gets here because he is a long way off and he has a long way to go. I will take the pilot over to the prisoner camp myself then, but I am not sure of that anymore. I will bring you the pilot. I don't know exactly where."

Q Was any of that conversation reduced to writing?

A Yes, later.

Q Go ahead.

A The Captain wanted to make or get himself in a safe position and wanted a certificate to the effect that he had requested Mr. Zager to turn the flyer over to him. So I had to write a piece of normal size paper to the effect, approximately, that Mr. Zager was instructed to turn the flyer over. Captain signed it.

Q What happened to the paper?

A As far as I remember the Captain took it along.

Q Do you know whether or not Zager signed the paper too?

A I don't know that for sure anymore.

(Bluemel-direct)

Q Can you tell the Court whether or not Zagar was the superior officer to Albrecht?

A Mr. Zagar did have the same rank as Mr. Albrecht it is true since Mr. Zagar was working in headquarters. In my opinion he was authorized to give Albrecht orders.

Q Do you know whether or not Kohlenbeck had an adjutant?

A When I first came to the police I was told Kohlenbeck did have an adjutant and that was Zagar now or whether that would be still sometime before that I don't know.

Q What happened eventually after this paper was signed?

A The Captain drove away.

Q Where was the prisoner?

A The prisoner was still in another room.

Q What did you do next?

A Then the priest was interrogated.

Q By whom?

A By Mr. Zagar.

Q Did you have anything to do with that?

A Yes. I wrote that down then Mr. Zagar was asking the questions.

Q Do you know whether or not the American was interrogated by Zagar?

A Yes.

Q Who acted as interpreter?

A Some Tech Sgt Schellhorn.

Q Do you know whether or not he was the man that Zagar told the Luftwaffe Captain they were waiting for?

A Yes. That is the man all right.

Q There came a time when the interrogation of the American was finished and the interrogation of the priest was finished, what happened next?

A Mr. Zager left with the pilot.

Q Who else went along?

A Well, from the window I saw Mr. Blum was going along. I don't know where he came from or for how long a distance he went along.

Q Who is Blum?

A Mr. Blum was the air raid protection officer.

Q Did you see him around this building at any time today?

A Yes.

Q Do you know whether or not he came into this courtroom?

A Yes.

Q Will you please look around this courtroom and see if Albrecht is present and if he is will you point him out to the court?

A Number 6 (indicating).

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Let the record indicate that the witness has identified the accused Albrecht as wearing number 6.

QUESTIONS BY DEFENSE COUNSEL:

Q Kivitt?

A Number 7 (indicating).

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Let the record indicate that the witness has identified the accused Kivitt as wearing number 7.

Q Oechrendt?

A Number 10 (indicating).

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Let the record indicate that the witness has identified the accused Oechrendt as wearing number 10.

QUESTIONS BY DEFENSE COUNSEL:

Q Do you know Heller?

A Yes.

Q Will you point him out to the court?

A Yes. Number 9 (indicating).

(Bluemmel-direct)

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Let the record indicate that the witness has identified the accused Moller as wearing placard number 9.

QUESTIONS BY DEFENSE COUNSEL:

Q Whom else of the accused do you know?

A Mr. Michel.

Q Is he in the courtroom?

A Yes. Number 6 (indicating).

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Let the record indicate that the witness has identified the accused Michel as wearing placard number 6.

Q Did I ask you about Goehrendt?

A Yes.

Q When Zagar went away from the police station in Bieber—— when the American pilot left the police station in Bieber that Sunday about what time of day was it?

A It might have been 10:30 or 11:00 o'clock.

Q You say you looked out the window and saw him going away with Zagar and Blum?

A Yes.

Q At the time you saw the American pilot going away in the company of Zagar and Blum where was Goehrendt?

A I didn't see Mr. Goehrendt at all. I don't remember having seen him at all.

Q Did you not say that you saw him in the police station that morning that you saw Goehrendt?

A No.

Q At the time you saw these three people going away where was Albrecht?

A Mr. Albrecht was in the same room with me.

Q Was Moller at the police station that morning?

(Klemmel-direct)

A I wouldn't remember.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: You may inquire.

CROSS EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q Zagar, Albrecht and the Air Corps Captain had a conference about the disposition of this flyer, is that correct?

A Yes.

Q About how long did this conference last?

A Fifteen minutes.

Q At the end of that time this Air Force Captain left and Zagar wound up with the flyer, is that correct?

A Yes.

Q Then you saw the flyer leave with Zagar and the witness Blum, is that correct?

A Yes.

Q How long after that did the American flyer live?

A Maybe twenty minutes.

CAPTAIN VANCE: I have nothing further.

REDIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY DEFENSE COUNSEL:

Q How do you know?

A Because before Zagar left he said, "I won't be going any further than the stadium. I won't be going any further with him."

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Nothing further.

PRESIDENT: Any questions by the Court? The witness is excused.

(Whereupon the witness was excused and withdrew.)

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Call Valentin Kaiser.

VALENTIN KAISER, called as a witness by the Defense, being first duly sworn testified through an interpreter as follows:

(Kaiser-direct)

DEFENSE COUNSEL: This witness will be interrogated by Dr. Buerger.

DIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY DR. BUERGER

Q What is your full name?

A Valentin Kaiser.

Q What is your civilian occupation?

A Farmer.

Q What is your residence?

A Bieber.

Q Do you know a man by the name of Gochremit?

A Yes.

Q Take a look around the courtroom and see if you can find him and point him out to the Court?

A Here (indicating) number 10.

DR. BUERGER: Let the record indicate that the witness has identified the accused Gochremit as wearing number 10.

Q Do you still remember the 22nd of February 1945?

A Yes.

Q For what reason do you remember that date?

A On account of that flyer.

Q What flyer?

A Well, that was the British or American flyer, I don't know which.

Q Did you see that flyer?

A I saw that flyer.

Q Where did you see the flyer?

A In the police station.

Q Was the flyer all by himself?

A No. Two policemen were there with him.

Q Where was the flyer; in what street?

(Kaiser-direct)

A When I saw him, in Mauerfeld Street.

Q Was the flyer standing there or was he walking?

A When I came there he was standing still.

Q Later?

A Later on he walked ahead of -- ahead with the Lieutenant a piece.

Q When this flyer was standing there did you see Goehrendt?

A Not at that moment.

Q What do you mean "Not at that moment"?

A That was at Mauerfeld Street.

Q Did you see Goehrendt at all that morning?

A Yes.

Q Where did you see Goehrendt?

A The officer with that one policeman went ahead up to Rebstock Street on the corner of Mauerfeld Street and then the officer turned around. At that instant Goehrendt came on up. I don't know whether he came straight up from police headquarters or whether he came from Rebstock Street.

Q Was Goehrendt walking along Rebstock Street?

A I don't know whether he came from the police station or from the street ahead of me because I was standing in Mauerfeld Street.

Q You understand German, do you not?

A I beg your pardon.

Q I asked you where Goehrendt was going and not where he was coming from. Where was he walking, in Mauerfeld Street or which?

A Rebstock Street.

Q Continue telling us what happened. Did you observe what Goehrendt was doing?

A The officer motioned to him to come along.

Q Did the officer tell Goehrendt anything? Did you hear that?

(Kaiser-direct)

A Something like "Come on along".

Q Did Goehrandt come on along?

A Goehrandt had to come along.

Q Then you did not observe anything else?

A No. I went home.

DR. BUERGER: I have nothing further.

CROSS EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q This officer that you are talking about, is that Albrecht?

A I don't know the officer closely.

Q Look arocund ---

A I had never been to the police station.

Q Look around the courtroom and see if you can find the man that you described as the officer.

A I cannot say exactly. Maybe number 8. I cannot recognize him exactly.

Q Whom did the flyer leave the police station with?

A With Moller, Number 9 (indicating).

Q Were Moller and the flyer alone or was there somebody with them?

A Yes, the officer with Moller and Goehrandt.

Q Did you not say the officer went first and called for Goehrandt to come along, is that right?

A The police station is located in Mauerfeld Street. Then they went into Mauerfeld Street up to Rebstock Street.

Q Let me ask you this: Were the American flyer, Moller, Goehrandt all together in one bunch close to each other?

A Well, I went home the back way. I didn't see it.

Q Did you see them at all?

A Well, I was standing there; later on I went home.

(Kaiser-cross)

Q Did you see Keller, the flyer, Geehrendt and the officer?

A Yes. I saw them.

Q When you saw them were they all four together or were they in different places?

A I don't understand what you mean.

Q You saw four people there that you have named as Keller, Geehrendt, an American flyer and some officer, is that correct?

A Yes, these four.

Q Did you see them all at the same time or at different times?

A Well, I was there for a moment only. I had just come from home.

Q Did you see them all at one time or did you see one two miles away or another one two miles in another direction?

A No, together, they were together.

Q Did you see them go down the street with the flyer away from the police station?

A No. That was in Rebstock Street. I went home the back way later on.

Q Did you see them in motion walking with the flyer or were they standing still with the flyer?

A They went along the street, Rebstock Street from the police station. I didn't see anything else.

Q Were they all four together when you saw them on Rebstock Street?

A Well, that is at the corner, yes. They took off later.

Q Together?

A They were together.

Q That is all.

CAPTAIN VANCE: I have nothing further.

PRESIDENT: Defense?

MAJOR SAXON: We have nothing further.

PRESIDENT: No questions by the Court, the witness is excused.

(Whereupon the witness was excused and withdrew.)

MAJOR SAXON: May it please the Court, the Defense would like

Q Did you see Heller, the flyer, Geehrendt and the officer?

A Yes. I saw them.

Q When you saw them were they all four together or were they in different places?

A I don't understand what you mean.

Q You saw four people there that you have named as Heller, Geehrendt, an American flyer and some officer, is that correct?

A Yes, these four.

Q Did you see them all at the same time or at different times?

A Well, I was there for a moment only. I had just come from home.

Q Did you see them all at one time or did you see one two miles away or another one two miles in another direction?

A No, together, they were together.

Q Did you see them go down the street with the flyer away from the police station?

A No. That was in Hobstock Street. I went home the back way later on.

Q Did you see them in motion walking with the flyer or were they standing still with the fly-r?

A They went along the street, Hobstock Street from the police station. I didn't see anything else.

Q Were they all four together when you saw them on Hobstock Street?

A Well, that is at the corner, yes. They took off later.

Q Together?

A They were together.

Q That is all.

CAPTAIN VANCE: I have nothing further.

PRESIDENT: Defense?

MAJOR SAXON: We have nothing further.

PRESIDENT: No questions by the Court, the witness is excused.

(Whereupon the witness was excused and withdrew.)

MAJOR SAXON: May it please the Court, the Defense would like to recall the accused Albrecht for a question.

WILHELM ALBRECHT, an accused, voluntarily resumed the stand in his own behalf and having been previously duly sworn testified further through an interpreter as follows:

REDIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY DR. BUERGER:

Q Mr. Albrecht —

PRESIDENT: The witness is reminded that he is still under oath.

ACCUSED ALBRECHT: Yes, sir.

QUESTIONS BY DR. BUERGER:

Q Mr. Albrecht, when did you see Cochrendt the first time on the 22nd day of February 1945?

A He had been on guard before that. That was before the air raid alarm. Then he went into the shelter. Then I saw him again as we left with the flyer as he was coming back from the shelter.

DR. BUERGER: I have nothing further. Excuse me, just one question. Where did you see him?

ACCUSED ALBRECHT: He was coming out of Rebstock Street and I called over to him to come along.

DR. BUERGER: No further questions.

RECROSS EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q You have heard the witnesses that your lawyers brought here to testify before this Court, have you not?

A Yes.

Q And you have heard them testify differently from what you say?

A I testified to the truth. I was under oath.

Q I am talking about the witnesses. You heard what they said?

A Yes. I heard the witness.

Q Do you know any reason why they should come here and lie about this?

A He wasn't lying. He was saying I motioned him over.

Q I am talking about what all these witnesses have said.

A This witness Lueck, he did not express himself properly. Cochrendt was not on guard.

Q Is that all you have to say about it?

A Cochrendt was coming out of the shelter. I saw him on the road and called over to him to come along.

CAPTAIN VANCE: That is all.

PRESIDENT: No questions by the Court. The witness will take his place in the dock.

MAJOR SAXON: We would also like to recall Moller for one or two questions.

CAPTAIN VANCE: May it please the Court, I am going to put in an objection here. The defense has brought witnesses in here that have testified to certain things and then they keep jumping these accused off and on the witness stand to disprove what their own witnesses have said. They are attempting to impeach their own witnesses, which is improper in the first place. When these accused are put on the witness stand the Court gives them an opportunity to tell their stories any way they want. I do not think it is fair to the Prosecution to put them on the witness stand again and again, after each witness, to jump back and change the story. I do not think it is proper procedure.

MAJOR SAXON: I believe the Prosecution is unduly alarmed. We are merely trying to correct little errors that have crept in from time to time.

PRESIDENT: The objection is overruled.

HERMAN MOLLER, an accused, voluntarily resumed the stand in his own behalf and having been previously duly sworn, testified further through an interpreter as follows:

REDIRECT EXAMINATION

PRESIDENT: You are reminded that you are still under oath.

ACCUSED MOLLER: Yes.

QUESTIONS BY DR. BUERGER:

Q Moller, after the flyer had been turned over to the police station when did you first see Goehrendt on this 22nd day of February 1945?

A The first time I saw Goehrendt again that day was one hundred meters down Rebstock street.

DR. BUERGER: That is all.

RECROSS EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q Moller, were you at the police station when this flyer was first brought there for the first time?

A Yes.

Q What time of day was that?

A That might have been 1300 hours.

Q What time did you leave with this flyer to take the American to the woods?

A About 1345.

Q Had Goehrendt been at work at all that day?

A I had seen Goehrendt in the morning, yes.

Q Did you see Goehrendt around noon?

A I saw him until the air raid?

Q Where?

A At the police station.

Q Was the flyer there?

A The flyer was not there yet.

Q When the air raid started where did you go?

A When the air raid alarm started I went into the cellar of the police station.

Q Did Goehrendt go into the cellar with you?

A No.

Q So you do not know where Goehrendt was after you went into the cellar, do you?

A No.

Q You did not see Goehrendt any more until you saw him out in the street, is that correct?

A The first time I saw him again was when I was in Rebstock Street.

Q So you do not know where Goehrendt was from the time you went to the cellar until the time you saw him in Rebstock street, is that correct?

A Well, if he had been in the police station I would have had to see him.

Q You could not see him if you were in the cellar, could you?

A When the flyer was brought in I went up from the cellar to the police station.

Q That is all.

MAJOR SAXON: We have nothing futher. Does the Court wish to inquire?

PRESIDENT: No questions by the Court. The witness will take his place in the dock.

(Whereupon the witness was excused and resumed his seat in the dock.)

MAJOR SAXON: The Defense will now call the accused Eichel. May it please the Court, it now develops that there is another witness by the name of Rosel Schwab who is in the hallway. Counsel desires to question her first.

ROSEL SCHWAB, called as a witness by the Defense, being first duly sworn, testified through an interpreter as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY DR. WACKER:

Q What is your name?

A Rosel Schwab.

Q How old are you?

A Thirty one.

Q Are you married?

A Widowed.

Q Where do you live?

A Offenbach.

Q What is your profession?

A Clerical employee.

Q What was your position in February 1945?

A I was Mr. Eichel's secretary.

Q What was Mr. Eichel's position?

A Police director.

Q Would you know Eichel if you saw him again today?

A Yes.

Q Point him out if you see him in the courtroom?

A Number 6 (indicating).

DR. WACKER: Let the record indicate that the witness has identified number 6 as the accused Eichel.

QUESTIONS BY DR. WACKER:

Q How long did you work for Eichel?

A Three years.

Q From when you -- from when to when?

A From '42 to '45.

Q What kind of work did you do for Eichel?

A I did all the written work for him.

Q Did you have knowledge about all the orders issued by Eichel and received by him?

A I did not know of all the orders. I had no way of knowing about secret orders.

ta 229 LJH

Q Who received the mail?

A Police counsel Schultheiss.

Q Did the mail go through your hands?

A Yes.

Q Did you take note of that?

A Yes.

Q Do you know what kind of orders the police headquarters had received, at that time, concerning Allied flyers?

A I do not know of any such orders.

Q Do you remember the 22nd day of February 1945, on that day an American flyer is supposed to have been at the Bieber police station?

A Yes.

Q Where were you at that time?

A I was in the office.

Q What was Eichel doing on that day?

A After the end of the air raid Eichel drove over in the direction of the place where the parachutes had come down.

Q Did you remain at the police station?

A Yes.

Q When did Eichel leave?

A After the end of the air raid.

Q About what time was it?

A It might have been about noon.

Q When did Eichel return?

A I cannot say that exactly any more.

Q Do you know whom he came with or did he come by himself?

A I don't know that.

Q Did he say where he came from?

A Yes. He came from Bieber, as far as I know.

Q Did you talk to him about his activity while he was gone?

A While he was gone?

Q No, I mean whether he ever talked to you about what he did while he was away?

A No.

Q Didn't you find out from him where he had been?

A Yes. He said he was in Bieber.

Q What else did he say?

A He said that when I went to the police station I saw the parachute of the flyer who had come down and I asked him where the flyer was.

Q What did Michel say?

A He said the flyer will be coming over here.

Q What did he mean by saying he will be coming over here?

A To the police headquarters.

Q- What else was said?

A Nothing else.

Q Do you know anything about the relations between Police Director Eichel and the Kreisleiter?

A Yes. They were not good.

Q What makes you conclude that they were not good?

A We often had disagreements with him, arguments.

Q Do you remember a case of Junker?

A I don't remember that personally, but the Junker himself told me about it.

Q What did this Junker tell you?

CAPTAIN VANCE: We object to that. I don't even know who Junker is.

PRESIDENT: Objection sustained.

QUESTIONS BY DR. HACKER:

Q Who is this man Junker?

A He lives in Offenbach and runs a hardware store.

Q How old is he?

A He might be about 52 or 53.

Q Now, what did this Junker tell you?

CAPTAIN VANCE: I object, may it please the court. It is immaterial, irrelevant and incompetent testimony and has no bearing on the issues before this court.

MAJOR SAXON: We can't tell yet. It is impossible to tell yet, if it please the court, whether it has a bearing or not. I think it should come in.

DR. HACKER: Might I give a brief explanation? I would like to prove by this witness, through a few very brief questions, what Eichel's political attitude was.

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

QUESTIONS BY DR. WACKER:

Q Please answer this question as to what this man Junker told you.

A This man Junker told me that he had been reported on account of having listened to enemy radio stations, and that Eichel had suppressed this report.

Q Do you know a man named Heberer?

A Yes.

Q Who is this guy Heberer?

A Heberer was one of our sergeants.

Q Did you talk to Heberer?

A I have talked to Heberer on occasion.

Q Did any special incident occur concerning Heberer?

A Yes. His son had been sentenced to death for desertion on that time, and he went over to Eichel at that time asking Eichel to do something for his son.

Q Did he do anything?

A Yes.

Q With what results?

A Yes.

Q Do you know a man named Herold?

A Yes.

Q Who is this Herold?

A Police Director Eichel's driver, chauffeur.

Q Anything special take place concerning him?

A Yes. He told me he owed his life to Police Director Eichel.

Q How come?

A Because he was supposed to be shot this time in March.

Q Do you know why?

A Because he didn't want to keep it up any more.

Q Did Eichel prevent the shooting?

A Yes.

DR. WACKER: No further questions.

MAJOR SAXON: Your witness, Captain.

CAPTAIN VANCE: No questions.

MAJOR SAXON: Does the court have any questions?

PRESIDENT: No questions by the court. The witness is excused.

(Whereupon the witness was excused and withdrew.)

MAJOR SAXON: Defense calls Hans Kiehel. I understand this accused desires to be sworn. May it please the court, the interrogation of this accused will be conducted by Dr. Wacker.

HANS KIEHEL, an accused, voluntarily took the stand in his own behalf, and being first duly sworn, testified through an interpreter as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY DR. WACKER:

Q What is your full name?

A Hans Kiehel.

Q Are you one of the accused in this case?

A No.

Q I request to be permitted to repeat this particular question. Are you an accused in this case?

A Yes.

Q How old are you?

A 56 years old.

Q Are you married?

A Married.

Q Do you have any children?

A Two children.

Q How old?

A One daughter, 31; one son, 27.

Q Were you a member of the Nazi Party?

A Yes.

Q From when to when?

A From 15 December 1931 until the end.

Q Were you a member of the SS?

A No.

Q SD?

A No.

Q Leadership Corps?

A No.

Q SA?

A SA.

Q What were you in the SA?

A Colonel.

Q Until when?

A I was an active officer in the SA until the Roehm putsch. I was then dismissed from the SA, but later on was carried again as a member of the special services branch.

Q What is your profession?

A Police director in Offenbach.

Q Mr. Eichel, please give us a brief description of your professional career.

A From 1910 until 1920, I was a regular army soldier. I went through the campaigns of 1914 through 1918 at the front. I got the position of a platoon leader, company commander, and battalion adjutant. In 1921, I was discharged on account of the reduction of armed forces, and was transferred to the police.

Q What was your rank you joined the police with?

A As a master sergeant.

Q Where?

A Offenburg in Baden. About one year later, my former battalion commander, who in the meantime had gotten a high job in private industry, called me and offered me a position in private industry. So from the fall of 1921 until 1931, I was an employee at the large scale industry, and the day I left private industry, I was assigned the job of leading the police in Worms by order of the Reichsstatthalter.

Q How long did you stay in Worms?

A I stayed in Worms until 1941.

Q When did you get to Offenbach?

A On 1 July 1941.

Q What was the rank you held when you went to Offenbach?

A The same position as police director, and according to rank, a lieutenant colonel.

Q Who was your immediate superior as police director in Offenbach?

A The immediate superior was Reichsstatthalter Sprenger, whose seat was in Darmstadt.

Q How many people did you have under you in Offenbach?

A That was about 600 men, including reserve men, air raid protection police, and administrative and clerical workers.

Q Mr. Eichel, in February, 1945, what was applicable concerning captured fliers? I mean, applicable to you as police director?

A In summer, 1944, this so-called non-intervention order came in.

Q Where did that order come from?

A Well, I really can't say that today any more. It either came from Berlin directly or it came from the commanding officer of the regular police in Wiesbaden.

Q What other orders were there applying to captured fliers?

A Otherwise, the orders were that parachuted fliers are to be turned over to the armed forces without delay.

Q Did you have any authority of command to decide what would happen to a captured flier?

A No.

Q Was it within your power to keep a flier under the jurisdiction of the police?

A I didn't quite understand this question, because I don't hear anything in this ear.

Q Was it within your range of authority to keep a captured flier within the powers of the police?

A No.

Q Do you remember the 22nd of February, 1945?

A Yes.

Q What exceptional occurred on that day?

A I was in my C.P. at Bieberauer Weg. Since there was an air raid and the air corps was going back across Central Germany, I wasn't in the shelter but on a raised position in the vicinity of the shelter. We happened to have nice weather that day, so we spent part of the time outside the shelter. Suddenly, I saw one airplane, a four-motored bomber, leaving its formation, circling around in the vicinity of Rieber, and apparently trying to land. The same time, I saw five or six or seven pilots parachuting out and hanging in the air, so it had to be within the district of Offenbach. I ascertained it to be in the vicinity of Hausen, near Offenbach.

Q Was there an air raid alarm on yet?

A Well, when I left, when I drove off, the air raid alarm was over, or else I couldn't have driven off.

Q Before you tell us where you went, Mr. Kiehl, will you tell us where your police headquarters at Offenbach is located?

A After being bombed out in 1943, I moved the police headquarters to the Casserne near Bieberstrasse. This caserne is located about half-way between Offenbach and Rieber.

(Recess - Direct)

A It was a small Opel cadet, the smallest car produced by Opel.

Q How many seats did this car have?

A Four seats.

Q And who left in this car?

A The driver brought the car over.

Q You are talking about a driver. Who is that?

A That wasn't my own driver at that time. It was a replacement driver named Fritz Koch.

Q Who else was coming along besides you?

A Since I loved to drive myself, I drove the car myself. The driver was sitting to my right and Captain Kimitt was sitting behind me.

Q Was the fourth seat empty?

A At first, it was empty. When we reached the Offenbach-Bieber highway, there was a Hitler Youth officer standing out there motioning to us.

Q Do you know his name?

A Yes. He wanted to come along.

PRESIDENT: Court will recess until tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock.

(Whereupon the court recessed at 1650 hours.)

Date
Datum

Q How far is it from the center of Offenbach to Bieber? This time, by Bieber, we mean the police station Bieber.

A About four kilometers.

Q And how far is it from this Caserne where you had your police headquarters to this police station?

A That is about half way between.

Q Mr. Eichel, will you now please tell us what you did on this 22nd day of February after you saw these fliers parachuting down?

A I called a car and asked Captain Kivitt to come along, because I had the intention of coming out there one time to check the clearing up measures.

Q What kind of a car were you using?

Legal Form No. 8

MILITARY GOVERNMENT COURT
MILITÄRGERICHT

CHARGE SHEET
ANKLAGESCHRIFT

Place .....
Ort

Date .....
Datum

Name of accused .....
Name des Angeklagten

is hereby charged with the following offences:
wird hiermit wegen der folgenden strafbaren Handlungen angeklagt:

First Charge: ..... Erste Anklage: .....

.....

.....

.....

Particulars: ..... Einzelheiten: .....

.....

.....

.....

Second Charge: ..... Zweite Anklage: .....

.....

.....

.....

Particulars: ..... Einzelheiten: .....

.....

.....

.....

.....

The above charges are referred for trial to the *Summary *Intermediate Military Court to be held *General

Die Verhandlung wird vor dem *Einfachen *Mittleren Militärgerichte *Oberen

at ..... on ..... 194.....
in (Address of Court) am
(Anschrift des Gerichtes)

at .....
um Uhr stattfinden.

By Order
Im Auftrage von

.....
(Signature of person preferring charges)
(Unterschrift des Vertreters der Anklagebehörde)

*Strike out words not applicable.
*Nichtzutreffendes ist durchzustreichen.

Copy of above served on accused ..... 194.....
Abschrift dem Angeklagten zugestellt am

.....
(Signature of person making service)
(Unterschrift des Zustellers)

CA/GI 13 Legal Form No. 8

MILITARY GOVERNMENT COURT

Court. (25)

CASE RECORD. Pages 1667 - 1770

Case No. Superior Orders

~~Summary~~ ~~Intermediate~~ Military Court.
*General

Place DACHAU, GERMANY

Date 28 February 1947

Prosecutor Lt. Col. Dwinell

Defence Counsel Lt. Col. Berman
Rudolph Nathanson

Interpreter Herbert B. Rosenstock

Reporter Patricia Stewart, Imogene Butler, William F. Jones, Peter DiCurti, Sally Hayett, Irving J. Hayett

~~Prosecution~~ WITNESSES:

EICHEL, HANS
REITER, LUDWIG
SCHNEIDER, KARL
MICHEL, FREDERICH

Accused JURGEN STROOP, et al

Address ..... Sex ..... Age .....

	First Charge	Second Charge
Pleas
Findings
Previous Convictions

Sentence
- Imprisonment
  - Term .....
  - Beginning 194
- Fine
  - Amount .....
  - To be paid before 194
  - or in case of default of payment to serve a *further term of ..... imprisonment.

Charge Sheet and Record of Testimony are annexed hereto.

(Signature of member of court.)

REVIEW

Action of Reviewing Authority .....

(Signature of reviewing authority)

*Strike out words not applicable.

RECORD OF TESTIMONY

in trial of

THE UNITED STATES versus JURGEN STROOP, et al

by

GENERAL MILITARY GOVERNMENT COURT

tried at

DACHAU, GERMANY BEGINNING 10 JANUARY 1947

28 FEBRUARY 1947 Pages 1667 - 1770

TESTIMONY

WITNESSES	DIRECT	CROSS	REDIRECT	RECROSS	COURT
HANS EICHEL	1667	1703	1735	1743	1740
LUDWIG REITER	1746	1754
KARL SCHNEIDER	1755	1762	1766
FREDERICH MICHEL	1769

EXHIBITS

No.	Description	Marked	Received in Evidence
D-18A	English Translation D-18	1744
D-19	Statement of Adolf Alt	1688	1689
D-19-A	English translation	1688
D-20	Map of Bierbrauer Weg	1744	1752

CAMP DACHAU, GERMANY

28 FEBRUARY 1947

MORNING SESSION

(Whereupon court reconvened at 0900 hours.)

PRESIDENT: Court will come to order.

PROSECUTION: May it please the court, let the record show that all the members of the court, except Colonel Ackerman, who is absent sick, all the members of the prosecution, all the members of the defense, except Dr. Trost, who is absent sick, all the accused, the reporter and interpreter are present.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: If I remember rightly, Eichel was on the stand at the close of the session yesterday.

HANS EICHEL, an accused, voluntarily resumed the stand in his own behalf, and having been previously duly sworn, testified further through an interpreter as follows:

PRESIDENT: You are reminded you are still under oath.

DIRECT EXAMINATION (Continued)

QUESTIONS BY DR. MACHER:

Q Mr. Eichel, at the end of the last session yesterday you told us that you took a Hitler Youth leader into your car.

A Yes, on the road from Offenbach to Bieber the Hitler Youth leader Brandt was standing and he waved his hand. When I stopped he asked me whether he could come along.

Q Mr. Eichel, when did you hear that a captured flier was at the police station at Bieber?

A We drove through Bieber into the forest behind Bieber. In this forest was a guard chain made up of auxiliary policemen, Hitler Youth and so on.

Q Why was this guard chain made?

A The forest was searched but the airplane had come down much further back.

Q Mr. Eichel, how did you hear that a captured flier was at the police station at Bieber?

A When we returned and intended to go back to Offenbach. In order to go to Offenbach you have to go through Bieber again.

Q Mr. Eichel, from whom did you hear that a captured flier was at the police station at Bieber?

A When I came to Bieber a friend of mine stopped me and told me that at the police station was a flier. Furthermore, from the main road you could look into the side road and could see that quite a large crowd had assembled in front of the station.

Q Mr. Eichel, did you hear for the first time in this way that the captured flier was at the police station?

A Yes.

Q Did you hear that we had testimony in court that you were phoned and that in this way you were called to the station?

A That is absolutely impossible.

Q Please tell us what you found when you stopped with your car in front of the police station.

A When we arrived in front of the station a larger crowd was standing in front of it, but mostly women and children, only a few men.

Q Did all four men who were sitting in the car leave the car?

A In addition to me and Captain Kiwitt. The Hitler Youth leader left the car but the driver stayed in the car.

Q Did you not enter the police station?

A Yes.

Q Which room did you enter at the station?

A I entered the main room.

Q Who was present there?

A In this main room, first of all, the flier was there sitting on the desk and he was interrogated by Lueck, who at that time I didn't know by name.

Q Was the flier smoking?

A Yes.

Q Did he have a glass of water in front of him?

A This too.

Q Who was there in addition to Lueck?

A I was in this police station only once before and with the exception of Albrecht, I didn't know any of the accused before that.

Q Was Albrecht in the room?

A Albrecht entered the room later on.

Q Do you not remember whether in addition to Lueck and the flier, anybody else was in the room?

A Certainly. Various policemen were in the room.

Q What is supposed to happen when you as a police director enter a guard room in a police station?

A Attention is called, of course.

Q And what are the policemen doing then?

A Everybody jumps at attention and makes front to the superior officer.

Q What did the flier do in this case?

A The flier kept seated there and continued to smoke.

Q What influence did this have on you?

A That was the first time that I had contact with foreign soldiers. For me, as a professional soldier, that was an impossible condition. One has to understand our way of thinking. Everybody gets up, -- I was in uniform -- everybody could recognize me as an officer.

Just a prisoner keeps on sitting on a chair and keeps on smoking. This moment I had the feeling this was an insult for us.

Q What did you do then?

A First I asked who gave him the cigarettes.

Q Then?

A Then Gueck said, "These are his own cigarettes."

Q Did you hear, Mr. Eichel, here in court was testified that you got furious?

A You can't talk about me getting furious. I was angry, -- that's correct.

Q Did you curse?

A Yes.

Q What did you order then?

A I was furthermore angry for the reason that only a short time before that an order had been issued in regard to the treatment of prisoners. The reason for this order was the following: I can still remember that a sketch was shown of a man in this order and it was said therein that special care should be taken in the interrogation of parachuted fliers, and a warning was given for self-detonating pistols. A picture was attached to this order in which a man was standing like this (indicating), holding up both his hands, and during this moment, the pistol which he was hiding in his armpits, should have shot automatically at the man in front of him. This sketch was attached to the order. Furthermore, in this order was said, "Prisoners have to stand with the face turned towards the wall." It was furthermore mentioned that through weapons of this kind, supposedly men had been killed.

Q Mr. Eichel, did you give any orders now?

A I really didn't order anything. After I had asked, "Whose cigarettes are these?" and I was told, "these are his own cigarettes," I had no objections against it. But his large scarf came to my attention and I touched him on this scarf, that's correct, but in no way can one talk about using force. The scarf was around his neck, -- I took off the scarf and put it to his other belongings on the table, which were taken away from him.

Q Mr. Eichel, did Lueck now continue his interrogation?

A I can't say exactly any more whether the interrogation was already finished or not, but anyway, the flier continued to sit there on the desk.

Q Did Albrecht now enter the room?

A I can't remember that exactly any more. Anyway, it was said here in court that I slapped the cigarette out of the flier's hand. Only through the testimony of Albrecht that he took the cigarette out of the flier's hand, I can remember now that necessarily Albrecht must have entered the room by now.

Q I think, Mr. Eichel, these points are not so important. Let us continue now. What kind of conversation did you have with Albrecht?

A I took Albrecht to the end of his room. We didn't enter his room but stayed approximately two feet from the door to his room. There I admonished Albrecht and told him, "Albrecht, you know the very strict regulations regarding treatment of parachuted fliers" and so on, and Albrecht said, as any subordinate officer should do, "Yes, sir." And I asked him something like this: "How is it possible that it wasn't acted according to the regulation?"

Q What else did you tell Albrecht?

A After this conversation?

Q Yes, or during this conversation.

A Yes, -- furthermore, I said to Albrecht, "This man is to be brought to headquarters of the police director." Furthermore, I said, "He will be bumped off anyway," but that had a different meaning and I have to explain something else further. In reply to my "he will be bumped off anyway," Albrecht replied, "But not through me." I didn't know what I should think about this expression and told him, "Others will do it."

Q How did you come to make a remark like this?

A In December, or it might have been January -- I can't give a definite date -- after an air attack, the Reichstattheilter Sprenger came to Offenbach. At that time I was at my command post in the caserne. I got a telephone call that the Reichstattheilter was at the Company Colloth and Engelhardt. I drove over there and met the Reichstattheilter over there. He was accompanied by the Kreisleiter, Major Kuhlenbeck and five or six gentlemen in civilian clothes who came from Frankfurt, but I didn't know them. I had to report to him about the damage caused, furthermore, the number of dead after the attack. He himself was present at the Company Colloth and Engelhardt, which was damaged mostly, and I reported to him the damages which had come to my knowledge so far.

Q Did you have a conversation with the Reichstattheilter in regard to parachuted fliers?

A After I had made my report Sprenger said approximately the following, "This can't keep up."

Q What did he mean, "This can't go on"?

A With these attacks, with the damages. -- "This can't go on. All fliers will be shot and bumped off." Then he made a move with his hand, turned around and left.

Q Was this order to you to have the flier shot?

A Yes. What I thought at that time, for me as a soldier, it really wasn't an order.

Q What did you think about this remark?

A I assumed that on account of the propaganda done at that time through radio, et cetera, action would be taken by higher authority and higher government officials against fliers who had parachuted. That was my assumption at that time.

Q Did you order anything based on this remark of the Reichstatthalter?

A I didn't even tell about this remark of Sprenger to my closest associates with whom I worked every day, the Police Kommissar Schultheiss or my secretary or my assistant and government counsellor Gruenbeit.

Q Mr. Eichel, you brought out this remark of the Reichstatthalter in connection with your remark to Albrecht. Please explain this to the court.

A Yes. I mentioned before that I was angry. When I said to Albrecht, "This man has to be brought to police headquarters," I added, "He will be bumped off or they all will be finished off anyway." I don't want to stick to the exact wording.

Q Was this now an order to Albrecht to have the flier bumped off?

A If I would have given an order to Albrecht, -- or if I might make myself even more clear -- I give an order to kill a man, I am used, as a professional soldier, to give this order very clearly. At least, I am of the opinion even today, that such an order has to be given in writing.

Q Did Albrecht consider your remark to be an order?

A I can't say that. I don't know. Anyway, if it would have been an order and Albrecht would have replied to his order, -- "But not through me" -- this would have been a refusal to obey the order, then Albrecht wouldn't have stayed on the police station for another half hour. That would have been the first time in my 25 years as a higher officer that somebody refused to obey an order.

Q Do you want to express by this that you wouldn't have accepted a refusal of an order?

A It is absolutely impossible that a superior officer in the presence of other subordinates accepts the refusal to obey an order. At that time -- and I don't hesitate to say so before this high court -- if at that time I would have had an order from the Reichstattheilter to shoot fliers, I would have had to obey this order and would have observed this order -- no doubt about it -- exactly in the same manner as all other comrades of mine who are sitting here. Disobedience of orders at that time would have meant certain death.

Q What happened after the conversation with Albrecht was finished?

A I could concentrate myself on this entire incident only here now. I wasn't present in this room all the time and from time to time I went to the yard to see what the crowd was doing.

Q What did the crowd do?

A The population altogether was pretty quiet. A few voices were heard; even when I left later on I was explained that in general the population was quiet.

Q You know the story which Moller testified to, to the effect that you and Kiwitt and Albrecht in the police station went into another room?

A Yes.

Q Is this correct?

A Yes. I said before that I walked with Albrecht a few steps inside the door to his room. Kiwitt followed nearby and he had no function at all there. He didn't say anything at all. He was angry, like myself, but otherwise, he was present only on account of my request because I wanted to have a member of the Order Police with me.

Q Mr. Fichel, please tell us about Moller's statement, according to which there was a request made for volunteers and that nobody followed.

A That is absolutely impossible. None of the witnesses, none of the accused, none of the prosecution witnesses have heard that I asked for volunteers.

Q Did you call Moller all by himself into the next room?

A I stated here that I have seen Moller knowing who he is for the first time here in Dachau--that I have never spoken to Moller. That I have never spoken to Moller; that I have never given him an order; and furthermore, I would like to make the following statement. When I came to Dachau on 25 July 1946, I came into barracks 27. Already on my way there I saw that Albrecht was standing inside of barracks 25, together with three other men from Offenbach. After I was in my barracks for an hour, all of a sudden the accused Fay came to me. When he was standing in front of me, he greeted me, and I made a strange face because I didn't know him; and then he said, "I am Fay," and then I remembered that he was the man of the first brigade who always was near the bunker with his hunting dog; and then I asked Fay, "Fay, tell me what's going on here." Then he said, "We are all sitting here on account of the fliers," and then Fay told me for the first time, "Moller claims to have had an order from you." And he claims to have gotten the official order from me to shoot the flier; otherwise, he would be shot himself; and then I said to Fay verbatim, "Fay, about this I can only laugh. I don't even know Moller. Bring him to me." And nearly two days later--Albrecht came the next day--two days later they came alongside the barracks. We couldn't go over to them because there was a fence between us. Albrecht and Fay passed by there and they had a third man in their middle, and later on they told me that was Moller. Something else I would like to mention too, as a proof that I didn't know Moller at all. One day, it might have been in October--

Q What year?

A 1946. We were called for an interrogation--Fay, Hammann, and all the others who are involved in this incident. On this occasion, the names were called at the roll-call place; and I was standing next to Moller. All of a sudden, Moller said to Fay, "Where's Eichel." I would like you to hear Fay about this. Even there, he didn't recognize me.

Q Mr. Eichel, please tell us once more--did you give an order to Moller at the police station in Bieber?

A I solemnly state here that at the police station in Bieber I have never given an order to Moller.

Q Mr. Eichel, what's the usual way of giving an order of such kind? Please let me continue. Is it usual that a Police Director gives an order to a common policeman or is it usual that the order is given to the leader of the police station, his superior officer?

CAPTAIN VANCE: We object--it is leading.

PRESIDENT: Objection sustained.

QUESTIONS BY DR. WACKER:

Q Mr. Eichel, please explain to the Court how orders are supposed to be given.

CAPTAIN VANCE: We object. It is immaterial as to how they are supposed to be given. He has testified as to how he gave them on this occasion.

PRESIDENT: Objection sustained.

QUESTIONS BY DR. WACKER:

Q Mr. Eichel, are there any definite, written regulations in regard to giving orders?

A (The answer physically stricken by order of the President.)

CAPTAIN VANCE: We object on the ground that it is immaterial. He has testified as to what orders he gave and how he gave them.

PRESIDENT: Objection sustained.

CAPTAIN VANCE: But since the question was answered before the ruling of the Court, I move that the answer be stricken physically.

DR. WACKER: I have to object to this because in my opinion it is quite important whether a police director customarily gives an order to his leader of the police station or gives an order directly to a subordinate policeman or his police station leader. Furthermore, I would like to add that it is quite impossible that ever a police director will give an order to kill a man to a common policeman without giving the order first and through the leader of the police station.

CAPTAIN VANCE: I object to the Defense Counsel's testifying unless he gets on the stand.

PRESIDENT: There will be no more argument. The motion to strike is granted.

QUESTIONS BY DR. WACKER:

Q What is the customary way of giving an order?

CAPTAIN VANCE: We object.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I agree that the form of the question is inapt in that manner, but I know just what he is driving at, and I think every member of the Court knows that there is a customary procedure in our Army, that the Commanding Officer of a unit would not come into an orderly room and give an order to a junior when a Commanding Officer was present. That's the customary way in our Army in accordance with my experience, and I think he is trying to show that that is such a custom there, but of course it is not for consideration by the Court, but a basis for agrument, and if things were done in a normal way, it might be done. Well, that's all that's going to be said on that question now. Whatever ruling the Court makes on that will be final.

CAPTAIN VANCE: May it please the Court, what is commonly done has nothing to do with this case. This man has admitted that he gave orders on that occasion. He says emphatically that he ordered Albrecht to bring the flier to Offenbach. He says himself he gave that order. What has common practice to do with that when he says he did it?

DEFENSE COUNSEL: That was right. That's what we would have done. But Moller was Albrecht's junior. If he were going to give Moller an order, he would give it through Albrecht, since Albrecht was present.

PRESIDENT: Objection sustained.

QUESTIONS BY DR. WACKER:

Q Mr. Eichel, when did you leave the police station at Bieber?

A The time, or what?

Q Yes.

A I can't remember the time.

Q How long did you stay at the police station?

A The whole incident at the police station at Bieber, if it took very long, it took six minutes. It must have been around noon-time. I was rushing in order to get away, and I even remember that I said, "Hurry up that this incident will be closed."

Q Did you give any orders as to how the flier should be brought to police headquarters at Offenbach?

A After the flier had been brought outside, the flier was standing in front of me and next to him Albrecht was standing. A few other policemen were nearby--I don't know who. I gave the following order to Albrecht, "Albrecht, the flier comes to police headquarters. If he makes an attempt to escape, the weapon has to be used." This was the regulation--that this order was given for each transport of prisoners of war or other prisoners. It had to be repeated by the man who gave the order, because we had very strict regulations in this respect as follows: The Reichsfuehrer SS had ordered the official who lets a prisoner escape has to be taken into custody immediately, and every man or Government official who escorts a prisoner or prisoner of war has to be instructed beforehand, and I had to give these instructions to Albrecht, too. After I had given him these instructions, Albrecht said the following, "Mr. Police Director, I won't walk through the crowd. I go around them." What he intended to say by "around" them, I don't know. I had to leave him, as the leader of the police station has the right to pick out the best way himself.

Q Did you say anything in reply to that?

A I said, "Well, okay."

Q Why wasn't the flier taken along in the car?

A First, I had the intention to take the flier in the car.

Q Why didn't you do it?

A I also made this remark to Albrecht--that I intended to take him along in the car, but since, as I testified before, that it was the smallest car which we had, it was impossible to take him along. I said to Albrecht, "I intended to take the flier along, but I can't put him on the motor hood and drive him through the city." I made this remark, but I have the impression that in Albrecht's mind this expression got a little bit different meaning.

Q Why did you intend at all to have the flier at police headquarters?

A First, I have to add something else to the first things. There was another reason that I didn't take the flier along in the car. Sometime before that, the commander of the Order Police at Darmstadt, Colonel Lessing, came to me and told me that on orders of the commander of the Order Police at Wiesbaden, he had to arrest a Major in Mainz who had taken special care of a prisoner of war, and that also steps had been taken against another official who had taken a flier along in his own car; and I have to admit frankly at that time I had my own doubts, and I was a little bit afraid that this action could have been interpreted wrong by higher authority if I would have taken along this flier just in my car in which no room was left.

Q Please, Mr. Michel, explain now to the Court why you wanted to have the flier at police headquarters.

A It was an order that all fliers had to be delivered to the Wehrmacht. Before that already we had once three or four fliers at police headquarters, and on aother occasion another flier was even picked up inside the city limits, and they were delivered to the Wehrmacht then by car. I didn't know which office of the Wehrmacht it was, and I didn't know where it was located. That was a job assigned to the Order Police; so I gave the order to bring the flier to police headquarters. There is also the motor pool. At that time we had a strict order--nobody is allowed to use a car without my order--not even the commander was allowed to use a car. He had to have my order on account of the scarcity of gasoline; so I had to give the order to have a car ready; and for this reason I said, "He has to be brought to police headquarters, and from there then he would be transferred by car." Furthermore, I had a personal reason.

Q What was your personal reason?

A I have a number of relatives who are in industry in the State of Wisconsin. My family is in possession of a notary act in regard to the settlement of family matters. Since my secretary speaks English quite well, I wanted to have the flier first in my office, and there was a certain possibility that in spite of the large states he still knew something about this matter.

Q Please, Mr. Eichel, testify as to how the crowd reacted which was standing in front of the police station when the flier was brought out?

A When the flier was brought out, several of them said, "This is one of them." I would like to add that approximately two weeks before that a very heavy attack had taken place on Bieber in which great havoc was done and 54 to 56 people had been killed.

Q Did you say anything?

A The population was still under the impression of the attack which had taken place not such a long time ago and was still excited. When the flier came out some of them said, "This is one of them;" and then I said, "Yes, this is one of them who destroyed your homes and killed your children." I made this remark.

Q Did you leave then by car?

A Yes, I left then by car.

Q Where?

A To police headquarters.

Q Did you meet there your secretary?

A When you enter your caserne, then there is the guard room. In the meantime, from the airplane which had come down, two or three parachutes had been brought in by some other people.

PRESIDENT: Tell the witness to stick to the subject and not to be wandering around.

(Whereupon the interpreter did as directed.)

WITNESS: And at the guard room was also my secretary.

QUESTIONS BY DR. WACKER:

Q Did you have a conversation with your secretary in regard to the incident that a flier had been shot down?

A You can't call that a conversation. She asked me, "Where is the flier?" and I said, "He is coming later on."

Q Did you hear then later on that the flier had been shot?

A Yes.

Q How?

A Approximately two or three hours later, First Lt.

Albrecht came to my office and reported the following: "Mr. Police Director, I have to report the flier has been shot trying to escape."

Q What did you say in reply?

A So I said then, "How did this happen?" Then Albrecht said, "The flier made an attempt to escape. He made one jump of about 20 meters--I measured the distance--and then was shot."

Q Did you ask for a written report?

A Yes, I asked for a written report.

Q Did you receive this report?

A About evening I received this report.

Q Who brought this report to you?

A I don't know that anymore.

Q What was said in the report?

A I can't remember exactly anymore the wording of the report. Since I didn't know Moller, I can't recall anymore whether the name Moller was mentioned. I don't know exactly whether it said the flier, so and so, and the name was given, and his army serial number, was shot while trying to escape by the Police Sergeant, so and so; and at the bottom it said "presented to the Police Director for information" signed Albrecht.

PRESIDENT: The Court will recess for twenty minutes.

(Whereupon at 1005 hours, the Court recessed.)

End ta 232,
ps fols

(Whereupon the court reconvened at 1030 hours.)

PRESIDENT: Court will come to order.

PROSECUTION: May it please the court, let the record show that all the members of the court, except Colonel Ackerman, who is absent sick; all the members of the prosecution; all the members of the defense, except Dr. Trost, who is absent sick; all of the accused; the reporter and interpreter are present.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: The accused Eichel was on the stand being examined just before the recess.

HANS EICHEL, an accused, voluntarily resumed the stand in his own behalf and having been first duly sworn, testified further through an interpreter as follows:

DR. WACKER: I request the witness be reminded he is still under oath.

PRESIDENT: You are reminded you are still under oath.

DIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY DR. WACKER:

Q Mr. Eichel, where did the property of the flier, the utensils of the flier, get sent to?

A They were turned over to the protective police.

Q Do you know anything about a ring?

A There was a ring among them.

Q Mr. Eichel, did you read through the whole charge sheet?

A Yes.

Q Do you know what Charge I has to say?

A Yes.

Q What do you have to say as to that?

A I never participated in any conferences or had anything to do with killing any fliers.

DR. WACKER: No further questions.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Dr. Rau would like to cross examine.

DR. RAU: Cross examination in behalf of the accused Albrecht.

QUESTIONS BY DR. RAU:

Q Mr. Michel, if I understood you correctly, you said that Albrecht took the cigarette away from the flier?

A He put it away from his hand.

Q Did he take it out of his hand, then?

A He took it out of his hand and put it in the ashtray.

Q In that case, you did not take the cigarette away from the flier, is that right?

A I did not take the cigarette away from him.

Q Do you have a good memory?

A You couldn't call it good, but I remember that well, particularly since Albrecht himself told it to me that he had taken it away from him.

Q And if four persons testified before this court that you took the cigarette away from the flier, would you still maintain that you have a good memory?

A This completely is out of the question that I slapped the cigarette out of the hand of the flier, as some people here have testified, and according to Albrecht's own statements, he took the cigarette out of the hand of the flier after I put the question, "How come this flier is smoking?"

Q Did you, as police director, never give an order to an indirect inferior of yours, thereby circumventing your direct inferiors?

A That type of thing happened, all right, but in every case it must have been only trivial orders. Otherwise, the authority of a commanding officer was very definitely delineated in this command regulations of 1937.

Q Do you know the fundamental fuehrer order No. 1?

A Well, this order? I don't know which you mean by it, Doctor.

Q That every headquarters is to know only so much about the matter as is necessary?

A The order reads that only this circle of people would be informed of secret orders who is concerned with it.

DR. RAU: Thank you.

QUESTIONS BY DR. BUERGER:

Q Mr. Eichel, a while ago you said that you did not issue an order to Moller?

A Yes.

Q Do you want to claim that Moller was telling the untruth here?

A I will not claim that Moller was saying the untruth, but I will claim that I did not give him an order.

Q Did you hear testimony from this stand to the effect that about half an hour after the deed, Moller told Goehrendt that you had given him the order to shoot?

A Yes, I heard that.

Q I will ask you what, in your opinion, the reason was for Moller to state even at that early time that you had given him the order?

A I don't want to make any statements about that argument before this court.

Q Mr. Eichel, did you never give an order to anybody that as a matter of principle captured fliers were to be shot?

A No.

Q Mr. Eichel, I will ask you whether you know a certain Adolf Alt?

A Yes.

Q Who was Alt?

A Alt was the first lieutenant of the protective police.

Q Was he a subordinate of yours?

A He was a subordinate of Major Kuhlenbeck, and hence also a subordinate of mine.

Q Do you know Alt's signature?

A Yes.

DR. BUERGER: I hand the reporter two documents and request that they be marked Defense Exhibits 19 and 19-A for identification.

(The documents referred to were marked Defense Exhibits 19 and 19-A for identification.)

DR. BUERGER: I offer in evidence to the court as Defense Exhibits 19 and 19-A a sworn statement of Adolf Alt dated 24 May 1946. Exhibit 19 is the original German and 19-A is the true and correct translation in English.

CAPTAIN VANCE: No objection.

DR. BUERGER: I should also like to state that the oath was certified to by an American investigator named Milton M. Cvenk on the 24th day of May, 1946.

DR. WACKER: I request that the statement be handed to me so I can tell whether I should object to it or not.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: We ask it be received in evidence, may it please the court.

DR. WACKER: I have to object to this for the reason that I would like to cross examine the man who signed this statement, Adolf Alt, and since he is apparently present in Michaelsdorf, his personal testimony would be the best evidence.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Our information, which I have obtained from the prosecution, is that the man ———

DR. BUERGER: I would like to say, as far as I know, all attempts have been made to locate Alt, but that he cannot be found.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: May I add that the prosecution informs us that the man is dead.

PROSECUTION: We believe he is. That is the information we have at the present time. We know that the War Crimes Headquarters in Augsburg has been trying to locate Alt for many months and have not been able to locate him. It is their opinion, they are not sure, but they are of the opinion that he is dead.

DR. WAGNER: In that case, I request an official notification from that headquarters be presented to this court. If the man is dead, of course, I am in no position to raise an objection, but until such notification has been presented, I would like to have it definitely established whether this man can or cannot be called.

PRESIDENT: The objection is overruled. Defense Exhibits 19 and 19-A will be received in evidence and made a part of the record.

(The documents heretofore marked Defense Exhibits 19 and 19-A for identification were received in evidence as Defense Exhibits 19 and 19-A, are attached hereto, and made a part of the record.)

DR. BUERGER: I request the court to be permitted to read the statement.

PRESIDENT: Permission granted.

(Whereupon Dr. Buerger read Defense Exhibit 19.)

INTERPRETER: May it please the court, this translation here is not complete. There are several sentences missing. Would you like this read the way this written translation is, or would you like to have it translated?

DEFENSE COUNSEL: We would like it read accurately.

PRESIDENT: Read it accurately.

INTERPRETER: I will translate it from this in that case.

(Whereupon the interpreter translated Defense Exhibit 19 as follows:)

INTERPRETER: Eichelsdorf, 24 May 1946. Statement under oath. Adolf Alt, Eichelsdorf, Borngasse 5, born 17 December 1897, present residence Borngasse No. 5.

I am making the following statement under oath. I remember one evening in February, 1945, when two policemen from Bieber brought an American flier into the office of the protective police headquarters in Offenbach. Captain Kiwitt talked to the policemen in my presence and told them to take the flier over and to shoot him and to do that upon orders of Major Kuhlenbeck. The two policemen then left the building with the flier. Shortly thereafter, Kiwitt ordered me to follow them and to see to it that no wild shooting would take place. I was opposed to the whole business, but I went out there and found the policemen with the flier later on. I asked them where they wanted to go with the flier, and they said to the Felsenkeller. An air raid alarm started. I left them and went to the air raid shelter. I only saw the flier again after he had been shot. Several weeks before this incident, Police Director Eichel had informed the members of the police that all captured fliers were to be shot. I never saw the order concerning this matter, but 1st Lt. Zager told me that such an order had been issued by the higher authority. Zager was Kuhlenbeck's adjutant.

I swear that I have told the truth in this sworn statement and that it was written by me in my own handwriting. Eichelsdorf, 24 May 1946. /s/ Adolph Alt.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 24th day of May, 1946. Milton M. Crook, Investigator-Examiner.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: We would like to withdraw the English translation as an exhibit, may it please the court, and substitute the translation as made by the interpreter.

CAPTAIN VANCE: No objection.

PRESIDENT: Permission granted.

QUESTIONS BY DR. BUKMER:

Q Mr. Eichel, I will ask you whether this is Alt's signature?

A Yes, that is Alt's signature.

Q Mr. Eichel, you have heard Alt's testimony. I will ask you again, did you ever give an order to that effect?

A No. I would like to make an explanation to that. I had about 20 officers. The deputy commanding officer, Captain Kiwitt, is sitting over here. I never participated in any officers' conferences, and it was purely a matter up to the commander of the protective police, and if there had been a general order existing in the police headquarters of Offenbach to shoot fliers there, it would certainly be a very simple matter to prove that here, for a very large number of those officers are still on duty in Offenbach today. It is entirely impossible that an official order to shoot fliers was ever given in Offenbach. At any rate, my deputy government counselor Grunhoit, whom I called over here as a witness, would have heard about it too.

Q Didn't you just say in direct examination that you didn't even inform your closest collaborators and your secretary and your adjutant of some matters?

A Yes, about Sprenger's statements, but that doesn't have anything to do with orders. If I issue an order, it isn't any more secret, and all the officers would have to find out about it at any rate.

Q I will ask you to in the future answer my questions. Is it possible that you had wishes or desires presented to officers' conferences through Major Kuhlenbeck?

A The police director had the authority to give orders and instructions to Major Kuhlenbeck, yes, that is why he was my subordinate.

DR. BUERGER: Thank you.

QUESTIONS BY DEFENSE COUNSEL:

Q Would Kuhlenbeck have issued an order to anybody to kill a captured American flier without authority given to him from higher headquarters?

A I can't pass judgment on that, but I am sure he would have asked me

Q You heard the statement that Kiwitt is supposed to have ordered a couple of fliers shot on the authority of Kuhlenbeck, did you? Do you question the truth of that statement?

A No, but I would like to give an explanation to it.

Q Go ahead.

A Major Kuhlenbeck lived in the same hotel with Kreisleiter Goerner. I myself was on the warpath with Kuhlenbeck, and I would like to say why that was, too.

Q Go ahead.

A In the course of a conference I had with police official Schultheiss, Kuhlenbeck refused to obey my orders without any ado. He left the office and I challenged him to stay in here. Nevertheless, he went out, because he had had an argument with police counselor Schultheiss, who is over here. That, of course, was an impossible situation, and I asked the commanding officer of the regular police in Darmstadt, one Colonel Lessing, to come over to Offenbach. Colonel Lessing came over and cleared the matter up and Major Kuhlenbeck apologized to me and police counselor Schultheiss. I always had to watch Major Kuhlenbeck very closely, because things happened which weren't quite in the clear. I had troubles with him quite often, as quite a few witnesses testified, and Kuhlenbeck was also a man who furthered the argument between me and the kreisleiter. Kuhlenbeck kept intriguing against me in every possible way.

Q You told this court this morning that if you had given Albrecht an order and he had refused to obey it, within one half an hour Albrecht would no longer be in the police station. Do you remember saying that?

A Yes.

Q And here was Kuhlenbeck refusing to obey your order, and not only that, but continued to make trouble for you, and yet you didn't have him out of his office, did you?

A That wasn't such an important sort of an order. All he did was leave the room, and I told him, "Major Kuhlenbeck, stay in here." That really can't be compared with that sort of an order at all.

Q But it was enough to start an open warfare between Kuhlenbeck and you that he succeeded in winning because you never got rid of him, isn't that true? Either yes or no.

A I don't understand.

Q Did you ever get rid of Kuhlenbeck?

A No.

Q Have you been ill at any time since you were taken a prisoner?

A In prison?

Q Since you were captured, have you been sick?

A No.

Q How much do you weigh now?

A 140 pounds, German pounds, approximately.

Q How much did you weigh in February, 1945?

A 170 pounds, German pounds, with clothes.

Q That is the difference, the 30 German pounds, is that right?

A Yes.

Q Have you changed in any other respect since February, 1945?

A I couldn't say in what way, in what respect.

Q Has your face gotten thinner? Have you lost more hair? Has your appearance changed?

A Well, of course, I got thinner.

Q Isn't it possible that the reason Moller didn't recognize you a year and a half after this thing happened was because of the change in your appearance?

A That is quite possible.

Q And so this big story you tried to make of that fact that Moller didn't recognize you is very easily explained, isn't it?

A That is possible.

Q Now, at one time you were reported to have died, is that correct, there was a report of your death?

A Yes.

Q And that happened, that report got out, at some time while you were a prisoner?

A Yes. My wife wrote me that she had received notification from the National Life Insurance Company that I had died and for her to send in the proper papers so the pension would be paid, and Albrecht or Moller even confirmed in Herebruck that I had died or was dead.

Q Didn't you at one time tell some of the Germans who were fellow prisoners with you that you intended to commit suicide?

A No.

Q And didn't you give them the reason that you were going to commit suicide was because you had issued an order to kill American fliers?

DR. NACKER: I will have to object at this point. Up to now, it hasn't been clear to me whether Colonel Berman is conducting his examination as Eichel's defense counsel — after all, he is Eichel's defense counsel — or as counsel for other accused. This question makes it clear to me, however, and I would like to object to the question.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I will state that I am cross examining for Moller and Albrecht.

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

QUESTIONS BY DEFENSE COUNSEL:

DEFENSE COUNSEL: And in the interests of the court that the truth might come out.

THE WITNESS: I would like to say the following to that. If you are in prison for two years and if you suffer of hunger for two years — until about eight weeks ago, my family wasn't able to send me anything at all — in that case, it isn't surprising that one has a weak moment or weak hour where one says one would like to kill oneself, particularly since there is no chance for advancement at all for one of us outside, so it is entirely possible that such a statement was made. But certainly, the reason for that would not be that I had any fear of this court.

Q Herr Eichel, I know that you suffered like no one else suffered. What I want to know is did you make such a statement you were going to commit suicide or didn't you? Ja or nein? Yes or no?

A No.

Q You heard Lueck testify in this case that he heard Albrecht give an order, did you not? I mean either yes or no, that is all I want.

A I didn't quite understand it.

Q You heard Lueck testify that he heard Albrecht ask for volunteers? I think it was maybe to shoot the flier, I don't know.

A That Albrecht was looking for volunteers?

Q Yes.

A That I was looking for them?

Q Well, let me repeat the question. You heard Lueck testify as a witness and give evidence against Goehrendt and Moller and Albrecht and you?

A Yes.

Q Your testimony is directly contradictory to what Lueck said about you, isn't it?

A I shouldn't say that.

Q About the cigarette, Lueck says you knocked it out of his hand and you say Albrecht knocked it out of his hand.

A Colonel, only three days ago Albrecht told me personally he took the cigarette out of the flier's hand.

Q Did you hear Lueck testify in this court that he saw you knock it out of the flier's hand? Yes or no.

A Yes.

Q All right. Why did Lueck lie about that?

A As a matter of fact, Lueck was saying the untruth about other things, too. After all, he also said that the ----- DEFENSE COUNSEL: All right. I pray the court's judgment. I submit the witness is arguing. All I want is for him to answer me.

DR. WACKER: But I would like to have the answer of the accused translated so it might get in the record.

PRESIDENT: Go ahead with the translation.

THE WITNESS: After all, Lueck also said that Albrecht was looking for volunteers, and that wasn't so.

PRESIDENT: The witness will answer the questions as directly as he can.

QUESTIONS BY DEFENSE COUNSEL:

Q Who else in this case testified that you knocked the cigarette out of the flier's hands? Didn't Heberer say the same thing?

A Heberer? I don't remember. Heberer said he wasn't even there.

Q Did Como say that?

A Como, I think, said so.

Q Como said that you knocked it out of the flier's hands? Why did Como lie about that?

A I don't know.

Q Now, you said that you didn't take the flier in your car because you were afraid if you did you might get into trouble with higher authority. Were you so much afraid of what higher authority would do to you that you didn't take a flier from Bieber to Offenbach in a car?

A Yes.

Q There was a Kreisleiter in Offenbach, was there not? What was his name?

A Yes. Goerner.

Q Was he the kreisleiter that was present with Sprenger at the time that Sprenger made the statement that all fliers would be shot?

A Yes.

Q How close were you with Goerner?

A Relations between me and Goerner were very bad, and I was called up to the gauleiter's office three times because of that poor relationship, and I would like to make a statement concerning that.

Q When your own lawyer examines you. You will answer my questions. Which organization in Germany had control of the distribution and allocation of materials to build a house?

A There was an office in a municipal administration which distributed these materials.

Q What was that office called?

A I don't know that any more today. At any rate, there was an office attached to the municipal administration that distributed these materials.

Q It is true, isn't it, that the materials were distributed according to priority?

DR. WACKER: I would like to object to this question, as long as it isn't shown clearly just what the materiality of those questions it.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: It is not clear what I have in mind, I agree, but it is my purpose to attack the credibility of the accused, for one thing, and particularly the statement he just made about his relationship with Goerner, the kreisleiter, and with Kuhlenbeck, etc.

DR. WACKER: I have to object to this in principle. Colonel Berman is the chief defense counsel for all the accused, including this accused, and I have to object to Colonel Berman's attempting to attack the credibility of this accused. At any rate, the least thing I have to ask for in that kind of a setup is that another American defense counsel to represent Eichel's interests. Every one of these accused here is represented by one American and one German defense counsel, and therefore,

Ta 233-ps-60-2/28-14

I don't think it is proper for the credibility of this accused to be attacked by one American defense counsel without this accused being defended by another American defense counsel.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I will make one statement and submit to the judgment of the court, that he is represented by Mr. Rachael in Charge VIII.

PRESIDENT: Court will recess in place.

(Whereupon the court recessed in place.)

End ta 233
wfj fols

PRESIDENT: Court will come to order. Colonel Berman do you wish to make any further statement before the Court rules.

COLONEL BERMAN: Yes sir. May it please the Court, I feel that as the senior defense counsel assigned to this case that I have a double obligation. My first obligation, or at least one of two equal obligations, is to the Government of which I am a part and to the Court before whom I appear, and that obligation is to see as best I can, with justice to a client, that the truth be presented to the court as I believe it to be. I also have an obligation to other of the accused, whom I believe or might believe are affected by evidence from one person or another. And so I believe, may it please the Court, on both of these grounds that I have the highest and most ethical right to do what I am doing. However, I am disturbed by another fact and that is the American Government is going to a great deal of trouble and expense, and taking up the time of a large number of its most valuable officers, to give these accused a fair trial in accordance with American concepts of what a fair trial is and I don't want to do anything which might raise the slightest doubt about the fairness of these trials and because I don't want to do that, I am going to yield what I believe to be my unquestioned right to cross examine this witness within the limits of cross examination, as the law permits cross-examination of a hostile witness. I won't interrogate this particular witness, but I want to make it clear that I am not committing myself so far as other witnesses are concerned. I am turning this one witness over to German defense counsel for such examination as they want to make.

PRESIDENT: Do the German defense counsel who represent Albrecht and Heller desire to continue their questions.

DR. WACKER: I would like to point out one more thing as I have before. Even now Michel does not feel that he is represented by any American defense counsel.

COLONEL BERGAN: Mr. Rachael will take care of that assignment.

DR. WACKER: Thank you.

DR. RAU: Cross examination on behalf of the accused, Albrecht.

DIRECT EXAMINATION (Contd)

QUESTIONS BY DR. RAU:

Q Mr. Michel you have been asked before, what office it was that gave the authorization for the building of these auxiliary homes. I would like to repeat this question.

DR. BUERGER: I object on the same ground. The materiality of this hasn't been stated.

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

THE WITNESS: In cities under the jurisdiction of my Kreis there was a municipal office and in country communities where I built my auxiliary home in order to make this statement here, it was to the mayor that gave this authorization. The party would have a certain directive power and since I built an auxiliary home it happened that the Kreisleiter claimed that it just happened to be me that built that home.

QUESTIONS BY DR. RAU:

Q As a matter of fact, weren't you the first one that had authority to build such an auxiliary home on account of your good relations with the Kreisleiter and your Party relations?

A As a matter of fact, the Kreisleiter was the man who reported me for having reached a favorable position and having built this home in Dietenbach but nothing was said about my having been bombed out in Offenbach and that I merely wanted to build an auxiliary home in order to have my wife with me.

Q Where did the Kreisleiter report you?

A To the Gauleiter.

Q Did you build this home as an auxiliary home or did you build it for other purposes?

A This auxiliary home was located in a settlement and this settlement just happened to be within my hunting area and these State Police in Darmstadt accused me of having built a hunting lodge.

Q Did you build this house in the form of a hunting lodge?

A No. There were four or five houses exactly the same as this, the same design and measurements. These houses were built on the same plot as mine.

Q At what times did you live in that house?

A I didn't live in the house at all. I merely finished it and after that the airraids started. My family just happened to be in the house for half a day.

Q In the Spring of 1945 was Albrecht transferred?

A I found out about this from Albrecht himself here that he was transferred.

Q Did you have anything to do, as Police Director, with the transfer of subordinates?

A No, I had nothing to do with the transfer of Protective Police officials.

Q You were the superior of Albrecht's weren't you?

A I have already stated this famous command regulations which verified the authority of the commanding officer and of the Police Director. The Police Director never said anything to the commanding officer of the Protective Police about internal matters of the Protective Police.

Q Couldn't the Police Director request or initiate the transfer of certain persons?

A Yes. As a matter of fact in view of the fact that there were bad conditions there I requested to have Albrecht transferred.

Q Weren't you asked for your opinion at all when Albrecht was transferred?

A No, I only found out that Albrecht was transferred when I met Albrecht again here in Dachau.

Q At any time did you ever find out why he was transferred?

A Albrecht described it to me himself.

Q What did he tell you?

A Albrecht told me that one nice day he was called to Major Kuhlenbeck and that he had an argument with Major Kuhlenbeck on account of the alleged shooting of the flyers and upon that Kuhlenbeck is supposed to have said that he had a good position for him and transferred him to Giessen.

Q What caused the argument concerning the shootings? Do you know that?

A I don't know that. Albrecht has to know more about that.

DR. RAU: Nothing further.

DR. BUERGER: Cross examination on behalf of Goehrendt, Moller and Kiwitt.

DIRECT EXAMINATION (Contd.)

QUESTIONS BY DR. BUERGER:

Q Who was your immediate superior?

A Reichsstatthalter.

Q Did he give you direct orders as your immediate superior?

A Yes.

Q Did those orders go through channels of the Commanding officer of the regular police or did they come to you direct?

A They came from the office of the Reichsstatthalter directly.

MR. MACHAEL: No more questions by the defense. Does the prosecution desire to cross examine?

CROSS EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q Eichel, you had approximately six hundred men under your command while you were Police Director, is that correct?

A Yes.

Q About how many cities or villages did you have in your district?

A Only the town of Offenbach and its suburbs.

Q And you had six hundred policemen in that district?

A Offenbach was an airraid protection location of the first class, with airraid protection police and so on.

Q Now yesterday, one of the first questions that Dr. Wacker asked you was to tell the court if you had any authority to give orders to any police and if you ever gave any and you answered "No". Do you want to change that now?

A To give policemen any sort of orders?

Q Yes.

A I certainly gave my subordinates orders.

Q You did answer "No" yesterday, didn't you?

A I didn't say that. What I said was that that sort of orders are not given directly to subordinates and orders to the Protective Police had always to be given to the superiors.

Q Didn't you testify yesterday that the only person you could give orders to was Major Kuhlenbeck?

A An order concerning action I could give to Major Kuhlenbeck alone. That is right.

Q And to no one else?

A That depends on what sort of an order it is.

Q Any kind of order.

A This question isn't phrased right. Of course I can give orders to a man but an order concerning action could be given to Major Kuhlenbeck only and he is responsible for having it carried out. For instance, I couldn't give an order to have a man transferred from one district to another. I could only express a desire to Major Kuhlenbeck and request him to have this man transferred. I couldn't do it.

Q How could you give orders to in regard to captured [illegible] the prisoners of war?

A Prisoners of war, Major Kuhlenbeck, [illegible] in Offenbach,

Q Nobody else? [illegible]

A Of course I could also tell the chief of the district station as I did to First Lieutenant Albrecht to take this man to police headquarters. That is obvious. [illegible]

Q With the exception of these two, could you give orders to anybody else?

A [illegible] Well I can give orders to anybody not superior than myself.

Q Didn't you just get through saying you couldn't give orders except to Major Kuhlenbeck?

A The only kind I could give to Major Kuhlenbeck was orders that is in an emergency. concerning action.

INTERPRETER: Repeated.

(Bichel - Gross)

Q What do you call "action"? Do you call moving a prisoner of war from one place to another, do you call that action?

A That is no action.

Q What is that?

A I don't know how to express it.

Q What do you mean by "Action"?

A Of course as Police Director I can give orders that a man be sent from Bieber to someplace else.

Q What do you mean by "Action"?

A An order concerning action. Well, let's say that the purpose of the Protective Police was to suppress public disturbances. In such a case I would have to give an order concerning action to Major Kuhlenbeck. The only man responsible to have this order carried out was the Major. I couldn't talk him into carrying it out, except if I wanted to take the whole order back -- rescind the whole order.

Q These six hundred men you had under you in Offenbach, how many Allied flyers did they execute?

A They didn't execute any.

Q Nobody was executed?

A Officially and by orders nobody was executed.

Q Are you sure of that?

A With the exception of the cases known here, nobody was executed, and anyway we can't talk about any executions except these.

Q You don't want to talk about any cases except those discussed here, do you?

MR. RACHAEL: The defense objects to that on the ground that it is argumentative.

PRESIDENT: Sustained.

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q How, on the day in question, when you left in your automobile to go to the woods to check your guards out in the woods, who went with you on that trip?

A I have already said the driver was with me, Captain Kiwitt,, the Hitler Youth Leader and myself.

Q You said yesterday when you left your headquarters it was Kiwitt, the driver and yourself. Which is correct?

A Yes, that is correct.

Q Why do you now say that the Hitler Youth Leader was with you?

A I testified this morning that the Hitler Youth Officer was standing on the road and bummed a ride.

Q Riebel, you have told this Court so many lies that you can't tell the truth, haven't you?

MR. RACHAEL: The defense objects to that.

PRESIDENT: Objection sustained.

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q When you left your office to go to the woods, who was with you?

A One minute ago I explained -- the driver and Captain Kiwitt and the Hitler Youth Leader came in later on.

Q I didn't ask you what went on later on. Answer my question. Who was with you when you left your headquarters?

A Captain Kiwitt.

Q And the driver?

A And the driver and I.

Q All right. Now in which direction are these woods from Offenbach?

A I don't quite understand the question. I can't answer it.

Q What is the direction of the woods from Offenbach? Is it north, south, east or west?

A East — Northeast.

Q And what is the direction of Bieber from Offenbach?

A Northeast. We passed through Bieber.

Q Did you pass through Bieber going to the woods?

A Yes.

Q Now, you have heard the place described where Moller executed this American flyer. Is that the same woods you went to at that time?

A I never was in that spot. That woods is much further back.

Q I didn't ask you if you were there. I asked you if these were the same woods.

A No.

Q Was it in the same general direction of the woods where Moller killed the flyer?

A The place we were at was five kilometers away.

Q In which direction?

A Northeast.

Q Now, where along this route did you pick up this Hitler Youth Leader?

A He was standing on the road from Offenbach to Bieber and he was motioning to us and we stopped and he asked where we were going and since the Hitler Youth were doing some of this work to close up the roads, he was interested in coming along.

(Eichel - Cross)

Q Who was driving your car at that time?

A I was driving.

Q What is the name of this Hitler Youth Leader?

A Bannfuehrer Brand.

Q Did you pick up Brand before you got to the woods or after you had left the woods?

A I picked up Brand in the road from Offenbach to Bieber.

Q Was that before you got to the woods or after you got to the woods and were coming back?

A Offenbach proper yet.

Q Was it before you went to the woods or after you came back from the woods?

A Before we drove into the woods.

Q All right. Now when you left the woods why did you go to Bieber?

A Because the report was received that there was a pilot in the police station. I also saw it from the road itself because you could see from the road a crowd of people.

Q You didn't know that when you were out in the woods and started back, did you?

A No, I didn't know. I had no way of knowing.

Q What was the most direct route from where you were in the woods back to Offenbach?

A Through Bieber. There isn't any other road.

(Eichel - Cross)

Q Is there just one road from Bieber to Offenbach?

A There is one main road which you have to use with a car from Bieber to Offenbach and then there are several paths through the fields which are not usually used by cars.

Q Which is the shortest way?

A That is the shortest.

Q You mean the automobile road?

A For vehicles.

Q Now, when you got to the police station in Bieber, did Kiwitt go inside the station with you?

A Yes.

Q Now, what was the purpose of taking Kiwitt on this trip with you?

A I took Kiwitt along as the representative of the Protective Police. In case any deficiencies could be found in the closing up of the roads he could report this to Major Kuhlenbeck and have them improved.

Q As Police Director of Offenbach, were you then head man in charge of all policemen there in that district?

A I was responsible for the police in Offenbach proper.

Q For all of them, all branches?

A Only the regular police and the administrative police -- that is part of the regular police.

Q When you and Kiwitt walked in to the station that is when you saw the American flyer sitting there smoking and drinking water, is that right?

(Eichel - Cross)

A Yes.

Q Now when you walked in did anybody call "attention"?

A Yes. That is the way it is done — that is the regulations.

Q I am not talking about regulations. I am asking you if it was done?

A Yes.

Q Who called "attention"?

A I don't know.

Q Did all the policemen stand up at attention when you walked in?

A Yes.

Q And the flyer remained sitting, is that right?

A The flyer remained sitting.

Q Now you were a police officer, is that right?

A Yes.

Q And the American was a soldier, is that correct?

A He was a soldier.

Q Can you explain any reason why a soldier should stand up when a policeman comes into a room?

A Well with us in the police in the Army it is a common practice that if a superior walks into a room everybody gets up.

Q You don't claim that you were an Army officer, do you?

A No.

Q You were dressed up in a fine, pretty police uniform and you thought the American flyer should stand up, is that right?

A I was wearing the same coat I am wearing now.

Q And you were insulted by the fact that this soldier didn't stand at attention. That is what you said?

A Yes.

Q And you were angry?

A Angry -- I wouldn't say angry. I was excited.

Q You didn't answer your lawyer "I was not furious but I was angry"?

MR. RACHAEL: I believe the testimony here is the result of interpretation of German into English. I notice that the witness used the same words he used this morning but the interpretation is different.

PRESIDENT: Are you making an objection?

MR. RACHAEL: Yes sir.

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q I will just ask you, were you angry?

A No.

Q Not a bit?

A It is not my custom to show anger in front of subordinates.

Q And you didn't show any on this occasion?

A No.

Q Did you do any cursing?

A Yes.

Q Who did you curse, your policeman or the American flyer?

A Our officials.

Q You were cursing them but yet you weren't angry, is that what you mean?

A Well that is a matter of opinion. One man would call it anger and another would call it excitement. I was annoyed I said this morning.

Q Well, what did this flyer do to make you excited? Did he strike at you?

A No.

Q What did he do?

A Since everybody got up by the flyer remained sitting there and smoking, I was of the opinion that it was deliberate on his part to show contempt toward us Germans.

Q You objected because somebody gave this flyer a drink of water, didn't you?

A I didn't ask about the water. What I asked was who gave the flyer the cigarette.

Q You said on direct examination and I will quote it, "That orders had been previously ordered for the treatment of prisoners of war." What did you mean by that? What were these orders?

A I said this morning that these orders concerning prisoners of war were to face the wall during interrogations.

Q Did you issue these orders?

A No. I couldn't issue that type of order. That order came from higher headquarters.

Q Who did you get that order from?

A You couldn't say the Reichsstatthalter, from the NSDO from the Reichsfuehrer of the SS or the Higher SS and Police Officer, but since there was a diagram attached to it, it must have come from higher headquarters.

(Eichel - Cross)

Q When you received that order did you pass it down to Albrecht?

A Concerning the treatment of prisoners of war?

Q Yes, about making them stand facing the wall during interrogations?

A It wasn't my job to transmit these orders. These orders were transmitted by the commanding officer of the Protective Police.

Q Did you transmit it to Major Kuhlenbeck?

A Yes -- no. Major Kuhlenbeck received this order.

Q Which was it "Yes" or "No"?

A Yes, he received the orders.

Q From you?

A From the office, from the headquarters.

Q From your headquarters?

A From my office.

Q All right. Therefore Albrecht was discharging your orders and instructions by letting the flyer smoke, is that what you mean?

A That was diametrical to that order. That was improper treatment.

Q You told the court this morning something about a mystery weapon that the Americans were supposed to be carrying around that would shoot a person without pulling the trigger. Did you ever see that weapon?

A No.

Q Where did you dream that up?

A I am not in the habit of dreaming about that kind of thing. I said that a diagram was attached to that order showing a man raising his hands and thereby setting off a weapon -- firing a shot. That diagram was sent to other headquarters as well.

Q And that is the reason you didn't want that flyer sitting down. You were afraid he had one of these mysterious weapons, isn't that correct?

A I don't know the word "fear". This report, this order said that in the course of interrogation of prisoners and prisoners of war had used fire weapons.

Q You say you don't know what the word "fear" is?

A I had no fear of this flyer.

Q Did you have any fear of anybody else?

A I have no fear. There is no reason for me to be fearful of anybody.

Q Why did you take the scarf away from this flyer?

A That wasn't a scarf. In my opinion, that was just a hand towel.

Q Whatever it was, why did you take it away from him?

A I am sure I can't say today what my thoughts were when I took this piece of cloth away from the flyer and put it on the table.

PRESIDENT: Court will recess until 1:30.

(Thereupon at 1205 hours the court recessed until 1330 hours.)

AFTERNOON SESSION

(Whereupon the court reconvened at 1330 hours.)

PRESIDENT: The court will come to order.

PROSECUTION: May it please the court, let the record show that all of the members of the court except Colonel Ackerman, who is absent sick, all the members of the prosecution, all the members of the defense except Dr. Frost, who is absent sick, all of the accused the reporter and the interpreter are present.

MR. RACHEL: I believe at the close of the morning session Eichel was on the stand.

HANS EICHEL, an accused, being reminded that he was still under oath, voluntarily resumed the stand and testified further through an interpreter as follows:

CAPTAIN VANCE: Will the reporter read my last questions and answers?

(Whereupon the reporter read the last two questions and answers as follows:

"Q Why did you take the scarf away from this flyer?

A That wasn't a scarf in my opinion. That was just a hand towel.

Q Well whatever it was, why did you take it away from him?

A I am sure I can't say today what my thoughts were when I took this piece of cloth away from the flyer and put it on the table.")

CROSS EXAMINATION, continued

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q Eichel you couldn't answer my last question and you have had an hour and a half to think about it in the meantime. Can you answer it now?

A I can't give no explaination for that, what the reason was to take the towel away from the flyer?

Q Well I will see if I can help you. This happened on the 22nd day of February, 1945, is that correct?

A Yes.

Q The weather was very cold at that time was it not?

A No, the weather was very mild.

Q In February, 1945 the weather was very warm, is that right?

A On the 22nd of February, 1945 the sun was shining and I was in uniform even without overcoat. That was also the reason that I went out in the woods with my car, because only a short time before that I had recovered from a great illness.

Q Did you take the scarf away with you?

A General, I don't want to answer this question. I am not a plunderer or a man who steals things from other people. I will answer this question, only, if you General, order me to do so.

PRESIDENT: The court will make its own deductions.

CAPTAIN VANCE: I am not sure I understand the ruling of the court.

PRESIDENT: The witness will answer.

THE WITNESS: I said already in the morning in my testimony that I took the hand towel or the scarf, whatever it is, away from the flyer and put it on the desk where his other belongings were lying.

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q My question is, did you take the scarf away with you? You can answer, yes or no.

A No.

Q Now, demonstrate to the court the way you removed this scarf from the flyer.

A How shall I demonstrate. The flyer was sitting like you (Indicating). I was standing here. I took the scarf away and here (Indicating) the man was sitting on the desk and that is where I put it together with his other belongings.

Q Did you snatch it away or did you remove it very gently?

A I am not used to mistreating soldiers. That is too much in my flesh and blood never to touch a soldier, always to stay three steps away from him (Eichel-cross) and never to mistreat him.

Q Well how, if you stayed three steps away from this soldier, did you get your hands on that scarf?

A That was something else.

Q What do you mean by that?

A I was standing close to the flyer--near him. There is no question of snatching the scarf.

Q You just didn't want the flyer to have it so you decided to take it off of him, is that correct?

A I can't answer this question.

Q At this time you were still mad?

A I explained this morning I wasn't mad, I was angry.

Q At this time you were still angry?

A Yes.

Q You are angry now, aren't you?

A I am angry about the questions, Captain, yes.

Q I believe you took Albrecht into a room to admonish him, is that correct?

A Yes.

Q Who was present at that time?

A I think Captain Kiwitt was standing nearby--was standing next to us or at least nearby.

Q Among other things you said to Albrecht "You know about the treatment of captured prisoners.", is that correct?

A Yes.

Q What did you mean by that statement?

A I explained this morning that this order had come through which had also this diagram attached--where there is doubt about it.

Q Let me ask you if you are familiar or were you familiar at that time with the order to turn over captured flyers to the Gestapo for special treatment? (Kiehel-cross)

A At the Police Headquarters there was never known an order that captured parachuted flyers should be turned over to the Gestapo.

Q You never heard of that order until this trial, is that what you mean?

A That flyers had to be delivered at the Gestapo?

Q To either the Gestapo or the SD?

A I heard this here for the first time.

Q Back in 1945 you didn't know anything about it?

A No.

Q Did you know Major Girke then?

A Only by name.

Q Just by name?

A If I testified here that I know him only by name, then this is sufficient.

Q Well I want to get it straight. Do you mean back then you had never attended a conference or ever talked to Major Girke, is that what you mean?

A Never.

Q You are willing to stand on that?

A That is a matter of course.

Q Did you know Colonel Lassak then?

A I met him only during the retreat. Before I knew him only by name.

Q You held the same position at Offenbach that Colonel Lassak held in Giessen, did you not?

A Yes.

Q You were both Police Directors and had the same powers and authority, is that correct?

A Yes, with the exception that I was a leader in the SA and Lassak was a leader in the SS.

Q Can you explain why Colonel Lassak knew about these orders and you didn't?

A The only explanation that I have is that Colonel Lassak, Police Director Lassak might have received these orders through Gestapo or the Security Service--SD.

Q When you were through admonishing Albrecht tell me what orders you gave him?

A I told Albrecht, "The flyer comes to Police Headquarters." Albrecht answered, "Yes, sir", and while I said this or immediately afterwards I said furthermore, "They will be finished anyway." There was still an expression of my anger and memory of conversation with the Reichsstatthalter.

Q What else did you say?

A Otherwise I didn't talk to Albrecht anymore. I left the room. Later on I entered the room again and pressed for hurry so that the flyer would be made ready and would be taken away.

Q You can't remember anything else you told Albrecht?

A Otherwise I didn't talk with Albrecht anything else.

Q Your memory is not so good is it?

A My memory is excellent Captain.

Q Tell me if you said this on direct examination? "If the flyer tries to escape the weapon will be used."

A Captain that was an entirely different time and place afterward when the flyer was already in the yard but not in the building.

Q I didn't ask you where you were. Do you remember saying that to Albrecht?

A Yes, that is correct.

Q Why did you say that?

A I explained this in detail this morning. That any man who escorts a prisoner, a man under arrest, has to be instructed that if the prisoner or man under arrest tries to escape that he has to make use of his weapon because there was a regulation that anyone who would let a prisoner escape would be taken into custody immediately. That was the same with us as with the Security Police.

(Bichel-cross)

Q Well Albrecht was familiar with the regulation without your having to tell him, wasn't he?

A It was a regulation that had to be told everybody again before the transports.

Q So every time you had a prisoner move from one place to another you would call the man in who was going to move him and give him those instructions, is that right?

A If you wanted to act strictly according to regulations it had to be done, yes.

Q You were a man that stuck right with the regulations?

A Yes.

Q You are a man that follows orders explicitly.

A So far I always followed the orders of my superior officers.

Q If you gave an order you expected it to be carried out exactly like you gave it?

A Yes.

Q You said on direct examination that you didn't order this flyer to be killed but that you knew he would be bumped off, is that right?

A I didn't know that, but I assumed this only from the remarks made by the Reichsstatthalter that something would be done about the flyers from higher authorities. At that time it was already known that in Stalag Number 3, 50 to 70 flyers had been shot on orders.

Q You knew that this flyer would be killed because you knew that every other flyer that had fallen in the hands of the Offenbach Police Force were killed, is that right?

A No.

(Riehel-cross)

Q As a matter of fact they all were killed, were they not?

A But not through my fault. Until the time I came there to Dachau I was convinced and I am still convinced the first flyer and the second flyer that was killed, were killed while trying to escape. During the three cases I was on vacation and only after my return did I hear about it.

Q You are talking about the first flyer, do you contend that the first flyer was the one on the 22nd of February 1945?

A Yes.

Q Are you sure about that?

A I am absolutely certain of that.

Q How many do you know were executed after that date, in Offenbach?

A None. None at all.

Q None after 22 February 1945.

A No. None by the police, none by the Party and not by the Wehrmacht either.

Q Then the witnesses are lying about the fact that the priest brought a flyer into Bieber, that was executed, is that right?

A That is the second case. That is the second case on Bierbrauer Weg. They didn't lie.

Q You said that none were executed since the 22nd of February.

A I wanted to say that was a mistake on my part. I wanted to say in addition to the three cases which are known here, no other flyer was ever harmed.

Q I want to be sure that we get this straight. You admit that three flyers were executed and you say that there were no more, is that correct?

DR. WACKER: I have to object to the question in this form. I object to the expression "executed".

CAPTAIN VANCE: I will call it murder, or killed, or anything you want to call it.

PRESIDENT: The objection is overruled.

THE WITNESS: No.

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q By "NO", you mean there were no more except these three?

A None in addition to these three.

Q Your lawyer, this morning, asked you some questions about the behavior of the civilian population around police headquarters and I believe you answered they were pretty quiet?

A Yes. You heard a few voices.

Q You mean that they were quiet before you went out there and got them all excited, do you not?

A I didn't incite any people.

Q Did you tell the people that this was one of the flyers who was killing and bombing men, women and children?

A Yes. After one out of the crowd said "This is one of them". I said "Yes, that is one of them that has destroyed your houses and killed your children" because two weeks before that we had an attack on Bieber.

Q You knew you were lying when you told them that, did you not?

A I did not lie. Why should I have lied?

Q You knew those flyers were not there two weeks before that, that they were captured the same day, did you not?

A You cannot take that in that sense. Of course, I did not know that this one flyer had been at Bieber before. I never claimed that. That was not a lie when I said so.

Q You were not trying to incite the crowd, were you?

A There you cannot talk about incitement of the crowd. There was no intention of doing so.

Q But why did you tell them that?

A That was an utterance that was made by 99 people out of 100.

Q What was the purpose of going out and addressing the crowd if it was not to incite them?

A There was no intention to do that. This was just an utterance made to them without any importance.

Q You have already told this Court that you are not the type of man that gets excited, is that right?

A No. I did not tell the Court that I don't get excited. I don't know how to understand that.

Q When you left Bieber and drove your car back to Offenbach, what did you think was going to happen to that flyer?

A I expected the flyer at my headquarters in Offenbach.

Q Why didn't you put him in that automobile and take him there if that is what you wanted?

A I explained in detail this morning why I didn't do so.

Q Will you tell me why you did not put him right into that automobile and take him to Offenbach?

A First, the car was too small and second because there -- it was known to me that officers who had taken prisoners of war along in their cars had received disciplinary punishment. It was brought to our special attention through the commander of the Order Police at Darmstadt.

Q I believe you testified this morning about some orders from Wiesbaden that you were not supposed to transport them in an automobile, is that correct?

A Yes. These were not orders but either the commander of the Order Police or higher SS leader had taken disciplinary action against two officers because they had taken flyers along in their cars.

Q Trummler was head of the SDS in Wiesbaden, was he not?

A Yes.

Q Who was your commanding officer, at that time?

A The commander of the Order Police was Colonel Hiemann.

Q Did those orders not to transport them in cars come from Colonel Niemann?

A No. I don't think so.

Q From whom did they come?

A I can't remember anymore today but I can still recall that Colonel Lessing told me that he had been admonished from Wiesbaden.

Q You said after you got him to Offenbach that you were going to put him in an automobile to go to Oberusl. How did you expect to get by with that?

A No. Not to Oberusl. We had the regulation to deliver flyers to the next nearest Wehrmacht headquarters. It was unknown to me which was the nearest Wehrmacht headquarters at that time, since this matter was entirely up to the Order Police.

Q Do not avoid the question. Regardless of how you were going to take him or rather where you were going to take him, how did you expect to get by taking him in an automobile, which was against regulations?

A No. It was not forbidden to take the flyer in a car, not at all. It was forbidden only that he should be taken along in the personal duty car of the police director.

Q Oh, he could not ride in your personal car, is that it?

A He couldn't ride in my personal duty car in which I was riding.

Q That is the order that you got from Wiesbaden?

A That was not an order, that was information, a regulation, an admonishment for two officers who had done so before.

Q You left Bieber and drove back to your headquarters in Offenbach?

A Yes.

Q And you testified that when you got there first, you talked to and saw your secretary?

A Yes.

Q You said, "My secretary asked me, 'Where is the flyer?'", isthat correct?

A No.

Q You did not say that?

A No. She did not say "Where is the flyer?" That is a mistake, Captain. I have to explain that.

Q I do not want you to explain it, just answer the question.

A No. She did not ask where the flyer was, only later after the parachutes had come and we talked about it, she asked "Where is the flyer?" and then I said, "He is going to come later".

Q Do not argue with me, will you just answer the question. I did not ask you what your secretary said. I asked you if you did not say, on direct examination, what I just quoted? Do you remember saying that?

A "The flyer is coming later on"? Yes. "He is being brought on to police headquarters", yes.

Q That is not the question. I will repeat it for you. Did you say "When I got back my secretary asked me, 'Where is the flyer?'"?

A That is not entirely correct. I said the following, after the people present in the guard room had had the parachutes in their hands, my secretary asked, "Where is the flyer?".

Q Richel, you cannot remember what you told, can you?

A I said that and nothing else. I did not say anything else.

Q If that does not appear in the record of this trial then this court reporter made a mistake, is that correct?

MR. RACHAEL: Defense objects to the question.

CAPTAIN VANCE: This is cross examination, if it please the Court, and I have a right to ask him what he said and he can deny it if he wants to.

PRESIDENT: The objection is overruled.

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q You are just as sure of that answer as you are about anything else you said during this trial, are you not?

A Yes.

Q As a matter of fact, your secretary did not even know that you had been to Bieber until you told her, did she?

A My secretary knew well before I arrived because their parachutes and other airplane instruments had already been delivered at the guard room and also there at this location it had been said that flyers had landed near Bieber, then she said, "Where is the flyer?" and then she got the answer from me.

Q This secretary that we are talking about is the young lady who testified in this courtroom yesterday?

A Yes.

Q What is her name?

A Rosel Schaub.

Q How long had you been back in your office when you received the report that this flyer had been shot while trying to escape?

A That might have been two hours or even two and one half hours.

Q What did you do when you received this report?

A When Albrecht entered the room he was very excited. I acknowledged the report. For me it was absolutely clear that this matter was all right and according to Albrecht's explanation to me, I never had any doubts about Albrecht's statement.

Q Were you surprised to hear this?

A Yes. I must say I was surprised.

Q You knew that he had been bumped off, did you not?

A No.

Q When you were talking to Albrecht you said, "He will be bumped off anyhow"?

A That was said only in reference to remarks made by the Reichsstatthalter. It was assumptions that the flyer would be bumped off but not by us but by some other organization in the camp.

Q Then it was your idea to deliver him somewhere else to get him bumped off, is that it?

A No. It was my intention to deliver him to the Wehrmacht to -- according to my orders.

Q What happened to that flyer that you had about one week prior to this one?

MR. RACHAEL: The Defense objects to that, there has been no such testimony.

CAPTAIN VANCE: I would like to state that he did testify to that effect, unless my notes are incorrect. That he had three or four flyers before this time. In any event I am not bound by that direct examination of this accused. I will withdraw the question.

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q On direct examination did you say that the police of Offenbach had had three or four flyers in its custody prior to the date 22 February 1945?

A I had testified that already before the 22nd of February 1945, three or four flyers, in an ambulance had been delivered to the Wehrmacht at Frankfurt but not by my headquarters but by the headquarters of the Order police at Offenbach. It is furthermore known to me that someday one flyer had been picked up right in the streets of Offenbach. He was walking along in a westerly direction. This flyer too, to my knowledge, had been delivered to the Wehrmacht.

Q What finally happened to him?

A When he was with the Wehrmacht?

Q Is he living or dead?

A I don't know that.

Q This written report that you received stating that the flyer had been shot while attempting to escape, what did you do with that report?

(Michel-cross)

A This written report came from the commander of the Order Police, as it was customary that the police director is informed about special instances by the Order Police daily. The police director initials such reports and then either they are filed or if some other office is interested in the case the report is passed on to that particular office.

Q Don't you pass that report on up to your next higher headquarters?

A No. I don't think so. I don't have a clear picture but I am pretty certain that this report, together with the personal belongings of the flyer, was delivered to the Wehrmacht.

Q In each unusual incident a report did come to you, is that correct?

A For each special incident which was of importance for the police director.

Q Do you consider the execution of a man to be an important incident?

A That is not the execution of a man. It was a report in regard to the killing of a prisoner while trying to escape.

Q Is that a special incident that would require a report?

A Yes. That is a special incident because something like that does not occur every day.

Q On each occasion when a man was shot while trying to escape a report came to you, did it not?

A That is the only case when a man was shot trying to escape in my area of the police of Offenbach.

Q How did the others get shot?

A Which others?

Q For instance, the flyer that the priest had?

A That is the first lieutenant Zager's business. I don't know anything about that. I said before that I was on leave and know as much about it as you do, Captain.

Q You only got one written report and only knew of one flyer, is that right?

(Kiebel-cross)

A And the one at the Bierbrauer Weg.

Q That makes two then?

A Yes.

Q How many more did you get?

A I said before this morning that in addition to these three cases, known here to the court, no other prisoner or man was killed in Offenbach.

Q When was the first time that you knew the accused Moller?

A I saw the accused Moller for the first time here in Dachau.

Q I believe you were a former Colonel, or Lt. Colonel, is that right?

A Yes.

Q Moller is a Sgt, I believe?

A Yes. I believe he was Staff Sgt of the police.

Q When did you decide to frame Moller in this case?

DR. WACKER: I wish to object to this question. I think this question is improper and argumentative.

CAPTAIN VANCE: There is nothing argumentative about it.

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

THE WITNESS: There can be no question of a decision to do so. Because it is absolutely clear that I never spoke to Moller and never gave an order to Moller. If a little police official, as Moller, gets an order from the police director, the first thing for him to do would be at least to tell to his police station leader, "Lieutenant, I just received an order from the police director to shoot a man. When, how and where shall I do it?" That these would be the most natural questions to ask. For this reason there can't be any question of a decision of mine to frame Moller.

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q You heard what Moller had to say, did you not?

A Yes.

(Eichel-cross)

Q We have heard what you have had to say?

A Yes.

Q Either you or Heller are telling a deliberate lie, are you not?

A Yes. One of us must be lying.

Q You heard Heller admit things that were damaging to his case, for instance, that he actually killed the flier, did you not?

A Yes. He can't help that.

Q You do not admit any wrong, do you?

A I don't have to admit anything wrong. The way I testified the story is true. None of the other accused, -- Heller, Goehrendt, Kiwitt, Albrecht and myself, are in any way involved in the case.

Q When did you decide this?

A That was clear for me right from the beginning.

Q You are talking about from your own testimony, are you not?

A Of course, I have my private opinion of this incident, how it happened. But this is of no importance here. I can imagine how it happened.

Q Everybody that testified that you did anything wrong were deliberately lying, were they?

A Whenever I have done wrong, I admit. If I would have had an absolutely clear order to shoot the flier, and if I would have given the order to Heller to shoot the flier, then I would admit right away, yes, Heller got the order from me because I only transmitted the order. There is no other reason like with all the other comrades, these just transmitted an executed order. But I can't let myself be forced into something which really didn't happen.

(Eichel-Cross)

Q Weller has lied about you, you say?

A Yes.

Q Did Albrecht lie about you?

A No.

Q You are willing to say everything Albrecht said is the truth, is that right?

A Albrecht said the truth.

Q What about Goehrendt?

A Goehrendt, -- Goehrendt is an old proverb. Goehrendt came to it just like the virgin to the child. He had nothing to do with the case, the same as Kiwitt had nothing to do with the case. Kiwitt followed me, was always behind me like a young dog, and whenever his boss was yelling, Kiwitt felt obliged to do so too.

Q Eichel, you were asked this morning if you knew the contents and were familiar with Charge I, and you said that you were, is that right?

A Yes.

Q I believe you said that you never had anything to do with the conference about the treatment of fliers, is that right?

A No.

Q Well, I will ask you, -- what did you say?

A That I never participated in a conference which amounted to conspiracy. Furthermore, I would like to add that I met General Stroop once. He ordered me to Wiesbaden in October or November '44 because I had a car incident on an icy road and he wanted to get information from me how it could happen that I was still in a position to drive my car home on Saturday or Sunday. I explained to him at this conference that I was using gasoline from the Reich hunting administration because I myself was the hunting master for this county. It was a matter of course that General Stroop asked me about the damage in Offenbach. I told him about the damages and gave him the number of people killed, but there was no talk whatsoever about an order of killing fliers. If anything of this character would have been said at that time I wouldn't have any choice but saying, "Yes, the General said so and gave such-and-such an order," -- but nothing happened.

Q Now, you have admitted that you attended the conference with Gauleiter Sprenger, in which he told you that allied fliers would be killed, have you not?

A Captain, there wasn't any conference. There was inspections the men made.

Q Well, was there some talk between you? We won't call it a conference.

A Not me and him. There were several other people present.

Q That is what I want to know. Who was there?

A The Kreisleiter was present, Major Kuhlenbeck -- and I mentioned before that there were five or six other people present, industrial experts and economic advisors, who were interested in the damage done to industry.

Q If that was not a conference you were holding, what would you call it?

A I don't know how I should express myself. These were remarks made during an inspection. In a conference I understand people are in a room and are sitting down at a table, and that was in the open air.

Q The Kreisleiter was there, you say?

A The kreisleiter was present.

Q Is that Geerner?

A Yes, Geerner.

Q Is this Geerner the same man from whom you get the building material to build your lodge?

A No.

Q You and this kreisleiter were bosom pals, were you not?

A No, I and the kreisleiter were on very bad terms because he used the nickname "Stalin," and for this reason I was called to the gauleiter too and I told the gauleiter the following: "Gauleiter, I am not going to cooperate with this Kreisleiter Goerner because Goerner has taken on the name of this mass murderer." I can bring many witnesses to this effect that it happened like this. Sprenger said, "You return to Offenbach and you two work together and cooperate. Otherwise, a change will take place." The trouble with Goerner started because he always tried to interfere with police matters. This Goerner was well known in all of Hessen as an infamous kreisleiter and even my comrade Girke is nodding with his head.

Q Your "comrade Girke"? Did you not just finish saying you did not know Girke until this trial began?

A I know Girke here now. I knew Girke here.

Q How long have you known him?

A Since we are here in Dachau. I have never seen Girke before.

Q You were very close to the political heads in Offenbach, were you not?

A No.

Q If you were not, how did you get so many rationed things that the other people did not get?

A I didn't get any rationed stuff. I didn't get more than anybody else. That's an infamy.

Q Do you remember the time that a whole hogshead full of sausage jumped out of your automobile on the streets of Offenbach? ____

MAJOR SAXON: I object to that question on the ground that it is fully immaterial to this case.

CAPTAIN VANC: May I state my reason? If it please the court, the purpose of these questions is this: This man has testified that he could not get along with the kreisleiter, that they were enemies, as a matter of fact. I am going to show that he got material to build a big fine hunting lodge, and that a hogshead full of sausage jumped in the streets out of his automobile and he got in trouble about that. I am going to show that he was a little czar with the political setup and he could get anything he wanted.

MAJOR SAXON: What has that to do with the case?

CAPTAIN VANCE: To impeach him. He says he could not get along with the kreisleiter.

MAJOR SAXON: I do not know how we got into this matter about the kreisleiter.

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

INTERPRETER WATRANSON: Will you repeat the question, please?

(Whereupon the question was read by the reporter as follows:

"Do you remember the time that a whole hogshead full of sausage jumped out of your automobile on the streets of Offenbach?")

THE WITNESS: No, not in Offenbach.

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q Where did it happen?

A I have testified that on account of a slippery, icy road I had a car accident, and since every week I took the stamps of all my relatives -- I have three families; in my household lived my mother-in-law, my daughter with her child -- her husband died in Stalingrad -- and the wife and the children of my son -- there were four families. I myself lived in a very small village near Bensheim. Here there is only one store. It is a fact that once every week I drove home and I took along all the food ration stamps and in Offenbach my valet went shopping. I, as a police director and lieutenant colonel, can't go in a store myself and do the shopping. The day of the car accident, really five or six small sausages fell out of the car on the street. It is really an infamy to claim it was a whole box of sausages. I would have liked it to be a whole box.

Q Is it not a fact that due to your connection with the kreisleiter and the other political bigwigs that you chiselled so much stuff that the other people could not get that a report on you went up to Colonel Scmann?

A I would like to make the following explanation.

Q Do not explain it. Answer it.

A But I have to. You can't answer this with "yes" or "no."

PRESIDENT: Make your explanation short.

THE WITNESS: Yes.

A As police director and as a hunting master of the county who himself was the owner of two hunting districts there, I could, through the exchange of deer, receive an additional twenty bottles of wine and for instance, two boxes of cigars -- that is a matter of course. I furthermore admit that sometimes I received some stuff without food ration stamps, but who didn't do so at that time?

PRESIDENT: Is the prosecution through?

CAPTAIN VANCE: Yes, sir.

REDIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY DR. WACKER:

Q Mr. Eichel, were you interrogated before in this matter?

A Yes.

Q During this interrogation were you also interrogated in regard to sausages and stuff like this?

A No.

Q Do you have an explanation as to how the prosecution is in a position today to ask you questions of this kind and character?

A I have an explanation.

Q Please give us your explanation.

A It is very regrettable that among the accused are one or two persons who are blowing up such an unimportant matter to a big balloon. These people especially should look after their own noses.

Q I mean, Mr. Eichel, how did this case come to the knowledge of the prosecution?

A I can only guess, but I can't prove --

CAPTAIN WAECK: I object on the ground that it is immaterial as to where I get my information to examine the witnesses on.

PRESIDENT: The objection is sustained.

QUESTIONS BY DR. WACKER:

Q Mr. Eichel, during your examination through Colonel Bergman you intended to make an additional explanation and you were told you should do so during the direct examination by your counsel. Please make the statement which you intended to make at that time.

A My secretary, Mrs. Schwab, has testified yesterday that I had protected a man listening to foreign radio broadcasting and that I had protected a deserter and so on. In other words, I severely neglected my official duties through the protection of enemies of the state. I would like to make the following statement in regard to this: I never protected enemies of the state. I never protected people listening to foreign radio broadcasting stations, but I took steps in favor of the eighteen-year old son of one of my policemen who was under the influence of an older sergeant and I got the favor from Major Kuhlenbeck that this policeman received eight days leave so that he could visit his son who was sentenced to death.

Q Mr. Eichel, do you remember the question under cross examination that either you or Moller must be lying?

A Yes.

Q Did you change your statements and testimony?

A No.

Q Did Moller do so?

A Yes. According to the testimony of Albrecht, Moller changed his testimony on several occasions.

Q Did you hear that first Moller claimed that Albrecht had given the order?

A Yes.

Q Do you have an explanation for the fact that Moller changed his testimony?

A I can explain it only so -- that Albrecht told me that he was together with Moller in Camp Hersbruck and some day there was handed out an excerpt of the speech by Supreme Court Justice Jackson that the one who obeyed an order from a superior officer would receive a smaller punishment than the man who gave the order.

Q Mr. Eichel, when was your wife informed that you were not alive any more?

A I can't say exactly any more when my wife told me that. Anyway, she wrote me that she was requested to turn in the papers so that she could pay the national life insurance money. She didn't have any message from me for many weeks and for this reason, of course, she was very excited.

Q Do you know whether there was talk in Camp Hersbruck about your death or not?

A I personally can't know it because I wasn't in Hersbruck, but Albrecht confirmed this to me and Moller too confirmed this to me.

Q Mr. Eichel, would you like to tell the court anything else in regard to this case which so far has not been told to the court?

A I can only state once more, as I said before, that Moller never received an order from me and if I would have given an order, then I would stick to my order. Otherwise, I have nothing to say.

QUESTIONS BY DR. RAU:

DR. RAU: Second cross examination on behalf of the accused Albrecht.

Q Mr. Michel, you testified that in your opinion the accused Albrecht was not involved in the killing of the flier.

A Albrecht, although he became an officer, was still a kind of subordinate officer and Albrecht was a very decent and fair official who had never done something on his own and if Albrecht would have acted on his own, at least he would have explained it to me and he wouldn't have been so excited at the time when he came to my office.

Q Did you hear in the courtroom that Moller testified that Albrecht was not involved in this case?

A Yes.

DR. RAU: Thank you.

DR. BUNGER: One or two more questions on behalf of the accused Moller.

QUESTIONS BY DR. BUNGER:

Q Is it not correct that Albrecht was Moller's immediate superior?

A Yes.

Q Why should Moller then put the blame on another superior officer at Hersbruck after he had put the blame already on some other superior officer before that time?

(Michel-Redirect)

A I don't understand the logic.

MAJOR SAXON: I object to that as calling for a conclusion and conjecture on the part of this witness.

CAPTAIN VANCE: If the court please, this witness has been giving conclusions for three hours and I believe the question is proper.

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

Q Can you tell me why Moller at Hersbruck, after Jackson's speech, should put the blame on another superior officer after he had put the blame before on some other superior officer?

A I can't decide that.

DR. DUBBER: Thank you. That is all.

PRESIDENT: Court will recess until three-thirty.

DB follows (Whereupon at 1500 hours the court recessed until 1530 hours.)

("hereupon the Court reconvened at 1330 hours.)

THE PRESIDENT: The Court will come to order.

MAJOR SAXON: May it please the Court, let the record show that all members of the Court except Colonel Ackerman, who is absent sick, all the members of the Prosecution, all the members of the Defense, except Colonel Hinman, who is absent on business of the Defense, Dr. Trost, who is absent sick, all of the accused, the reporter and interpreter are present.

HANS EICHEL, an accused, resumed the stand and being reminded that he was still under oath, testified further through an interpreter as follows:

MAJOR SAXON: Your witness, Captain Vance.

CAPTAIN VANCE: No further questions by the Prosecution.

MAJOR SAXON: Does the Court have any questions of this accused?

EXAMINATION BY THE COURT

QUESTIONS BY THE LAW MEMBER:

Q Mr. Eichel, in your testimony you said that Gauleiter Sprenger said further to you that these men would be bumped off anyway. What was the occasion of your having that conversation with Mrs. Sprenger?

A It was after an air raid. After an air raid, Reichsstatthalter Sprenger came to Offenbach and inspected the damaged sites.

Q What date was that?

A I can't say that exactly anymore. It was either towards the end of December or beginning of January. We had 57 attacks in Offenbach.

(Eichel-Court)

Q Was that 1944 or the beginning of 1945?

A Colonel, that might have been the end of 1944 or the beginning of 1945.

Q Then you also said something to the effect that it was already known that approximately 60 to 70 fliers had already been killed in Stalag Three. What date was that?

A I can't say that either. All I can say is that there were rumors to that effect and that there was no way of telling whether that was true--there were always rumors. And it was a rumor that 60 to 75 prisoners had been shot, but that rumor was confirmed by the Nuernburg trial.

Q Where was Stalag Three?

A I have no idea. I don't know where Stalag Three is--it might be within the area of the Third Army Corps.

Q Do you know what was the occasion of their being shot?

A No.

Q When you entered the police station on the 22nd of February, 1945, and made some remark, were any remarks made following what you had said or preceding them by Mr. Kiwitt?

A In the presence of Kiwitt? I don't quite understand you, Colonel.

Q Read the question.

A Kiwitt was there.

LAW MEMBER: Read the question.

(Thereupon the question was read by the reporter.)

WITNESS: Kiwitt was cursing, too, but I don't know what he said anymore.

QUESTIONS BY THE LAW MEMBER:

Q You do recall that he made some remarks, do you, in addition to the cursing?

A No.

Q Now what was the occasion of this meeting in which an inspection was made, and the Gauleiter Sprenger was present, and the number of industrials were present, and Major Kuhlenbeck and yourself?

A Well, it's common practice that if the Reichsstatthalter comes to some certain town he would call the Police Director over, and Major Kuhlenbeck, who was the Commanding Officer of the Protective Police, and the Protective Police was primarily the organization bearing the responsibility for air raid protection, and Sprenger wanted to get information of the entire damage done within Offenbach.

Q Was that damage that was done by bombing--air bombing?

A Yes.

Q Who else was there besides the ones that I mentioned?

A The Reichsstatthalter took a whole lot of industrial experts with him, because there were war industries located in Offenbach.

Q Was the purpose, then, of their gathering there to inspect what damage had been done by bombing?

A Yes, and the purpose of having the industrial experts along was to find out how the industries which had been damaged in Offenbach might be moved to some other place promptly.

Q And in that discussion, or inspection, what reference was made to the fliers?

A Since the damage done was quite considerable, the Reichsstatthalter said, "It can't go on like this. From now on all fliers will be shot and finished up."

Q Now when was this inspection made--what date?

A At the end of December or beginning of January.

Q Of the year 1944 and 1945?

A 1944-1945.

Q Were any instructions given to you and Major Kuhlenbeck at that time with reference to what should be done?

A No.

PRESIDENT: No further questions by the Court.

DR. WACKER: Nothing further.

CAPTAIN VANCE: Sir, I would like to ask him one question.

RECROSS EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q Eichel, you have testified that you were a type of officer that if you received an order you would carry it out explicitly, is that correct?

A Just like every other soldier and every other man would do.

Q If you had received an order to execute your own son, would you have carried it out?

A No.

CAPTAIN VANCE: Nothing further.

WITNESS: That's a question you can't answer.

MAJOR SAXON: Would the Court care for anything further?

PRESIDENT: No further questions. The witness will take his place in the dock.

(Whereupon the witness was excused and resumed his place in the prisoners' dock.)

MAJOR SAXON: If it please the Court, that concludes the evidence on Charge 7. Mr. Rachael is in charge of the Defense and presentation of Charge 8; and the German lawyers, for the Court's information, who represent the various accused--I thought I might mention here--Fay is represented by Dr. Rau, Hermann by Dr. Aheimer, Mahrgang by Dr. Aheimer, Eichel by Dr. Wacker and Kiwitt by Dr. Buerger; and Mr. Rachael is going to proceed with the Defense.

MR. RACHAEL: I hand the reporter two documents and request that they be marked Defense Exhibit 18-A and Defense Exhibit 20, respectively.

(The documents referred to were marked Defense Exhibit 18-A and Defense Exhibit 20 for identification, respectively.)

MR. RACHAEL: If the Court please, at the close of the evidence for Charges 6 and 10, the Defense attempted to introduce into evidence a statement for which a foundation had been laid by the witness Hucko, at which time the Prosecution objected because it did not have an English translation. The Defense had prepared the translation of the same, and at this time the Defense would like to offer into evidence Exhibit D-18, which has been so marked for identification, which is the statement identified by the witness Hucko, and the English translation thereof, marked for identification by the number D-18A.

CAPTAIN VANCE: We object to the introduction of this statement on the ground that it is a self-serving declaration made by this accused not at any one's request--that it is just a paper that he sat down and wrote at his leisure. The law is clear that self-serving declarations are not admissible, which I am sure the Law Member is familiar with, and I will not argue the point.

(

MR. RACHAEL: If the Court please, this is not a self-serving declaration, because it was made by Girke long before the time he was served with the charge sheet and long before the time that he knew he was a defendant in this case; and, in the third place, I believe the original was taken ok of the file of the case and it was a part of the investigation, or part of the complete, official file of the case; and it is respectfully submitted that the Court, in line with the rules of procedure, should take the statement for what it deems it worth.

CAPTAIN VANCE: May I ask the Defense Counsel--if this is proper--where that statement came from?

MR. RACHAEL: I don't know. I was told by Colonel Herman that it came from the file of the case.

DR. AHEIMER: I might explain this.

CAPTAIN VANCE: I know that not to be true, because we had all the files. What papers you received from the files, you received from the Prosecution.

MR. RACHAEL: Perhaps Dr. Aheimer can explain it.

DR. AHEIMER: I am about to say the following, as the Defense Counsel for Girke. As the witness Hucko testified to here from the witness stand, the accused Girke at one time designed this statement; and the original written according to that plan was turned over to the investigator

Upon his suggestion at that time, the outline for this he kept with him. At the beginning of the trial he was represented by the lawyer, Dr. Trost, and since she turned sick in the meantime, I asked Dr. Trost to send this copy to me from her file; and after I received this paper I turned it over to Colonel Herman's file.

PRESIDENT: Objection sustained.

MR. MACHAKL: The Defense will call as its next witness Ludwig Reiter.

LUDWIG REITER, called as a witness by the Defense, being first duly sworn, testified through an interpreter as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY DR. AHRIMER:

Q State your full name to the Court.

A Ludwig Reiter.

Q How old are you, Mr. Reiter?

A 48 years.

Q Where is your residence?

A Offenbach, Frankfurter Strasse 78.

Q What was your residence in February, 1945?

A At the air raid watch, at the fire watch.

Q What town?

A Offenbach.

Q What's your profession?

A At this time construction technician.

Q Was that the profession you were carrying on in February of 1945?

A No.

Q What was your profession at that time?

A First Lieutenant of the Fire Protection Police in Offenbach.

Q For how long had you held this position as First Lieutenant of the Fire Police?

A 1943.

Q Who was your immediate superior?

A Captain Bauts.

Q And who would take this superior's place when he was absent?

A I, myself, did.

Q Do you know a man named Wahrgang?

A Yes.

Q Look around the Court, and if you recognize him, point him out?

A Number 11.

DR. AHEIMER: Let the record show that the witness identified the accused Number 11 as Wahrgang.

Q Do you know a man named Hammann?

A Yes.

Q Have a look around the Court and point him out, please.

A Number 12.

DR. AHEIMER: He identifies Number 12 as Hammann.

Q Do you know a man named Fay?

A Yes.

Q Have another look around and if you recognize him, point him out.

A Number 13.

DR. AHEIMER: Let the record show that he identifies the accused 13 as Fay.

Q What was the position of the accused Nahrgang whom you just identified in February, 1945?

A He was a platoon leader of an extinguishing platoon.

Q Where was this extinguishing platoon stationed?

A This platoon was stationed on the outside at Bierbrauer Weg.

Q Now what was Hammann's position, if you know? This also in February, 1945?

A Hammann was the driver of a vehicle.

Q What was his rank?

A I don't know exactly--I think Sergeant--I can't say exactly.

Q Where was he stationed?

A Bierbrauer Weg.

Q Do you know what Fay's position was in February, 1945?

A He also was a driver.

Q Where was he stationed?

A Bierbrauer Weg.

Q Do you remember the 22nd of February, 1945?

A Yes.

Q Do you know of anything extraordinary happening on that date?

A Yes.

End ta 238,
ps fols

Tm 239-ge-80-2/18-1

Q Tell us about it briefly, as far as you know.

A That evening in question, I was in town. I had some official business there. When I returned to the fire police station, I was told that I had been expected for over an hour.

Q Where was your fire police station?

A In town, Herrenstrasse 52.

Q Continue, please.

A I asked why, what was the matter, and then they said that somebody had been shot on Bierbrauer Weg. Upon that, I rode up to Bierbrauer Weg right away and there the pilot was shown me and the report was made to me, "A pilot shot while trying to escape."

Q What time of day was that?

A I don't know the time of day exactly, but it was in the evening. It was dark.

Q When you say the pilot was shown to you, you mean the dead body of the pilot?

A Yes.

Q And who made a report to you that this pilot had been shot while attempting to escape?

A Hammann.

Q As far as you know, did Hammann have any job on this evening?

A I asked him to prepare a written report, because he had made this report to me in his capacity as commander of the guard that night.

Q Do you know what the duties of the sergeant of the guard or commander of the guard on Bierbrauer Weg used to be?

A He was in charge of inspecting the guard for the security of quarters.

Q Did Hammann's report give any details as to the occurrence of the incident?

A No.

Q Did you ask for details?

A Not that evening.

Q A while ago, you said that you demanded a written report of Hannemann. Was that written report made?

A I received it the next morning.

Q Do you remember the wording of this report, perhaps?

A No, only in substance, "flier shot while attempting to escape."

Q After receiving this report, did you conduct any investigations on your own?

A I transmitted this report to the police, since the matter was a matter for the police anyway.

Q Were there any special regulations to the effect that if any incident occurred which might be of a criminal nature that this incident would then have to be reported to the police for investigation?

A Yes.

Q Later on, did you find out any more details about this incident?

A Well, only what was common talk.

Q Did you talk about the case some more to Hannemann, Habrgang and Fay?

A I talked about it to Fay at the fire police station.

Q What did Fay tell you?

A That the flier had run into the shelter, had struck him on the chest, and had run away across the terrain.

Q You said the shelter, he ran into the shelter. By that, do you mean the building itself or do you mean the Valentinalley?

A I mean the territory, the terrain. This terrain was fenced in. There was a gate out front.

Q Do you know the territory around the Bierbrauer Weg?

A Yes.

Q I hand you a piece of paper which has been marked for identification As Defense Exhibit 20 and ask you whether you have ever seen this piece of paper before?

(SEVEN-Pieper)

A Yes.

Q What does it represent?

A That is the terrain, the vicinity around Bierbrauer Weg, all the buildings, the Feldschmiller.

Q Who prepared this map?

A By the surveying office, Offenbach.

Q Did you have anything to do with the preparation of this map?

A Yes.

Q When?

A By request of Colonel Berman, I had this map prepared.

Q Is the office which prepared this map an official office of the Offenbach municipal administration?

A Yes.

A Yes.

Q What is the scale of this map?

A One to five hundred.

PRESIDENT: Ask the witness to speak loudly.

(Whereupon the interpreter did as directed.)

THE WITNESS: Yes.

QUESTIONS BY DR. AMELUNG:

Q Do you know whether the representation is true to scale?

A It must be, since it was prepared from the original documents of the city.

DR. AMELUNG: I now offer in evidence as Defense Exhibit 20 a chart of the vicinity of Bierbrauer Weg and request that it be received in evidence and attached to the record.

CAPTAIN VANCE: May it please the court, I have no idea of objecting to it, but with the permission of defense counsel, so I will answer a few things for myself, I ask him if he will yield and let me ask him a few questions about the map.

Ts 139-ps-50-2/26-M

DR. AHRENER: Yes, I have no objection.

CAPTAIN VANCE: What do you mean by one to five hundred? Is that centimeters, meters, feet, yards or what?

DR. AHRENER: Objection on my part. I think that the matter is perfectly clear, that this is only the representation of a relation one centimeter on the map equal to five hundred centimeters in nature, or one kilometer on the map equal to five hundred kilometers in nature.

CAPTAIN VANCE: That is all. No objection.

MR. RACHAEL: If the court please, for the use of the court we have three additional maps.

PRESIDENT: Defense Exhibit 20 will be received in evidence and made a part of the record.

(The document heretofore marked Defense Exhibit 20 for identification was received in evidence as Defense Exhibit 20, is attached hereto, and made a part of the record.)

QUESTIONS BY DR. AHRENER:

Q I will ask a few more brief questions, with permission, on half of Prosecution Exhibit 126. The original is stapled in there and hard to get at. I request permission to make use of the photostatic copy.

PRESIDENT: Permission granted.

Q On top of Exhibit D-20, I hand you a photostatic copy of another exhibit, P-126. This last-named exhibit is supposed to represent the same area. Have you ever had this photostatic copy shown to you by me?

A Yes.

Q Did you have a look at it while I showed it to you?

A Yes.

Q Since you are personally familiar with the terrain, can you tell us briefly whether there are any material differences between this chart P-126 and D-20?

A Yes.

Q State these differences briefly, please.

A In the first place, this one hollow road here is not as close to this building here and it meets Bierbrauer Weg at an angle.

DR. AHRIMER: Let the record indicate that the witness means the hollow path lying next to the Felsenkeller.

QUESTIONS BY DR. AHRIMER:

Q Any further material differences?

A Adjacent hereto, there is a second garage which is not shown here at all.

CAPTAIN VANCE: May it please the court, I don't think the court can know what he is talking about here. If counsel will let him use the big wall map, then the court would know what he is talking about.

DR. AHRIMER: That is perfectly true. I will ask this same question again with reference to this enlargement of P-126.

QUESTIONS BY DR. AHRIMER:

Q Please come over to this chart marked P-127 and show us these divergencies which you just mentioned one more time.

(Whereupon the witness left the witness stand.)

A This hollow path here meets Bierbrauer Weg over here at an angle, immediately.

Q You mean that this hollow path meets Bierbrauer Weg at a right angle?

A It forms an archway, it is bent over this way around here, and meets Bierbrauer Weg at an angle. Then the other garage adjacent to here, next to this garage. There is a hollow place, an entrance to another beer garden, and the woods starts only over there.

Q By that, you mean to say that this woods does not start right next to this road which leads away, but is further on down?

A Yes, lies further on down.

Q Can you say anything about whether the proportions on this chart, P-127, are correctly represented?

A It doesn't seem that way. The building is somewhat more narrow.

Q What is the true location of this staircase which is indicated on P-127 as Point E?

A The staircase located about here, behind this building.

DR. AHEIMER: Let the record indicate that the witness claims that the staircase is located behind the building labelled as "wood shack."

Have a seat, please.

(Whereupon the witness resumed the witness stand.)

QUESTIONS BY DR. AHEIMER:

Q You just said that you used to be the deputy of this captain in charge of the fire police?

A Yes.

Q Did orders coming to the fire police go through your hands?

A Yes.

Q Do you know whether any kind of orders concerning the treatment of enemy fliers ever came down to the fire police?

A No.

Q You never got any such orders?

A No.

Q Do you know whether Nahrgang was a member of the SS?

A I don't know anything about that.

DR. AHEIMER: That is all.

MR. RACHAEL: You may interrogate.

CROSS EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q You would say that this sketch over here was not drawn by an expert and is very crudely drawn and not according to scale, is that right?

A Well, it is all right as a general sketch but not according to scale.

CAPTAIN VANCE: Nothing further.

(REITER-Cross)

MR. RACHAEL: Does any member of the court have any questions?

PRESIDENT: No questions by the court. The witness is excused.

(Whereupon the witness was excused and withdrew.)

MR. RACHAEL: Defense will call as its next witness one Karl Schneider.

KARL SCHNEIDER, called as a witness by the defense, being first duly sworn, testified through an interpreter as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY DR. AHEIMER:

Q State your full name to the court, please.

A Karl Schneider.

Q How old are you?

A 45 years.

Q What is your residence?

A Offenbach on the Main.

Q Please wait with your answers until the interpreter has translated the questions. What is your status at the present time? Are you free or are you in prison?

A I am in prison.

Q What were you in February, 1945?

A Reserve police sergeant.

Q Are you the same Karl Schneider who once testified here before as a prosecution witness?

A Yes.

Q Do you remember what the end of your examination by the prosecution was at that time?

A Yes.

Q And is it a fact that you ended by saying that you, together with Police Sergeant Michel and an American flier, came over to the gate?

A Yes.

Q What was the purpose of your going to the Bierbrauer Weg at that time?

A On account of the air raid alarm, there was anti-aircraft fire going on, and shrapnel was coming down, so we were looking for protection, for cover.

Q Where were you trying to find cover?

A In the shelter.

Q What shelter are you talking about?

A We went to the police shelter.

Q Did you know that there was a shelter at Bierbrauer Weg near the Felsenkeller?

A Yes.

Q Was that the only reason you went over to Bierbrauer Weg, namely, to seek cover from this shrapnel? Was that the only reason?

A To find cover.

Q I would like to remind you again to wait until the interpreter has translated the questions. What direction were you coming from when you reached the gate next to the Bierbrauer Weg?

A A northerly direction.

Q I show you a chart marked Defense Exhibit 20 and ask you to have a look at it.

A I was coming from over here.

DR. AHEIMER: Let the record show that the witness indicated that he came along Bierbrauer Weg from a direction Gemartungburgal.

Q You just said you were not coming from Gemartungburgal, but from Lemmerspierweg?

A I don't know whether it was the Burgal area; it was this Lemmerspierweg, though.

Q At any rate, it is the same direction just as you said you came from the north, is that right?

Ta 239-ps-60-2/28-9

A Yes.

Q Did you, Michel and the American flier arrive at the gate at the same time?

A No, Michel went on out.

End ta 239
wfj fols

Q Do you how much or for how long Michel might have been ahead?

A Five or three hundred meters he might have been.

Q Why did he go ahead?

A He suddenly said, "It is getting too dangerous for me."

Q So he first left you and the flyer behind, is that right?

A Yes.

Q And when did you meet Michel again, if you met him at all?

A At the gate.

Q You mean the gate entering the Felsenkeller?

A Yes.

Q Please mark "X" here with a pencil.

A That is the gate here. (Indicating)

Q Did Michel wait for you at that gate?

A Yes, he did.

Q And where did you go then?

A We went through the gate with the flyer.

Q You said "WE". Who do you mean by "We"?

A Michel, Schneider and the flyer.

Q What direction did you walk in?

A To the shelter.

Q The three of you, Michel and you and the flyer, did you go there by yourselves?

A We didn't get there all the way when a man joined us.

Q Will you tell us where that happened when another man joined you?

A It might have been fifteen meters ahead of the staircase.

Q Did you know that man who joined you?

A No.

Q Do you know what he looked like?

A No.

Q Couldn't you see that?

A No, it was dark. I should think he was about medium height.

Q You were talking about a staircase. Do you mean a stair going to the air raid shelter?

A Yes, the one going down to the air raid shelter.

Q Did you go down that stairs?

A No.

Q Why not?

A Because the flyer ran away first.

Q Did he run away suddenly or did he indicate his intentions in any way before he did?

A He got himself some elbow room with his arms and ran away.

DR. AHEIMER: Let the record indicate that the witness indicated with his arms both to the right and to the left.

Q By this motion with his arms, did he hit anybody?

A I couldn't observe that because it was dark.

Q What direction did the flyer start running?

A He ran on ahead.

Q You mean in the direction of the staircase?

A In the direction of the staircase.

Q Why didn't you follow him?

A We wanted to cut off his way because we wanted to take him back to Bieber.

Q You said you wanted to cut off his way. Then you thought there was a chance to cut off his way?

A Yes.

Q What was that chance?

A Because I knew the way.

Q What did you do then?

A Michel and I turned around and ran back to the gate. We left by the gate that we came in before.

Q Did you then reach this point where you wanted to cut this flyer off?

A We got a little bit beyond the gate and then the flyer was brought over.

Q Was he brought there alive or dead?

A He was brought there dead.

Q Had you heard any shots before that?

A Yes.

Q How many?

A I think about two.

Q Do you know who fired these shots?

A No.

Q You said that you yourself ran back to cut off the flyer. What did Michel do?

A Michel went back too.

Q So the two of you went back?

A Yes.

Q You said that one man about medium height joined you about fifteen meters from the stairs. What did this man do after the flyer ran away?

A I wasn't able to see anything because there was a building ahead of us on the left.

Q Did this man run after the flyer?

A He might have. This man was running ahead.

Q What do you mean when you say he was running ahead. Do you mean in the same direction as the flyer?

A Just like the flyer.

Q Did you hear any calls or did you yourself call out anything when this flyer ran away?

A Michel yelled that the flyer has run away.

Q Did the other man who had joined you say anything?

A I can't say.

Q How long did it take from the time the flyer ran away until you ran back to Bierbrauer Weg and the flyer was brought back as dead?

A It might have been three minutes.

Q Where was the body of the flyer taken to?

A To the garden.

Q Did you go along that time?

A Yes, I did. Yes, we went along.

Q Did you stay for an extended period of time in that garden?

A No.

Q Where did you go then?

A We went back to the police branch office in Bieber.

Q What did you do at the police branch office in Bieber?

A We reported what the deal was and Sheinrad said he felt sorry for this man, "I tried to save his life and you people were chased out there."

MR. ANDREWS: Nothing further.

CROSS EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q Schneider, when you took this American flyer there you knew he was going to get killed, didn't you?

A No.

Q Wait a minute. You remember what you testified before?

A No.

Q Well I don't want to lead you, so you tell me what Captain Kivitt told you before you left with the flyer?

MR. RADEMR: The defense objects on the ground that it is beyond the scope of direct examination.

PRESIDENT: Sustained.

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q You didn't have any idea that this flyer was going to get killed, is that correct?

to take the flyer to Heinz Strasse and shoot him.

Q So did you take him to Heinz Strasse and shoot him?

A No, we went through Heinz Strasse on the way.

Q And due to an air raid, you decided to go to the air raid shelter with him?

A Yes.

Q So he was shot there and saved you the trouble of shooting him, is that right?

MR. RAUHAUS: The defense objects.

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

THE WITNESS: No. We wanted to take the man along. That is why we didn't shoot.

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q You had your orders to shoot him, didn't you?

A We had our orders to shoot but we said that we wouldn't do that, after all the man is a prisoner of war.

(Schneider - Cross)

A Captain Kivitt told us that we ought to shoot the flyer.

Q So it had all been arranged that the flyer was going to get shot if he did try to escape, is that right?

A I beg your pardon. No, no, we wanted to take him back to Bieber. That is why we didn't shoot.

Q Hadn't there been a discussion about this flyer being shot?

A Discussion?

Q Yes.

A No, we were just told at the headquarters that we ought

Q When you got there at this gate, which is marked "F" on Prosecution Exhibit 127, who did you have a discussion with?

A There was a guard standing there.

Q Did you talk to him?

A The guard said, "Who have you got here?" Upon that we said we had a captured flyer and we were supposed to turn him over and we couldn't turn him over and then we were supposed to shoot him and we said that we couldn't do that and we will take him to Bieber and we will just get here in a bunker until the danger is over.

Q Who else did you tell that story to?

A Nobody else.

Q Well, did Fay know about it?

A Who, Fay?

Q Yes.

A Well, I don't know him.

Q Did Hannann know about it?

A I don't know these people.

Q Who else did you talk to there besides this guard at the gate?

A We didn't talk to anybody else.

Q You knew the flyer was going to get killed because it was the orders that all flyers who fell into the hands of the police, meet their death, didn't you?

A No, we told ourselves that this man won't get shot. We will take him to Bieber.

Q You knew all other flyers who got into the hands of the police were shot, didn't you?

A Yes, but we said that this man is a prisoner of war.

Q I am not talking about this man. I am talking about the others.

MR. RACHAEL: We object. That is beyond the scope of direct examination.

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q Didn't you know that all flyers that the German police got their hands on got killed?

A No, Mr.

Q You didn't know about that?

A No.

Q Well, you knew if you didn't kill this flyer that some other policeman was going to kill him didn't you?

MR. RACHAEL: The defense objects.

PRESIDENT: Overruled.

THE WITNESS: No, I didn't know that.

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q He was killed at the hands of the police force?

A Yes, he was shot while trying to escape up there.

Q Now, did you first hear some shots up near the steps?

A I heard some shots up there.

Q And then did you hear some more shots on the Bierbrunner Weg?

A I heard two shots.

Q You said you heard some at the steps. Did you hear some anyplace else?

A I can't say exactly. I don't remember anymore. I think of only two shots.

(White - Halbert)

(Schneider - Cross)

Q Where did the American get killed?

A I don't know that. I wasn't there.

Q You don't remember much about this case now, can you?

A No, we came to the gate and a little piece beyond it and then the flyer was brought.

Q You don't remember much about this case now, can you?

A No, all I know is that we got beyond the gate and then the flyer was there.

Q You don't remember much about this case now, can you?

A No.

CAPTAIN VANCE: I won't question you any further.

REDIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY MR. MICHAEL:

Q You did learn that the flyer tried to escape? You remember that?

A Yes.

Q And you do remember that the flyer made a motion with his arms as you indicated?

A Yes, that I recall.

Q And you do remember that the flyer ran around the building and down the steps, don't you?

A Yes, there is only this one way down there.

QUESTIONS BY LT. DUNCAN:

Q Where did you get this order to shoot the flyer?

A We got the order, or rather Captain Hewitt told us we ought to shoot this man.

Q Where was that?

A At the headquarters.

Q Where were you coming from when you got to the headquarters?

Q And did you take the man to the headquarters of the Protective Police?

A Yes.

Q And when did you turn the man over to there?

A We went into a room and there was First Lieutenant Trautmann there and then we put his valuables down and then Kimitt was called.

Q What did Captain Kimitt tell you?

A Kimitt took us along the room next door.

Q What did he tell you?

A He asked us why we took this flyer over here.

Q What did you say?

A And he said, "Why didn't you bump him off."

Q I asked you what you said after that?

A That we were supposed to turn him over here.

Q How did this conversation develop then?

A He said, "You are supposed to handcuff him and shoot him in Main Strasse."

A We were coming from Bieber to Offenbach and we arrived in Offenbach and Kirrit told us, "How dare you bring this man down here."

Q Did you take this flyer along from Bieber to Offenbach?

A Yes.

Q What was the order you received in Bieber as to what you were to do with the flyer?

A To turn the flyer over to the police headquarters.

Q To the police headquarters or to the headquarters of the Protective Police?

A Headquarters of the Protective Police.

Q Who gave you this instruction?

A Sgt. [illegible]

Q Was that an order?

A Well, we took it to be an order.

Q Was there any mention of the fact that Major Kuhlenbeck had ordered him there?

A No.

Q Do you remember that definitely?

A I don't know anything about Kuhlenbeck.

Q Was anything said about the commanding officer having ordered that?

A No.

Q Did you then shoot this man upon this order?

A No.

Q Was that man shot on account of this order?

A No, he was shot on account of he ran away.

QUESTIONS BY DR. AHRENS:

Q Mr. Schneider what did you tell Captain Kiwitt when he said you were to take him back and shoot him?

A We couldn't do that because he was a prisoner of war.

Q Did you say that or did Michel say that?

A I think that both of us, but I can't say for sure.

Q One final question, did you just now say that you went back to Biesbrauer Weg after the flyer ran away? Did you run back that path or did you walk back?

A We walked a piece and ran a piece going back.

DR. AHRENS: Nothing further.

CAPTAIN VANCE: Nothing further.

MR. RACHAEL: Are there any questions by the Court?

PRESIDENT: Nothing by the court. The witness is excused and will resume his seat.

(Whereupon the witness was excused and returned his seat in the prisoners' dock.)

MR. RACHAEL: The defense will call as its next witness Frederich Michel.

FREDERICH MICHEL, called as a witness by the defense, being first duly sworn, testified through an interpreter as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY DR. ARNDER:

Q State your full name to the court.

A Frederich Michel.

Q How old are you?

A Fifty one.

Q What is your place of residence?

A Offenbach on Main.

Q At this time are you free or are you in prison?

A At this time I am confined.

Q What is your profession.

A Typesetter.

Q Was that the occupation you were practicing in February, 1945, as well?

A No.

Q What was your profession at that time?

A I had been drafted into the police.

Q Give us your position in the police that you got drafted into.

A As a corporal in the reserve.

Q Where were you stationed?

A Bieber.

Q You mean at the police station in Bieber?

A Yes.

Q Do you remember the twenty second of February 1945?

A Yes.

PRESIDENT: Court will recess until Monday morning at 9:00 o'clock.

(Whereupon the court recessed at 1645 hours until 0900 hours 3 March, 1947.)

Legal Form No. 8

MILITARY GOVERNMENT COURT
MILITÄRGERICHT

CHARGE SHEET
ANKLAGESCHRIFT

Place .....
Ort

Date .....
Datum

Name of accused .....
Name des Angeklagten

is hereby charged with the following offences:
wird hiermit wegen der folgenden strafbaren Handlungen angeklagt:

First Charge: ..... Erste Anklage: .....

.....

.....

.....

Particulars: ..... Einzelheiten: .....

.....

.....

.....

Second Charge: ..... Zweite Anklage: .....

.....

.....

.....

Particulars: ..... Einzelheiten: .....

.....

.....

.....

.....

The above charges are referred for trial to the *Summary *Intermediate Military Court to be held *General

Die Verhandlung wird vor dem *Einfachen *Mittleren Militärgerichte *Oberen

at ..... on ..... 194.....
in (Address of Court) am
(Anschrift des Gerichtes)

at .....
um Uhr stattfinden.

By Order
Im Auftrage von

.....
(Signature of person preferring charges)
(Unterschrift des Vertreters der Anklagebehörde)

*Strike out words not applicable.
*Nichtzutreffendes ist durchzustreichen.

Copy of above served on accused ..... 194.....
Abschrift dem Angeklagten zugestellt am

.....
(Signature of person making service)
(Unterschrift des Zustellers)

CA/GI 13 Legal Form No. 8

Court (26)

MILITARY GOVERNMENT COURT

CASE RECORD.

Pages 1771 - 1871

Case No. Superior Orders

*~~Summary~~ ~~Intermediate~~ Military Court.
*General

Place DACHAU, GERMANY

Date 3 March 194 7

~~WITNESSES~~ WITNESSES:

FREDERICH MICHEL

BERNHARD FAY

PHILIPP HALMANN

PAUL NAHRGANG

Accused JURGEN STROOP, et al

Prosecutor Lt. Col. Dwinell

Defence Counsel Lt. Col. Berman
Herbert B. Rosenstock

Interpreter Rudolph Nathansen

Reporter Patricia Stewart, William F. Jones, Peter Di Curti, Paula L. Silverman, Sally Hayett, Imogene Butler, Irving Hayett, Evelyn Cohen

Address ..... Sex ..... Age .....

	First Charge	Second Charge
Pleas
Findings
Previous Convictions

Sentence
- Imprisonment
  - Term .....
  - Beginning 194
- Fine
  - Amount .....
  - To be paid before 194
    or in case of default of payment to serve a *further term of ..... imprisonment.

Charge Sheet and Record of Testimony are annexed hereto.

.....
(Signature of member of court.)

REVIEW

Action of Reviewing Authority .....

.....

.....
(Signature of reviewing authority)

*Strike out words not applicable.

RECORD OF TESTIMONY

in trial of

THE UNITED STATES versus JULIUS STREICHER, et al

by

GENERAL MILITARY GOVERNMENT COURT

tried at

DACHAU, GERMANY BEGINNING 10 JANUARY 1947

3 MARCH 1947 Pages 1771 - 1871

TESTIMONY

WITNESSES	DIRECT	CROSS	REDIRECT	RECROSS	COURT
Frederich Michel	1771	1774	1779 1785 1787	1784 1789	1786
Bernhard Fay	1791	1796	1805 1810 1813	1807 1815 1820	1810 1818
Philipp Haussmann	1821	1830			1841
Paul Wahrgang	1846	1852	1865	1869	1866

EXHIBITS

No.	Description	Marked	Received in Evidence
D-21	Statement of Bernhard Fay	1816	1817
D-21A	Translation of D-21	1816	1817

Camp Dachau, Germany

3 March 1947

MORNING SESSION

(Whereupon the court reconvened at 0900 hours.)

PRESIDENT: Court will come to order.

PROSECUTION: May it please the court, let the record show that all the members of the court; all the members of the prosecution; all the members of the defense, except Dr. Trost, who is absent sick; all of the accused, except the accused Truemler, No. 2, who is temporarily absent conferring with defense counsel; the reporter and interpreter are present.

MR. RACHAEL: If the court please, at the close of the session on Friday, the witness Michel was on the stand on direct examination.

FREDERICH MICHEL, called as a witness by the defense, resumed the stand and being reminded that he was still under oath, testified further through an interpreter as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY DR. AHRENS:

Q Mr. Michel, you told us at the end of the last session on Friday afternoon that in February, 1945, you were stationed at the police station in Bieber, is that correct?

A Yes.

Q Do you know a building in Offenbach which is called the Felsenkeller?

A Yes.

Q Were you ever in this building or the area around this building?

A No, on the 22nd of February.

Q You want to say that you were in this building only once?

A Yes.

Q At what time of the day on the 22nd of February was this?

A Approximately 9 or 9:30 in the evening.

Q From which direction did you come to the Felsenkeller at that time?

A From Offenbach, Laemmerspieler Weg.

Q At that time, did you come to the Felsenkeller alone or accompanied by somebody?

A I was with a Sgt. Schneider and a parachuted flier.

Q For which purpose did you go to the Felsenkeller?

A There was an air raid alarm, and we wanted to find protection.

Q You said there was an air raid alarm going on. Were bombs already dropped and shots fired?

A Shooting was already going on, and I think that bombs were already dropped, but I can't say that for certain.

Q Is there an air raid shelter in the Felsenkeller?

A Yes.

Q Did you go to the Felsenkeller for this one reason, to find protection there?

A Yes.

Q You mentioned before a Sgt. Schneider. Is this the same Sgt. Schneider who testified before this court last Friday?

A Yes.

Q Did you, Schneider and the flier arrive at the Felsenkeller at the same time?

A I was —— I had run ahead a little bit on our way.

Q Where did you meet them, the flier and Schneider, again?

A On the Bierbrauer Weg.

Q You want to say at the entrance of the Felsenkeller?

A Yes, right at the entrance.

Q Did you, Schneider and the flier then go from there together?

A Yes. We went up the stairs, through the garden, up to the air raid shelter.

Q Where is the air raid shelter, if you will look at it from the garden?

A I don't know it exactly. I know only that the air raid shelter was down there in the ravine behind the garden.

Q You mean behind the garden?

A Yes.

Q Did you come to the air raid shelter then?

A No.

Q Did anything happen on your way from the entrance to the garden through the garden?

A When we were nearly through the garden, all of a sudden the flier was gone.

Q At that time, who was in the neighborhood of the flier?

A We were behind him. I can't say it exactly, Sgt. Schneider and myself, and it is possible that somebody else was behind, but I don't know exactly.

Q All of a sudden, you said the flier was gone. Didn't you see him go away?

A All of a sudden, he ran away.

Q Did you see it when he started to run?

A Yes.

Q Did he before make any move or something like that?

A I couldn't notice that.

Q You said you couldn't notice that. Why not?

A It was dark.

Q Did you do anything after the flier had run away?

A I yelled, "The flier is gone."

Q Did any other people yell too?

A We went back, and then I heard that other people were yelling, too.

Q Can you say how many voices were yelling there?

A I can't say that.

Q You said before that somebody had followed you. Do you know where this individual was after the flier ran away?

A No.

Q What did you do after the flier had run away?

A We went back through the garden in the direction of Bierbrauer Weg.

Q Is that the same direction in which the flier went?

A No.

Q Did the flier go in the opposite direction?

A The flier went straight ahead and we went back.

Q Why didn't you follow the flier?

A Because you could hear calls that he would be cut off on the road.

Q The way back — did you walk it or did you run it?

A We walked pretty fast.

Q One other question. On your way from the gate up to the place where the flier started to escape, did you talk to anybody?

A No.

MR. RACHAEL: You may examine.

CROSS EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q You and Schneider had the American flier in custody, is that right?

A Yes.

Q When and where did you first see this American prisoner of war?

A In Bieber, in the police station.

Q Is that Colonel Eichel's headquarters?

A No, that is the station of the police at Offenbach.

Q Is that where Captain Kiwitt worked? Was this his headquarters?

A No.

Q What headquarters did you get him from? What police station?

A In Bieber, at the police station, Mauerfeld Street.

(MICHEL-Cross)

Q What I am trying to find out is what kind of police station, the Gestapo, the Order Police, or who was it?

A Order Police.

Q Who had him in custody when you took him?

A Police Master Goehrendt was present. He was assistant station leader.

Q Do you know this man Goehrendt you are talking about?

A Yes. He was my superior officer.

Q Is he in the courtroom today?

A Yes.

Q Will you point him out to the court?

A No. 10 (indicating).

CAPTAIN VANCE: Let the record show the witness identifies Goehrendt, wearing Placard No. 10.

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q Now, at that time, was the flier turned over to you and Schneider?

A Might have been around 8 o'clock.

Q At night or daytime?

A In the evening.

Q Why was the flier turned over to you and Schneider?

A We got the order and some written paper from Police Master Goehrendt that we should deliver the flier to police headquarters at Offenbach, in the Domstrasse.

Q Did you take him to that place?

A Yes.

Q What happened when you got there?

A When we came there to the second floor, we were called by Captain Kiwitt in the room next door, and there we were told that we were auxiliary policeman and we had taken the flier six kilometers through the woods, and still hadn't bumped him off.

Q Who told you that?

A Captain Kiwitt.

Q Do you know Captain Kiwitt?

A Yes.

Q If he is present in the courtroom, point him out.

A No. 7 (indicating).

CAPTAIN VANCE: Let the record show the witness identifies the accused Kiwitt, wearing No. 7.

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q Now, this paper that Goehrendt gave you to take over there -- did you read it?

A No.

Q So you don't know what the paper said, is that correct?

A No. Furthermore, I had the personal belongings of the flier, too.

Q So you don't know what was in the message from Goehrendt to Kiwitt, is that right?

A I don't know that.

Q How did you get from the place where Goehrendt was to the place that Kiwitt was? Did you walk or did you ride in an automobile?

A We walked. We walked from Bieber to Offenbach.

Q Did the flier attack you at any time during that walk?

A No.

Q Did he try to run away or escape from you?

A No.

Q Did you have any trouble with him whatsoever?

A No. Once in a while, a civilian was calling something, that was all.

Q How long did you stay at Captain Kiwitt's office?

A Perhaps 15 minutes.

Q Then were you directed to take the flier away from there?

A He said, "Get out with the flier and bump him off."

Q Who is he?

A Captain Kiwitt.

Q All right. After he told you that, did you and Schneider leave with the flier?

A He said to us, "take the flier out and bump him off."

Q Was the flier present when Captain Kiwitt told you that?

A He was standing in front of the door in the next room.

Q Was he in hearing distance?

A He could have heard it.

Q All right. When you left Captain Kiwitt's office with these instructions, where did you go?

A We intended to go back to Bieber.

Q Why?

A Because we didn't want to bump off the flier.

Q Did you and Schneider discuss this and decide you weren't going to bump off the flier?

A We decided that we are going to bring him back.

Q Bring him back where?

A To Bieber, back to the police station.

Q Back to where Sergeant Goehrendt was?

A Yes.

Q How did you get to this Felsenkeller?

A We went through the Main street, past the cemetery, the freight railroad station, and when we were at the freight station, there was an air raid alarm and from there we went under the railroad tracks, through the Laenmerspieler Weg, past the stadium and went to the Felsenkeller.

Q Is the Felsenkeller on the way from Kiwitt's office to Goehrendt's office?

(MICHEL-Cross)

A You can take this road and you can also take another road, but we picked this road because there was a bunker.

Q Which was the shortest route from the [illegible]?

A This must have been exactly the shortest route.

Q Now, how long did it take you to walk the flier from Kiwitt's office to the Felsenkeller?

A More than half an hour. [illegible] to keep the flier off

Q Did you talk to the flier or try to talk to him during that time?

A No, we didn't say anything. [illegible] bumping off

Q When did you and Schneider talk this matter over and decide you didn't want to bump this flier off?

A Already down at the Sex Street. [illegible]

Q And at that time, the flier was with you?

A The flier was with us.

Q He was there close by, and he could hear what you were saying to each other? [illegible] chief of staff and Commander.

A Yes, [illegible] given you?

Q So the flier was in a position to know that the high officials wanted him killed?

A Yes, he could hear it.

Q When you arrived at the Felsenkeller, you told them there that Captain Kiwitt wanted this flier bumped off, didn't you?

A We said only we had a flier who was to be bumped off and we wouldn't do it. [illegible] the flier in the building where Keller [illegible]

Q After you told them that you had a flier that was to be bumped off and that you would not do it, what is the length of time that the flier lived from then until the time he was dead?

A Approximately 15 minutes, I figured. It might have been a little bit more, I don't say it exactly. Kiwitt gave you an order, or was it [illegible]

CAPTAIN VANDE: Nothing further. [illegible] but I will

Ta Zbl-pa-80-3/3-9

REDIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY MR. RACHMAL:

Q How long did the flier live from the time he ran away?

A Might have been 15 minutes, I can't say it exactly.

Q Did you tell anybody to bump the flier off?

A No.

Q Did anybody at the gate say they were going to bump the flier off?

A It isn't known to me.

Q Was there any conversation at all with respect to bumping off the flier after you went into the courtyard?

A No.

Q And you were in the company of that flier at all times until he ran away, is that right?

A Yes.

QUESTIONS BY DR. BUERGER:

Q DR. BUERGER: In behalf of Kiwitt and Goehrendt.

Q What was the order Goehrendt had given you?

A Goehrendt had given me the order that we should bring the flier to Offenbach.

Q Where?

A To police headquarters in Domstrasse.

Q Is police headquarters in Domstrasse?

A Yes.

Q Did you go with the flier in the building where Police Director Eichel has his office?

A No.

Q Where else did you go?

A In the building where headquarters of the Order Police is located.

Q You said before Captain Kiwitt gave you an order, is that correct?

A He said, "Get going with the flier and bump him off," but I really didn't consider it as a real order.

Q Do you know whether Captain Kiwitt, before he told you so, had telephoned to somebody else?

A No.

Q Do you know whether he said the mayor or the commander had ordered so?

A No.

Q Then why didn't you consider this utterance by Captain Kiwitt to be a binding order?

A If he would have said, "You have to bump him off," then I would have considered it to be a direct order.

Q Was the flier shot on account of this order?

A No.

Q After the flier was dead, where did you go?

A We went back to Bieber.

Q Who was present in Bieber when you returned?

A Police master Goehrendt.

Q Did you report to him this incident?

A Yes.

Q What did you report to him?

A I said that the flier had been shot while trying to escape.

Q What did Goehrendt say in reply?

A Goehrendt said, "I just wanted to save the flier. For this reason, I gave you the flier.

Q Let us return once more to police headquarters. Do you know how far away the police headquarters is from the headquarters of the Order Police?

A The headquarters of the Order Police is in the Domstrasse, and the headquarters of the Police Director Eichel is in the Caserne; as far as I know, approximately half an hour.

Q You just said that Goehrandt told you he wanted to save the flier. Did he say anything else?

A He said, "Only just for this reason I had him escorted by you two harmless fellows."

Q Do you know whether the flier understood German?

A No, I can't say that.

QUESTIONS BY DR. AHEIMER:

Mr. Michel, you were asked before by the prosecutor whether the flier could have heard your conversation with Captain Kiwitt. You said the flier was standing in the next room near the door. How far away from the place where you were talking to Captain Kiwitt was this?

A Four or five meters.

Q And the door was in between?

A Yes, the door was closed.

Q The door was closed?

A Yes, the door was closed.

Q Is it then correct that in spite of the closed door the flier could have heard what was being talked?

CAPTAIN VANCE: I object, may it please the court. The witness has answered this question.

DR.AHEIMER: I think I have the right to clarify whether the witness didn't make a mistake. It was just clarified that the door was closed.

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

THE WITNESS: I can't say that exactly. We didn't talk so loud.

QUESTIONS BY DR. AHEIMER:

Q It wasn't talked so loud?

A No.

Q Did you speak with Captain Kiwitt in your Offenbach dialect?

A Yes.

Q Did you tell Captain Kiwitt that you refused to bump off the flier?

A Yes. We said, "we won't bump him off."

Q Did you say so, or Schneider, or both of you?

A Schneider said it and me, too.

Q Did you say so already at the office of Captain Kiwitt?

A We said so while we walked out.

Q Did the flier speak any word of German?

A No.

Q Do you know whether he understood German?

A I can't say that.

Q Did you have the impression that he understood your Offenbach dialect?

CAPTAIN VANCE: We object to what his impression was. He said he didn't know whether the man spoke or understood any German.

PRESIDENT: Objection sustained.

QUESTIONS BY MR. RACHAEL:

Q After you left Captain Kiwitt's office, what street did you go down?

A Down the Dom street.

Q Did you get to the Mainstrasse?

A From there, you get to the Main street.

Q Was that the street where Captain Kiwitt said you were to bump the flier off?

A Yes, because we have to walk through there.

Q And did you walk through there?

A We walked through.

Q About how far along Mainstrasse did you walk?

A Approximately 10 meters. You only walk part of the way through Main strasse, and then you get into another street.

Q When you were on Mainstrasse with Schneider and the flier, did anybody from Captain Kiwitt's office come to speak to you?

A Not in the Main street, but at the freight station.

Q That was after you passed through and you had finished going on Mainstrasse?

A Yes.

Q And what did this person say to you?

A He called to me over the street, "What is going on with the flier," and I said, "We are going to bring him back to Bieber," and then he walked away and I didn't see him any more in the darkness.

Q Who was that man?

A That was Lt. Alt.

Q And was Lt. Alt in the same office as Captain Kiwitt?

A No.

Q Did Lt. Alt know of the conversation you had with Captain Kiwitt?

CAPTAIN VANCE: We object on the ground this witness couldn't possibly answer that question. How does he know ———

DEFENSE COUNSEL: He might know. I pray the court's judgment, if he knows.

CAPTAIN VANCE: He can ask him if he was there when they had the discussion.

PRESIDENT: How does that question read?

(Whereupon the last question was read by the court reporter.)

PRESIDENT: The objection is overruled.

THE WITNESS: I don't know that.

End ta 241
wfj fols

Q When Goehrendt turned the flyer over to you and to Schneider, what did he tell you to do. If you know his exact words.

A He said only, "You bring him to police headquarters at Offenbach."

Q Are those the only words he said?

A Yes, otherwise I don't remember anything else.

RECROSS EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q And after Goehrendt sent you to the police station is when Kiwitt said the flyer should be killed, is that right?

A Yes, while we were at police headquarters.

Q And if Goehrendt had told you to deliver this flyer to the Wehrmacht or the Luftwaffe, you would have taken him there?

A Yes.

Q And if he wanted to protect this flyer that would have been the place to take him, wouldn't it?

MR. RACHAEL: The defense objects on the ground that it is argumentative.

PRESIDENT: Sustained.

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q Now, what was the total length of time that you had the flyer with you from the time you got him from the time he ran away and was shot?

A An hour and a half, at least.

Q At the time you say he ran away, how many police officials were present?

A I can't say that.

Q Was it as many as thirty around the area?

A I have no idea.

Q Well, how many people did you see that night?

A Where, at Felsenkeller?

Q Yes.

A There might have been twenty. I can't say exactly. I am not certain.

Q Then the flyer decided to run away in the presence of about twenty people, is that correct?

A No, they were behind in the dark.

Q Now he had been for at least an hour and a half just in the presence of the two of you, is that right?

A Yes.

Q And he never did try to run away from the two of you in that hour and a half period?

A No.

Q Now, I believe you told Captain Kiwitt that you were not going to kill that man, is that right?

A Yes.

Q And you did not kill him, is that right?

A No.

Q What punishment have you received for the failure to kill that flyer?

A Nothing.

CAPTAIN VANCE: Nothing further.

REDIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY MR. RACHAEL:

Q How long before the flyer ran away was there a blackout?

A When we left Bieber it was already pretty dark.

MR. RACHAEL: No further questions.

QUESTIONS BY MR. AHRENS:

Q Mr. Michel, before in reply to a question of the prosecutor you said that there approximately twenty persons in and around Felsenkeller?

A After the flyer had taken off and we returned then there were people around and I thought he was referring to them.

Q You wanted to say that after the flyer ran away you had seentwenty people, is that right?

A Yes.

Q Before the flyer ran away, I mean from the time you went through the gate and through the garden until the time the flyer escaped, did you see any people?

A Nothing.

MR. RACHAEL: That is all. Are there any questions by any member of the Court?

EXAMINATION BY THE COURT

QUESTIONS BY COLONEL ROBERTSON:

Q When you and Schneider and the flyer arrived at the gate you said previously that you told someone that you had brought the flyer there to be shot. Who was that man that you spoke to?

A These were the two guards there.

Q Did you see any other people besides the guards while you were in the garden?

A I can't say that exactly. I didn't see anybody. I can't say definitely.

(Michel - Court)

Q Where did the two guards go to after you spoke to them?

A The guards walked only up and down in front of the gate.

Q From the time you turned in to the gate, where were you and Schneider when the prisoner started to run?

A We were behind the flyer.

Q Who else was with you?

A There was a third man with us.

Q Who was he?

A I can't say that. I don't know him.

Q From which direction did he come?

A He must have come from the garden.

Q What did you do when the man started to run?

A I yelled, "The flyer is gone."

Q What did the third man do?

A I can't say that. There was so much excitement.

COLONEL ROBERTSON: I have nothing else.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I have another question, may it please the court.

REDIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY DEFENSE COUNSEL:

Q Will you repeat again as exactly as you can remember, what you said when you came up to the gate?

CAPTAIN VANCE: We object on the ground that it is repetitious.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I know that it is repetitious, but I am asking the question in view of a question asked by a member of the Court.

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

THE WITNESS: I said that we had a flyer whom we were supposed to kill but we wouldn't do it and we are going to bring him back to Bieber and just wanted to take cover there.

QUESTIONS BY DEFENSE COUNSEL:

Q At the time the flyer made his first movement to escape, just exactly where were you and Schneider?

CAPTAIN VANCE: We object on the ground that the question is leading. He is telling the witness the flyer attempted to escape. It is not a proper question.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: At the moment the flyer started to run away, where were you and --

CAPTAIN VANCE: We still object. He is leading the witness. I don't mind the witness telling anything that happened, but Colonel Berman is telling the witness what to tell the Court.

PRESIDENT: The objection is overruled.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Will the reporter read the question?

(Thereupon the last question was read by the reporter.)

QUESTIONS BY DEFENSE COUNSEL:

Q At the time the flyer made his first movement to escape, just exactly where ~~were~~ you and Schneider? Just exactly where were you two.

A We were in the garden, approximately ten meters from the stairs which were leading down there.

Q How close were you to the flyer?

A Perhaps two meters.

Q How close was Schneider to the flyer?

A He might have been a little bit ahead of me.

Q I am going to use Mr. Rashael to simulate the flyer and I want you to show us just exactly where you were standing and where Schneider was standing at the moment he began his movement to run away. I am Schneider. Where was he, exactly?

A I was a little bit behind. It might have been like this.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I would like the record to show that Schneider was standing to the right of the flyer, perhaps a meter to the rear and Michel was standing to the right and perhaps two meters to the rear.

Q Tell me where the third man was standing. Take Dr. Abelmer and show us where the third man was.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: The witness illustrates that the third man, who was mentioned but not identified, was standing to the left of the flyer, perhaps one or one and a half meters to the rear of the flyer.

Q Now, as the flyer began, or just immediately prior -- in the flash of an eye before he began to run, was there any movement of his hands or body to indicate anything whatsoever?

A I didn't see that.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Nothing further.

RECROSS EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q When this flyer started to run off, did he slug you?

A No.

Q Did he slug Schneider?

A No.

Q Did he slug that other man there with you?

A I couldn't notice that.

(Michel - Recross)

Q You were close enough to see it if he did slug him, weren't you?

A Yes, it was dark.

Q Now when the flyer started to escape and run away, why didn't you shoot him?

A We didn't want to shoot him.

Q I know you didn't want to shoot him, but he was trying to escape, wasn't he?

A I couldn't help it.

Q Michel, this flyer didn't try to escape, did he?

A Yes, he ran away.

Q Why didn't you chase him?

A He was a tall fellow. I couldn't have caught up with him anyway.

Q This third man with you, didn't he say that you should run back, that he would drive him around and you were to head him off?

A No.

Q Well why did you go back?

A As I said before. We thought this way we would reach the street faster and we thought it might be he has to pass there.

Q Well, there wasn't any place he could go except down the stairs and to the left?

A No, he had a chance to go to the right.

Q Did you and Schneider both have your pistols there when this man started to run?

A Yes.

Q This third man, he had his pistol, didn't he?

A I can't say that.

(Michel - Recross)

Q Did you hear some shots fired?

A Yes, shortly thereafter we heard shots.

Q In the neighborhood of the steps?

A I can't say that exactly. We heard shots and afterwards again we heard shots.

Q And there was an interval of time between the first time you heard shots and the second time?

A Yes, there was a time interval in between.

CAPTAIN VANCE: That is all.

MR. RACHAEL: The defense has nothing else. Are there any questions by the Court?

PRESIDENT: No questions by the court. The witness is excused.

(Whereupon the witness was excused and withdrew.)

MR. RACHAEL: The defense calls as its next witness the accused, Bernhard Fay.

PRESIDENT: Do you desire to be sworn?

ACCUSED FAY: Yes.

BERNHARD FAY, an accused, voluntarily took the stand in his own behalf and being first duly sworn, testified through an interpreter as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY DR. RAU:

Q What is your name?

A Bernhard Fay.

Q When and where were you born?

A Twenty seventh of December, 1895 at Sossenheim near Frankfurt.

Q Are you a prisoner at Dachau now?

A A prisoner of war at Dachau.

Q What are you by civilian profession?

A I am a merchant. A skin and leather merchant.

Q What did you do in February, 1945?

A Since March, 1940, I was drafted to the Air Raid Protection Police at Offenbach.

Q What were your duties there?

A I was with the Fire Brigade and in case of damage we were used.

Q As what?

A I was a driver and machinist.

Q Where were you stationed?

A Bierbrauer Weg, Offenbach.

Q Do you remember that once there was brought an American flyer?

A Yes.

Q When was that?

A I can't remember the exact date, but it was the end of February, 1945.

Q At what time of the day?

A Approximately nine or ten o'clock in the evening.

Q You were on duty this evening?

A Yes.

Q What did you do there at that time?

A I was ready to be used at any time.

Q Where did you stay?

A I was in the guard room at Bierbrauer Weg.

(Fay - Direct)

Q What did you do there. You were sleeping or you were awake?

A Usually in the evening we laid down on our cots early.

Q They awakened you that night, did they?

A Yes.

PRESIDENT: Court will recess for twenty minutes.

(Whereupon at 1000 hours the court recessed until 1020 hours.)

(Thereupon at 1330 hours the court reconvened.)

PRESIDENT: The court will come to order.

PROSECUTION: May it please the court, let the record show that all the members of the court, all the members of the prosecution, all the members of the Defense except Dr. Trost, who is absent sick, all of the accused except the accused number two, Krumler, who is temporarily absent in conference with defense counsel, the reporter and the interpreter are present.

PRESIDENT: You are reminded that you are still under oath.

BERNHARD FAY, an accused, resumed the stand and being reminded that he was still under oath testified further in his own behalf as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION, continued.

QUESTIONS BY DR. RAU:

Q What happened after you were awakened? What happened then?

A All of a sudden I jumped out of my cot. Then somebody told me, I don't know anymore whether it is Ehrgang or somebody else, they have here a flyer or a prisoner and I should shoot him. I said, "Who said so?" Somebody said, "The Police Director." In the meantime two policemen arrived with a prisoner. At that time I didn't know there was a flyer.

Q I have to interrupt you just a minute. Who was supposed to shoot the flyer?

A The policeman. Whoever was escorting him.

Q If I remember right it was translated, "I should shoot the flyer."

A No that was wrong.

Q Was this a wrong translation?

A Yes, that isn't correct.

Q Please continue.

A In the meantime they arrived with the prisoner. I didn't know it was a flyer at that time. He came to the garden in the direction of the

(Fay-direct)

A [illegible] bunker and I said, "Lets go to the Police Director." I followed them. The flyer was walking to my right and the policemen whose names I didn't know were following. When I came short in front of the stairs all of a sudden I got a blow against my chest. I fell back and got caught by some other person. Probably that was one of the policemen. Then I grabbed for something. I don't know whether I asked for a pistol. I can't remember anymore, but anyway, all of a sudden I had a pistol in my hand and I yelled, "Stop! Stop!" and the policemen called to me. They were very excited, and so I can't say exactly anymore what happened.

I opened the pistol. I fired one shot into the air. Then the escaped man, fell down a few steps on the stairs and run after him. When I came to the main exit people came, probably civilians who intended to go to the bunker for civilians. I always yelled, "Hold him! Hold him!" and the people said, "There in front he is running." I fired another shot into the air. I couldn't breathe anymore and was very excited and went up to the street. There I heard three or four shots, I can't say exactly anymore, and I followed the other people who had followed the man. On my way I met a policeman who came towards me. He was looking for his pistol. I gave it to him. When I reached the spot where the dead man was lying I saw that he was dead and I said, "Was this been necessary that you hit me against the chest and tried to escape? That is your own fault." After that he was carried away to the guardroom in the garden.

Q Did you know the two policemen who brought the flyer?

A No.

Q Why did you want to go to the Police Director?

A I couldn't believe and was uncertain and in order to make sure what should be done I wanted to go along to the Police Director--in the same direction as the others had already started to walk.

Q What is it you couldn't believe?

(Pay-direct)

A When I was told that a prisoner or a flyer, I don't know the exact words anymore, was supposed to be shot.

Q Where was the Police Director?

A The Police Director had his command post in the bunker.

Q Was the Police Director in the bunker at that time?

A Yes. During each air raid alarm he was at his command post.

MR RACHAEL: Your witness.

CROSS EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q You say on the night of February, 1945 that you were asleep in the guardroom, is that right?

A Yes.

Q Who woke you up?

A I think Hahrgang called me.

Q What did he say when he woke you up?

A He said, "Hey, get up," or something like that. I thought on account of the air raid alarm, or that there was a danger going on that flyers were over the city.

Q You said before that he woke you up because you had a flyer there? Which is it?

A Then I got out of the guardroom. There he said, or at least I assumed it was him. They said--I don't know whether he said the flyer or the prisoner. They had one to shoot him.

Q For whom to shoot him?

A The ones who were escorting him, the policemen.

Q Why did he tell you that?

A It is something like that in our guardroom. If something or somebody strange arrives then everybody is interested.

Q So you think he woke you up so you would know there was a flyer

(Fay-cross)

there that was going to be shot by these two policemen, is that correct?

A He didn't know I was sleeping. Usually we made use of every minute and hour which we could have for our sleep because we always had to expect to be called out at night.

Q Who told you to take charge of this flyer?

A Nobody ordered me.

Q You just, on your own accord, decided to take charge of him, is that right?

A The reply which I received wasn't clear to me and the whole matter looked very unclear to me and since they were walking towards the bunker anyway, so I said let's go to the Police Director.

Q What did you have to do with this thing?

A I had nothing to do with it, because I had no faith in this whole matter. In order to clear up the whole incident I said, "Let's go to the Police Director."

Q Did you take charge of the flyer then?

A I didn't take charge.

Q You were walking closest to him weren't you?

A Yes.

Q Why?

A Because the entire matter looked strange to me. I didn't believe it and so I said we want to see the Police Director.

Q Do you mean you couldn't believe that the flyer was going to get killed? Is that what you mean?

A No, because I never heard anything like that.

Q At that time you never heard of the police executing American flyers?

A No.

(Pay-cross)

Q You never heard about that until this case began did you?

A Yes.

Q When did you first hear about policemen being supposed to do away with American flyers?

A I never heard it.

Q You have just learned of it here in this trial then?

A Yes.

Q You knew on that same day they had executed a man over at Bieber, didn't you?

A No.

Q You hadn't heard about it at that time?

A No.

Q Now, if you were lying in your room sleeping and you say anyone ordered you to get up and take charge of this flyer --

A No.

Q So what part you took in it was voluntary and on your own behalf?

A Yes.

Q Did you bring your gun out with you?

A No.

Q Did you have a pistol?

A No.

Q That is the reason you didn't bring it out with you isn't it?

A I have none.

Q I believe you stated that you don't know who the two policemen were with the flyer?

A No.

Q You have seen the two witnesses the defense brought in, Schneider and Michel. Were they the two policemen with the flyer?

(Fay-cross)

MR. MACHAN: The defense objects. One of those witnesses was brought in by the prosecution.

CAPTAIN VANCE: The prosecution brought one which the defense recalled and the defense brought in the other.

Q Were Schneider and Michel the two policemen?

A I don't know today. I have to assume so.

Q You say you were hit in the chest?

A Yes. A hard blow against my chest.

Q Three of you were within two meters of the flyer at the time you were struck weren't you?

A I walked right next to the flyer on his side to the left.

Q How many people were present there? You said there was Michel, Schneider, yourself and an American flyer. Was there anyone else there?

A Otherwise I wouldn't know anybody.

Q Where did you get the pistol from? Did you just grab it out of the thin air somewhere?

A When I got the blow I fell back and I was caught by somebody.

Q Do you suppose you got that pistol from the American flyer?

A No, no. He was gone already.

Q When did you get it from?

A From one of these two policemen. It must have been that way.

Q You say you got it either from Michel or Schneider, is that right?

A Yes.

Q When Mahrgang told you that the flyer would be shot and you asked these two policemen about this--you did ask them didn't you?

A No.

Q You never did talk to them about it?

A No.

Q After you got your pistol from either Schneider or Michel I believe you said you fired one shot up in the air?

(Fay-cross)

A Yes.

Q Why did you shoot up in the air?

A I can't say exactly anymore how it happened, but I know I yelled, "Stop! Stop!" and then I gave one shot in the air and an alarm shot. My intention was to force the flyer to stop.

Q Did you think the flyer was trying to run away?

A I didn't think anything.

Q If you didn't think anything what were you shooting about?

A Because he had hit me against the chest and tried to escape.

Q I just asked you if you thought he was trying to escape. Do you think he was?

A I don't know that. If I would have known that he wouldn't have escaped.

Q Why did you fire if you didn't know?

A After he had hit me against the chest and started to run away it was my duty in this situation to fire an alarm shot.

Q Why didn't you shoot at the flyer instead of aiming up in the air.

A I couldn't aim at the flyer anymore. He was too far away by that time.

Q Come over here to this map a minute. Show the court where you were sleeping.

A Here in this barracks. Here in this room over there.

CAPTAIN VANCE: Let the record show that the witness indicated a room marked "Guardroom" which appears on prosecutions exhibit number 187.

Mr. RACHAEL: I take exception to the translation. The witness said something about the chart not being correct in certain points.

INTERPRETER: He said this little part is not correct here. He slept in this room.

(Fay-cross)

CAPTAIN VANCE: Make it "guard shack".

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q When you came out of the room where were the two policemen and the flyer?

A I walked out here, approximately here was the prisoner. Today I know he was a flyer -- and the two officials. In the walk -- this path up here like this -- this isn't correct here either.

CAPTAIN VANCE: Let the record indicate that he met the flyer and the two policemen at a point right outside the little box marked "guardroom" and that he followed a dotted line which leads up to the stair marked "E".

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I take exception to that, may it please the court. He pointed to a place on the chart and there is nothing to indicate how far it was from the exit.

CAPTAIN VANCE: I didn't say how far it was. I said it was marked "guardroom" on the chart. That is what it says here.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Will the reporter please repeat what the prosecution is indicating in the record?

(Whereupon the reporter did as directed.)

DEFENSE COUNSEL: That is the part I took exception to. The part "right outside the guardroom."

CAPTAIN VANCE: Will you change that to show a point where the letter "G" appears in the word "guardroom".

Q Now, show the court where you were when the flyer hit you in the chest.

MR. RACHAEL: If it please the court, I would like the record to show also that when the witness was answering the previous question he stated that the wooden shack and the stairway is incorrect up there.

A I can't say it exactly anymore, whether I was in front of the shack approximately here or whether I was up there approximately around here.

CAPTAIN VANCE: Let the record show that the witness indicated a point about halfway between the letter "E" and the letter "D" on the chart.

Q Is that the point where you were slugged by the flyer?

A This map isn't correct.

MR. RACHAEL: May it please the court, may I say this: The cross examination of this accused is going to be misleading to the court unless the witness is able to testify from an exact description of the area. Now the description by the prosecution that he was hit between "D" and "E" may be correct on that chart but it is incorrect in fact because "E" represents the stairway and the stairway is not there as the chart shows.

PRESIDENT: You will proceed on this chart.

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q When the flyer started to run did he run in the direction of the stairs?

A Yes.

Q Did he run down the stairs?

A He ran down the stairs.

Q How do you know?

A Because there is no other way but down to the bunker.

Q There is no other exit out of this yard in that direction except the stairs, is that correct?

A No. This is a fence here. Approximately up here there is another gate but at night that is closed. If the gate would have been open he would have been gone. There would have been my best witness if I would be here today.

CAPTAIN VANCE: All right, you can be seated now.

(Fay-cross)

Let the record show that he indicates a gate somewhere in the vicinity of the steps marked "S".

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q The only two exits at night, the only two places you can get out of this courtyard is one at the steps and the other at the gate marked "g", is that correct.

A The gate is the entrance to the bunker and our quarters.

Q I say the only way to get in or out at night is through the steps or the gate marked "S", is that correct?

A Yes, day and night.

Q You know when the flyer started running that he had to go down the steps to get out?

A He couldn't go any other way except in the direction of the bunker.

Q In a little bit you fired a second shot into the air, is that correct?

A Yes.

Q Where was the flyer then?

A I don't know that. I fell a few steps down the stairs. I ran after him. When I came to the driveway people came towards me and said, "In front there he is running.", but I was yelling all the time "Hold him. Hold him."

Q Did you fall down before you reached the step while you were on the steps or after you had gone down the steps?

A When I came to the stairs I fell down the stairs a few steps. I don't know whether I fell while I was still on the top of the stairs or in the middle.

(Fay-cross)

1503

Q Now, was that when you fired the second shot?

A On the stairs?

Q Yes.

A No.

Q Where did you fire the second shot?

A The second shot I fired when I came to the curve. The map isn't correct here, either.

Q Was that down at the bottom of the steps?

A No. First I ran. I can show it to you.

Q You mean after you had gone down the steps and taken a left turn?

A Yes.

Q Then was the flier running down in the direction of the Bierbrauer Weg?

A Yes.

Q And were you behind him?

A Yes.

Q Where were you when you shouted back to go around and head him off?

A I didn't hear that, probably the policeman did so.

Q You didn't say that?

A To cut off his way?

Q Yes.

A No, I only yelled, "Stop, stop."

Q Did you follow the flier on down to the point where he was shot?

A Yes. I wasn't running all the time because I lost my breath on the way. Then I went after him in the direction in which he ran.

Q When you got there was the flier dead?

A Yes.

Q Did you shoot him down there?

A Me? No, I didn't shoot anymore.

Q Didn't you and Mahrgang have a discussion about the flier before you left the guardroom?

A No.

Q What you have already told the court, is that all that Mahrgang said to you and all you said to Mahrgang?

A Yes.

Q Did you tell Mahrgang that, "I am going to get up to the steps and then flush him like a covey of birds, firing in the air, and you run around and head him off."

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I pray the court's judgment.

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

THE WITNESS: No, I didn't.

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q Did you say anything like that in substance, not my exact words but something similar to this?

A No. I only could say that in my belief it could not be true that the flier was to be shot and if an order like this comes I try to make absolutely certain. I thought this to be my duty.

Q Suppose you, while a prisoner of war, heard your guard discussing you were going to be shot. Would you have tried to escape?

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I pray the court's judgment.

PRESIDENT: Objection sustained.

CAPTAIN VANCE: Nothing further.

REDIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY MR. RACHAEL:

Q Mr. Fay, I show you Defense Exhibit No. 20 and ask you to look at it. Do you know what that is?

A Yes.

Q What is it?

A That is a map of our barracks.

Q Do you know whether or not it is a correct map?

A Yes. I haven't been there but the way it looks it's correct. It's from the Battalion Post. It should be right.

Q I ask you to look at that map of the area which is marked in pencil with the letter "A". What is that?

A That is the approach to our quarters in the bunker.

Q Will you take this pencil and mark with the letter "A" the portion of the chart where you first met Michel, Schneider and the flier?

A Approximately here (indicating).

Q Now will you mark with the letter "B" that spot on the chart where you say you were struck on the chest and flier started to run away?

A It might have been here, it might have been there (indicating).

Q But the letter "B" there.

A (Indicating).

Q Now will you mark with the letter "C" the stairway down which the flier ran?

A (Indicating).

Q Now will you mark with the letter "D" the gateway which you say was closed.

A (Indicating).

Q Will you mark with the letter "E" the place where you fired your second shot?

A (Indicating).

PRESIDENT: Court will recess in place. I'd like to see that.

(Whereupon the court recessed in place.)

Ia 244 80
Pfla/4

PRESIDENT: Court will come to order.

REGROSS EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q Show me on this map which is exhibit D-80, the road or the path or whatever leads from the bottom of the steps in a northern direction?

A From the steps "E"?

CAPTAIN VANCE: Let me have the question again.

(Whereupon the reporter read the last question.)

A (THE WITNESS: Northern direction? I'd like to know where there is north. This path here (indicating). It passes by the Command Post, bunker, and goes down here through the gate.

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q Is that path shown on that map? In such a curve, it leads out

A Yes, this is all very deep here.

Q But I say, is it shown on here? I can't see it. If it's shown on there show me where it is.

A This (indicating) is supposed to represent the yard and driveway. This all is very high and this is deep in. This is the yard and the driveway out of it (indicating).

Q Where is it? Show it to me. I can't see it. Is it shown on there?

A What would you want to see?

Q That path or roadway or whatever it is that leads from the bottom of the steps, the way you said the flier ran.

A This is the yard here and I show you now the way the flier was running.

Q Will you draw a line showing the way he ran?

A I'm a little bit nervous. I'd like to do it on the table. This is the way he ran. It might have been a little bit to the left. I didn't see him anymore but that's the way he came out and I followed the same way running. Something like that.

(Day-recess)

Q Will you put the letter "R" on that dotted line which will mean running?

A Running? Where do you want me to put it?

Q Somewhere on the line.

A An "R"?

Q Yes.

A (Indicating).

Q Now what, if anything, is the difference from the path that you have drawn and the path that is shown on Prosecution Exhibit 127?

A Approximately the barracks is correct but the stairs isn't there where it is and the driveway doesn't go in such a curve, it leads out a little more straight.

Q I don't mean about the building. You didn't understand me. I said the path which the flier followed.

A What do you want there?

Q Is there any difference in your drawing and Prosecution Exhibit 127?

A I didn't make this map.

Q I believe you said you were taking this flier up to Eichel, is that correct?

A Yes.

Q Did you see Eichel?

A During each air raid alarm he was at the Command Post.

Q Did you see Eichel?

A I didn't see him. That means later on, yes, after the escape.

Q What did Eichel have to say about this incident then?

A Yes, when the dead body was carried back Police Director Eichel came up running and yelled, "What is going on here?"

(Pay-recess)

Q What else did he say?
[illegible] you wanted us take this prisoner from the guardroom [illegible]

A Then we told him and then the corpse was carried to the garden.
Eichel's place without carrying a weapon?

Q What did Eichel say?
Yes.

A Eichel said, "How are you coming here with this man?" To the [illegible] nothing further.
two policemen he said so.
DIRECT EXAMINATION

Q What else did he say?
[illegible]

A Then he said something like, "You have to write a report" or Dress examination on behalf of [illegible] and Zahrgang. She was
"You have to report to him", something like that.
sergeant of the guard at the [illegible] or [illegible] that night.

Q What else did he say?
That was Bahrgang.

A When the body was being carried in he said "Put everything
Did Zahrgang say to you in any way that you shoot the flier down and everybody who has no business has to go away."
Yes.

Q What else did he say?
[illegible] any questions by any member of the court?

A Then we carried the body into the garden.
EXAMINATION BY THE COURT

Q I am not talking about that. I am asking you to tell what [illegible]
Eichel said.
In your original statement, Fay, you make the statement that

A When the body was put down he chased everybody away and Bahrgang said the flier must be killed. You now say you didn't make said that the corpse should be carried in.
that statement.

Q What did he say about the killing?
A No, that isn't correct. That's the English translation.

A He asked who shot then I said, "We intended to go to you to Then your statement is wrong?
the bunker and when we came to the barracks the flier hit me against A I didn't make that statement. I remember now that at that the chest and started to escape."
time when the interpreter was reading it to me he read to me the Q We have been all over that. Do you want to tell the court sentence and read "has to be" or "must" and then I said, "So that is what Mr. Eichel said or don't you? We are wasting time. I'll with[illegible], I should say, it is supposed to be" but the interpreter told draw the question. What is the distance from the guardhouse where me, "That's the same in English. That's one and the same word in you were sleeping to the air raid shelter where Eichel was?

English."

A Through the garden, down the stairs and right there is the Furthermore, you have a stand like that some policemen said Command Post.
that Eichel gave the order, is that correct?

Q What is the distance?
Yes. I asked who said as [illegible] of the [illegible] case

A Perhaps thirty meters. I don't know exactly, approximately in there said, the [illegible] Director.
thirty meters.
[illegible] That is all.

(Fay-recess) 1809

Q And you wanted to take this prisoner from the guardroom to Eichel's place without carrying a weapon? The flier had been shot the

A Yes. ahead of you?

CAPTAIN VANCE: Nothing further, don't tell you who was there.

REDIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY DR. AMMER:

Q Cross examination on behalf of Hausmann and Mahrgang. Who was sergeant of the guard at the Felsenkeller during that night?

A That was Hausmann.

Q Did Mahrgang tell you in any way that you shoot the flier?

A No.

MR. RACHAEL: Any questions by any member of the court?

EXAMINATION BY THE COURT

QUESTIONS BY LT. COL. WALKER:

Q In your original statement, Fay, you make the statement that Mahrgang said the flier must be killed. You now say you didn't make that statement.

A No, that isn't correct. That's the English translation.

Q Then your statement is wrong?

A I didn't make that statement. I remember now that at that time when the interpreter was reading it to me he read to me the sentence and read "has to be" or "must" and then I said, "No, that is wrong," it should say, "It is supposed to be" but the interpreter told me, "That's the same in English. That's one and the same word in English."

Q Furthermore, you have stated also that some policeman said that Eichel gave the order, is that correct?

A Yes. I asked who said so and then one of the men who came in there said, "The Police Director."

LT. COL. WALKER: That is all.

(Fay-court)

QUESTIONS BY LAY MEMBER:

Q When you got to the spot where the flier had been shot who was there ahead of you?

A Several people were there but I can't tell you who was there.

[illegible] end ta 244

[illegible]

A It is possible that [illegible] I noticed that Semmen reported to the police director. It was approximately on the building of the Reichsbahn.

You do not remember any person that was there where the body was lying at all, is that correct?

A It was night and it was dark as of course, there were also people from us and also civilians who were on their way to the bunker.

Could you hear one person that was there where the body of the flier was? Not one person?

A I don't know whether Fahrgang was there or further. I can remember only from the time when the police director came up running and said, "Everybody away. There's going on here." Then I, Fabian and Guenther carried the body into the garden.

Q Then when you got there, while you were still there the body was, as well was there, was not?

A No, he couldn't have been there because the corpse was already carried away and Richel must have come from the command post. That was approximately at the building of the Reichsbahn were I came.

Who picked up the body and carried it from the spot where it was lying?

I don't know that.

(Fay-court)

Q Was Hammann there?

A No, I can't say. I don't think so.

Q Was Mahrgang there?

A I didn't recognize anybody. I was very excited.

Q Was the flier lying on the ground or kneeling on the ground?

A He was lying and he was dead.

Q Was Eichel there?

A It is possible that Eichel was there because when we came back I noticed that Hammann reported to the police director. It was approximately at the building of the Felsenkeller.

Q You do not remember any person that was there where the body was lying at all, is that correct?

A It was night and it was dark and of course, there were also people from us and also civilians who were on their way to the bunker.

Q Don't you know any person that was there where the body of the flier was? Not one person?

A I don't know whether Mahrgang was there or Guenther. I can remember only from the time when the police director came up running and said, "Everybody away. What's going on here?" Then I, Fabian and Guenther carried the body into the garden.

Q Then when you got there, while you were still where the body was, Eichel was there, was he?

A No, he couldn't have been there because the corpse was already carried back and Eichel must have come from the command post. That was approximately at the building of the Felsenkeller near the gate.

Q Who picked up the body and carried it from the spot where it was lying?

A I don't know that.

(Fay-Court)

Q Were you there when the body was picked up?

A Yes, I was standing next to the corpse and saw that the man was dead.

Q You don't know who picked the body up?

A No, I can't say it.

Q Did you help?

A No.

Q Did you follow the body back?

A I walked in front of them.

LAY MEMBER: That's all.

MR. RACHEL: Any further questions by the court?

QUESTIONS BY COLONEL DUNNING:

Q Fay, after Nahrgang told you that the flier was supposed to be killed, did you answer, "I will take care of that small matter"?

A No.

MR. RACHEL: Do you want to ask a question?

DR. AHLEMEYER: Yes.

REDIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY DR. AHLEMEYER:

Q Mr. Fay, Colonel Walker confronted you before with your former statement that the flier has to be killed and you said that it was a wrong translation, that it should say, "was supposed to be killed." Was your statement at that time made in German or in English?

A In English.

Q Do you know when this interrogation took place?

A It was the 8th or 10th of May 1946.

Q Where?

A Here in Dachau.

(Fay-Redirect)

Q I show you now prosecution exhibit 138 and ask you, is this the statement you were talking about right now?

A Yes, it is signed with my name. Something had been forgotten. I put this (indicating) at the end of it.

DR. [illegible]: That is all.

EXAMINATION BY THE COURT

QUESTIONS BY LAW MEMBER:

Q Are you referring to the change on your statement as being the change made to the last answer just before you signed your name at the bottom of the statement?

A Yes, the interogator had forgotten it.

Q Were there any other mistakes in the statement?

A Yes, when he read to me "has to be" where I told him it should be "supposed to be" and there he said, "That's the same word in English."

Q You read the statement over, did you?

A No, it was read to me.

Q Was it correct otherwise?

A Yes, there was something else. I had stated that I had seen Lieutenant Alt at the place where the dead flier was lying. It was read to me that Lieutenant Alt had flashed with his light and then I said, "You have to add that I can't state so definitely. I don't want to say anything incorrect."

PRESIDENT: Prosecution?

CAPTAIN VANCE: Could I ask for a recess in place for two minutes?

PRESIDENT: Recess in place.

(Whereupon the court recessed in place.)

PRESIDENT: The court will come to order.

(Fay-Court)

RECROSS EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q Fay, you have said there may be some trouble with the translation, though you do not understand English, is that correct?

A Yes.

Q I am going to hand you a statement that is written in pencil concerning this case and ask if it is in your own handwriting.

A Yes.

Q You understand that and wrote it yourself, did you not?

A This I wrote myself.

Q Does that contain the truth?

A Yes.

Q I am going to refresh your memory from this statement a little bit and see what you say about it. "Then Mahrgang said, 'Fay, this aviator is to be shot or to be done away with,' and then I asked who decided that. Then one of the two policemen replied, 'Chief of Police Eichel.'" Do you remember that?

A Yes, that's what I said, that's true.

Q You remember that?

A Yes.

Q Now, the law member of the court asked you who was present where the body was and you carried the body away and I believe you said you could not recognise anyone. Is that correct?

A Today I can't remember so exactly any more.

Q I am going to see if I can refresh your memory again. Now, I am going to read from the statement that you wrote in your own handwriting. I am quoting: "Then I, Fabian and Guenther carried him to the yard of the inn in a decent manner."

(Fay-Cross)

A That's correct. Defense would like to offer into evidence as [illegible] of the statement read by the [illegible]

Q You remember that?

A But that's after the police director came and said to put down the body. [illegible]

Q You remember that you even helped carry the body yourself, do you not? [illegible] Defense Exhibits 21 and 21-A will be received in evidence.

A Yes, for the second time after the police director had said, "put everything down" and then we picked it up again, not from the place where he was shot.

Exhibits 21 and 21-A for identification were received in evidence as Defense Exhibits 21 and 21-A, are attached hereto

Q I want you to read over your statement you have written and see if you can answer the Law Member's question about who was there where the body was found. [illegible] as that is admitted in evidence, I think the statement (The witness reading) court.

Q Can you tell the Law Member who some of the people were on that roster of Defense Exhibit 21 in the Germa language to the interpreter.)

A At the first place where he was lying after he was shot, I can't say who picked up the body, only afterwards, when the body was carried to our barracks an officer came and said, "Everybody away. What's going on here?" And from this place on, Guenther, Fabian and I carried the body into the garden near our barracks.

Q Who shot the American flier and killed him?

A As I heard later on and it was reported, Hammann.

Q You heard Hammann say he did it, did you not?

A When Hammann reported to the police director, the police director asked who shot, and there on the road Hammann said that he had shot at an escaping man.

CAPTAIN VANCE: Nothing further.

MR. RACHEL: Will you mark these documents Defense Exhibits 21 and 21-A for identification, please?

(The documents referred to were marked Defense Exhibits 21 and 21-A for identification.)

(Fey-Becroes)

MR. RACHEL: The defense would like to offer into evidence as Defense Exhibit Number 21 the balance of the statement read by the prosecution, and as Defense Exhibit Number 21-A, the balance of the English translation thereof.

CAPTAIN VANCE: No objection.

PRESIDENT: Defense Exhibits 21 and 21-A will be received in evidence and made a part of the record.

(The documents previously marked Defense Exhibits 21 and 21-A for identification were received in evidence as Defense Exhibits 21 and 21-A, are attached hereto and made a part of the record.)

MR. RACHEL: Does the court desire me to read the statement?

PRESIDENT: As long as that is admitted in evidence, I think the statement should be read to the court.

(Whereupon Mr. Rachel read Defense Exhibit 21-A, followed by the reading of Defense Exhibit 21 in the German language by the interpreter.)

PRESIDENT: Court will recess until one-thirty.

(Whereupon at 1210 hours the court recessed until 1330 hours.)

AFTERNOON SESSION

(Whereupon the Court reconvened at 1330 hours.)

PRESIDENT: The Court will come to order.

PROSECUTION: May it please the Court, let the record show that all members of the Court, all the members of the Prosecution, all the members of the Defense, except Dr. Trost, who is absent sick, all of the accused, the reporter and interpreter are present.

MR. RACHAEL: If the Court please, I believe at the close of the morning session, we had just completed the testimony of the defendant Fay. If there is no additional examination, the Defense will call as its next witness the defendant Hassmann.

LAW MEMBER: Just a minute--may we see Defense Exhibit 21-A? Is this the one that you offered?

MR. RACHAEL: Yes, sir.

LAW MEMBER: Put Fay back on the stand.

BERNHARD FAY, an accused, resumed the stand, and being reminded that he was still under oath, testified further through an interpreter as follows:

EXAMINATION BY THE COURT

QUESTIONS BY COLONEL ROBERTSON:

Q Fay, in your statement that was read by the Defense, Exhibit 21-A, the last sentence in that statement says, "Furthermore, I heard that the Police Director Eichel was to be blamed for the whole thing."

A Yes.

Q When did you hear that?

A I would like to make an explanation of that.

Q Answer the question. When did you hear it?

A A few days later.

Q A few days later? What did you understand by that?

A Because I couldn't console myself with this entire matter, and I couldn't understand why the man had tried to escape, though I talked about this matter in general--where did this man come from and how did it happen--and though there was talk that the Police Director alone is responsible. But I understood clearly that this evening, the Police Director had nothing to do with this matter; because I didn't know at all what happened and where this man was coming from. The whole thing was a matter of moments.

Q Whom did you hear this from--that Police Director Eichel was to be blamed for the whole thing?

A A civilian said so, and a few policemen, but I can't say definitely anymore.

QUESTIONS BY THE LAW MEMBER:

Q What were you concerned about?

A Because I had no bad intentions and never had done anything wrong to anybody, and I wanted to find out the truth about the entire matter.

Q When you got to the flier that was lying on the ground, was he lying on his back or on his stomach?

A I can't say that anymore today, whether he was lying on the side or so because it was very dark.

Q Could you see where he was bleeding from?

A One man, I don't know who it was, flashed his flash light for a short moment, then I remember he was bleeding out of his nose and mouth.

(Pay-Court)

Q Was he shot in the head?

A No, I don't know that.

Q Was Zahn standing there when you were standing there?

A No, I can't say that.

Q Do you know Zahn?

A I know Zahn, yes.

Q Was Nahrgang standing there when you were there?

A I can't say that either. I was terribly excited, and it was very dark.

Q Was Fabian there--Fritz Fabian?

A Fabian I noticed only when the Police Director came over and the man had been put down for the first time.

LAW MEMBER: That's all.

MR. RACHAEL: No further questions by the Defense.

PRESIDENT: Does the Prosecution have anything further?

RECROSS EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q You do remember blood in the mouth and nose of the corpse?

A Yes, during the short time the flash light was used, I could see that.

Q So he must have been lying on his back or you couldn't have seen that. Is that correct?

A No, I can't say that--his face was sideways.

CAPTAIN VANCE: Nothing further.

MR. RACHAEL: Any further questions by the Court?

PRESIDENT: No questions by the Court. The accused will take his place in the dock.

(Whereupon the accused was excused and resumed his seat in the dock.)

MR. MACHAEL: The Defense will call as its next witness the defendant Philipp Hammann.

PRESIDENT: Do you desire to be sworn?

ACCUSED PHILIPP HAMMANN: Yes.

PHILIPP HAMMANN, an accused, voluntarily took the stand in his own behalf and having been duly sworn, made the following unsworn statement through an interpreter:

A Yes. DIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY DR. AHRENS:

Q Please give your full name to the Court.

A Philipp Hammann.

Q How old are you?

A 51 years.

Q Were you stationed in February, 1945?

A Offenbach.

Q Where is your residence?

A Offenbach.

Q What is your present status?

A Prisoner at Dachau.

Q Since when are you in prison?

A 18 May 1945.

Q What are you by profession?

A I am a carpenter.

Q Did you have the same profession in 1945?

A No.

Q What was your profession at that time?

A I was drafted.

Q Where?

A 1945 I was with the air raid Protection Police at Offenbach.

A Yes.

Q What was your rank?

A I was the rank of Sergeant of the Air Raid Police.

Q Since when were you attached to the Air Raid Police?

A The first of September, 1939.

Q Are you married, Mr. Hammann?

A Yes.

Q Have you children?

A Yes.

Q How many?

A One son.

Q How old?

A 27 years.

Q Where were you stationed in February, 1945?

A Bierbrauer Weg.

Q Do you remember the 22nd of February, 1945?

A Yes.

Q Did you have a definite assignment at that time?

A I was Sergeant of the Guard at Bierbrauer Weg.

Q What were the duties of the Sergeant of the Guard at Bierbrauer Weg?

A He was in charge of order in the area on the fire brigade.

Q Do you mean the entire area around the felsenkeller?

A Yes, the entire area--the barracks, garage and whatever else was belonging to it.

Q Was Jaeger one of your guards at that time?

A Yes.

Q Zahn, too?

A Yes.

Q When did you hear for the first time about the American flier this evening?

A After he was dead.

Q Did you have anything to do with this man before?

A No, before I had nothing to do with the flier.

Q Did you hear any yells or shots?

A Yes.

Q Where were you at that time when you heard it?

A When the shots were fired, I was in my room.

Q Was this the same room in which Nahrgang lived?

A No, it was another room.

Q Is that the same room which is called a guard room here in Court?

A It is in the same room, but it is separated from it.

Q What was the reason for you to leave this room?

A When the shots were fired, and the yelling started, I ran out of my room to check why the shots had been fired.

Q What kind of yells did you hear?

A When I came out of the door, I heard the call, "He is running down the stairs," and then furthermore, "cut off his way."

Q Before you left the room and came through the door, did you hear calls already?

A Yes.

Q Do you know what they said?

A No, I couldn't distinguish that.

Q That means the shots were the main reason why you left the room?

A Yes, I came out on account of the shots.

Q Now, let's continue. After you came out of the door, what happened then?

A With the call, "cut off his way," I could visualize that if someone runs down the stairs and keeps on running, there's only one place where he can come out again, if he didn't hide on the way out or if he didn't go through some half-finished buildings on the side.

Q Where was the spot where he had to come out again?

A Otherwise he could come out only at the Bierbrauer Weg.

Q You said there was only one way which he could come out again. Whom did you understand was "he"?

A I supposed--I assumed the man that was escaping.

Q Did you know who was the one who tried to escape?

A No, I didn't know that.

Q Did you have any doubts about the person of this man?

A I could think only if somebody is shooting or somebody else is shooting at somebody he might have committed some crime, because in this area we never were used to any excitement. It was always very quiet there.

Q When you left your room, you were armed?

A No.

Q What did you do after you had come out of the door and had heard the calls, etc., about which you have testified before?

A I ran down the stairs out of the gate. When I came in front of the gate, I saw the guard Jaeger standing on the Bierbrauer Weg.

Q One moment, Mr. Hammann, you mentioned before that you ran down the stairs. Are you referring to the stairs leading to the air raid shelter?

A No.

Q Which stairs are you referring to?

A There was another stair from the yard to the Bierbrauer Weg.

Q Please show on Prosecution's Exhibit 127 the place where these stairs are located.

A From up here, four or five steps up to the Bierbrauer Weg--each of the steps is approximately one meter wide. (Indicating).

DR. AHRENS: Let the record show that the witness showed the stairs as being in the neighborhood of the letter "p" on Prosecution's Exhibit 127.

Q You went to the guard Jaeger, and what did you do then?

A Since I didn't know whether the man who had escaped was armed, I took Jaeger's carbine.

Q What did you do then?

A I kept on running to the exit from the air raid shelters to the Bierbrauer Weg. Then I was approximately 10, might be less or a little bit more, meters from this exit, and men came running from this exit, and on the Bierbrauer Weg I turned north. I called a loud "halt", then once more or even twice, but the man didn't bother about it and kept on running. According to my guard regulations, at that time I was supposed to make use of my weapon, but I didn't do it because I thought I could catch up with the man. I ran after him approximately 80 meters--might have been a hundred--but the distance between me and the man who tried to escape got larger and larger.

End ta 246,
ijh fols

[illegible]

[illegible]

[illegible]

Q Did you call anything to the man?

A On the road I called at least four or five times, "halt."

Q Did the man do anything about it?

A No, he didn't bother.

Q Continue.

A After I had run after him for about eighty to one hundred meters, there came another call, "halt" from the other direction. According to the voice, it could have been only Fabian. He was an officer of our Air Raid Protection Police. But the man didn't care about the call. He kept on running. If I wanted to prevent the escape any longer I had no other choice but to make use of my weapon. I fired one shot at the man, who was 40 or 50, it might have been a little bit more meters away from me, but even then he didn't stop, but it makes the impression on me that he only turned to the right to escape into the woods. Then I shot twice more shortly after the other. After the last shot the man who tried to escape had disappeared.

Q When firing, did you aim exactly at the man?

A I couldn't aim because it was too dark. I only shot in the direction in which he was running.

Q Did you see the shadow of the man?

A I only saw that some human being was running.

Q And you said after the third shot he disappeared?

A Yes, I didn't know whether I had hit him or whether he had dropped to the ground by himself or whether he had escaped.

Q Did you try then to find out?

A I walked over to the spot where I had seen him last. First I wanted to reload my rifle, but there was some trouble. I couldn't reload, I couldn't get the round into the rifle. It was stuck. I stayed there to fix my rifle and in the meantime, comrades of mine passed me and found the dead man. There, for the first time I heard of what kind of man I had shot.

Q I show you now Defense Exhibit 20, and I ask you to mark with your superior of[illegible], which [illegible] to [illegible] the police [illegible] the letter "O" the spot at which you saw the flyer for the first time. [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

Then police director Richel told me, "Okay, make a written report to your superior office, which has to be forwarded to the police through channels." At this moment the body was being carried by us. Police director Richel followed the transport and walked next to the body.

Q Did you follow too?

A No. I stayed there for a while, because I wanted to calm down a little bit first. When I came back then, the body was lying in the yard. I went to the garden to sit down a little bit. In the meantime, Master Tardt, the headquarters of the Fire Police, had reported to First Lieutenant Reiter, what had happened, and should come to Bierbrauer Weg. But it took some time until the connection came through. I don't know whether it took twenty or thirty minutes. Anyway, he tried to make the call five, six, it might have been seven, eight times, before he got the connection. I stayed in the room until Lieutenant Rieter arrived at the Bierbrauer Weg. He called for me and I went outside and made the report to him. What happened -- otherwise, I can't remember any more. I know only that the order was given to cover the corpse with a blanket and to have guard next to the corpse. And the first guard, as far as I can remember, was Jaeger.

Q Did you look at the body yourself?

A No, I didn't look at the body.

Q Why not?

A I felt sorry for the man that he had to lose his life in such a manner.

Q When did you hear for the first time that this man who tried to escape was an American?

A When the comrades passed me running, I understood from their talks that he was an American flier.

Q Did you make a written report too?

A Yes, next morning I went to headquarters at Offenbach and made my written report.

Q Do you know what happened to this written report?

A One report, as far as I know, went to the Police, a copy stayed at our headquarters, and I got another one.

Q Please let us return once more to the spot where for the first time you saw the flier coming out of the hallway into the Bierbrauer Weg, at that time. How far away from the flier were you?

A I said before it might have been ten or twelve or eight meters.

Q Did you shoot at that time already at the flier?

A No.

Q Why not?

A At such a distance I would have hit the flier absolutely certain, one hundred percent certain. First I wanted to try to catch the flyer this way without firing at him.

Q That means that you shot at him only later after you found out that the distance wasn't getting smaller, but larger all the time?

A Only when I saw that there was no other choice I wanted to prevent the escape and then I used my weapon.

Q Did you see Wahrgang on this evening?

A I had seen Wahrgang before this incident in the early evening.

Q During the incident?

A No.

Q Did you read the charge sheet?

A Yes.

Q Did you receive any orders in regard to the treatment of enemy fliers?

A I have never received an order and never seen an order.

MR. RACHAM: Your witness.

CROSS EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q Where did you say you were when you heard the first shots fired?

A In my room in which I usually slept.

Q Put a circle at that place with a figure number 1 in it.

A (Whereupon witness did as directed.)

Q Were you asleep, awake, or what were you doing at that time?

A I don't know this any more today. Anyway, I was lying on my bed.

CAPTAIN VANCE: Let the record show I am talking about Defense Exhibit Number 20.

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q Where you placed a circle with the figure "1", that is where you were when you heard the shot, is that right?

A Yes.

Q I believe you stated also while you were at that place you heard some shouting?

A Yes.

Q How long did it take you to get ready to leave that building?

A That was only a moment. Then I ran out.

Q Then did you go from there to where you met a man named Jaeger?

A When I came out of here I ran into Nierbrauer Weg and here, (indicating) that's the place where Jaeger was standing as a guard.

Q Will you make a circle at that point, put the figure "2" where you stopped, where Jaeger was?

A Yes (indicating).

Q Now, will you draw a line from circle "1" to circle "2", showing your route?

A (Indicating)

Q I believe that you have already placed a circle at the place where you first saw the flier, is that right?

A Yes.

Q To identify that circle, will you put the figure "3" beside it?

A (Indicating)

Q Now, will you point out the spot where you fired your first shot and make a circle with the figure "4"?

A (Indicating)

Q I believe that the cross marked, the star is where the dead body was found, is that right?

A Yes.

Q Will you place a figure "5" beside that for identification?

A (Indicating)

Q Now, let me ask you, is this correct? If your route of travel from the time you heard the shot was from point "1" to "2" to "3" to "4" to "5", is that right?

A Yes. I didn't come up entirely to number 5.

Q Now, I am going to show you a point where Fay marked, where he fired his weapon the second time which is marked "6" on the map. Do you see that?

A Yes. The first shot must have been fired here.

Q I meant to say the second shot.

A I don't know that.

Q I said, did you see the place "6" where Fay said he fired the second shot?

A Yes.

Q Assuming that if the flier was preceding Fay, which he said he was at the time he fired at point "6", who travelled the greatest distance, you or the flier?

A From here it should have been the same distance as from here (indicating).

Q I did not understand, what was that?

A From here (indicating) up to here (indicating), it should be [illegible] know that if someone was running down the stairs there was approximately the same as from here up to here. (Indicating) not but one way of escape, that is the way the flier traveled, is that right?
Q You think that is about the same distance?
[illegible] Lo. In this area there was where [illegible] tried to get away.
A It should be the same.
[illegible] area [illegible] attacks [illegible] and [illegible] were destroyed
Q You had to come out of your building, and then you stopped to get [illegible] only required [illegible] to [illegible], to [illegible] the the gun away from Jaeger, is that right?
[illegible] do you not now [illegible] that, [illegible] question,
A That was just a moment.
[illegible] knew there was [illegible] for you to go?
PRESIDENT: Let the record show where he was pointing when [illegible] there was only one road to the [illegible], e.g. if somebody he said "from here to here to here".
[illegible] wanted to hide in the [illegible] he could [illegible] around there.
CAPTAIN VANCE: Let the record show that the witness points out [illegible] did you not know when you heard these shots up [illegible] near the that where he says is the same distance is the distance from point "1" to stairs that you were down at the area where Jaeger was point "2" to point "3" in reference to the other distances from point
A No.
"3" to point "6".
[illegible] did you not know it would be physically impossible for you to
QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:
take the route you turned on that way and ever catch up with that flier?
Q What caused you to run out of the bunker and grab a carbine from
A I didn't want to [illegible] any [illegible].
Jaeger?
[illegible] Jaeger was running.
A I was the sergeant of the guard, and I was responsible for orders [illegible] This path is [illegible] [illegible] the road [illegible] there.
and security. When I heard these calls and didn't know what had happened [illegible] think you traveled [illegible] greater distance than the flier, is that and didn't know whether the man who tried to escape was armed. I asked right?
for Jaeger's carbine because there was no time to go inside any more and [illegible] My route was shorter than the route [illegible] flier [illegible] the point pick up my own weapon.
[illegible] walked over there in the [illegible]. (Indicating)
Q You have said that you heard some calls, exactly what did you [illegible] but before you got there you had to come out of the building, hear called?
[illegible] you not?
A Inside the room I couldn't understand what was called.
[illegible] Of course, I was in my [illegible] bed.
Q Did you ever understand?
[illegible] Colonel Day saw the [illegible] flier was running when he fired that
A Only when I came outside the door I heard the call, "He's running [illegible] around shot, did you not?
down the stairs." Then furthermore, "Cut off his way."
Yes.
[illegible] So, the flier was clearly running to the [illegible] you were sitting on (Hammann-Cross)
[illegible] bed in your room, that's right? 1833
[illegible] Yes, I have to see it so. If I would [illegible] there also to [illegible] have passed [illegible] you.

(Zaucha-Cross) 1834

I am referring to the point that you marked there you first saw the flier, do you know who were pursuing at that time

Q You knew that if someone was running down the stairs there was not but one way of escape, that is the way the flier traveled, is that right?

A No. In this area there were other possibilities to get away.

There had been air raid attacks before and some buildings were destroyed and entirely repaired yet, no doors, no windows, nothing in them.

Q Did you not say on direct examination, in answer to a question, "I know there was only one way for the men to go"?

A There was only one road to the Bierbrauer Weg. If somebody wanted to hide in the field he could hide around there.

Q Did you not know when you heard those shouts up there near the stairs that you were down at the gate where Jeeper was?

A No.

Q Did you not know it would be physically impossible for you to take the route you marked on that map and ever catch up with that flier?

A I didn't want to catch any flier.

Q Whoever was running?

A This path is much shorter then the road back there.

Q You think you traveled a smaller distance then the flier, is that right?

A My route was shorter than the route of the flier from the point "D", as marked over there on the map. (Indicating)

Q But before you got there you had to come out of the building, did you not?

A Of course, I was in my room on my bed.

Q You heard Fay say that the flyer was running when he fired that second shot, did you not?

A Yes.

Q So, the flier was already running at the time you were sitting on your bed in your room, that's right, is it not?

A Yes, I have to assume so. If I would have been there before he wouldn't have passed this spot.

Q I am referring to the point that you marked where you first saw the flier, do you know who were pursuing at that time? escape?

A A No, I didn't know them. I was pursuing. [illegible] down the stairs and [illegible]

Q Why did you not [illegible] running down the stairs, then I have to ask you.

A Because I didn't know anything about a flier and hadn't seen the flier before. I believe, you said that the American prisoner was running faster. You just decided you were going to shoot at whoever it was running, is that right?

A [illegible] to find out about that during the time I was running.

Q No, I didn't decide that. I wanted to catch him running and bring him back this way. In spite of air he was running faster than you, but I will ask you if you did shoot at whoever it was running without knowing who it was?

A A According to my guard regulations, I had to prevent the escape. For this reason I was a soldier and I had to fulfill my duties as a soldier.

Q You were shooting at, did you?

Q A You never did hear anybody holler, "Somebody was escaping," did you? Q If that had been Adolf Hitler himself running down that road [illegible] you didn't hear that, didn't you?

A Then I was on duty, and I was on duty, and I didn't know how, even there I would have shot him.

Q Now, did you see a man fr[illegible] that night?

A I saw him later on when everything was over.

Q You remember Erich Fabian testifying before this court, don't you?

A Yes.

Q You remember [illegible] saying, "At the time the flyer was shot I said to Hermann, 'How could you shoot?' and Hermann said, 'I saw you coming.'" Did you see him coming?

(Hermann-Cross) [illegible] say that anymore today. As far as I can remember [illegible] was anybody else in [illegible] of us but the man who tried to escape.

(Hermann-Cross)

Q Well, how did you know about this man trying to escape?

A If shots are fired and a man is running down the stairs and called on me "He is running down the stairs", then I have to assume that he is running away.

Q I believe you said that the American prisoner was running faster than you were, that is right, isn't it?

A Yes. I had to find out about that during the time I was running after him.

Q After you got sight of him he was running faster than you but before you got sight of him he was running slower than you, is that right?

A I don't know that.

Q Now when you shot this American prisoner, you didn't know who you were shooting at, did you?

A No.

Q If that had been Adolf Hitler himself running down that road you would have shot him, wouldn't you?

A When I was on duty, and I was on duty, and I didn't know him, even there I would have shot him.

Q Now, did you see a man Frits Fabian that night?

A I saw him later on when everything was over.

Q You remember Frits Fabian testifying before this court, don't you?

A Yes.

Q You remember him saying, "At the time the flyer was shot I said to Hammann, 'How could you shoot!' and Hammann said, 'I saw you coming.'". Did you see him coming?

A I can't say that anymore today. As far as I can remember I didn't see anybody else in front of me but the man who tried to escape.

Q You think that Fritz Fabian was mistaken in his testimony, is that right?

A I have to assume so.

Q How far could you see that night?

A I said before the man who tried to escape, on a distance of forty or fifty meters you could see only the shadow that somebody was running.

Q When you fired the first shot you said the escaping man was forty or fifty meters away, is that right?

A Yes.

Q And I believe you said that after you fired the first shot that he started out in the woods, is that right?

A Whether he wanted to go into the woods, I don't know. He turned to the right and so I assumed it.

Q Well what made you assume that he wanted to go into the woods?

A When he found out -- when he noticed that people were firing after him, he tried to get away.

Q Well you marked the point where the dead body fell didn't you and it was right in the middle of the road?

A No, it is to the right of the street on a meadow.

Q Well, you made the marking on a map for your lawyer, didn't you?

A No. I made the marking where it belongs, where the dead body was lying.

Q Well, you made it in the middle of the street, didn't you?

A No, I didn't say that.

A No, to the right of the street on the meadows the dead man was lying. I was a good shot.

Q Is that where the cross, where the figure "g" is -- is that where the body was found?

A Yes. I don't know anything. I was never told anything about flyer. Q. When you fired the first shot did the flyer stop running or did he continue? Now at the time of this killing that American flyer -- whether he stopped or right away turned to the right I couldn't say. I couldn't find out at this distance.

Q Did you stop running? that you knew that the police were -- standing behind another two or three meters and then I fired for the second time. That was I heard in Remagen when I was arrested.

Q Did you stop to fire the second time or were you still running? That was in June, July, 1945.

A I didn't say that anymore today. I killed a man -- I said if the flyer was forty or fifty meters away from you when you fired the first time and I believe you said the distance kept getting greater, he must have been further away when you fired the second shot that -- everything secret from you around there?

A No. That is not correct. The flyer made a right angle and for this reason the distance remained the same, enough.

Q Well, would you say that he was still forty or fifty meters away when you shot at him and struck him?

A It might have been three, four or five meters less for the second and third shots.

Q And you don't remember whether you were running or standing still when you fired those shots?

A No, I can't say that.

Q You are a pretty good shot with a rifle, are you?

A I was a good shot.

Q You were familiar with the treatment to be given to captured flyers, were you not?

A No, I didn't know anything. I was never told anything about flyers.

Q Didn't you know at the time of this killing that American flyers were being killed by the police all over Germany?

A No, I didn't know that.

Q When is the first time that you knew that the police were executing American flyers?

A The first case I heard in Hersbruck when I was arrested.

Q When was that?

A That was in June, July, 1945.

Q Well, you knew that Moller over at Bieber killed a man the same day you killed this one, didn't you?

A No, I didn't know that. I heard about this only through Moller at Hersbruck.

Q Did they keep everything secret from you around there?

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Objection. I pray the Court's judgment. I believe that kind of examination has gone far enough.

PRESIDENT: Objection sustained.

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q Did you know policeman Schneider?

A No.

Q Did you know policeman Michel?

(Hahmann - Cross) 1839

A No.

[illegible]: Are there any questions by the court?

Q You remember those two policemen testifying before this Court?

[illegible]

A Yes.

[illegible]

Q And you talked to those two policeman that night, didn't you?

[illegible] what was it that Bichel said to you when you

you?

[illegible] the record that the flyer had been shot. Just exactly what

A No.

[illegible] did he say.

Q You and these two policeman and Fay had a discussion before

[illegible] Bichul said to you, "O.K., [illegible] to your question" this flyer was killed, didn't you?

[illegible] headquarters and your headquarters would forward the report to the DEFENSE COUNSEL: The defense objects.

police through channels".

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

LAW MEMBER: I want to ask the interpreter if he said "O.K."

THE WITNESS: No.

or if he said "Good".

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

INTERPRETER: He said "Good".

Q You heard Schneider say they were supposed to kill the LAW MEMBER: Then why did you interpret it as "O.K."?

flyer but they didn't want to do it, didn't you?

INTERPRETER: That means "O.K." in German what he said.

A I heard it here in court.

LAW MEMBER: "Good" is the same meaning as "O.K."?

Q I am talking about that night?

INTERPRETER: Yes sir.

A At that time I didn't hear anything.

QUESTIONS BY THE LAW MEMBER:

Q And you and Fay worked out a plan whereby Fay would take [illegible] when you fired the last shot while running, could you see the man up the steps, drive him down the steps and you would be the man that you fired at?

waiting to shoot him when he came down the Bierbrauer Weg, didn't you?

A I saw the man until the last shot.

A No, I didn't work out any plan. I did my duty and nothing

[illegible] when you got to the body or the place where the flyer was else.

[illegible], was there anyone there ahead of you?

Q After you ran out of the bunkers, you didn't stop to inquire

A Several persons were there ahead of me. I didn't walk all of anyone about the direction the flyer was going in, did you?

[illegible] way on to the body.

A No, I didn't stop at all.

[illegible] She was there ahead of you.

Q You just grabbed a gun, started running and ran right to

A I couldn't say that.

the place where you met the flyer?

A I tried to hold the man at the exit to the Bierbrauer Weg

if I would still have time to do it.

CAPTAIN VANCE: Nothing further.

MR. RACHAEL: Are there any questions by the court?

EXAMINATION BY THE COURT

QUESTIONS BY LAW MEMBER:

Q Mr. Hamann, what was it that Eichel said to you when you made the report that the flyer had been shot. Just exactly what words did he use?

A Eichel said to me, "O.K., make a report to your superior headquarters and your headquarters shall forward the report to the police through channels."

LAW MEMBER: I want to ask the interpreter if he said "O.K." or if he said "Good"?

INTERPRETER: He said "Good".

LAW MEMBER: Then why did you interpret it as "O.K."?

INTERPRETER: That means "O.K." in German what he said.

LAW MEMBER: "Good" is the same meaning as "O.K."?

INTERPRETER: Yes sir.

QUESTIONS BY THE LAW MEMBER:

Q When you fired the last shot while running, could you see the man that you fired at?

A I saw the man until the last shot.

Q When you got to the body or the place where the flyer was lying, was there anyone there ahead of you?

A Several persons were there ahead of me. I didn't walk all the way up to the body.

Q Who was there ahead of you?

A I couldn't say that.

(Hamann - Court)

(Hamann - Court)

A I can't remember this. Whether he said anything, I don't know.

Q Was Guenther there?

A I don't know.

Q Could you see if the flyer was lying on the ground when you got there or was he on his knees? What was his position?

A No, I couldn't see that.

Q Could you see whether he was lying on his back or his stomach?

A No.

Q Could you see in what part of the body he had been hit by the bullet?

A No, I heard this only here. I didn't know it before.

Q Did you hear Guenther's testimony by this court? Karl Guenther?

A Yes.

Q Did you hear him testify that "Hammann shot and then I wanted to go over to the flyer and Hammann shot once more and then I told him, 'Philipp stop it' and then Hammann said he couldn't see any man suffer."

A No, Guenther didn't say anything to me. He couldn't say anything because the shots were fired one shot shortly after the other.

Q Do you deny that what Guenther testified to as to what you said is not true?

A I can't remember that I talked even one word to anybody during the entire incident. The one I recognised was Police Director Eichel and the guard Jaeger.

Q Do you want us to understand that you don't remember talking to Guenther or do you want us to understand that what Guenther said when he quoted you is not true?

A I can't remember this. Whether he said anything; I don't know. I had the fourth shot because the bullet stuck. When firing this third shot the fourth shot stuck too and then I cleared the lock with the end of my hand so another shot could be fired, but

Q Well, then you are not saying that you deny it, you are simply saying that you don't remember what you said, is that correct?

A I have a very good memory. I certainly would remember there if somebody told me something like that, one through I don't remember anymore.

Q. You haven't quite made it clear to me whether you are denying that you said that or whether you simply are saying that you don't remember whether you said it.

A I deny that I said it. testified that he said to Hammann

Q What kind of a carbine did you use when you fired at this fleeing man?

A that could be possible but I can't state it definitely anymore today.

A An Italian carbine.

Q And how many shots does it carry in the magazine? , "I saw you firing six shots on the magazine.

A Did you fire six shots while you were pursuing this man?

Q Did you see Fabian at the place where the flyer was?

A No, I fired three shots. heard later on that he helped to carry back

Q Did you testify a little earlier that you had stopped to reload the rifle? see Guenther there?

A After the third shot. This is not an automatic rifle and after each shot you have to load again. You have to push the round through again. After each shot you have to open the lock and close it again. are at the spot after the flyer was shot?

Q Was the magazine filled with six shots? entire evening I have id

A The magazine was filled with six shots, and the guard locked.

Q And when you finished firing, did you count to see how many you had left? Court!

1944

A No, I didn't count them. I had fired three shots. I
QUESTIONS BY THE PRESIDENT:
couldn't load the fourth shot because the bullet stuck. When fixing Q Did you fire a shot after the man who [illegible] this trouble through pulling back the trigger, I threw out the fourth
the ground?
shot. The fifth shot went in approximately one centimeter deep but A As I said before, [illegible] this got stuck too and then I closed the lock with the end of my hand another shot came out and went into the ground in front of me in the ground. There so another shot came out and went in front of me in the ground. There was one shot left. Whether I loaded this one through I don't remember in front of me.
anymore.
Q How far were you from the [illegible] took place?
Q Do you remember hearing the testimony of Fabian?
A I can't say that any more, whether it was two or three
A Yes, partly.
meters, it wasn't near him.
Q Do you recall that he testified that he said to Hannann
QUESTIONS BY LAW MEMBER:
"How could you shoot?" and that you answered, "I saw you coming."?
Q Did you go any closer to the man [illegible]
A That could be possible but I can't state it definitely
A No. I didn't go any closer because in the meantime my anymore today.
comrades had picked up the body and were carrying it away.
Q Could you explain what is meant by that expression, "I saw Q You mean they picked up the body immediately after that you coming."?
shot was fired?
A I couldn't explain that.
A Whether it was immediately or [illegible]
Q Did you see Fabian at the place where the flyer was?
more today.
A I didn't see him but I heard later on that he helped to QUESTIONS BY LT. COL. WALTER: carry back the flyer.
Q Hannann, do you recall any conversation which you and
Q Did you see Guenther there?
Jaeger and Rehrgang were engaged in [illegible]
A The same. I didn't see him but I heard later on that he you something in regard to shooting the flyer and you refused and helped to carry back the body.
said, "No"?
Q Do you know any particular person that you remember seeing
A No, I never had a conversation.
right there at the spot after the flyer was shot?
PRESIDENT: Any more questions by the [illegible] further
A I said before in my testimony that the entire evening I questions by the prosecution?
have identified only the Police Director Nichel and the guard Jaeger.
CAPTAIN VANCE: No sir.

PRESIDENT: The witness is excused and will take his place.
(Hannann - Court)
(Thereupon the witness [illegible] excused and resumed his seat in the prisoners' box.)

MR. MACHT: The defense will call as its next witness
QUESTIONS BY THE PRESIDENT:
the accused PAUL MAHRGANG.
Q Did you fire a shot after the man who was running fell to Do you desire to be sworn?
the ground?
THE WITNESS: Yes.
A As I said before, when I tried to fix up my rifle again
PAUL MAHRGANG, an accused, was duly sworn as a witness and testified through the interpreter as follows:
another shot came out and went into the ground in front of me, but this shot was not fired at the flyer but went straight in the ground
DIRECT EXAMINATION
in front of me.
QUESTIONED BY MR. ARNOLD:
Q How far were you from the fallen man when that took place?
Please give the court your full name.
A I can't say that any more, whether it was two or three Paul Mahrgang.
meters, it wasn't near him.
How old are you?
QUESTIONS BY LAW MEMBER:
A Forty-six years.
Q Did you go any closer to the man that after?
Are you married?
A No. I didn't go any closer because in the meantime my
Yes.
comrades had picked up the body and were carrying it away.
Do you have children?
Q You mean they picked up the body immediately after that
A No.
shot was fired?
What is your present status?
A Whether it was immediately afterwards I can't say any-
A Prisoner in Dachau.
more today.
Q Since when are you a prisoner?
QUESTIONS BY LT. COL. WALKER:
A Since the sixth of December, 1945.
Q Mahrgang, do you recall any conversation which you and
What is your profession?
Jaeger and Mahrgang were present, in which Mahrgang presumed to ask A I am a locksmith. Then for twelve years I was a professional you something in regard to shooting this flyer and you refused and soldier and then I became an official of the Nazi Party for twelve years.
said, "No"?
From when?
A No, I never had a conversation.
A First of May 1933.
PRESIDENT: Any more questions by the Court. Further Until when?
questions by the prosecution?
A Until the end.
CAPTAIN VANCE: No sir.
What was your rank in the Waffen SS on January 1945?
PRESIDENT: The witness is excused and will take his place.

(Whereupon the witness was excused and resumed his seat in the prisoners' dock.)

(Mahrgang - Direct)

T-Saha-Mag-6-30/3/3-wfj-11

A MR. RACHAEL: The defense will call as its next witness [illegible] Sergeant of the Fire Protection Police, the accused PAUL HAHNGANG.

Q [illegible] you stationed at that time?

A PRESIDENT: Do you desire to be sworn?

Q [illegible] stationed at Blankenburger Weg.

Q THE WITNESS: Yes. [illegible] which city?

PAUL HAHNGANG, an accused, voluntarily took the stand in his own behalf and being first duly sworn, testified through an interpreter as follows:

Q [illegible] happened on this morning?

DIRECT EXAMINATION

A I was in my room.

QUESTIONS BY DR. AUBINER:

PRESIDENT: Before we go into that, we will recess for [illegible] minutes.

Q Please give the court your full name.

A Paul Hahngang.

(Whereupon at this hour the court recessed until 1530 hours.)

Q How old are you?

A Forty-six years.

Q Are you married?

A Yes.

Q Do you have children?

A No.

Q What is your present status?

A Prisoner in Dachau.

Q Since when are you a prisoner?

A Since the sixth of December, 1945.

Q What is your profession?

A I am a locksmith. Then for twelve years I was a professional soldier and then I became an official of the Fire Protection Police.

Q From when?

A First of May 1935.

Q Until when?

A Until the end.

Q What was your rank on the twenty second of February, 1945?

(Recess was taken at 1500 hours.)

A I was Master Sergeant of the Fire Protection Police.

Q Where were you stationed at that time?

A I was stationed at Dietzbrunner Weg.

Q In which city?

A Offenbach, Main.

Q What happened on this evening?

A I was in my room.

MARSHAL PRESIDENT: Before we go into that, we will recess for thirty minutes. [illegible] You are reminded that you are still under oath.

(Thereupon at 1500 hours the court recessed until 1530 hours.)

(Thereupon at 1530 hours the court reassembled and the witness resumed the stand and testified further as follows:)

ERICH KARL AHLEMANN, continued

DIRECT EXAMINATION BY Mr. ABRAHAMS:

Q Mr. Ahlemann, on the 22nd of February, how did you find out that a prisoner was being taken to Dietzbrunner Weg?

A In the later evening hours of this 22nd day of February, during an air raid, a sergeant of the Protective Police appeared and a guard of our quarters. This sergeant said that he was trying to get cover from the shrapnel. I said that I was not the sergeant of the guard and that I could act in nothing for the prisoner. Therefore I called Hemmes who was the sergeant of the guard. In this connection Hahn told us that the policeman was supposed to shoot this prisoner and that they were not doing it. As we were having this conversation Jay came in or else he was standing under the doorway. I don't know exactly how it happened. He said, "What is the matter?" I told him that they had a prisoner and they were to take him to the air raid shelter, and that the policeman had this prisoner and had orders to shoot him, but they were not doing it and so Jay said, "I will

(Mr. Langendorf)

(Thereupon the court reconvened at 1530 hours.)

PRESIDENT: The court will come to order.

DR. SEIDL: May it please the court, let the record show that all the members of the court are present, all the members of the prosecution, all the members of the defense except Dr. Trost, who is absent sick, all of the accused except the accused Trummler, number two who is temporarily absent in conference with defense counsel, the reporter and the interpreter are present.

MR. MACHAEL: At the close of the session I believe the defendant Mahrgang was on the stand.

PRESIDENT: You are reminded that you are still under oath.

PAUL MAHRGANG, an accused, being reminded that he was still under oath, resumed the stand and testified further through an interpreter in his own behalf as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION, continued

QUESTIONS BY DR. AHRENS:

Q Mr. Mahrgang, on the 22nd of February, how did you find out that a prisoner was being taken to Bierbrauer Weg?

A In the later evening hours of this 22nd day of February, during an air raid, a sergeant of the Protective Police appeared and a guard of our quarters. This sergeant said that he was trying to get cover from the shrapnel. I said that I was not the sergeant of the guard and that I could not do anything for the prisoner. Therefore I called Hammam who was the sergeant of the guard. In this conversation Zahn told me that the policeman was supposed to shoot this prisoner and that they were not doing it. As we were having this conversation Fay came in or else he was standing under the doorway. I don't know exactly how it happened. He said, "What is the matter?" I told him that they had a prisoner and they wanted to get him in the air raid shelter, and that the policeman had this prisoner and had orders to shoot him, but they were not doing it and so Fay said, "I will be going over to see what the matter is. I didn't see any prisoner nor did I see Unger. All I saw was Fay and the policeman. All of a sudden I heard Fay and the policeman say, "Hey, oh!" and they said, "He is taking off towards the police." Did Fay leave the station in the yard towards the Bahnhofstrasse and

A A short time after this Fay went out at the gangway. It seemed

Q Did you go out then? said the

A How far did you get on your way back?

Q What did you do? What did you see when the dead man was lying.

A I picked up my coat and put on my boots. I wanted to go out too, to see what was going on and a short time afterwards I heard calls, "Halt! Halt! Halt!" and a short time after that a shot, and started running in the direction that he ought to take care of it, and we actually did call Hausmann, but from that direction came that way and he didn't always get up right away when a shot was in the direction of this waiting room.

Q By that do you mean the waiting room described as Head Sketch on prosecution exhibit 1577 in?

A Yes.

Q What happened there? differently. Did you see Hausmann when you left? A After a while I heard one of the policemen say, "He hit me on the chest," or "He pushed me on the chest.", so I, of course, moved over to the left to the thing there. They were saying that he had run away across the entrance. I and Unger is the only one who could have been there.

Q Who said that? You went over to the spot where the dead flyer was lying? A I don't know whether Fay or the policeman said that anymore.

Q Who did you see when you approached the vicinity of this wooden waiting room? Did you see Hausmann at all later on that evening?

A I couldn't determine who these men were exactly because they only appeared as dark shadows. The only way I had of recognizing were their voices. All I heard was Fay calling that he took off over the stairway.

Q What did you do then?

(Mahrgang-direct)

A I went over to the left and looked down over this yard in the direction of the air-raid shelter because I heard another shot there had [illegible] I asked "What is going on?" and they said, "He is taking off towards the hollow path." So I went through the yard towards the Bierbrauer Weg and [illegible] there all I heard was Hammann fired at this [illegible]. It seemed to me as if the guard-dog-er said that.

Q How far did you get on your way back? went off.

A I went up to the spot where the dead man was lying.

Q Had you seen Hammann before that? do with the body. It was on the side. A I had not seen Hammann before that nor had I talked to him. All I had done was to tell the guard Zahn that Hammann is the sergeant of the guard and that he ought to take care of [illegible] but Hammann was a clever sort of a guy and he didn't always get his right away when you called him around once.

Q What you just applied to the beginning of the incident when Zahn and the guard [illegible] differ.

A Does [illegible] any part in taking the body back?

Q My question was meant differently. Did you see Hammann when you left the wood shack and went towards Bierbrauer Weg and back down Bierbrauer Weg? A The body was carried by myself, [illegible] my statement I said that No, I didn't see Hammann and I have said that I found this out back through the guard-dog-er is the only one who could have been there. I'll probably [illegible] said that you went over to the spot where the dead flyer was lying. Did you see Hammann at that time? [illegible]

A I did not see Hammann [illegible] today.

Q When did you see Hammann at all later on that evening?

A I saw Hammann in the quarters after the incident that evening.

Q You didn't see him at all on the way from the shelter to the place where the dead man was lying and then on the way back?

(Fahrgang-direct)

A No.

Q When you came to the spot where the dead man was lying, what did you observe?

A I observed several of our men in the place where the dead man was lying, Gunther and one other policeman whose name I didn't know.

Q Did you look at the body?

A It was dark. That moment another shot went off.

Q Where did that shot come from?

A That shot didn't have anything to do with the body. It was on the side.

Q How far away?

A That was in the immediate vicinity--four or five or six meters.

Q Didn't you get interested in where this shot was coming from?

A I turned around once.

Q Did you see anything?

A I saw nothing whatever.

Q Did you take any part in taking the body back?

A Yes.

Q Who carried the body back?

A The body was carried by myself, Gunther and Fay. In my statement I said that Hammann carried it, the body, back but I want to take this back at this point because I assumed that Hammann did the firing so he will probably carry the body back too.

Q Did you carry the body all the way back to the Police Station?

A Well I can't say exactly today.

Q Where was the body put down?

A The body was laid down in a garden next to a tree.

Q Did you have a look at the body at that time?

A No. There was an officer there from the protective police whom
A No.
I did not know either. He told us to take the identification tag with us.
Q You know exactly what happened and can remember it can you?
I looked through all his pockets and didn't find them and opened his jacket
A Well, I don't remember exactly. It has been ten years. and whatever he was wearing and didn't find it around his neck either. Later
As a matter of fact Hamann did help carry the body to the place on a Master Sergeant of the police brought a jacket and we went through it there it was that broke up and put it in the garden, didn't he?
all the way and we did find the identification tag in there.
No, Hamann didn't come along.
Q Was any sort of a report made to your superior headquarters on that Q Why did you put that in your statement? matter?
A I wrote that in there because in that interrogation at Offenbach
A I wasn't the superior that evening Hamman was the superior. He was all these things were put into my mouth. I was told that Hamman carried the sergeant of the guard.
the body back.
Q I didn't ask whether a report was made to you. I asked you whether Q That was before you heard Hamann testify to that is that right?
a report was made to your higher headquarters?
A What was that question?
A Yes, the report was made right away by telephone by Master Sergeant
You made that statement unless you had an opportunity to hear Hamann Tart of the Fire Police. testify?
Q Was the written report also made?
A No, I didn't.
A No. I don't know.
Q How you remembered that being wrong and said you wanted to correct
Q Didn't you have anything to do with that matter?
it. What about the rest of that statement?
A No.
A In Offenbach I was told that after all Hamann did carry back the Q Did you find out anything about superior orders concerning the body didn't he. I said, "No" so they said, "Why sure Hamann did carry back treatment of enemy flyers?
the body."
A I never heard of any such orders.
Q I am not talking about Offenbach, I am talking about a statement you
When you came to the spot where the body was lying how was the body made here in Dachau.
lying on its back or its belly?
A I didn't make any statement at all in Dachau. In Dachau all I got A I really wouldn't be able to say today even if I had to.
was a gadget submitted to me and I was supposed to sign it the day we were
MR. RACHAEL: Your witness. served the charges.

CROSS EXAMINATION

Q That gadget that was handed you was read by you was corrected in at
QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:
least three places and initialed by you was it not?
Q Mahrgang, you are a little bit confused about what happened out
Yes, I did.
there on that night aren't you?
(Mahrgang-cross)

(Interpreter)

1015

A [illegible] I did.

Q [illegible] that you were assisted by you was in no way

[illegible] and [illegible] that you were assisted by you and

[illegible] Q [illegible] that you were assisted by you and I was supposed to sit up to the day we were

[illegible] Q I'll [illegible] Dachau. In Dachau all I got

[illegible] A [illegible] Dachau, [illegible] way afterward, as I was supposed to sit up to the day we were

[illegible] Q I'm not talking about [illegible] I'm talking about your

[illegible] Q I'm not talking about [illegible] I'm talking about your

[illegible] A [illegible] Dachau, [illegible] way afterward, as I was supposed to sit up to the day we were

[illegible] Q I'll [illegible] Dachau. In Dachau all I got [illegible] A [illegible] I did.

[illegible] Q [illegible] that you were assisted by you was in no way

[illegible] and [illegible] that you were assisted by you and

(Interpreter)

1015

A [illegible] I did.

Q [illegible] that you were assisted by you was in no way

[illegible] and [illegible] that you were assisted by you and

[illegible] Q [illegible] that you were assisted by you and I was supposed to sit up to the day we were

[illegible] Q I'll [illegible] Dachau. In Dachau all I got

[illegible] A [illegible] Dachau, [illegible] way afterward, as I was supposed to sit up to the day we were

[illegible] Q I'm not talking about [illegible] I'm talking about your

[illegible] Q I'm not talking about [illegible] I'm talking about your

[illegible] A [illegible] Dachau, [illegible] way afterward, as I was supposed to sit up to the day we were

[illegible] Q I'll [illegible] Dachau. In Dachau all I got [illegible] A [illegible] I did.

[illegible] Q [illegible] that you were assisted by you was in no way

[illegible] and [illegible] that you were assisted by you and

A No.

Q You knew exactly what happened and can remember it can you?

A Well, I don't remember exactly. It has been two years.

Q As a matter of fact Hammann did help carry the body to the place where he was shot back up and put it in the garden, didn't he?

A No, Hammann didn't come along.

Q Why did you put that in your statement?

A I wrote that in there because in that interrogation at Offenbach all these things were put into my mouth. I was told that Hammann carried the body back.

Q That was before you heard Hammann testify to that is that right?

A What was that question?

Q You made that answer before you had an opportunity to hear Hammann

Fay: "All right," said, "I am going out and see what is the matter."

Did I thought this was sort of a charge sheet. I had never been before a court before in my life and I was sort of astounded when I read it.

Q Let us see if you can answer my questions now. When did you first know that they had an American flyer there? Did you say something or not when he said, "I only found that out when he was dead." Answer it in any way you want to.

Q Didn't Zahn come to you and say, "We have a flyer in custody and we need some help," say something to you, and what did you say or did something to him. A That wasn't Zahn who said that. That was a policeman who asked for protection. (The witness read the question.)

Q (The witness Zahn's reporter read the last question as directed.)

A That was a man from the air raid police.

Q Do you remember putting that in your statement, "All right," said, "I am going out and see what is the matter." after he heard about a flyer being there?

Q After you found out about the flyer then you went to Hammann and told him about the flyer being there didn't you?

A I testified before the court already today that I didn't talk to Hammann that evening, so I have.

Q A You have answer my question. Did you or did you not tell Hammann that there was a flyer there? Say about it but you only you told Hammann is that right? DEFENSE COUNSEL: I pray the court's judgement.

A PRESIDENT: The objection overruled. Answer yes or no.

THE WITNESS: I do not know whether you did or did not, don't you?

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANOS:

Q Then Fay came in and you turned around and told him about it and Fay said, "I am going out and see what is going on.", is that right?

A I think that was curiosity on the part of Fay.

Q I didn't ask you about that. I asked you if you told Fay there was a flyer there and he said, "I am going out and see what is the matter." Then Did he say that or not? [illegible] A. He said, "I didn't say that."

(Redirect-cross)

CAPTAIN VANCE: If it please the court, I think this witness can understand my questions. I asked him if Fay said something or not and he said, "I didn't say it." He can answer my questions if he wants to.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I am not so sure but I think the question was whether he didn't say something to Fay, not whether Fay said something to him.

PRESIDENT: Read the question.

(Thereupon the reporter read the last question as directed.)

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q Did Fay tell you, "I am going out and see what is the matter." after he heard about a flyer being there?

A Well I was still waiting for Fay's answer.

Q Did he tell you that?

A He said, "I will be going out to see what is the matter."

Q Then did he leave?

A Fay went out. I didn't see him anymore after that.

Q You admit you told Fay about it but you deny you told Hammann is that right?

A I don't know whether I told Fay or not.

Q Well you either know whether you did or did not, don't you?

A I don't remember that I told Fay anything that evening.

Q You put in your statement that you told both of them, didn't you?

A I didn't put in that I said anything to Hammann. All I said was I called Hammann because he was a sergeant of the guard. Hammann didn't show up.

Q I think I am going to let you read your statement which is written in German and signed by you, and which is prosecutions exhibit 134. When you finish reading it let me know.

[illegible] have you read your statement

THE PRESIDENT: We will recess in place while he is reading.

(Thereupon the court recessed in place.)

[illegible]

Q On [illegible] I told Englert [illegible] exactly [illegible] and I said no that I was [illegible] yesterday, and I will now [illegible] exactly right. In other [illegible] that is not [illegible] and I have my name below it.

Now, what portion [illegible] is that the people who [illegible] within, at the [illegible] to [illegible] this article [illegible]?

A Yes.

Q I want you to [illegible] about [illegible] statement.

A At the first place, I didn't notify Kaufmann. I merely called Hamann. Nor did I to [illegible] there were an American prisoner there, nor [illegible] I was [illegible] away from there the shots were fired. That was not in his presence. When the first [illegible] were fired, I was thirty yards away from it, [illegible] my position to that point. That is what I said in my [illegible].

Q Did you read that statement [illegible], all of it and swore to it?

A Yes, but I did object to it, and [illegible] these words were [illegible].

Did you not, however, [illegible] it [illegible] identifying and initial [illegible] my statement?

Q Yes, I did.

Q You did, [illegible]?

A Yes. There is a [illegible] here which I had to [illegible].

Q [illegible]

1000

A Yes. [illegible] here.

Q You were [illegible] the first [illegible] prisoner [illegible]

PRESIDENT: Court will come to order.

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q Now, during the recess, Nahrgang, have you read your statement over thoroughly?

A Yes.

Q Does it refresh your memory any?

A On the 17th of December, I told Captain Ehlgut that this matter wasn't exactly right, and he told me that those were excerpts from my testimony, so I told him those weren't exactly right. He said that wouldn't be so bad, that is not dangerous, so I put my name below it.

Q Now, this Captain Ehlgut you refer to -- is that the young man who has been sitting at the prosecution table during this entire trial?

A Yes.

Q I want you to tell the court what is wrong about that statement.

A In the first place, I didn't notify Hamann. I merely called Hamann. Nor did I tell Hamann that there was an American prisoner there, and that I was five meters away from where the shots were fired. That was out in the garden. When the first shots were fired, I was thirty yards away from it, from my shelter to that point. That is what it should say here.

Q Did you read that statement before you signed it and swore to it?

A Yes, but I did object to it, and I was told that those were excerpts.

Q Did you make certain corrections in it in your own handwriting and initial those corrections?

A Yes, I did.

Q How many places?

A Two. There is a whole thing here which I had to change.

Q Two or three?

A Two. Three here.

Q You knew that the flier was going to be executed, didn't you?

(NAHRGANG-Cross)

A No.

Q Weren't you told that by the two policemen that brought him there?

A I didn't see any two policemen. I only saw one policeman call this corporal at our place. These two were in our place without the prisoner.

Q Exactly what did they tell you?

A The policeman was telling me that he was looking for cover from the shrapnel. Zahn just on the side sort of told me that the two policemen were to bump that flier off but they didn't do it. The policeman didn't say a word about such matters like shooting or anything.

Q Zahn told you about it instead of the policeman, is that right?

A He just about whispered it in my ear. I didn't take the matter seriously. I didn't ask you anything about it at all. [illegible]

Q What did you think he meant by "be bumped off?" That is not a serious matter to you? [illegible] question was ruled by the court reporter.)

DEFENSE COUNSEL: That is a double question. I object to it, may it please the court.

THE WITNESS: They were looking for cover from the air raid alarm.

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE: [illegible] remark next [illegible] at that time.

Q Do you consider killing a man a serious matter? [illegible]. They

A There was no intention of killing a man in our place, nor did we ever do that. I didn't [illegible] are.

Q Did you consider killing a human being a serious matter?

A There was no intention of killing a human being. There was no

Q Can you answer my question? [illegible] about this question

A We weren't authorized to kill a person. [illegible] the Q I didn't ask you that. Do you know what I asked you?

A We had no intention of doing any harm to any person, or killing him or mistreat him. We didn't know about it. [illegible] was mentioning

Q Do you remember the question that I asked you? [illegible] did

A Whether killing a person would be a serious matter?

Q Answer it. [illegible]

MR. BACHAUS: Just a moment, if the court please. There is no evidence to the effect that this witness had anything to do with a killing of a man, and the question put to this witness is hypothetical and calls for an opinion. [illegible]

PRESIDENT: The objection is overruled. The witness will answer the question. [illegible]

THE WITNESS: Of course, it is a serious matter to kill a person.

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE: [illegible]

Q Did you consider it a serious matter to kill an American? [illegible]

A You don't do that kind of thing five minutes before twelve. [illegible]

Q I didn't ask you anything about 12 o'clock.

PRESIDENT: Repeat the question. [illegible]

(Whereupon the last question was read by the court reporter.) [illegible]

PRESIDENT: The witness will answer.

THE WITNESS: Yes. [illegible]

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE: [illegible]

Q Why didn't you take that remark seriously at that time?

A They didn't come over to us asking us to kill that man. They were looking for protection. What they wanted to do was to take the man some other place. I didn't ask them where.

Q Why did you direct Fay to take any part in it?

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I pray the court's judgment. There was no testimony that he did, and I want to protest again about this practice of putting into the witness' mouth things he never by any stretch of the imagination said. I don't think it is proper cross examination. [illegible]

PRESIDENT: Objection sustained. [illegible]

CAPTAIN VANCE: May it please the court, this is cross examination of the accused. I have a right to ask him what I want to. He can deny it if he didn't do it. I ask the court to reconsider its ruling.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Those are not proper questions, just that there was PRESIDENT: The court has ruled.

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN ZANGE: [illegible] not there. He arrived about 7am being there Q. Do you know why Fay went out and took charge of this prisoner

A. As far as I found out later on, the prisoner was still in the hands of the protective police at this time. I think all Fay did was go out there out of curiosity and go after him. I gave him no order to go out, nor did I tell him to participate in the matter. The only reason he could have gone out there was because of his curiosity, because he wanted to have a look at the man. If I had seen the prisoner -- but I didn't see the prisoner. The prisoner was still out in the street while the guards and the policemen were at my place. I never did see one that night.

Q At that time, were you Fay's superior?

A I was a Technical Sgt. of the Fire Police, and Fay was in the other fire extinguishing platoon.

Q Who held the highest rank, you or Fay?

A There is regular in the Fire Police and Fay was in the Air Raid Police.

Q Who held the highest rank, you or Fay?

A I didn't help bring the body from on the Herbrumer Weg up into the -- Q. Then Fay didn't even know there was a flier out there until you went in and told him, did he? A. Herr Weg, yes, I carried him on in.

Q Fay, nobody knows in the courtroom

Q Fay was asleep in his bed until you woke him up and told him, wasn't he? Do you know a Johann Zang? Do you know him?

A I would like to put one thing ahead of this. Always when there was an air raid alarm and somebody was sleeping in those beds, I did as I was supposed to. As Sergeant of the guard, it was his duty to do that. I went along and woke up everybody. So it might have been that same evening that I woke up Fay. I admit that easily, but it was not for that purpose.

Q Yes.

(NAHRGANG-Cross)

(NAHRGANG-Cross)

Q: But you did have some discussion with him about the fact that there was a flier there?

A: That there was a prisoner out there. He asked about Zahn being there and what the matter was, and I explained it to him briefly. He said he would be going out to see what the matter is. That was all he said.

Q: How long after Fay left was it that you heard some pistol shots?

A: That was only a matter of seconds.

Q: Was Fay on guard duty that night?

A: I can't say that any more.

Q: Where was the first time you saw the American flier?

A: I never saw any American prisoner.

Q: You never did see one that night?

A: Only after he was dead I saw him.

Q: You didn't see a prisoner, but you saw the corpse of one, is that what you mean?

A: Yes, the corpse.

Q: Mahrgang, you know you saw that flier before he was dead, don't you?

A: No, I didn't see him.

Q: Did you help bring the body from the Blockwarter Weg up into the garden?

A: From the Blockwarter Weg, yes, I carried him on in.

Q: You laid him down in the garden?

A: Yes.

Q: Do you know a Johann Zahn? Do you know him?

A: Yes.

Q: You know that after the flier was laid down on the ground in the yard that he was still groaning and that you kicked him in the face and broke his right cheek bone, don't you?

A: I was supposed to have kicked the flier in the garden?

Q: Yes.

(MAHRGANG-Cross)

A MR. MACHAN: If the court please, I object to this line of cross-examination as to what you kicked him?

Q I didn't kick anybody. I have enough piety for that and after three years of praying I am ashamed not to kick a body. I certainly wouldn't do that.

Thereupon the last question was read by the court reporter as follows:

"Q Nahrgang, you told Fay to take the flier up in the neighborhood of the steps and fire some shots so he would run, didn't you?"

Q Who kicked him?

A He wasn't kicked at all.

Objection overruled.

Q Did you hear the doctor's autopsy report on this body that was read into evidence?

A Yes.

Q You told Hammann to go down on the Bierbrauer flag and wait for the flier to show himself and shoot him down in case of, didn't you?

A I didn't do anything to anybody. I certainly wouldn't. I have enough religion for that.

Objection overruled.

Q If the witness Zang says you did it, he will be lying, will he?

A Zang wasn't in our quarters. He was never in our place. These are rumors.

That is the way it happened, wasn't it, whether you told them or not?

Q How many ways were there of getting out of this yard which surrounded your headquarters?

I didn't make any agreement with Hammann, nor did I with Fay, he will say.

A There is the front entrance, B; E, the gate that was locked and the owner had the key.

You were Sergeant of the guard, were you?

Q There were just two ways to get out of that yard, were there?

I wasn't Sergeant of the guard. Hammann was the Sergeant of the guard.

A Out there where it says, "house," there was a house there which was still under construction, and it had received a direct hit by a bomb. You could get out towards the wood that way.

All I had to do according to was to be in charge of these construction men and to supervise the people who were working there. Later that Dy, Trumpler, accused No. 2, has resumed his seat in the box.

CAPTAIN VANCE: May it please the court, let the record show the sister of them.

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q Nahrgang, you told Fay to take the flier up in the neighborhood of the steps and to fire some shots so he would run, didn't you?

I don't know why that explained to you that they had the

(HAHRGANG-Cross)

MR. RACHAEL: If the court please, I object to that line of cross examination. There is absolutely no testimony in the record to that effect.

PRESIDENT: Repeat the question.

(Whereupon the last question was read by the court reporter as follows:
"Q Nahrgang, you told Fay to take the flier up in the neighborhood of the steps and fire some shots so he would run, didn't you?")

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

THE WITNESS: No.

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q You told Hammann to go down on the Bierbrauer Weg and wait for the flier to come along and shoot him when he came by, didn't you?

MR. RACHAEL: Same objection.

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

THE WITNESS: No.

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q That is the way it happened, wasn't it, whether you told them or not?

A I didn't make any agreement with Hammann, nor did I with Fay, to kill anybody.

Q You were sergeant of the guard, were you?

A I wasn't sergeant of the guard. Hammann was the sergeant of the guard.

Q What were your duties at night?

A All I had to do actually was to be in charge of these construction sites up there and to supervise the people who were working there. Master Sergeant of the Fire Police actually was the superior of them.

Q Do you know why they first explained it to you that they had the flier?

A He was looking for the superior there, and I said, "Well, I am not the sergeant of the guard," and I called Hammann and Hammann got up. I called Hammann, but Hammann didn't get up. He didn't get there.

Q Which was it? Did he get up or didn't he get up?

A No, he didn't get up.

Q How do you know? Did you go in his room?

A No. I went to get my coat and put on my boots, and as I went outside the door, I heard, "Halt, halt," and I also saw some vague shadows in the back and then the shot was fired.

Q What was the approximate length of time from the time you told Fay there was a flier there until the time the flier was killed?

A I didn't say anything to Fay.

Q You didn't?

A I didn't tell Fay anything. I didn't give him any order, either. He just said on his own, "I will be going out there to see what is the matter."

Q How did Fay lie in his bed asleep even though there was a flier out there?

A I might have woke him up at the time when the air raid alarm started, but in this case, I did not call Fay.

Q You don't remember what you have just finished testifying at all, do you?

A Yes, I remember.

Q You can't remember telling the court five minutes ago that you did talk to Fay, can you?

A Fay was inside and he asked, "What is the matter?" and I told him in a low tone of voice. I didn't tell him to get out.

Q Now, did you see Hammann take the leather vest off the flier?

MR. RACHAEL: The defense objects, moves that the answer be stricken out, objects to the question on the ground there is no such testimony.

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

(Hammann-Cross)

Ta 250-pp-80-3/3-9

THE WITNESS: No.

CAPTAIN VANCE: Nothing further.

REDIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY MR. BACHAEL:

Q Mr. Mahrgang, you read Prosecution Exhibit P-134 which you signed on December 14, 1956, did you not?

A Yes.

Q Will you tell the court the circumstances under which you signed that statement?

A We had been here a short time before that to have our pictures taken and we were told that within the next few days we would receive our charge sheet. All the men here were sitting in the waiting room expecting for things to start happening. Shortly before 12 o'clock, I was called into a room. Captain Mahlgut was standing in front of me and said, "I will be swearing you in," and that is what he did. And then he said, "Read over this one time," and I said, "This whole thing isn't right." I was a bit shaken that day, I was rather nervous when I read over it, and I said, "All this isn't right," and he said, "Well, those are excerpts from your testimony." So I thought to myself, "Is that supposed to be the charge sheet, perhaps?" I had never seen any such thing as a charge sheet before, so I signed it. That was the whole thing that I signed.

End ta 250
cc fols

Q Were you interrogated?

A No, never here in Dachau.

Q No questions were ever put to you and you never made any answers?

A No.

Q You say you were sworn in just before 12:00 o'clock — what time did you sign the statement?

A That was 12:00 o'clock.

Q What time were you served with the charge sheet?

A Might have been 12:15.

Q So you were sworn in five minutes to 12:00, you signed the paper and a quarter after 12:00 you were served?

A Yes, just about that time.

MR. RACHAEL: No further questions.

EXAMINATION BY THE COURT

QUESTIONS BY LAW MEMBER:

Q Why did you put on your coat and boots that night after the policeman reported there?

A I had been feeling slightly sick that evening and I had taken my boots off and laid out on a couch and when Fay went out to see what was going on I wanted to see too.

Q When Zahn came and spoke to you about the flyer and the policeman, did he whisper the entire conversation?

A Zahn really whispered in my ear, only the policeman I don't think knew what was being said. There was no prisoner there.

Q Did Zahn whisper everything he said to you?

A Zahn was whispering in my ear and the policeman said they were looking for cover.

Q Just what did Zahn say to you?

A The first thing that happened is that the policeman told me they were looking for cover from the shrapnel and as he was walking by me, whispered in my ear they are going to shoot him and they are not supposed to do it. All these things were happening so fast, I don't know, because I had orders from my chief not to get mixed up in the business of the protective police.

Q Did he specify the kind of business?

A All things in general, anything that came up, he wanted to know about it.

Q Now, again, I want to get this clear. Zahn and the policeman came into the guardhouse, is that right?

A They were in front of the guardroom under the doorway and they were asking for the sergeant of the guard.

Q Now, when he asked for the sergeant of the guard, did he speak in a normal tone?

A The policeman?

Q Yes.

A The policeman — I really couldn't get much out of the policeman at all, as a matter of fact the man was shaking.

Q I thought someone — which one asked for shelter, Zahn or the policeman?

A The policeman.

Q Did he whisper that in a normal tone of voice?

A In a normal tone of voice.

Q Then when Zahn spoke to you did he tell you they were supposed to shoot the flyer?

A Zahn didn't say at all we were supposed to bump off or kill the flyer, all he said was the policeman was going to do it, and —

Q I'll ask the question again. When Zahn told you that the policeman had a flyer out there that the policeman was supposed to shoot or bump off, did Zahn whisper that to you quietly?

A Yes, that was in a whispering tone of voice.

Q Was there any other conversation that was whispered?

A No. [illegible] court will come to order.

Q Did you know of any reason why Zahn would whisper that part of the conversation? [illegible] (Cont'd).

A I don't know. Mr. Michel's [illegible] with reference to the Q Now, I believe in the direct testimony you said you told Fay something in a low tone of voice. What was that you told Fay in a low tone of voice? [illegible], but during the air raid [illegible]

A I was a little bit curious and said "What is the matter," and he said, "They are looking for protection, for cover," and then he said something else and then I said in a low tone of voice, in a quiet tone, "They are supposed to bump him off," and Fay said, "Who gave the order to do that," and I shrugged my shoulders. That was all there was to that conversation. [illegible]

Q Was there any reason why that would be whispered in a low tone of voice? [illegible] after go through the vehicle [illegible]

A I don't know, the prisoner wasn't there, the only man who was there was Zahn and the policeman. I wouldn't know of any reason, [illegible]

Q When Zahn whispered that to you, did you take it seriously or did you not take it seriously? [illegible] whether Zahn was just

A No. [illegible]

Q No what? [illegible] any instructions of your [illegible]

A I did not take that matter seriously or believe that the man was actually going to be shot.

Q Why did you not take that seriously?

A Because we don't know of any such orders or any such thing [illegible] that a prisoner would be shot.

LAW MEMBER: No further questions.

[illegible] 1868

PRESIDENT: Court will recess in place.

(Whereupon the court recessed in place.)

PRESIDENT: Court will come to order.

EXAMINATION BY THE COURT

QUESTIONS BY LAW MEMBER (Cont'd):

Q Where was Mr. Eichel's headquarters with reference to the guardhouse?

A Police headquarters were located in the machine gun caserne Bierbrauer Strasse, but during the air raid alarm it would be in the SP shelter in Bierbrauer, only after 1944.

Q How far was it in meters to your guardhouse?

A It was about forty or forty-five meters. You had to go down this stairway, this thing here.

Q How did the police director go to his shelter? Did he go through the garden, through the gate marked "B"?

A The police director would frequently go through the garden, on the other hand he would often go through the vehicle road, I don't think he used the staircase at night.

Q When he went through the garden, he passed near your guardhouse, is that correct?

A I didn't often see the police director when he went along because I would be in the SP shelter.

Q Did the police director make any inspections of your guardhouse?

A No.

RECROSS EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q When you were talking to Zahn and the two policemen, Schneider and Michel, you said the flyer was not present?

MR. RACHAEL: Just a moment. The defense objects. There is no such testimony by the witness.

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

A The flyer wasn't present, that's right. I talked to them.

Q Now, who was guarding the flyer at that time?

A I don't know.

Q It couldn't be the two policemen who brought him there and it couldn't be Zahn?

A I don't know, I didn't see the flyer come in.

Q You know none of these three people were guarding him, then?

A There was only Zahn and the policeman.

Q Only one? One or two?

A Only one.

Q The court asked you a question -- did Zahn whisper, "They are going to shoot the flyer?" and you answered "But they will not shoot him, they will take him home." What do you mean by that?

A That was what Zahn told me and the policeman told me they were looking for owner.

Q What do you mean by "home"?

A MR. RACHAEL: Just a minute. The defense objects.

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

A Where they had come from.

Q And that is what you called the flyer's home -- where they came from?

MR. RACHAEL: The defense objects. The witness has not testified to anything of that sort.

PRESIDENT: Objection sustained. No further questions by the court. The witness will take his place in the balcony.

(Hahrgang - Recess)

(Whereupon the accused was excused and resumed his seat in the dock.)

PRESIDENT: The court will adjourn until 0900 tomorrow morning.

(Whereupon the court adjourned until 0900 hours, 4 March 1947.)

Legal Form No. 8

MILITARY GOVERNMENT COURT
MILITÄRGERICHT

CHARGE SHEET
ANKLAGESCHRIFT

Place .....
Ort

Date .....
Datum

Name of accused .....
Name des Angeklagten

is hereby charged with the following offences:
wird hiermit wegen der folgenden strafbaren Handlungen angeklagt:

First Charge: ..... Erste Anklage: .....

.....

.....

.....

Particulars: ..... Einzelheiten: .....

.....

.....

.....

Second Charge: ..... Zweite Anklage: .....

.....

.....

.....

Particulars: ..... Einzelheiten: .....

.....

.....

.....

.....

The above charges are referred for trial to the *Summary *Intermediate Military Court to be held *General

Die Verhandlung wird vor dem *Einfachen *Mittleren Militärgerichte *Oberen

at ..... on ..... 194.....
in (Address of Court) am
(Anschrift des Gerichtes)

at .....
um Uhr stattfinden. By Order
Im Auftrage von

.....

*Strike out words not applicable.
*Nichtzutreffendes ist durchzustreichen.

(Signature of person preferring charges)
(Unterschrift des Vertreters der Anklagebehörde)

Copy of above served on accused ..... 194.....
Abschrift dem Angeklagten zugestellt am

.....

(Signature of person making service)
(Unterschrift des Zustellers)

CA/GI 13 Legal Form No. 8

court (27)

MILITARY GOVERNMENT COURT

CASE RECORD.

Pages 1872 - 1962

Case No. Superior Orders

~~*Summary~~
~~*Intermediate~~ Military Court.
*General

Place DACHAU, GERMANY

Date 4 MARCH 194 7

Prosecutor Lt. Col. Dwinell

Defence Counsel Lt. Col. Berman
Rudolf M. Nathanson

Interpreter Herbert E. Rosenstock

Reporter Patricia Stewart, Irving Hayett, Sally Rose Hayett, Peter DiCurti, Evelyn Cohen

~~Members of Court~~

WITNESSES:

HANS EICHEL	JOSEF KIWITT	WILHELM HOEHLER
LUDWIG GRUENHETT	JULIUS LASSAK	JURGEN STROOP
ROSEL SCHWAB	HEINRICH MICHELY
PETER BRAUWEILER	ERWIN GOSS
MIA BRAUWEILER	GEORG BEST

Accused JURGEN STROOP, et al

Address Sex Age

	First Charge	Second Charge
Pleas
Findings
Previous Convictions

Sentence
- Imprisonment
  - Term
  - Beginning 194
- Fine
  - Amount
  - To be paid before 194
  - or in case of default of payment to serve a *further term of imprisonment.

Charge Sheet and Record of Testimony are annexed hereto.

(Signature of member of court.)

REVIEW

Action of Reviewing Authority

(Signature of reviewing authority)

*Strike out words not applicable.

RECORD OF TESTIMONY

in trial of

THE UNITED STATES versus JURGEN STROOP, et al

by

GENERAL MILITARY GOVERNMENT COURT

tried at

DACHAU, GERMANY Beginning 10 JANUARY 1947

4 MARCH 1947 Pages 1871 - 1962

TESTIMONY

WITNESSES	DIRECT	CROSS	REDIRECT	RECROSS	COURT
Hans Eichel (recalled)			1873	1878	1889
Ludwig Gruenheit	1889	1892	1896	1897	1897
Resel Schwab (recalled)			1898	1899
Peter Brauweiler	1901	1902
Mia Brauweiler	1904	1906
Josef Kiwitt (recalled)			1906 1918	1910	1918
Julius Lassak			1922
Heinrich Matthias Michely			1923	1924
Erwin Goss			1924	1930
Georg Best			1932	1934
Wilhelm Hoehler			1935 1942	1935
Jurgen Stroop			1946

EXHIBITS

NUMBER	DESCRIPTION	MARKED	RECEIVED IN EVIDENCE
P-146	Statement of Wilhelm Hoehler	1937	1937
P-146A	English Translation of P-146	1937	1937

CAMP DACHAU, GERMANY

4 MARCH 1947

MORNING SESSION

(Whereupon court reconvened at 0900 hours.)

PRESIDENT: Court will come to order.

PROSECUTION: Before announcing those present, prosecution desires to ask the defense whether Dr. Trost will be marked absent continually or whether there has been a clarification with respect to her present status.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: As far as the defense knows, the situation remains unchanged. Perhaps I should have called the doctor, but I will put in a call sometime during the course of the day. In the meantime, I ask the situation be continued.

PROSECUTION: Let the record show that all the members of the court, all the members of the prosecution, all the members of the defense except Dr. Trost, who is absent sick, all the accused, the reporter and interpreter are present.

MR. PACHTER: The defense will call as its next witness the defendant Eichel.

HANS EICHEL, an accused, having been previously duly sworn, voluntarily resumed the stand in his own behalf and testified further through an interpreter as follows:

MR. PACHTER: Direct examination will be conducted by Dr. Becker.

PRESIDENT: You are reminded you are still under oath.

ACCUSED EICHEL: Yes.

REDIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS by DR. WACKER:

Q Mr. Michel, are you the accused number 6 who has testified here before?

A Yes.

Q Mr. Michel, when I will ask you about the flier, I will always be talking about the flier that was shot at Bierbrauer Weg. When did you first find out this flier had been captured?

A When he was dead.

Q Yesterday and Friday last week did you hear the testimony of the two policemen, Michel and Schneider?

A Yes.

Q Did you have anything to do with the orders which these policemen received?

A No.

Q Did you in fact give no orders at all to these policemen?

A No.

Q Regarding the treatment of captured fliers, did you issue any order of a general nature to your subordinates?

A No.

Q Mr. Michel, where were you on the evening of 22 February 1945?

A In my command post on Bierbrauer Weg.

Q When did you go to that command post?

A After the preliminary alarm started I went there at eight P.M.

Q Where were you coming from?

A From the caserne.

Q How long had you been in this caserne before that?

A Beginning about seven o'clock.

Q In this caserne had you received any reports or information concerning that flier?

A No.

Q At that time when you entered that shelter at about seven o'clock, did you then have no identity at all about this flier?

A No.

Q Will you please tell us how your attention was drawn to that incident which later happened?

A I was in my command post at Bierbrauer Weg and about eight o'clock a policeman rushed into the door.

Q Who was this sergeant?

A A certain Adam.

Q What was his rank?

A I don't know whether he was a police technical or staff sergeant. At any rate, he was a reservist.

Q Who else was in this air raid shelter with you?

A There was one Mr. Rupp, my deputy government counselor Grunhardt, the director Brauweiler and his wife, my secretary, one Mrs. Blum with her son. That just about covers it.

Q What did this policeman Adam say?

A Adam rushed into the door and shouted "parachutist."

Q Did he say anything else?

A No.

Q What did you do?

A At the same time several shots were fired too.

Q What did you do upon that?

A At the same time several shots were fired and you could hear a wild chase going on down that stairway starting at the point "E" and running down to the command post.

(Lichel-Redirect)

Q Do you mean point "C" on Prosecution Exhibit Number 127?

A Yes.

Q Continue please.

Q You could clearly hear a wild chase going on down the stairway.

Q What did you do upon that, Mr. Richel?

A Now, after these shots were being fired and this sergeant yelled "parachutist" I, as the local chief of the air raid protection, couldn't well stay in the shelter.

Q What did you do, Mr. Richel?

A I jumped on out and as I came to the exit of my command post another shot was fired. May I explain that with the chart, please?

Q Mr. Richel, will you please explain on this chart how you went to your command post and where you went?

A This was my command post, this is the exit (indicating). After the shot fell I ran over this way. Now, since a large number of civilians were also streaming along that path, having come out of the public air raid shelter located in this house, on account of that, I went along until this point "C". (Indicating)

PRESIDENT: Let the record show where he is pointing.

DR. WACKER: Let the record show that the witness Richel identified as his air raid shelter the point identified by the words "Shelter Richel Command Post" and that he further indicated that he went along the dotted line up to point "C".

QUESTIONS BY DR. WACKER:

Q What did you meet at point "C"?

A Here I met three or four men carrying a dead body.

Q Who was that?

A I didn't recognize these people.

Q What kind of a dead body were they carrying?

A That was not known at that time either.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: The prosecution has kindly called our attention to the fact that the indications that were given by Dr. Wecker should refer to Prosecution Exhibit Number 127 and that the witness indicated the line marked "Flier chased along this road" on that exhibit number.

QUESTIONS BY DR. WACKER:

Q Did you talk to anybody when this body was being carried?

A At point "G" I saw one man carrying a rifle walking along next to the body.

Q Did you know him?

A No, I didn't recognize him that evening. All I saw was that he was a tall man.

Q Did you talk to him?

A This man walked over to me and told me, "Mr. Police Director, I just fired at an escaped parachutist." Before that I had asked the question, "What's going on here anyway?"

Q What did you say upon that?

A "All right, take the flier over to the garden outside and primarily get the civilians out of here."

Q Did you issue any further instructions?

A No.

Q Do you know today who that man was?

A I do know it today.

Q Who was it?

A That was the accused Hammann.

Q How many shots did you hear in all?

A I can't say that exactly today any more. There were two series of shots.

Q What did you do when you had completed this conversation with Hasmann?

A I went along with three or four men, -- I don't know exactly whether there were three or four -- up to point "D" and there the dead man was put down in the garden.

Q Did you return to your air raid shelter?

A No, not at that time. Then at first somebody flashed a flashlight and that was the first time that one could find out that it was a soldier. So I asked, "How did this man get here?" And somebody in the crowd answered, "Well, he was taken over here from Bieber."

Q Did you not know that before that?

A No.

Q Did any other conversation ensue?

A I then gave the order to have the property on the flier taken away from him. I don't know any more whether it was First Lieutenant Pieter or First Lieutenant Alt to whom I gave the order.

Q Did you take anything yourself belonging to the flier?

A No.

Q What did you do then?

A After that I went back -- after that I wanted to go back to my command post and upon arriving at the top of the staircase at point "H" I noticed a dark object on the ground.

Q What was that?

A I lifted it up and found it to be a fur jacket.

Q What did you do with the fur jacket?

A I took the fur jacket along to my command post and we observed it was an American piece of equipment or piece of clothing and I turned that over to the fire police later on.

Q Did you have anything else to do with the flier?

A No.

(Eichel-Redirect)

Q Mr. Eichel, please try to explain to the court one more time when it was that you heard the shots and where you were located when you heard them and please indicate on the chart where you heard each of the shots.

A When the first shots were fired I was in my command post. (Indicating)

DR. WACKER: Let the record show that the witness Eichel is pointing to the place "Shelter Eichel Command Post" on Prosecution Exhibit Number 127.

A After the first shots I went all out and I first started thinking -- what could that be? The last few days I had been continuously hearing talk that Airborne troops would be landing in our area.

Q Mr. Eichel, where did you hear the next shots?

A I was still in the shelter then.

Q And then?

A Then I went out.

Q Where did the next shots happen?

A When I went out of the bunker another shot or two were fired.

DR. WACKER: Let the record show that the accused number 6 is pointing to a point on Prosecution Exhibit 127 located between the words "Shelter Eichel Command post" and the word "flier."

QUESTIONS BY DR. WACKER:

Q Where did you hear the next shots?

A I didn't hear any more shots.

DR. WACKER: No further questions.

MR. RACHAEL: Your witness.

RECROSS EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q Eichel, is your command post beneath the ground or on top of the ground?

A That was a former wine cellar which had its top about ten meters above the ground and it wasn't far down into the ground.

Q How far below the ground were you when you first heard the shot?

A We were sitting about six meters away from the door.

Q I did not ask you that. I asked you how deep in the ground you were.

A I have already explained that the shelter is about ten meters below the ground.

Q You were down there?

A Yes.

Q What is the distance from your bunker to the stair steps marked "g"?

A The lowest step on that staircase is about two meters away from the entrance to my shelter.

Q You tell this court that while you were sitting ten meters below the ground you could hear people chasing down those steps, is that correct?

A Yes, because we weren't sitting right under the ground. The door was only six meters away from where we were.

Q Did you hear that running before or after Adam came in to tell you about the parachutist?

A Yes.

Q Yes, what? Before or after?

A That was after Adam was there.

Q Adam was already in there and he told you about a parachutist and then you heard some people chasing down some steps, is that correct?

A Adam was living in the vicinity and apparently was coming from his house so I guess he must have lived through it all.

Q I did not ask you where Adam lives or where he came from. Will you please answer the question? Can you understand my question?

A I would like to have the question repeated.

(Eichel-Recross)

(Whereupon the question was read by the reporter as follows:

"Adam was already in there and he told you about a parachutist and then you heard some people chasing down some steps, is that correct?")

THE ACCUSED RICHEL: No, when Adam was coming in, we already heard this wild chase down the stairs.

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q Did you go out when you heard the wild chase or did you remain there to hear what Adam had to tell you?

A I still waited for a while.

Q What did Adam tell you exactly?

A All Adam said was "parachutist."

Q That one word "parachutist" and said nothing else?

A He didn't say anything else. He didn't have any reason to tell us anything else, just "parachutist."

Q That is the only thing he said, you are sure?

A Yes.

Q Did you hear anybody holler "halt"?

A No.

Q What else did you hear besides a chase going on down the steps? What else did you hear from the outside?

A I heard nothing else.

Q What do you mean by you heard a "chase"?

A You could very easily hear a crowd of people, or at any rate, several people rush down the stairs.

Q But you did not hear anything shouted or anything said?

A I didn't hear that.

Q Then you rushed out of the bunker, I believe you said, and went in the direction towards the Bierbrauer Weg, is that correct?

A Yes.

Q How did you know to go in that direction?

A Because all these people who were in the public air raid shelter, all the civilians, were speeding towards point "C". Upon that I assumed that something must have been going on there.

Q Which way did you say the civilians were going?

A To point "C" or "CG", to the exit towards Bierbrauer Weg.

Q You heard Fay say that there were a bunch of civilians going in the opposite direction to the air raid shelter, did you not?

A In the other direction could be the air raid shelter?

Q Yes.

A I don't understand that.

Q Did you hear him say that there were lots of civilians going towards the air raid shelter?

A I don't remember that. I don't know how you mean that, air raid shelter.

Q Towards your bunker?

A To my bunker, no civilians can go there. No civilians are permitted in there.

Q There is a place there for civilians to go when there is an air raid alarm, is there not?

A No other civilians could get into my command post.

Q Next to your command post?

A Next to it 20 or 25 meters away was the nearest public air raid shelter.

Q It was a big place, it held two thousand people, did it not?

A In the whole shelter?

Q Yes.

(Eichel-Recross)

A Yes, but it wasn't used because it was quite damp. There were about 100 or 150 men in the cellar, maybe.

Q You say, Eichel, this is the first time that you knew there was a flier there, is that correct?

A Yes.

Q You went there to the caserne about seven o'clock that night, is that correct?

A Yes, -- no, that is not right, -- eight o'clock.

Q Eight o'clock?

A I came to my command post at eight o'clock.

Q You had no idea they were going to bring an American flier there?

A No.

Q It is just a coincidence that every time you were around there was an American flier who got killed?

DEFENSE COUNSEL: We object to that question.

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

ACCUSED EICHEL: That's no coincidence. That's the truth.

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q So it is the truth that every time you were around an American flier was present and he got killed?

A I don't have to repeat that I said the truth, do I?

Q That happened twice on the same day?

A Two accidents the same day.

Q Two accidents! The man that died at the hands of Moller, was that an accident?

A Yes.

(Eichel-Recross)

Q You testified that when you got down to the Bierhrauer Weg that you saw some people carrying a body, is that right?

A Yes.

Q Who was carrying the body?

A I don't know.

Q Was that 'merican flier dead or alive at that time?

A He was dead.

Q Were you present when they carried the body up in the garden and laid it down on the ground?

A Yes.

Q Did you see Nahrgang when he kicked this flier in the face?

A No.

MR. SACHAKL: If the court please, the defense moves to strike the answer on the ground that there is no testimony whatever that Nahrgang kicked the flier.

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

A Well —

(Recess.)

(Richel-Recross)

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANOS: [illegible]

Q I believe you testified that at the time the flyer was killed [illegible] that, in Bieber when you were there, you were very angry, is that right? [illegible] to [illegible]

A While the flyer was being killed in Bieber I am supposed to have been excited? I do not understand. [illegible] dead. I want by that Q [illegible] While you were in the presence of the flyer at Bieber, [illegible] for [illegible]

MR. RACHAEL: If the Court please, the Defense objects to that. That matter has already been testified to. This is repetitious. [illegible] was pro[illegible]

PRESIDENT: The objection is overruled.

Q ACCUSED EICHEL: It was quite impossible that I ever was with the flyer at Bieber, [illegible] Nigish deal.

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANOS:

Q You testified before this Court that you saw him smoking a cigarette, so we know that you were in his presence.

A YES, but not the dead flyer.

Q I did not ask you about a dead flyer, merely, while you were in the presence of a flyer in Beiber you were mad, were you not?

A What right did you have to [illegible] man's personal property?

A DEFENSE COUNSEL: There is evidence, may it please the Court, that there were two flyers there. I think the Prosecution ought to denominate which one they are talking about, [illegible] ground I would have to give the order for the [illegible]

CAPTAIN VANOS: I am talking about the flyer you saw smoking the cigarette. I take a dead body to the morgue with his personal effects, don you?

Q ACCUSED EICHEL: Yes.

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANOS: The Prosecution and the witness are both [illegible] Q When you were in the presence of the flyer, that night, the one smoking the cigarette -- the flyer who was laying on the ground in the garden, you were mad, were you not?

A NO. I had no reason for that. [illegible] I [illegible] by or this flyer?

A That was my duty.

(Eichel-recross)

Q Why did you call him a son of a bitch? I got it?

A I don't know that. That is impossible. I had no reason to do that. However, I would like to say how this word got out. When Kammann reported to me that he had been shooting at a man who escaped, I want to emphasize this word, a man who escaped, I said, "That is a pigpish deal". I meant by that that it was a sort of unpleasant matter. It is always unpleasant for a man who is in charge for something like that to happen. He is responsible and has to report to higher headquarters and the word "Schweinerei" was probably justified.

Q [illegible] "Proper authorities"? Yourself?

Q What the hell word? Will you put it in English? I will only give [illegible] directs me to.

INTERPRETER: Pigpish deal.

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VENUS: [illegible] deciding whether you answer the questions or not.

Q You were mad or you wouldn't be using that kind of language, would you?

[COUNSEL NICOLL]: Well—

A No, I wasn't mad at all. [illegible] record I would like to object to any further [illegible]

Q You ordered the dead man's property taken from him, did you not?

[illegible] the ground that the witness is not being charged with the improper disposition of anybody [illegible]

Q By what right did you have to take this man's personal property? [illegible] case which [illegible]

A Captain, that is a question you could answer just as well. [illegible] or of course

Q I am asking the questions and you do the answering.

A If there is a dead man lying around I would have to give the order for the personal effects to be taken away from the man because, after all, you cannot take a dead body to the morgue with his personal effects, can you?

Q Why can't you? [illegible] that has to do with the things that happen to DEFENSE COUNSEL: The Prosecution and the witness are both arguing with each other and I ask the Court to tell them both to stop.

PRESIDENT: The arguing will stop.

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VENUS: We pray the Court's indulgence.

Q What right did you have to take the personal property of this flyer?

A That was my duty. [illegible] was read by the interpreter.)

(Eichel-recross)

Q What did you do with the watch after you got it?

MR. RACHAEL: The Defense objects. There is no evidence in the record with regard to a watch.

CAPTAIN VANCE: I will be glad to read the record ——

PRESIDENT: The objection is overruled.

ACCUSED KICHEL: The entire utensils on the flyer were turned over to the proper authorities.

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q When do you call "Proper authorities"? Yourself?

A General, I will not answer that shameless question. I will only give an answer if the General directs me to.

PRESIDENT: You are not deciding whether you answer the questions or not. You will answer the question.

A ACCUSED KICHEL: Well—

DEFENSE COUNSEL: For the record I would like to object to any further interrogation as to the disposition of the personal belongings on the ground that the witness is not being charged with the improper disposition of anybody's property. This has nothing to do with what took place in this case which is a charge of murder. I would like a ruling from the Court on that objection.

CAPTAIN VANCE: All the accused in Charge I are accused and charged with cruelties, mistreatments, killings, beatings, tortures, abuses and indignities.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: What has that got to do with the things that happen to a man's personal effects?

CAPTAIN VANCE: We contend that stealing from a dead man is an indignity.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: We pray the Court's judgment.

PRESIDENT: Will the reporter please read the question?

(Whereupon the question was read by the reporter.)

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

ACCUSED NICHEL: No.

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q What did you do with that man's wrist watch— the one you took from him?

A All his property including the wrist watch was turned over to 1st Lt. Reiter or 1st Lt. Alt.

Q Why did you not leave that man's property with the body?

A Because it is common usage, it is regulations to take the private property on a dead body away from him. So they wouldn't get into unauthorized hands.

Q Nichel, you knew when you were arrested by the Americans you were wearing this American's watch, do you not?

A That is also. I was not arrested by any Americans. I was captured as a prisoner of war and my wrist watch was taken away from me. I never was wearing an American wrist watch.

Q You found an fur jacket that belonged to this flyer and you took it to your command post, did you not?

A Yes.

Q You wore that jacket, did you not?

A If Captain Vance would check his records correctly he would find out that the accused Kemmen stated that he was wearing this jacket when taken into custody.

Q I am asking you if you did not wear it too?

A No.

Q Is Kohrgang a subordinate of yours?

A No.

Q Kemmen?

A No.

[illegible] Hamburg.

Q Fay?

A No.

Q Under whose command were they?

A Under the command of the Reichsstatthalter.

Q So were you, were you not?

A No, that is not right, Captain. Mahrgang, Hammann and Fay were under the command of Captain Bauts.

Q Who was the next superior to Captain Bauts?

A The immediate superior of Captain Bauts was the Chief Mayor.

Q You, as police director, was chief of all of them, were you not?

A No.

Q Why did you have your command post out there at the same place that Mahrgang and Fay were?

A The command post had been there for a long time. Had always been there.

Q Is that another coincidence?

A That is not a coincidence, that is a fact.

Q You have heard the witnesses testify that Captain Kiwitt ordered this particular flyer be executed, did you not?

A Yes.

Q You know that you had instructed Kiwitt and all the other members of your command that all captured flyers would be executed, don't you?

A No. Never.

Q Captain Kiwitt was present that day at Bieber when you talked to Lt. Albrecht about the flyer being bumped off, was he not?

A No. Nobody said that the flyer was to be bumped off.

Q Was Captain Kiwitt present in Bieber on that day when you did discuss the flyer with Lt. Albrecht?

A Yes, he was present in Wieber.

Q So Captain Kiwitt knew what your desires were with regard to the treatment of flyers?

A No. I did not have any desires concerning the treatment of flyers.

CAPTAIN VANCE: I have nothing further.

MR. RACHAEL: Are there any questions by the Court?

EXAMINATION BY THE COURT

QUESTIONS BY LT. COL. WALKER:

Q You made a statement"I had nothing to do with the orders given the policemen" which policemen are you referring to?

A In general. Particularly those two who took the flyer to the Bierbrauer Weg.

PRESIDENT: There are no further questions. The witness will resume his seat in the dock.

(Whereupon the witness was excused and resumed his seat in the dock.)

MR. RACHAEL: The Defense calls Ludwig Gruenheit.

LUDWIG GRUENHEIT, called as a witness for the Defense, being first duly sworn, testified through an interpreter as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY MR. RACHAEL:

Q State your full name?

A Ludwig Gruenheit, 60 years old, married.

Q Where do you live?

A In Giessen.

Q On the 22nd of February 1945 what was your occupation?

A Government counselor in the Police Headquarters Offenbach.

Q Was that the place where Michel was Police Director?

A Yes.

Q What was your occupational relationship with Michel?

A You mean position?

Q That is correct.

A I was the legal advisor of the police director.

Q Will you look around the courtroom and see if you recognize Eichel?

A Yes, No. 6.

MR. RACHAEL: Let the record show that the witness identified the accused, Eichel, wearing placard No. 6.

QUESTIONS BY MR. RACHAEL:

Q In your position in that office, can you tell whether Eichel ever issued any orders concerning treatment toward captured fliers?

A I wouldn't remember anymore.

Q On the 22nd of February 1945 in the evening, where were you?

A As far as I can remember I was in the Felsenkeller.

Q What time did you go there?

A About eight o'clock.

Q Why did you go there?

A There was an air raid alarm.

Q Did you see Eichel there?

A Yes.

Q Where was Eichel?

A If I didn't go there with him, he was there already and was sitting at the table.

Q Is that in the air raid shelter at the Felsenkeller?

A Yes.

Q Can you tell the court what happened while you were in the air raid shelter?

A A while after -- I had been there a while, a man rushed in and he said that some firing had gone on and that it probably was a parachutist or a flier.

Q Then what happened?

A Police Director Eichel upon that went on out and after a while he came back in.

Q How long a period of time elapsed between the time he went out and the time he came back?

A I would estimate it ten minutes to fifteen minutes.

Q When he came back did he have anything with him?

A I can't say exactly whether he himself brought in a flying jacket or whether anybody else carried it in together with him.

Q What time did you leave the air raid shelter finally?

A I believe about ten.

Q Was Eichel there at that time?

A Yes. Usually we would leave together. I think it was the same that day.

Q So that all the time between eight o'clock and ten o'clock, except for a period of between ten and fifteen minutes, Eichel was in the air raid shelter on the 22nd of February 1945?

A Yes.

QUESTIONS BY DR. WACKER:

Q Who was Eichel's deputy?

A I was Eichel's deputy in Police Headquarters, and in the District Police, Protective Police, the Major would be the deputy.

Q Were you together with Eichel throughout the day of the 22nd of February 1945?

A Probably, because I live in the Caserne and had my office there.

Q If Eichel had given anybody an order concerning the treatment of Allied prisoners that day, would you have known about it?

A I would not have had to know about that.

Q After the 22nd of February or at any time, did Eichel wear an American wrist watch?

A I don't know.

DR. WACKER: No further questions.

QUESTIONS BY MR. RACHAEL:

Q Was the air raid shelter in which you were that evening in the area of the Felsenkeller?

A Yes.

Q The Felsenkeller?

A Part of it.

Q The Felsenkeller refers to that group of houses in that particular vicinity?

A What? I don't understand that.

Q I will withdraw the question. What did the name "Felsenkeller" mean?

A They are all old cellars as far as I know, and used to be used to store beer, later on wine.

MR. RACHAEL: Your witness.

CROSS EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q I believe you said that you were the legal advisor to Eichel, is that correct?

A Yes.

Q Are you a lawyer?

A No, I am an official.

DR. AHRENS: Objection to the translation. The question was "Are you a lawyer" and it was translated "Are you a Rechtsanwalt?" and that is wrong. In this case the question should have been, "Are you a jurist?"

CAPTAIN VANCE: Will you repeat the question to him in whatever way it should be asked?

INTERPRETER: I don't believe it is a correct translation. I think mine is a right one.

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q Are you a jurist?

A Yes.

Q Were you a jurist at the time you were the legal advisor for Mr. Michel?

A Yes.

Q Now, you say about eight o'clock on the night 22 February, you went into the bunker and were present with Michel, is that right?

A Yes, about that time.

Q Now, about how long had you been in the bunker with Michel before the man came in and said there was a parachutist out there?

A I think about half an hour to forty-five minutes.

Q Had you heard anything from the surface before that man came in and told Michel there was a parachutist?

A You mean shooting?

Q Any kind of noise?

A No.

Q As a matter of fact, down in that bunker, ten meters below the ground, you could not hear what was going on upstairs, could you?

A Yes, that's about right.

Q You could not hear people walking up and down the steps, upstairs when you were down in the bunker, could you?

A The air raid shelter which we were in was behind another air raid shelter.

Q How far is that from the bottom of the steps?

A About five or seven meters.

Q When you were down in the bunker, you could not hear people going up and down those steps, could you?

A Probably not.

(Gruenheit-cross)

Q At least on that night you did not hear anything upstairs until this man came down and reported there was a parachutist, did you?

A No.

Q Do you remember what the man said when he came down and reported to Eichel?

A "There has been some firing going on. It must have been a parachutist or a flier." He said something like that.

Q Do you remember anything else he said?

A No.

Q I believe you said after this conversation took place that Eichel left, is that correct?

A Yes.

Q Did you leave or did you remain in the bunker?

A I myself went up several paces to the front stairway leading out of the cellar but it was too dark for me so I went back on in.

Q I believe you said Eichel was gone about fifteen minutes?

A Ten or fifteen minutes.

Q What did Eichel say when he came back?

A I don't know that any more. He took this jacket, examined it and took a file out of it. There wasn't much talking going on.

Q Do you know Nahrgang, Hammann and Fay, who are accused persons in this trial?

A No.

Q Did you ever hear of those people; do you know them by name?

A I don't know the names but only within this last period.

Q Do you know whether they were subordinates of Eichel?

A Yes, as members of the fire police.

Q They were under Eichel's command?

A Yes.

(Gruenbeit-Cross)

Q In your capacity as a jurist, I want to ask you for an opinion. Do you consider an order to shoot an unarmed surrendered prisoner of war to be a legal order?

MR. RACHAEL: Defense objects to this question.

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I think the question should state the source of orders. May it please the court, before an opinion could be properly asked, he should be asked, is an order from so-and-so or a man occupying such-and-such a position, to somebody beneath him a legal order?

PRESIDENT: Read the question.

(Whereupon the question was read by the reporter.)

CAPTAIN VANCE: (Continuing) When that order is given from one person of higher rank to another person of lower rank?

MR. RACHAEL: Defense still objects to that question.

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

THE WITNESS: That's a question for an expert.

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q I want to know if you consider such an order to be a legal one?

A Might I ask for the phrasing exactly one more time, please?

MR. WACKER: I want to object to the question on the ground that this witness has been called by the defense purely as to facts. The question exceeds the scope of direct examination and if the prosecution wants to make this witness their own expert, they can call him to the stand in their own behalf.

PRESIDENT: The court will recess for twenty minutes.

(Whereupon at 1015 hours the court recessed.)

(Gruenheit-Cross

(Thereupon the court reassembled at 1030 hours.)

PRESIDENT: Court will come to order.

PROSECUTION: May it please the court, let the record show that all the members of the court; all the members of the prosecution; all the members of the defense, except Dr. Trost, who is absent sick; all of the accused except the accused Streop, who is temporarily absent conferring with counsel; the reporter and interpreter are present.

MR. RACHAEL: If the court please, I believe at the close of the session the witness Grunsheit was on the stand.

PRESIDENT: The objection to the last question before we recessed is sustained.

LEIBEL GRUNSHEIT, called as a witness by the defense, resumed the stand and being reminded that he was still under oath, testified further through an interpreter as follows:

CAPTAIN VANCE: Nothing further, may it please the court.

REDIRECT EXAMINATION

BY [illegible]

QUESTIONS BY DR. WACKER:

Q Mr. Grunsheit, upon a question of the prosecution, you stated that the fire protection police was under Eichel. The question I want to ask you is as follows: Was the fire protection police under Eichel personally, or were they under him only in case they were used in action since he was the air raid protection chief?

CAPTAIN VANCE: We object on the ground the question is repetitious. The question has already been answered very definitely by this witness.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I deny the court's judgment. It is certainly a thing that requires clarification.

PRESIDENT: The objection is overruled.

THE WITNESS: May I have the question again?

(Whereupon the last question was read by the court reporter.)

THE WITNESS: Only in case of action.

DR. WACKER: No further questions.

(GRUNSHEIT-Redirect)

REDIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q Were you having action at the time around the 22nd of February, 1945?

A Fire protection action? I don't know. I do not think so.

Q Weren't you having air raids and having fires at that time?

A I can't say whether Offenbach was attacked that day. I do not think so.

Q You think there was no air raid in Offenbach or Bieber on that day, is that correct?

A I don't know of any.

CAPTAIN VANCE: Nothing further.

MR. MACHAN: Any question by any member of the court?

Yes.

EXAMINATION BY THE COURT

QUESTIONS BY LAW MEMBER:

Q What do you mean by the statement, "only in action"?

A When there was an air raid alarm and when fires would occur.

QUESTIONS BY LIEUTENANT COLONEL WALKER:

Q I would like to ask one question in regard to a defense exhibit with which you may be familiar. On that chart, it shows under Berman, HSSAP -- come down to Police Director No. 2. Underneath that is commander of the SCHUPO. Below that is fire police and regular police. Is that the correct line of command to your knowledge?

A May I have the last part of the question again?

(Thereupon the last question was read by the court reporter as follows:
"Q On that chart, it shows under Berman, HSSAP -- come down to Police Director No. 2. Underneath that is ——— ")

DEFENSE COUNSEL: May I help?

LIEUTENANT COLONEL WALKER: Right there, police director. Underneath that is the commander of the local police, and below that -- bring it down to the fire police. Is that the correct regular channel of command?

(CONTINUED-Court)

THE WITNESS: Yes.

PRESIDENT: No further questions by the court. The witness is excused.

(Whereupon the witness was excused and withdrew.)

MR. RACHAEL: Defense calls as its next witness Rosel Schwab.

ROSEL SCHWAB, recalled as a witness by the defense, resumed the stand and being reminded that she was still under oath, testified further through an interpreter as follows:

REDIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY MR. RACHAEL:

Q You are the Rosel Schwab who testified previously in this case?

A Yes.

Q You stated that you were secretary to Police Director Eichel, did you not?

A Yes.

Q On the 22nd of February, 1945, in the evening at about 8 o'clock, where were you?

A Well, I was in the cellar at Bierbrauer Weg.

Q What time did you go there?

A When the alarm started.

Q About what time was that?

A That was about 8 o'clock, I think.

Q Was Police Director Eichel there at that time?

A Yes.

Q How long did you remain in that cellar?

A Until the end of the air raid alarm.

Q About what time was that?

A It might have been about 10 o'clock, or it might also have been 10:30.

Q Was Police Director Eichel there at all times between 8 and 10?

A Yes. He left the air raid shelter, though, at the time one

Ia KSy-gp-60-3/4-4

Mr. Adam came in and said, "There is a parachutist flier out there trying to escape," and in fact some firing was going on already. At that time, Police Director Kichel left the cellar and he returned to the cellar five or possibly ten minutes later.

Q When he returned, did he have anything with him?

A No, I don't remember anything.

Q Did you leave the cellar?

A No.

Q Where were you prior to 8 o'clock?

A I was with the Police Director in his room.

Q Where was that?

A In the Casserne.

Q How long were you in that room in the Casserne with the Police Director?

A Until the alarm started.

Q What time did you go to that room?

A After office hours I remained there because I had more work to do.

Q And was Kichel there all the time?

A Yes.

Q After Kichel got back to the cellar, did you notice whether or not he was wearing an American wrist watch?

A No, he wasn't wearing one.

Q Did you notice whether or not he had a flier's jacket with him?

A Yes, a flying jacket was taken into the cellar. I don't know whether Mr. Kichel took it in or somebody else. I don't know exactly who brought it in, but it was brought in.

MR. RACHAEL: Your witness.

REDIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

(SCHRAB-Recross)

Q When Mr. Adam came into the cellar, tell me everything that Mr. Adam said, as best you remember, and everything Mr. Eichel said.

A Mr. Eichel left subsequent to that.

Q I know he left, but tell me what Adam said to Mr. Eichel when he came in.

A He didn't say anything.

Q Didn't you just finish saying that he came in and said there was a flier out there who was trying to escape?

A Yes, Mr. Adam said that.

Q That is what I am asking you. Tell the court everything Mr. Adam said.

A Yes, Mr. Adam came in and he said, "There is something the matter out there. There is some firing going on. A parachutist is about to escape."

Q Do you remember anything else he said?

A No.

Q After Adam said this to Eichel, then what did Eichel say?

A Eichel didn't say anything after that. He went out then.

Q Did you leave the shelter?

A No.

Q Are you familiar with the steps that lead down toward the shelter?

A Yes. They go down to the cellar directly from this yard.

Q What is the depth of the cellar?

A I can't say.

Q It is about 10 meters deep, isn't it?

A It might be so.

Q Tell me what you heard, if anything, prior to the time that Mr. Adam came into the cellar.

A I didn't hear a thing.

CAPTAIN VANCE: Nothing further.

(SCHMAB-Recross)

MR. RACHAEL: Any question by any member of the court?

PRESIDENT: No questions by the court. The witness is excused.

(Whereupon the witness was excused and withdrew.)

MR. RACHAEL: Defense will call as its next witness Peter Braunsiler.

PETER BRAUNSILER, called as a witness by the defense, being first duly sworn, testified through an interpreter as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY MR. RACHAEL:

Q Will you state your full name?

A Peter Braunsiler.

Q Where do you live?

A Offenbach on the Main.

Q How old are you?

A 53 years.

Q On the 22nd of February, 1945, at approximately 8 o'clock in the evening, where were you?

A In the air raid shelter.

Q Where?

A Bleichstrasse Weg, Offenbach.

Q Is that the air raid shelter where the defendant Eichel had his command post?

A That was a private shelter.

Q Was the Police Director Eichel there at the time you were there?

A Police Director Eichel was there.

Q Will you look around the courtroom and see if you can tell the court if Police Director Eichel is present?

A Yes, Police Director Eichel is here.

Q Will you point him out?

A No. 6 over there (indicating).

Re 25-pp-90-3/5-7

MR. RACHAEL: Let the record show that the witness identifies the defendant Richal, wearing Placard No. 6.

QUESTIONS BY MR. RACHAEL:

Q When did you leave the shelter?

A After the alarm was over.

Q What time was that?

A About 2200 hours.

Q Between 8 o'clock in the evening and 2200 hours, was Police Director Richal in the shelter?

A Yes.

Q Did he leave there at any time between those hours?

A Yes.

Q How long was he gone?

A Five to ten minutes.

Q And then he returned?

A Yes.

Q When he returned, was he wearing an American wrist watch?

A No.

Q When he returned, did he have a leather jacket with him?

A There was a leather jacket that was taken into the cellar. I don't know whether Police Director Richal was wearing it.

MR. RACHAEL: Your witness.

CROSS EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANEK:

Q Was this place where you were the command post of Richal?

A An emergency command post.

Q Did he have a regularly maintained office at that place?

A No.

Q Why were you and why was Richal down in this cellar?

A I was a civilian and since my air raid shelter in my apartment wasn't safe enough, I went over to Hirtenmesse Weg to get better protection.

Q Was there an air raid going on?

A Not in Offenbach.

Q Was there an air raid going on where this shelter was?

A Not as long as I was there.

Q Do you know why the air raid alarm had been sounded?

A There was airplanes passing over Offenbach.

Q This cellar is in Offenbach or in the near vicinity, isn't it?

A Yes.

Q I am not clear. Was there an air raid or was there not an air raid?

A Not in Offenbach.

Q What were you doing down in the cellar then?

A There was an alarm.

Q There was an alarm, but there was no air raid, is that correct?

A Yes.

Q Did you hear anybody talking that the alarm was sounded to get the people off the streets?

A No.

Q Every time the alarm sounded, people would go into the cellars, wouldn't they, and clear off the streets?

A Yes.

Q And on this occasion, the alarm sounded and the people did go into the cellars and clear the streets?

A Yes.

Q And while all the civilians and people were in the cellars, there was an American flier got killed. That is right, isn't it?

A Yes.

Q Now, you said that Eichel wasn't wearing an American wrist watch. How do you know that, Mr. Brauweiler?

(P. BRAUWEILER-Cross) 1983.

A I didn't see one.

Q But you aren't going to tell this court he wasn't wearing one, are you?

A He didn't have one in his hands.

Q You don't know whether he had one on his wrist or not, do you?

A I didn't see one.

CAPTAIN VANCE: Nothing further.

MR. RACHAEL: Any questions by any member of the court?

PRESIDENT: No questions by the court. The witness is excused.

(Whereupon the witness was excused and withdrew.)

MR. RACHAEL: If the court please, I would like to enter into a stipulation with the prosecution that if Mia Braunsiler assumed the witness stand, she would testify as her husband did, Peter Braunsiler.

CAPTAIN VANCE: We don't feel that we should stipulate to the testimony of any witness who is sitting out here in the hall. If the witness was not available, we might consider doing so.

PRESIDENT: If the witness is present, the witness will testify.

MIA BRAUNSILER, called as a witness by the defense, being first duly sworn, testified through an interpreter as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY MR. RACHAEL:

Q Will you state your name?

A Mia Braunsiler.

Q Where do you live?

A In Offenbach on the Main.

Q How old are you?

A 42 years.

Q On the 22nd of February, 1945, at approximately 8 P.M., where were you?

A I was in the Felsenkeller. An air raid alarm was going on.

Q Were you with your husband at that time?

A Yes.

Q Is that Peter Brauweiler?

A Yes.

Q Were you in the air raid shelter of Police Director Eichel?

A Yes, that was a private cellar.

Q What time did the air alarm end?

A It was over about 10 o'clock.

Q Did you leave at that time?

A Yes.

Q During the time between 8 o'clock and approximately 10 o'clock, did you see Police Director Eichel in that shelter?

A Yes.

Q Did he leave at any time?

A Yes.

Q About what time was that?

A Shortly before 9.

Q About how long was he gone?

A Five to ten minutes.

Q Then did he return?

A Yes.

Q What was the occasion for Police Director Eichel leaving?

A There was a man who came in the cellar reporting that a parachuted flier had run past the shelter and that he had run past the shelter and that some shooting had gone on.

Q When Police Director Eichel returned to the shelter, was he wearing an American wrist watch, if you know?

A No, I don't know.

Q Did you see a leather jacket brought into the cellar?

A No leather jacket, a jacket made out of cloth.

MR. RACHAEL: Your witness.

CROSS EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q Did you hear any shooting before this man came downstairs to tell Michel about it?

A No.

Q Is your hearing good?

A Yes.

CAPTAIN VANCE: Nothing further.

MR. RACHAEL: Any questions by any member of the court?

PRESIDENT: No questions by the court. The witness is excused.

(Whereupon the witness was excused and withdrew.)

MR. RACHAEL: Defense calls as its next witness the defendant Josef Kwitt.

JOSEF KWITT, an accused, resumed the stand in his own behalf, and being reminded that he was still under oath, testified further through an interpreter as follows:

REDIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY MR. RACHAEL:

Q Mr. Kwitt, you are a defendant in this case?

A Yes.

Q You have previously testified?

A I testified.

Q I call your attention to the 22nd of February, 1945. Do you recall two policemen coming with a rifle to the police station in Offenbach?

A Yes.

Q Were those two policemen the witness Schneider and Michel who testified in this case?

A Yes, that is them.

Q About what time of the day did they come to your office?

A About 1930 or 2000 hours, the way I remember it. I can't give the exact time.

Q Will you tell the court what happened? What was said in the office?

A I was sitting in my room on the ground floor when Lt. Alt, the officer of the day, came in and said, "Captain, will you please come up and help me some?" I asked, "Why, what is going on?" He said, "A flier has been brought in." So I went on up. When I got up to the office up there, 1st Lt. Trautmann was there. There was two enlisted men and the flier. Lt. Trautmann wanted to talk to the flier and did a lot of gestures. He couldn't make himself understood. I told him to get out. I reprimanded these corporals, Michel and Schneider, for taking the flier to the protective police headquarters and for not having turned him over to the anti-aircraft outfit in Rehlingen also for not having turned him over to the police jail in Kaiserstuhl. And after reprimanding him, I told the policeman Michel and Schneider to take him to the police jail and turn him over there. Lt. Alt got in the conversation and he said, "Captain, you can't do that. A major has already issued the order to get this flier bumped off." Upon that, I said, "Well, if a major gave an order, I can't change it. I guess you will have to bump him off then."

Q Was there anything else said?

A Well, upon that, one of the two officials, I don't know which one it was, said, "Well, Captain, we can't do that. We will take him back to Bisher." So I said, "See that you get out of here. Get out," so they got out.

Q You heard the witness Schneider testify that he understood your language to be an order, and you heard the witness Michel testify that he understood your language not to be an order. Just what is the language which you used to the policeman?

A I said, "Well, if the major gave an order, then I can't change it. You will have to bump him off, I guess." I didn't say anything else.

Q After that conversation, you say you drove them out of the office?

A Yes. I said, "See that you get out. Get out of here."

Q Was the flier there at that time?

A Yes, they took him along.

Q Did the flier overhear, if you know, the conversation between you and Michel and Schneider and Alt?

A If he had understood German, he would have been able to hear it, but he didn't understand German. I found that out when 1st Lt. Trautmann was trying to talk to him.

Q Who was Lt. Alt?

A 2nd Lt. Alt was the OD that evening.

Q And who was Major Kuhlenbeck?

A Major Kuhlenbeck was the commanding officer of the protective police of Offenbach.

Q Was Major Kuhlenbeck the superior of Lt. Alt?

A Yes.

Q How about you? Was he your superior?

A He was my superior.

Q What were you doing in the office at that time?

A In my office on the ground floor, I was doing some work there. I had received an order from Major Kuhlenbeck to prepare a defense for the town of Offenbach and that work took up all my time. I wasn't doing anything else. I had been in Offenbach for only 12 weeks when that happened.

Q After Schneider and Michel and the flier left, did you send anybody out after them?

A Yes, one or two of them had gone out. I went to the telephone and I called up the major to ask him whether that was right about his order, and the major said, "Yes, that is correct. These men shouldn't act so stupid." That is exactly what he said. He used that expression. "Send Lt. Alt along." In that conversation, I twice requested to have the flier taken to a police jail. The major got enraged or annoyed — I heard that from the way he talked — and then he hung up.

Q Did you send Lt. Alt after Schneider, Michel and the flier?

A Yes, I sent Lt. Alt after them, and the last word I told Lt. Alt was, "Go past the police jail on your way and if he is in there, call up the army right away and have him picked up." Those were my last words to Alt.

Q Did Lt. Alt return to the office later?

A I don't know whether I saw him next the same evening or the next morning. I don't remember exactly.

Q Did Lt. Alt tell you that he had seen Michel, Schneider and the flier?

A Yes, he told me.

Q Where had he seen them?

A I don't know. I don't know Offenbach so well. Maybe he named the street, but I don't remember.

Q When did you find out that this flier had been shot and killed?

A I found out through Lt. Alt.

Q Was that the next morning?

A It might have been the next morning; I can't make any precise statement. I don't know.

Q You say you had been attached to that office for about 12 weeks prior to that time, is that right?

A Yes, that is right. I got there about the 22nd of November.

Q Do you know whether any orders existed concerning the shooting of fliers?

A No such order existed in the headquarters of the protective police in Offenbach. If any such order had existed, I would have found out about it without any question.

Q Can you tell me what was the relationship between Police Director

Michel and Major Kuhlenbeck?

A The relation or the connection?

Q The connection.

A The relations between Major Kuhlenbeck and the Police Director were extremely strained. They didn't get along so well.

MR. RACHAFL: Your witness.

RE CROSS EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q When Michel and Schneider came to your office, they told you that they had been sent there by Goehrendt, didn't they?

A No, they didn't say anything about that.

Q You heard both of them testify about that, didn't you?

A Michel and Schneider, yes. I heard that here, and in fact it was only here that I found out that Michel and Schneider had received instructions from Goehrendt. I didn't know that.

Q They told you they came from Goehrendt and they brought you a note from Goehrendt, didn't they?

A No, I didn't receive any note from Goehrendt. When I went upstairs to the office of the OD, the flier was up there already and Lt. Alt, as the OD, had taken care of the whole matter and I suppose he also received a note, but I didn't.

Q You say Alt had taken care of the whole matter?

A I said that up in the room where the flier was, Lt. Alt was present as the OD and he received whatever there was to receive, I don't know what it was.

Q What was the occasion of your reprimanding Michel and Schneider?

A Because they had not taken the flier to Muhlheim, which is only about two kilometers walk from Offenbach, and taken him there, and because they had walked right past the police jail and not turned him in there.

Q Kiwitt, you know you reprimanded them because they didn't bump the man off before they got there, didn't you?

A No, I did not do that.

Q When you and Alt and Michel and Schneider talked about bumping the flier off, the American flier was present and could hear the conversation, wasn't he?

A There wasn't any conversation about the flier being bumped off, and if Alt said, "The major gave an order; the flier got to be bumped off," the flier was standing perhaps three meters to my left at the door into the office of Lt. Alt.

[illegible]

JUDGE'S OR CAPTAIN'S [illegible]

[illegible]

(Adjourned)

Q Did the flyer hear what was said?

A I don't know whether he heard it. I don't know whether he understood German.

Q You said a while ago on direct examination that the American did not understand German.

A First Lieutenant Troutmann had been trying to talk to him and it didn't work out so I assumed the flyer doesn't understand German.

Q Do you understand English?

A I don't understand English, no.

Q If two people were discussing killing you, in English, don't you think you would get some idea what they were talking about?

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I pray the court's judgement. I object to that.

PRESIDENT: Objection sustained.

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q After Lieutenant Alt told you that Major Kuhlenbeck had said that this flyer and all flyers should be bumped off then you agreed that that was what should be done to this one.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I pray the court's judgement to that phrase that was added to it. I have been objecting, may it please the court, to the slipping in of language on testimony that never came before the court. I don't object to him saying, "After he discussed bumping off this flyer.", but this business of bumping off all flyers, that we object to.

CAPTAIN VANCE: I am not bound by what they prove. I can ask this man any question that I want to.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: You are bound by the rules of decent cross examination.

CAPTAIN VANCE: I take exception to that remark.

PRESIDENT: There will be no more argument.

(Kiwitt-cross)

What was the last question?

(Thereupon the reporter repeated the last question as follows:

"After Lieutenant Alt told you that Major Kuhlenbeck had said that this flyer and all flyers should be bumped off then you agreed that that was what should be done to this one?")

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I would like to state to the court that I meant no reflection on the prosecution by the use of the word "decent". I meant proper cross examination.

THE WITNESS: Would you repeat this question one more time. I didn't quite catch it.

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q After Lieutenant Alt stated that Major Kuhlenbeck had instructed that this flyer be bumped off and all other flyers should be bumped off--when you heard him say that then you agreed to it didn't you?

A No, not at all. Nothing of that sort had said. Either Lieutenant Alt said the Major has given orders that this flyer is to be bumped off and not a word was said about anybody else.

Q What did you say after Alt made that remark?

A "I don't change it. You will have to bump him off then I guess."

Q You have already testified that you and Alt were both subordinates to Major Kuhlenbeck, is that right?

A I was a subordinate and Lieutenant Alt was a subordinate of Major Kuhlenbeck. That was right.

Q You were a Captain and Alt was a lieutenant, that is right isn't it?

A Yes, I was Captain Kiwitt and this was Lieutenant Alt.

Q You had authority to give Alt orders, didn't you?

A In that case I had no authority to give Alt orders. Alt was the OD. (Kiwitt-cross)

Q Kiwitt, you were out in the neighborhood of the Bierbrauer Weg on the afternoon of the 22nd about two o'clock before this flyer was killed that night, weren't you?

A I had been at Bierbrauer Weg, that is at the CP there, about noon on that 22nd day of February, 1945.

Q Tell the court what you said about the American flyers at that time when you were talking to the witness Jaeger?

A I wasn't talking to the witness Jaeger. He was entirely unknown to me.

Q Whom did you talk to on that occasion about noon?

A I don't remember that anymore, who I talked to about that time, but certainly not to the guard. He was supposed to be standing guard there just like I said.

Q With whom did you discuss flyers and what did you say?

A I didn't say anything. I don't know what I said.

Q You can't remember?

A Certainly not.

Q You heard Jaeger testify as to what happened at about two o'clock that afternoon, didn't you?

A Jaeger testified? I don't remember his words. If I remember properly, that everybody was supposed to be beaten to death.

Q You made that remark didn't you?

A No. I didn't make that remark.

Q I want to show you a document here that bears a signature and ask you if that is your signature?

A That is my signature, yes. When was that? Oh yes, that is all right.

Q Did the chief of police ever order you to shoot any American prisoners?

(Kiwitt-cross)

A No. My chief never at any time gave me any such order.

Q Do you remember being interrogated on the 22rd Day of October, 1946 at Dachau, Germany and making a sworn statement?

A Yes I was interrogated once. It might have been on the 22rd of October here in Dachau.

Q Do you remember the same identical question, word for word, propounded to you that I have just propounded?

A I don't know that anymore.

Q Didn't you answer that question, "He gave a general order that no flyers should be saved."?

A I never said any such order ever existed and when this question was brought up I told the interpreter twice, "Miss, that is not right what you are translating here." I told her, "Don't you understand me?" I never said that and then it was translated to me correctly and that is what I signed and now I got it back in my hands again through my defense counsel and I observe it was entirely different there. It might be a typographical error. It might say there might be a letter "k" missing and that would mean the difference between an order and no order.

Q All right. Now I will ask you another question. This second American flyer that you have mentioned--who ordered him shot?

A Which second American flyer?

Q You know that there were two executed on the same day don't you?

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I object to the language, may it please the court. I object to the word executed.

CAPTAIN VANCE: I will change it to "kill" them.

THE WITNESS: Yes, two flyers.

Q Who ordered the second flyer shot?

A I have already said that Lieutenant Alt said, "Captain you can't do that. The Major has given an order for the flyer to be bumped off.

(Kimitt-cross)

Consequently Lieutenant Alt as the OD must have received the order from Major Kuhlenbeck. I hadn't known a word of this before.

Q What were your instructions if an American aviator parachuted down? What were you to do if you caught him?

A The only order I knew was the non-interference order and I got to know about it when I was sent to Offenbach and I worked my way through all the secret files in order to find out about it. Among those I found the non-interference orders but nothing whatever of any other nature.

Q Do you remember that question being asked you by Colonel Chelin when he examined you?

A What question?

Q What were your instructions if an American aviator or an Allied aviator parachuted down? What would you do if you caught them?

A I don't remember this question being asked of me.

Q Do you remember answering it this way? "All captured flyers were delivered to the Anti-aircraft Battalion at Mulheim. If that man's papers were to be taken to the police jail until the chief of police, Hans Biehel, gave the order to shoot them" Do you remember that?

A I remember that approximately. I might not have understood the Captain's question properly. I made some comments upon where the flyers were to be taken and I then said that as far as I knew they were sent to Mulheim or to the police jail respectively and that happened until the day when this case in Bieber took place. That is what I said.

Q What do you mean, that they were held until Hans Biehel gave the order to shoot them?

A No, I didn't say that. I didn't say that.

Q Let me ask you if you remember this: "After the order was given by the chief of police that captured flyers were to be shot what was done with them?" and you answered, "The flyers were not delivered to the Anti-aircraft anymore, but were turned over to Eichel and shot." Do you remember that?

(Recross)

A I don't remember that.

Q You can't say whether that was the questions answered by you or not?

A I don't remember giving this answer and all we ever had were these two flyers.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: We would like to know, may it please the court, if the prosecution is reading from an exhibit or from some other paper that hasn't been produced in evidence. If it is we would like a copy and a chance to see it.

CAPTAIN VANCE: This paper has never been introduced in evidence, no.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Then I think that if he is examining on a paper we have never seen we are entitled to see it before it is used as a basis for examination.

CAPTAIN VANCE: I am impeaching the credibility of this witness to tell the truth. I have a right to use this document. If the defense desires to introduce it we will be glad to deliver it to you.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I ask the judgement of the court.

PRESIDENT: This is the statement that he identified is it not? Proceed with the examination. The objection is overruled.

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q Kiwitt, on the first copy you knew that Lieutenant Albrecht got the direct order from Eichel the police chief to shoot that flyer, didn't you?

A I heard and I have already testified to that here. That Police Director Eichel told Albrecht that this flyer is going to be finished off or something to that effect, but I also testified here that my hearing is not good and I have poor hearing and that I didn't catch everything that was said. When this statement was prepared here in Dachau I told the interpreter

(Kiwitt-cross)

Q Do you want to say by that that you didn't make those statements at that time?

A No, I didn't make those statements.

THE COURT: No further questions. [illegible]

A THE WITNESS: I told the girl, "I don't hear very well so will you please be considerate?" That was written in english and she translated it to me and I guessed I didn't catch it all, but I had confidence in everything being done properly and that is why I signed it. I have no reason to lie.

THE MARSHAL: Any questions by any member of the court? [illegible] to his apartment. [illegible] was EXAMINATION BY THE COURT [illegible] QUESTIONS BY THE LAW MEMBER:

Q Where is Major Kuhlenbeck? [illegible]

A I don't know where Major Kuhlenbeck is. I am hearing over here there is a rumor that he is dead. [illegible]

Q [illegible] there be Lieutenant Alt? [illegible]

A I don't know that either. I asked for him as a defense witness. He ought to be sitting here with the number seven around his neck and not

(Kiwith-redirect-court)

"Mick, will you please show some consideration to the fact that my hearing is poor?" and I had confidence, great confidence in this being done properly and completed eight signatures. I signed my name eight different places.

CAPTAIN VANCE: Nothing further.

I haven't been able to REDIRECT EXAMINATION, but QUESTIONS BY THE WARDEN:

Q I have one question on behalf of Nichol and I am referring to this statement that was just read to you. Before these two figure, the one at Bieber and the one at Niederauer, you were any figure turned over to Nichol? A No, I never found out about any.

Q How do you explain the fact that this statement says that Spaigion would be ordered from Nichol as to what was to be done with these figures? A I didn't understand that in order to have two figures turned off."

I if you want to determine his guilt.

Q Where is Lieutenant Trautmann?

A Lieutenant Trautmann? I don't know that either.

Q Have you tried to locate them to be called as witnesses?

A I haven't been able to do any such things because I am in jail, but I told my defense counsel, "By all means get Lieutenant Alt over here. He has got to be over here." I was told by my defense counsel, "We can't find him."

Q When did Lieutenant Alt say that Major Kuhlenbeck gave him this order that you could not revoke?

A He said that when I told Schneider and Michel, "Go take him on out of here and put him in jail." That is when Alt told me, "You can't do that. Major Kuhlenbeck gave another order to have the flyer bumped off."

Q When did Major Kuhlenbeck give that order to Lieutenant Alt? Did he say?

A I can't say that. I don't know.

Q Was any effort made to locate Major Kuhlenbeck that night?

A I personally talked to him over the telephone. I wanted to make sure that was right. I couldn't understand it.

Q What time did Major Kuhlenbeck leave his headquarters in the [illegible] that day?

A Our office hours usually ended about 6 o'clock and then he went to his apartment that was in a hotel. He was always in contact by telephone with the OD on duty.

PRESIDENT: No further questions by the court.

MR. HACHAEL: That is all.

PRESIDENT: The witness will take his place in the dock.

(Whereupon the accused was excused and resumed his seat in the dock.)

DEFENSE COUNSEL: In view , may it please the court, of the way the evidence is going I would like to make a reference to Alt and Kuhlenbeck. If I am not mistaken there has been a statement put into the record with respect to those two people, or something was said at least by the prosecution with respect to Alt. The man is supposed to be a suicide, is that right?

PROSECUTION: I didn't say he was supposed to be a suicide. I did say that War Crimes Headquarters had been trying to apprehend him for many months and they are of the opinion, although not sure, that he is dead.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Could you add something with respect to what War Crimes has tried to do regarding Kuhlenbeck?

PROSECUTION: I have a statement in my files written by Mr. Rupper who said he saw Kuhlenbeck killed in an automobile accident.

DR. WACKER: In that case might one ask a question as to how the prosecution obtained this statement from Alt. He was still alive at that time wasn't he?

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I am not so much concerned, may it please the court, I am just trying to show a reasonable explanation to the court why Alt is not here today.

PROSECUTION: I am sure that counsel for the defense didn't realize the implications of his remark but I will say again, and I will quote War Crimes Headquarters, that Alt is believed to be dead. I don't know whether he committed suicide recently or not. I am not sure, but at one time a statement was taken from him and subsequently he disappeared. I have before me the case analysis that came down here and Alt's name is mentioned as a desired perpetrator.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: We are not questioning you here colonel. I am---

PRESIDENT: This court is personally satisfied with the explanation.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: That rests the evidence with respect to cases three up to ten inclusive for the time being. At least we now come to the point where we are going to put on the three principle accused. There are still one or two questions of the order of procedence which I should like to settle between now and 1:30. May I ask for a recess now despite the fact that is still lacks 15 minutes of twelve.

PRESIDENT: The court will recess until 1:30.

(Thereupon at 1145 hours the court recessed.)

1921

AFTERNOON SESSION

(Whereupon the court reconvened at 1330 hours.)

PRESIDENT: Court will come to order.

PROSECUTION: May it please the court, let the record show all the members of the court, all the members of the prosecution, all the members of the defense with the exception of Dr. Trost, who is sick, all the accused with the exception of Number 1, the accused Streep, are present.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: May it please the court, just before 12:00 o'clock, I asked for a fifteen minute break to decide the order in which the accused would take the stand, and because some difference arose, decided they would take the stand in the order in which they are numbered. I would like to put on the five accused who were not sworn. As Streep is not ready, we will put on a witness not in the order we have planned. The first accused will be Lassak who will be examined by Major Saxon.

MAJOR SAXON: If it please the court, this accused desires to be sworn.

PRESIDENT: Do you desire to be sworn?

ACCUSED LASSAK: Yes.

JULIUS LASSAK, an accused voluntarily took the stand in his own behalf and after being duly sworn testified through an interpreter as follows:

REDIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY MAJOR SAXON:

Q You are the accused, Julius Lassak?

A Yes.

Q And you have heretofore testified before this court?

A Yes.

Q Was the testimony you heretofore gave the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth?

A Yes.

Q Do you now desire this court to consider your former testimony as though you had given it under oath?

A Yes.

MAJOR SAXON: Your witness.

CAPTAIN VANCL: No questions.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Any questions by the court?

PRESIDENT: No questions by the court. The witness may resume his seat in the balcony.

(Whereupon the accused was excused and resumed his seat in the dock.)

DEFENSE COUNSEL: The next witness is the accused Michely who will be examined by Major Saxon.

MAJOR SAXON: If it please the court, this accused desires to be sworn.

PRESIDENT: Do you desire to be sworn?

ACCUSED MICHELY: Yes.

HEINRICH MATTHIAS MICHELY, an accused voluntarily took the stand in his own behalf and after being duly sworn, testified through an interpreter as follows:

REDIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY MAJOR SAXON:

Q You are the accused Heinrich Matthias Michely who has heretofore testified before this court?

A Yes.

Q Was the testimony you heretofore gave before this court the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth?

A Yes.

Q Do you now desire this court to consider this testimony as having been given under oath?

A Yes.

MAJOR SAXON: Your witness.

RECROSS EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q Would you tell a falsehood when not under oath that you wouldn't when you were under oath?

A Not in this case.

Q What do you mean by this case?

A Not in such an important matter; I don't want to say I never said a lie in my life.

Q You mean you would tell the truth not under oath, and also under oath?

A Yes.

CAPTAIN VANCE: Nothing further.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Any questions by the court?

PRESIDENT: No questions by the court. The witness will take his place in the dock.

(Whereupon the accused was excused and resumed his seat in the dock.)

DEFENSE COUNSEL: The next accused, Erwin Goss will be examined by Major Saxon.

PRESIDENT: Do you desire to be sworn?

ACCUSED GOSS: Yes.

ERWIN GOSS, an accused voluntarily took the stand in his own behalf and after being duly sworn, testified through an interpreter as follows:

REDIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY MAJOR SAXON:

Q Your name is Erwin Goss and you are one of the accused here?

A Yes.

Q You have heretofore testified before this court?

A Yes.

Q I mean in this case?

A Yes.

Q Now, is the testimony you have heretofore given the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth, with the exception of certain mistakes and errors you have called to my attention?

A Yes.

Q Have you gone over the transcript of your evidence in this case with your counsel?

A Yes.

Q And if so, during it, you called to my attention certain errors which crept into this testimony which you think are mistakes on your own part as far as the answers here are concerned?

A Yes.

Q Do you desire to correct those answers at this time under oath?

A Yes.

Q With that in mind, I call your attention to page 982 of the transcript, line 6, and ask you if this question was asked you and you made this answer: "And what was this school known as?" And the answer: "The name was Werewolf."

A Yes, that is a mistake.

Q What is the mistake?

A The name of the school at that time wasn't Werewolf; it was N-12.

Q Is that what you intended to answer?

A I made this mistake, yes.

Q I call your attention to page 983, line 24 and ask you if you made this answer to the following question: "Was it still at Tiefenthal or was it then at Hallrabenstein?" And the answer, "The school remained in Tiefenthal until the 13th of January 1945 the day in which we were bombed out completely," and ask you if that answer is correct.

(Cross - Redirect)

A Probably I answered the question in this manner, but it was a mistake, it should be 13th of February, not 13th of January.

Q I now call your attention to page 987 of the transcript, line 15 in which these questions were asked and these answers made: "Who fired these shots you heard?" And the answer, "I can't say that — I really don't know. Anyway, the flier wasn't injured and nothing had happened to him." Question: "All right, continue." Answer: "The flier was taken to the school upon my orders and taken into the first building of that school where we had arranged one room to be a mess hall," and the sentence continues.

A It should say the second building of that school.

Q Now, page 988, line 23, the question was, "Go ahead," and the answer, "I couldn't get Major Best, because he wasn't there, and I left a message that I would be at this appointed place called Unter dem Linden — that I would be at this particular place," and then it continues. Was that the answer you intended to give?

A It should say Unter dem Eichen (Under the Oaks.)

Q Now, I call your attention to page 989, line 14 thereof and call your attention to this question: "What happened next concerning this flier?" And the answer: "I met Major Best at Unter dem Linden and Major Best transmitted to me the order that the flier was to be shot." Was this correct or not?

A Here too it should say "Unter dem Eichen."

Q Lieutenant Goss, I now call your attention to page 990 of the transcript in which this question was asked of you and this answer given, line 25. Question: "Continue telling the court what next transpired."

Answer: "Buhlmann then received the order to take this flier to Bayerbach ..." Was this the correct spelling of this particular town?

A No, it should be spelled Bauerbach.

Q Lieutenant Goss, I next call your attention to page 991 of this transcript -- I am in error, 990 and 991 containing this answer, "and to shoot him on the way. Buhlmann left with the flier and returned after about three quarters of an hour to one hour and reported that he had not been able to carry out his instructions because some civilians had always butted in." In that connection you used the word "instructions," intending to give there.

A No, it shouldn't say "instructions" it should say "order".

Q I next call your attention to page 991, line 12, question: "Did you transmit to these two men exactly the instructions you had received from General Steyer about disposing of the flier by shooting him?" I want to ask you, Lieutenant Goss, did you understand the word "instructions" was used when the question was put to you, or did you understand the word "order" was used?

A I assume the word "order" was used, at least it should say "order" instead of instructions.

Q Lieutenant Goss, do "instructions" and "orders" have a great deal of difference in their meaning?

A Yes. Instructions to a German means to inform somebody of something and not always is an order included in such information. The order is the direct instruction to somebody to carry out the order.

Q I will ask you if you did not also call to my attention page 991 that the word Bauerbach was misspelled?

A Yes. It should be B-a-u-e-r-b-a-c-h.

Q Lieutenant Goss, I refer you now to page 991 and 992 of the transcript and to this question and answer: "How did you expect to avoid punishment yourself for not having carried out the order given you by General Streep?" Answer: "I did carry out General Streep's orders which I had received by way of Rost by ordering Buhlmann to take the flier to Hoerstech and shoot him on the way, and I had then received the report from Buhlmann to the effect it was impossible to carry out this order because civilians were around all the time, and even more new civilians would be around and would be following the flier around if for no other reason than to find out what would be happening to him. I therefore had a good reason for exonerating Buhlmann and keeping him out of trouble as well as myself; since he could see that I had done everything to carry out the order." I will ask you whether or not that is the full answer you intended to give there.

(Direct-Redirect)

[illegible] Instead of "since he" it should say "since Streep could see," etc.

[illegible] I now refer you also to page 998 of the transcript, line 27, which reads, "The enemy was pushing from both directions as well as from Oberwesa where I had crossed the Rhine near Oppenheim . . . " Did you intend to use the word "I" or "he"? [illegible] Streep [illegible] I wanted to use "he" instead of "I".

[illegible] Lieutenant Goss, I must call your attention to this part of the transcript, pages 1000 and 1001, "Tell the court what message was conveyed to you from Streep regarding that." This is your answer: "Major Rost told me that he had transmitted the report to Streep, and he had also made clear to him the reason why this flier had not been shot. Major Streep had been quite outraged at this report and Rost said that he told Rost, 'It is a bad symptom for these men if they appear to become weak. If they do, I consider it duties to talk a few serious words to them.' I want to ask you whether or not, Lieutenant Goss, you did not inform me also that a part of the quote you intended to testify, continuing Streep's answer, "If answer?

A It shouldn't say "instructions" but "orders" of General Stroop and then he was supposed to transmit the orders of General Stroop because Major Bast couldn't give me any orders.

Q The sum and substance is that you want "orders" placed in place of "instructions" and you want General Stroop's name for Major Bast's?

A Yes.

Q Now, I call your attention to page 1014 of the transcript, line 8 in which this question was propounded: "So on this occasion the civilians protected the flier from the police, instead of the police protecting the flier from the civilians, is that correct?" And the answer: "I would like to state here that we had nothing whatever to do with the police. We were an SS organization under the direct command of General Stroop and had no authority of police or Security Police."

(Goes - Redirect)

the next opportunity this would be brought out."

A Yes, Best told me so.

Q That is what Best told you?

A Yes.

Q I next call your attention to page 1010, line 2 in which the word "instructions" is used and ask you whether or not you intended the word "order" should be used?

A Yes, it should say "orders" instead of "instructions".

Q Referring you then to page 1011, line 18 of the transcript and will read you these questions and answers and ask you what corrections you desire made: "You did meet Major Best and talk to him, is that correct?" Answer: "I left a message to tell Major Best to find out what the instructions of General Stroop would be and them in the afternoon have the orders of Major Best transmitted to me by meeting him in this place." What corrections should be made in that question and

A It should say "we were a unit of the Waffen SS," instead of "an SS organization"[illegible]

Q Now I call your attention to page 1017 of the transcript, line 19 in which this question was asked you by me and ask you whether or not that was the way you understood the question. "Lieutenant Goss, did you make application to General Stroop to be transferred from this assignment in the German school to some other assignment?" What is incorrect in this question the way you understood it?

A It shouldn't say "German school" it should read "Worewolf school".

Q Lieutenant Goss, were those corrections that you have given in the transcript of the testimony formerly given by you in the evidence the truth the whole truth and nothing but the truth?

A Yes, but in my opinion there are two more corrections on page 1036, line 18 it should say "from the" school, of orders.

Q I will ask you whether or not in line 19 where it say "I couldn't be present because Goss couldn't call from a school," it should say "from the school"?

A It should say from the school instead of "a" because we had only telephone in our school, but that is Micholy's testimony -- that's all right.

Q Are there any other corrections in this testimony you think should be made, Lieutenant Goss? Any questions by the court of this witness?

A No. [illegible] No questions by the court. The witness will take Q Do you desire the court then to consider your testimony you have givenhere with these corrections as having been given under oath? the dock)

A Yes.

[illegible] the accused seat and will

MAJOR SAXON: Your witness.

[illegible]

RECROSS EXAMINATION

[illegible] returned Stroop)

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

[illegible] place [illegible].

Q You read and understand English, don't you, Goss?

A .I learned English now, before I hardly know any English.

Q Well, you understand English today, don't you?

A I can't say "understand" anyway more than I did before.

Q Well, you read that transcript of the record of trial and picked out those errors in it?

A No.

Q Who did that?

A We did this together, Michely and Major Saxon.

Q Who read the English into German for you?

A Michely.

Q And after discussing it with Michely, you desired everywhere "instructions" appeared it should be "orders"?

A Yes.

A No, I can understand this mistake, only in this way. This was a mistake in translation, since I always spoke of orders.

Q But if you tell the truth about a thing not under oath, you would tell the truth under oath, and if you lie not under oath, you would lie under oath?

A I have to repudiate this very definitely because this testimony is much too serious to play around with the truth.

Q Yes.

CAPTAIN VANCE: No further questions.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Any questions by the court of this witness?

PRESIDENT: No questions by the court. The witness will take his place.

(Whereupon the accused was excused and resumed his seat in the dock.)

DEFENSE COUNSEL: The next witness is the accused Boet who will also be examined by Major Saxon.

PROSECUTION: Let the record show that the accused Stroop resumed his place in the dock.

PRESIDENT: Do you desire to be sworn with the men".

ACCUSED BEST: Yes. [illegible] page 1057, I will read

GEORG BEST, an accused voluntarily took the stand in his own behalf and after being duly sworn, testified through an interpreter as follows:

REDIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY MAJOR SAXON:

Q You are the accused Best who has heretofore testified before this court?

AA Yes.

Q And you have heretofore testified and have since that time had a chance to examine the written transcript of your testimony, is that right, Major?

A Yes.

Q Is that testimony the truth, the whole truth, with the exception of certain corrections you wish to make in that testimony?

A Yes.

Q Now, have you gone over those corrections with your defense attorney and some of your co-defendants and determined you wish to make corrections in some of the testimony?

A Yes.

Q In that connection I call your attention to page 1056 and 1057 in which this question was asked you and you made the following answer, which I will read in part. The question: "The Werewolf, as a matter of fact, never got into training . . ." And this is your answer in part, "Unfortunately we had no communication, that is I didn't with the men in action so I don't know what did happen. I had instructions from General Pruetzmann to live together with a man at the front constantly in order to remain informed . . ." Will you tell the court what is incorrect in that answer and what you want corrected?

A It shouldn't say "with a man," but "with the men".

Q Now, calling your attention further to page 1057, I will read the question: "Did you have any command functions at all under General Stroop?" Answer: "Yes". Is that answer correct or incorrect?

A It should say "no" instead of "yes", because against the orders received from Berlin, General Stroop left all the command to themselves in Werewold matters . . . had reserved to himself all command and Werewolf matters.

Q I now refer you to page 1070 in which this question was asked you and ask you whether or not it is correct? "Now, I believe he already made a date at a certain time to meet Goss under the cake to tell him what should be done with the flier, is that correct?"

A It shouldn't say "he" it should say "I".

Q I refer you to page 1071, line 3 in which this question was asked you, "When is the next time you heard anything in reference to this flier?" And the answer, "One day later on the 17th of March."

A It should say the 16th of March.

Q I refer you to page 1071 of the transcript, line 4 thereof. This question was asked you and the answer is given as follows: [illegible] the accused in his own behalf and testified through an interpreter as follows:

"Q When is the next time you heard anything in reference to this flier?" [illegible]

The answer is given in the transcript:

"A One day later on the 17th of March[illegible]

Is that answer correct or incorrect?

A It should say on the 16th of March.

Q With these corrections that you have just given to the court here under oath, do you desire that the court consider the testimony heretofore given by you, including these corrections, as having been given by you under oath before this court? Consider the evidence you have not [illegible] having been given under oath?

MAJOR SAXON: Your witness, Captain.

Q Do you [illegible] under CROSS EXAMINATION of what you previously QUESTIONED BY CAPTAIN VANCE: ?

Q Which co-accused did you discuss your testimony with since you last testified? [illegible]: Your witness.

A With the accused Michely. [illegible]

Q Anybody else? [illegible]:

A Now Mehler, you attach importance to taking an oath, do you not?

CAPTAIN VANCE: That is all.

MAJOR SAXON: Does the court have any questions?

PRESIDENT: No questions by the court. The witness will take his place in the dock. [illegible] at this document I am holding in my hand [illegible] DEFENSE COUNSEL: The last accused who has testified not yet under oath is Koehler. We will now call him. He desires to be sworn.

PRESIDENT: Do you desire to be sworn?

(Post-Recross) Right, you may [illegible] it.

A (Resuming testimony) 1934

[illegible] while the accused is reading that, may I ask

(Mehler Recross)

ACCUSED HOEHLER: Yes.

WILHELM HOEHLER, an accused, being first duly sworn, resumed the stand in his own behalf and testified through an interpreter as follows:

REDIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY DEFENSE COUNSEL:

Q You have previously testified in your own behalf not under oath?

A Yes.

Q Was the evidence you gave to the court the truth and the whole truth and nothing but the truth?

A Yes.

Q Do you desire the court to consider the evidence you gave not under oath as having been given under oath?

A Yes.

Q Do you now under oath affirm the truth of what you previously testified before this court?

A Yes.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Your witness.

RECROSS EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q Hoehler, you attach importance to taking an oath, do you not?

A Yes.

Q You would not swear to a falsehood, would you?

A No.

Q I want you to look at this document I am holding in my hand and tell the court if it is written in your own handwriting and sworn to?

A Yes. May I read it?

Q All right, you may read it.

A (Reading document)

DEFENSE COUNSEL: While the accused is reading that, may I ask the prosecution if that thing he has in his hand is an exhibit before this court?

CAPTAIN VANCE: It is not.

ACCUSED HOEHLER: I read it.

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q This statement of yours, written in your own handwriting, was sworn to as being the whole truth, was it?

A Did I swear to this too? Did I swear to one or both of them?

Q You have to answer the question.

A I put my signature after I wrote down the statement. I didn't sign any oath.

Q Does this statement contain the truth or does it contain false testimony?

A No, that's the truth.

Q This is the truth?

A Yes,

Q It in no wise stacks up and compares with the story you have told this court from the witness stand, does it?

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I pray the court's judgment. The thing is to speaks for itself.

CAPTAIN VANCE: In view of that statement I will offer this document in evidence --

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I would like to see it.

CAPTAIN VANCE:-- and ask that it be received as part of the record and be given the number Prosecution Exhibit 146.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: We will let the court rule on that without stating whether we object or not.

PRESIDENT: Prosecution Exhibit Number 146 will be received in evidence and made a part of the record.

(Hoehler-Emerson)

(The document referred to was marked Prosecution Exhibit 146, was received in evidence as Prosecution Exhibit 146, is attached hereto and made a part of the record.)

CAPTAIN VANCE: If it please the court, prosecution also introduces as Prosecution Exhibit 146-A, an English translation of the statement and ask that it be received in evidence.

PRESIDENT: Prosecution Exhibit Number 146-A will be received in evidence and made a part of the record.

(The document referred to was marked Prosecution Exhibit 146-A, was received in evidence as Prosecution Exhibit 146-A, is attached hereto, and made a part of the record.)

CAPTAIN VANCE: I ask permission of the court at this time to read this statement.

PRESIDENT: Permission is granted.

(Whereupon Captain Vance read Prosecution Exhibit 146-A, followed by a reading of Prosecution Exhibit 146 in the German language by the interpreter.)

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q Now, Koehler, which story is the truth, the one you told to the court here in court or the story you have written here in your own handwriting?

A Both of them because they are not contradictory.

Q Well, let us see if they are contradictory or not. Do you remember testifying that Fuehr was on one side of the car and Freundt was on the other side and that Freundt shot the flier? Do you remember that?

A (No response)

Q In this statement you say that both shot the flier. Which is the truth?

A In my first interrogation I said Fuehr was on the left door of the car and Freundt on the right door of the car. When the flier left the car, while he was leaving the car, I saw both of them on the lefthand side of the car respectively, but the moment he had left the right door of the car, several shots were fired. At the time the shots were fired I didn't see any more that Fuehr was on the left door of the car and Freundt on the right door of thecar.

Q Did Fuehr shoot this flier as well as Freundt?

A I said already in my first interrogation, as well as

Q I am not asking you about your interrogation. I am asking you the question now.

A I can't answer this question only if I am allowed to explain it.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: And I ask that he be allowed to do so.

CAPTAIN VANCE: He doesn't need an explanation. He can answer it "yes" or "no" without an explanation.

PRESIDENT: The question will be answered without detailed explanation.

ACCUSED HOEHLER: I didn't see that Fuehr was shooting.

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q Then you were lying in this sworn statement, is that right?

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I pray the court's judgment. Whether he is or is not is obvious or can be determined by the court from a reading of that statement. There is nothing in that statement in which he says that Fuehr did any shooting.

PRESIDENT: Read that.

CAPTAIN VANCE: (Reading) "Freundt and Fuehr started shooting after him immediately, whereupon the flier was hit and fell to the ground after taking only a few paces."

THE ACCUSED HOEHLER: That is a report.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Read down here too (indicating); read the whole thing.

(Hoehler-Recross)

CAPTAIN VANCE: Colonel, you can read any part you want to when I finish my cross examination.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I have an objection. In order to pass on it, the court should have the entire document.

PRESIDENT: Read the balance.

CAPTAIN VANCE (Continuing reading): "It is possible, that by the reading of the above, the unvoluntarily arising question why I had not shot myself, was answered by me from the first by the following sentence: 'Even before I had left the car the prisoner turned to escape.' In my case the report made it clear and distinct that Freundt and Fuehr were the ones who had fired the shots, even though, as I have already stated, I did not see that besides Freundt, Fuehr also fired at the prisoner --"

DEFENSE COUNSEL: This is the way it should be read. (Reading): "Even though, as I have already stated, I did not see that besides Freund, Fuehr also fired at the prisoner."

There is a comma. That makes all the difference in the world. That is a distinct qualification that he did not see Fuehr do any shooting.

PRESIDENT: The court will give that necessary consideration.

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE: (The answer was read by the reporter.)

Q When you left with this flier, was it planned that you were going to stop on the way and the flier was going to be shot or did the flier ask you to stop so that he could relieve himself? Which is the truth?

A I said already in my first interrogation --

CAPTAIN VANCE: I object, if it please the court. This witness can answer my questions. He is evading them and talking about everything but answering my questions.

PRESIDENT: Answer the question. It is the truth that you [illegible]

ACCUSED MUEHLER: Already on my why from our headquarters to SS Colonel Trummler I heard from Freundt that the flier was to be shot.

CAPTAIN VANCE: If the court please, I wish the court would instruct this witness to answer my question.

(Muehler-Recross)

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q Which is the truth? Did the flier ask you to stop so that he could relieve himself or was it planned that he was going to be killed?

A It was planned right from the beginning. What is said in this statement is only the report which we made.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Is the prosecution still objecting to that answer?

CAPTAIN VANCE: I do not think he has answered it.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: He said, "It was planned from the beginning. What is said in that statement was only the report."

CAPTAIN VANCE: I want him to answer the question, if he will.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I submit that he has answered it.

PRESIDENT: Read the question and answer.

(Whereupon the question and answer were read by the reporter.)

PRESIDENT: The court does not thoroughly understand the answer. Will you repeat the question and have it answered in such a manner that the court can understand what he means?

(Whereupon the question was read by the reporter.)

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Please answer "yes" or "no."

ACCUSED HOEHLER: I have to make a short explanation to that. There is a misunderstanding here.

PRESIDENT: A short explanation is satisfactory to the court.

ACCUSED HOEHLER: What I said first is the truth the way it happened. What is said in the second statement here is a report which is not according to the truth, a report which I made on instructions of Fruendt. The next day I made a report which was dictated to me by Freundt which is not in accordance with the instructions by Freundt, on orders of SS Colonel Trummler.

Q Now, with that explanation will you tell me whether it was the plan to take the man out to kill him or on the trip did the flier ask you to stop the car so that he could relieve himself?

A No, it was decided that the car should stop and the flier did not request us to stop so that he could relieve himself. That was only in the report.

Q Do you remember testifying that Freundt ordered the flier to get out of the car?

A Yes.

Q And immediately after that the shooting started?

A The moment he left the door the shots were fired, that's correct.

Q What about this statement that they stopped to load their weapons after they got out of the car, in other words, only shortly before they made use of them. I could hear the cocking procedure in the car distinctly, and was sure that this did not escape the attention of the prisoner either, who was still sitting next to me."

A I thought that I heard this, that outside they were loading the pistols.

Q That is the truth, is it not?

A That I heard this? Yes, but I didn't see it.

Q By that you mean both Freundt and Fuchr?

A Yes.

Q You did not make that report to Dr. Trummler, did you? That was not part of your report?

A No.

Q You said you were quite angry about the fact that they both loaded the weapons after they got out. Exactly what were you angry about?

A Freundt had told me already before that up there the flier was to be shot. So I said to myself, "Why didn't they load the weapons before? Why did they wait for this spot? Why did Freundt have to load his pistol where the flier had to hear it?"

Q That is what made you angry?

A Yes, because it was no pleasure to be present there. I knew that the man who was sitting next to me would be a corpse the next minute.

Q Koehler, you have told one story to the court which you want them to consider as being under oath on the witness stand and you have told a different story in a sworn written statement. Which story do you want the court to believe?

A Altogether is the truth whatever is said. There is no contradiction. It is just as true as what I testified to here in court.

CAPTAIN VANCE: Nothing further.

REDIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY DEFENSE COUNSEL:

Q Koehler, what was this statement Prosecution Exhibit 146-A intended to be?

CAPTAIN VANCE: We object to the question as to what it was intended to be. The accused wrote it himself voluntarily. It speaks for itself, the meaning of it.

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

ACCUSED KOEHLER: I was told that I put down in writing the report which was mentioned already during my first interrogation.

QUESTIONS BY DEFENSE COUNSEL:

Q What report?

A The report I made to SS Colonel Trummler.

Q Is there anything in this statement Prosecution Exhibit

116-A in addition to your summary or statement or what your report to Trummler was?

A I don't understand you.

Q Well, you said that this statement Prosecution Exhibit 116-A was intended to be a summary or a report or a statement descriptive of the report which you wrote out which went to Trummler about this killing. Is that correct?

A No, it is a supplement to the first interrogation, to my first interrogation. I had one first interrogation and afterwards I supplemented it through this statement. And the supplement was this report which I had mentioned already in my first interrogation.

Q Is this statement dealing exclusively with the report or does it contain additional matter?

A I was supposed to write down only the report for Trummler and whatever else I wrote down later on were things which came in my mind later on, as far as I remember.

Q Mark on this paper with parenthesis that part of it which deals with the report to Trummler.

CAPTAIN VANCE: I object to this witness marking up prosecution exhibits.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I am asking him purely to put parenthesis around a certain part.

PRESIDENT: Objection sustained.

QUESTIONS BY DEFENSE COUNSEL:

Q I call your attention to Prosecution Exhibit 116 and ask you to read into the record that part of it which pertains to Trummler's report, -- just the part that deals with the Trummler report. Leave everything else out.

A (Reading) "During the trip the American flyer indicated to us that he desired to get out because he had to relieve himself. For that reason we stopped the car after passing the 'Wandersmann.' After the Criminal employee Fuehr and the Criminal Oberassistant Fraundt had gotten out of the car, the prisoner left the car also. Just as he had reached the righthand side door of the car, he turned to escape.

Freundt and Fuehr started shooting after him immediately, whereupon the flier was hit and fell to the ground after taking only a few paces."

DEFENSE COUNSEL: So far he has read paragraphs 1 and 2 of Prosecution Exhibit 146-A verbatim.

INTERPRETER: No, sir, only paragraph 2.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Paragraph 2 verbatim.

ACCUSED HOEHLER: Furthermore, I have -- there is a little addition which was part of the report.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Read it.

ACCUSED HOEHLER: It was said, "Even before I had left the car the flier started to escape."

QUESTIONS BY DEFENSE COUNSEL:

Q That is the part of it which deals with the report to Trummler?

A Yes.

Q If I am correct, you read as part of the report, one sentence of the third paragraph which is in quotation marks, is that correct?

A Yes, in the third paragraph.

Q The rest of it was matter which you added?

A Yes.

Q In your testimony before this court did you seek to make a distinction by testifying as to the things you saw and heard yourself, leaving out suppositions and hypotheses?

A (Physically stricken from the record.)

CAPTAIN VANCE: We object, if it please the court, and move the answer be stricken. Colonel Berman is putting words in the mouth of the witness. It also invades the province of this court. The court will decide these issues, and not this witness.

PRESIDENT: Objection sustained.

CAPTAIN VANCE: I move the answer be stricken. It was answered before the court ruled.

PRESIDENT: Motion to strike granted. The question will be physically stricken from the record.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Nothing further from me, may it please the court, unless some of the German counsel have some questions.

CAPTAIN VANCE: Nothing further from the prosecution.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Does the court have any questions?

PRESIDENT: No questions by the court. The witness will take his place in the dock.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: May it please the court, the defense is now ready to proceed with the first of its three principal accused. Does the court desire that we start now or after the recess?

PRESIDENT: Court will recess until three-thirty.

(Whereupon at 1500 hours the court recessed.)

(Thereupon at 1530 hours the Court reconvened.)

PRESIDENT: The Court will come to order.

PROSECUTION: May it please the Court, let the record show that all the members of the Court, all the members of the Prosecution, all the members of the Defense except Dr. Trost, who is sick, are present. That all the accused, the reporter and interpreter are present.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: May it please the Court, the accused Stroop will now take the stand in his own behalf and will be examined by his German defense counsel, Dr. Rau. He desires to be sworn.

PRESIDENT: Do you desire to be sworn?

ACCUSED STROOP: Yes.

JURGEN STROOP, an accused, being first duly sworn, voluntarily took the stand in his own behalf and testified through an interpreter as follows:

DIR CT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY DR. RAU:

Q What is your name?

A Jurgen Stroop.

Q Are you an accused in this trial?

A Yes.

Q When and where were you born?

A I was born on the 26th day of September 1895 at Detmold in Lippe.

Q Are you now a prisoner?

A I am a prisoner of war in Dachau.

Q Since when are you a prisoner?

A I was taken prisoner on the 8th of May 1945.

Q What is your family status?

A I am married and had three children of whom a daughter 18 years old and a son 11 years old are still alive.

Q What was your rank?

A At the end I was Lt. General of the SS as well as of the Police.

Q What was your last duty assignment?

A At the end I was Higher SS and Police Leader, at Rhein-Westmark.

Q Since when?

A I became Higher SS and Police Leader, Rhein-Westmark, with headquarters at Wiesbaden on 9 November 1943.

Q When did you come to the SS?

A I entered the Allgemeine SS on 1 July 1932.

Q When did you become a member of the Police?

A I became a Colonel of the Police force in October or November 1939.

Q When did you become a member of the Waffen SS?

A I was transferred through the SS Personnel Main Office to the Waffen SS but I cannot give you the exact dates.

Q Approximately?

A I was an officer of the Wehrmacht in 1936 and I think at the same time I was also taken over into the Waffen SS as an officer of the Waffen SS.

Q Were you a member of the NSDAP?

A Yes. I was a party member.

Q Since when?

A I entered the party on the first of September 1932.

Q Did you participate in the First World War on the front?

A On the 4th of August 1941-- pardon me, 1914, I volunteered and I participated in the entire First World War with the active Infantry Regiment 55 and Reserve Infantry Regiment 256. I was wounded three times.

Q Did you serve on the front during the second World War?

A On my special request the Reichsfuehrer of the SS Himmler gave permission that I participate in the second World War as a 1st Lt. and Ordnance Officer, being relieved from all my other duties and all my other ranks. It was as an Ordnance Officer of a battalion in the first front line, it was on the eastern front, beginning with the break through of the so-called Stalin line, and I participated in this campaign up to the so-called trap of Demiansk.

Q As a Higher SS and Police Leader do you have a staff?

A Yes, I have a staff.

Q How many men were in this staff?

A My staff at Wiesbaden at the end consisted of approximately seventy to eighty people.

Q How many men were under your command, if you had such a command?

A In my area I had approximately ten thousand men or Order Police. I had more forces according to the defense plan.

Q How many men were in that?

A In the defense plan were involved approximately 126,000 men.

Q Please describe a little more in detail your duties as Higher SS and Police Leader, starting in 1944.

A I had four main duties. I should like to tell to the court in full what my duties were but part of these events happened already three years back. Furthermore, I had to suffer a lot for thirteen and a half months I was under solitary confinement and I ask the court, therefore, that I be permitted to use a few notes which I have made in order to refresh my memory.

PRESIDENT: Permission granted.

Q Please continue.

A First of all, I was leader of the main section, Rhein-Westmark. That means I was the first in charge of the Allgemeine SS in my area. As such I had to inspect the various SS regiments continually. As it was shown on the large map, there existed ten SS regiments. Mainly, it was the control of the welfare measures. We took care of the widows and orphans of the SS men who had died in action. They received pensions. That was a very big job if you can remember that in peacetimes this main section, Rhein-Westmark, had between 15,000 and 17,000 SS men. Out of these, by the end of the war, about 3,000 were still left. These 3,000 men did volunteer duty in addition to their regular profession, mainly on Sundays because otherwise they had no time. It was my duty, therefore, to control and check this volunteer service and to keep up the SS contact with these men. That was my job as Leader of the main section, Rhein-Westmark.

(Stroop-direct)

Now I come to my duties as Higher SS and Police Leader. As such I was Lieutenant General of the Police and as such I was especially responsible for the internal security of my district. In other words, to be able to take care of the situation I made out a special so-called defense plan. The strength of the forces was mentioned here before.

I divided my area into so called Defense commands. I had to keep up continuous contact with these defense commanders. This defense plan was supposed to become active at the moment of internal revolt. In view of the many foreign laborers and foreigners, etc., it was necessary to be prepared for such an eventuality. Each commander of a defense command had such a defense plan. It was my special job to bring to the attention of the defense commanders to make certain that the forces were always up to date so that you wouldn't operate later on only with figures. Furthermore, in order to extend the police we had also the city and rural guard, men, civilians who had volunteered for this assignment. The inspection of these city and rural guards was one of my jobs. Furthermore, as Higher SS and Police Leader I too was responsible for the armament of the people's guard which was formed out of the city and rural guards. Furthermore, I had to make inspections with the 13 police presidents and police directors assigned in this area.

(Stroop-direct)

Furthermore, it was my assignment to check all air raid precautions and the distribution of all the necessary equipment, ladders, etc. of the air raid and fire protection police, regarding the dangers which existed to these areas through the air warfare. Furthermore, I had to keep in contact continuously with the three Gauleiters. These were Gauleiter Ruerckel for Westmark, Gauleiter Sprenger for Hesse-Nassau and Gauleiter Simon for Moselland. These Gauleiters, at the same time, were Reichsstattshalters and Reichscommissioners for the defense. I had to accept orders from these Gauleiters, Reichsstattshalters and Reichscommissioners for the defense. I had to check and distribute the police measures in these three Gaue. Furthermore, as a representative of the police and SS I had to participate at the conferences and meetings from time to time held by these Gauleiters. Here I had to accept their desires or wishes and had to represent the interests of the police. Furthermore, I was responsible for the evacuation of areas which were immediately threatened by the enemy. Here especially the bringing back of the civilian population. During the war in a certain distance from the front, a so called police cordon had become necessary. This so called police cordon was determined , in agreement with the various commanders of the Wehrmacht. It was moveable.

Q What was the purpose?

A This police cordon had two purposes. One was to prevent that in case the civilian population was brought back with them spies and saboteurs who could return to the front area again. The second purpose was that deserters without any difficulty could go back to the Reich. Furthermore, as Higher SS and Police Leader I had to keep in personal contact with the commands of the Wehrkreis 12. For this purpose we had continuous meetings and conferences. Furthermore, I had to have personal contact with the army units and army corps which were on duty on the western border of my area, for instance, to help them with the welfare measures for soldiers in the back areas. Furthermore, I had made up a so-called SS and police motorized unit, No. 12 and I had assigned them with the Thirteenth Armored Corps. The inspection of this motorized SS and police unit was another of my assignments. In other words, to do everything possible to hamper the unbearable air warfare I organized two police alarm anti-aircraft batteries which were carried on railroad cars. These police alarm anti-aircraft batteries shot down between fifty-six and fifty-eight enemy airplanes. For the same purpose I had organized, on the Rhein, a so-called anti-aircraft boat unit. These boats had to be built and equipped. The Higher SS and Police Leader was also responsible for the water protection police of the River Rhein as far as it is running through German territory. Furthermore, I had built a so-called trap for attack fliers, a so-called Jabo. This Jabo trap I want to explain, was a truck which ran over the roads like any other truck but during an attack through a low flying plane, had two guns to repel the attack and, furthermore, was completely armored. When I was in my headquarters at Wiesbaden I had to hear the reports of my technical advisors and experts. Since I was of the opinion that it wasn't of much use to stay in the office I was outside of my office every week at least for three or four days. The technical advisors followed, one after the other, in my office. Furthermore, as representative of the Reichs Commissioner for the strengthening of the German nation had to inspect and look over the camps of the Volksdeutsch settlers in my area. I had to see whether the settlers had been used in a proper manner and I had to make check ups from time to time on the farms where these men were being used. Furthermore, it was my job to keep in constant contact with the leaders of the Hitler Youth. From time to time I had to give speeches and lectures there which had the purpose of gaining new members for the Waffen SS.

(Stroop-direct)

Now I come to my duties as appointing and reviewing authority for the Higher SS and police courts. Here I had to receive the reports of the judges and the interrogating officers. I had to agree to the start of investigations and I had to confirm or to refuse to confirm the sentences of the courts.

Now I come to my duties as Higher Commander of the prisoners of war. Here I received continued instructions through the Commander of the prisoners of war, Major General of the Army, Dr. Hoertmann, who was a member of my staff. In fundamental matters I had to sign papers. Furthermore, I had to inspect camps for prisoners of war. These were my duties.

Q Did you receive directly any [illegible] orders in regard to the treatment of [illegible]

A Yes.

Q [illegible]

A In written form.

Q Did you receive also [illegible]

A I might say so.

Q From whom did you receive these [illegible]

A The orders which I received in this respect I received either directly from the Fuehrer Headquarters or through the main office of the [illegible]

Q [illegible]

A The [illegible] was the chief of staff. The chief of staff received the mail and presented it to me. [illegible] the chief of staff [illegible] on my own part gave orders and instructions accordingly.

Q Did you receive directly from your superior officers orders in regard to the treatment of Allied fliers?

A Yes.

Q In which form did you receive these orders?

A In written form.

Q Did you receive also oral orders?

A I might say no.

Q From whom did you receive these written orders?

A The orders which I received in this respect I received either directly from the Reichsfuehrer SS or through the main office of the Order Police.

Q How did these orders reach you? Who brought these orders to you directly?

A The incoming mail went to the chief of staff. The chief of staff opened the mail and presented it to me. When I was absent from Hirschberg, the chief of staff took care, all by himself, of matters which were not too

(STROOP-Direct)

Q What were your special duties in regard to the police?

A The Reichsführer SS, at the time when he appointed the higher SS and police leaders, he specially used -- I might say he practically always used -- the leaders of the main sections of the SS. The position of these higher SS and police leaders had no legal or any other foundation. The direct channel of command from the higher SS and police leaders to the commander of the Order Police developed only gradually and later on.

Q Did you receive combined reports from the inspectors or the commander of the Order Police in your district?

A In accordance with the requirements, I had so-called staff meetings at my headquarters. In these meetings usually participated the commander of the Order Police and the commander or the inspector respectively of the Security Police. During these meetings, I got information and I important. Important, fundamental orders the chief of staff held back until I returned.

Q In addition to orders through these channels, did you receive orders in any other way?

A No.

Q What kind of orders did you receive in regard to the treatment of enemy fliers?

A Regarding the treatment of parachuted enemy fliers, first of all there was the order that all arrested fliers had to be handed over to the Wehrmacht.

Q Who gave this order?

A I can't say that any more today.

Q When did this order come in?

A I am referring now to orders which came in 1944.

Q Please continue.

A Then an order was received that all parachuted fliers taken prisoner had to be handed over to the Security Police. Approximately the end of July or beginning of August, 1944, the so-called non-interference order was received. A general order that all fliers were to be shot I did not receive.

Q Do you know the purpose of the order that the fliers should not be handed over to the Wehrmacht any more but to the Security Police?

A Under the parachuted fliers were many Commando troops. That means men who were equipped with signal instruments, codes, etc. To make certain whether the fliers were men of this type, the fliers had to be handed over to the Security Police.

Q The orders you received were directed to you as the man who received the order, or not?

A These orders, especially when they were secret, came to my address.

Q Were you mentioned as the man who received this order, or were any other officers mentioned as such?

A One has to make a distinction between orders which were directly only for me or orders which I received for information, in which case some other office had received the order.

Q In which cases were you mentioned as the office which received the order?

A As far as the orders are concerned which I just mentioned, probably me.

Q Did you order these orders to be transmitted?

A As was a matter of course that all orders which I received from higher headquarters, I transmitted to my subordinate officers.

Q How was this done in your offices?

A If it could be recognized that this order had come only to me, for instance, the order was transmitted to the Commander of the Order Police, but the rule was that orders which I received at the same time were dispatched through the various main offices to the other commands.

Q In which form were these orders transmitted?

A The chief of staff received the order to transmit these orders accordingly.

Q What do you mean, "accordingly"?

A In writing or orally, I mean in written form. In addition to the chief of staff, I like to mention that also the Department I-A which was attached to my headquarters transmitted orders. It was impossible that all matters were handled only through the chief of staff, and for this reason I had various technical advisers and experts who took care of their departments independently. I mean, for instance, the racial and settlement leader and other departments which are shown here on this map.

Q And which one of your experts had to do with these fliers?

A The chief of staff and the Department I-A took care of the transmittal of these orders. It was my custom to have these technical advisers and experts participate in all these matters, because I was of the opinion that it was of no use if I alone knew about all these matters. I could be absent through air raid attacks or motor car accidents, as it has happened, and then nobody would know what to do.

Q When did you take especially into your confidence for this matter?

A I would like to answer the chief of staff, then I-A, and also my secretary.

Q What was the name of your chief of staff?

A My chief of staff was Colonel Zehlaus.

Q What was the name of your I-A?

A It was SS Captain Dunther.

Q What was the name of your secretary?

A I have the name on my tongue but I forgot it. Miss Koechne.

Q When you were absent from your office, you were alone, or was somebody else with you?

A On all my duty trips -- I like to say practically all trips I made use of my headquarters, my police adjutant, the captain of the Order Police Kalenke was accompanying me.

Q Did he have special instructions from you?

A I don't like to write. My adjutant was a very good stenographer. Even against the wishes of the gauleiter, during meetings I enforced that Captain Kalenke participated in these meetings in order that he could make the necessary notes. He put down all important matters on my duty trips in shorthand and he had my orders to make the necessary file notations after our return. For this reason, in spite of the various things which I had to deal with, I was always in a position to make certain where I was and what I had done.

(STROOP-Direct)

Ta 259-pe-50-3/4-5

Q Did you give the same instructions in regard to the time you spent at your headquarters in Wiesbaden?

A Whenever I had conferences, my secretary, Miss Noecker, had the same order.

Q Did she make notations in regard to these conferences?

A I was very much interested that I had reports on all such conferences.

Q Did you yourself issue orders in regard to the treatment of enemy fliers?

A Out of my own initiative, I gave one order in regard to the treatment of enemy fliers.

Q When was that?

A That was after the death of SS Major Link.

Q Can you give us the exact date?

A I think it was in February, 1945.

Q In which form did you issue an order at that time?

A SS Major Link had participated in the arrest of a parachuted enemy flier. This Allied flier was armed--I testified to this in accordance with the report which I received -- and resisted his arrest. Supposedly, SS Major Link was already pretty close to him and the Allied flier shot him to death. The flier then used the body of the SS Major as cover and after he had finished all the munition of his pistol, continued to fire with the loaded pistol of the SS major. That was the reason for an order in which I explained that during the arrest of parachuted enemy fliers the men who were trying to arrest them should approach them only with the loaded weapon in their hands.

Q Was, in this report, anything said about when the men were supposed to shoot?

A I don't say the exact wording but I was of the opinion if I approached somebody with weapon ready to shoot, if necessary, I would be the first one to shoot. [illegible] were to take care of all criminal

Ta 299-ps-CO-3/4-7

Ta 299-ps-CO-3/4-6

Q Was, in this report, anything said about whether the fliers have to be taken prisoner or not? [illegible]

A This was an order which had to obeyed during the arrest of parachuted enemy fliers. [illegible]

Q If I understand you right, this order expected your subordinates to take the enemy fliers prisoner and to make use of their weapon only if and when necessary? [illegible] disciplinary actions. The

A Yes. [illegible] which I could have ordered. Disciplinary punishments

Q When did you issue this order? [illegible] major up to never come to me.

A As far as I can remember, in February, 1945.

Q In which form, in writing or orally? [illegible] only the sentences

A Written. for in the case for disciplinary actions, as far as

Q To whom was this order issued?

A Probably to the commander of the Order Police, the commander of the Security Police, and for information also to the leaders of the SS [illegible] regiments.

Q In addition to this order, did you issue any other order?

A No.

Q What were your authorities and rights as higher SS and police leader?

A I said before under my duties that I was responsible for the internal security and order of my district. In case of internal revolt, I would have combined the entire SS and police force under my command.

Q During other times, did you have special authority of command, too?

A For instance, I could order the protection of certain objects.

Q Did you have the right to order the shooting of certain individuals?

A I was the higher appointing and reviewing authority of the SS and police court, and for this purpose I had the SS and police court.

Q What were the duties of the SS and police court?

A The duties of the SS and police court in my area, just as well as the duties of all SS and police courts, were to take care of all criminal acts by members of the SS and police as far as they couldn't be taken care of through disciplinary action by their immediate superiors.

Q How far went your disciplinary rights?

A As far as my staff is concerned

Q In regard to all of your subordinates

A As higher appointing and reviewing authority of the SS and police court, I was also their superior judge in disciplinary matters. The disciplinary measures which I could take varied. Disciplinary punishments which could be taken care of by some SS or police major would never come to me.

Q Which sentences could you pronounce yourself?

A In the disciplinary way, I could pronounce only the sentences which were provided for in the code for disciplinary actions, as far as my staff is concerned.

Q Please tell us which sentences could you pronounce in cases like this against the members of your staff. Could you pronounce a death sentence?

A No.

A

End to 259 pld fols

Q

Q

(STROOP-Direct)

Q Could you pronounce the sentence for hard labor?

A That depended on the decision of the SS Police Corps.

Q I mean only in your position as disciplinary superior officer?

A I was subscribed exactly in accordance with the rank which the disciplinary superior officer could punish and how far.

Q Could you pronounce a prison sentence without sentence by the court?

A No.

Q From summer 1944 until the end of the war were any enemy flyers, who had parachuted, taken prisoner by the police in your district?

A As far as I can remember from summer 1944 until the end several thousands of parachuted enemy flyers were taken prisoner.

Q What happened to these flyers at that time according to the knowledge you had at that time?

A The flyers were handed over to the Order Police for a check up and especially were taken to the camp at Oberursel.

Q What kind of a camp was this?

A The camp Oberursel in which I was a prisoner myself for three and a half months was formerly a camp of the German Air Force.

Q When did you hear that such parachuted flyers had been killed?

A Perhaps once in a while on my trips, but especially through information by Colonel Frummler. I heard that, for instance, in his area and through headquarters in his area in three or four cases allied flyers had been shot by trying to escape.

Q In addition to this did you hear anything more?

A No.

Q Did you ever receive from Himmler any special authority in 1944 or 1945?

A At the beginning of the invasion on the coast of the channel the (Stroop-direct)

German front became a little bit weak. From the back areas, especially from the rear areas of France several hundred thousand soldiers were flooding back. The Reichsfuehrer SS Himmler came to Saarbruecken and ordered to a meeting the Wehrkreis Commanders of Wehrkreis' 5, 9 and 12. Furthermore the respective Gauleiters and Reichsstatthalters, furthermore the three Gauleiters from my district and the two higher SS and police leaders from Wurttenburg Baden at Stuttgart and myself.

On this occasion the Reichsfuehrer SS demanded that this flooding back should be stopped and furthermore that appropriate action should be taken. In order that the people present would have authority against people of higher ranks the individuals present received authority which approximately read as follows: I give you this authority now as far as my memory can bring it back. "The Lieutenant General of the Waffen SS, Jurgen Stroop has from me all authority. His orders have to be obeyed. Signed Himmler." This authority which he gave at the same time as commander of the reserve army.

Q Was this general authority given for any special purpose or did it affect everything?

A The Reichsfuehrer SS explained that this certificate or this authority respectively was to be used for the purposes for which he called us there.

Q Did you ever make use of this authority?

A I didn't have to.

Q Please give us also a short report about the conditions which were created in your area through the air warfare, not only as far as the civilian population was concerned but also in regard to the government departments.

A The air warfare in my district surpassed everything which had happened so far. Over my district all bombers squadrons flew to Germany, also when they went to the inner parts of Germany and the same way it was on the return trip. In the area Rhein-Westmark we had air raid alarms every night and I, who was on the road most of the time, could notice from my car again and again that at day and at night, in snow and in rain, and in cold and in heat, hundreds of thousands of women and children were on the road to the air raid shelters and back again. Since we had to drive through all the time, otherwise we wouldn't have reached our destination, we could notice, always, from this migration of the civilian population which never stopped, whether an air raid was going on or not. Often we saw mothers with little children who in the middle of the night in snow and ice were on the way to their homes, and before they reached them had to turn back again and go back to the cold air raid shelter. In the morning at eight o'clock there was another air raid alarm. Since, as I said before, the bombers were often flying across my district or came there for an attack. In between the large bomber units always squadrons of low flying units came, as we called them, "Terror Flyers". When the people thought that it was quiet then these "Terror Flyers" came and shot even the smallest community where there was no military objects at all. On the left side of the Rhine this condition was simply unbearable. The people were supposed to work hard and they were willing to work hard but they didn't find peace and quiet in order to get ready again for their work and regain their strength.

On numerous occasions I saw that low flying planes were flying alongside the road and even the byroads and strafed the people there.

CAPTAIN VANCE: If it please the court, I would like to interpose an objection here. I think this has been raised once before but I don't want the court to get an idea that we agree to this testimony. We object on the ground that it is not a matter of defense.

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I don't know how much longer this is going to be. Does the court want to finish it or shall we break now?

PRESIDENT: The court will recess until tomorrow morning at [illegible]

(Whereupon at 1645 hours the court recessed.)

Legal Form No. 8

MILITARY GOVERNMENT COURT
MILITÄRGERICHT

CHARGE SHEET
ANKLAGESCHRIFT

Place .....
Ort

Date .....
Datum

Name of accused .....
Name des Angeklagten

is hereby charged with the following offences:
wird hiermit wegen der folgenden strafbaren Handlungen angeklagt:

First Charge: ..... Erste Anklage: .....

.....

.....

.....

Particulars: ..... Einzelheiten: .....

.....

.....

.....

Second Charge: ..... Zweite Anklage: .....

.....

.....

.....

Particulars: ..... Einzelheiten: .....

.....

.....

.....

.....

The above charges are referred for trial to the *Summary *Intermediate Military Court to be held *General

Die Verhandlung wird vor dem *Einfachen *Mittleren Militärgerichte *Oberen

at ..... on ..... 194.....
in (Address of Court) am
(Anschrift des Gerichtes)

at .....
um Uhr stattfinden.

By Order
Im Auftrage von

.....
(Signature of person preferring charges)
(Unterschrift des Vertreters der Anklagebehörde)

*Strike out words not applicable.
*Nichtzutreffendes ist durchzustreichen.

Copy of above served on accused ..... 194.....
Abschrift dem Angeklagten zugestellt am

.....
(Signature of person making service)
(Unterschrift des Zustellers)

CA/GI 13 Legal Form No. 8

MILITARY GOVERNMENT COURT

CASE RECORD.

28

Pages 1963 - 2028

Case No. Superior Orders

*Summary
*Intermediate Military Court.
*General

Place DACHAU, GERMANY

Date 5 March 194 7

Prosecutor Lt. Col. Dwinell

Defence Counsel Lt. Col. Berman
Herbert B. Rosenstock

Interpreter Rudolph Nathansen

Reporter Patricia Stewart, Imogene Butler, Sally R. Hayett, Evelyn Cohen, Peter D. Curti, Irving Hayett

~~Members of Court~~ WITNESSES

JURGE: STROOP

Accused JURGEN STROOP, et al

Address Sex Age

	First Charge	Second Charge
Pleas
Findings
Previous Convictions

Sentence
- Imprisonment
  - Term
  - Beginning 194
- Fine
  - Amount
  - To be paid before 194
    or in case of default of payment to serve a *further term of imprisonment.

Charge Sheet and Record of Testimony are annexed hereto.

(Signature of member of court.)

REVIEW

Action of Reviewing Authority

(Signature of reviewing authority)

*Strike out words not applicable.

RECORD OF TESTIMONY

in trial of

THE UNITED STATES versus JURGEN STROOP, et al

by

GENERAL MILITARY GOVERNMENT COURT

tried at

DACHAU, GERMANY Beginning 10 JANUARY 1947

5 MARCH 1947 Pages 1963 - 2028

TESTIMONY

WITNESSES	DIRECT	CROSS	REDIRECT	RECROSS	COURT
JURGEN STROOP	1964		2017
	1970	1979	2024	2026

Dachau, Germany
5 March 1947

MORNING SESSION

(Whereupon the Court reconvened at 0900 hours.)

PRESIDENT: The Court will come to order.

PROSECUTION: May it please the Court, let the record show that all the members of the Court, all the members of the Prosecution, all the members of the Defense, except Dr. Trost, who is absent sick, all of the accused except the accused Number 4, Fuehr, and the accused Number 5, Hoehler, who are absent sick, the reporter and interpretor are present.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I have talked--at least my secretary has talked, to Wiesbaden, may it please the Court, and Dr. Trost is still unable because of her health to come here, but she states that if she were able to travel to Dachau it would be too late for her to have any effective part in this case because of the late date; so I ask that hereafter she be reported as absent, or perhaps more correctly that she has withdrawn. I would like to make one more brief statement as a matter of record; although I don't know if it's going to be germane. Sometime in January, we put in a "hold" in the Security Section here on two witnesses--one, Dr. Hans Krieger, who, I believe was Somann's adjutant, and a fellow named Wiebens, an intermediate commander between Somann and Trummler; and, through a mistake in Headquarters, both men were shipped away--Krieger to Prague and Wiebens to somewhere in the British Zone. It happens that I examined them before they went; and, through courtesy of the Prosecution we have agreed on a stipulation taking care of Krieger, but have been unable to agree on Wiebens. They may still be produced, but as a matter of protection for my clients, I want it stated in the record what the situation was. We think he is a very important witness.

At the end of yesterday's session, the accused Stroop was on the stand.

PRESIDENT: You are reminded that you are still under oath.

ACCUSED JURGEN STROOP: Yes.

JURGEN STROOP, an accused, voluntarily took the stand in his own behalf, and, being reminded that he was still under oath, testified further through an interpreter as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY DR. RAU:

Q For the information of the Court, you yesterday gave a description of the effects of air warfare in Wehrkreis 12. Did you finish, or would you like to add something?

A I would like to add a few more sentences.

Q Continue, please.

A In my opinion, and in the opinion of all the comrades of mine in any authority, the air war had overstepped its limits to a great extent ever since 1944. It was completely out of the question to describe the behavior of these fliers, and particularly the low-flying fliers, in accordance with international law.

Q What was the psychological result therefrom, particularly with respect to the propaganda of the German government?

CAPTAIN VANCE: We object, may it please the Court, to his testifying about the propaganda of the German government.

PRESIDENT: Objection sustained.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I would like to state that it was the Prosecution that brought that in when they introduced Gobbels' order and talked about radio speeches, etc., and I pray for reconsideration of the ruling. We are not asking him to describe the propaganda. The question was, what was the effect of it on the people in Wehrkreis 12, which, of course, includes these accused. What was the effect was the question, I am sure.

CAPTAIN VANCE: May it please the Court, if I remember correctly, when this type of evidence came in, the Prosecution objected to it. The Court went into closed session to determine what type of evidence along this line would be admitted, and the Court announced that it would not go into propaganda that was spread around Germany at that time, but would permit the Defense to show actual violations, and the Court would give it what consideration it desires to do, but it said it would not let propaganda about the American Air Force come before this Court.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I subscribe to that mostly, but there have been no questions about that, and we didn't intend that, but the effect of it on the minds of the people--that's different.

CAPTAIN VANCE: May it please the Court, if that's the idea, then General Stroop would be in a position what was in his mind, but certainly not what was in the minds of other people.

PRESIDENT: The Court stands by its decision.

DR. RAU: According to your observation, what was the psychological situation resulting from this air warfare?

CAPTAIN VANCE: Object on the same ground.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I pray the Court's judgment.

PRESIDENT: Objection sustained.

DR. RAU: Did you make any observation as to the attitude and the opinion of the population?

CAPTAIN VANCE: Same objection, may it please the Court.

PRESIDENT: Objection sustained.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I ask a ruling from the Court at this time, or rather I am going to make a proof at this time. May it please the Court, we are attempting now to prove through this witness that the effect of this air warfare on the German population, including the accused in this case, with particular reference to Wehrkreis 12, was actually demoralising physically and mentally, affecting their judgments and their capacities to think and to reason, and I ask a ruling of the Court as to whether evidence to that effect will be received or not.

PRESIDENT: The Court will recess.

(Whereupon at 0915 hours, the Court recessed.)

(Whereupon court reconvened at 1020 hours.)

PRESIDENT: Court will come to order.

PROSECUTION: May it please the court, let the record show that all the members of the court, all the members of the prosecution, all the members of the defense, except Dr. Trost, who has withdrawn as defense counsel and no further reference will be made to Dr. Trost in this case, all of the accused, the reporter and interpreter are present.

PRESIDENT: The court rules that evidence of the effect of air warfare desired to be introduced by the defense may be admitted to show effect upon the accused only, and provided such effect on any of the accused comes within the personal knowledge of the witness. Attention is called to prior ruling. The court already has common knowledge of the propaganda that was disseminated generally by the German government, and further evidence of this nature is deemed unnecessary.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I take it, may it please the court, that the effect of this ruling is to rule out the offer of proof I made prior to the recess. That offer of proof was to show the general effect of air warfare on the people of Rhein-Westmark, including the accused. According to this ruling, such evidence is admissible only if the potential witness personally knows of the direct effect on one special accused, so that the possibility of the accused knowing of the general traditions in the community are ruled out of evidence. Am I correct? I do not mean to be contentious, but if my understanding is correct, it was our complete plan of defense and I would rather make certain now than continually offer matters that would be subject to exception as coming outside this rule. In other words, if I may presume on the patience of the court, if we cannot produce a witness who of personal knowledge can testify to the effect of air warfare on a particular defendant named there, then the evidence is inadmissible?

PRESIDENT: That is correct.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I would like to make it plain that in my presentation I intended to discuss only the actual effect produced by air warfare on the inhabitants of the Rhein-Westmark area, including the effect on the accused either directly or, of course, indirectly, to form what they say that took place around them. But all that evidence is inadmissible according to this ruling unless the witness can show, for instance, that as the result of a particular bombardment the home of a particular accused was affected, or some relative was affected, or he was personally directly affected. Anything which goes beyond that limited scope is inadmissible. May I ask if that restatement is correct?

PRESIDENT: You have gone a little bit beyond what the court had in mind.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: If I am taking up too much time I hope to be told. I do not want to trespass, but we have come to the crucial point of the rest of the case right now.

PRESIDENT: Proceed with your case. The ruling has been made.

DR. RAU: I, on my part, would like to ask the court for a ruling on another question. The Italian teacher of criminal law, Lombroso, many years ago already pointed out the disadvantageous influence of the surroundings on criminal actions. Especially, he pointed out that a mass hypnosis creates better conditions for criminal actions without the perpetrator knowing it. The defense would like to have the court decide whether the accused were acting under such a mass hypnosis or mass suggestion and mass influence. For this reason, the defense would like to prove to the court that such a mass hypnosis and mass influence, mass suggestion really existed in the service command 12. I ask, therefore, the court for a ruling whether I am allowed to ask questions which should prove the existence of such a mass hypnosis or mass influence.

PRESIDENT: Court will recess in place. t, but I personall

(Whereupon the court recessed in place.) ut. I

(Whereupon the court reconvened.) of the ruling. I

PRESIDENT: Court will come to order. if he knew the

The answer to Dr. Rau's question is yes, provided the witness has personal knowledge of the effect of any one of the accused. The court has common knowledge of the effect of air warfare on the populace generally, as well as on the accused individually. The court feels that its ruling is clear. By the language, "the court [illegible]".

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Will Stroop take the stand again? [illegible]

JUERGEN STROOP, an accused, having been previously duly sworn, resumed the stand in his own behalf and testified further through an interpreter as follows: [illegible]

PRESIDENT: You are reminded you are still under oath. [illegible]

ACCUSED STROOP: Yes.

DIRECT EXAMINATION [illegible]

QUESTIONS BY DEFENSE COUNSEL: [illegible]

Q Herr Stroop, you testified that in the course of your duties you travelled continuously throughout the entire Rhein-Westmark area in the years 1944 to the end of the war in 1945, is that correct?

A Yes, [illegible] of this air warfare on the accused

Q Did you as the result of your travels in the course of your official duties have an opportunity to observe and to experience the effect of the air warfare on the population in Rhein-Westmark in general, on the accused in particular, and upon yourself as one of the accused?

CAPTAIN VANCE: May it please the court, I object to that part, "on the general population." That violates the court's rule. I do not want to be contentious but I think I understand the court's rule.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I have the utmost respect for the ruling [illegible] of the court and the fullest desire to conform to it, but I personally am not sure how far I can go. I am trying to find out. Frankly, I am trying to get the evidence in within the purview of the ruling. I asked a question by asking the effect on the accused, if he knew the effect on the accused.

PRESIDENT: The effect on the accused and on the individuals, — that part of it is all right, — on the mass population, the court is not interested.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: By the language, "the court is not interested", I take it to mean that the court rules that such evidence is not admissible or will not be received?

PRESIDENT: The court does not care to hear it — on the mass population. We want the effect on the individual accused. Rephrase your question.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I understand that the objection to the question has been sustained and I am to rephrase my question?

PRESIDENT: Yes.

QUESTIONS BY DEFENSE COUNSEL:

Q As the result of your travels, did you have an opportunity to observe and to note the effect of this air warfare on the accused generally, and upon yourself in particular, from the point of view of on your general well being or their general well being, their morale and their susceptibility to mass suggestion or influences from outside their own judgment?

A I can answer this question with yes.

Q Tell the court what that effect was.

A My former command area was an area over which planes came in and came out from Germany. I can state most sincerely there was not a single minute during the day or night when there weren't enemy planes flying overhead or were even bombing our district. It didn't make any difference whether I started early in the morning, in the forenoon, or in the late afternoon. I hardly can remember a trip where I hadn't to drive through smoking ruins, where I didn't see dead women and children, where I didn't see that attempts were made to dig out people who were covered with ground and were yelling for help. During a clear time and there was good visibility, at noontime, forenoon, afternoon, it didn't make any difference, it was impossible to drive on the autobahn or any other main roads. One needed extremely strong nerves to be able to look daily at the suffering of the women and children and every day one needed new energy to go back to the daily routine work.

I am an old front soldier and I would like to talk only about myself. I participated during the first world war for four and a half years in the front lines and I participated during this war in the first lines. I was of the opinion that it was easier to take in the front lines than back at home. I spoke with my officers and enlisted men who were on furlough and they always confirmed my opinion. I didn't see only places where military objectives were located. I am thinking now mainly about the many little villages and the taunaus which were only of agricultural importance, where the women whose men were fighting on the front, were picking up their last belongings, where children were looking for their mothers.

I remember an attack during the daytime in the neighborhood of Wiesbaden in which a so-called labor settlement was hit. Here, not only regular bombs had been dropped which destroyed certain objectives during a certain period of time, but later on, delayed action bombs were used, so whenever one thought that the air attack was over and one could start moving again in a few minutes intervals these bombs exploded. I remember especially that in this settlement was a settlement of children with seventy to eighty children. This home for children was levelled to the ground by bombs. Most of the children were dead or even their bodies couldn't be recovered any more. And the children which were still running around looking for their mothers were now hit by the delayed action bombs and were covered by ground or killed. In this connection I don't have to remind you at all of the large scale attacks in Darmstadt and other large cities. Anyway, the effect on me and on other people I knew was such, that the nerves couldn't quiet down any more at all and that some of my comrades were completely unable to do anything out of their own initiative. Not to mention that the men who were fighting on the front or were working in their places in the factory had to expect from minute to minute that their wives and children would be hit by bombs.

Since I was mostly on trips I would like to mention that I hardly ever was with my family when air attacks occurred. It was a very happy accident that I just happened to be home with my family during the large scale attack on Wiesbaden on the 2nd of February. My boy, who is now eleven years old, named Olaf, didn't sleep at home any more in his bed. For months already he slept in a cellar which we had worked over as an air raid shelter and I still see my entire family, but especially this little boy of mine when he was shaking or when the house was terribly shaking through the bombs. When I said good-bye to my family before leaving on official mission, I never knew whether I would see them again either, I would be killed or my family would be killed. These were the impressions I had myself and these were the impressions under which all the people lived.

QUESTIONS BY DR. RAU: [illegible] and it was customary that the Kreisleiters

Q You heard that some of your subordinates killed parachuted fliers on orders. Which position did you take as their superior officer in these cases? [illegible] reported yesterday that parachuted enemy fliers killed on

A I am proud that through my anti-aircraft batteries on railroad cars which I originated I was able to shoot down approximately eighty enemy planes. With these men I cannot be proud that Allied fliers were shot in my area, as it came out during this trial, but my comrades who are sitting here with me in the dock, especially my comrades of lower rank acting in good faith because they received an order and they had to carry out these orders, all of them were standing under the same impressions as I just had a chance to describe them to this high court. On account of the conditions in which they were, they had no possibility to see the legality of the order which they had received, they were soldiers and they had to carry out orders. For this reason I ask this high court not to make these, my comrades of the lower ranks responsible, but to put the blame and responsibility on me, although I have to state that I on my own part have definitely not given any orders for the execution of fliers.

Q As you have testified, during your duties, you had to deal also with party officers. Did you gain knowledge of influence which party organizations had on police organizations or police officers?

A When I became the higher SS and police leader Rhein-Westmark the condition was such that each gauleiter intended to defend his gau all by himself; each kreisleiter thought that for his county (kreis) he could have his own army in order to put a stop to this situation. I made up the defense plan which has been discussed here. I had a chance to explain before already when I explained this map that the party was the state and the state was the party and the party didn't stop in trying to make decisions in every respect all by itself, that has been testified to also in this court, in which manner the kreisleiter of Offenbach acted-- it happened again and again and it was customary that the kreisleiters who sought to be the representatives for the Reich commission for defense tried to assume police powers.

Q You reported yesterday that parachuted enemy fliers killed an SS Major named Link. When did that happen?

A As far as I can remember in February 1945.

Q When did you issue the order according to which people should approach parachuted fliers only with a loaded weapon in their hand?

A I issued this order probably during the second half of February 1945.

Q Did you ever receive an inquiry about the relationship of your order to approach parachuted fliers only with the loaded weapon in their hands to the order which had to do with the killing of enemy fliers?

A No.

Q Was it brought to your attention at any time that there were really two contradictory orders?

A I didn't talk to anybody about that.

Q You have heard that the accused Lasak testified here as a witness that he had received a written order according to which enemy fliers should be killed if they were enemy agents, spies or saboteurs.

A The SS colonel Lasak must be mistaken. I transmitted a few orders for the information of the SS colonels in charge of SS regiments. Since he was wearing the official title of an SS colonel in charge of regiments, it is possible that he received an order in this manner, but this order did not contain the general killing order, but this was an order referring only to the treatment of commando troops.

Q Which order is it to which you are now referring?

A I am referring to the order according to which the Wehrmacht had to kill commando troops without delay.

Q Who had issued this order? [illegible] when you did not mention

A As far as I can remember, this order came from the supreme high command, [illegible] because I was only here in Dachau.

Q And to whom was this order directed? You had enumerated before this.

A This order was directed to the Wehrmacht.

Q Was it directed also to the police?

A It was received by the police for information only because the commitments were made by both organisations. By this I want to express that the police was used to reinforce the Wehrmacht and vice versa, in carrying out certain actions. We all expressed our anger and we also said [illegible]

Q Did this order say anything about what has to be understood as commando troops? In our homes, wives and children, really all should [illegible]

A This was referring to such groups which were only for the purpose of committing sabotage or espionage. [illegible] person as an official.

Q Once again let's return to the case Link. Where was Link killed?

A Link was shot in the neighborhood of the so-called monastery of Tiefenthal. [illegible] which reason did you [illegible] member of the SS?

Q Was the Werewolf school there at that time? [illegible]

A Main-Yes, [illegible] a military life. When there was a public meeting in [illegible]

Q Where did you hear for the first time that an Allied flier had been killed by members of the Werewolf school? [illegible]

A As far as I can remember I didn't hear anything about it as long as I was on duty during the war, the excellent [illegible] went out.

Q How many of the accused did you know during the period of time from August 1944 until the end of the war? [illegible], asked me to [illegible] Number 2, Colonel Trumpler and Number 3, Colonel Sumann, Number 6 Police Director Eichel; furthermore Number 20 Hellenbreich and Number 19 Girke, Number 18 SS Colonel Lassak, Number 16 Michely, Number 15 First Lieutenant Oess and Number 14 Major Best.

Q During your [illegible] were you [illegible] with any criminal [illegible]

Q Did you ever talk to the accused when you did not mention now?

A The other comrades I met only here in Dachau.

Q Did you discuss with the accused when you had enumerated before the question that Allied fliers should be killed?

A No.

Q During these opportunities, didn't you make some private remarks in regard to the treatment of Allied fliers?

A In view of the impressions which I have testified to before it was a matter of course that we all expressed our anger and we also said and heard it expressed by others that these fliers had brought so much suffering and misery to our homes, wives and children, really all should be shot.

Q Should this be considered by any reasonable person as an official order?

A Such an utterance in my opinion can never be considered an order.

Q For which reason did you become a member of the SS?

A From my parents' home I was educated in a military manner and I always enjoyed a military life. When there was a public meeting in 1932 on the Hermann's Monument in my home town, Detmold, and the old General Heitzmann spoke for National Socialism in my home town for the first time, the SS made an appearance, I had pleasure from these tall and well picked men and enjoyed the excellent impressions these men made. The men of the party organizations at Detmold, who since Detmold at that time only had fourteen thousand inhabitants know me personally, asked me to become a member of the SS on account of my military background, in order to help organize the SS battalion which was supposed to be established there, and furthermore, later from January 1st 1933, to be in charge of it myself.

Q During your membership in the SS did you become acquainted with any criminal intentions or actions of this organization?

A No.

Q Didn't you know anything about concentration camps?

A I was once in the concentration camp that was here in Dachau in January and February 1938. At that time a number of SS colonels in charge of regiments were called here for training and instruction. These members of the training class were shown through Dachau for I think an hour. Right now since I am in Dachau again I try to remember some of the things, but it was impossible, but I remember exactly since I have a very good memory for matters of such character that we were shown a number of barracks. I especially remember that in every closet that was opened the toothbrush, the spoon, writing paper all there lying on the same spot. I remember especially that the barracks were kept clean and in good order and especially excellent sanitary conditions existed. As I look over my situation today, I would like to be quartered in a barracks like this one I saw. For many weeks I am washing myself now in the toilet bowl; the toilet bowl is my lavatory, my sink and toilet and my only facility to sit down.

Q Do you remember charge 3 where the accused Lassak is charged to be responsible for the killing of a flier?

A Yes, I remember to have read this charge.

Q Did you have any connection even the slightest with this case?

A I know this case only from here during the trial.

Q How is it about charge 4 in which the accused Moehler and Fuehr are charged with committing a crime?

A I have to give the same answer.

Q How is it with charge 5 and especially the accused Fuehr is incriminated?

A The same.

(Stroop - Direct) 1977

Q How is it with charge 6 and especially the accused Cirke, Hellembroich, Stattmann and Raaf?

A This case too I know only here from Dachau.

Q And how is it with charge 7 in which especially the accused Eichel, Kiwitt, Albrecht, Meller and Geehrendt are incriminated?

A The same; I heard about it only from here.

Q And how about charge 8, in which especially the accused Eichel, Kiwitt, Hahrgang, Hammann and Fay are incriminated?

A My answer is the same.

Q And how about charge 9 in which mainly the accused Best, Geos and Michely are incriminated?

A Everything I know about this case I heard only here in Dachau.

Q And how about charge 10 in which mainly the accused Cirke, Hellembroich, Stattmann and Raaf are incriminated?

A This case too was unknown to me until the beginning of this trial.

Q Did you ever talk to any of these accused about the fact that Allied fliers had been shot or did these cases come to your knowledge in any other way, and I mean to your knowledge until the end of the war?

A With nobody but Colonel Trumbler. Colonel Trumbler as I testified before informed me twice or three times that through Headquarters or individuals of his command, fliers had been shot while trying to escape.

Q How many cases of this character did he mention?

A I said three or four times.

Q Did this seem to be something extraordinary to you since several thousand fliers had been delivered in your area?

A This didn't draw my special attention since at the same time I was also commander of prisoners of war and it was a matter of course that one shot a man trying to escape if they didn't stop at the call "Halt!"

pld-264-5
pld-264-1

Did you know CROSS EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q General Berch, when did you assume the position of Higher SS and Police Fuehrer for the Rhein-Westmark area? Police Leader, Rhein-Westmark and even A For I became Higher SS and Police Leader Rhein Westmark on the 9th of November, 1940, to Wiesbaden, I believe, didn't he in a special train and you hQ e I believe you held this position continuously until the end of the war, is that right? e and testified to as questioned by my defense counsel, the Reichsfuehrer SS had ordered several individuals to ear rusekon. For this Q ps While you were Higher SS Police Fuehrer did you know the General Obermeyer? l train. The men who had been ordered by him received special orders A fr Ko Ho the chief in charge of the Main office Order Police. or dQtr Did you ever have conferences with General Obermeyer? When I re A General Obermeyer came to Wiesbaden for an inspection during the second half of 1940, it was a matter of course, also, for him, as a comrade of mine, to pay me a visit, in order to stay there overnight.

Q Tell the court what you and General Obermeyer discussed on that visit in regards to allied flyers. bout the meetings where the air raids that were A in Nothing was discussed. Only on an official trip which we took together to the Westmark General Obermeyer asked me whether the so-called non-interference order had come through to which question I said, Yes. We long as Q s Did he ask you if it was being enforced or if it was being carried out? that the SS Reichsfuehrer came to Wiesbaden and I was not in Wiesbaden.

A No. I think, I assume he discussed this with the commander of the by Order Police. forces was discussed?

Q As a matter of fact, the non-interference order that came down from higher headquarters came from General Obermeyer, is that correct?

A No. The non-interference order was signed by the Reichsfuehrer SS Heinrich Himmler as I found out here during the trial. Whether this order went through channels over the main office of the Order Police I can't determine anymore.

Q Did you know Heinrich Himmler?

A Yes.

Q Did you ever have any conferences with him?

A As long as I was higher SS und Police Leader, Rhein-Westmark and even before that time I was in his headquarters on several occasions.

Q He came to Wiesbaden, I believe, didn't he in a special train and you had a conference?

A As I said before and testified to as questioned by my defense counsel, the Reichsfuehrer SS had ordered several individuals to Saarbruecken. For this purpose the Reichsfuehrer SS came in the neighborhood of Saarbruecken with a special train. The men who had been ordered by him received special orders from the Reichsfuehrer, an order which bound them to certain areas or districts. I would like to say my orders kept me back in Westmark. When I returned from this official trip which lasted for several days the report was made to me at my headquarters that the Reichsfuehrer SS with a special train had also come to Wiesbaden in order to stay there overnight.

Q General I didn't have any reference to this particular meeting. I was talking about other meetings. About the meetings where the air raids that were being inflicted by the allied air forces were discussed.

A Captain Vance had just asked me whether the Reichsfuehrer SS had come to Wiesbaden with a special train and this question I answered. As long as I was the Higher SS and Police Leader Rhein-Westmark that was the only time that the SS Reichsfuehrer came to Wiesbaden and I was not in Wiesbaden.

Q Did you attend any conferences at his headquarters where bombings by the allied air forces was discussed?

A The bombardments through the allied air forces, yes.

Q What treatments were discussed in those conferences?

A The treatment of allied flyers was not discussed by the Reichsfuehrer gs during this meeting to which I am referring now. This meeting had to do mainly with the steps necessary in order to repair the war damages and the necessary report of technical nature on this question was made by the [illegible] General, [illegible] Commander of the SD, Secretary of State Ganzenmueller.

(Stroop-cross)

Q Well General at any conference that you had with Reichsfuehrer Himmler did you discuss the allied air forces?

A For instance during this meeting?

Q What was said by Himmler?

A I just mentioned that in this meeting were shown the large disastrous damages done through the air warfare. With this meeting the Reichsfuehrer SS intended--during this meeting were present also the Reichscommissioners for the defense and important people of the German Railroad, the German Postal Service, etc.--to prevent that the men in charge would weaken on account of these deep impressions which they received, for instance when railroad tracks had been destroyed five times a day it is to be repaired five times a day. In any way the supply lines for the army and for the people had to be kept open and the purpose of this conference was to find the necessary means and ways to do so.

Q What did he say should be done with captured allied flyers?

A The Reichsfuehrer SS never talked to me about this.

Q Did you know a man named Kaltenbrunner?

A Yes.

Q Who was he?

A Kaltenbrunner was in charge of the Reich Main Security Office with whom I have talked for the last time in Nuernberg in September of last year.

Q Did you ever attend any conferences in his headquarters or in your headquarters with Kaltenbrunner?

A I was once at Kaltenbrunner's office.

Q Did you discuss with him the treatment to be given to allied flyers?

(Streep-gross)

Police Leader was not determined through any regulations or law, but between the commander of the Order Police and the Higher SS and Police Leader. Closer Q What was your relationship, General, with the Commander of the SD, channel of command developed while times went on.
A No.
Rhein-Westmark?
Q I still don't know whether you say you were General Hille's commanding
A In an official way, you mean? The official relations? officer or whether you were not. Will you please state which one way or the Q Yes.
other?
A The Commander of the Security Police, Rhein-Westmark had been ordered
A In a certain way, yes.
to keep me informed of all important matters, but it was up to the commander Q After General Hille left, and in October, 1944, when Himmler to make the decision about which matters he wanted to inform me or not. On Klemann took command of the Order Police for the Rhein-Westmark were you his the map is shown that between the higher SS and Police Leader and the commanding officer?
commanders of the security police and the security service was an extraordinary
A In certain respects, yes.
channel of command. I would have made use of my command powers over this Q Did you hold conferences in your office at various times and call command of the Security Police for instance in case of an internal revolt.
in the commanding officer of the Order Police on these conferences?
Q I will ask you this question. When Colonel Schamm was inspector
A Yes. From time to time I had so-called chief meetings at my of the Security Police for Rhein-Westmark were you his commanding officer?
headquarters. For these meetings were called the commander of the Order
I think you can answer that yes or no.
Police and the commander of the Security Police or their representatives.
A No, I was not his direct superior. He was immediately under the Q Why would the commander of the Security Police come to your Reich Security Main Office. conferences?
Q At the time that Dr. Trummler was the commanding officer of the
A It was always my opinion that if I wanted to get a good job only Security Police for Rhein-Westmark area were you his commanding officer?
one section of the police should know about certain matters and another section
A Here I have to give the same answers as for Colonel Schamm.
should not, but that it was necessary, for the improvement of the general
Q That is, you say, you were not Dr. Trummler's commanding officer?
duties of the police, that the commander of the Security Police knew about A No, because it was like this: That the commander of the Security matters which were of interest only to the commander of the Order Police and Police received his orders directly from the Reich Security Main Office. I vice versa.
would have been his immediate superior in case of an emergency. This, of Q Did you know a man named Martin Bormann?
course, does not exclude that by rank I was his superior officer.
A By name, yes.
Q Now General, when General Hille was the commanding officer of the Q Did you ever attend any conference of Martin Bormann?
Order Police for Rhein-Westmark were you his commanding officer?
A No.
A Here I have to say the following: The position of the Higher SS and (Stroop-cross)
(Stroop-cross)

Police Leader was not determined through any regulations or law, but between the commander of the Order Police and the Higher SS and Police Leader. Closer channel of command developed while times went on.

Q I still don't know whether you say you were General Hille's commanding officer or whether you were not. Will you please state which one way or the other?

A In a certain way, yes.

Q After General Hille left, and in October, 1944 when Colonel Niemann took command of the Order Police for the Rhein-Westmark were you his commanding officer?

A In certain respects, yes.

Q Did you hold conferences in your office at various times and call in the commanding officer of the Order Police on these conferences?

A Yes. From time to time I had so-called chief meetings at my headquarters. For these meetings were called the commander of the Order Police and the commander of the Security Police or their representatives.

Q Why would the commander of the Security Police come into these conferences?

A It was always my opinion that if I wanted to do a good job not only one section of the police should know about certain matters and another section should not, but that it was necessary, for the improvement of the general duties of the police, that the commander of the Security Police knew about matters which were of interest only to the commander of the Order Police and vice versa.

Q Did you know a man named Martin Bormann?

A By name, yes.

Q Did you ever attend any conference of Martin Bormann?

A No.

(Stroop-cross)

[illegible] thought about this question now, but I can't give you any [illegible] but I forgot it.

Q What about a man named Keitel, did you know him?

A Yes, through pictures and by name, but not personally.

[illegible] The Court will recess now [illegible].

Q What about Adolf Hitler, did you know him personally?

[illegible] hours the [illegible].

A The Fuehrer Adolf Hitler I knew. That means he knew me as an SS Colonel in charge of a regiment, especially while I was in charge of the SS at Hamburg. I got certain areas for police measures attached to me. Usually part of this area was the railroad station at Hamburg and the shipbuilding yards at Blohm and Voss, where, in the presence of Adolf Hitler ships were launched. During these occasions I had to report to Adolf Hitler as SS Colonel on duty. Furthermore I had to report, in order to make this complete I have to tell you that in the so-called election campaign of Lippe in January, 1933 in the same position as Major in charge of an SS Battalion.

Q General, I believe you told us yesterday that there were about ten thousand men in the Order Police, is that right?

A Yes.

Q About what time do you fix that in 1944 or in 1945 or when?

A That was an average number for the defense plan which you can apply for the years 1943 and 1944.

Q About how many Security Police were there in the Rhein-Westmark area?

A I can't answer this question definitely because I don't know exactly.

Q Do you have any idea, any judgement?

A No. I don't like to mention any figures because I don't know it.

Q I believe you said that you had about 126 thousand men in your defense plan, is that correct?

A Yes.

Q Do you have any idea or judgement about the population of Rhein-Westmark?

A I thought about this question too, but I can't give you any figure. I knew but I forgot it.

PRESIDENT: The court will recess until 1:30.

("hereupon at 1200 hours the court recessed.)

(Thereupon at 1330 hours the court reconvened.) its official name--was

PRESIDENT: The court will come to order. SS and police. As PROSECUTION: May it please the court, let the record show that all the members of the court are present, all the members of the prosecution, all the members of the defense, all the accused, the reporter and the interpreter are present.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: At the end of the last recess the accused Stroop was on the stand being cross-examined. this SS and police court.

PRESIDENT: You are reminded that you are still under oath.

JURGEN STROOP, an accused, being reminded that he was still under oath, resumed the stand and testified further in his own behalf through an interpreter as follows:

CROSS EXAMINATION, continued.

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q. General Stroop, yesterday you outlined to the court your main duties in Rhein-Westmark. I believe that you said one of your duties was that you were chief of the Allgemeine SS, is that correct? all about the powers of

A Yes. personal disciplinary powers. Did you,

Q Was your principle duty as the leader of the police force in that area?

A My main tasks were the four tasks I enumerated yesterday and there was no difference in the importance of these tasks. in view of the

Q I believe that you stated that one of your duties was as appointing and reviewing authority for SS courts in the Rhein-Westmark area, is that right?

A Yes.

Q Did you appoint those courts yourself?

A When I came to Wiesbaden the SS and Police court already existed.

Q What type of persons did that court have jurisdiction to try?

(Stroop-cross)

1986

(Stroop-cross)

A The SS and Police Court Number 14--that was its official name--was to take care of all cases, all criminal cases with any SS and police. As far as these cases, due to their severe violations involved, could not be treated disciplinarily.

Q In other words the German civilian population would not be brought before those courts, is that correct?

A No, it was the members of the SS and police who were not supposed to get before civilian courts but rather this SS and police court.

Q After this court tried a case and pronounced a sentence upon a person being tried and the case came to you for review to either approve or disapprove--that is correct isn't it?

A Yes. In the first place I had to determine whether any trial at all would be held and when the trial was finished I had to either approve or disapprove the sentence. But in the case of any sentence pronounced against an SS officer it had to be transmitted to the Reichsfuehrer of the SS.

Q You were asked by your attorney yesterday all about the powers of this court and then about your own personal disciplinary powers. Could you, yourself, decree a death penalty for a member of your organization?

A Well, in practice that case did not crop up in my area, but if a quick sentence was to be desired I could have called up a Standgericht--summary court, but I certainly could have pronounced such a sentence in view of the enemy.

Q I know you say you could call a court. I am talking about what powers you personally had as an individual officer.

A I just said if it was a case occuring in the face of the enemy, cowardice before the enemy for instance, and the case was clear and no investigation appeared necessary, I could have ordered the death sentence.

Q I am going to ask you this question. Did you ever order a death sentence for any member of the police force of Rhein-Westmark for failure to execute a captured allied flyer?

A No.

Q Was any member of the police forces of Rhein-Westmark ever sentenced to death by an SS court fo failure to execute a surrendered allied flyer?

A I don't remember any such case.

Q If there would have been such a case it would have come to you for review and you would have had knowledge of it is that not a fact?

A All sentences of the SS and Police court were submitted to me during the time I was the High SS and Police Leader in Rhein-Westmark.

Q I believe you stated that you received all of your orders or maybe most of your orders in written form from your higher headquarters, is that correct?

A Yes.

Q From which source did you receive your orders? By that I mean from whom above you?

A I either received my orders from the Reichsfuehrer directly or through the hands of the main offices.

Q What do you mean by main offices?

A The main offices, the SS main offices which are represented on the chart in the box below the one Reichsfuehrer SS, Reichsminister of the Interior.

Q By that being from Himmler's headquarters, is that right?

A In the first place it was possible that the Reichsfuehrer of the SS would send orders directly to me circumventing the main offices but as a rule the Reichsfuehrer would give his instructions to the chiefs of those main offices and they would then make out these instructions in the form of orders or regulations and transmit them.

Q With the exception of the Reichsfuehrer's office did you receive orders from any other source?

A Well from these main offices.

Q I am not sure that I understand you so I am pointing to Defense Exhibit Number two. Are these the main offices(indicating) you are speaking of?

(Stroop-cross)

A Yes, these are the main offices including the main offices of the regular police which is somewhat to the side.

Q (indicating).

A Yes, that is the office which was headed by General Daumenberg.

CAPTAIN VANCE: For the purposes of the record, may it please the court, I have been referring to the defense exhibit number two, to the boxes which appear immediately under Reichsfuehrer SS and to the box on the left side marked Hauptamt Ordnungs Polizei--ORPO.

Q Did you receive orders from any other source whatsoever?

A Well, I have to [illegible] exactly I would have to say

Q What about from the political setup of Himmler and his staff?

A Yes, I was just about to make one correction, one supplement. I meant the office of the gauleiter in his capacity as Reichsstatthalter or Reichscommissioner. The high SS and police leaders in a certain respect were attached to the gauleiters. For instance the heading on the stationery of the High SS and Police leaders would read as follows: The Higher SS and Police leaders with the gauleiters so and so and so and so, whatever their names might be. That is Moselland, Hessen-Nassau etc.

Q Did you ever receive any orders from the main office of the Security Police which was headed by Kaltenbrunner?

A I sometimes received information copies of orders issued from the Reich Main Security Office of the Security Police. The orders of the Reich Main Security Office would go to the commanding officer of the Security Police or the inspector of the police through direct postal channels.

Q General Stroop, did you pass on those orders which you received and were instructed to pass on to your subordinates?

A I transmitted all orders that I received from above as far as that was necessary.

Q Have you ever seen or heard of an order issued from Berlin on the (Stoop-cross)

4th of August, 1942 signed by the chief of the high command of the armed forces Keitel referring to the procedure to be used in the case of captured paradutists?

A What is the date please?

Q Four August, 1942.

A No, I don't think I know ofthat order. I didn't have the job of a High SS and Police leader in 1942. I might have read it sometime later. I don't remember what the contents of it are anyway.

Q It refers to the procedure to be used when you captured parashutists.

A Well, if I have to stick to the truth exactly I would have to say yes. If that is an order I once saw from the prosecution and on the other time with the defense--a photostatic copy of it.

Q What I mean is did you know about it back at the time of its issuance. I don't mean today.

A In 1942 I am sure I didn't.

1990

(Time: recess)

Q Did you ever see or hear of the decree made on 18 October 1942 by Adolf Hitler which said that all commando operations in Europe or Africa and all enemies attacked by German troops, whether they landed by sea or air or dropped by parachute would be annihilated and that individual commandos must be handed over to the Security Police and that any custody under civil protection was strictly forbidden?

A Yes, I am sure I knew of this order at the time, in a very general nature, but it's hard to answer whether I had actually read this order at the time because now that I am familiarized with the exact wording of it, I remember exactly that I read a photostatic copy of it during the trial.

Q General, did you do anything to carry out the spirit of that order?

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I pray the Court's judgment of the use of the word "spirit".

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

WITNESS: Well, the answer I can give to that is that there was no need of us in Rhein-Westmark combating any airborne troops .

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q I mean that part that stated they should be turned over to the Security Police.

A Well, it was a fact that parachuted fliers or allied commandos would be turned over to the Security Service.

Q Did you issue those orders that any of these captured commando troops would be turned over to the Security Service?

A No, because that order had been issued a long

Ta 266, 3/5/47, idb-2
SO
Ta 266, 3/5/47, id b-3
SO

time before that, and there was no reason for me to issue an old order, after the order was passed on to your subordinates, did you? Q Did you ever see or hear of an order issued in August 1944 by Himmler to the effect that it is not the duty of the police to interfere in clashes between civilians in and allied and American terror fliers that had bailed out over Germany? I by a translator.

A Yes, this order quoted "it is not the duty of the police", etc., I received that order dated 1945 in June or July, 1944. Until this trial started, my opinion was our that the date of this order was 1944. It is only now that I saw from this photostatic copy that it said 1945--at any rate, it was sent to me anew again. know you made one.

Q What steps did you take to carry out the spirit and of that order?

A This order came with a letter of transmittal signed by SS Colonel Brandt to the effect that it was to be transmitted orally only, and I did transmit this order in about so-called meeting of the chiefs of the organizations, to the Commander of the Regular Police, and to the Commander, or probably Inspector at that time, of the Security Police, as to go Q Now, who was in charge of the Security Police at that time? discuss this with us.

A If it was in August, then probably Colonel Somann had left already. His place was taken by the SS Lieutenant Colonel Wiebens, but it's possible that Colonel Somann was personally present. I can't say that exactly. e question.

Q At that meeting, did you read the order?

A Yes. recall the occasion in late summer of 1944-- in Q Did you discuss the order? e in Buselenw'n killed

A Yes.

six American flyers on the street?

Q After the order was passed on to your subordinates, did you follow up that order to see if it was being carried out? [illegible] memorandum from the Fuehrer's Headquarters dated 30 May, 194[illegible]

A Yes, I had an opportunity to point that out in two different cases. In each case that was a result of a telephone call by a Gauleiter, [illegible] in which he mentioned that no pol[illegible]

Q Now, can you recall after this order was issued any clashes between the civilian population and allied flyers where the civilian population lynched the fliers in your district? Yes, I am familiar with the [illegible] of Bormann-- with this

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I withdraw the objection[illegible]ng the trial; upon

CAPTAIN VANCE: I didn't know you made one[illegible] of this order

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I was going to object to the word "lynch", as Commander of Rhein-Westmark, would come into that catego[illegible]

WITNESS: I don't remember any flyers being lynched in my area--at any rate I never got to know of such case.

Q CAPTAIN VANCE: General, did you ever hear about the six American flyers who were killed by the civilian population on the streets of Russelsheim? [illegible]-down enemy fliers by the [illegible]

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I pray the court's judgment as to going into evidence not charged in the case, even for the purpose of discrediting a witness[illegible]; even if this is the same incid[illegible]

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled; couldn't have possibly [illegible]

WITNESS: Might I hear this question again, please? That civilians were lynched? [illegible]re under the direct jurisdiction of Colonel [illegible]

CAPTAIN VANCE: No, I will repeat the question.

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE: [illegible] you stated that when your office [illegible]

Q Do you recall the occasion in late summer of 1944--in August or September--when the civilians in Russelsheim killed six American flyers on the street?

A No.

Q General, have you ever seen or heard the contents of the memorandum from the Fuehrer's Headquarters dated 30 May 1944 signed by Martin Bormann in which he mentioned that many innocent men, women and children have been killed by low-flying, strafing allied planes, and in which he mentioned that no police measures, in criminal proceedings, would be instituted against civilians participating in these lynchings of American flyers who had been apprehended?

A Yes, I am familiar with the letter of Bormann--with this contents. Yes, and as I found out here during the trial, upon seeing a copy, I saw that the distribution of this order was to all Gauleiters and major commanders; and, since I, as Commander of Rhein-Westmark, would come into that category of major commanders, I also received a copy of this order.

Q Now, have you ever seen or heard of a document dated 21 April 1944, signed by Colonel Somann at Wiesbaden in which he discussed the handling of shot-down enemy fliers by the German police or the German civilians?

A Yes, and I think I also saw that letter in the recent period of time while captured; and, if this is the same document that I am thinking of, then I couldn't have possibly had knowledge of it at that time, because it was a letter directed to Headquarters under the direct jurisdiction of Colonel Somann.

Q General, I believe you stated that when your official mail came to your Headquarters in Wiesbaden, that your Chief of Staff would get it first and then deliver it to you, is that correct? [illegible] it as exactly as [illegible] At, Yes. [illegible] consist of making [illegible]

Q And your Chief of Staff was Colonel Schlums, is that correct? [illegible] rder of Berlin.

A Yes. [illegible] Stroop, tell the Court as best you can [illegible]

Q Is that the same Colonel Schlums that has testified for the Prosecution in this case? [illegible] just talking about.

A Yes.

Q Then Colonel Schlums was in a position to know about the orders that he testified about, is that right?

A Yes, as far as he opened them up he was [illegible]

Q Now, on direct examination you stated that in the beginning that your orders were to deliver captured fliers to the Wehrmacht, is that right? [illegible] to state any numbers. The [illegible]

A Yes. [illegible]n't do that is what I was not informed every time [illegible]

Q Then, later on, you said some orders came down that the flyers must be delivered to the Security Police, is that right? [illegible] several conversations I had with Security Police [illegible]

A Yes. [illegible]--for instance, Gauleiter Sprenger of [illegible]

Q Now, for what purpose were they to go to the Security Police? [illegible] frequently. I participated in some meetings to a [illegible] Commando details kept coming down, parachuting for down all the time, with radio equipment, etc., and it would be the duty of the Security Police to determine whether the captured men were that sort of people or not.

Q Do you recall in these orders that they must be delivered to the Security Police for special treatment? [illegible] correct?

(Stroop-Cross)

[illegible] I [illegible] couldn't do any point of speaking

(Pt. [illegible])

A I don't remember the wording of it as exactly as all that, but this special treatment was to consist of making use of these details in the service of Germany by the Security Police by order of Berlin.

Q General Stroop, tell the Court as best you can what you think the wording "special treatment" means.

A This was special treatment I was just talking about.

Q And you don't think it has any other meaning?

A No, not in that connection.

Q How many allied fliers captured in the Rhein-Westmark area during the time you were there were turned over to the Security Police for special treatment?

A Well, I can't commit myself to state any numbers. The reason I can't do that is that I was not informed every time an allied flier parachuted down; and, if I am supposed to give any testimony about this here at all, I can do it only based upon several conversations I had with Security Police officials--for instance, Gauleiter Sprenger of Hessen-Nassau had a habit of scheduling meetings of his officials rather frequently. I participated in these meetings to a large extent, and there I frequently would meet SS Major Breder of the State Police Frankfurt, and once or twice I would have a talk with him about Camp Oberursel--that is what my knowledge derives from.

Q In other words, you have no judgment and would not want to express an opinion as to how many, is that correct?

A No, there really wouldn't be any point of cooking up a number here. I think, in that connection, I told my Defense Counsel there were several thousand, and I wouldn't say one or two thousand flyers were turned over to Oberursel in all.

Q I wasn't speaking of Oberursel. My question was to the Security Police?

A Yes, the Security Police turned those fliers on over to Oberursel.

Q General, you know that all of them didn't get away from the Security Police and get to Oberursel, don't you?

A Well, I don't know about that, and I would say that there would be an investigation before they would be re-transferred to Oberursel.

Q Captain Kaleske was more or less your right-hand man in your Headquarters, was he not?

A The Protective Police Captain Kaleske was my adjutant and almost always accompanied me on all official trips.

Q Captain Kaleske is in a position to know what he is talking about as to what happened in your Headquarters, is he not?

A He had a chance to see a lot.

Q And the same thing is true as to your secretary, Miss Hoecker, is it not?

A Yes, but she didn't have as much insight into files as Captain Kaleske. She merely worked in the office.

Q General, did you ever issue any orders to the Security Police?

A No.

(Stroop-Cross)

Q Well, I may have misunderstood you earlier in the trial, but I understood you to say after a Major Link had been killed that you issued some orders to the effect that a person in capturing an allied flier must have his gun in readiness and this order went to the Security Police. Am I correct?

A Yes, I was just about to correct my answer, and it didn't occur to me fast enough. I was just thinking about this order, which I actually did transmit to the Security Police, and I was also thinking of this order concerning the closing-off, which I had to carry out with the Security Police also. I worked out this order direct with the Commanding Officer of Wehrkreis 18.

Q I was asking you about the number of fliers that were captured and turned over to the Security Police. I will now ask you if on direct examination you didn't say there were several thousand?

A Yes, I think I said that. I think I said several thousand. As to whether that means one thousand or two thousand--that's a special phrase of my own; and, for reasons which I have stated already, I cannot give a definite number, really; that is because I got my information merely from an employee of the Security Police.

Q Now the Gestapo is part of the Security Police. That's correct, isn't it?

A Yes.

Q And the Gestapo is the branch of the Security Police that the fliers were delivered to, is that right?

A Yes, probably.

(Stroop-Cross)

Q Now, do you know what the duties and functions were supposed to be of the Gestapo of Germany?

A The Gestapo had the job of combatting the enemy.

Q Will you elaborate on that a little?

A When I said to combat the enemies or to combat the opponents of National Socialism, and with that the opponents of the form of state under Adolf Hitler.

Q What did they have to do with prisoners of war?

A The Secret State Police?

Q The Gestapo.

A Yes, nothing.

Q But yet a thousand or so flyers were delivered into their hands--that is correct, isn't it?

A Yes, for examination. Those were only a special group of prisoners of war, not in general. I thought this question was meant a different way.

Q Now, I believe you testified when the invasion started in France, the German front got a little weak, is that correct?

A Yes, a while later the front started shifting around somewhat after the invasion, for the reason that the supply units moved back.

Q Is that the time when Heinrich Himmler called his meeting that you attended?

A Yes, since Saarbruecken.

Q And is that the time when your powers were increased by Himmler?

A For that job, yes; and, if I might add this here--that was not an increase in my job or responsibilities, but rather a means for the authorized persons to get their way possibly against a higher rank. I was a Lieutenant General of the Waffen SS, in that capacity an officer of the armed forces, and through that rank I could have my way anyway.

Q After this meeting with Himmler, you were then in 6, the chief of the Rhine-Westmark area, isn't that correct?

A Hardly.

Q Didn't you run Rhine-Westmark and control it and have full power and authority over it after this meeting with Himmler?

A The three Gauleiters wouldn't have stood for that.

Q Well, if your power and authority was increased as a result of that meeting, in what respect was it increased?

End tr 266, ps follo

A I have already said that these men who were ordered to this meeting by Himmler were instructed to stop this moving back of the outfits by all means within their power. For that reason we all stayed in our area for a short time and after a few days actually succeeded in stopping everything.

Q I am not clear as to what you mean by coming back and what you stopped.

A In occupied France there was a very large number of troops stationed who had jobs to do in the rear areas. They were primarily ground personnel of the Air Corps, and they kept coming back--they more or less retreated from the enemy, you might say; and these men, as they didn't have any assignment with the front anyway, would be formed into new battalions and sent up front again, or else they would be incorporated in weakened but still existing outfits.

Q Well, as I understand you, your power increased as to these returning soldiers that were coming back into Germany, is that correct?

A Well, how should I express it--with respect to that which had started to tremble was stabilised again.

Q In other words, as a result of the Himmler meeting, it did not change your relationship with the police force, did it?

A No.

Q That was the change between you and the armed forces?

A Yes.

End tr 266,
ps fols

Q General Stroop, you started discussing air warfare in the Rhein-Westmark area and I believe that you made this statement, that the enemy air force overstepped proper air warfare. Did you make that statement?

A Yes, I probably expressed it in some such way.

Q You meant by that, I assume, by bombing civilian cities, is that correct?

A Yes, such cities which had neither military importance nor any importance as far as war economy was concerned.

Q I want to ask you this. When the German air force bombed, strafed and burned England, and in particular Coventry, do you think that they overstepped proper air warfare?

A I wasn't able to experience this with my own eyes as I was able to experience this here in my area.

Q I will ask you this question. If the German air forces strafed, bombed and burned non-military objectives all over England, did the German air force by doing that overstep proper air warfare?

DEFENSE COUNSEL: This is opening wide the door, may it please the court, and I object to interrogation of this type.

CAPTAIN VANCE: The witness testified to this himself on direct examination about one air force. I have a right to ask him about his own air force, I think.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I pray the court's judgment.

PRESIDENT: The objection is overruled.

THE WITNESS: Well, if militarily and economically and completely unimportant farm villages had been hit in that very same manner, the answer would be yes, but I can't pass judgment on that.

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q Do you know who started this aerial warfare first?

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I pray the court's judgment.

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

THE WITNESS: I, in my opinion -- according to my conviction, it was the opponent. There is supposed to be a white book in existence entitled, "Who Threw The First Bomb" but I unfortunately don't know. It might be to the point to read up on that. Maybe you could get the book.

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q Do you remember when the German army invaded Poland?

A Yes.

Q Do you remember when they invaded Czechslovakia?

A Yes.

Q At that time, had any bombs been dropped on Germany?

A I do think so.

Q Do you know?

A No. I don't want to state positively at this moment. I would have to think about it.

Q Do you still want to stick to your answer that you think the opponents dropped the first bomb?

A According to what I heard, yes, I would stick to it.

Q I am not asking you, General, what you heard. I am asking you what you think.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I would like to say that so far as the defense is concerned, we think this opens the door wide to the question of reprisals.

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

A Who dropped the first bomb?

Q Yes.

A I think it was the enemy.

Q General, I believe you made a statement that a person needed strong nerves to bear up under the conditions that existed in your area during the war, the latter part of the war, is that correct?

A Yes.

Ta [illegible]

Q By that remark, did you mean to say that the German police did not have the necessary strong nerves to stand this?

A I wasn't trying to say that this morning. I was asked for my own opinion; consequently, I expressed my own opinion only. But I can say the following concerning the police. The regular policeman, the best men we had, were outside in the front or somewhere else on the outside, and the only men who would remain back in the Zone of Interior and then be drafted as so-called reserve policemen would be men who were not fit for front-line service. And I suppose it is obvious enough that these men who now suddenly found themselves as police officials could not be considered as on the same level with the regular energetic policeman who were out on the front. The police officers and non-coms who remained behind had great difficulties performing the jobs which they were supposed to do with that sort of men, and I would be glad to say that on top of all this these conditions required some special energy for the men who remained behind in order to carry out their tasks.

Q What about yourself and the other higher ranking officials?

A Concerning the nerves?

Q Yes.

A Well, I had to have the nerves all right, and I, at any rate, attempted to have the nerves to do everything that was in my power to do my job and serve my country. I left nothing untried, and for instance I myself, on my own setup, the organization of the police anti-aircraft battalions, the police drivers battalions, etc., simply because it was my opinion that any German and particularly one who had achieved the position as I had would have to do everything within his power to serve his country. I didn't know any limits in the way I carried out my job. I hardly ever was at home and there was no such thing as office hours for myself.

Q General, on direct examination, you went into some detail to describe the men, women and children and dead bodies which you saw in your area and painted a very horrible picture. Have you seen service in foreign countries during the present war?

A Yes.

Q Did you see horrible conditions in other countries?

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I pray the court's judgment. I understood the evidence of this sort of thing was coming into this court for the purpose of mitigation or extenuation or explanation only. I didn't think we were going to put in evidence to say who was doing the worst job or who had the worst time, and I submit to the court that all this evidence of what was true in Poland or England is purely extraneous to the issues of this case and should not be gone into.

PRESIDENT: Objection sustained.

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q I believe you stated that in the Rhein-Westmark area conditions were such that every time you left on a trip and told your family goodbye that you never would know whether you would return or not, is that correct?

A That is the way it was.

Q The same thing was true as to me or any other soldier while there was a war going on, wasn't it?

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I pray the court's judgment.

PRESIDENT: The objection is overruled.

THE WITNESS: Could I hear the question again?

(Whereupon the last question was read by the court reporter.)

THE WITNESS: I was at the front in both wars and I know exactly what it means to be at the front, and I also know what it means to die or to get out of this world, but it is something entirely different when I am living in a beautiful country like Wiesbaden with the Rhine and the Moselle and all the other rivers around it and have to say farewell to my family under those conditions.

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q General, I believe you stated that you were proud of the fact that your anti-aircraft guns shot down enemy planes, but that you were not proud of the fact that some American fliers were killed by the police force, is that correct?

A That is what I said this morning.

Q As a matter of fact, today you are ashamed of the fact that people were killed at the hands of the police force, aren't you?

A Well, I continued on by saying that these men who are sitting in the dock with me, in the first place, were acting in good faith, that they were acting as soldiers and had to carry out an order and that under the conditions which they were operating on they could not without difficulty decide whether the orders they were issued were lawful or unlawful ones. I think those are about the words I used this morning.

Q Now, I want to ask you this. What if anything did you do to stop these killings?

A I did nothing, but I will say this much. If I ever had received an order to have all fliers killed, I would have transmitted that order and would have seen that it was executed, just like I transmitted and saw that all other orders were executed, since the Government and my superiors would have it much easier to investigate the legality and military necessity of such an order than I did and since it was our duty to do that.

Q Did you ever issue any orders that Allied fliers would be shot?

A No.

Q You said that you had made a statement that all enemy fliers should be shot, but that you did not consider that as an order, is that correct?

A No. What I said this morning was that I expressed my bad humor which everybody was suffering from including myself due to the conditions we were living under by saying that the best thing would be to shoot all these fliers who were bringing misery upon the heads of our families.

Q You said that to Mr. Trummler in one of these conferences, didn't you?

A That statement?

Q Yes.

A I don't think I said that. It is possible, I don't know. It is possible, because we talked about the air warfare constantly towards the end of the time 1944 while we were still at home. Do what you may, we couldn't get rid of this air warfare. It was around us all the time and the hum of the motors was around us constantly.

Q General, were you the type of an officer, in a conference, to kid about serious matters to your subordinates?

A About important matters? I don't know. I was an officer who was uncompromising in the carrying out of one's duty with myself, and I was equally uncompromising in seeing that orders issued were carried out, and I don't think because of any officials conference I could have been kidding about anything.

Q So you were not kidding when you made the remark that all enemy fliers should be shot, were you?

A I wasn't kidding, no.

Q General, about this Allgemeine SS, you were the chief for the Rhein-Westmark area, were you not?

A Yes. I was the leader of the SS main sector Rhein-Westmark. I think it says so over here.

Q I believe on direct examination you said that you didn't know anything about the criminal activities of that organization, is that correct?

A I knew nothing about criminal activities of the SS. In fact, nobody joined the SS, or rather, nobody would have joined the SS if you would have told a good German, "You are joining a criminal organization." That surely is out of the question. On the contrary, not every man was admitted into the SS. They had to appear before an entrance commission and take an entrance examination, and even though physical size might have been part of this, the most important part was the person's character.

Q He had to have a suitable character to get in, is that right?

A Yes. This investigation commission would put certain previously tested questions to the applicant, from which questions conclusions could be drawn as to the suitability and character of the applicant. And might I say one more thing? It is important in this connection. A further requirement was to put the name of two references, of respected citizens of one's own home town on this application form. These references did not have to be Party members or anything. They merely had to have a reputation for honesty in their community.

Q I believe you stated that at one time you came to Dachau for some training, is that right?

A Yes.

Q And you found Camp Dachau to be a very splendid clean place, is that correct?

A I found clean and not objectionable barracks. I found excellent order here, as I said this morning, and I found sanitary conditions prevailing so that I could make that statement.

Q Whose barracks are you talking about, the SS barracks or the prisoners' barracks?

A No, of course, I am speaking of the barracks of the prisoners. That is what I was asked this morning and that is where I was only once, in 1938. It goes without saying that the barracks of the SS were clean.

Q Were you ever in Camp Dachau after 1938?

A No.

Q So you are not in a position to testify about those conditions after that?

A No, that was the only time I ever was in the concentration camp.

Q General, you don't know about any criminal activities of the SS in your area? Did you ever hear of a town called Hadamar?

A Yes. I know Hadamar because a prisoner of war camp was located there, a British prisoner of war camp for officers.

Q Was that in your area?

A That was my area. I was in this place Hadamar once. There were — I am sure I am not making a mistake — 288 British officers there, including some generals, and I had some conversation with these gentlemen. The generals had their own rooms, possibly two, and they had their own orderlies, as did the colonels, too. Beginning with a lieutenant colonel, there were three to one room, and a little bit more as the ranks decreased but they all had good rooms. They had a good football stadium there and on account of the word of honor parole which they would give as officers, they would take a walk for two or three hours together with three home guards.

Q I didn't have in mind this British camp when I asked you about Hadamar. Are you familiar with the insane asylum in Hadamar?

A I know what Captain Vance was driving at. I knew, Captain, that you were driving at what I read in the newspapers now. I read about this Wiesbaden trial in the papers here. I would like to state that I didn't know about these matters before. I was surprised about this and I expected for sure to be asked about this once because I was in Hadamar once.

PRESIDENT: Court will recess for twenty minutes.

(Whereupon the court recessed at 1500 hours.)

End ta 267
srh fols

(Whereupon court reconvened at 1530 hours.)

PRESIDENT: Court will come to order.

PROSECUTION: May it please the court, let the record show that all the members of the court, all the members of the prosecution, all the members of the defense, all of the accused, the reporter and interpreter are present.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: The accused Stroop was on the stand subject to cross-examination at the last recess.

JURGEN STROOP, an accused, having been previously duly sworn, voluntarily resumed the stand in his own behalf and testified further through an interpreter as follows:

PRESIDENT: The witness is reminded he is still under oath.

ACCUSED STROOP: Yes.

CROSS EXAMINATION (Continued)

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q General Stroop, I believe the last thing you said was that you read about the Hadamar Institute in the newspaper, is that right?

A Yes.

Q You knew of its existence before the end of the war, did you not?

A No.

Q You never heard of it?

A No, it was entirely unknown to me.

Q Without going into the Hadamar Institute, -- I mean its function and what happened there, -- state whether or not SS guards worked there.

A I was the higher SS and police leader, the leader of the SS main sector Rhein-Westmark. I can state here that I did not have the slightest idea that the SS had anything to do with this home. As I noticed in the papers, this was an institute for mentally insane people, and the SS had nothing to do with the state hospital or institution like this. If SS men or other guards or guards would have been there I would have known about it.

Q Did you have any concentration camps located in the 12th Wehrkreis?

A No. In Wehrkreis 12 there were none.

Q You are sure about that?

A Yes. There were no concentration camps.

Q What about Natzweiler?

A Natzweiler was not in my district.

Q What about the Orbach-Bensheim concentration camp?

DEFENSE COUNSEL: If the court please, I can understand that the running of concentration camps is a war crime if the accused is charged directly with having run a concentration camp, but the only charge of war crimes is the general charge of conspiracy, in which nobody else except Stroop had any possible connection, and I think this goes far beyond the bounds of proper cross examination.

CAPTAIN VANCE: The accused Stroop testified that he was the chief of the SS in that area and that he knew of no criminal activity. I now ask him if there were any concentration camps in his area and if he said yes, my next question would be, "Did not your men guard those camps?" I have no intention whatsoever of going into a concentration camp case, just like I have stayed away from going into the Hadamar case.

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

ACCUSED STROOP: I don't know a concentration camp Orbach-Bensheim.

Bensheim.

Q You do not know about any concentration camps and you never heard of Hadamar until you read about it in the paper, is that correct?

A I never heard about this last mentioned so-called concentration camp. About the happenings at Hadamar, I heard only during my imprisonment through the newspapers because I read about the trial at Wiesbaden.

Q General, you have learned more about what was going on in the 12th Wehrkreis since you have been a prisoner than you knew before, is that correct?

A I didn't say that.

Q How many American fliers were shot and killed by the police of the Rhein-Westmark area, if you know?

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I pray the court's judgment.

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

ACCUSED STROOP: I know only positively about the cases mentioned here in this trial.

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q Do you have any judgment as to the number?

A No, I didn't receive any reports as to this fact.

Q Wait a minute. Did not Dr. Trummler report on several occasions that some had been shot by his men?

A I testified about the three, four incidents this morning already.

Q Did you not get reports on other killings while the fliers were trying to escape?

A No.

Q Can you explain what was the occasion for Dr. Trummler notifying you about these two or three cases?

A No.

Q Did you know they were going to be shot ahead of time?

A No, Colonel Trummler reported to me that these fliers had been shot in his command by his men while trying to escape.

Q I believe you stated you were not Colonel Trummler's commanding officer, so why did he make that report to you?

A It was customary that Colonel Trummler informed me about various matters and during this occasion he also informed me of this.

Q He wanted to let you know that the orders that had been received and posted down were being carried out, is that not correct?

A No.

Q Well, he thought you would be interested in knowing about this, is that correct?

A Yes, perhaps he thought so.

Q You were interested in knowing about these things, were you not?

A Yes, every morning I received a report about the damages to buildings, the dead, the wounded, and in this connection, of course, I was also interested whether allied fliers had been captured.

Q Generál, I am going to ask you a question and I am going to ask you please, if you will listen carefully and answer this question directly. I am going to ask you if you will answer it "yes" or "no", as I think you can do so easily. This is the question: Was the Gestapo of Germany in its entirety ever made a part of the German Wehrmacht?

A Yes.

Q When?

A The end of 1944.

Q General, are you just as sure of that testimony as you are of anything you have testified to before this court?

A Yes, I even have to state that as far as I remember, it was started with this measure already in 1943. I think this was taken care of step by step in accordance with the nearness of the front lines.

Q When did this happen?

A I think starting the end of 1943.

Q The end of 1943, where was the nearness of any lines?

A It was like this: Wherever the front approached the old German border lines, the necessary steps were prepared so that the men who had to stay there when the front came to their area could present themselves as soldiers, as members of the German Wehrmacht. As far as I can remember, this plan was already worked out and was supposed to be carried out step by step for the Security Police.

Q You remember my question: "Was the Gestapo --" and the Gestapo is what we are talking about.

A The Gestapo is part of the Security Police.

Q If I bring another general officer who is a higher SS and police fuehrer before this court and he says that the Gestapo was never a part of the German Wehrmacht, then you or I, one or the other is lying about this?

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I object.

CAPTAIN VANCE: I will withdraw the question.

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q You started to explain the gradual change-over. Do you mean by that that they were gradually taken into the army or were they all taken in at one time?

A No, I wanted to say gradually, step by step.

Q I know it is possible if a man in the Gestapo wanted to make an application and go in the army he could do so, but I am talking about the entire Gestapo -- was it blanketed into the German Wehrmacht?

A Yes, it was taken into the Wehrmacht. If I speak about Wehrmacht I am reffering to the Waffen SS. The Waffen SS is an organization of the Wehrmacht.

Q This morning you were asked if you were familiar with Charge III and you said you were and you knew nothing about it. Is that correct?

A Yes.

Q That you were asked about Charges IV and V and you said, "My answer is the same." Is that correct?

A Yes.

Q You do remember since testifying that Dr. Trummler did let you know about the flier that was killed in Charge IV, is that right?

A No, I couldn't know that.

Q Did Dr. Trummler notify you like the testimony states or did he not?

A Of these special incidents, the incidents which are on trial here?

Q Yes.

A No. I can't answer this question today because no name, et cetera, was given to me at that time.

Q

(Stroop-Cross)

ta 269 IJE 2

ta 269 IJE 1

ACCUSED STROOP: I cannot say anything in this respect.

Q I will try to refresh your memory a little bit. Do you remember Arthur Fuchr's statement being read into evidence in which he testified that after the killing he reported back to Dr. Trumler and Dr. Trumler picked up the phone and called you and reported it to you, do you remember that?

A I don't remember now that Fuchr said so here. I was interrogated already about this matter and I have testified that I do not know anything about my being called by someone. I remember especially this interrogation because there I expressed that I definitely did not know anything. This "definitely" is an expression which is used in Westphalia and I am from Westphalia. The investigating officer said, "You want to say you remember approximately and not definitely?" and I said, "I don't know anything about it". That is what I can say to this question only that I don't know.

Q General, I am not asking you about your interrogation, I am asking you about now. The statement is in evidence and Fuchr says that Dr. Trumler called you. Do you admit or deny that?

A I then have to say that I do not know anything about that.

Q So as to charge IV, you said your answer was the same, is that right?

A There I said that everything I know about Charge IV I heard only here in Dachau.

Q You were shocked to hear about these things, were you not?

Q Do you remember Major Rost's testimony before this Court?

A Yes.

Q Did you hear what he said about giving orders? That you gave the orders to have the flyer shot?

A Yes.

Q Is that the truth? [illegible] to talk [illegible] the 88 men of the

A No.

Q Is Major Rost lying about this?

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I pray, the Court's judgment.

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

(Stroop-cross)

A ACCUSED STROOP: I cannot say anything in this respect.

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q You can state whether Major Best is telling a lie or telling the truth because you heard his testimony.

A I said that I heard about this case only here and the first thing about this case that I heard was by Major Best himself.

Q General Stroop, I am going to ask you if this is not a fact: That in the year 1944 and 1945 approximately 400 Allied flyers were executed at the hands of the Police in your area?

A DEFENSE COUNSEL: I pray the Court's judgment. This goes far beyond the purview of any of the charges in this case, even including Charge I.

A PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

Q ACCUSED STROOP: I can say to this question only that I don't know anything about the number 400 -- that is unknown to me. I have to say that I hear this here for the first time.

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q During these proceedings you have been shocked to know that the police were killing these flyers, is that right?

A During the trial I heard for the first time about these things.

Q I asked: You were shocked to hear about these things, were you not?

A I explained this morning my position to these things.

CAPTAIN VANCE: Nothing further.

DR. WACKER: I am examining on behalf of the accused Fuchs.

REDIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY DR. WACKER:

Q General Stroop, did you have an opportunity to talk to the SS men of the lower ranks about the air warfare?

A Yes. I talked about these matters with SS men too.

Q What was the influence of the air warfare upon the men of the lower ranks?

(Stroop-redirect)

A These SS men were shocked and depressed just as much as I was and A I have a bad memory for names but I have a good memory for persons all the other people too.
and incidents and I can remember them well. For this reason I have answered DR. WACKER: Since I am not allowed to ask the influence of it on the question with re-
the population I have to finish my examination.
You testified about the authority which you received from the DEFENSE COUNSEL: Dr. Buerger is going to cross examine for the Reichsfuehrer SS Himmler. Were these authorities limited to the purpose for accused Best, Goss and Michely. which you testified here before this Court?
QUESTIONS BY DR. BUERGER:
A The authority was written on a letter head. On this letter head it Q General Stroop, you testified that you never received and gave said, "Reichsfuehrer SS, Commander in Chief of the Reserve Army". This a direct order for the shooting of flyers, is that correct?
shows clearly that we have this order as the Commander in Chief of the Reserve
A That is correct.
Army in order to give special orders with regard to the Reserve Army orders
Q Do you still remember the testimony of the accused Dr. Goss?
which were necessary at that time.
A Yes.
Q But it said on this letter head "Reichsfuehrer SS"?
Q Was Dr. Goss with you alone?
A Yes. That was customary. There are other letter heads. For instance,
A I had the possibility to testify before this Court about all my ones which said, "Reichsstatthalter" and on the next line "Commander of the various duties. It happened unfortunately that men who intended to report Order Police". The lower line is the important one. to me or wanted to willingly talk to me, something or other, sometimes had to Q Could it be recognized from the wording of the authority and not wait for two or three days. After two or three years I am absolutely incapable from the letter head, that the authority was given only for this one purpose? of stating whether 1st Lt. Goss was with me alone when he was there or was A I was SS General of the Waffen SS and the Police and on account of together with other people at my office.
my position I had the possibility to know how the Reichsfuehrer SS meant this.
Q There is the possibility that Goss had been at your headquarters?
The Reichsfuehrer SS did not make out any general powers for all times and A Many people came to me. It is possible that 1st Lt. Goss came to all possibilities.
me too.
Q Did your subordinates know too that these authorities were given
Q Do you still remember your visits at the "W" school, Werewolf school, only for this purpose?
at Tiefenthal or Wallrabenstein?
A I don't know that but I had no reason to tell my subordinates or
A Yes.
officers and men about the kind of authority I had.
Q Do you still remember whether the accused 1st Lt. Goss, during one Q How do you explain then, General Stroop, that 1st Lt. Goss reported of such visits, reported to you the killing of a flyer?
the wording of this affidavit before the Court?
A No.
A We sometimes knew that I had such a certificate of higher authority
Q Do you admit the possibility that such a report might have been made?
and either I personally talked about it with the [illegible] I showed this authority once. I [illegible] it in the [illegible] of the events
(Stroop-redirect)
were [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

A I have a bad memory for names but I have a good memory for persons and incidents and I can remember them well. For this reason I have answered the question with no.

Q You testified about the authority which you received from the Reichsfuehrer SS Himmler. Were these authorities limited to the purpose for which you testified here before this Court?

A The authority was written on a letter head. On this letter head it said, "Reichsfuehrer SS, Commander in Chief of the Reserve Army". This shows clearly that he gave this order as the commander in chief of the Reserve Army inorder to give special orders with regard to the Reserve Army orders which were necessary at that time.

Q But it said on this letter head "Reichsfuehrer SS"?

A Yes. That was customary. There are other letter heads. For instance, ones which said, "Reichsstatthalter" and on the next line "Commander of the Order Police". The lower line is the important one.

Q Could it be recognised from the wording of the authority and not from the letter head, that the authority was given only for this one purpose?

A I was SS General of the Waffen SS and the Police and on account of my position I had the possibility to know how the Reichsfuehrer SS meant this.

Q Was it not so that when this authority was brought to your knowledge The Reichsfuehrer SS did not make out any general powers for all times and all possibilities.

A No. Among my staff and the SS this certificate was of no importance. because as I said before it was a matter of course that my orders which I only for this purpose? issued had to be obeyed.

A I don't know that but I had no reason to tell my subordinates or officers and men what kind of authority I had.

Q How do you explain then, General Stroop, that 1st Lt. Goss repeated the warning of this authority before the Court?

A My secretary knew that I had such a certificate of better authority and either my secretary talked about it or it is possible that I showed this authority once. I might have shown it at the time we discussed the events which were happening when these troops were really flooding back. Certainly we have talked about this matter quite frequently because this was the beginning of what happened later on. I mean that the enemy could advance faster and faster.

Q There you admit the possibility that you talked to your subordinates about this authority?

A I cannot say that anymore today. Why shouldn't I admit it. I said in which connection it could have happened.

Q Wasn't a special stress put on the last sentence that absolute obedience had to be given to your orders?

A I explained that this certificate was given only for this purpose. The Reichsfuehrer SS would have had miserable men if he would have needed to certify that their orders had to be obeyed. That was a matter of course.

Q General Stroop, if I remember correctly you yourself testified today that in this order it was said that absolute obedience has to be given to your orders?

A The Reichsfuehrer SS had given this certificate only so that we and the Gauleiter and Commander of the Order Police and the Commander of the Service Command could enforce their orders even against higher ranking officers.

Q Was it not so that when this authority was brought to the knowledge of subordinate officers it meant that orders had to be obeyed especially strict?

A No. Among my staff and the SS this certificate was of no importance, because as I said before it was a matter of course that my orders which I issued had to be obeyed.

Q You could give orders to Goss?

A Goss voluntarily asked for a transfer to my staff. I did not know him before. On his wishes, I got from General Herff, who was in charge of the Personnel Main office, that Dr. Goss -- permission that 1st Lt. Goss was transferred as 1st Lt of the Waffen SS to be attached to me as adjutant. At his personal request I gave him the assignment of leading the Werewolf school.

It was not as he testified here recently, if I have to mention this again. It is not correct that he became leader of this school in view of a misunderstanding which existed between a certain Captain Grieshaim and myself. I cannot imagine a misunderstanding between -- a disagreement between an SS Captain and a General. I now have to say it was like this: That I decided because he was the older man whom I knew longer that he was put in charge of the school, as my adjutant. Of course, I could give orders.

Q Could you give him orders as the commander of the school?

A Yes, I could; [illegible] it is absolutely clear.

Q Do you remember that you said to SS Major Best, the accused, that this incident in Wallrabenstein was a bad sign for the men? [illegible] of the

A No, I don't remember that. I don't know anything about it.

Q Do you want to say that Best, as well as Goss took their testimony out of the blue sky? [illegible] out for the [illegible] of [illegible]

A I cannot say anything about that.

Q Furthermore, you said you were not the superior officer of the [illegible] commanders of the order police and the security police.

A I did not say that, I was not the superior officer of the commander of the order police but I said that I was his superior in certain matters.

Q How about emergency times? [illegible] or October 1944 approached your

A I have to explain this to the higher court so that it becomes absolutely clear. When I am the superior officer of other officers and enlisted men that means that I can give them unlimited orders and I could to the [illegible] commander of the security police and also in many respects to the commander of the order police give orders only when ever these orders were not [illegible] contradicting the orders which came from the two main offices. Whenever I gave an order to one of the commanders this commander also had the possibility to get in touch with his main office to get the authority to carry out the orders too.

(Streep-redirect)

A Literally expressed the expression was as I said before. You call

Q I think you testified today that in emergency times you would have the area to the left of the Rhein as an emergency area. combined all police forces in your hands, is that correct?

Through this, according to your own testimony, automatically you

A If the Defense plan would have been put in use I would have taken over the command of all SS and Police troops in your area, is that not over the power of command and all authority for the police and the Waffen SS correct? in my area.

A That is not correct in this definite form.

Q Had the Defense plan been put into use?

MR. GERECHT: That is all. Thank you!

A No.

Q Why not?

A I would further more like to state so that it is absolutely clear, in this case when this Defense plan would have been put into use, I was the representative of the Wehrkreis Commander. On my orders all units of the Wehrmacht could have been committed if I would have thought it necessary.

Q Why wasn't the Defense plan put into use?

A Because it was made and worked out for the case of internal revolt and there was no internal revolt.

Q Didn't the defense plan also have certain connections with the enemy with regard to air warfare and land warfare?

A I said before that I had organized police anti aircraft batteries in so far the defense plan had connections with the air warfare.

Q And when the front, in September or October 1944 approached your area more and more and even invaded your area already, was that not a case of emergency?

A In military matters there was a distinction made between operational areas and back areas. The area to the left of the Rhein was operational area until the end of 1944 I think. The area to the right of the Rhein was back area and was under the command of the commander of the back area.

Q That did not answer my question. I asked you whether your area during the approach of the front lines was not to be considered as under an emergency?

A Militarily expressed the expression was as I said before. You call the area to the left of the Rhein as an emergency area.

Q Through this, according to your own testimony, automatically you were the commander of all SS and Police troops in your area, is that not correct?

A This is not correct in this definite form.

DR. BURGER: That is all. Thank you!

Q You said under direct examination that before you were brought all cases which would [illegible] or internal discipline by action?

A Yes.

Q If a soldier would [illegible] or any other, would this be taken care of [illegible], or would it have to be brought before the police court?

A [illegible] I was Higher S. and Police Leader, disobedience of orders had never to be punished through disciplinary action.

Q To Charge 3 and 10, did you hear the accused Steinmann testify before this court in his own behalf?

A Yes.

Q Do you know that he would be reprimanded or arrest for the execution of a Jew?

A Yes.

Q If Steinmann would have refused to carry out this order, would he then be charged by you for insubordination before your SS and Police court?

A He could [illegible] court, without any doubt.

Q And which punishment could you have expected to be pronounced by you in the police court?

A [illegible] in accordance with the general stamp of punishment in disciplinary [illegible] and [illegible] as it was.

(Stamp - deliberately)

DR. AUKIMER: This is cross examination fey the accused witnesses Hellenbreich and Stattmann. situations.

CAPTAIN VANCE: REDIRECT EXAMINATION testified that no one was DIRECTIONS BY DR. AUKIMER: or executed or put in prison for failure to carry out

Q You said that you were the appointing and reviewing authority of the SS and police court of Wehrkreis 122.

A Yes.

Q General Streep, did you know of other cases before other SS and police

Q You said under cross examination that before this court were brought all cases which could not be taken care of through disciplinary action?

A Yes.

Q If a member of the police force refused to obey an order, could this be taken care of through disciplinary action, or would it have to be brought before the police court? intervales.

A During the time I was higher SS and police leader, disobedience of orders was never to be punished through disciplinary action.

Q In charge 6 and 10, did you hear the accused Stattmann testify before this court in his own behalf? before publication and this office

A Yes. and the so-called chief judges of the SS and police courts

Q So you know that he said he received an order for the execution of a flier? further more in order to maintain in the Reich a certain uniformity

A Yes. ces and for this reason I received reports on these sentences

Q If Stattmann would have refused to carry out this order, would he then be ordered to go for investigation before your SS and police court?

A In such important cases, without any doubt. ered to carry out the

Q And which sentence would you have expected to be pronounced by your SS and police court? of disobedience to orders happened in my large area qu CAPTAIN VANCE: No object, unless General Streep is going to testify he directed his courts and told them what to do. police court all their criminal cas

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I think he might testify as to what sentences were handed down in similar situations, such for disobedience of orders, the most com- CAPTAIN VANCE: General Stroop already testified that no one was ever punished by this court, or executed or put in prison for failure to carry out an order to kill a flier, [illegible] we have an objection to disobedience of orders. PRESIDENT: Objection sustained, which if they are discovered carry the Q - General Stroop, did you know of other cases before other SS and police courts which were referred for disobedience of orders?

CAPTAIN VANCE: We object. It is irrelevant, immaterial and incompetent, you know that in cases at the front or near areas especially strict- ful DEFENSE COUNSEL: This is cross examination and we therefore have much more latitude.

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled, if necessary, their orders had to be A- It is like this, for approximately four or five SS and police courts there was a higher headquarters office. This office, on orders of the main office SS and police courts had the duty to check the reasons given for sentences by these courts before publication and this office always notified the so-called chief judges of the SS and police courts of other sentences, some for information of these chief judges and other judges and furthermore in order to achieve in the Reich a certain uniformity of sentences and for this reason I received reports on these sentences from my chief judge and I answered this question this morning with "no" only because the question was aimed like this: Whether through my SS and police court men have been sentenced because they refused to carry out the order to kill punishment enemy fliers. I answered this question with "no" but that other incidents of disobedience to orders happened in my large area quite often is a matter of course, especially since all units which were billeted in my district had to transfer to my SS and police court all their criminal cases.

[illegible] what type of orders were [illegible]

Q Through the report of your chief judge which you have mentioned before, did you hear of any cases in which for disobedience of orders, the death sentence was pronounced? [illegible] one case. It is a little bit unclear but I am [illegible]

CAPTAIN VANCE: We object. If he will say disobedience of an order to execute prisoners of war, then we have no objection to "disobedience of orders." We have orders in our own army which if they are disobeyed carry the death penalty, but this court is interested in orders relating to the killing of fliers. [illegible] requested several times to carry out the order.

[illegible] PRESIDENT: Objection overruled. [illegible], was sentenced to death

Q Did you know that in cases at the front or near areas especially strict rulings existed which were binding especially for the lower ranking organizations?

A It was known to all commanders that if necessary, their orders had to be enforced with their weapons.

CAPTAIN VANCE: I would like to ask a question.

PRESIDENT: Granted. RECROSS EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE: [illegible] I did not receive an order to shoot prisoners.

Q General, was the death sentence ever given anyone who disobeyed orders in the 12th Wehrkreis? [illegible] that I was to interrogate many prisoners.

A Yes, sir, especially during the last war.

Q Now, what kind of orders are you talking about? [illegible] what it is?

A That is very difficult to say but I know that I had to approve the sentences of men and I know it because I sometimes felt sorry because they were young, decent men who through sometimes change of mind refused to obey an order which they had received. For instance it happened, if I may talk about it that men received certain guard assignments, since the front was already in the home countries, the men for instance went to the girls or to some inn, then came before the SS and police court and were sentenced to death. [illegible] carry out [illegible].

Q Well, we have the same law in our own army, but I want to ask what type of orders were people executed for failure to carry out?

A That is very difficult for me to reconstruct.

Q Well, do you remember any cases?

A Yes, I think I remember one case. It is a little bit unclear but I think it was like this: A policeman received an order from a captain of the rural police to carry out some order behind the front lines. I think it was in this connection he took the road to some people who were hiding in caves and some ditches since this area was under enemy fire and he was requested several times to carry out the order. I think this man, that is the case I remember, was sentenced to death for disobedience to order. I think as a proof I can say that, because later on I myself was in one of those caves and I think it was near the Saar.

Q General Stroop, you wouldn't shoot an unarmed prisoner of war, would you?

DR. RAU: I object to the question.

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

A I have testified that I did not receive an order to shoot prisoners of war and furthermore I would like you to consider that I participated in both world wars and that I had to interrogate many prisoners of war, especially during the last war.

Q Now can you answer my question? Can you remember what it is?

A I think it was if I would shoot a prisoner of war.

Q Well, would you, yes or no?

A I have no reason to shoot a prisoner of war without any special reason.

Q And no German policeman would be punished if he refused to shoot an unarmed surrendered prisoner of war, would he?

A It is not a question of the killing. If the policeman received an order to, he had to carry out the order.

GOVERNMENT COURT
MILITARGERICHT

CHARGE SHEET
ANKLAGESCHRIFT

Q Well, I asked you early in my cross examination if any police-

No. man had been punished by you or one of your courts for failure to carry
Name des Angeklagten

out an order to shoot a surrendered, unarmed prisoner of war and you is hereby charged with the following offence:
wird hiermit folgender Verbrechen angeklagt:

answered they had not. Do you still want that answer to stand?

First Charge: A Yes, I repeat I don't know of any incidents that a policeman was punished for disobedience to orders and that the order was to shoot the prisoner of war.

Particulars: PRESIDENT: Court will adjourn until 0900 tomorrow.

(Whereupon at 1900 hours the court adjourned until 0900 hours, 6 March 1947.)

Second Charge:

Particulars:

The above charges are referred for trial to the *Summary / Intermediate Military Court / *General

Die Verhandlung wird vor dem *Einfachen / *Mittleren Militärgericht / Obersten or in (Address of Court)

*Anschrift des Gerichtes

or in der Stadt/den

von

*Strike out words not applicable
*Nicht zutreffendes ist durchzustreichen.

Copy of above charges served on accused
Abschrift obiger Anklageschrift zugestellt am

Legal Form No. 8

MILITARY GOVERNMENT COURT
MILITÄRGERICHT

CHARGE SHEET
ANKLAGESCHRIFT

Place .....
Ort

Date .....
Datum

Name of accused .....
Name des Angeklagten

is hereby charged with the following offences:
wird hiermit wegen der folgenden strafbaren Handlungen angeklagt:

First Charge: ..... Erste Anklage: .....

.....

.....

.....

Particulars: ..... Einzelheiten: .....

.....

.....

.....

Second Charge: ..... Zweite Anklage: .....

.....

.....

.....

Particulars: ..... Einzelheiten: .....

.....

.....

.....

.....

The above charges are referred for trial to the *Summary *Intermediate Military Court to be held *General

Die Verhandlung wird vor dem *Einfachen *Mittleren Militärgerichte *Oberen

at ..... on ..... 194.....
in (Address of Court) am
(Anschrift des Gerichtes)

at .....
um Uhr stattfinden.

By Order
Im Auftrage von

.....
(Signature of person preferring charges)
(Unterschrift des Vertreters der Anklagebehörde)

*Strike out words not applicable.
*Nichtzutreffendes ist durchzustreichen.

Copy of above served on accused ..... 194.....
Abschrift dem Angeklagten zugestellt am

.....
(Signature of person making service)
(Unterschrift des Zustellers)

CA/GI 13 Legal Form No. 8

MILITARY GOVERNMENT COURT

CASE RECORD.

Pages 2029 - 2115

Case No. Superior Orders

*~~Summary~~ *~~Intermediate~~ Military Court. *General

Place DACHAU, GERMANY

Date 6 March 1947

~~Members of Court~~ WITNESSES

JURGEN STROOP
FRIEDRICH KARL von EBERSTEIN
ALFRED WUNNENBERG

Prosecutor Lt. Col. Dwinell

Defence Counsel Lt. Col. Berman
Herbert Rosenstock

Interpreter Rudolph Nathanson

Reporter Patricia Stewart, Imogene Butler, Sally R. Hayett, Evelyn Cohen, Peter DiCurti, Irving Hayett John McDonald

Accused JURGEN STROOP, et al

Address ..... Sex ..... Age .....

	First Charge	Second Charge
Pleas
Findings
Previous Convictions

Sentence
- Imprisonment
  - Term .....
  - Beginning 194
- Fine
  - Amount .....
  - To be paid before 194
  - or in case of default of payment to serve a *further term of ..... imprisonment.

Charge Sheet and Record of Testimony are annexed hereto.

.....
(Signature of member of court.)

REVIEW

Action of Reviewing Authority .....

.....
(Signature of reviewing authority)

*Strike out words not applicable.

RECORD OF TESTIMONY

in trial of

THE UNITED STATES versus JURGEN STROOP, et al

by

GENERAL MILITARY GOVERNMENT COURT

tried at

DACHAU, GERMANY BEGINNING 10 JANUARY 1947

6 MARCH 1947 Pages 2029 - 2115

TESTIMONY

WITNESSES	DIRECT	CROSS	REDIRECT	RECROSS	COURT
JURGEN STROOP			2038	2029 2043
FRIEDRICH KARL von EBERSTEIN	2048	2061
ALFRED WURNBERG	2078
FRIEDRICH SCHLUNS			2088 2101	2101
PHILIP BUNSMAN	2109
HANS GUNTHER			2106	2112
REINHARDT BREDER	2113

EXHIBITS

NUMBER	DESCRIPTION	MARKED	RECEIVED IN EVIDENCE
P-147	Silver Trophy Cup	2034

Ya 271-po-80-3/6-1

Camp Dachau, Germany

6 March 1947

MORNING SESSION

(Whereupon the court reconvened at 0900 hours.)

PRESIDENT: Court will come to order.

PROSECUTION: May it please the court, let the record show that all the members of the court; all the members of the prosecution; all the members of the defense; all of the accused; the reporter and interpreter are present.

PRESIDENT: Let the record show that Colonel Ackerman has advised the president of the court that he has read all the testimony which transpired in court on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, February 26, 27 and 28, on which days he was properly absent from court.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: At the close of yesterday's session, the accused Stroop, No. 1, was on the stand. Will you please take the stand again?

JURGEN STROOP, an accused, voluntarily resumed the stand in his own behalf and being reminded that he was still under oath, testified further through an interpreter as follows:

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Were you through with your cross examination?

CAPTAIN VANCE: I would like to ask a few more questions.

RECROSS EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q General Stroop, I believe that during your direct testimony and then again during your cross examination that you stated that the low-ranking members of the police force were acting under orders which they had to obey and that you are willing to take the responsibility for those actions under these orders. Is that what you said?

A Yes, I said so, with the addition although I myself have not given any orders for the killing of fliers.

(STROOP-Recross)

Ta 271-ps-CO-1/6-2

Q Now, tell the court what orders you are talking about in connection with these low running numbers.

A In this case, I only can construct something about which I was thinking during the trial. I explained here before the pressure of the Party. During the trial and before the trial I have seen a few photostatic copies of documents which were made up by the Foreign Office and the Chief of Staff of the Wehrmacht. I assume now that based on these documents the intention existed to issue some kind of an order but they did not have the courage to issue this order in general and openly, and certainly they did not want to give this order to the Order Police because as we have seen here the Order Police had at its disposal mostly older men, unskilled, and one couldn't have the same confidence that they would keep an order secret with these auxiliary policemen as one could have with the regular policemen. For this reason, I assume today -- and I always stress the point that I come to this knowledge and conclusion only now -- I assume therefore that the way through the Party was chosen, and in view of the large influence which the gauleiters and the kreisleiters had, this was explained on several occasions during the trial, too, there was always a way through some reliable commander to enforce such an intention or such an order. And so I think that through this way, if it came out in this trial that policemen shot a flier on orders, this man really in this manner received an order. That is the only reply I can give you.

Q General Stroop, you alone could not run the police system of the Rhein-Westmark area, could you?

A No.

Q It took cooperation between all branches; that is correct, isn't it?

A Yes.

Q Now, let's take a case, for instance, where Major Girke says that he gave an order to Major Hollenbreich and Major Hollenbreich passed that order to Staatsmm and Rauf to execute a flier. How do you feel about your responsibility in that instance?

(STROOP-Recross)

A I have testified that I did not receive a general order to kill fliers. The comrades just mentioned by the prosecutor have testified here that they had received an order. If officers here state that they received an order, I have no doubt that they received it.

Q Well, now, after hearing this trial progress, you have no doubt that orders were issued and carried out to execute unarmed prisoners of war, is that correct?

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I pray the court's judgment. That is the very issue in this case, and that is for determination by the court. Whether any particular accused has the opinion that other people are guilty of something is not for him to say.

PRESIDENT: Objection is overruled.

THE WITNESS: I did not deny that such orders had been issued, but I have testified that I, as the higher SS and police leader, did not receive such an order and did not pass it down.

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q Let's forget for the time being the higher ups, the headquarters above you, Himmler, etc., and get down to the Rhein-Westmark area. Who do you think disseminated these orders to your command?

A I can't give you any information about this, because I don't know about any orders.

Q Is it possible that these orders came to your headquarters without your knowledge?

A Orders of such importance would have come to my knowledge.

Q Someone had to issue them down to these lesser headquarters, didn't they?

A Yes. If the majors Dirks and Hallenbreich testified here that they received an order from Colonel Trumaler, and if Colonel Trumaler testified here that ———

(STROOP-Recross)

DEFENSE COUNCEL: I think he said that if they testified they got the order from Cirke and Cirke testified, etc. Ask him to say it over again.

THE WITNESS: If the Majors Hellenbroich and Cirke testify to have received such an order from Colonel Trumaler, and Colonel Trumaler testifies that he received an order from his superior headquarters, then, as I said before, I think the chain of command is clear, especially considering the immediate direct channel of command from the Reich Security Main Office to the commander of the Security Police. Of course, it is entirely open whether this order was given in writing or orally. I don't know anything about it.

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q Orders that came down from Kaltenbrunner to Trumbler — it is true that you got copies of those orders, is it not?

A Not all of them. I can say the following there. Captain Vance tried to bring to my attention yesterday that I, as the higher SS and police leader of Rhein-Westmark, learned more about the activities in my district during the time I was arrested here than before. To yesterday's questions and to today's questions, I can answer together that there was an order from the Fuehrer about keeping orders secret. This order of the Fuehrer's said that about actions mentioned in secret orders only those people should be informed who directly had anything to do with the carrying out of such orders. Since the SS under my command had nothing to do with the so-called Nadamar incident, I was not informed. Since in the case about which we are talking now it definitely was a secret order and it seems that it was intentioned not to involve me in any way, I was not informed.

Q What you mean to say is that some police matters were kept secret from the higher SS and police fuehrer, is that correct?

A Whenever the higher SS and police leader was not participating on the execution of any of such orders, I didn't have to know about them. If I am sitting here as the former higher SS and police leader, it makes perhaps a funny impression that sometimes I don't know about certain orders which happened in the Reich, but this order was obeyed to very strictly and even the death penalty was threatened for disobedience to this order. Only those people were informed who had anything directly to do with the carrying out of such secret orders.

Q General, wasn't it your principal function and one of your main duties as higher SS and police leader to check up and see that the police were enforcing orders issued from higher above?

A That wasn't my main duty. That was especially not my main duty in regard to the Security Police, because we heard here already Colonel Somma right in the beginning that he was inspector and he had to inspect and he had to report to Berlin whether the orders were carried out or not.

Q Was that one of your duties, then?

A Of course, I took the interest that orders were carried out, but when I executed such a control at all it was over the sector of the Order Police. How little I checked the sector of the Security Police one can see from the fact that I was on all the various headquarters of the Security Police only once during the entire time because they were located in my area. For instance, I knew Major Girke and Major Hallenbreich only from a very short presentation to me at some occasion.

Q Now, General, how could you tell whether the police were carrying out orders and enforcing them unless you knew what the orders were?

A I didn't have knowledge of all orders. In order that I was informed at least a little bit, I ordered these chief meetings at my headquarters from time to time, and during these meetings, these two commanders informed me about important matters.

Q Did they inform you about shooting the fliers?

A No.

CAPTAIN VANCE: I hand the reporter an object and request that it be marked for identification.

(The object referred to was marked Prosecution Exhibit 147 for identification.)

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q General, I show you a silver trophy cup which has been marked Prosecution Exhibit 147 for identification and ask you if you can tell the court what that is.

A Yes. For the first time, I am holding such a trophy in my hands. I never saw it before, but if I am asked what it is supposed to be, it is very clear from the printing on it. It shows oak leaves, then two eagles fighting. That is a picture of the air warfare. If I might explain, the one on the bottom is the enemy and non-German and the one on top of him is the German flier. On the back is a reproduction of the Iron Cross for this World War from 1939, and at the bottom the words are used, "For Special Achievement in the Air Warfare." I assume -- and I heard so before, I think -- that something like this existed, that well-deserving fighter fliers of the German air force received such a trophy, but I think a former comrade of mine will be a witness here afterwards, the general of the air force Von Harlinghausen. This general of the air force probably will be in a position much better than I am to explain the value and meaning of this trophy. I always was an infantryman and lived on the ground and was flying only from time to time when my duties made it necessary.

Q From looking at that trophy, can you say what date that trophy was issued?

A Yes, I can see it. Yes, it says there, "Lt. Barczykowski, on the 13th of June, 1941." That certainly must have been a flier.

Q Were there any bombs dropped in the Rhein-Westmark area by the Allied air force in 1941?

A Yes, as far as I heard, yes. I wasn't there yet.

CAPTAIN VANCE: Nothing further.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I would like to re-examine the accused briefly on redirect examination.

REDIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY DEFENSE COUNSEL:

Q Yesterday, you testified that while you knew of no order to shoot captured Allied fliers, but if you had received such an order from your superiors you would have passed it down and would have enforced its challenge. Is that a correct statement?

A Yes, that is correct.

Q And you also said in connection with that that there would be no occasion for you to question the legality of orders issued by your Government. Is that a correct statement?

CAPTAIN VANCE: May it please the court, I object to that as leading. I don't think that statement can be found in this record.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I am certain that it was, and I have asked him if he said that and he says it was.

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

THE WITNESS: Yes, I made this remark.

QUESTIONS BY DEFENSE COUNSEL:

Q General Streng, what was the government of Germany during the war? What did it consist of?

A The government of the German Reich consisted of the Fuehrer, Adolf Hitler, the Reichs Cabinet and the Reichstag.

Q Are you somewhat familiar with the American government?

A Yes, in general.

Q Without making a comparison between the government of the United States and the government of Germany, who would you say was the opposite number in the German government to the President of the United States?

CAPTAIN VANCE: I object to that question. It is improper. I don't think there is anything in the German government that compares with the President of the United States.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I said without making a comparison, may it please the court. I just asked on the basis of the government, who would be the opposite number to the president. I certainly don't intend to make a comparison between our forms of government.

LAW MEMBER: What is the materiality of this question?

DEFENSE COUNSEL: This case is being called a superior orders case. We intend to show that it is not a superior orders case. It is not a question of Girke's order or Trumler's order. What these people were obeying was the order of their government, and I have a right to show what the government was, and I can't see how making a comparison with who President Roosevelt's opposite number was could be considered at all disrespectful to my own country. I am laying a foundation, that is what I am doing.

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

THE WITNESS: As the President of the United States is leading the government of the United States, so Adolf Hitler was the leader of the German government.

QUESTIONS BY DEFENSE COUNSEL:

Q And who in the German system of government could be said to be the opposite numbers of the cabinet of the United States?

A The Reichs Cabinet.

Q And again without making a comparison between the two, what body in the German government can be said to be the opposite number to the Congress of the United States?

A The German Reichstag.

Q Now there has been talk in this case about Bormann. Do you know what position Bormann played in the German government? Was he or was he not a part of the Government; and, if he was, what was his position in the Government?

A He was Reichsleiter and he was a member of the Reichs cabinet.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: What's "Reichsleiter"?

INTERPRETER: Reichs Leader.

QUESTIONS BY THE DEFENSE COUNSEL:

Q And the same question with respect to Himmler.

A I can give the same answer for the Reichsfuehrer Himmler. He, too, was a member of the Reichs cabinet.

Q Now, this so-called Bormann decree that has been introduced into this Court, or Bormann order, or whatever name you want to give it--whose order or decree was that?

A Whenever Bormann issued an order and signed it, in my opinion he signed it in the name of the Government.

Q Now, this so-called "non-interference" order--what part did Himmler play in that order, so far as you know?

A Himmler signs the order, but even the Reichsfuehrer SS could issue such an order only in agreement and by orders of the German Government.

Q Now, General Stroop, there has been evidence in this case of a Kaltenbrunner order--an order to turn the fliers over to the Gestapo--several and sundry orders with respect to the treatment of allied fliers. Whose orders were they, if you know?

CAPTAIN VANCE: I object on the ground that General Stroop has testified he knows nothing and heard nothing and has no knowledge of such order.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: He has denied only knowledge only. of the order to kill and has said nothing about any other orders, and I asked him to state if he knows.

CAPTAIN VANCE: I would like a ruling of the Court.

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

WITNESS: I assume in this case an order has been issued by General Kaltenbrunner. General Kaltenbrunner was Chief of the Reichs Security Main Office. One might say he was responsible for the administration of the Security Police. Whenever General Kaltenbrunner issued an order [illegible], in this capacity he issued the order in agreement with to Heinrich Himmler, but Himmler would give his okay to this order only and give an order like this only when he was certain that he was in agreement with the Reichs Government.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I am not talking about this order--that particular order--but about the other orders.

CAPTAIN VANCE: May it please the Court, I move that that answer be stricken from the record. The General started off with "assuming". He is testifying as to an assumption, and not to what he knows about. For that reason, we move that it be physically stricken from the record.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I would like to say briefly that he is talking about an order about which he said he had no knowledge, but which has been testified to in this case as coming down from Kaltenbrunner. Now, he is testifying that if such an order came down from Kaltenbrunner it must have [illegible].

(Stroop-Redirect)

been issued by Kaltenbrunner, coming down from higher authority. It is perfectly germane.

CAPTAIN VANCE: May it please the Court, the question was "if you know", and then he says, "I assume", etc.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Would you mind asking again if he used the word "I assume" or "I thought".

CAPTAIN VANCE: I object to that. The Court knows what he said.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: We are questioning the translation, may it please the Court. I should have asked the Court to ask him. I pray the Court's pardon.

PRESIDENT: Will you ask the witness if the first part of that answer was correct, "I assume"?

INTERPRETER: I take as a basis that General Kaltenbrunner, etc.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I submit that it's perfectly proper.

PRESIDENT: The motion to strike is denied.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Now these other orders that you testified that you knew about or testified about in this case other than the order to kill--let's leave that out, you talked about that--these other orders or any order- any and every order that had to do with the treatment of allied fliers, whose orders were they in the first instance?

CAPTAIN VANCE: We object to that because the orders are in evidence. They show whose orders they were because they are signed orders.

PRESIDENT: Objection sustained.

(Stroop-Redirect)

DEFENSE COUNSEL: What I want to prove by this question, may it please the Court, irrespective of the name signed to the order, that the order was an order of the German Government and the signature was merely the voice of the Government. That's what I offered to prove by the question I just asked. May I ask for a ruling of the Court if such evidence is admissible.

PRESIDENT: The ruling stands.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: These orders signed by Bormann and Himmler, or by whomever they were signed, can you tell the Court for whom these orders were signed?

CAPTAIN VANCE: Same objection, may it please the Court.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I pray the Court's judgment.

CAPTAIN VANCE: The documents speak for themselves.

PRESIDENT: Objection sustained.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: According to the German system of Government, could orders be issued by Bormann or Himmler unless--could orders be issued by Bormann and Himmler other than as part and representative of the German Government?

CAPTAIN VANCE: We object. The question is leading; he is putting the answer into the mouth of the witness. This is not cross examination; he is conducting a redirect examination of this accused.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I agree.

CAPTAIN VANCE: He is leading.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I will try to correct it, may it please the Court. I didn't mean to lead.

By what authority did Himmler and Bormann issue the orders referred to in this case?

CAPTAIN VANCE: Same objection, may it please the Court.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I pray the Court's judgment.

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

WITNESS: By authority of the Government and the Chief of the German Reich, Adolf Hitler.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Now, coming down to Stattman and Raaf in this case, and the order they got from Girke, and which Girke says he got from Trumler. Whose orders were Stattman and Raaf obeying?

CAPTAIN VANCE: We object, may it please the Court. That testimony is before this Court as to who they were obeying. It's clear who they got it from--who they obeyed. Girke and Hellenbroich testified they gave it, and General Stroop was not there; so how could he know?

PRESIDENT: Objection sustained.

QUESTIONS BY THE DEFENSE COUNSEL:

Q Could Girke have issued such an order on his own authority?

A Never.

Q From whom would he have to get his authority?

A He had to receive his authority from his next higher superior officer--that was Colonel Trumler.

Q Could Trumler issue such an order on his own authority?

A No, not even Trumler; not even Kaltenbrunner. These were orders of such importance that they could be issued only in agreement with the highest commander of the German Reich, the Fuehrer. Such decisions even General Kaltenbrunner or even any subordinate officer of the Security Police could not issue.

Q About the non-interference order, Could Sommann originate such an order?

A No, it's exactly the same with the non-interference order.

Q You got the non-interference order, didn't you, and you passed it down?

A Yes.

Q Could you originate such an order?

A I couldn't have done so, even if I had had the necessary authority, because I was only the higher SS and Police Leader for a small sector of Germany.

Q Where did the order come from?

A The order came from Himmler in agreement with the Government.

Q Yesterday you were asked by the Prosecution what your command jurisdiction was over the Security Police, and you testified, as I remember it, that the orders to the Inspector and the Commander of--and you testified that the orders to the Security Police in Rhine-Westmark came from the Main Office of the Security Police. Do you remember saying that?

A That's correct.

Q Now, if you know, can you tell the Court how orders from the Reichssicherheitshauptamt were issued to the lower echelons, the Sipo and Kripo and SD in the smaller cities?

A I know about it in general. As long as there was still an Inspector as Chief of the Security police in my district, a large part of the orders went through the lower Headquarters and avoided the Inspector of the Order Police. That was especially true for the time while Colonel Scmann was Inspector of the Security Police in Rhine-Westmark. Sometimes he heard about things only later on through his subordinate Headquarters; or only a few matters--I don't want to say definitely--but I think personal matters and some other things, went directly to his Headquarters. As I said before, all the other orders, instructions and letters went, you might say, around him, right to the leaders of the various Headquarters. This condition even existed for some time after Colonel Trummler had become Colonel Scmann's successor, until such time as he had reorganized the various Headquarters; so that later on he was in a position to receive all the orders and to pass them down all by himself.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Does the Prosecution have anything further?

CAPTAIN VANCE: Yes, sir.

RECROSS EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q General Stroop, do you remember when you testified before this Court about three weeks ago?

A Yes.

Q Do you remember my asking you about the chain of command to the Security Police and you answered, "I don't know anything about the Security Police"?

A I remember exactly what I said. I didn't say that I didn't know anything; I said only here I am not informed in all details. It was a question of explaining to this high Court the whole organisation and the channel of command. Why should I appear here before the Court as a man who knows and make explanations about matters with which I am not familiar in all the smallest details? For this reason, I considered it better that these explanations should be given here to the Court by the Inspector of the Security Police or the Commander of the Security Police--explanations which then were correct in every respect. That I know about the things to which I testified I think is obvious.

PRESIDENT: Court will recess for twenty minutes.

(Whereupon the Court recessed at 1000 hours.)

End ta 262, srh fols

(Whereupon court reconvened at 1020 hours.)

PRESIDENT: Court will come to order.

PROSECUTION: May it please the court, let the record show that all the members of the court, all the members of the prosecution, all the members of the defense, all the accused, the reporter and interpreter are present.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: The accused Stroop was on the stand undergoing cross examination.

JURGEN STROOP, an accused, having been previously duly sworn, resumed the stand in his own behalf and testified further through an interpreter as follows:

PRESIDENT: You are reminded you are still under oath.

ACCUSED STROOP: Yes.

RECROSS EXAMINATION (Continued)

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q General Stroop, when you were testifying on the 7th day of February 1947 before this court, do you remember my questioning you about Defense Exhibit Number 2, which is the large chart in evidence? Do you recall that?

A I remember the question, yes.

Q Do you remember saying in regard to the Security Police, "I don't know whether it is correct or not as I don't know anything about the Security Police"?

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I pray the court's judgment. That is repititious. It was inquired into just before the recess.

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

ACCUSED STROOP: What I said was that I wasn't familiar with the organization of the Security Police down to the last detail, and that since the only purpose of the examination was the examination of the chart, I considered it proper that the Inspector of the Security Police or the Commander of the Security Police should give that explanation.

Q When answering Colonel Dorman's question about the Security Police, were you testifying as to some actual knowledge you had or were you testifying about what you have learned during this trial?

A No. I was, of course, informed about the organization of the Security Police in general. One particular reason why I did not give the explanation on this chart was because it also indicates several branch offices about whose existence I don't know much of anything. At any rate, I certainly would not have been able to enumerate them.

Q You know I did not ask you anything about the branch offices. I asked you about the positions occupied by Ehrman and Trumler? Do you not remember that?

A The position?

Q Yes.

A I did quite a bit of testifying about that here.

Q I am talking about when I was questioning you. I realize you have when Colonel Dorman was questioning.

A Well, Captain, the reason why I refrained from explaining this was that I thought there was no point in my doing this when there were some men sitting here who knew much better about it than I. The purpose of these two big charts here was to present a clear picture to the court here. If I had forgotten the smallest detail or had perhaps unwillingly testified wrongly, the picture wouldn't have gotten any clearer.

Q You had made certain comparisons with positions held in German government and the American government. That is right, is it not?

A Yes. Might I say one more thing to the last question, Captain? After all, I never was a member of the Reich Security Main Office. I still remember this last question now and the answer was yes.

(Stroop-Recess)

Q Was Bormann a politician.

A Yes.

Q Would he compare to a ward heeler?

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I pray the court's judgment. It is entirely improper cross examination. There is no evidence that he knows what a ward heeler is.

CAPTAIN VANCE: He said he is familiar with our American system.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I object.

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

ACCUSED STROOP: No.

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q Do you know what a ward heeler is?

INTERPRETER: Captain, I don't think the term "ward heeler" can be translated into proper German.

CAPTAIN VANCE: If it cannot be translated I withdraw it. That is all.

ACCUSED STROOP: And if I might add, Bormann was a Reich Minister, so he couldn't have been a small scale politician.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Anything further from the prosecution?

CAPTAIN VANCE: Nothing further.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Any questions by the court?

PRESIDENT: No questions by the court. Take your place in the dock.

(Thereupon the accused resumed his seat in the dock.)

DEFENSE COUNSEL: The next witness is Baron von Eberstein.

(Stroop-Recross)

FRIEDRICH KARL FREIHERR von EBERSTEIN, called as a witness by the defense, being first duly sworn, testified through an interpreter as follows:

DEFENS' COUNSEL: The witness will be examined by Dr. Rau.

DIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY DR. RAU:

Q What is your name, please?

A Friedrich Karl Freiherr von Eberstein.

Q How old are you?

A 55 years.

Q Are you a prisoner at this time?

A I have been discharged from my status as prisoner of war.

Q Are you still in custody?

A Yes.

Q What was your rank?

A My last rank was that of a full general of the Waffen SS and the police.

Q What was your official position?

A My last position was the higher SS and police leader and the higher commanding officer of the prisoners of war in Wehrkreis Number 7 in Munich.

Q From when until when did you hold this position?

A The position of higher SS and police leader from the beginning of the war until the 20th of April 1945 and the position of higher commander of prisoners of war from the first of October 1944 until 20 April 1945 also.

Q Was the war over for you on the 20th of April 1945 or were you relieved from your job before the end of the war?

A I was relieved from my jobs on the 20th of April 1945 because I had refused to obey orders from the Gauleiter Giesler in Munich several times.

Q In what respect did you refuse to obey orders? What did he want you to do?

CAPTAIN VANCE: I object. It is entirely irrelevant, immaterial and incompetent about this man in Munich and his refusing to obey his orders.

DR. RAU: I should like to demonstrate to the court the influence of the Party on the higher SS and police leaders.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: It is still germane according to the chart, which is officially before the court.

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

THE WITNESS: There were several conditions jointly effective. It started as early as 20 July 1944, when the attempted assassination of Hitler took place. He demanded of me to arrest a colonel of the general staff corps, of the staff of headquarters 7 and I refused to do that. In the beginning of March 1945 he called me over and demanded of me to influence the commanding officer of the Dachau concentration camp to the effect that the prisoners present in that camp at the time of the approach of the Americans should be shot. I declined to do that. About the middle of April the gauleiter called a conference and expressed himself to the effect that Munich should be defended in spite of the fact no troops were left there and the commanding officer of Wehrkreis Number 7, Kriegel, also stated that it was absurd to try to defend the town and finally the gauleiter and Reich Defense Commissar demanded that the police leave Munich in order to build up a line of defense around the Danube. That was in contradiction to an order of Himmler to the effect that police presidents were not permitted to leave their cities. Thus, within 48 hours I was relieved from every one of my jobs. Application for this action started with the Reich Defense Commissar and went through Bormann down to Himmler, and I was relieved of my job.

Q Were you examined in the Nuernberg trial as a witness against Goering and others?

A Yes, but only as a witness for the SS.

Q Did you there testify about the position of the higher SS and police leader in the police organization?

A Yes.

Q Will you please repeat what you stated there?

CAPTAIN FANCE: No objection, may it please the court. It is not the best evidence. The record of the Nuernberg trial will reflect his testimony.

PRESIDENT: What is the point of your question?

DR. [illegible]: To present to the court from some third party what the duties of the higher SS and police leaders were.

PRESIDENT: Objection sustained.

QUESTIONS BY DR. [illegible]:

Q What was the job of the higher SS and police leader?

A His jobs in a general outline were about the following: In the first place, the higher SS and police leader was the representative of the Reichsfuehrer SS and chief of the German police in the wehrkreis where he was active. As such he had to take the place of the Reichsfuehrer SS at large scale matters, such as at Party or government conferences. In the second place, it was his job to see to service liaison between the government offices and the Party offices in the area, thus making for a smooth working together of all the offices under Himmler in this particular area; that would include orientation of the particular headquarters located there. In the third place, the higher S. and police leader was to use jointly the whole powers of the SS and the police in the working out of large scale closing up of projects. For instance, in the course of natural emergencies, in the case of large scale meetings in the presence of Hitler. Further, he had to take the position of the reviewing authority of the SS and police court located in that Wehrkreis. The reason for that was not as it was in the army, that is, authority was under our command, but rather, that higher SS and police officer, in his discretion, was the highest ranking officer in the SS or the police there. Finally, in the case of internal disturbances, in that case, and only in that case, he was issued the power of command over the whole SS and police in his area, but in my area that case never arose. But even in that case, the final decision would be up to the Reich Defense Commissioner.

(von Oberstein-Direct)

Q What was the normal authority of the command of a higher SS and police leader?

A I can testify only as to the position of the higher SS and police leader in the German zone of interior. I have no knowledge of the authority of the higher SS and police leader in the occupied territories since I was used inside Germany throughout. The organization of the headquarters of the higher SS and police leader was first published by a regulation of the Reich Minister of the Interior, Dr. Frick. This regulation appeared in the winter of '38 or spring of '38, I can't say exactly which. Its phrasing was rather scanty and it didn't consist of more than one typewritten page. The main point stated therein was that, as I have mentioned before, the higher SS and police leader were the representatives of the Reichsfuehrer of the SS and the chief of the German police. The technical representatives of the

(vonEberstein-Direct)

Reichsfuehrer SS, however, remained the chief of the main office of the regular police and of the security police. They made use of their own channels of command and the offices of the higher SS and police leaders were located outside these channels of command. The higher SS and police leaders were not permitted any interference in police activities. They had no power of command, either over Waffen SS or the police, nor did they have any disciplinary powers over the SS or the police. In fact, no appropriation, no financial backing existed at all for the position of the higher SS and police leader in the German government setup. It was only in 1941 when the higher SS and police leaders became generals of the police that they did receive appropriated funds from the main office of the regular police. For that reason, in accordance with the German interpretation of the civil service regulations, that did not constitute a state authority. The only explanation we can give for this peculiar situation is that Himmler had a project for the future in his mind, namely, a state protective corps, to consist and to be formed after the war, of the SS and the police.

Q Did you yourself have any disciplinary powers to the members of your staff or did you not?

A The members of the staff were detailed to it; an actual staff per se did not really exist. The only person, who, according to later regulation, was actually put under the discipline of the higher SS and police leader was the chief of staff for the Allgemeine SS. And, in accordance with this regulation from the Reich Minister of the Interior, I think that is where this was started. He had attached to himself the chief of the regular police and the commanding officer of the Security Police, who were his technical advisers in a certain sense.

Q By what way would the police receive its instructions from the highest headquarters?

main office for the SD, to the SD chief sectors and SD sectors, and the only thing that the higher SS and police leader would have to do with those orders would be occasional but not consistent information copies only.

Q What was the authority of the commanding officer or inspector of the police in the area of a higher SS and police leader?

A As the title itself indicates, the inspectors had the primary task of inspecting or officially supervising

(vonEberstein-Direct) 2053

[illegible] the order for the police to [illegible]

[illegible] from the police, from the [illegible] of the police [illegible] the ordinance police, regular police, [illegible] the ordinance police, [illegible] the police [illegible] the police [illegible] the police

Q And the commanding officer?

A With the regular police it was exactly the same and up to today and it is incomprehensible to me why they used the term "commanding officer" in the case of the regular police inside Germany. I would like to refer -- I don't know whether it is permissible -- to the affidavit of the General Von Bomhard, who is present in camp and who has described this very closely. He used to work in the main headquarters of the regular police for a long time.

Q Did the higher SS and Police leader have any authority or command over the commanding officer of the regular police, on one hand and the commanding officers of the security police on the other?

A We didn't have any authority of command. Regulations expressly stated that the Higher SS and Police leaders would have the authority to make suggestions only, to perform inspections and to quote Himmler, "It would depend entirely on the Higher S and Police leaders concerned what he could make of his position". In other words it was a question of temperament whether a man would stick to the regulations or whether he would take action on his own initiative.

Q Was he by that, authorized to issue orders which by themselves had been limited to the main office of the regular police or the Reichs main security office?

A In my opinion he was not.

Q What would have happened if he had issued such orders?

A He would have to figure that these orders would be rescinded from above.

Q Did you, as Higher S and Police leader, yourself issue any orders concerning the treatment of parachuted allied flyers?

CAPTAIN VANCE: I think this witness should be advised of his rights against self-incrimination before he answers that question. I believe it is the duty of the Court to afford him some protection. He is a prisoner of war. I am not making an objection, merely stating that I think it is the duty of the Court to do so.

PRESIDENT: You are advised that you do not have to answer any question that will tend to incriminate you.

THE WITNESS: Yes, sir.

PRESIDENT: Was there an objection to that last question?

THE WITNESS: I have already testified about this voluntarily.

MR. WACKER: I did not wish to register an objection but merely to mention just what the Prosecution has already mentioned.

A MR. RAU: I am just informed that there was a mistake in the translation by the interpreter. I asked the question "Did you receive any orders --" and it was translated "Did you issue any orders --".

QUESTIONS BY MR. RAU:

Q Did you receive any such orders? Do you want to talk about that?

A Yes. I received several orders, among them this so-called intervention order, if I may use this term here.

Q I think this concept is clear to our minds and there is no need to elaborate any further. Might I ask if the Court is of the same opinion?

Q PRESIDENT: Yes.

QUESTIONS BY MR. RAU:

Q What further orders did you receive?

A Concerning the treatment of Allied flyers only this order and it was received simultaneously from the Reichsfuehrer Himmler, from the chief of the regular police as well as, if I am not mistaken, the Reichs Main Security Office. I might admit, however, here that the orders coming out from the Reichs Main Security Office did not confine itself merely to the treatment of parachuted Allied flyers but also discussed, among other things, the treatment of parachutists who had come down in civilian clothes and the treatment of such parachuted flyers who would still offer resistance with a weapon after coming down. This order was signed by Dr. Kaltenbrunner and this order came down to the office of the Higher SS and Police Leader but only in the form of information copies. In the German Civil Service System that means that no action was to be taken on them and action was only to be taken by the office to which the order was directly issued. Later on another regulation came down from the Chief of the Main Party Office, Bormann, and this regulation from the Party Chancellery stated that any person which might use physical force against parachuted flyers should not be subjected to prosecution.

Q Have you now described everything, all the orders?

A These are all the orders which came to our knowledge.

Q Did you ever find out whether the commanding officers or commanding officers of the regular police on the one hand and the security police on the other hand did receive any further orders?

A No. I never found out about any such orders. I am thoroughly convinced that neither one of these two gentlemen did receive any such orders at any time because with the good personal feeling that existed between men— between me and them I am sure they would have informed me if they had received such orders.

Q Did your office — did you yourself make any observations as to what the effect of the air warfare was on the population?

CAPTAIN VANCE: I am going to object to that. That is something that happened down in the Munich area and we are getting far away from Wehrkreis 12.

PRESIDENT: Objection sustained.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Dr. Aschner will cross examine this witness on behalf of the accused Hallenbreich, Girke, Stattmann and so on.

QUESTIONS BY DR. ASCHNER:

Q General, you just mentioned an order from the Reichs Main Security Office which you received an information copy of and which arrived together with the so called non-interference order and you said that this order discussed parachuted flyers who were not armed with a weapon in their hands, what did this order state was to be done with such parachuted flyers?

A I think, sir, you made a mistake here. I did not say "Found with a weapon in their hands" but rather, "Persons who were found resisting after parachuting with a weapon" that is something else again.

Q All right. What was supposed to happen to these persons?

A As far as I remember they were supposed to be bumped off.

Q Did this order pertain to parachuted enemy flyers?

A Well, I do think it did.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I would like to take exception, may it please the Court, to the translation of every German word that means "kill" as "bumped off". I would like the Court to ask the interpreter whether the word used by the witness meant "killed" or "bumped off"?

INTERPRETER ROSENSTOCK: It meant "bumped off", sir.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Is there any other translation more consistent with idomatic English and is a fair translation of the language used?

INTERPRETER ROSENSTOCK: None that I know of, sir.

LAW MEMBER: What was the German word used?

INTERPRETER ROSENSTOCK: "Niedergemacht".

LAW MEMBER: What is the German word for kill?

INTERPRETER ROSENSTOCK: "Getotet".

DEFENSE COUNSEL: What does "Erledigt" mean?

LAW MEMBER: What does the term "bumped off" mean as used in the German language?

INTERPRETER ROSENSTOCK: It means killed, except that it seems to be a slang expression, sir.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: The witness is on the stand. May I ask that he be asked to explain?

PRESIDENT: What word did he use?

INTERPRETER ROSENSTOCK: The witness used "Niedergemacht".

PRESIDENT: Will you ask him to explain what that means?

THE WITNESS: Yes. I wanted to say just now that this word, just happened to be the word I was thinking of at the moment because I did not remember the wording of the order. What I meant was "killed".

CAPTAIN VANCE: May it please the Court, the witness himself says that he used the terminology that was translated here in this record. Of course, he can change his mind after hearing the speeches by Defense counsel. We think it ought to stay in the record as it is.

PRESIDENT: The whole conversation will stay in the record. Proceed.

QUESTIONS BY DR. AHLMER:

Q General, do you mean the same thing by "Niedergemacht" as by "Ungelegt"?

A "Ungelegt" is not really a nice word and I do not think it was used in the decree. If I may ask, I think the Defense has a copy of this order and they might submit it here.

Q General, is it not common usage of the word "Niedergemacht" to refer to something that is done in a legal manner and in an open manner and "Ungelegt" means something that is done in a back way?

A I might define it in the following way perhaps: By "Niedergemacht" I understand as a perfectly legal combat action between soldiers and by "Ungelegt" I mean an illegal act.

Q When was this order that you were just talking about issued? Do you remember?

A As far as I remember all these orders came down in the winter half of the years 1943-44.

Q You also mentioned a decree of Bormann's to the effect that certain persons were to be exempt from prosecution -- were not to be prosecuted. Was Bormann a member of the Reichsleitung?

A Well, in the first place, in my opinion he was.

DR. AHLMER: Nothing further.

THE WITNESS: (continuing) and that was fixed by the Reichs legal bulletin also and these publications of the Chief of the Party Chancellery were published just like laws were and transmitted to the proper offices.

Q All right, did you get any little while are that the carrying The regulations of Seraana, for all practical purposes, knocked the weapon out of the duties of SS and Police Leader depended to a great extent out of the hands of the police.

upon the character and record of the man holding the job?

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Dr. Buerger will cross examine for Major Best.

Yes. Yes that is what I said and that was Himmler's opinion.

QUESTIONS BY DR. BUERGER:

Q If a Higher SS and Police Leader takes upon a man and attaches

General, I draw your attention to this big chart on the wall, Defense Exhibit 2 and ask you whether, from your position you are able to the [illegible] and this person reports himself to a late certain [illegible] regulations and would pursue him to discern a square with the lettering "Higher SS and Police Leader, General Streop" in it?

May I will be permitted to explain. If a man was a member of the Allgemeine SS, I as Higher SS and Police Leader was permitted to punish him personally. If the man concerned was a man or officer of the re-

A Yes.

Q Are you able to discern several small squares or boxes around that police and then his disciplinary superior of the regular police would have large box with the lettering "Adjutant", "Verwalt" and "Nachrichtenfuehrer" disciplinary powers over him and if a man was a member of the disciplinary etc. in it?

police the one in turn who was his superior in the disciplinary police would have the power to do it.

A Yes.

Q These smaller boxes represent the staff of the Higher SS and would the Higher SS and Police Leader in his capacity as Chief Police Leader?

of the Chief Sector of the Allgemeine SS issue orders to any members of the

A Yes. I did not have such a staff.

allgemeine SS in his command?

Q You said before that that the only persons disciplinarily under the control of the Higher SS and Police Leader was the Chief of Staff. If such a staff as we have here were actually formed under whose disciplinary authority would the chiefs of these offices come?

He did have power of command over the members of the Allgemeine SS.

A To my knowledge of this matter, the Higher SS and Police Leader as Chief of the SS Chief Sector had the power of command over these men as members of the Allgemeine SS.

Q If such Higher SS and Police Leader did form such a staff for himself under whose disciplinary authority would these men be?

A In my opinion you can get authority only according to existing regulations and I can't be assuming for myself disciplinary powers over astaff which I from — formed for myself out of persons which are not under my disciplinary power.

Q All right, did you not say alittle while ago that the carrying out of the duties of SS and Police Leader depended to a great extent upon the character and energy of the man holding the job?

A Yes, Yes that is what I said and that was Himmler's opinion.

Q If a Higher SS and Police Leader takes such a man and attaches him to the staff and this person permits himself to violate certain minor regulations who would punish him?

A Maybe I will be permitted to explain. If a man was a member of the Allgemeine SS, I as Higher SS and Police Leader was permitted to punish him personally. If the man concerned was a man or officer of the regular police and then his disciplinary superior of the regular police would have disciplinary powers over him and if a man was a member of the disciplinary police the one in turn who was his superior in the disciplinary police would have the power to do so.

Q Could the Higher SS and Police Leader in his capacity as Chief of the Chief Sector of the Allgemeine SS issue orders to any members of the Allgemeine SS in his command?

A He did have power of command over the members of the Allgemeine SS.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: You may cross examine.

CROSS EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q General, when you were the higher SS and police leader of Wehrkreis 7, where were your headquarters located?

A In Munich.

Q When did you say you were relieved from your command?

A April 20, 1945.

Q Now you said on the 20th of June 1944 you received an order to arrest some colonel, but I didn't understand from whom you got that order. Will you tell me, please?

A That was Colonel Grosser, the G-3 of the deputy command of court area Number 7.

Q What I mean is who gave you the order to arrest him.

A The Reich defense commissioner Colonel Giesler.

Q You refused to obey this order?

A Yes.

Q Now, I believe you were told to use your influence to have the prisoners confined at Camp Dachau shot, is that correct?

A Yes.

Q Did you refuse to obey that order?

A Yes.

Q About when did you receive that order?

A The beginning of March, the first days of March 1945.

Q Did you consider that an illegal order — to execute these prisoners in Dachau?

A Certainly.

Q And for that reason you refused to carry it out, is that correct?

A Yes.

Q Now, I believe you said you had another run-in, a dispute with the gauleiter about the camp of Buchau. When did that happen?

A About the 12th of April, no, it must have been a little before that, beginning of April. I can't give you an exact date any more, I am sorry.

Q That was in 1945 shortly before the war ended?

A Yes.

Q And I believe you said on that occasion you did not follow the gauleiter's instructions, is that correct?

A Yes.

Q As a result of having failed to obey these various orders of the gauleiter you were relieved from duty?

A Yes, the telegram of Himmler's to that effect is in the hands of the American investigators.

Q And you received no punishment other than being disciplined for your failure to obey these orders, is that correct?

A Well, I was lucky since it was all over eight or ten days later.

Q Well, the war wasn't over on the 20th of June 1944, was it?

A No.

Q That was the year before the war ended.

A Yes, three-quarters of a year.

Q Now, you have described the duties of a higher SS and police leader. I want to know if you were describing your duties or is that a general picture for all higher SS and police leaders.

A In general, and a whole string of changes came in later on. I would again like to refer to the statement of General Berndorff who worked in the main office of the general police at one time.

Q General, I want to ask you some questions about this position of higher SS and police fuehrer, and if you will, keep in mind I am talking about the latter part of the year 1944 and the early part of the year 1945.

A All right.

Q Now, the main job of the higher SS and police fuehrer was to run the police system in his wehrkreis, is that right?

A The forces of the regular police were run by the commanding officer of the regular police. That is the only place where you can talk about running it because there was an outfit there to run and the smaller individual units of the security police would receive their orders from the offices pertaining to them located in the Reich main security office; however, I probably should add here that in cases where conditions of combat arose, special orders from the army command or perhaps special orders from Himmler might have been issued. As to my area, it was in a condition of complete peace and quiet until the very last few weeks.

Q Now, what about the 12th Wehrkreis. Was it a front line area?

A Yes, I do think so, but I can't say now, without having any papers, it became a front line area, but you could assume it did become that.

Q All right, now you said that orders that came from the head of the order police came down from the head of the order police to that certain Wehrkreis, is that correct?

A From the main office of the regular police it went down to the commanding officer of the regular police of that Wehrkreis.

Q And the higher SS and police officer got a copy?

A Yes.

Q Now, why did he get a copy?

A He would know what would be going on in his area.

Q Why would he be interested, if he wasn't running it?

A He would have to be interested in it for the reason that he was legally bound to inform the state government or Reich defense commissioner of what was going on in the police sector of that area.

Q Was it his duty to check up and see what was going on?

A According to the letter of the law it was not his duty. The law stated that he was authorized to do so, and as a man conscious of his duty, he would do that.

Q So, unless he got a copy of all the orders, he wouldn't know whether the police were carrying them out, would he?

A No, he couldn't have known.

Q Now, let's go over to the other side -- the security police.

WITNESS VON EBERSTEIN: I beg your pardon, might I say something?

CAPTAIN VANCE: Answer my question. When I get through I will let you say anything you want to.

WITNESS VON EBERSTEIN: I beg your pardon.

Q Now, orders came down to the security police from Kaltenbrunner, down to the chief of the security police in a certain Wehrkreis. Did they come direct?

A Well, as I have said before, they would go from the office Number 3 to the SD chief sector, from office 4 to the state police sector, from office 5 to the criminal police, and information copies to the higher SS and police leaders and inspector of security police. I might say that in the zone of interior, there was no such thing as commanding officers of security police, but rather inspectors. I ask for permission to tell the prosecuter one more thing.

Q General, will you please answer my question. If you please, did they come down direct?

A Directly from the office to the head pertaining thereto.

Q All right, now why does the higher SS and police fuehrer get informational copies of those orders?

A For the same reason, because it was his job to keep the superior state governmental offices informed.

Q Informed about what the security police were doing, that is correct, isn't it?

A Yes.

Q Now, you have stated that the higher SS and police leader doesn't have any powers of command, is that correct?

A Yes.

Q Now, if a subordinate refused to obey orders and the higher SS and police leader didn't like it, what would he do about it?

A If this man had been a member of the regular police, he would have gone to the commanding officer of the regular police and told him this man refused to obey and had charges preferred against him. If a man was a member of the security police, he would do the same thing, going to the inspector.

Q I believe you said if a man was a member of the SS he would go before one of these SS courts in the district, is that right?

A Well, the procedure would be as follows: The particular superior officer of the regular police or security police would give a statement of facts of the case and that file would be forwarded to the SS and police court.

Q Well, now the SS and police fuehrer has appointing authority and reviewing authority to these courts. He would first determine whether that case would go to trial, would he not?

A Yes, the chief justice would investigate the matter and report the result of his investigation to the higher SS and police leaders and they would subsequently be brought to trial, if it was a case of a serious nature, serious enough to warrant trial, or else if it was not, it would be transmitted to the disciplinary superior of the command for disciplinary sentence.

Q General, how long do you know General Stroop?

A I have seen General Stroop twice in my life; the first time when he was removing himself into my area as American troops were advancing he saw me and told me something at that time and I saw him one other time later on a few days before the collapse in the SS OCS in Bad Tols.

Q Now, I believe you stated in substance that the higher SS and police fuehrer had no power of command, he was more of an inspector, is that correct?

A Yes.

Q And it is his duty to inspect and see that the order police and security police were functioning and carrying out orders, is that correct?

A Yes.

Q And if they are not following orders, then he sees they do follow them, is that right?

A Yes, he would have had to turn to the proper superior high head in Berlin and report that.

Q Now, I believe you stated, General, that the man himself by his own temperamentwould govern the position of the higher SS and police leaders, is that correct?

A Yes, in fact one time I myself had a conversation with Himmler, approached him in 1938 sometime on account of the fact that the regulations which had come out were so scanty and in places almost contradictory, and asked him if he could not issue or have issued through Reich minister of interior a more closely defined explanation of higher SS and police leaders and he became quite annoyed, called me a Bummmerat and said the position of higher SS and police leaders would become whatever the incumbents will make it.

Q General, you described the orders which you had received while holding the position of higher SS and police leader. Did you pass those orders to your subordinates or use your influence to have them enforced? Now, you don't have to answer that question because the answer might tend to incriminate you.

A I am willing to answer it. The only order which I was required to pass on to my subordinates or any subordinates was the only order issued to me by Himmler directly. That was the so-called "non-interference" order. All other ones as I have already explained I received only information copies of either from the Reich main security office or main office of regular police and there was no action I was supposed to take on account of them, and this order issued to me had a note on it that it was to be transmitted verbally only. I considered the substance of this note questionable because the scope of this order might be exceeded if it was given verbally, so showed copies of this order I received to the commanding officer of the order police and inspector of security police in Bad Wiessee. We agreed at that meeting that there was no need for any action and the Major General Mahr who was the commanding officer of the regular police in my district informed me because of an officers' meeting, he considered himself bound by the Geneva Convention. The order after this meeting, this publication or paper containing the order, was laid away in the office and nothing else was done. As to what the inspector of security police did, I don't know, but he was an elderly experienced professional civil servant and I feel sure he did not exceed the scope of the order in any way.

Q Now, one more question. General, was it part of the function of higher SS and police leaders to know of concentration camps in his Wehrkreis in which SS men were acting as guards?

A Yes, however I want to correct the statement. That is, SS men standing guard in the concentration camps were not the men of higher SS and police leaders. That was a special outfit under the direct command of the inspector general of concentration camps in Berlin, Oranienburg.

Q But it was the duty of the higher SS and police leaders to know about these camps, was it not?

A Yes, it was inevitable that the higher SS and police leaders would know whether one or more concentration camps were located in his area, for this aggregation of prisoners was a factor which very materially influenced the position of the state.

PRESIDENT: Court will recess until 1:30.

ADJOURNED

(Whereupon the court recessed at 1200 hours.)

AFTERNOON SESSION

(Whereupon the court reconvened at 1330.)

PRESIDENT: The court will come to order.

PROSECUTION: May it please the court, let the record show that all the members of the court, all the members of the prosecution, all of the members of the defense, all of the accused, interpreter and reporter are present.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: The witness Eberstein was on the stand subject to cross examination at the close of the last session.

PRESIDENT: You are reminded you are still under oath.

FRIEDRICH KARL von EBERSTEIN, called as a witness by the defense, being reminded that he was still under oath, testified further through an interpreter as follows:

CROSS EXAMINATION, continued

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q General when I started to examine you you said you wanted to explain something and I told you if you would answer my questions you could explain it. Do you want to explain that now?

A Yes.

Q Proceed.

A I intended to add only—I think this is necessary to complete the picture. The question was in regard to orders which the order police received. If the orders would have come in writing the High SS and Police Leader would have known about them but if the orders were given orally the High SS and Police Leader would not know about them. Here I wanted to add only that, of course, the commander of the Order Police had the obligation to inform the Higher SS and Police Leader also orally.

Q Now General I want to ask you a question. I think I will phrase it in such a way that you can answer this question yes or no. I want to ask you (von Eberstein-cross)

if the Security Police, of which the Gestapo is a part, was ever, in its entirety, taken into the German Wehrmacht of Germany.

A Not in the sense of the interior.

CAPTAIN VANCE: Nothing further.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I would like to cross examine on behalf of all of the accused except Streop.

REDIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONED BY DEFENSE COUNSEL:

Q I call your attention to the Defense Exhibit Number two which is this entire sign up here (Indicating) and particularly to the section of the exhibit under Reichssicherheitshauptamt, and to the square marked Inspector of the SIPO and the SD. Under cross examination this morning you were asked what lines or what channels of command orders issued from up top followed throughout the Security Police and the SD. Will you describe again the channels of command from the Reichssicherheitshauptamt to all the lower echelons of command with reference to Defense Exhibit Number two?

A Yes. Can I show this with a stick?

Q Yes.

A I am not informed about department one and two. From department three the channel of command went straight to the SD, Frankfurt-Main and by the same directly to the SD in Coblenz and furthermore directly to the SD at Darmstadt.

Q Now about Amt number four?

A The department number four, Secret State Police, directly and immediately to STAPO office at Frankfurt, directly to the state police office at Coblenz and directly to the STAPO headquarters at Darmstadt. Information was given in part to the Higher SS and Police Leader and also to the inspector of the Security Police.

Q Now about Amt number five-kripo?

(von Eberstein-cross)

A Exactly the same from department number five directly to kripo headquarters at Frankfurt, from department number five to criminal headquarters at Koblenz and also from department five directly to criminal headquarters at Darmstadt.

Q How about department number six?

A As far as I can recall, department six had a connection only starting in 1943 and as far as my area is concerned, this connection went to the SD in my area. In my area I had an SD chief sector but I can't see anything like this on this map here.

Q In your area did you have a commando Meldegebiet?

A Yes, this was in the personnel unit under the supervision of the man in charge of the SD chief sector.

Q All right, thank you. According to the rules or the law or the regulation, what authority did a gauleiter have to give orders to the higher SS and police leader?

A The authority was given in a decree of the Reich government published in the Reich legal bulletin. As far as I can remember, it was published in the Reich legal bulletin on the 16th of November 1942 and I think it was repeated once more later on. According to the meaning, it was said there the Reich commissioner for the defense makes use of the higher SS and police leader for all police actions.

Q That authority that the gauleiter had to give orders was based on his position as Reichsverteidigungs Kommissar, was it not?

A Yes.

Q And that authority was restricted to matters of a police nature, is that correct?

A No, in this decree it was said first of all in the one of the 16th of November, 1942 that the Reich commissioner for the defense, in all questions of national defense, was a deciding factor. In view of the total war which existed at that time this really meant everything.

Q This order which you say you got from the gauleiter in July 1944, whose order was that?

A Pardon me, which order are you referring to?

Q The order you got in July 1944 to arrest some certain colonel.

A This was an order which the Reich commissioner for the defense, gauleiter Giesler, had given, as far as I can see, out of his own initiative. He requested me to arrest this officer at army headquarters with the reasoning that he was an enemy of the Party.

Q At any rate, that was the order which originated with the Reichsverteidigungs Kommissar himself, and not from the government of the Deutschen Reich, is that correct?

A I can't determine whether he had any instructions from the headquarters of the fuehrer to arrest certain persons.

A At any rate, you said just a moment ago that so far as you know, this order originated with the gauleiter himself.

A Yes, that was my impression.

Q Was that an order for you to arrest him or was that a request that he be arrested?

A No, it was an order. He called for me and he told me, "I request you now to drive over to army headquarters and to arrest Colonel Gresser.

Q Was this colonel in the service of the German army on regular active duty?

A Yes, he was an active colonel of the mountain troops and attached to the general staff 3-3-A.

(vonEberstein-Redirect)

Q He wanted you to arrest him solely because he did not like his political views, is that correct?

A Yes, he got the order to arrest him and to bring him before the Reich commissioner for the defense.

Q The duties of the Reichsverteidigungs Kommissar had to do with the internal defense of his area, is that correct?

A Yes, of his area, and furthermore, the entire defense organization. He had to see that the armament factories were kept going.

Q Is it not true that it was the duty of the Gestapo to supervise the political attitude of the German nationals, or perhaps the SS?

A The security service in the zone of interior was only an organization for communications. The secret state police was the political effective arm.

Q Let me put it another way. What authority did you have to arrest an army officer on active duty?

A None.

Q So that you could not have carried out the order if you wanted to, could you?

A Only in this case, that the Reichsfuehrer SS especially would have ordered me, or an order of Hitler.

Q In other words, if Himmler had said to you, "Arrest that man," you would have done it, would you not?

A No, I would have said to Himmler too, "I would like to bring to your attention the impossible consequences of such an action and furthermore, I would like to tell you as to my knowledge, this man is politically unreliable." It was impossible to talk to the reich commissioner for the defense about things like that.

(von Oberstein-Redirect)

Q Suppose you had said all these things to Himmler and Himmler said, "Yes, that's all right, arrest him just the same," what would you have done?

CAPTAIN VANCE: We object. He is arguing with the witness.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I pray the court's judgment.

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

QUESTIONS BY DEFENSE COUNSEL:

Q What would you have done?

PRESIDENT: Tell the witness that an answer, "I don't know" is satisfactory.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I pray the court's judgment.

CAPTAIN VANCE: If it please the court, he is asking for speculations. He was never put in a position where he would know what he would have done.

THE WITNESS: Right now I don't know.

QUESTIONS BY DEFENSE COUNSEL:

Q What would you have done if you had got the order during the war?

CAPTAIN VANCE: Same objection, if it please the court.

PRESIDENT: Objection sustained.

QUESTIONS BY DEFENSE COUNSEL:

Q Well, on the basis of your knowledge of conditions in Germany, what would you say or what in your opinion would have happened to you if you had received some such a direct order from Himmler and had refused to obey?

CAPTAIN VANCE: Same objection, if it please the court. This witness has already testified that he defied many orders and nothing ever happened to him.

PRESIDENT: Objection sustained.

(von Oberstein-Redirect)

him, "I don't know. I have to ask the Commander of the concentration camp Dachau about the orders he had. He said to me, "I don't care about that.' The prisoners have to disappear. They have to be killed." Then I told him that was an insane idea. So he said in reply, "If these prisoners will not be shot there I will see to it that the camp will be destroyed through our own airforce."

(vonEberstein-Redirect)

QUESTIONS BY GENERAL GYNNEL:

Q At any rate, you could not have carried out this order to arrest the colonel anyway, because he was an army officer, is that correct?

A No, I couldn't.

Q Could you do the second order you got, to use your influence to have all the people in the Dachau concentration camp shot, who ordered that?

A It was like this: The Polish Commissioner called me and asked me, "What is going to be done with the prisoners at Dachau?" At that time we had approximately 25,000 prisoners here. "What is going to be done with the prisoners when the American troops arrive?" I answered that we would do away with them.

Q My question was whose order was it?

A Of the Reich commissioner for the defense.

Q Was that an order which originated in his mind, as you say the order in July originated with him?

CAPTAIN VANCE: We object to what originated in this man's mind. This witness is not a mind reader, and he cannot tell what is in that man's mind.

Q I was only quoting his own language, I think. Instead of saying "in his own mind", which originated with Giesler. Did this order with respect to shooting the inmates of the concentration camp at Dachau originate with Giesler himself, just as did the order of July to arrest this colonel?

A He himself told me. That is all I know.

Q Would you say that an order to shoot 25,000 prisoners of a concentration camp came within the authority of the Reichsverteidigungs Kommissar to defend his area?

CAPTAIN VANCE: We object, if it please the court. The witness has already stated that he did not know anything except what this man told him.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: He has testified to the authority of the Reichsverteidigungs Kommissar.

CAPTAIN VANCE: It is speculative.

PRESIDENT: Objection sustained.

QUESTIONS BY DEFENSE COUNSEL:

Q This third order which you say you disobeyed: I was not quite sure of just what it was, but you mentioned three, and I am talking about the third. Was that an order which the Reichsverteidigungs Kommissar issued on the strength of his own authority the same as order number 1 and order number 2?

A Yes. It was the principal attitude of Bormann and the headquarters of the Fuehrer to put up a defense everywhere.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Dr. Aheimer has a question.

DR. AHEIMER: Cross examination for Girke and Hellenbroich.

QUESTIONS BY DR. AHEIMER:

Q General, you were asked before whether the security police, of which the secret state police was a part, was taken over into the Wehrmacht in its entirety. In 1945 were members of the security police in your area members of the Waffen SS?

A It is possible that some man who had no job assignment anymore, since the armies of the enemy had invaded their territory, volunteered for the Waffen SS.

Q Is it not a fact, General, that at least in 1945 the members of the security police had paybooks of the Waffen SS?

A It might be. I can't take it on my oath. I don't know.

Q That means you are not informed in detail about these events?

A I have to bring to your attention once more that it is possible that it had been arranged this way in areas close to the front.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: We have nothing further. Any questions by the court?

PRESIDENT: No questions by the court. The witness is excused.

(Whereupon the witness was excused and withdrew.)

DEFENSE COUNSEL: The next witness will be General Wunnenberg. The witness will be examined by Dr. Rau.

ALFRED WUNNENBERG, called as a witness by the defense, being first duly sworn, testified through an interpreter as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY DR. RAU:

Q What is your name?

A Alfred Wunnenberg.

Q How old are you?

A Fifty-five years.

Q Are you a prisoner at the present time?

A Civilian internee.

Q Where?

A Here at the bunker.

Q What was your last rank?

A General of the Police and of the Waffen SS, and Lieutenant General of the SS.

Q What was your last duty position?

A Chief of the Order Police.

Q Since when?

A Since the 31st of August, 1943.

Q How many men were under your command this way?

A Approximately three and a half million men.

Q Can you break this figure up in detail?

A Part of the Order Police were the protective police, the rural police, the local community police, the water protection police, the fire protection police, the administrative police. Furthermore, the entire air raid protection, the technical emergency organizations, the voluntary fire brigades, and the city and rural guards.

PRESIDENT: I would like to warn the witness at this time that he does not have to answer any question that will tend to incriminate him.

QUESTIONS BY DR. RAU:

Q What were the duties of the main office, Order Police?

A The main office, Order Police, had the duty to organize the Order Police, and in accordance with orders of the chief of the German police to establish units, respectively, to reorganize them. Furthermore, as police it had the job of general order and security.

Q How was the borderline towards the security police?

A Since the order police had its clear limitations through the fact that its job was order and security on the streets, the security police had mainly the criminal police, the secret state police, and the security service under their supervision. That means mainly political police.

Q What were the relations between order police and security police?

A When I started on my assignment there was, of course, a liaison officer to the security police in the person of the government councilor of the criminal police, but since he worked mainly on personal matters for my predecessor I relieved him and put him again at the disposal of the security police. Otherwise, connections existed only between Kaltenbrunner and myself, which were very light connections and mostly of a comrade nature.

Q Was there any relationship of orders between you two?

A No. It was only the usual help which has to be given from one police headquarters to another, but this same help from one office to another was given also to all other government agencies.

Q Please explain in short the channel of command in the order police.

A The orders came from the main office, order police, or from the chief of the German police, Reichsfuehrer SS, respectively. The rule was from main office, order police, of course. The letterhead of the orders said "The Chief of the Order Police." From there the orders went to the commander of the order police, and from him to the government presidents, where the commander of the rural police and the staff officer of the protective police were located. The staff officer of the protective police was the representative of the government police organizations.

Q Please show this in short on the chart. I am referring to the Defense Exhibit 2.

(Whereupon the witness left the witness stand and assumed a position near Defense Exhibit 2.)

A Main office, order police (indicating); commander of the order police (indicating); from the commander of the order police to the government president, staff officer of the protective police (indicating); commander of the rural police. From there, from the staff officer of the protective police, channels of command went to the state police organizations, and on top of the state police organization was the police president or police director. There the protective police of the state was on duty. Then, furthermore, the channel of command to the cities. These were cities which had only a small number of inhabitants, or at least only a mediocre number of inhabitants, up to 100,000. Here the local community police was on duty (indicating), which was under the chief mayor of the town. From the commander of the rural police the channel of command went to the Landrats, the chief magistrate of the county. Here, at the same time, were the county leaders of the rural police, and he passed down the orders to the individual posts of the rural police.

Q Did the offices under the supervision of the main office, order police, also receive orders from other government agencies?

A Not in the rule, but these were exceptions, and then they were only instructions.

Q From whom did these instructions come?

A They could come only from the ministries, from the secretary of state of the interior.

Q Could they also come from the Reichsstatthalter?

A Hardly to the chief of the order police; but, on the other hand, the Reichsstatthalter could give orders to the commander of the order police and the commander of the security police.

Q Please also show this channel of command, based on Defense Exhibit 2.

A I didn't understand your last question.

Q Based on this chart.

A Reichsstatthalter to the commander of the order police, and at the same time to the government presidents, and from there on down the regular channel of command.

(Thereupon the witness resumed the witness stand.)

Q What connections existed between the main office, order police, and the Higher SS and Police Leader?

A First, the Higher SS and Police Leaders were directly under the Reichsfuehrer SS. The chief of the order police had no authority of command over the Higher SS and Police Leader. It would have been possible--and during my term of duty it happened once or twice--that I signed as deputy for the Reichsfuehrer SS, and this order was sent to the Higher SS and Police Leaders as instructions.

Q Did the Higher SS and Police Leader have authority of command either in part or in toto over the forces under the command of the main office, order police?

A Not in the first years after the position of the Higher SS and Police Leader had been established. But later on when they became full generals of the police and lieutenant generals of the police, without any doubt they had authority of command over the order police.

Q Were these authorities limited in any way according to the matters concerned?

A Of course they could extend only as to technical questions, but otherwise, in spite of my proposals made to the Reichsfuehrer SS, no definite limitations were worked out as far as the authority of command of the Higher SS and Police Leaders was concerned. He intended to solve this question only after the war.

Q All important orders were taken care of by the Main Office of the Order Police or by the Higher SS and Police Leader?

A The fundamental orders, of course, were given by the Chief of the Main Office of the Order Police. Of course, the Chief of the Order Police could not take into consideration the local conditions.

Q Which orders now did the Main Office of the Order Police receive in regard to the treatment of parachuted enemy flyers?

A I, myself, know only of one order. I don't know when it was issued--that parachuted enemy flyers had to be handed over to the Air Force; and then, before I entered my office, another order had been issued by the Reichsfuehrer SS, the so-called "non-interference" order.

Q Did this order come to the Main Office of the Order Police?

A I saw this order for the first time in the documents in Nuernberg. It was a photostatic copy. It was not clear from this order which had been given to the Higher SS and Police Leaders for information, had been sent also to the Chief of the Order Police and the Chief of the Security Police, but it's probable.

Q Did the Main Office of the Order Police always stick to this channel of command or did it happen that orders were given to lower headquarters directly?

A I don't understand this question.

Q Did the Main Office of the Order Police always stick to this channel of command or did it happen that the Main Office of the Order Police, by avoiding other Headquarters, transmitted orders directly to lower Headquarters and officers?

A It was a principle of the Main Office to stick to the channel of command which I outlined before.

Q Is it now so that through this channel of command the Higher SS and Police Leaders were standing aside?

A It was the duty of the Commanders of the Order Police to inform the Higher SS and Police Leaders that there were orders which we passed on to the Higher SS and Police Leader, Commander of the Order Police that came—that the Higher SS and Police Leader received already the information from this order and then transmitted it to the Commander of the Order Police.

Q Were there any rules for this method?

A No, it depended on whether this order would be of interest to the Higher SS and Police Leader or not.

Q Was the so-called order of the Fuehrer about keeping orders a secret an important rule or not?

A I can't say as a rule that all secret orders were passed on to the Commander of the Order Police.

Q So that the Higher SS and Police Leader would hear of these orders only through the Commander of the Order Police?

A Yes.

DR. RAU: Thank you.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I would like to ask one or two questions. This is redirect examination.

(Wunnenberg-direct)

QUESTIONS BY THE DEFENSE COUNSEL:

Q Was there any channel of command between the Inspector of the Security Police over here and the HDO over here (indicating)?

A There was no channel of command, but I guess that important matters these two gentlemen informed each other.

Q Could either the Inspector or the Befehlshaber give each other orders?

A No, with the exception of the so-called help from office to office, and help which had to be given without question.

Q That help that you are talking about was that based on orders, or was that the courtesy of one service to another?

A That was a law, a very old law.

Q Then orders which came down from your office through here (indicating) necessarily go over to the Inspector?

A To the Security Police from us, no.

Q And did orders which were issued from the Security Police Headquarters for the Security Police go over to the Order Police?

A No, only in individual cases, if and when they would be of special importance for the Order Police--then, as information, they came to the Commander of the Order Police.

Q One other question, please. If an order was issued by the Reichssicherheitshauptamt to the Security Police and was of interest to the Order Police, from what office would the information copy to the Order Police go?

A First, to the Chief of the Command Office,

(Nunnenberg-direct)

first to the filing department, and then to the Chief of the Command Section.

Q I think that I perhaps wasn't clear. If Kaltenbrunner issued an order to the Security Police and that order was of interest to the Order Police, from which office of the Security Police would the information copies be sent from to reach the Order Police?

A From which department of the Reichs Security Main Office the copy would have come? That was depending on the question from which department this order was issued.

Q Where would it go to?

A It would go for information to the Main Office of the Order Police to our filing department.

Q And if it had an interest to the Order Police in toto, who would pass the order down?

A That was depending upon the importance of this order, either the Chief of the Order Police himself or the Chief of the Command Department, or the Leader of the Office Department.

Q Whichever sent it went from and to whichever sent it went to, isn't it true that it would always come from the Headquarters of Kaltenbrunner to your Headquarters?

A Yes.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Dr. Buerger desires to cross examine the witness for Tyumler, Goss and Dest.

QUESTIONS BY DR. BUERGER:

Q General, you said before that the Higher SS and Police Leader in technical matters had authority of command in police matters in his district?

A Yes.

Q General, did the Higher SS or Police Leader, any Higher SS or Police Leader, or let's limit it to the Higher SS and Police Leader of Rhine-Westmark, 12th Wehrkreis, have authority in case of external or internal emergency to combine all police organizations in his area?

A As far as it is known to me, he received such authority directly from the Reichsfuehrer SS.

Q General, did you receive a report from the Commander of the Order Police in the 12th Wehrkreis about the fact that the Higher SS and Police Leader, General Streep, had combined the police forces in his area in such a manner?

A I can't say anything definite about this question any more. Once or twice such a similar defense plan was presented to the Chief of the Order Police, but I can't say anything more.

DR. BUERGER: Thank you.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: You may cross examine.

CAPTAIN VANCE: Are all Defense Counsels through questioning?

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I assume so.

CAPTAIN VANCE: No cross examination.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Any questions by the Court?

CAPTAIN VANCE: I would like to ask the Defense Counsel this--that under the agreement we have had, if you are through with this witness, are we at liberty to talk with him?

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Of course.

PRESIDENT: No questions by the Court. The witness is excused.

(Thereupon the witness was excused and withdrew.)

DEFENSE COUNSEL: The Defense recalls the witness [redacted] Schluess.

WITNESS SCHLUESS: I have been sworn already as a witness for the Defense, too.

PRESIDENT: You are reminded you are still under oath.

WITNESS SCHLUESS: Yes.

FRIEDRICH SCHLUESS, recalled as a witness by the Defense, resumed the stand and being reminded that he was still under oath, testified further through an interpreter as follows:

REDIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY DR. RAU:

Q What's your name?

A Friedrich Schluess.

Q Did you testify before in this trial?

A Yes.

Q What was your duty assignment as to General Stroop?

A I was leader of the Staff of the Allgemeine SS, and for all practical purposes I was in charge of the personnel office.

Q Please describe in short your main duties.

A For all practical purposes I was the personal expert of the General for all his duties as Higher SS and Police Leader, as Reichs Commissioner for the strengthening of the German nation, as the Leader of the main section, Rhine-Westmark, as a Higher Commander of the prisoners of war. Only for the SS and Police Court I had no particular duties.

Q Did you have anything to do with incoming and outgoing mail?

A The entire incoming mail went through my hands exclusively and, as far as it came over the teletype system and through cable it came through my hands exclusively. Correspondence, letter mail, was opened by me as long as it was addressed to the office of the Higher SS and Police Leader-- only as far as the name Jurgen Stroop was given on the envelope the mail was given to him personally.

Q Is it known to you whether any orders were addressed directly to the Higher SS and Police Leader?

A Every day there came three or four letters with the personal address of the Major General. These letters were put on the desk of the Major General either directly by me or through the Adjutant. The largest part of the letters were opened by our secretary in my presence. Part of the letters, I mean the largest part of the letters then were returned to me. Some of the letters the Major General put away in his personal file, but these were exceptions.

Q Do you know which type of letters he put in his personal file?

A There were among them letters of purely personal nature, but among them were also official letters which came either as secret matters or secret state matters.

Q Isn't it true that the letters which contained secret matters or secret state matters were registered?

A As far as these letters were addressed only to the Higher SS and Police Leader they were opened by me and then went through our filing department.

Q How do you know then that in this personal file were also matters of secret nature or secret state nature?

(Schluss-Redirect)

A Because I know definitely that certain letters which were sealed--they were sealed in the usual way on the four corners--were put on the Major General's desk and some of them were not returned to me.

Q But you don't know the contents of these sealed letters?

A No, the contents of these letters never became known to me.

Q For this reason you can't say whether the contents of these letters were secret matters or secret state matters?

A Otherwise, these letters wouldn't have come sealed.

Q How were these letters registered? Were they registered as of a certain value?

A It might have been letters which were insured for a value of over a thousand marks, or sometimes they were just registered letters with a receipt.

Q Was there a secret diary?

A Yes.

Q Who took care of the secret diary?

A We had two secret diaries, one for secret matters and one for secret state matters. The chief filing clerk for these two secret diaries was a Staff Sergeant of the Police Battalion.

Q How many orders were received in your office daily on an average?

A During my illness, my deputy commander once made a statistic, and there were approximately 160 to 170 letters.

Q In which time?

A Daily.

Q How many letters were sent out from your office daily?

A That varied a lot--that was depending on the question whether letters were sent to everybody or only to certain individuals.

Q Can you estimate as an average?

A Perhaps 30 to 40 letters.

Q Was General Stroop present at his office at his Headquarters during the entire week or was he absent part of the week?

A General Stroop was on official trips at least half the time of each week.

Q What happened then during this time with the incoming and outgoing mail?

A The Major General, in his capacity as Higher SS and Police Leader for all practical purposes had no other deputy commander but me, because as the Higher SS and Police Leader he was the personal representative of the Reichsfuehrer SS in his district, and for this reason naturally the commander of the Order Police nor the Commander of the Security Police in this capacity were his deputy commanders, but only me.

Q Excuse me, please, but I think you misunderstood my question. I asked you what happened with the incoming and outgoing mail during Stroop's absence.

A I had to explain this before because now I have to say that in General Stroop's absence I took care of matters all by myself as far as they were not of fundamental importance.

Q And what happened with matters of fundamental importance?

A As far as they were closed letters, they were left there until General Stroop returned. For other matters of fundamental importance which came through my hands, I had a special folder for each department in which I filed the letters of fundamental importance; and the moment the Major General returned, even if it was at one o'clock at night, he returned to his Headquarters, and these folders of fundamental importance were presented to him.

Q And what did you consider to be matters of fundamental importance?

A Of fundamental importance were orders which affected the future organisation and which made changes in present organisation and procedure.

Q Do you consider among such orders also orders which affect the treatment of allied fliers?

A Definitely.

Q Which orders of such nature were received at your office?

PRESIDENT: Is this a good time to break?

DR. RAU: Please answer this question.

WITNESS: I have testified already as a witness of the Prosecution that I know from the magazine "Das Reich" in which it said, nearly verbatim, that it is not the duty of the German Police and Wehrmacht to protect parachuted enemy fliers from the well founded fury of the German population. At the same time I admitted that I assume with a hundred per cent certainty that after the Party and the public had been informed in this matter that either from the Reichsfuehrer SS himself or from the Chief of the Order Police or from the Chief of the Security Police, in which an excerpt of this matter would come with a short last sentence--the subordinate headquarters have to be informed of this situation.

PRESIDENT: The Court will recess for 30 minutes.

(Thereupon at 1505 hours the Court recessed.)

End ta 279,
pld fols

(Whereupon the court reconvened at 1530 hours.)

PRESIDENT: The court will come to order.

PROSECUTION: May it please the court, let the record show, that all the personnel of the court, all the members of the prosecution, all the members of the defense all of the accused the reporter and interpreter are present.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: At the beginning of the last recess the witness Schluma was on the stand.

PRESIDENT: You are reminded that you are still under oath.

FRIEDRICH SCHLUMA, recalled as a witness by the defense, being reminded that he was still under oath, resumed the stand and testified further through an interpreter as follows:

REDIRECT EXAMINATION, continued

QUESTIONS BY DR. RAU:

Q Did you ever see an order to the effect that allied flyers who had landed in emergency were to be shot?

A No.

Q Did you ever have such an order leaving your mail?

A No. However, I did not have knowledge of all the mail that was leaving.

Q Were those letters worked on by other offices?

A It would be a secretary who would type the letters, go to the secret registry office, get the proper secret number, put on my desk sealed with a seal at the secret registry office, for further processing.

Q What was the relationship between General Stroop and the members of his staff?

A I would like to put it concisely in three sentences. He forced people to respect him through his unwavering action. He also forced us to respect him by his achievement and nobody loved him as a superior.

Q Now this last fact, was that not a cause for the members of the staff getting together more closely than usual?

(Schluma-direct)

A I would like to add one more thing before answering this question. Stroop could be the very best of hosts and the most friendly of comrades if the person concerned was an old member of the SS. Now could I have the question again?

Q Did this fact that he was not loved by his subordinates have anything to do with the fact that the subordinates came together rather closely?

A Well I was the lightning rod, more or less, for the anger of both the commanding officer and the members of the staff, but I considered it my job not to increase tension by gossiping either, but to decrease tension.

Q Was there ever any talk among the members of the staff to the effect that an order concerning the shooting of allied flyers had come down from higher headquarters?

A No such talk ever took place, not even when we were talking while drinking a glass of wine.

Q Did the staff members ever have any discussion concerning the fact that General Stroop was supposed to have issued an order to have allied flyers shot?

A No such thing was ever said.

Q What was your relationship to Major Best?

A I had the very best of comradely relations with Major Best.

Q How were you getting along with Lieutenant Gose?

A I didn't know him so well since he wasn't working in our office, but our relationship was on a very friendly basis.

Q Did Best ever tell you that he had received an order to have allied flyers shot from Stroop?

DR. BERGER: I object to this question. There is no evidence whatever in this case to the effect that Best had received an order from Stroop to shoot allied flyers.

DR. RAU: I will correct my question to have one allied flyer shot.

MAJOR SAXON: That is just as objectionable. There isn't any evidence here that he had any orders, if it pleases the court. I ask that that answer be stricken.

DR. RAU: I believe that Best has claimed here that he had received orders from Stroop which he later transmitted to Goss.

MAJOR SAXON: No, that isn't the situation here. Stroop is charged with having given Goss an order to shoot a flyer and Best was the message carrier of that order, but there is no order here that Best should shoot a flyer.

DR. RAU: I will correct this question one more time to read as follows:

QUESTIONS BY DR. RAU:

Q Did Best ever tell you that he had to transmit an order to the effect that an allied flyer was to be shot?

A No.

Q In view of these very best of relationships which you have stated existed between you and Best, would it otherwise have been unusual for him to tell you about the important things coming from Stroop to him?

MAJOR SAXON: I object to that, if it please the court.

PRESIDENT: Objection sustained

QUESTIONS BY DR. RAU:

Q Did you ever hear—

MAJOR SAXON: Now wait a minute. I would like the court to instruct this witness to give his answers after the interpretation. I don't know enough German to know what is going on here.

PRESIDENT: The witness will wait until translation is made before the answer is given.

MAJOR SAXON: Now let me know what the question was.

RAU (Schlumm-direct)

INTERPRETER: No, sir, I forgot it.

QUESTION BY DR. RAU:

Q Did Goss ever tell you that he received an order from General Stroop that he was to shoot an American Flyer?

MAJOR SAXON: I object to that. That is just purely asking for information that has no bearing on the fact that Stroop gave the orders to Goss.

DR. RAU: I have demonstrated here that relations between staff members were such, that in view, particularly of their dislike for Stroop, such matters would have been discussed among the staff members had they taken place.

MAJOR SAXON: That is highly speculative, but Goss was not a staff member here. It looks like merely a negative way to try to prove something by this manner that is merely prejudicial to the statements already made by Goss. They can probably go out and ask a hundred people if Goss said that because those people wouldn't know.

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

DR. RAU: Answer the question whether Goss ever told you that he had received an order from Stroop to shoot an american flyer or to have an American flyer shot?

THE WITNESS: Goss never told me that.

DR. RAU: That is all.

MAJOR SAXON: I would like to cross examine this witness on behalf of the accused Goss and Best.

QUESTION BY MAJOR SAXON:

Q Did you become well acquainted with Major Best while he was there at headquarters?

A Yes.

Q Were your relations, that is between yourself and Best of a close and friendly nature?

A Yes.

(Schlumm-redirect)

Q What would you say was the general reputation of Best for the honest performance of his duties?

A I learned to know and to respect Best as the most straightforward and honest person I ever knew.

Q Colonel Schluma if Best has testified here in this court that he received a message in the form of an order to e very an order to Goss directing Goss to execute an American flyer would you believe that Best was telling the truth?

DR. RAU: I object to this question. I don't think it is the job of the witness to decide who is to be believed and who is not.

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

A No, I don't know that.

THE WITNESS: Whether Best is saying the truth? Best does--I consider Best as absolutely honest and truthful.

QUESTIONS BY MAJOR CAXON:

Q In your position as chief of staff for General Stroop what were Best's duties.

A Best was the man who had to make reports concerning undertaking "R".

Q From whom did he get those reports?

A He presented those to the General personally.

Q From whom did he receive those reports?

A I don't get it. What reports?

Q The reports regarding the progress of the werewolf school at Wallrabenstein.

A He got those from his own observations since he went out there frequently. Goss made reports to him that the General went out there frequently.

Q Do you happen to know, Colonel Schluma, about Best and Goss meeting each other in a place called Unter den Eichen.

A Unter den Eichen was our auxiliary headquarters. Our regular headquarters was in Cellenstrasse. Out there in Unter den Eichen was mostly (Schluma-redirect)

Allegemeine SS.

PRESIDENT: What is Unter den Eichen?

INTERPRETER: Under the oaks.

QUESTIONS BY MAJOR WILSON:

Q Do you know whether or not Goss would meet Best under the oaks and there deliver the reports regarding the werewolf school at Wallrabenstein.

A I didn't find out about Wallrabenstein until very much later. In fact I didn't ever know they had moved from Wallrabenstein.

Q Do you know whether or not General Stroop appointed Lieutenant Goss as a sort of security commander in the Wallrabenstein area?

A No, I didn't know that at all.

Q Can you tell the court whether or not it was a general practice of General Stroop's to confer with officers from his outlying posts privately in his office without your assistance or anyone elses on various occasions?

A That happened very frequently.

Q Was it not also true that he conveyed instructions to these subordinates of his directly in those private conferences without taking you or any of the rest of the staff in on the conference?

A Yes, he did that too.

Q Do you recall the specific authority that General Stroop received directly from Heinrich Himmler sometime in September, 1944?

A Yes, General Stroop had some sort of a document to prove that.

Q Do you remember the substance of it?

A It was in such a general nature that he was completely and thoroughly the Heinrich Himmler in his area.

Q I will ask you to tell the court whether or not General Stroop was extremely proud of that authority.

A That is true. He kept showing it around frequently with great pride.

(Schluss-redirect)

Q Did he also show that arrest to fully intimidate his subordinates?

A I don't think that was necessary at all.

Q You mean they were duly intimidated anyway, is that correct?

A At any rate through his harshness he forced people to respect him as was his due.

Q What authority, if any, did he give Major Best about the [illegible] headquarters there?

A Best didn't have any authority at all in that case. General Stroop would give his orders to Best directly and Best was merely a man who carried out the orders. He had no power or authority of his own at all.

MAJOR CARON: Your witness.

RECROSS EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q - Colonel Schlume, I believe it is your testimony that you say that Major Best is a man with a good reputation and good character, is that correct?

A Yes.

Q I might ask you one question, Colonel, and I am going to try to put it to you very simply and I want you to answer yes or no. I am speaking of the entire security police system -- was it in its entirety ever taken in as a part of the German Wehrmacht?

A No.

Q I will ask you the same question with reference to the Order Police?

A That was not anymore a part of the armed forces as the security police.

CAPTAIN VANCE: Nothing further.

MR. RACHAEL: I would like to cross examine on behalf of Girke, Hellenbreich, Stattmann and Reaf.

CAPTAIN VANCE: May it please the Court, I am going to object to that. I ask them each time if they are through and then I take my turn and what happens? They come right back again. I do not think it is fair to the Prosecution.

MR. RACHAEL: My questions are based entirely upon what the Prosecution asked.

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

REDIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY MR. RACHAEL:

Q Are you a member of the German Army?

A I myself?

Q That is right.

A Yes.

Q What part of the German Army were you in?

A Waffen SS.

Q Do you know whether or not the Gestapo members were in the Waffen SS?

CAPTAIN VANCE: We object on the grounds that the question has been answered. This is repititious.

MR. RACHAEL: I respectfully submit that this evidence was brought out by the prosecution and was brought out on its own behalf. I am cross examining on behalf of Dirke, Hellenbroich, Stattman and Reef.

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

(Whereupon the question was read by the reporter.)

THE WITNESS: Members of the Gestapo were able to be drafted into the Waffen SS and at that instant were eliminated from the Gestapo and became members of the fourth part of the German armed forces.

QUESTIONS BY MR. RACHAEL:

Q Do you know whether or not members of security service were in the Waffen SS

A The same thing applies to them as to the Gestapo. They could be drafted into the Waffen SS and simultaneously eliminated from the security service and become members of the fourth part of the German armed forces.

Q So that if a member of the Gestapo was a member of the Waffen SS in December of 1941, it is your opinion that he was no longer a member of the Gestapo is that right?

A No, then he wasn't any more.

Q So that if Major Dirke received a pay book and identification and he traveled on trains by virtue of orders of the Army then he was no longer a member of the Gestapo, is that right?

CAPTAIN VANCE: We object to the question, may it please the court, unless he knows what Major Dirke's position was at that time. He is going beyond my examination. I asked him one question.

PRESIDENT: Objection sustained.

QUESTIONS BY MR. RACHAEL:

Q Do you know whether members of the Gestapo had pay books of the (Schluss-redirect)

Kaffen SS?

A The Gestapo had pay books which had the entry in it "Training Camp Konitz".

Q What was Training Camp Konitz?

A Konitz is a town located in what used to be the corridor and inthe last phase of the combat everything was drafted into the army or Waffen SS. At that time the Gestapo men received pay books; SS pay books with the entry "Training Camp Konitz".

Q What do you consider as the last phases phasses of combat?

A From October 1944 on.

MR. RASHKIS: No further questions.

QUESTIONS BY DR. RAU:

Q You said that Major Best was a truthful man, did he them as a truthful man tell you that he transmitted an order to IA. Ossa to the effect that he was to have an American flyer shot?

MAJOR SAXON: That is repetitious and is objected to.

PRESIDENT: Objection sustained.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: We have nothing further. Are there any questions by the Court?

PRESIDENT: There are no questions by the Court, the witness is excused.

(Thereupon the witness was excused and withdrew.)

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Call Philip Buhlmann.

PHILIP BUHLMANN, called as a witness by the Defense, being first duly sworn, testified through an interpreter as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY DR. RAU:

Q What is your name:

A Philip Buhlmann.

Q Have you been examined as a witness in this case once before?

A Yes.

Q Will you please tell us what the instructions were that Gess gave you at that time when an American flyer was in the Werewolf school in Wallerabenstein in custody?

CAPTAIN VANCE: I am going to object on the ground that the question is repetitious and is identical with the question by the Prosecution and has already been answered by this witness. We are merely repeating the same thing over and over again.

DR. RAU: The exact conversation, word for word between the accused Gess and this witness was not brought out in that examination referred to. I therefore think that it is in the interest of determining the truth that this question has been put.

MAJOR SAXON: I beg the Court to permit me to say a word too. At that time Dr. Rau knew that he was especially appointed and was requested by General Stroop to represent him. He had every opportunity to cross examine this man at length at the time this witness was on the stand. He did testify as to the conversation between Lt. Gess and himself. I do not know whether in detail, word for word. I agree with the Prosecution in this instance that we are going over the same thing as we have done once before. I think the Court should preclude it.

DR. RAU: The witness is now a witness for the Defense and if, as the record will show, certain details were not brought out at that time I think it is in the interests of determing the truth that these details be brought out.

PRESIDENT: The objection is overruled and the Court desires that these matters be brought out in the shortest possible manner. We do not desire all this repetition.

(Buhlmann-dir et)

QUESTIONS BY DR. RAU:

Q Please report as nearly word for word what Gens told you, if you can.

A I had stated the whole facts in my last statement.

Q You did not answer my question. Will you please report to us as nearly as you can word for word what Gens told you concerning this American flyer.

MAJOR SAXON: I do want to object again now, this witness said that he has already told everything once before that he could tell this time.

PRESIDENT: Objection sustained.

QUESTIONS BY DR. RAU:

Q What was the answer you gave to Gens when he told you at that time that the flyer was to be shot on the way?

A I declined to shoot the flyer and I pointed out to him that the only man who was able to give me that order was General Streep.

Q What did Gens tell you then?

A I will have to take him there anyway.

Q Did he tell you, "I have an order from General Streep" or did he not?

A No, he did not say that.

DR. RAU: That is all.

QUESTIONS BY DR. BURGER:

Q Why, when you were making your first statement here on the stand, did you not explain that you had refused to obey the order?

A I stated that I had declined to do so.

Q Didn't you say at that time that you had taken the flyer to Bierbach?

A Yes.

Q Did you give a reason why you took him back?

A Yes.

Q Did you take the flyer to Bierbach?

A Yes.

Q Did you take him back?

A Yes.

Q What did you report to Goss at that time?

A That there was a labor camp. He refused ——

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I am informed, may it please the Court, that they are talking here about the flyer that was not shot.

PRESIDENT: Are you objecting?

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Yes.

PRESIDENT: Objection sustained.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I think the whole conversation, all the direct examination of this man had to do with the flyer who was not shot and because it is all repetitious I move it all be stricken from the record.

DR. RAU: A flyer was in fact shot the day after that and Goss claimed to have been acting upon orders of Streop. As this witness testified he did not even tell this witness that he had orders from Streop even when the fact that only Streop was authorized to give such orders was pointed out to him. I consider it important that this particular statement be contained in the record.

PRESIDENT: The motion to strike is overruled.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Is there any cross examination?

CAPTAIN VANCE: No cross examination.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Are there any questions by the Court?

PRESIDENT: No questions. The witness is excused.

(Thereupon the witness was excused and withdrew.)

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Send Hans Gunther in.

HANS GUNTHER, recalled as a witness for the Defense, being reminded that he was still under oath, resumed the stand and testified further through an interpreter as follows:

REDIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY DR. RAU:

Q What is your name?

A Mrs. Gunther.

Q Have you been a witness before this Court before?

A Yes.

Q What was your official position on the staff of General Stroop?

A I was G-3 in General Stroop's staff.

Q. Did any orders to the effect that Allied flyers were to be shot ever go through your hands?

CAPTAIN VANCE: Object to the question on the ground that this is repetitious. This witness has testified on two different occasions about these orders.

DR. RAU: I withdraw the question.

QUESTIONS BY DR. RAU:

Q Was there any talk among the staff officers, any conversation about the fact that shot down flyers were to be shot?

A There was no conversation about any order that flyers were to be shot.

Q Was there any talk among the staff members that General Stroop ever issued an order that anyone or more flyers who made an emergency landing were to be shot?

A No. That question was discussed only at one time because of this October conference to which I have already testified.

Q In order to avoid misunderstandings will you please tell us briefly what the subject was at that time?

CAPTAIN VANCE: Object on the grounds that it is repetitious. He has already testified about the October conference.

PRESIDENT: Objection sustained.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: May it please the Court, in order to avoid any necessity of bringing this witness back for a different accused I am going to cross examine him for Sammern. I will do that now rather than bring him back later, since he is already on the stand. As long as he has been produced and is a witness for Stroop I believe I have a right to cross examine.

(Gunther-redirect)

CAPTAIN VANCE: I do not mind Defense counsel cross examining the witness on anything that was brought out on direct examination but if he goes beyond that he is not on cross examination but on direct examination.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I will then try to make it direct examination.

QUESTIONS BY DEFENSE COUNSEL:

Q I believe you have testified that you knew the accused Sommer?

A Yes.

Q Did you identify him for the record before?

A Yes.

Q You know the time when Sommer was relieved from Wiesbaden and went somewhere else, do you not?

A In the month of August.

Q What year?

A August 1944.

Q As the A-1 or 1-A of General Streep, I think you testified previously that you and other members of the staff of General Streep used to get together and talk over different things involving Rhein Westmark?

A Yes.

Q Can you tell the Court whether or not a report would come to General Streep's office of the killing or mistreatment of the allied personnel which might have occured in the Rhein Westmark area?

A I never saw any such reports.

Q Would such a report come to his headquarters? That was my question.

A I don't get it — would such a report?

Q If there had been any killings or mistreatments of Allied flying personnel in the Rhein Westmark area would a report of such killings or mistreatments have been made to General Streep's office?

A Yes. Such reports would have had to come in.

Q Limiting my question to the time when Streep was — pardon me, when Sommer was inspector of the Security Police and the SD, had any reports of killings or mistreatments of Allied personnel in the Rhein Westmark area come to your attention?

(Gunther-redirect)

CAPTAIN VANCE: I object to the question. The witness has answered that he never knew of any reports. How can he answer as to a specific time?

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I certainly have a right.

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

THE WITNESS: I never heard any conversation about such reports.

QUESTIONS BY DEFENSE COUNSEL:

Q My question was: Was any report made of any killings or mistreatments of any Allied personnel in the Rhein Westmark area while Sonnenn was inspector?

A I never heard of any such reports.

Q Had you ever heard any talk or rumor or stories of mistreatments of Allied personnel?

CAPTAIN VANCE: I object without stating the grounds.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Let me finish. In the Rhein Westmark area by any member of the Security Police and SD while Sonnenn was inspector.

CAPTAIN VANCE: We object.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I pray the Court's judgment. We are being charged with War Crimes.

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

THE WITNESS: No.

QUESTIONS BY DEFENSE COUNSEL:

Q Are you familiar with or have you read the decision of the Tribunal in the Nuernberg case?

A Yes.

Q I refer particularly to that part of the decision which deals with the SD, do you know whether or not Sonnenn, in the course of his membership or working with the SD, had ever served outside Germany proper?

A No, I don't know.

A No. I don't know.

Q So far as your knowledge of him is concerned did he have anything to do with the management or conduct of concentration camps?

A No.

Q So far as your knowledge of him is concerned did he have anything to do with the handling or importation or collection of so called slave labor?

A No.

CAPTAIN VANCE: May it please the Court, that is going far beyond these charges. I have no objection except that I do not think we should waste a lot of time on something with which we are not concerned. That is the only reason for the objection.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: He is admittedly a member of the SD which was found to be a criminal organization with certain specific counts of criminality mentioned against it. I am asking about those things. A man could be a member of a criminal organization which is found guilty of running a concentration camp but I can bring out, as far as he is concerned, that he had nothing to do with the concentration camp, slave labor, etc., that is why I am asking the questions and for no other reason.

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

THE WITNESS: No.

QUESTIONS BY DEFENSE COUNSEL:

Q So far as your knowledge of him is concerned did he have anything to do with the organization or management of the so called emergency commandoes mentioned in the Nuernberg Tribunal?

A No.

(Gunther-redirect)

Q So far as your knowledge of him is concerned, did he have anything to do with the frontier police -- the so-called "grenz polizei"?

A I don't think so.

Q Now, as far as you know, tell the court very briefly what his duties were as you observed them?

A In my opinion, Colonel Semann's position was that of inspector in his area. That means the coordination and supervision of the individual headquarters.

Q Do you know anything about the relationship of Semann and Stroop?

A Yes, as far as my own work was concerned.

Q Well, tell the court briefly.

A General Stroop had the intention of becoming the commanding officer of the Wehrkreis, for that reason he intended to collect each unit of the regular police and security police into combat outfits.

Q Let's not describe him so much here -- but just the relationship of Semann and Stroop and Stroop and Semann.

A Colonel Semann objected to any removal of security police forces and he told me that the only object of his combat groups were to get a good reputation with the Reich Fuehrer and get the job of Wehrkreis commander so he could point to an especially large number of combat troops. Colonel Semann worked against this intent and in that respect he did not consider General Stroop as a superior. I also recall that General Stroop had Colonel Semann called up at his office at about 5:00 o'clock several times to find out whether he was still in his office. In such a case, Colonel Semann was also called out of the theater.

Q Do you know whether or not Semann ever asked to be relieved of his assignment?

A I am sure Colonel Semann asked for it just like all the other officers did.

Q Were you present at a meeting at which the non-interference order was read by Semann?

A No.

Q Were you present at any meeting at which the non-interference order was read to Semann?

A No.

Q Can you tell the court whether or not so far as Stroop was concerned, whether or not Semann as an independent individual exercised his own judgment?

A Without a doubt Semann used his own judgment and was known as being very tolerant.

Q What do you mean by "tolerant"?

A Colonel Semann was generally opposed to exaggerated measures and was of the opinion that all measures should be executed only to the extent ordered from above.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Any questions by the court?

CAPTAIN VANCE: I have a few questions.

BY CROSS EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q I believe you said you never did see any report of killing or mistreatment that came to General Stroop's office during the time that Semann was in Wiesbaden, is that correct?

A Yes.

Q Now, at any time while Truemler was with him, you didn't see any reports, did you?

A I saw no report. I testified about this already.

Q With the exception of that one incident which you testified about before, did you ever see any more?

A No.

Q Now so far as you know, did Semann have anything to do with the Italian Embassy in Berlin?

A I don't know about it.

Q Well, that is the answer you gave to Colonel Berman on his various questions. So far as you know you are talking about only what you know so far as you know, aren't you?

A Yes.

Q But the answer to my question is you don't know whether he was connected with the Italian Embassy or not, do you?

A No.

Q You just don't have knowledge of it?

A No.

CAPTAIN VANCE: Nothing further.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Any questions by the court?

PRESIDENT: No questions by the court. The witness is excused.

(Whereupon the witness was excused and withdrew from the courtroom.)

DEFENSE COUNSEL: May we have a recess in place for a moment?

PRESIDENT: Court will recess in place.

(Whereupon the court recessed in place.)

PRESIDENT: Court will come to order.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Defense calls as its next witness Reinhardt Breder.

REINHARDT BREDER, called as a witness by the defense, being first duly sworn, testified through an interpreter as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY DR. RAU:

Q What is your name?

A Reinhardt Breder.

Q Have you been on the witness stand in this case once before?

A Yes, at the beginning of the trial as a prosecution witness.

Q What was your official position from September 1944 until the end of the war?

A I was Chief of the state police office, Frankfurt-am-Main.

Q In that capacity did you have anything to do with the prisoner of war camp of the air corps at Oberursel?

A Yes, in the beginning of January 1944, I received instructions from Berlin to interrogate prisoners of war at Oberursel about political questions in connection with the air corps and while the armed forces were occupying themselves asking questions of a military nature of the prisoners, we asked them questions of a political nature. For instance, we would ask them about morale among the troops, particularly about the opinion concerning the military situation among the higher staffs and the Allied air corps and for that reason the armed forces loaned to us several Allied British or American officers or enlisted men whom we had.

Q Can you also tell us how many prisoners of war were turned over to Oberursel from Wehrkreis 12, from September 1944 until the end of the war? Prisoners of war who were fliers?

A This number can be estimated only, but I think if you mention a number one thousand, you probably hit a number which is too low if anything.

Q By whom was this number of men turned over to Oberursel?

A These men were either turned over directly by the police if it concerned parachutists near the location of Oberursel or else by army outfits.

Q Can you name any such police outfit which had prisoners of war -- which had fliers and turned them over to Oberursel?

A Criminal police, Frankfurt, our own office once got two fliers which had been picked up within the city limits of Frankfurt and sent to us by mistake. We sent these two fliers to Oberursel.

Q When was that?

A That was probably about the middle of 1944.

Q Can you remember any prisoners of war, any captured fliers being turned over to Oberursel by police outfits after September 1944?

A I myself cannot of course give the name of any individual police station that turned the fliers over, but I do know that this would occur frequently in the immediate vicinity of Oberursel. The district chief of rural police in Bad Homburg also the protective police in Frankfurt should be able to give exact statements about that.

Q Did your office at any time receive an order according to which Allied fliers who made emergency landings were to be shot?

A No.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: It will be convenient for us to suspend, if the court so desires.

PRESIDENT: Court will adjourn until 0900 7 March 1947.

(Whereupon at 1645 hours the court adjourned until 0900 hours 7 March 1947.)

Legal Form No. 8

MILITARY GOVERNMENT COURT
MILITÄRGERICHT

CHARGE SHEET
ANKLAGESCHRIFT

Place .....
Ort

Date .....
Datum

Name of accused .....
Name des Angeklagten

is hereby charged with the following offences:
wird hiermit wegen der folgenden strafbaren Handlungen angeklagt:

First Charge: ..... Erste Anklage: .....

.....

.....

.....

Particulars: ..... Einzelheiten: .....

.....

.....

.....

Second Charge: ..... Zweite Anklage: .....

.....

.....

.....

Particulars: ..... Einzelheiten: .....

.....

.....

.....

.....

The above charges are referred for trial to the *Summary *Intermediate Military Court to be held *General

Die Verhandlung wird vor dem *Einfachen *Mittleren Militärgerichte *Oberen

at ..... on ..... 194.....
in (Address of Court) am
(Anschrift des Gerichtes)

at .....
um Uhr stattfinden. By Order
Im Auftrage von

.....
(Signature of person preferring charges)
(Unterschrift des Vertreters der Anklagebehörde)

*Strike out words not applicable.
*Nichtzutreffendes ist durchzustreichen.

Copy of above served on accused ..... 194.....
Abschrift dem Angeklagten zugestellt am

.....
(Signature of person making service)
(Unterschrift des Zustellers)

CA/GI 13 Legal Form No. 8

MILITARY GOVERNMENT COURT

CASE RECORD.

Count 30

PAGES 2116 - 2201

Case No. Superior Orders

Prosecutor Lt Col Dwinell

~~*Summary~~
~~*Intermediate~~ Military Court.
*General

Defence Counsel Lt Col Berman
Herbert B Rosenstock

Place DACHAU, GERMANY

Interpreter s Rudolph Nathansen

Date 7 March 194 7

Reporters Paula Silverman, John D MacDonald, Imogene Butler, Peter L DiCurti, Evelyn Cohen Irving J Hayett, Pvt William F Jones

~~Members of Court~~:

WITNESSES:

Accused JURGEN STROOP, et al

Address Sex Age

	First Charge	Second Charge
Pleas
Findings
Previous Convictions

Sentence
- Imprisonment
  - Term
  - Beginning 194
- Fine
  - Amount
  - To be paid before 194
    or in case of default of payment to serve a *further term of imprisonment.

Charge Sheet and Record of Testimony are annexed hereto.

(Signature of member of court.)

REVIEW

Action of Reviewing Authority

(Signature of reviewing authority)

*Strike out words not applicable.

RECORD OF TESTIMONY

in trial of

THE UNITED STATES versus JURGEN STROOP, et al

by

GENERAL MILITARY GOVERNMENT COURT

tried at

DACHAU, GERMANY BEGINNING 10 JANUARY 1947

7 MARCH 1947 Pages 2116 - 2201

TESTIMONY

	DIRECT	CROSS	REDIRECT	RECROSS	COURT
REINHARDT BEDER (continued)	2116	2119	2123
OTTO ERNST WEYRAUCH	2124				2136
WILLI STEMMLER	2126-A	2132	2132
ELSE HOSCHER			2142	2147
HANS TRUMMLER	2148	2190

EXHIBITS

NONE

CAMP DACHAU, GERMANY
7 March 1947

MORNING SESSION

(Thereupon the court reconvened at 0900 hours.)

PRESIDENT: Court will come to order.

PROSECUTION: May it please the court, let the record show that all the members of the court; all the members of the prosecution; all the members of the defense; all the accused, the reporter and interpreter, are present.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: At the end of the session yesterday the witness, Breder, was on the stand being examined by Dr. Rau. Will you send in Breder?

PRESIDENT: You are reminded you are still under oath.

RHEINHARDT BREDER, called as a witness by the defense, resumed the stand, and being reminded he was still under oath, testified further through an interpreter as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION (continued)

QUESTIONS BY DR. RAU:

Q Yesterday you testified that at Oberursel, during the period of time between September 1944 and the end of the war, mainly through the Wehrmacht, thousands of American fliers had been delivered and that these were fliers from the XII Wehrkreis, is this correct?

A Yes, this is an estimate.

Q On account of your investigations can you tell us how the Wehrmacht got custody of these fliers?

A The Wehrmacht received these fliers, for the major part, through the police, mainly through the Rural Police from the country.

Q How do you know that?

A I know this from the orders which the police had received at the beginning of the war and through my practical experience.

(Breder-direct)

Q To your knowledge which orders existed for the police in Wehrkreis XII in the period of time from September 1944 to the end of the war in regard to parachuted enemy fliers?

CAPTAIN VANCE: We object to that question on the grounds it is repetitious. The same question was asked this witness when he was testifying for the prosecution.

PRESIDENT: Objection sustained.

QUESTIONS BY DR. RAU:

Q Did the State Police participate in the delivery of such fliers?

A It really was not a job of the State Police to arrest fliers who had parachuted. This was an assignment of the Apprehension Section of the police force. If, in some individual cases, fliers were delivered to the Gestapo Headquarters, these were only exceptions.

Q Do you know what the Gestapo did with these fliers, in general?

A As far as I know, and that is the way it was taken care of at my headquarters, they were delivered to the camp at Oberursel.

Q Who was your immediate superior?

A My immediate superior in my area was Dr. Trummler.

Q Which orders did you receive from Dr. Trummler in regard to the treatment of enemy parachuted fliers?

CAPTAIN VANCE: We object on the ground the question is repetitious.

PRESIDENT: Objection sustained.

QUESTIONS BY DR. RAU:

Q During the time from September 1944 until the end of the war, were you at the Reichs Security Office?

A Yes, for the last time on the 3rd of December 1944.

Q When did you see there?

(Breder-direct)

A I saw various department heads of the Reich Security Main Office, and the head of Department 4, General Mueller.

Q What was General Mueller's assignment?

A General Mueller was in charge of Department 4, that means he was in charge of the entire political police of Germany.

Q What did you do at General Mueller's office?

A I reported to him in regard to our interrogations at Oberursel on the 3rd of December 1944 and, asked and received his instructions about the political questions which would be of the greatest importance to know about for the Reichs government in the future.

Q Didn't he show surprise during this discussion that the Allied fliers were not killed?

MAJOR SAXON: I object to that as leading.

PRESIDENT: Objection sustained.

QUESTIONS BY DR. RAU:

Q Did you discuss with General Mueller the order according to which Allied fliers were to be shot?

MAJOR SAXON: If it please the court, there is no evidence here regarding this matter, so far as the accused, Trummler, is concerned as regards the Reichs Security Main Office. It was clearly shown he took his orders from Himmler direct. Further, this witness has already testified he knew nothing of such orders.

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

THE WITNESS: General Mueller didn't tell me anything about such an order, not before and not afterwards. On the contrary, he knew about our different method of treating fliers. He didn't criticise it at all and was in agreement with it in all respects.

DR. RAU: Thank you.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Dr. Buerger would like to ask one question.

Ta 288 pls

QUESTIONS BY DR. BURGER:

Q Under whose supervision were the fliers at Oberursel?

A The fliers were under the command of the Air Force. Only during the time of the interrogation the fliers were handed over to me for a few days.

Q Did this eliminate the authority of command of the Air Force over these fliers?

A Really not, but the way in which we treated the fliers was entirely up to me.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: That is all for this witness. He will be recalled later on behalf of other accused.

CROSS EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q Breder, you were asked who was your immediate superior officer and you answered, Dr. Trummler. I will ask you if during part of the time Col. Somann wasn't your superior officer?

A Yes, until the end of July or the beginning of August 1944, Col. Somann was my immediate superior and then around the middle of September or more exactly, I think on September 20th, Col. Trummler came.

Q With the exception of the changing of the two men, Trummler for Somann, was there any difference in your connection with that headquarters?

A Are you referring to the authority of command or to the practical policies which were executed?

Q No, I am not talking about the policies, just the chain of command.

A The authority of command changed with the time Col. Trummler became commander of the Order Police and was not an Inspecteur of the Security Police anymore. For instance, Dr. Trummler came with the message that he had received authority from Dr. Kaltenbrunner to relieve chiefs of headquarters according to his free will and to replace them.

Q Let me ask you this -- could Dr. Trummler give you orders?

A Yes.

Q Could Col. Semann give you orders?

A Yes, both of them could give me orders as long as these orders did not violate orders which had come from Berlin.

Q You have estimated that between September '44 and the end of the war approximately a thousand or more American fliers were turned in to Oberursel, is that right?

A I think that is correct.

Q I believe you said that most of these fliers were captured and turned over by the Rural Police, is that right?

A That is the way it really happened.

Q Now, you were asked a question -- when the Gestapo got a flier, what happened to him and you said, "Some went to Oberursel", was that correct?

A I think I remember that I said that whenever we get fliers at all, but the fact that we received fliers was only the exception, for instance, I can remember that my headquarters received only two fliers, because the executive officials of the Gestapo were not located in rural districts, they were all in the cities, and for this reason we didn't have a chance to apprehend parachuted fliers.

Q The two that you said your headquarters had, what disposition was made of them?

A These two fliers had been picked up during the night through the local party organization and since the headquarters of the local party organization wasn't far away from our headquarters, these men were brought over to our headquarters.

Q What disposition was made of them?

A We prepared tea for them at night, kept them there overnight, and the next morning we delivered them to Oberursel. My officials can testify to that.

Q Breder, you were the chief of the Frankfurt office, is that right?

A Yes.

Q Did your branch office have any fliers?

A I heard about the two cases while I was in prison at Wiesbaden through the interrogator, Teil. In order to prevent any mistakes I'd like to say the following -- between the time from the end of '43 and August '44 we escorted over 240 fliers from the prison at Paris to Oberursel. These were fliers who were picked up in France wearing civilian clothes. These fliers, too, went through my headquarters.

Q Let's get back to Wiesbaden -- what happened to these fliers at Wiesbaden?

A Personally, I cannot make any testimony about these two fliers. I heard about the fliers who supposedly were shot by Fuehr only during my imprisonment.

Q You had other branch offices beside Wiesbaden, is that correct?

A Yes, in Limburg and Wetzlar.

Q Did you ever have any captured fliers in these offices?

A No case is known to me there.

Q You conducted an investigation, I believe, and arrived at an estimate that about a thousand fliers were turned into Oberursel. What is your estimate of the number that was murdered by the Gestapo during that period of time?

A At that time I didn't know of any case that a flier was supposedly killed by the Gestapo.

Q At what time?

A In the time I was arrested.

Q Do you know a man by the name of Bueth who was your chief over in Wiesbaden?

A Yes, he was in charge of the office at Wiesbaden from September '45 until the end.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I don't know whether the examination is going into areas where the witness perhaps should be warned of his own rights. I don't know, I'm suggesting the possibility.

PRESIDENT: I should like to warn the witness that he can refuse to answer any question that will tend to incriminate him.

THE WITNESS: No, I'd like to testify.

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q Did Bueth ever tell you what the conditions were in his office about fliers?

MR. RACHAEL: The defense objects on the ground that it goes beyond, far beyond, the scope of direct examination.

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

THE WITNESS: Yes. I have testified already during my first interrogation that in March of 1945 Bueth came to me and told me that he had received orders from Col. Trummler to execute captured fliers and he asked me what he should do in regard to such an order.

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q Breder, how long were you with the police system of Germany?

A At the beginning of the war, around the end of August 1939, I was drafted into the Security Police, first to the Security Service.

Q So you were with the police from 1939 until the end of the war, is that correct?

A Yes.

Q Now, I am going to ask you a question and put it as clearly as I can and ask you to answer the question, yes or no. Was the Security Police system of Germany, in its entirety, ever taken in as a group into the Wehrmacht?

DR. AHLMER: I object to this question. It goes beyond the scope of direct examination.

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

THE WITNESS: No, not in the sense of the interior.

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q Let me ask you the same question as to the Order Police?

A I can't testify definitely about this question but I think that the Order Police, too, was part of the internal administration of Germany, a special civil service and not a part of the Wehrmacht.

CAPTAIN VANCE: Nothing further.

REDIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY MR. RACHAEL:

Q I'd like to interrogate on behalf of the defendant, Girke. Did you ever receive written orders directing you to shoot captured American fliers?

A No, I neither received such an order nor did I hear about it from others.

Q Did you ever have a Soldbuch from the Waffen SS?

A Yes, since the Fall of '44 we had to give out Soldbuchs to all male employees and that was done, too.

Q Did you ever received identifications indicating that you were a member of the German army?

A No, we did not have an army serial number.

(Breder-cross-redirect)

Q If you travelled on German railroads did you travel under authority and on the same tickets as the Wehrmacht? I am talking about from September 1944 on.

A Yes. Of course, while travelling we had the same rights as the Wehrmacht. The same applied to the officers of the Order Police.

Q When you travelled and had to be billeted someplace, with whom were you billeted?

A If I couldn't find my own quarters I could go to the billeting office of the Wehrmacht and they would take care of my billets.

Q You can answer this one yes or no. Do you know whether or not the Sicherheitsdienst in 1944 was registered with the International Red Cross at Geneva as an integral part of the German Wehrmacht?

A I don't know anything about that.

Q If I ask you the same question about the Sicherheitspolizei what would be your answer?

A These things could not be known to me since I never worked in one of the Berlin main offices.

DR. RACHAL: No further questions.

CAPTAIN [illegible]: Nothing further.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Anything by the court?

PRESIDENT: No questions by the court.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I ask that the witness be excused for the time being.

PRESIDENT: Witness is excused.

(Whereupon the witness was excused and withdrew.)

DEFENSE COUNSEL: The next witness will be Meyrauch.

OTTO ERNST MEYRAUCH, called as a witness by the defense, being first duly sworn, testified through an interpreter as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY DR. RAU:

Q What is your name?

A Weyrauch.

Q First name?

A Otto Ernst.

Q How old are you?

A 39 years.

Q Where do you live?

A Frankfurt/Main.

Q You are not a prisoner?

A No.

Q Where were you during the time from August 1944 until the end of the war?

A I was in charge of the police anti-aircraft batteries.

Q Where were these police anti-aircraft batteries located?

A You want the definite location?

Q Yes.

A We were railroad anti-aircraft batteries.

Q Where were you stationed?

A Most of the time I was stationed at Idar-Oberstein on the Nahe.

Q In which Wehrkreis is this located?

A I think it was XII.

Q Who was your immediate superior?

A General Streop.

Q Which orders did you have at that time in regard to the treatment of parachuted enemy fliers?

A I can't recall that I had any orders in this respect.

Q Did you yourself capture any parachuted fliers, you or members of your batteries?

A No.

Q How many enemy airplanes were shot down by your battery?

A I reported 40.

Q Was there still another police anti-aircraft battery?

A Yes.

Q How many planes were shot down by this other battery?

A I don't know.

DR. RAU: Thank you.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Your witness.

CAPTAIN WHICE: No questions.

PRESIDENT: No questions by the court. Witness is excused.

(Whereupon the witness was excused and withdrew.)

Take 204 - 80
8-7-47;JGMcD;1

DEFENSE COUNSEL: We are suspending with direct evidence at this time on behalf of the accused Stroop. The next witness is on behalf of Goss and Best, in contradiction of Stroop's testimony. He will be examined by Dr. Buerger.

WILLI STEMMLER, called as a witness by the defense, being first duly sworn, testified through an interpreter as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY DR. BUERGER:

Q Please give the court your full name.

A Willi Stemmler.

Q How old are you?

A Forty-eight years.

Q What is your civilian profession?

A I am a merchant in electric business.

Q Are you a prisoner at Dachau at the present time?

A Yes.

Q Where is your residence?

A At Saarbruecken.

Q In 1944 until the end of the war, was your residence also at Saarbruecken?

A Yes.

Q What was your profession in Saarbruecken this time?

A I was an SS Colonel.

Q With the Allgemeine SS?

A Yes.

Q Who was your immediate superior in your capacity as SS Colonel?

A SS General Stroop.

Q Did you receive any orders in 1944 or 1945 in regard to the treatment of parachuted enemy fliers?

A Yes.

Q What kind of an order did you receive?

A To shoot all fliers.

Q By whom did you receive this order?

A Directly from General Stroop.

Q Did you receive this order orally or in writing?

A Orally.

Q Where?

A At my headquarters in Saarbruecken.

Q When?

A June or July 1944.

Q Can you remember as exactly as possible the wording of this order?

A General Stroop came to my headquarters and told me, "From now on all fliers are to be shot."

Q Was this order issued at a time when the Reichsfuehrer SS was in Saarbruecken?

A Yes. During this time the Reichsfuehrer was once at police headquarters at Saarbruecken.

PRESIDENT: I want to warn the witness that he does not have to answer any question that will tend to incriminate him.

QUESTIONS BY DR. BUSCHER:

Q Was this utterance of General Stroop a direct order?

A Yes.

Q Was this order repeated once more?

A Yes.

Q When and how?

A Yes. Through the police president of Saarbruecken, who during an execution told me, "You know, of course, the order of General Stroop."

Q Was this order repeated in September 1944?

A In September of 1944 -- yes, I think it was in September of 1944 -- at Wiesbaden during a conference at the headquarters where Stroop said, "Everybody, of course, knows the flyer order."

Q In addition to this order, did you have any other orders in regard to the treatment of enemy fliers?

A No. The Allgemeine SS didn't receive any orders.

DR. BUERGER: No more questions.

DR. RAU: Cross examination on behalf of the accused Stroop.

QUESTIONS BY DR. RAU:

Q When did Stroop arrive at your headquarters?

A He always arrived there unexpected.

Q What time of the day?

A That might have been in the afternoon. Always when he went to Metz.

Q Can you remember exactly anymore at what time of the day he was there?

A Stroop came to our town very often, and then he always visited our headquarters.

Q Who was with him?

A It was a First Lieutenant Kaleske.

Q Was Kaleske his adjutant?

A Yes. He was always with him.

Q Where were you when Stroop arrived?

A In my office at my headquarters.

Q Did Stroop come to your office?

A Yes.

Q Was he alone or was somebody else with him?

A Kaleske always entered the room with him.

Q That means Kaleske was also present when he gave you this order?

A No.

Q Where was Kaleske at that time?

A Kaleske always carried the mail over to the girls into the other offices.

Q Did he return then?

A He always came back then. He always came back and left again.

Q Did he carry out mail repeatedly?

A No, but I think, to remember very clearly, that he gave me the order on this day when he came, and he needed some crutches for his boy.

Q What else was said there?

A Official matters were discussed which were just pending.

Q Please tell us in detail what was discussed.

A You can't expect that after three years I still know every point which was discussed with Stroop at that time.

Q But after three years you still remember the exact wording used by Stroop to give you the order for the killing of fliers?

A Something like that you never can forget in your life.

Q Especially when one is involved himself in the executions of fliers?

DR. BUERGER: I object to this question. It goes beyond the scope of the direct examination.

PRESIDENT: Objection sustained.

QUESTIONS BY DR. RAU:

Q How often did Kaleske enter the room and leave the room again?

A Kaleske was running around all the time.

Q How many fliers were shot based on this order through you or your subordinate men?

DR. BUERGER: I object to this question for the same reason as before.

PRESIDENT: Objection sustained.

QUESTIONS BY DR. RAU:

Q Who was present at the meeting in Wiesbaden about which you have testified in addition to you?

A The closer staff of the SS leaders of the entire district was present.

Q Can you give us any names?

A Yes, I can.

Q Please give us the names.

A There was SS Captain Leber; then the Colonel of the SS from Wiesbaden at that time; and then the man who was in charge at Metz. There were approximately--I would guess--ten to fifteen men present.

Q Was Dietrich present?

A Dietrich didn't lose anything there, because he was a police president.

Q Was Somann present?

A Somann usually came to these meetings later on.

Q Was Schluma present?

A Schluma? I don't know whether Schluma wasn't sick at that time.

Q Was Kaleske there?

A Normally Kaleske was there always.

Q Are you a prisoner now?

DR. BUERGER: I object to this question. It is repetitious.

DR. RAU: I withdraw the question.

QUESTIONS BY DR. RAU:

Q Why are you a prisoner now?

A Because I am an SS Colonel.

Q Do you know whether you are charged with the killing of Allied fliers?

DR. BUERGER: I object to this question. It is beyond the scope of the direct examination.

CAPTAIN VANCE: I join in that objection. That is an improper question to propound to the witness.

DR. RAU: I am allowed to ask this question in order to prove the reliability of this witness.

PRESIDENT: Objection sustained.

QUESTIONS BY DEFENSE COUNSEL:

Q This meeting in Wiesbaden: What time of the year and what year do you think it took place?

A It was in 1944, and I think it was a September meeting, because we had a meeting every four weeks.

Q Do you know Trummler?

A I know him very little.

Q But I mean you know him by name, do you?

A Yes.

Q Do you know when Trummler came to Wiesbaden?

A No. I don't know that.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I have nothing further. Do you desire to cross examine?

CROSS EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q Colonel, at this meeting in Wiesbaden, do you remember if SS Colonel Lassak from Wiesbaden was present?

A No. Only leaders of the Allgemeine SS were present.

Q Did you know Colonel Lassak?

A No. I had nothing to do with the officials of the police.

Q He was a colonel of the Allgemeine SS.

A Only the active leaders of the Allgemeine SS were present at these meetings.

Q Do you remember if Colonel Eichel from Offenbach was present at this meeting?

A I don't know this man.

Q What position did you hold at Saarbruecken?

A I was in charge of the 85th SS Regiment, and later on the entire welfare organization for Westmark.

CAPTAIN VANCE: Nothing further.

REDIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY DEFENSE COUNSEL:

Q Do you know whether or not a man who was with the Sipo could be a member of the Allgemeine SS?

A The men of the security police were not under the supervision of the Allgemeine SS. They were under the Reich Security Main Office.

Q That was not my question. Were they members or could they function with the Allgemeine SS?

A I didn't get your question.

Q Is it not true that when a man became affiliated or attached to the Sicherheitspolizei he had to leave and abandon any position he had with the Allgemeine SS?

A Yes. Systematically he was transferred from the Allgemeine SS to the Reich Security Main Office.

Q What position did Somann occupy?

A Somann was inspector of the security police, Wiesbaden.

Q Inasmuch as Somann was with the Sipo, and this was a meeting of leaders of the Allgemeine SS, having those two things in mind, will you now tell the court whether you are certain that Somann was present at this meeting in Wiesbaden in September 1944?

A Whenever there were meetings of the leaders of the Allgemeine SS, first there were conferences between the leaders of the Allgemeine SS and General Stroop, and later on we were joined by other police officials, yes, I mean the commander of the order police and the inspector of the security police, and at the end even generals of the Wehrmacht came.

Q So that if Somann did come to this meeting in Wiesbaden in September 1944 he came after the meeting between Stroop and the leaders of the Allgemeine SS. Is that true?

A Yes.

Q And after the talk about how Allied fliers were to be treated?

A Yes; that was afterwards. Only afterwards Somann arrived.

QUESTIONS BY DR. WACKER:

Q Do you know for how long Somann was an inspector of the security police?

A I think Somann left around the end of 1944.

DR. WACKER: No more questions.

CAPTAIN VANCE: Nothing further.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Any questions by the court?

PRESIDENT: Court will recess for 20 minutes.

(Whereupon the court recessed at 1000 hours until 1020 hours.)

(Whereupon the court reconvened at 1030 hours.)

PRESIDENT: The court will come to order.

PROSECUTION: May it please the court, let the record show that all the members of the court, all the members of the prosecution, all the members of the defense, all of the accused, the reporter and interpreter are present.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Just prior to the recess the witness Stemmler was on the stand. I believe at the time I asked the court if they had any questions to ask of this witness, but with the court's permission I would like to ask him just one or two more questions first.

PRESIDENT: Proceed. The witness is reminded that he is still under oath.

WILLI STEMMLER, called as a witness for the defense, being reminded that he was still under oath, resumed the stand and testified further through an interpreter as follows:

REDIRECT EXAMINATION, continued

QUESTIONS BY DEFENSE COUNSEL:

Q During the last recess I spoke to you, did I not, about your testimony with respect to this meeting in Wiesbaden in September, 1944?

A Yes.

Q I asked you what made you—

CAPTAIN VANDE: Do I understand you to be talking about the conference between you and this man during the recess?

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Yes.

CAPTAIN VANDE: I object to that. I don't mind your asking him what you want but not about the conference you had with him while the court was in recess.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I am just explaining the basis of a question I was going to ask. I asked him—

(Stemmler-redirect)

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

QUESTIONS BY DEFENSE COUNSEL:

Q Did I ask you what was the basis of your statement or your memory that Sonnin was present at that meeting in Wiesbaden in September, 1944?

A Yes.

Q Will you tell the court what you told me was the basis of that statement?

A As I said before, during the meetings at Wiesbaden it was always like this; that first, the leaders of the Allgemeine SS discussed, with Stroop, the internal matters of the Allgemeine SS and only when these conferences were finished the other gentlemen came. But I cannot remember that Sonnin was ever present during one of these meetings before the time of the first meeting. Sonnin always came later on and whether he was present at all during this meeting, I can't say. I know for some definite reasons which I do not like to mention here in court that the meeting was not in August but later on.

Q No. My question was this. You stated that he was present. I am asking you to tell the court what you told me was the basis, the reason, why you said he was present? That is all I am asking.

A Because usually Sonnin was present.

Q That is the basis of your statement, that he was present in September, the fact that usually he was present at these meetings?

A Yes, but I can't say that definitely that Sonnin was present at all. Usually he was.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Thank you.

PRESIDENT: Any questions by the prosecution?

CAPTAIN VANEK: No sir.

EXAMINATION BY THE COURT

QUESTIONS BY LAW MEMBER:

Q Mr. Stemmler the court desires to ask you several questions but before do ng so again wishes to remind you that you have been warned by the court that any questions that tend to incriminate you may be refused to be answered by you.

A Yes.

Q You referred to the police president repeating the order referred to as Saarbruecken during the execution. Do you recall that?

A Yes.

Q What was the execution, or who was being executed at that time?

A That was a flyer.

Q When you received the order from General Stroop that you referred to as having been received in June or July of 1944 that "From now on all flyers are to be shot," did you pass on that order to any of your subordinates?

A No.

Q Were any flyers ever executed as a result of that order that you received?

A Of course it is that the police president passed down the order, when flyers had parachuted. I, of course, could not.

Q Your answer to the question was not exactly responsive to the question itself. The question will be read to you again and you answer the question if you can.

(Whereupon the reporter repeated the previous question as directed.)

A No.

Q Do you know why the flyer, whom you referred to as being executed, was executed?

A Yes.

Q What was it?

A These flyers in question were shot down over Saarbruecken and while coming down they shot at the German civilian population and therefore the police president gave the order.

(Stemmler-court)

Q Was this flyer tried by a court, do you know?

A No.

Q Was he shot on the orders of the police president alone?

A Yes.

Q In order to clarify your previous answer, did this flyer that was executed shoot at the civilians while he was coming down in his parachute?

A Yes.

Q What organization or individuals carried out this execution?

A On orders of the police president I had to carry out the execution with the Allgemeine SS.

Q Did you discuss this order you received from General Stroop in June or July of 1944 with anybody or any other person after you received the order?

A No. On orders of this character it was strictly forbidden to discuss them with anybody.

Q Were those instructions given to you at the time those orders were given to you?

A No. These orders were continuously repeated during the meetings by Stroop.

Q When an order was referred to with reference to flyers in the meeting that was held in September, 1944 at Stroop's headquarters what reference was made to this particular order?

A During this meeting Stroop published the general orders and in this connection this order came up again and Stroop said, "Everybody knows of course the flyer order."

Q What flyer order did you understand that that referred to?

A Only this one order, the only order, because I had no other order.

Q What order do you refer to as the only order?

(Stemmler-court)

A Where Stroop personally had given me the order at Saarbruecken.

Q Was that the only order that you received from General Stroop the one you received in June or July of 1944 to the effect that from then on all flyers were to be shot? [illegible]

A Yes. Otherwise Allgemeine SS did not receive any written orders in this respect.

Q Did the Allgemeine SS have any special orders relative to flyers other than the one you have just referred to?

A Yes. On the 20th of July there was another meeting at Wiesbaden. This order was in connection with an attempt at Adolph Hitler's life that sabotage troops which had parachuted should be defeated through all party organizations. We were told that these sabotage troops which had parachuted had some connection with the attempt on Hitler's life.

Q Referring again to this meeting in September of 1944. Was the reference to the order pertaining to flyers that Stroop referred to by saying, "You know the orders about flyers.", referring to the saboteurs or was it referring to all flyers?

A He could not have referred to these sabotage troops anymore since after a very short while the attempt had been beaten down.

Q Do you mean the attempt on Hitler's life?

A Yes.

Q In your mind this meeting of September, 1944 had only the one order that he referred to when he said, "You know the order with reference to flyers."?

A Yes.

Q What were the other general orders you referred to as having been issued before this order relative to flyers was brought up at this same meeting?

A Matters of general welfare were discussed; organization of companies. That all was in reference to the invasion and the approaching enemy that should have taken up most of the time.

Q What was your relationship with General Stroop? Was it friendly or unfriendly? [illegible] ever have any trouble with General Stroop?

A Stroop gave the orders and they had to be carried out and he was pushing every single leader day and night. [illegible] Stroop for quick [illegible] runs.

Q Were you ever threatened to be reported by General Stroop?

A Absolutely not. We always cooperated.

Q Do you have any resentment toward General Stroop because of these accusations?

A No.

Q Returning again to this meeting in General Stroop's office or this conference in September of 1943, where General Stroop ordered orders relative to fliers to be brought up by General Stroop?

A These orders were repeated by Stroop again and again whenever he [illegible] with important orders.

Q Was this order with reference to fliers again a reference to by General Stroop after the meeting was thrown open to the public organizations?

A No.

Q At what other meetings did General Stroop repeat this order referring to flyers being killed?

A He did not repeat this order any more because in view of the [illegible] the next meeting we had [illegible], I can remember already in January of 1944.

Q When you referred to his repeatedly referring to this order, was that before September of 1943?

A He was not referring to this one order. I said already that we were referring to other [illegible] I have all

(Recess taken)

Q Did you ever have any trouble with General Stroop?

A In general not, because I carried out my orders, since I knew Stroop after we worked together already for such a long time.

Q Were you ever punished or reprimanded by General Stroop?

A Admonishments were given continuously.

Q Do you have any resentment toward General Stroop because of these admonishments?

A No.

Q Referring again to this meeting in General Stroop's office or this conference in September of 1944, what caused this order relative to fliers to be brought up by General Stroop?

A These orders were repeated by Stroop again and again whenever he had to do with important orders.

Q Was this order with reference to fliers again referred to by General Stroop after the meeting was thrown open to the police organizations?

A No.

Q At what other meetings did General Stroop repeat this order referring to flyers being killed?

A He did not repeat this order any more because in view of the invasion the next meeting we had as far as I can remember already in January of 1945.

Q When you referred to his repeatedly referring to this order, was that before September of 1944?

A He was not referring to this one order. I said already that he was referring to other important orders all the time.

Q Was this meeting in September 1944 the only time that you heard General Stroop refer to this order that all fliers were to be killed in a meeting or conference?

A Yes.

PRESIDENT: No further questions by the Court.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Nothing further here. Anything further?

CAPTAIN VANCE: Nothing further by the Prosecution.

PRESIDENT: No further questions. The witness is excused.

(Whereupon the witness was excused and withdrew.)

DEFENSE COUNSEL: The Defense calls as its next witness Else Hoecker. I am informed that she has been sworn for the Defense before. This is for Best, Goss and Micholy.

PRESIDENT: You are reminded you are still under oath.

WITNESS: Yes.

ELSE HOECKER, recalled as a witness by the Defense, resumed the stand and being reminded that she was still under oath, testified further through an interpreter as follows:

REDIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY MAJOR SAXON:

Q You are Else Hoecker who has heretofore testified in this case, are you not?

A Yes.

Q When you were called here some time ago to testify, you stated that you were in the room for a short period of time when there was a conference going on between General Stroop and Lieutenant Goss. Do you remember?

A Yes.

Q Can you tell the Court approximately the date of that conference?

A It must have been in the beginning of 1945.

Q That was in General Stroop's office?

A Yes.

Q Now what was it that you said you overheard at that time?

A "You know the treatment of parachuted fliers--this is one of the assignments of the Werewolf."

Q That is what General Stroop said to Lieutenant Goss?

A Yes.

Q And what did you understand that General Stroop meant by that?

DR. RAU: I object.

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

WITNESS: My personal opinion?

MAJOR SAXON: Yes.

WITNESS: I understood it this way--that it was one of the assignments of the Werewolf to do away with the fliers.

QUESTIONS BY MAJOR SAXON:

Q Now did General Stroop receive any orders that you know of from the Gauleiters of Wehrkreis 18?

A Yes.

Q Just tell the Court what those orders were, so far as you know.

A I know one order of a Gauleiter in which the civilian population was asked to participate in the lynching of flyers.

Q What Gauleiter did that come from, Miss Hoecker?

A I don't remember any more exactly from which of the three Gauleiters.

Q Did you handle that order personally?

A I had to send copies of this order to the SS regiments.

Q And upon whose instructions did you do that?

A On orders of General Stroop.

Q Now, did you have access to all orders that were received by General Stroop?

A No, only what was lying on his desk.

Q Did General Stroop receive some orders at addresses other than his office where you were working?

A I think that he received orders also at home.

Q Did you have access to certain of these orders that he received at home, or did you not?

A No, only I saw sometimes in the morning that he took orders out of his jacket.

Q Were those orders ever given to you to file away or did he retain them?

A No, I didn't see anything of them anymore.

Q Did you know Major Best?

A Yes.

Q Over what period of time did you know Major Best?

A End of 1944, 1945--I can't give you the exact dates.

Q And in what capacity did you know him?

A He was in charge of the Werewolf office at our Headquarters.

Q Do you know what Major Best's general reputation is for truth and veracity and for performance of his duties?

A Best was known as a frank and very honest person.

Q If Major Best testified in this Court that he received instructions to deliver an order to Lieutenant Goss for the execution of a flyer in March, 1945, would you believe that he told this Court the truth?

A As far as I know Best, yes.

Q Did Major Best have any command functions around Stroop's headquarters?

CAPTAIN VANCE: We object because we are getting into repetitious matter. I believe this has been testified to before, even by this witness.

MAJOR SAXON: By others, but not by this witness.

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

WITNESS: Individual authority of command? No, as far as I know.

QUESTIONS BY MAJOR SAXON:

Q Did that irk Major Best, and did he talk to you about that fact?

A Yes, quite often.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Cross examination by Dr. Rau for Stroop.

QUESTIONS BY DR. RAU:

Q Didn't you say once that you weren't certain whether this meeting between Goss and Stroop didn't take place already around the end of 1944?

A I testified already once before here in Court that I think it was in the spring of 1945. May I say something else, too? I can't give you any definite dates--at our Headquarters the date was of no importance at all, since we worked every day--weekdays and Sundays.

Q Did you say, perhaps outside the Court room, that it's possible that this meeting took place about the end of 1944?

A Dr. Rau asked me about it already, and I said snow was lying. I told him it was the end of 1944 or beginning of 1945; but I told him so that I couldn't state any definite dates.

Q You said before that you assume that General Stroop received orders also at his home address. On which observations do you base this assumption?

A I saw envelopes with the marking "secret command matter", which he pulled out of his pocket in the morning, and which I had not put in his brief case in the evening.

Q Did you alone take care of these matters, or did other people work on them, too?

A I do not understand this question.

Q Did you alone have anything to do with these secret orders, or did other people have to do with them, too?

A The Staff Leader, but then the letters were not presented together with the envelope.

(Hoecker-Redirect)

Q You said on direct examination that Stroop's utterance "you know what has to be done with the flyers" meant, in your opinion, that the flyers should be done away with. Is that correct?

A Yes.

Q Therefore, you expressed your personal opinion?

A I was asked for my personal opinion.

Q What is the basis of your personal opinion--which facts?

A Since the civilian population had been asked to lynch flyers publicly.

DR. RAU: Thank you.

RECROSS EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q You considered Major Best as a good SS officer, didn't you?

A As a good comrade.

Q He was a good officer, too, wasn't he?

A I can't judge him in a military way.

Q I believe you said he had to take all his orders from General Stroop, is that correct?

A Yes.

Q And he was the type of officer that would take his orders and carry them out, was he not?

A All our officers had to carry out the orders which they received from General Stroop.

Q And Major Best carried out the orders which he received, is that correct?

A Yes, he had to.

CAPTAIN VANCE: Nothing further.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Anything by the Court?

PRESIDENT: No questions by the Court. The witness is excused.

(Whereupon the witness was excused and withdrew.)

DEFENSE COUNSEL: The Accused Trummler will now begin the presentation of his case under the charge of Major Saxon.

MAJOR SAXON: May it please the Court, this accused desires to be sworn.

PRESIDENT: Do you desire to be sworn?

ACCUSED TRUMMLER: Yes.

HANS TRUMMLER, an accused, voluntarily took the stand in his own behalf and having been duly sworn, testified as follows through an interpreter:

DIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY MAJOR SAXON:

Q State your name, age and present status.

A Hans Trummler; 46 years old; prisoner at Dachau.

Q What is your home address?

A I had to leave my home. My family is in Pretsch on the Elbe in the Russian Zone.

Q What does your family consist of?

A My wife, two girls nine and six years old, and a son three years old.

Q What was the rank and in what organization did you hold that at the end of this war?

A I was a Colonel of the Police and Commander of the Security Police and the Security Service, Rhine-Westmark.

Q Now, Colonel Trummler, what service did you see in the First World War?

A. In April, 1918, at the age of 17 and a half years, I became a soldier; and I came on the first of July, 1918, to the 104th Infantry Regiment in Flandern.

Q. How long did you then stay in the military service of Germany?

A. After my return from military service, I graduated from high school, and then until 1929 I served with a volunteer corps that was part of the Government troops--the frontier battalion number 6. We were committed at that time in middle Germany to suppress internal revolts.

End ta 286, WFJ fols

Q. Now, did you become a member of the Nazi Party at any time?

A. Yes, on the first of January, 1930, I became voluntarily a member of the NSDAP. The political -- the armament and the economic conditions of Germany at that time convinced me, especially the results of the Treaty of Versailles that under the conditions which existed at that time, only the Nazi Party had to be considered by me.

Q. Now, Colonel Kraemer, will you next tell the court how many parties existed in 1929?

A. In Germany at that time we had a democratic form of government, but this could not work for that reason because it was carried by a few responsible parties, and because there existed in Germany approximately twenty-five political parties which [illegible] were considered in the Government. Under such conditions Germany was [illegible] at that time. The Nazi Party [illegible] a political [illegible] or rebuilding a strong economy [illegible] the right [illegible] party. For these reasons I joined the latter

Q After you were released from military service in 1920, tell the Court what you did next.

A Then I studied in the business school and the University at Leipzig.

Q Did you receive any degrees from these schools?

A Yes. In 1921 I passed the examination of diplom merchant in the business school there and in 1923 I made my Doctor degree of economics in the University at Leipzig.

Q Then what became your work or avocation after that?

A From 1924 until 1933 I was working then in the industrial life, in banking and industry, especially in the automotive industry.

Q Now, did you become a member of the NSDAP and if so, when?

A Yes. On the first of January, 1931, I became voluntarily a member of the NSDAP. The political -- the government and the economic conditions of Germany at that time convinced me, especially the results of the Treaty of Versailles that under the conditions which existed at that time, only the Nazi Party had to be considered by me.

Q Now Colonel Trumbler, will you just tell the Court how many parties existed in 1931?

A In Germany at that time we had a democratic form of government, but this couldn't work for that reason because it was not carried by a few large responsible parties, but because there existed in Germany approximately twenty to twenty-five various parties which followed each other continually in the government. Under such conditions Germany could not be helped at that time. The Nazi Party intended by combining all forces and by constituting a strong government power to make an end to this misery. At that time I thought to go to the right political way. For this reason I think it is a matter of course that even after the collapse of my government and people I continued freely to believe in the things in which I had believed at that time. [illegible]

Q Now Colonel, you joined the party because you believed it was best for Germany at that time, is that true?

A Yes. [illegible]

Q Did you later join the SA? [illegible]

A Yes. [illegible]

Q [illegible]

A In November, 1933, I became a SA man and in the SA during the years I got the titles of Second Lieutenant of the SA, Major of the SA and Colonel of the SA.

Q Now, will you tell the court what your occupation was from 1933 to 1935?

A In 1933 I took over, under the command of the chief of the training organization of the SA, one after another several SA schools. Until 1933 I was a member only -- an honorary member of the SA. Since 1933 I became an SA leader as my main profession.

Q Now, from 1935, in that year rather, will you tell the court what your position was -- your occupation and change of location.

A In 1935 the SA schools dissolved and I took over for a short while a school of the Reichs Agricultural Department.

Q For how long a period was that?

A Until the end of 1936.

Q Now, did you join the Allgemeine SS?

A All the leader of the Reichs Agricultural Department, the Reichs Leader of the Farmers, Darre, was SS Lieutenant General and most of the members of the Reichs Agricultural Department, who were members by their main profession, were members of the SS. In 1936 I was transferred to the SS in agreement with the leadership of the SA.

Q Now Colonel Trummler, what was your occupation in 1936 and 1937?

A In 1936 the Border Police was established in Bavaria on the Bavarian-Czech, Bavarian-Austrian and Bavarian-Swiss border line. I was a leader of this Border Police in the years 1936 and 1937. My headquarters was at Munich.

Q What was the mission of the Border Police?

A The mission of the Border Police was the general supervision of the Borders.

Q Now, just tell what happened to this Border Police finally and when?

A On the first of August, 1937, this only established Border Police was transferred in its entirety into the Security Police.

Q And what became your job then at that time?

A I took over in the Reichs Security Main Office at Berlin a department which had the assignment to organize the Border Police in the entire Reich or better on the entire border lines of the Reich, to get the personnel and to train it and to get the necessary equipment for the various headquarters. This Border Police was stationed only at the most important passageways. Customs officials supervised the entire border line and also took care of the financial aspects of border traffic. Together with this assignment in Berlin, I established in Pretzsch on the Elbe a border police school.

Q Now Colonel, just tell the court what was this Border Police work. You said it was supervision of the border, but just what does that mean?

A First in the checking of passports, the checking of baggage of travelers and in the supervision of the travelers themselves. It was to be prevented that enemies of the German States should enter the German Reich.

Q Now Colonel, how long did you continue the operation of this Border Police school at Pretsch?

A In 1939 I took over myself the leadership of this school and at the end of 1940 I gave up my position as in a technical department in the Reichs Security Main Office and took care solely of my job as head of this school.

Q At what date did your service end at that school?

A Until the thirtieth of September, 1941.

Q Then what became your next work?

A On the first of October, 1941 this Security Police School Fuerstenber in Mecklenburg was established. The Border Police School Pretsch was dissolved and I moved, with my staff, to Fuerstenber and I became the commander of this school.

Q How large was this school? How many student personnel were in it?

A On account of the war, the number varied a lot. On the average there were eight hundred pupils. But furthermore, additionally in this school were quartered, beginning in 1942, various departments of the Reichs Security Main Office which, through bomb damage in Berlin, had lost their various offices.

Q Did any persons attend this school as students other than those who were known as the Security Police?

A In this school I furthermore got a guard company of the SS Battalion Konitz and a company of the Waffen SS, which was under the direct command of the inspector of the Waffen SS at Berlin. For these two companies I was their superior officer in disciplinary matters. Students were trained and instructed only for their assignment in the Security Police.

Q How long were you in command of this school?

A Until I was nominated the commander of the Security Police and Security Service, Rhein-Westmark.

Q And that was about the first of September, 1944.

A Yes.

Q On the fifteenth of September, 1944 -- dealing with certain matters and just at present, I want to know approximately the date. Was it around the fifteenth of September, 1944? [illegible] Colonel Trumbler, [illegible] Were not at the school by your notification that you had been Q And now to get back to this school, you had two companies of Waffen SS there. Were they there for the purpose of being instructed in police methods?

A Yes, I together with my staff personnel were trained. As to the assignment of the guard company was to guard the very extended school area because the school was built in the form of an Olympic Village, that means it consisted of approximately fifty-two smaller buildings, with the stadium and rifle ranges accordingly. Since, as I said before, in my school since 1942 there were quartered offices which were bombed out in Berlin, it was necessary to guard the school accordingly. The Company of the Waffen SS, they made their own duty there from the assignment of the Waffen SS [illegible]

Q Your instruction there was concerned entirely with the instruction of the Security Police students who were sent, is that right?

A Yes.

Taltz 287 - SO 3/7 - WFJ 6

Q What was the nature of this instruction that you gave these students?

A Real instruction the students received in constitutional law, criminal law, knowledge of State Police organization, criminology, together with exercises in criminology, for instance searching of people, searching of buildings, vehicles of all kinds, to find footsteps and so on. Furthermore, they got education in German and geography. As practical training, they received a lot of sports, especially training in jiu jitsu and shooting with machine pistols and rifle, but not with medium sized or heavy guns.

Q While you were in command of that school Colonel Trumpler, was there received at the school by you notification that you had been transferred into the Armed Forces?

A In the Fall of 1943, I can't say definitely anymore whether September or October, I together with my staff personnel were transferred to the Waffen SS and were attached formally to the SS Battalion Kemita. It wasn't done with the students at our place, but the students who returned from foreign countries or who served at the front agent I knew definitely of them that they were members of the Waffen SS.

Q Now, did you continue in the Waffen SS then until the end of the war?

A Yes. At that time we received all the rights and everything else which is part of an army unit. From that time I didn't receive my civil service pay anymore, but I received pay as an army officer. We received paybooks, army identification dog tags. We received the military travelling tickets. First of all we received the orders of the post commander of the Wehrmacht and I was called to the meeting of the commander of the District Moustrelitz, together with other commanders of the Wehrmacht.

Q What rank did you receive in the Waffen SS at that time?

A SS Colonel.

Q While you operated that school there and before you were relieved from duty, were you called out on any special missions - using the school students on this mission?

A The Security Police school, that means all the schools of the Security Police, had no executive powers. That means they had no outside duties. They had to take care only of the training of their students. Only in special cases the schools too were supposed to be committed as a kind of reserve units of the Security Police. On orders of the Gauleiter Hildebrandt, he was our Gauleiter in Mecklenburg, in 1942, after the large scale air attacks on Hamburg, with three of my companies I was committed in the Fort Dessau. The Fort Dessau is located on the Elbe River on Mecklenburg territory. That was the unloading place for hundreds of people from ships and Elbe River boats, which at that time brought tens of thousands of wounded men, women and children to this place. My companies for three days and nights brought in these wounded and bandaged them until the men couldn't go on anymore and fell to the ground. Most of the wounds were burns through phosphate. I am not exaggerating when I say that it was, even for us men who were no weaklings, a terrible sight to carry out for three days wounded women and children. I myself had a boy approximately four years old on my arms and when we wanted to give him milk from a bottle, he always grabbed to the side of the bottle and we had to notice that through phosphate burns the boy was completely blind. But the most gruesome thing was a few hours later I had to tell his mother, who was also wounded, that her little boy was completely blind. That was in one committment of the School. The second committment was on the twentieth of July, 1944. Around noontime I heard about the attempt on Hitler's life. According to my orders, I ordered then an alarm for the School. In the evening around 1900 I received an urgent state call at my home by Lieutenant General Mueller, the Chief of Department Four, who gave me the order to come immediately with several companies on the shortest possible route to Berlin for the protection of the Reich Security Main Office. I put the school on alarm now and with three companies I drove to Berlin and I arrived there at 2230 at night. The companies other than the three stayed behind. In Berlin I reported to General Kaltenbrunner. A committment of these companies was not necessary, since the revolt attempt had been beaten down already.

PRESIDENT: Court will recess until 1:30 this afternoon.

(Whereupon at 1200 hours the court recessed until 1330 hours.)

AFTERNOON SESSION

(Whereupon the court reconvened at 1330 hours.)

PRESIDENT: Court will come to order.

PROSECUTION: May it please the court, let the record show that all the members of the court, all the members of the prosecution, all the members of the defense, all the accused, the reporter and interpreter are present.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: At the end of the last session, the accused Trumpler was under direct examination by Major Saxon.

PRESIDENT: You are reminded that you are still under oath.

HANS TRUMPLER, an accused, resumed the stand and after being reminded he was still under oath, testified through an interpreter as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY MAJOR SAXON (Cont'd):

Q Colonel Trumpler, when we left off at noon intermission, you had just finished explaining to the court that the companies you brought down to put down the uprising were not beaten; is there anything in connection with that particular trip you desire to tell the court?

A The night from the 20th to 21st we still spent in Berlin on the alert. My men and I did not participate in the arrangements that were made and on the morning of the 21st of July were returned to Kersting, to school.

Q Now, Colonel Trumpler to get back to something that occurred in 1937, at which time you said the border police were taken into the security police. At that time did you also become part of another SS organization?

A Yes, at that time the old Bavarian frontier police as a unit was transferred to the security police and together with that all men of the frontier police including myself were entered into the SD.

Q Now, Colonel Trumaler, stepping over to September 1944, tell the court what word or order you received from Berlin to report to Berlin?

A I received an order from the chief of office Number 1 Reich Main Security Office, one Colonel Erlinger to report to Berlin on the 15th of September 1944.

Q Did you do so?

A Yes, I did report there and in the course of a conference Colonel Erlinger informed me that I had been appointed the commanding officer of security police for SD in the Rhein-Westmark district under Dr. Kaltenbrunner. I might add here that this assignment surprised me completely since in the course of an inspection on the 21st of July 1944 Dr. Kaltenbrunner told me this school was a job which I ought to keep for years.

Q When did you then report to Dr. Kaltenbrunner?

A I had a talk with Dr. Kaltenbrunner in the afternoon of the 16th of September. That part lasted for about two hours.

Q Can you give the court the highlights of the conference between you and Kaltenbrunner at that time as relating to your future duties?

A Dr. Kaltenbrunner gave me a birds' eye view of my new job, this particularly with a view to the fact that Wehrkreis 12 was an area particularly under air attack and that the enemy was close to the Reich's border even at that time and in a conversation of these facts he also gave me a set of rights and duties which exceeded the normal rights and duties of an inspector.

Q Continue by telling the court the details of the duties you had performed under this new command in Wehrkreis 12.

A In the first place, there were two security police headquarters in Rhein-Westmark -- the inspector of Wiesbaden and the commanding officer of Westmark-Lorraine. The former inspector of Wiesbaden, my comrade Semann was called to Berlin for the organization of the duty frontier protective police and the until then commanding officer of the security police in the SD for Westmark-Lorraine, the SS Brigadier General Dunkern received a job of commanding officer for security police in Lorraine and the police president in Metz, and since there was supposed to be only one commanding officer of each, as the case might be, inspector of security police in the SD in each Wehrkreis and SS and police leader, these jobs were joined to one under my command.

Q Now, will you just continue for a little further, Colonel Trumbler, with the specific duties which he gave you with respect to this particular area, exclusive of anything to do with fliers.

A I received the further authority of establishing or closing down, such as the need might arise, I also received the authority to replace office chief by more suitable men if incumbents proved not suitable, and I received the further authority to exceed my normal disciplinary powers which would be due to my job, and maintain discipline under any condition and any means at my disposal and I received, in the fourth place, the authority to make any changes along financial or technical lines to maintain official business. To give an example, I could use my own judgment in the distribution of vehicles and weapons if the need might arise. Those authorities and duties were assigned to all commanding officers if the areas they were working in were classified as emergency areas.

Q Now, Colonel, you went over there then as a commander of the area and not as an inspector as Semann had been is that correct?

A That's right.

Q Now, what did Kaltenbrunner say to you relative to the effort to meet the air war in that area and what action you were to take regarding certain fliers?

A At first Dr. Kaltenbrunner gave me a brief view of the effects of the strengthened attacks of the allied air force, which had commenced in 1944. He particularly expostulated that my job in Wehrkreis 12 would be an especially difficult one, that is the reason it was called Wehrkreis 12, it was the area through which most of the Allied planes passed in and out of Germany and also because particularly heavy air raids took place in that area. After that Dr. Kaltenbrunner explained to me that the Reich government would now begin more energetic measures to combat air warfare. Subsequent thereto he gave me the unambiguous shooting order concerning terror fliers and under terror fliers he understood fliers who attacked nonmilitary civilian objectives, or who flying at low altitude strafed civilians, therefore not including bombers in general, nor including fliers who bombed or strafed military objectives. This order appeared to me completely surprising and I dared, I want to emphasize the word "dared" to ask the chief of security police whether this order might cause any complications in international law. Upon that Dr. Kaltenbrunner answered me in a very sharp tone of voice that was none of my business — this is literally what he said, "We in Berlin had examined the matter and decided upon this." This "we" I had to understand as the rather close circle of officers around Adolf Hitler, and its members unquestionably were Himmler, Bormann, Keitel, Jodl and also Dr. Kaltenbrunner. I was familiar with the fact that Dr. Kaltenbrunner was permitted to take his problems to the Fuehrer personally and I also found out in the course of a conference in Berlin that he was at the Fuehrer's rather frequently, so when he said "we" I had to assume with certainty that means the Reich government and in all possibility, even the Fuehrer. For that reason I was silent and for that reason I had to accept this order as a legal one applicable to me. It was not my job as a police colonel to examine the lawfulness or unlawfulness of an order decided upon by the Reich government. I fully realized at that time and lately in this court it is my deepest conviction that I would have suffered the most severe penalty, that is, the death penalty if I refused to carry out this order. I was very familiar with the fact that the Reich Fuehrer of the SS had the most severe penalties pronounced and carried out against high ranking SS and police officers without any SS and police court.

Q Colonel Trummler, did you ever again during the rest of the war challenge that order?

A I would like to add something else, please.

Q Continue.

A After that I had a conference with the chief of the Reich main security office Number 4, Major General Dr. Muller and chief of Office Number 5, Colonel Dr. Panziger and in course of these conferences Major General Muller repeatedly gave me this shooting order.

Q Now, Colonel Trummler, did you ever again after you first questioned Dr. Kaltenbrunner regarding the validity of this order, ever challenge the order again throughout the war?

A No, I was in no position to do so.

Q Colonel Trummler, will you give the court an example or two of what you understood from Kaltenbrunner constituted a terror flier?

A I explained it already. Do you want me to explain it again?

Q An example as you gave me the other day.

A Under terror fliers he meant fliers who shot only at civilian objectives or low flying planes shooting at civilians. As an example, that means the following: If a low flying plane shoots at a peasant, a farmer who is escaping, and that would occur, then he is a terror flier because that farmer is not directly involved in warfare, but if a bomber squadron shall, we say attacks an ammunition dump and in bombing that ammunition dump hits a few civilian houses inthat vicinity, then these are not terror fliers, because it is perfectly obvious that no flying outfit can aim close enough, particularly in view of ground defenses, in order not to hit some civilian objectives in the vicinity. If there is a column of civilians walking along a country road because they had been bombed out and that airplane fires at that column of civilians, then he is a terror flier, but if a low flying airplane strafes a column of infantry which is going along a country road and in doing so also hits some civilians, then he is not a terror flier. That is it.

Q Tell the court about that example you gave me about trains being strafed in which the strafing itself did not constitute a terror flier attack.

A The air corps men had great difficulty in determining whether a train was a military train or civilian train, that is obvious, but in Bermeshiel that is located in the Eifel Mountains, we had the experience that civilian trains which might at the most contain very few furloughed army men were daily strafed by enemy planes. Those are terror fliers.

Q Now, Colonel Trummler, before you took over this command, had you ever held any command of a defensive area before in the German Reich?

A No.

Q Now, after you talked to Koltenbrunner some two hours, then you spoke of talking to General Muller. For how long a time did you talk to him about your future duties?

A About one hour; an hour and a half.

Q And Kaltenbrunner's direction to you was that reiterated by General Muller?

A Yes, the shooting order was repeated to me by General Muller.

Q What did both Kaltenbrunner and Muller give as orders or authority as to how you should maintain peace and cooperation with the civilian population, that is, the German civilian population in your area?

A That question is a little bit difficult, Major. Do you mean what right and authority I had to maintain order?

Q Over the civilian population of this new area?

A The military and economic situation of Germany had deteriorated considerably during 1944 without any question and for that reason, in a nation consisting of no less than 80,000,000 people it was clear that there should be some element who might turn to revolution or disorder. It is just as obvious that any state which is fighting for its existence and very life must do everything in its power to maintain peace and order behind the lines. For that reason, Dr. Kaltenbrunner told me that if the necessity would arise it would also be my duty to support the Higher SS and Police Leader in maintaining peace and order and by all the means at my disposal. That case, however, did not arise.

Q What was said to you about placing you and your personnel at the disposition of the Wehrmacht, if necessary?

A There were some more orders here if I might mention them. These however, were not all given to me at this time by Dr. Kaltenbrunner but would arrive during the month later when I had taken over my command. The order or orders would have the following general purpose: Firstly, the maintenance of normal business among the security police by all available means; in the second place the maintenance of orders in this area, also by all means, the support of the party and of the military in the fulfillment of their tasks by the use of all means available.

(Trummler-direct)

Q When did you then proceed to Wiesbaden?

A I left Furstenberg on 19 September 1944 and arrive at Frankfurt in the evening of 19 September 1944. I spent the night there and took over my new job on the 20th September 1944.

Q Who was it you first contacted when you reached Frankfurt relative to your duties?

A I went to Wiesbaden.

Q Didn't you go to Frankfurt first?

A Yes. At night I called up Breder and spent the night with him.

Q Prior to your meeting on 18 September with Kaltenbrunner, had you at any time received any orders or instructions or information relative to the disposition of flyers?

A As the commanding officer in Furstenberg I received the orders of the Reichs Security Office directly but not all of them and I might add here that I did read the article of Dr. Goebbels in Das Reich. In Furstenberg I also received the information copy of this so called non-interference order of the police.

Q Whose orders were they, Colonel?

A That was the order of the Reichsfuehrer SS Himmler.

Q Did you pass that on to the students in your school there?

A No. These orders came to me only in the form of information copies but of course my officers did find out about it. They were not handed down to the companies because that was not part of the instructions.

Q When did you and where did you next learn of these next so called orders or decrees put out about flyers after the Kaltenbrunner decree?

A When I took charge in Wiesbaden I issued an order to have all the most important orders of the last few weeks collected so that I could familiarize myself with them. At that occasion I found out about the Bormann orders, and about the orders that all flyers were to be turned over to Oberursel by the Security Police.

Q When you assumed your duties at Wiesbaden how much personnel did you find that were to serve under you there in the whole Wehrkreis area?

A That was a total of 6,200 including the Duty Protective Organisation. That did include also all Auxiliary Forces and the Letter Censorship Office of Frankfurt on the Main which had bout 2,000 men.

Q Approximately how many sub-offices did you have?

A You cannot answer this question definitely because the number of offices varied but if I include the offices of the border duty protective service I might come to 120.

Q How far was your headquarters in Wiesbaden from those of General Streep?

A About a fifteen minute walk.

Q Did you know General Streep before you assumed this new command?

A No. I had never seen him before.

Q How soon after you entered your new duties was it that you met General Streep?

A I started on my job on the 20th September and it might have been on the 23rd or 24th of September when I reported to General Streep as starting my duties but it was not possible at that time because he was on an official trip then.

Q How soon did you meet him after you arrived there?

A On the 23rd or 24th was the first time I saw him, after three or four days.

Q What was the arrangement or the order of procedure in Wehrkreis 12 so far as conferences were concerned between yourself and General Streep. I mean, how many were held or were they at stated intervals or periods over a period of a month at a time?

A I do not understand.

Q Was there an arrangement made whereby conferences were held between you and General Streep at stated intervals?

(Trumbler-direct)

A You could not call it regular intervals but it might have been about once a week. General Streep would hold conferences and I was compelled to participate in them. These were the so called commanding officers conferences and subsequent thereto either the commanding officer of the regular police or myself would get in on conf-rences alone.

Q How were these conferences arranged, who called them?

A They would take place by order of General Streep.

Q Were your relations there at first amiable and friendly as far as General Streep was concerned?

A I was never able to get any personal relations established between myself and General Streep. Our relations were also on a technical and strictly business basis. To get anything like that done our differences in character and differences in opinion of our jobs were too diverging.

Q After you had been there a week or so did you andthe General have some kind of falling out which necessitated your calling Kaltenbrunner.

A General Streep's attitude was that he personally wanted to have all the communications with the army headquarters and the gauleiters.

Q Continue.

A The opinion of General Streep was in contradiction to my job as commanding officer of the security police because it was one of my most important jobs to maintain communications and contact between the security police and the party and the army. The first time we had a disagreement on this matter was shortly after I arrived and was compelled to demand a decision from Dr. Kaltenbrunner on the matter and he, of course, told me I had the authority and in fact the duty to establish correct contact with the party and the army.

Q Did you tell Dr. Kaltenbrunner at that time that you would like to be relieved on account of that?

A Yes.

(Translator-direct)

Q What did Dr. Kaltenbrunner tell you?

A Stick to it.

Q From whom did you get orders to carry out the duties you had in Mohntreis 12 primarily?

A Primarily I received my orders directly from Reichs Main Security office in Berlin and secondarily from the Higher S" and Police Leader, General Stroop.

Q Was there anyone else who could give you orders in that area?

A No.

Q After you had become established there will you give the Court some idea how many communications you had with your headquarters in Berlin either by telephone, teletype, or otherwise? [illegible] had written communications with Berlin, telephone, teletype [illegible] and radio and whenever decisions had to be made I could make a phone call either to Dr. Kaltenbrunner or to some of the chiefs of the offices.

Q These orders that you mentioned a while ago, was it through these communications that you continued to receive these additional orders as to your duties in this area? [illegible]

A Yes.

Q At these meetings that you had with General Stroop was the disposition or treatment of terror flyers talked over between you and he?

A I would like to establish the following first: I would like to say that all the participants of these conferences, including General Stroop, and myself, were of the opinion that something, that anything had to be done against these terror flyers. Now, that was the general opinion of the participants in those conferences. In addition to this general opinion, however, General Stroop told me unambiguously, in the course of a conference between the two of us, that terror flyers were to be shot. I was not talking about individual cases with him. In the course of that that was his general opinion.

Q Was that an order by General Streep in Wehrkreis 12 that terror flyers were to be shot? Was that an order to you?

A In those conferences with me I could consider it only as an order. A Higher SS and Police Leader as a commanding officer, just like I, couldn't in the course of conferences say "I would like to have somebody shot". He would have to say, "They are to be shot" and these are orders.

Q These orders you got from General Streep were not in conflict with the ones you got from your own government, is that not so?

A I received my first orders from Dr. Kaltenbrunner and the orders from General Streep were only in the nature of confirmation to me. Since I was thoroughly convinced that General Streep had received the same orders from a higher headquarters, probably from the Reichsfuehrer, I was also familiar with the fact that the Reich government must have sent the orders for the shooting of flyers down through channels. Otherwise such organizations as the regular police or the labor service could not have gone around shooting flyers too.

Q Calling your attention particularly to the charges in the bill of particulars which are made up of ten different charges in which your name is mentioned in each one of them, I want to ask you if you have [illegible] these ever?

A Yes.

(Truebler-direct)

THE WITNESS: No. I feel not guilty of this charge.

QUESTIONS BY MAJOR SAXON:

Q Referring you to charge number two and the particulars thereunder, what is the extent of your guilt in that charge?

CAPTAIN VANCE: Object on the same grounds.

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

THE WITNESS: In the first place I had been a member of the Nazi party since the first of January 1928, however, I had no leading positions in the NSDAP who soever. I was not a deputy nor an orator. Then I belonged to the SS since 1935, the Allgemeine SS and to the SD since the first of August 1937 and in the fourth place I belonged to the secret state police on account of the transfer of the frontier plice to it. Also since the first of August 1936, therefore point number one does not apply in charge number two but I did belong to the other organisations. Might I explain something as to point number one? I might say that until the time I took my job in Wiesbaden I did not know General Streep nor any of his staff, or Colonel Hinmann or any of his staff or anybody of the staff that I took charge of in Wiesbaden myself. There were only two chiefs of offices in this area that I did know and one was the chief of the Kripo Office Koblenz and criminal counseller Sillmann who used to be the adjutant of the school, the officers school of the security police and SS Lt. Colonel Dr. Christmann whom I had known from athletic activities of the security police. And of all the accused sitting here I did not know one personally and only later did I find out that of the accused here there were two who knew me, they had been students of mine, one of them in Prissch and the other one from Furstenberg and those are accused numbers 21 and 22.

(Truebler-direct)

Q Col. Trummler, referring you again to Charge No. 2, were you ever guilty of any of the crimes that are commonly charged to these organizations that are named in Charge No. 2, some of the organizations to which you happened to belong?

CAPTAIN VANCE: Same objection, may it please the court.

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

THE WITNESS: I don't know of any such participation.

QUESTIONS BY MAJOR SAXON:

Q You have read Charge No. 3, Col. Trummler?

A Yes.

Q Are you guilty of any offense charged there?

CAPTAIN VANCE: Same objection, may it please the court?

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

THE WITNESS: I had nothing to do with it. The only place I met the Comrade Lagnak was here and the only time I found out about this case was after I was served charges here.

QUESTIONS BY MAJOR SAXON:

Q In reference to Charge No. 3, Col. Trummler, and some subsequent charges here, what control, if any, did you have over the Ordnungspolizei?

A I had no power of command whatever over the regular police and, conversely, the commanding officer of the regular police had no authority whatever over our Security Police. If there is anything at all that is perfectly clear about this chart over here, then it is the channel of command of the regular police and Security Police and the fact they are run completely separately.

Q Now, Col. Trummler, referring you to Charge No. 4, will you tell the court in your own words what transpired there in your office on the 19th of October 1944?

A On the 19th of October 1944, according to the reports that my adjutant made to me, a terror flier was turned over to us by the Rural Police together with a proper report of the Rural Police, of course. In spite of this I issued the order that my adjutant, Capt. Wrede, and I think also my investigating officer, Major Dr. Schilling, were to interrogate this flier one more time.

Q Just a moment, Col. Trummler, what was the substance of the report you received from the gendarmerie that indicated that this particular flier was a terror flier?

CAPTAIN VANCE: We object to his leading the witness.

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

THE WITNESS: I didn't read this report myself. I was merely told by my adjutant that the Rural Police had turned this flier and report concerning this flier over to us, but in spite of this I issued the order that Capt. Wrede and probably also Major Dr. Schilling, were to interrogate the man. Upon that, Capt. Wrede reported to me that the report of the Rural Police had been substantiated and that this man had been correctly established as a terror flier.

Q Col. Trummler, how had these men established the facts from interrogating this flier that supported the report of the gendarmerie?

A I myself didn't do the interrogating.

Q But what did Capt. Wrede tell you.

A The report of the Rural Police indicates that the man is a terror flier. Then this man, upon my order, was interrogated one more time in my office -- that is, not in my room, of course, I didn't see the flier, and apparently his testimony confirmed that. There was no reason for me to doubt the correctness of my officers' reports, at any rate, not until the time that some officer actually tells an untruth.

Q After this fact was established to your satisfaction that this flier was a terror flier, what did you next do?

A I called up the Chief of the State Police branch office at Wiesbaden, Criminal Councillor Luckhard, and I ordered the detailing of two men to carry out the shooting of this flier. In doing so I properly carried out the order from Berlin. I am not one of those persons who did not desire to remember certain things two years after the collapse. I had transmitted this order to down below on account of the unambiguous order I had received from Dr. Kaltenbrunner.

Q In response to your request to Kriminalrat Luckhard, what next occurred?

A The Criminal Secretary, I think that was his rank, Criminal Secretary, Fraund reported to me as did SS M/Sgt. Fuehr, and to these two men, and particularly to Fraund because Fuehr unquestionably had come along only as a driver, I transmitted this shooting order, and as far as I know the shooting then took place in the evening.

Q When did you next get any further word on this?

A I think Fraund and Fuehr were up in my place one more time that evening and reported the carrying out of the order but I am not quite sure of the fact that the next morning 1st Sgt. Hoehler came to my place with a proper report of the mission being completed from Criminal Secretary Luckhard.

Q Was Kriminalrat Luckhard one of your subordinates?

A Yes.

Q And were Fraund and Fuehr your subordinates?

A Yes. Of course, they were correctly under Criminal Councillor Luckard but in the large group, under me.

(Trummler-direct)

Q They were under you directly or indirectly?

A Yes.

Q What if these men had refused to obey your order, what would you have done with them?

A I might say the following to that -- as long as I had the honor of wearing a German uniform nobody had ever refused to carry out one of my orders. Had this happened in the vicinity of the front in such places as Saarbrucken or Trier, I would have had his insignia removed, removed him from office and shot after a sentence by a summary court, within 24 hours. Had this happened in an area further to the rear where comparative peace prevailed, I would have, in the same manner, had him arrested, removed from his position and turned over to an SS court with a request for prompt and severe punishment. I and all other commanding officers of the Security Police had received this authority from Dr. Kaltenbrunner and I would have made use of this in any case arising.

Q I now call your attention, Col. Trummler, to Charge No. 5 and ask you to state to the court the facts, so far as your participation therein is concerned.

A All right. Criminal Councillor Luckard reported to me on the 30th that the Rural Police had turned over a flier to the Gestapo branch office in Wiesbaden with a proper report. I'd like to put something in here. Wiesbaden itself had only one large scale bombing attack and sporadic bomb droppings daily, but the area surrounding Wiesbaden was flown over by a low-flying aircraft daily and strafed. That report came to me by telephone from Luckhard. Upon that I gave the order to have this flier interrogated one more time, to both Capt. Wrede, my adjutant, and Luckhard. After it had been reported to me from Wrede that this man was actually a terror flier who had been strafing the vicinity of Wiesbaden, I gave Luckhard the order to have two men sent to my headquarters, and Luckhard again sent me Secretary Fraund and Fuehr, and in conformance with my higher orders, I gave both of them the order to have the flier shot. That order was carried out. About evening these men, Fraund and Fuehr, came to my office. There was an air raid alarm going on and I was in the air raid shelter of my office and there Fraund and Fuehr reported the carrying out of the order. Upon that, and in the presence of these two men, I gave Capt. Wrede the order to have the execution of this flier reported to the Higher SS and Police. This order was carried out. I was standing next to the telephone as Capt. Wrede was reporting the shooting of this flier to the Higher SS and Police Leader. I wasn't able to determine whether he was on the telephone himself but I assume that it probably was somebody on his staff.

Q Col. Trumpler, is there anything further in Charge 5 that you have to say in connection with that?

A I wouldn't know.

Q Now, Col. Trumpler, you have read Charge 5, have you not?

A Yes.

Q And you have heard the evidence as given here by the witnesses regarding such participation as they said you had in that charge?

A Yes.

Q Will you just tell the court the facts as they are, so far as your memory is concerned?

A I think that was the 15th of March or the 20th. I don't know exactly.

Q The 15th of March?

A The 15th of February, that's right. I had reduced the correspondence between my offices to a minimum just permissible within the Security Police. On account of this it was necessary for me to occasionally talk to or telephone the various office chiefs in order to talk the most important matters over. In that way I am sure I often had telephone calls to Major Girke. In these conversations all important incidents and regulations were discussed. I personally am not sure whether I remember this conversation because in that big area that I had under me and in what you might easily call an excited time, I received quite a number of telephones from outside offices and it is quite possible that Major Girke told me on the telephone that day that the State Police of Darmstadt had arrested a terror flier in Bensheim, and it is also possible that upon that I told Major Girke that this flier was to be shot in accordance with a general order that I had. By the way, there was no necessity for this telephone call anyway because Girke had received Dr. Kaltenbrunner's order quite a while before that because of a conference verbally.

Q Col. Trumpler, had Girke never called you he still had your standing order to execute terror fliers, is that correct?

A He would, of course, have been bound to carry out Dr. Kaltenbrunner's order which he had once before received during the course of a conversation in Wiesbaden.

Q You intend to honestly tell the court here, Colonel, that you just don't remember this one conversation but that he had a standing order of Kaltenbrunner's, through you, to execute terror fliers?

A Through me, yes, and it is also perfectly obvious that Hellenbreich, Stattman and Haaf had to obey Kaltenbrunner's orders. I'd like to point out to the court, as has been pointed out here many times before, that discipline within the SS was strictly adhered to and breaches thereof severely punished and punished all the more if the men concerned were regular SS men or police men.

Q Col. Trummler, you have read over Charge 7, have you not?

A Yes.

Q Did you have anything to do with the alleged facts that are charged in that charge?

A I'd like to say that I met the officers and non commissioned officers mentioned in this charge only here and that it was also here that I heard about this incident for the first time. That time doesn't have anything to do with the Security Police.

Q You had nothing to do with the offenses charged on the 22nd of February 1945 that are charged in this charge?

A No.

Q You have read over Charge No. 8?

A Yes.

Q Did you have anything to do with the alleged offenses charged in there?

A No. I want to state the same thing here as to Charge 7.

Q You have read over Charge 9?

A Yes.

Q Did you have anything to do with the alleged offenses charged there?

A I had nothing whatever to do with the alleged offenses charged there. I had nothing whatever to do with the "W" School and nothing to do with the commission of the crime, either. The only way I met Major Rost was because of the staff meetings in Gen. Streep's office building and of course, I had no authority of command whatsoever over Major Rost or his men.

Q Did you ever hear of it before the end of the war?

A I only found out about Charges 5, 7, 8 and 9 when the charges were served here.

Q Now, referring you to Charge No. 10 in which an offense is alleged to have been committed on the 24th of March 1945, at that time was the accused that are named in there, exhibit of Jurgen Streop and Otto Sumann, still under your command?

A They were still under my command, Charge 10.

Q Was the standing order of Gen. Kaltenbrunner which you had transmitted on to Ritze and Hellenbreich in effect at that time?

A I'd like to state the following for Charge 10 -- In Charge 10, exactly as in Charge 6, the order issued by General Kaltenbrunner and transmitted by me concerning the shooting of terror fliers, was in effect. However, in the second place, there was no possibility of myself receiving a report of this incident since the communications had been broken between the Darmstadt State Police office located in Bensheim and my headquarters. All communication was cut and the American army, with its armored spearheads had already penetrated Gross Gerau and thus broken the line between Wiesbaden and Mannheim. Therefore, there was no chance for Major Ritze to make a report to me and it is also definite that at that time SS Major Hellenbreich and Ritze, SS T/Sgt Stattmann, and 1st Sgt Reif were among my subordinates.

PRESIDENT: Court will recess for thirty minutes, during (Whereupon at 1500 hours court recessed until 1550 hours, [illegible]

(Trumler-direct)

[illegible] I have already explained that I always took to the [illegible] between Groos Gerau [illegible] and Gross Flytz. I [illegible] these flyers must be dropped [illegible] military [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] to obey Kaltenbrunner's orders?

A That I would have been shot. Might I add something to that?

Q To be short.

A At that time in an emergency to my people it would have been impossible for me as a police official to refuse to obey orders that were given to me in a lawful manner by my government and I have already testified that I did and I had to consider this order a lawful one.

Q Now Colonel Trumbler, outside of the terror flyers that [illegible], you ordered executed, that you testified to here, did you ever, during your tenure of office in Weistrogia XII ever order the execution of any other flyer?

A No. I have already explained and I always stuck to this distinction between bomber flyers and terror flyers. I never ordered bomber flyers shot who dropped his bombs on military objectives. In fact, that would have been against the orders I issued. [illegible] was such that it would have [illegible]

Pages 1 - 1 of 1

(Thereupon court was opened at 1530 hours.)

THE COURT: Court will come to order.

THE RECORDER: Let the record show that all members of the court, all members of the prosecution, all members of the defense, all of the counsel and the reporter and interpreter are present.

THE COURT: At the end of the last session the [illegible] counsel [illegible] on the stand on direct examination [illegible] polygraph [illegible] and being reminded that he was still under oath, testified [illegible] as follows: [illegible] CAPT [illegible], as counsel, voluntarily [illegible] the stand [illegible] polygraph [illegible] and being reminded that he was still under oath, testified as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION (Cont'd.)

BY [illegible]

Q. Colonel [illegible], I think you previously answered this question but I want to make sure that there's no doubt, have you ever had any [illegible] with [illegible] or any of his associates [illegible] any of the matters [illegible] in this case?

Q You have testified here that Breder was under your command at Frankfurt, is that correct?

A Yes.

Q Will you tell the court what a part of Breder's duties were at Frankfurt and Oberursel?

A Breder was the Chief of the State Police Office in Frankfurt on the Main and in Oberursel it was his job to interrogate flyers about political conditions in their home countries, which flyers he would receive from the prisoner of war camp in Oberursel and I am sure that Major Breder and his men conducted these interrogations in the proper manner and I want to point out that I myself would have severely punished any one of my men had I found out that he mistreated or beat any flyers or prisoners of war, and the court can be sure that if any of my men had ever robbed a body they would have been shot by me, of course to the extent to which I would find out about these cases.

Q When you had this conference on the eighteenth of September, 1944, with Kaltenbrunner, was any mention made to you by Kaltenbrunner as to the intended or hoped for result from the execution of terror flyers?

A Doctor Kaltenbrunner told me that he thought these shootings, which after all couldn't be kept secret, would also become known to the countries outside of Germany and would serve as an example. That was his opinion.

Q Why weren't these shootings carried out in the open, in the public square?

A The excitement of the population caused by the air-raids and increased by the Normann regulations and the propaganda in general was such that it would have been increased even more had we performed those executions in public. I don't want to go into another discussion of the conditions here at the time but one thing is quite definite and there is a limit to strength of anybody, especially if he lives in a country that has suffered so from bombings and especially if he has suffered at the front. I myself had the following experience in Wiesbaden about the end of February or the beginning of March, 1945. There was a dog fight between German and American fighter planes in the air. It was in the afternoon about 1600 hours. I was just about to go to Frankfurt on the Main with my driver and I was located at the end of town. There was some gardens, all gardens around there. A German fighter plane was shot down by an American plane because of this fight. This German flyer jumped off in a parachute. But the population had probably been unable to determine that the man shot down was a German flyer. The flyer came down with the parachute in Wiesbaden in the direction of Frankfurt on the Main, landing about five or six hundred meters away from me in a garden. The flyer hadn't reached the ground yet when the population, which was inside, was already coming out carrying sticks and clubs and the soldiers had their side arms in their hands because they all thought it was an enemy flyer and when the German flyer actually reached the ground, the first civilians who arrived at the scene started beating upon him with clubs. I ran over there over to this flyer with my driver, Schade. The German flying sergeant kept shouting, "I am a German." Upon that I pulled the man away from him promptly and I took this flyer, who had received quite a few blows, up to my office and had him calmed down a little bit first, and what I have told you just now this SS Sergeant Schade, my driver, will be able to confirm this under oath any time you wish him to. With this little example I am merely trying to show what the attitude of the population was during those last few months, particularly the population of the damaged areas.

(Trumbler - Direct)

Q Now Colonel Trummler, did you have occasion to personally witness a strafing attack on a non-military objective near Trier?

A I don't want to burden the court and waste its time once more with a discussion of these air raids but wish to state that many time during my inspections I myself have been fired on by airplanes but in this case the firing on me should not be considered terror flyers, but I did see also that they did shoot at civilian populations in many places and at various times. Because I wasn't in uniform, I was a civilian.

Q Do you recall Colonel Trummler, an attack on a train that you mentioned to me somewhere near Trier?

A I have already mentioned, near Hermeskiel. I went through that town quite frequently whenever I had to get to Trier and there I myself observed two or three times and was told by the population that a train carrying civilian populations, which arrived from Trier about two or three o'clock every day, was strafed daily and that civilians were wounded daily.

Q During your tour of duty in Wehrkreis XII, without going into detail, just in round numbers, can you tell the court approximately how many strafing attacks you saw yourself, that were against non-military objectives?

A Well, that was at least a hundred times. By that I also mean the firing at individual civilians. It was the main area through which planes flew into Germany and it was also a front line area.

Q I will ask you whether or not the execution of these flyers by shooting under the laws of Germany was considered honorable?

A The shooting of these flyers was on carrying out the order passed through from above and in my opinion, as a soldier and police official, the carrying out of a lawful order is not a dishonorable act.

Q I haven't made myself clear. I mean the method of execution. Was that method here in Germany honorable or not?

A We would have done it another way in peace time. This method was conditioned by the circumstances and conditioned by the order.

Q Colonel Trumpler, who was your immediate predecessor in Wiesbaden.

A That was Lieutenant Colonel Hiebens. He was not the commanding officer though. He merely carried on the business of the office from the time my comrade Scmann left until I took over.

MAJOR SAXON: That is all.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Dr. Rau will cross examine on behalf of Stroop.

QUESTIONS BY DR. RAU:

Q If I remember correctly, you stated you were taken into the Waffen SS in the Fall of 1933?

A Yes.

Q As a Colonel of the Waffen SS?

A Yes.

Q From the outfit SS Training Battalion Konitz?

A Yes.

Q Where was this training battalion stationed?

A In Komits.

Q In 1943 also?

A Yes.

Q Was this training battalion an outfit of the Waffen SS?

A As far as I know, it was.

Q Was it not an outfit of the Security Service?

A I don't know about that.

Q Who was the commanding officer of that outfit?

A I didn't know him. It changed quite a few times.

Q Did you have any papers from that outfit?

A Yes.

Q What kind of papers?

A I had a service record, a paybook, from that outfit. Not only I but all personnel.

Q And who had signed that service record?

A The service records were sent to us from Komits. I think some Lieutenant Colonel signed them but I don't remember it exactly. They were filled out in our place then.

Q Do you mean to tell us that a full Colonel would be attached to a battalion that is normally commanded by a Major or sometimes a Lieutenant Colonel.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I pray the Court's judgment. That has nothing to do with any testimony on direct examination.

PRESIDENT: Sustained.

QUESTIONS BY DR. RAU:

Q Was it not a fact that the SS Training Battalion Komits was organized in Komits in the Fall of 1944?

A If I, as a police Colonel, told you Dr. Rau that I, together with my whole personnel was attached to that Battalion and received proper papers from it in the Fall of 1943, that is enough for me and also, I believe, for this court. As to whether its name was changed later on, I don't know.

Q Are you familiar with the fact that I worked as defense counsel for the Waffen SS in Nuernberg?

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I pray the court's judgment. That is absolutely immaterial.

PRESIDENT: Sustained.

Q What was the purpose of the conferences of the commanding officers?

A These conferences would have several subjects of discussion, among others the activation of the so-called security lines, the organization of protective police outfits for combat, the questions whether the gauleiters or political officials should receive police powers, or the relationship to the Wehrmacht might be discussed. At any rate, all kinds of subjects with all kinds of significance were discussed.

Q Did these command conferences also serve to have the more important orders announced or discussed?

A Only in part. In general, only those subjects which directly affected Wehrkreis 12 would be discussed.

Q Would you consider an order to the effect that terror fliers should be shot in Wehrkreis 12 as such a subject?

A That would depend on who is participating in this particular command conference, and whether this order had to or was permitted to be handed down to all the men present at the conference.

Q Was it not required for such orders to be published at command conferences at which at least the commanding officer of the regular police was present?

A I don't know what you are after, Dr. Ham.

Q I can imagine that.

A I have to differentiate here between two flyer orders. One is the one that I received from my superior headquarters and the other order or the other orders are those which General Stroop issued either on his own initiative or upon orders from his higher headquarters.

Q I beg your pardon. I think you have been evading my question. The order of yours is a government measure, is it not?

A Yes.

Q Now, was it not necessary for such a government measure to be discussed at a command conference in the presence of the commanding officer of the regular police?

A On the contrary, the most important orders that I would receive from Berlin I had discussed with General Stroop alone after one of these command conferences, and, in fact, I always declined to discuss orders for the security police in the presence of a member of other branches. That was true not only concerning flyer matters, but also for instance in the case of the security line.

Q Who was present when you informed General Stroop of those orders that terror fliers were to be shot?

A About that I talked to General Stroop alone several times.

Q Why were you talking to him alone?

A That was an order from Dr. Kaltenbrunner to me.

Q How did this order from Dr. Kaltenbrunner read?

A Terror fliers are to be shot. And I have already testified as to what this concept of terror fliers is constituted in this case.

Q I think we have not been understanding each other. What I want to know is whether Kaltenbrunner also gave you the order to discuss this matter with General Stroop alone.

A It was not common practice for the chief of the security police to give instructions to his commanding officers as to the manner in which they are to discuss them or the manner in which they are to transmit them.

Q Im that case, after these answers I will have to repeat my question. Why did you transmit this order to General Stroop when he was alone?

MAJOR SAXON: I object to that as repetition.

PRESIDENT: Objection sustained.

QUESTIONS BY DR. RAU:

Q To whom did you transmit that order?

A I transmitted it to the chiefs of the state police offices Trier, Koblenz, Saarbruecken, Neustadt, and Darmstadt.

Q Did you transmit it to Frankfurt also?

A I talked about it to Breder.

Q What did you talk about with Breder?

A That fliers are to be shot. Terror fliers, of course.

Q Did you just discuss that or did you give them a direct order?

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I think this is going far beyond the scope of the original examination. Breder is not an accused, and this is no way to attack the credibility of a witness.

DR. RAU: But Breder is one of General Stroop's subordinates, and therefore I think I have the right to clarify the matter as to which of General Stroop's subordinates this order was given to.

DR. BUERGER: I want to state here that it is not correct, and that General Stroop has denied here that the Sipo was under him. I further ask this question since Breder has already testified here, in order to test the credibility of this witness.

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

MAJOR SAXON: I think the counsellor should change the form of his question and state what is a fact. We all know before this court that Breder was a subordinate of Trummler's, and not a subordinate of Stroop's. He should state his question and not in a back-handed method, as he is stating it, that he gave this order to Stroop, and now he is giving it to a subordinate of Stroop's. Both premises are wrong.

QUESTIONS BY DR. RAU:

Q Did you give Breder the order to shoot terror fliers?

MAJOR SAXON: I object to that as repetition.

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

THE WITNESS: As far as I know I did.

QUESTIONS BY DR. RAU:

Q Apparently you are not quite sure of that.

A I just said, as far as I know I did.

Q How come you are sure in the other cases and not sure in this case of Frankfurt?

A Because I have very little to do with Frankfurt, but on the other hand I was very much together with the other state police chief and we talked the matters over, because Frankfurt wasn't a war area, where Trier and Saarbruecken were war areas even at the time I arrived.

Q Was Darmstadt a war area, too?

A Became a war area very shortly thereafter.

Q Before Frankfurt or after Frankfurt?

A A long time before Frankfurt. That is obvious, because the enemy came from the West.

Q Aren't Frankfurt and Darmstadt just about the same distance from the frontier?

A The Rhine happens to be in between, and since the enemy was coming from the West he had to hit Darmstadt first. Then he had to cross the Rhine and then the Main, and then he had Frankfurt on the Main.

Q Now, after this shooting of the fliers took place, did you report that to Berlin?

A Yes.

Q What did you report to Berlin?

A I made this report by radio and also through conversations with the chief of office No. 1, Aldinger.

Q One further question concerning the transmittal of those orders: When and by what means did you transmit those orders to the particular offices?

A That happened approximately through the months of September down to the end of October. The reason for that was that as I spent the first few days in Wiesbaden there organizing the new staff, and only later went down to the various state police and criminal police offices. So that I assume that the last offices to receive these orders received them about October.

Q So, if I understand you correctly, you transmitted these orders verbally?

A I gave this order to the chiefs of the offices verbally, that's right.

Q And you did that by driving out to the various chiefs of the offices yourself?

A As I said, I drove out to him, but there is a possibility that to some of them I gave this order by telephone beforehand. That is possible.

Q And for that reason it took you about a month to get this order down to the last headquarters--last office?

A About a month, because I had a very big area geographically.

Q And the shooting of terror fliers was an urgent and important matter at that time, was it not?

A It was so urgent that it could wait until I personally took the orders to the chiefs of offices.

Q Was it not common practice for you to transmit important orders to your men--urgent orders--by calling the chiefs of offices over to your headquarters and you informing them there?

A All the time that I was commanding officer, security police, in Rhein-Westmark, I did not have a single official conference where all the chiefs of offices were present. On the contrary, I tried to avoid to take the chiefs of the offices away from there headquarters in these difficult times. I called some of the office chiefs in severally, but I had no joint conference.

Q When you told General Stroop for the first time that you had received this order to shoot terror fliers from Berlin, what did General Stroop reply?

A I don't remember the exact words anymore, but one thing is for sure--that he agreed to it thoroughly.

Q Besides General Stroop, did you report to any other members of his staff that you had received such an order from Berlin?

A I had no occasion for doing that. The security police--it was a general security regulation that you wouldn't talk to anybody about a matter except the men who had to know about it, and I didn't carry on any lobbying in the adjutant's room either.

Q Why did General Stroop have to know about this order?

A Because it so happened that he was my higher SS and police leader.

Q Did he personally have anything to do with the shooting of those fliers?

A In many conferences he told me personally that it was his desire that these fliers were shot, so I guess he did have something to do with it.

MR. RACHAEL: I respectfully submit that the witness used the word "terror flieger". The word "terror" should be used in the translation.

PRESIDENT: Will you read the answer?

(Whereupon the last answer was read by the reporter.)

PRESIDENT: Ask the witness if he used the words "terror fliers".

THE WITNESS: Terror fliers. Always terror fliers. I never received any order to shoot all fliers.

(Trummler - Direct)

Q Now, the first time you received such a terror flyer--as you call them--and you were told if he was such a terror flyer, did you inform General Stroop?

A I do think I did, and I am sure of it in the second case. In the case of the first one I don't want to say it definitely--positively.

Q How about the third case?

A I am sure I reported this one to him, too.

Q And the fourth case?

A I couldn't report it because I didn't have a report myself.

Q Why did you not report the first case?

A I don't remember anymore why I didn't.

Q In all these cases did you also report the carrying out of the shooting?

A I know that I reported to him the presence of a terror flier, and the shooting of a terror flyer in the second case. The witness to that is sitting over there. I am also quite sure that I reported to him in case number 6, and in case number 10 I wasn't able to report it to him because I didn't have a report myself. I explained this to the court before.

Q So, if I understand you correctly, you reported the fact that the flyer was in your custody, together with the fact that he had already been shot. Is that right?

A That's not right.

Q What is right?

A In the second case I know that I reported it before he was shot.

Q Did you not say a few minutes ago that you reported at the same time that the flyer had gotten in your custody and that he had been shot?

A I didn't do that.

MAJOR SAXON: If it please the court, I would like to object to this line of questioning. Apparently counsel is intentionally trying to confuse this witness with a misstatement of what he said and what you said. If he is going to do that I am going to ask that he have it read from the record so that he can know what he said and what he did not say.

PRESIDENT: Objection sustained.

DR. RAU: I am not trying to do that. I would like to object to this insinuation. I am trying to conduct the examination according to the best of my recollection.

QUESTIONS BY DR. RAU:

Q Why did you not report the carrying out of the order in the other cases?

A I explained to you already that in case number 1, that is charge 4 over here, I am not sure whether I reported it, or let's say I did not report it. Charge number 5, that is the case of the 30th of December, 1944, and in that case I reported the presence of the flier, and later on the carrying out of the order. In case number 6 I am also sure that I reported the fact that there was a flyer present in Darmstadt, or rather in Bensheim, and that the flyer would be shot. And in case number 10 I was in no position to make any report. I didn't get a report of charge 10.

I have no interest here of charging untruthfully acts to a German general which will cause him to be severely punished, nor am I interested in seeing a German general forgetting about things two years after the war which he required of us during that time, namely, discipline, comradeship. I regret to have been forced to make this explanation here.

Q Do you know the situation that General Stroop is in?

A I know that just as well as I know the situation I am in and the situation the other comrades are in.

Q Do you then, in view of the developments that are possible for him in the future, think that he has any interest at all in saying anything but the pure truth here?

MR. RACHAEL: The defense objects to that question.

PRESIDENT: On what grounds?

MR. RACHAEL: On the general ground that it is improper.

PRESIDENT: Will you read the question, please?

(Whereupon the last question was read by the reporter.)

MR. RACHAEL: Objection withdrawn.

(Trummler - Direct)

Q In view of what the fulness of General Stroop is likely to be, in view of the fact that you are familiar with what is probably going to be, do you think the General Stroop has the very slightest interest even in not saying the truth?

A I would like to answer that as follows. I have no interest in it whatsoever, to cause the higher punishment to be meted out in a German General, an old national socialist, but I am interested and I want to be interested in everybody standing up for what he confessed at one time. Perhaps it might also have been quite easy for me to talk my way out of a few things by not remembering them.

Q Didn't you say that when you came to General Stroop you had a precise order from Berlin already?

A Yes, I had one of those.

Q Did this order have anything to say about the details or the carrying out of the orders, that is the carrying out of the shootings.

A Yes. Dr. Kaltenbrunner had told me that the execution orders, the shootings, is not to take place in public and I have already commented the reasons for that.

Q Did he say in what part the shootings would take place?

A I would probably be difficult for the chiefs of the Security Police in Berlin to say in what spots of Wehrkreis 12 such a measure was to be carried out.

Q What I mean is did he tell you whether it was supposed to be done in the jail, on the road, on the way or what?

A The shooting is to take place secretly. The details are left up to us and would be determined by individual conditions prevailing.

Q Did you personally determine the details of the shootings that actually took place?

(Translator-redirect)

A I did not order these details. I had to leave this up to those men who had to carry out this very difficult mission and furthermore it would have been simply technically impossible to tell Major Girke by telephone from Wiesbaden even where he was supposed to shoot that flyer.

Q Now about these cases of Charge 4 and 5 which took place in Wiesbaden proper, unless I am mistaken?

A I gave the order to shoot on account of the higher order and I said the shooting was to take place on the way to Frankfurt on the Main. The details I did not order.

Q You said that Girke called you up one day and told you he had a flyer in custody?

MR. MACNAIL: If it please the court, I object to all this line of questioning and cross examination. I have been waiting patiently for counsel for General Stroop to get to the part where General Stroop is involved. He has been cross examining the witness on matters which took place outside of what General Stroop may have had any interest in. He is now seeking to cross examine on something which happened in Rossbach, which as far as I know, General Stroop knew nothing about. How he is attempting to attack the credibility of this witness on behalf of General Stroop is beyond me. I respectfully submit that the counsel should be instructed to cross examine only on the matters in which General Stroop is personally interested.

DR. RAU: I would like to point out that General Stroop is mentioned as one of the accused in charges 4, 5, 6 and 10 as well and therefore I think I have a right to put those questions to the witness.

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled. Try and conduct your questioning so that we can cut down the time.

QUESTIONED BY DR. RAU:

Q Why do you think that Girke called you up one more time in view of the fact that he one order to sh ot already?

(Translator's addition)

DR. BERGER: I would like to object to this question since the question requires the knowledge of a mental process of Hitler which you can't expect this accused to have knowledge of.

DR. RAU: I would like to add, 'If you know.'

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

THE WITNESS: It has already been established here that other matters besides the shooting of the flyer were discussed in this conversation and, by the way, I would not consider it unusual for the chief of some office to call up one more time on such a matter. It is just the same as if in combat the battalion and company commanders have their orders for the emigency of combat but if the attack actually takes place it is still possible for one of the company commanders to call up the battalion commander.

QUESTIONS BY DR. RAU:

Q During the whole investigation did you also insist on the fact that you had received an order from General Stroop to shoot "Terror Flyers"?

A I always had that opinion, yes.

Q In that case it is not a fact that you just thought that up shortly before the trial?

A No.

Q How about your further statement that you received such an order from Berlin?

A What do you mean by that?

Q Hasn't it always been your point of view throughout your custody, your time in custody?

A I had my orders from Berlin.

Q Answer my question please. During all the time of your captivity did you maintain such an order from Berlin?

A I did.

Q Always?

A Always.

DR. RAU: That is all.

MAJOR SATOW: Your witness.

pl-#23-b

CROSS EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANES:

Q Dr. Tramler, when did the so-called "Terror Flyers" begin to appear over Wahstreda 12?

A The first case?

Q Yes.

A That, I think, was in October on the 19th.

Q 19th?

A Yes.

Q If that is a fact, what was the occasion to have you talking to Kaltenbrunner about that in September 1944?

A It is common practice when a person of the Security Police receives a job, the job in the rank of commanding officer, that the chief of the Security Police and the chiefs of the various offices give this man precise instructions.

MAJOR SAXON: Would the court pardon me and the prosecution also. I can see, and I know you understand Captain, that he didn't understand your question. He thinks the first case means the first case in which he was involved and you are talking about when "Terror Flyers" are supposed to have first come over Wahstreda 12.

Q Maybe you misunderstood the first question I asked you. My question was; When did the so-called terror flyers begin to pester you up there in the 12th Wahstreda.

A They didn't pester me any because I just got there on the 20th of September and I didn't know about conditions there before hand.

Q So you don't know whether there were any there before you arrived or not?

A I assumed there were some there.

Q Colonel, you said that when you were ordered away from your school

(Tramler-cross)

pls-23-5

that yo. and your staff were taken into the Waffen SS, is that right?

A He had already been taken over.

Q Did you get into the Waffen SS after you left the school?

A I had been taken in before that already, while I was still in school in Furstenberg with my assigned cadre--not with the students.

Q You don't mean to lead this court into believing that the whole security police system of Germany was taken into the Waffen SS, do you?

A I cannot claim that here. I would merely like to state that my assigned cadre and myself were in the Waffen SS in Furstenberg and also that to my knowledge of it all my command in my area of command of Sonderstab 12 were in the Waffen SS. There is, however, the possibility that some outfits might have lagged behind. I can't say that for sure, but in January, 1945 the chief of the Reich Main Security Office Number Two, Colonel Ehlin, visited me in Wiesbaden in my office and we happened to be talking about that matter there. That was for the reason that an order existed from Dr. Kaltenbrunner to the effect that all SS men of the Security Police who were fit for front line duty and these offices had fallen into the hands of the enemy were to be collected into units and sent to the front.

Q Dr. Trumbler, I just want to see if I understand you. You say that all of your Security Police were members of the Waffen SS, is that right?

A As far as I know they were.

Q You said on direct examination that the set up was that in case of necessity you should make all of your security police available to the Wehrmacht. Did you say that?

A Just now?

Q If they were already in the Wehrmacht how could you make them available?

A From the organisational standpoint we belonged to the Wehrmacht but in our office set up, our course of business, we were still working as security police.

(Trumbler-cross)

Now this order of Dr. Kaltenbrunner's that I just mentioned said that all of the SS men from the Security Police who were fit for front line duty and who had been attached to offices in Germany which had been captured by the enemy due to his advance were to be organized into units and these units were to be attached to the army. Maybe that is a more comprehensible statement--were to be attached to the army.

Q When did this take place?

A These orders?

Q Yes, when?

A They arrived about November or December, 1944 and they kept coming in. They were coming all the time.

Q Dr. Trummler, you heard Girke and Hellenbreich talk about Geneva being notified in 1943 about everyone in the police being taken into the German Army. Did they know what they were talking about?

A That is entirely possible.

Q What do you think about it?

A I consider it entirely possible.

Q By possible you mean that you don't know, is that right?

A No. I do consider it entirely possible that that was reported to Geneva, but I don't want to state a fact before this court unless I have positive knowledge of it.

PRESIDENT: The court will recess until Monday morning at 9:00.

(Thereupon the court recessed.)

Legal Form No. 8

MILITARY GOVERNMENT COURT
MILITÄRGERICHT

CHARGE SHEET
ANKLAGESCHRIFT

Place .....
Ort

Date .....
Datum

Name of accused .....
Name des Angeklagten

is hereby charged with the following offences:
wird hiermit wegen der folgenden strafbaren Handlungen angeklagt:

First Charge: ..... Erste Anklage: .....

.....

.....

.....

Particulars: ..... Einzelheiten: .....

.....

.....

.....

Second Charge: ..... Zweite Anklage: .....

.....

.....

.....

Particulars: ..... Einzelheiten: .....

.....

.....

.....

.....

The above charges are referred for trial to the *Summary / *Intermediate Military Court to be held / *General

Die Verhandlung wird vor dem *Einfachen / *Mittleren Militärgerichte / *Oberen

at ..... on ..... 194.....
in (Address of Court) am
(Anschrift des Gerichtes)

at .....
um Uhr stattfinden. By Order
Im Auftrage von

.....
(Signature of person preferring charges)
(Unterschrift des Vertreters der Anklagebehörde)

*Strike out words not applicable.
*Nichtzutreffendes ist durchzustreichen.

Copy of above served on accused ..... 194.....
Abschrift dem Angeklagten zugestellt am

.....
(Signature of person making service)
(Unterschrift des Zustellers)

CA/GI 13 Legal Form No. 8

MILITARY GOVERNMENT COURT

CASE RECORD.

Count 31

Pages 2202 - 2265

Case No. Superior Orders

Prosecutor Lt Col Dwinell

~~Summary~~
*~~Intermediate~~ Military Court.
*General

Defence Counsel Lt Col Herman Rudolph Nathanson

Place Dachau, Germany

Interpreter: Herbert B Rosenstock

Date 10 March 194 7

Reporters: Imogene Butler, Evelyn Cohen, Paula Silverman, Peter L DiCurti, John D MacDonald, Pvt William F Jones

~~Members of Court~~:

WITNESSES

~~HANS THUMLER~~
~~JOHANN KORNE~~
~~OTTO SCHMIDT~~
~~REINHARDT BIEDER~~

Accused JURGEN STROOP, et al.

Address ..... Sex ..... Age .....

	First Charge	Second Charge
Pleas
Findings
Previous Convictions

Sentence
- Imprisonment
  - Term .....
  - Beginning 194
- Fine
  - Amount .....
  - To be paid before 194
  - or in case of default of payment to serve a *further term of ..... imprisonment.

Charge Sheet and Record of Testimony are annexed hereto.

.....
(Signature of member of court.)

REVIEW

Action of Reviewing Authority .....

.....

.....
(Signature of reviewing authority)

*Strike out words not applicable.

RECORD OF TESTIMONY

in trial of

THE UNITED STATES versus JURGEN STROOP, et al

by

GENERAL MILITARY GOVERNMENT COURT

tried at

DACHAU, GERMANY BEGINNING 10 JANUARY 1947

10 MARCH 1947 Pages 2202 - 2265

TESTIMONY

	Direct	Cross	Redirect	Recross	Court
HANS TRUDSLER	2202		2231 2232		2231
JOHANN ZOLLNER	2234	2235	2236 2237		2236 2237
OTTO SCHAHN	2244
REINHARDT HEINRICH			2259	2263	2263

EXHIBITS

NONE

CAMP DACHAU, GERMANY

10 MARCH 1947

MORNING SESSION

(Whereupon the Court reconvened at 0900 hours.)

PRESIDENT: The Court will come to order.

PROSECUTION: May it please the Court, let the record show that all members of the Court, all members of the Prosecution, all the members of the Defense, all of the accused, the reporter and interpreter are present.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: At the end of the last session, may it please the Court, the accused Trumpler was under cross examination by the Prosecution.

PRESIDENT: You are reminded you are still under oath.

ACCUSED TRUMPLER: All right.

HANS TRUMPLER, an accused, voluntarily resumed the stand in his own behalf, and being reminded that he was still under oath, testified further through an interpreter as follows:

CROSS EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q Dr. Trumpler, I believe at the last session of this Court you had just finished testifying that on 18 September 1944 you were in a conference with Dr. Kaltenbrunner and had received the order that all terror flyers were to be shot, is that correct?

A Yes, on 18 September 1944 in Berlin.

Q At that time had you ever been in the Rhine-Westmark area?

A I had not been in this area before that.

Q So at that time you didn't know what the situation was down in the Rhine-Westmark area, is that correct?

A I had heard about it on the radio and read about it very often in the official Army reports.

Q But you had no personal knowledge?

A No.

Q Now, Dr. Trumpler, I believe you said on direct examination that while you were the Commanding Officer of this police school that the subjects of criminal law and international law were taught at your school, is that correct?

A Yes.

Q Did you teach either of those subjects?

A No.

Q Dr. Trumpler, I believe you described your educational background, and you are a highly educated man, aren't you?

A I think so.

Q Now you knew that this order which Kaltenbrunner passed to you was unlawful and you told Dr. Kaltenbrunner in your opinion it was unlawful, didn't you?

A I have already made my statement here. When Dr. Kaltenbrunner gave me that order I dared to suggest that this order might possibly entail difficulties in international law; but, since Dr. Kaltenbrunner, in a very sharp tone of voice replied, "That isn't any of your business. We have already examined and decided this business," I kept silent for the following reasons. I was familiar with the fact that Kaltenbrunner belonged to the circle of very closest advisors of the Fuehrer, among which we also counted persons like Himmler, Ribbentrop, Bormann and others.

Q Hermann Goering also?

A Of course.

(Trumpler-Cross)

Q My question to you, though, Dr. Trummler, is, what is your opinion as an educated man as to the legality of that order?

A I am not through with my statement yet.

Q I don't believe you answered my question, though, that I asked. I asked for your opinion--not someone else's.

A That's a misunderstanding, Captain. When Dr. Kaltenbrunner says to me "we", and that means the Reichs Government; and, in the second place, I also know that when Dr. Kaltenbrunner said "we" it meant the Fuehrer, because I was familiar with the fact that Kaltenbrunner, as well as Himmler, had the authority to bring his problems to the Fuehrer directly, and he made use of this personal conference with the Fuehrer continuously. I have no chance as a Colonel to check measures of the Reichs Government for their legality and correctness--all of this in view of the fact that the air raids of the allies at that time increased greatly and that the effects of those air raids increased similarly.

Q Dr. Trummler, I am going to repeat my question. You probably didn't understand it. I want to know what was your opinion as to the legality of this order.

A My opinion was that in consideration of conditions that order was to be considered an absolutely legal one, particularly since the extent of air warfare and of warfare in general had exceeded the normal limits as it was conducted on both sides.

Q Dr., I--

A Those, for the first time, were the results of a total war.

Q Dr. Trumpler, what was your opinion as to the legality of this order--in your opinion was it legal or not legal?

MR. RACHAEL: If the Court please, the Defense believes that this question has already been answered. The witness answered it in his previous answer as to his own personal opinion.

PRESIDENT: Would you please read the answer.

(Thereupon the answer was read by the reporter.)

PRESIDENT: Objection sustained.

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q You just answered that it was your opinion that these orders should be considered as legal. Now I want to ask you what is your own personal opinion? Were the orders in your mind legal or not legal?

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I pray the Court's judgment.

WITNESS: Yes.

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q Now, Dr. Trumpler, you said in direct examination that if you had failed or refused to obey these orders, you would have lost your life. Is that correct?

A I am quite sure of that.

Q Now, was it your fear of losing your life that caused you to carry these orders into execution, or was it because you thought you were serving your country by doing so?

A Since I had accepted this order as a legal one, it was my duty as a police official to do everything in its execution which would serve my people.

Q Why did you mention the fact that you would lose your life if you failed to carry it out?

A I had to give a reason as to what would happen to me if I failed to carry it out.

Q But you had no desire to fail to carry it out, did you?

A I was asked here on cross examination what would have happened to me had I failed to carry it out. Upon that, I said I would certainly have been shot.

Q I believe you said when you reported to Rhine-Westmark you had approximately 6,200 people. Is that correct?

A Including, however, the entire auxiliary forces and the duty border protective service. This duty protective service contained at that time about 1700 men.

Q Do you remember General Stroop's testifying about 10,000 Order Police in the Rhine-Westmark area?

A Yes.

Q So there were roughly approximately 16,000 or more police officials in Rhine-Westmark, is that correct?

A There is a distinction we make between executive officials and auxiliary forces. Now these 10,000 regular policemen which General Stroop mentioned I am sure were executive officials, and if I take my executive officials only then I won't get up to about 3500, either, including the duty protective service.

Dr. Trummler, do you know whether or not all of the police system, I mean the Security Police and the Order Police, had the same orders to execute these terror flyers?

A I have no way of knowing that because the channels of command of the Security Police and Regular Police were entirely separate.

Q Isn't it true that you got information copies of orders to the Order Police and vice-versa--that they received copies of orders to the Security Police?

A I don't know of any such thing. Of course, I did have frequent conversations with my comrade, Colonel Niemann, the Commanding Officer of the regular police; but I don't know of any official exchange of orders of these two police sections which came from above.

Q Colonel Trumpler, I believe you said you received the order first from Dr. Kaltenbrunner and later you received the same order from General Stroop, is that correct?

A I said that I received the order from General Kaltenbrunner; and, in the course of my later conversation with General Stroop I again received the order; however, not concerning the individual cases.

Q Now, did you ever receive any orders to execute these terror flyers from any other source except those two?

A There were no other sources who were in a position to give me orders.

Q I believe you reported to Wiesbaden to take command of the Security Police about the 20th of September, 1943, is that correct?

A Yes.

Q And I believe that shortly after your arrival you reported to General Stroop, is that correct?

A That might have been about the 22rd or 24th of September. I couldn't get there earlier because General Stroop was on a trip.

Q What was your occasion to get to General Stroop?

DEFENSE COUNSEL: May I interpose. I object--I think the witness said "dienst reise", which means, I believe "official twip".

INTERPRETER: That's what I said.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I only heard the word "twip".

PRESIDENT: Would you please read the answer.

(Thereupon the reporter read the answer.)

INTERPRETER: It does, and I corrected myself. I am sorry if the reporter did not get the correction--it's the official translation.

PRESIDENT: Proceed.

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q Why did you report to General Stroop?

A General Stroop was the Higher SS and Police Leader of [redacted].

Q Was he your superior officer?

A Yes, but he was responsible for the whole entire SS and Police in his area of command.

Q Do you know whether or not General Stroop was Commanding Officer of Colonel Scmaun?

A My comrade Scmaun was Inspector, and his official relationship to General Stroop was a different one from mine.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I am sorry, and I apologize if I am wrong, but I think he said "befehlshaber"; so the translation, may it please the Court, should have been "his relationship as Inspector was different from mine as commander"--that's important to us. If I am wrong, I apologize. I don't think I am.

PRESIDENT: Ask the witness if he said "from mine as commander."

WITNESS: Yes, as commander.

(Translator-Cross)

PRESIDENT: Watch your translations.

INTERPRETER: Yes, sir.

WITNESS: (Whereupon the witness spoke in German, and the remarks were not translated.)

CAPTAIN VANCE: I object to that and move that it not be translated. I haven't propounded a question and don't know what the witness is saying.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I ask that it be translated so that the Court might then better decide.

PRESIDENT: Is he still answering the same question?

WITNESS: Yes.

PRESIDENT: I ask that it be translated.

WITNESS: Furthermore, at the time I took command, the enemy had already set foot on the German Reich area, and the area Rhine-Westmark had been declared to be an emergency area.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Does your motion to strike still stand?

CAPTAIN VANCE: I will withdraw it.

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q Now, Dr. Trumpler, after you reported to General Streop as your Commanding Officer, he ordered a conference in his office at least once a week from then on out until the end of the war, did he not?

A Almost every week there would be a conference.

Q Who attended these conferences besides yourself and General Streop?

A Usually Colonel Schimana, Colonel Niemann, Captain Guenther, sometimes also General Hermann; and at times also other technical advisers to his staff.

Q What about the Commanding Officer of the Order Police? Was he present at these conferences?

A Yes.

Q That would be General Mills or either Colonel Niemann?

A General Mills was no longer on duty when I came there. The only conferences I participated in were those where Colonel Niemann was present.

Q Now, Dr. Trummler, what did you personally think about the execution of the orders which you had received from General Stroop and Dr. Kaltenbrunner?

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I was going to object to that, may it please the Court. That's the same question in another form which was objected to successfully on the ground that it's repetitious.

CAPTAIN VANCE: No, sir, the first question was on his opinion of the legality of the orders.

PRESIDENT: The objection is overruled.

WITNESS: I mentioned before already that I considered these orders as legal ones.

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q I asked you about carrying these orders into execution. What did you think about that?

A I don't understand the question.

Q You have testified that you received orders that terror flyers would be executed and you have already said that you considered that a legal order. Now, I want to know what you thought about it personally, as to the execution of these orders--whether they were good, bad, or just what you did think?

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I pray the Court's judgment. That's a difficult and ambiguous question--whether he thought the execution was good, bad or indifferent. Does he mean by that, legally carried out all the executions, bungled or what?

PRESIDENT: Do you wish to rephrase the question?

CAPTAIN VANCE: No, sir, not unless the Court directs me.

PRESIDENT: Objection is sustained.

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q Did you consider the execution of these orders to be proper warfare?

A The shooting orders were carried out in the manner in which I ordered them, and I take the responsibility for that.

Q Did you have any hesitation to order the execution of these orders?

A No, the order was a legal one; I had no chance to hesitate.

Q Did you have any desire to not carry out these orders?

A As a soldier you don't have any desires.

Q Now, I will ask you the same thing about General Stroop. Was his mind on the matter the same as yours, or was it different, if you know?

DR. RAU: I object.

WITNESS: I think so.

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Ta 296 BC 1

Q Colonel Trumpler, you have already told the court what a terror flier was. There is no need to repeat that again. I will ask you some questions about terror fliers.

A All right.

Q Now, those planes the terror fliers flew were very fast and low flying planes, weren't they?

A In this case, the captain is by passing my explanation. The concept of terror flier is not dependent on the type of plane used by that flier, rather it depends upon the method in which this flier would fight. Take for instance a heavy bomber with a crew of eleven men, which the Americans used against the Germans, if such a heavy bomber bombs a hospital, he is a terror flier, but if he bombs a troop area he is not a terror flier and if a fighter plane shoots at me he is not a terror flier, that is at a civilian train, a train carrying civilian refugees, he is not a terror flier.

Q I understand that, Dr. Trumpler, you explained perfectly. A flier who comes down and strafes civilians would have to come down fast and strafe civilians, would he not?

A If it is low flying aircraft, he can carry out that mission only with a fast plane.

Q And as he carries out that mission, only you can see that plane?

A Well, captain, usually an airplane flies above the ground so he is visible to hundreds of thousands of people.

Q You cannot see the pilot sitting in the plane, can you, Colonel?

A Well, if it happened he flew so low you could see him and he was seen, but of course, I was unable to recognize him.

Q That is what I mean. No one could recognize him?

A That's right. And when a high flying bomber bombed a non-military objective, you couldn't see these fliers.

Q That's clear and you know in one of these low flying fast planes it is impossible to bail out from the plane?

A I can't pass judgement on that; I don't have any technical knowledge of that.

Q Will you tell the court how you can determine whether a flier bombed a non-military objective or some civilians.

A Let's take an example. I am riding on a country road in the Rhein-Westmark district and there are hundreds of vehicles containing civilians moving along that road. They are on their way eastwards on account of evacuation of the area, or being bombed out into the interior, so a low flying plane comes along and strafes the roads and in the course of doing so, hits a large number of civilian women and children, so this flier is fired at by a flak battery located in the vicinity, so he gains altitude, however the plane has been hit by anti-aircraft, and at an altitude of eight thousand or ten thousand meters the plane starts wobbling and the pilot gets out. Now, there are hundreds of people there, hundreds of persons there and again, already hundreds of people who saw the shooting of flak at the airplane, and there are also hundreds of them who saw the parachuting of the flier out of the plane and since at this instance there is only one flier who jumps out of this airplane, he must be the flier who strafed the population and it is quite clear that the population who saw that did their very best to take the flier into custody.

Q All right, if you heard the testimony of these cases we have been trying -- for instance, Hollenbreich never did go out and get a witness that he saw the flier come down.

A Now, Captain, this flier was turned over to Hollenbreich with a proper report from the rural police and there is no question about the fact that the rural police was a competent organization.

Q Now, to get back to the rural police. They must have had orders to bring the fliers to the Gestapo. [illegible] terror fliers [illegible]

A [illegible] I am sure they did. [illegible]

Q Dr. Trumler, you knew of these dead flying planes, you have seen strafing, you knew if one of these planes were shot down, it would land fifty miles away, wouldn't it? [illegible] I think this number of fifty kilometers seems rather large.

Q You never did see a man bail out of an American fighter plane, did you? [illegible]

A I have seen it frequently.

Q You have heard witnesses testify about four motor bombers, where they bailed out, and parachuted. You remember that? I would certainly [illegible]

A Yes. [illegible]

Q Now, they wouldn't be shooting in those big planes, would they? [illegible]

A No, but bombing at non-military objectives - I gave the explanation concerning that already. [illegible] It is far beyond the [illegible] Dr. Trumler, you don't seem to say a bombing plane would bomb an objective and then stay around and try to gain altitude, would you?

A Well, I don't understand. A bomber would drop his eggs and get away. The question is where he would drop his eggs. If he would drop them at civilian objectives, he is a terror flier and if he would drop them at military objectives, he is not and if he happens to hit a few civilian objectives while laying his eggs, he is not a terror flier either. [illegible] into their own [illegible], you cannot evaluate this war by my [illegible]

Q Don't you know every captured flier was labeled a terror flier?

A Both by me and not by my orders. [illegible]

Q You are talking about yourself personally. You don't know about the other people. [illegible]

A Which other people. [illegible]

Q The Generals. [illegible]

A As long as they were following my orders, they were shooting terror fliers. [illegible]

Q But you don't know whether they were terror fliers or not.

A That is, acting on orders by me.

Q Dr. Pfannler, what is the total number of terror fliers executed in the Rhein-Westmark area?

A I don't know. The cases I am talking about are the ones I know about.

Q So, if you don't know about these executions taking place, you don't know whether they were carried out by your orders or not.

A These four cases here?

Q All cases.

A I don't know. I don't know of any other cases. I would certainly stand up for my orders and take the blame for these men.

Q Dr. Pfannler, would you be surprised to hear that more than four hundred were executed?

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I pray the court's judgment. It is far beyond the purview of cross examination and far beyond any issues germane to this trial.

ACCUSED PFANNLER: I would like to answer it anyway.

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

A Captain, this is the first time I hear about this number and I would like to say the following, that since not only the security police and other organizations did the shootings, the civilian population took matters into their own hands, you cannot conclude this was by my orders.

Q I believe you said you witnessed at least one hundred strafings in the Rhein-Westmark area when it was a front line area?

A Yes, I am sure that number is correct.

Q Let me ask you, are women and children supposed to be in a front line area, or moved back?

A In that case the question is how far back you consider an area a front line area.

Q You are the one who said it was a front line area. [illegible] sure the Reich [illegible]

A The front zone area in a modern war extends to at least thirty, forty or fifty kilometers from the front and it would have been entirely impossible to have the whole population evacuated at the same time the enemy set foot on German territory. [illegible] which they could stop the fliers coming.

Q To those executions of terror fliers, those fliers were not executed in an honorable manner, were they? [illegible] I am sure he did think the law [illegible]

A They were shot. [illegible] strafing of civilian objectives.

Q Were they shot in an honorable manner? [illegible] were scores every day.

A Shooting is always honorable and they were buried afterwards.

Q Tell the Court how a German soldier would be executed if he were sentenced to death. [illegible] special orders were kept secret in Germany.

A That depends on the case. [illegible] rather not to say anything about [illegible]

Q You would take him before a firing squad and he would know what was going to happen to him? [illegible] and by the way, anything in this world about [illegible] those two people I mentioned about.

A Yes.

Q You wouldn't take a German soldier in the dead of night in an automobile and shoot him in the back, would you?

A This order of Dr. Kaltenbrunner's expressly stated that no official executions would take place. [illegible] you had to have these reports. Q Do you agree these American fliers were not executed in an honorable manner, do you not? [illegible] I will instruct how to make a report.

A I have no comment to make to this. [illegible] make a report.

Q Dr. Thomas, what did you, Dr. Kaltenbrunner and all the German people expect to accomplish by killing a few members of the American army?

A Captain, you just told a while ago there were four hundred.

Q Four hundred out of a million is a few, isn't it? [illegible]

A One million fliers? [illegible] and now the [illegible] are about [illegible]

Q Yes? [illegible]

Tr. 2955-67

A A deterring example was to be set by this and I am sure the Reich government would have gone and stop further and ordered official executions, but that wasn't my worry as a little colonel, that was up to the men who were to lead the German people.

Q Did Kaltenbrunner and his bunch think they could stop the fliers coming to Germany by that treatment?

A I am sure he didn't think that, but I am sure he did think the low flying attack would stop and strafing of civilian objectives.

Q You have said in your opinion these orders were secret orders. Why were they kept as secret?

A I cannot answer that question. Those were orders. A very large number of legal orders were kept secret in Germany.

Q Did you tell Prauscht and Fuchr not to say anything about shooting to hide, and I further want to explain to you at the time I issued

A I don't remember that and by the way, anything in this world about which more than two people know is talked about.

Q If these orders were legal, why did they fake all the reports and say these people tried to escape?

A I have already said those were the orders we had.

Q Dr. Kaltenbrunner didn't tell you that you had to have these reports made out, did he?

A It isn't common practice to tell a colonel how to write a report.

Q Did you tell your subordinates how to make a report?

A In individual cases.

Q Why did you have to fake them to show the fliers tried to escape.

A I don't know the point of the Captain in asking that question. This report that was sent to me was put aside or rather, destroyed.

Q Why did you have them fake the reports and show the fliers were shot trying to escape?

A I have already told you that was the order we had, furthermore that doesn't change the fact fliers tried to escape, word of the office of [illegible]

Q Dr. Trummler, you said you gave the orders. You must have had some reason. [illegible] re said the other two were buried in the [illegible]

A I transmitted the orders.

Q Dr. Trummler, I will tellyou the reason. You know if the Germans lost the war, the Americans would investigate these killings and you wanted it to look like the fliers were shot trying to escape, did you not?

A Captain, if we as security police, and I want to emphasize security police, would have found some way of getting rid of these fliers in a way there wouldn't have been a trace of them, and if in these two cases of Fuchr and Freundt, these men after the execution of orders ordered by us were buried, that is certain proof there was nothing we wanted to hide, and I further want to assure you at the time I issued those orders I never thought of the fact I would be before an American military court; all the thought I had in my mind at that time was with my country.

Q If you thought at a future date you would be before an American military court, you never would have issued that order?

A That order was a legal one and I would stand up for it just as much as now.

Q Dr. Trummler, they tried to hide these graves, and didn't mark them, didn't they?

A I didn't issue orders for that.

Q That was done by the German police force?

A I don't think so.

Q You have heard the testimony before this court where the bodies were hidden in the woods?

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I object.

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

A\ As far as I know of those five fliers who were shot, three were buried in cemeteries and two of them in the back yard of the offices of Bensheim.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I think he said the other two were buried in the garden.

INTERPRETER ROSENSTOCK: Back yard or garden.

PRESIDENT: Strike what you have. Three buried in the cemetery and two in the garden back of the offices,

PROSECUTION: The prosecution agrees that is what he said.

PRESIDENT: Court will recess until 1330 this afternoon.

(Whereupon at 1000 hours the court recessed until 1330 hours.)

(Trumbler-cross)

By Captain Payne:

Q Mr. Trumbler, this morning [illegible] why you [illegible] and you told me that it took you a half hours to [illegible] Can you answer it now?

A It was Mr. [illegible] order that the whole matter should be kept secret in a court in order, [illegible] already testified that the [illegible] order, [illegible] or reserve personnel to not [illegible]

Q Well, now, you [illegible]

A [illegible]

Q You never [illegible]

(Trumbler-cross)

Q No, I asked you if you read that these reports show that a flier [illegible] that wasn't true?

AFTERNOON SESSION

(Whereupon the court reconvened at 1330 hours.)

PRESIDENT: Court will come to order.

PROSECUTION: May it please the court, let the record show that all the members of the court, all the members of the prosecution, all the members of the defense, all the accused, the reporter and record-interpreter, are present. [illegible] received from higher authority. I didn't hear [illegible]

DEFENSE COUNSEL: At the end of the last session the accused, Trummler, was on the stand being cross examined by the prosecution's duties. PRESIDENT: You are reminded you are still under oath.

HANS TRUMMLER, an accused, voluntarily resumed the stand and after being reminded he was still under oath, testified through an interpreter as follows:

CROSS EXAMINATION (continued)

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN YANCE: [illegible] can't remember this anymore. There was no specific [illegible]

Q Dr. Trummler, this morning I asked you this question -- why you ordered these reports to show the fliers were killed while attempting to escape and you didn't answer. You have had three and a half hours to think over that question. Can you answer it now? that moment that Kaltenbrunner [illegible]

A It was Dr. Kaltenbrunner's order that the whole matter should be kept secret to a certain degree. On Friday I already testified that the Reichsregierung probably decided not yet for publication in order not to excite the very excited or nervous population to acts of violence [illegible]

Q Well, now, your police records weren't open to inspection by the public of Germany, were they?

A My police records, that's an answer to my question. You don't want to know your records in the Police Department. They were not open for inspection by the civilian population, were they?

A You asked me why this kind of execution was chosen.

(Trummler-cross)

A I'd like to hear the question once more.

Q No, I asked you why you ordered that these reports show that a flier was killed while trying to escape when you knew that wasn't true?

A I ordered so.

Q I know but why did you do so?

A I said before it was to be kept secret to a certain degree. My order, Captain, was absolutely clear to shoot the fliers in accordance with the order which I had received from higher authority. I didn't hide anything before my men. That was a matter of course. I received my order and I transmitted my order in accordance with my duties.

Q I understand that, Doctor, but you told me this morning that you ordered that the reports show that the fliers were executed while trying to escape. I want to know why you instructed this.

A I have to say I can't remember this anymore. There was no special reason for it. My orders were clear,

Q Well, let me ask you if this wasn't the reason -- that you knew you were committing a crime and you wanted to cover it up!

A I testified here already several times that meant that Kaltenbrunner told me, on the 18th of September 1944 in the early hours of the afternoon, that was and with this he meant no doubt himself and the Reichs government, had investigated this matter and decided for me, on further consideration of the conditions in Germany and the extensive increase of the air attacks by the Allied air forces, this order was a legal one.

Q Well, Dr. Trumler, that's no answer to my question. You don't want to answer that question, do you?

A Yes, I'd like to answer it.

Q Can you answer it?

(Trumler-cross)

A I'd like to hear the question once more.

CAPTAIN VANCE: Let him have the question again.

(Thereupon the reporter read the question as follows:

"Q Well, let me ask you if this wasn't the reason -- that you knew you were committing a crime and you wanted to cover it up?")

THE WITNESS: The purpose of the statement which I just made was to show you that I didn't know that it was a crime.

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q Dr. Trummler, you talked to Dr. Kaltenbrunner about this order and you talked to General Stroop about it. To whom else did you talk about this order?

A Talked to or given the order to?

Q Given the order to.

A I gave the order to the State Police Headquarters at Koblenz, Trier, Neustadt, Saarbrucken, Frankfurt and Wiesbaden and, furthermore, I passed it down to the Criminal Police Headquarters at Koblenz and Trier and Saarbrucken.

Q I believe on direct examination you were asked if you had read and understood Charge 1 and you said that you did, that you had nothing to do with it, is that correct?

A I read it. I have had nothing to do with it. I did not commit any conspiracy.

Q As to Charge 2, you do belong to some of the organizations declared criminal by the Nuernberg court?

A Yes.

Q Now for Charge 3 -- do you know who was the next higher police official above Colonel Lasaak?

A The Higher SS and Police Leader.

(Trummler-cross)

A I'd like to hear the question once more.

CAPTAIN VANCE: Let him have the question again.

(Thereupon the reporter read the question as follows:

"Q Well, let me ask you if this wasn't the reason so that you knew you were committing a crime and you wanted to cover it up?")

THE WITNESS: The purpose of the statement which I just made was to show you that I didn't know that it was a crime.

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q Dr. Trummler, you talked to Dr. Kaltenbrunner about this order and you talked to General Stroop about it. To whom else did you talk about this order?

A Talked to or given the order to?

Q Given the order to.

A I gave the order to the State Police Headquarters at Koblenz, Trier, Neustadt, Saarbrucken, Frankfurt and Wiesbaden and, furthermore, I passed it down to the Criminal Police Headquarters at Koblenz and Trier and Saarbrucken.

Q I believe on direct examination you were asked if you had read and understood Charge 1 and you said that you did, that you had nothing to do with it, is that correct?

A I read it. I have had nothing to do with it. I did not commit any conspiracy.

Q As to Charge 2, you do belong to some of the organizations declared criminal by the Nuernberg court?

A Yes.

Q Now for Charge 3 -- do you know who was the next higher police official above Colonel Lasemann?

A The Higher SS and Police Leader.

(Trummler-cross)

Q And Colonel Lassak would receive his orders --

A I have to correct myself. To my knowledge it should be the Commander of the Order Police and afterwards then the Higher SS and Police Leader.

Q And would Colonel Lassak's orders and instructions come through that channel of command?

A It should have been that way but it is possible also direct orders were given. I can't decide that.

Q Now, on Charges 4 and 5 you admit that you gave the orders to Fuehr and Fraund to execute this flier, don't you?

A I transmitted to Fuehr and Fraundt Dr. Kaltenbrunner's orders and for this transmittal I take the full responsibility. These men could do nothing but carry out my orders. They had no chance to prove whether this order was legal and they had even still less a possibility to refuse this order.

Q Dr. Fremmler, you don't mean that you told Fuehr and Fraundt that Dr. Kaltenbrunner said for me to direct you to kill this flier, do you?

A That isn't necessary at all, as in the German language of command it is not customary that a superior officer who passes down an order first says that he received the order from a still higher authority.

Q So you just ordered Fraundt and Fuehr to take the flier out in the darkness and shoot him, is that right?

A I had ordered that these fliers would be shot because they were terror fliers.

Q Now, when they came back and reported to you that your order had been carried out, why did you call up General Streep to tell him about it?

A I said before, in the first case as far as I remember, I did not report to him. I don't want to claim that here before the court.

(Trummler-cross)

In the second case I made a report, I informed General Stroop, beforehand and, furthermore, I reported to him the carrying out. My adjutant, Captain Wiede, reported to him. Frantz and Fuehr are witnesses for the telephone call.

Q I know that but my question is, "Why did you report it to General Stroop?"

A I had from General Stroop, not for individual cases but in general, the same order to have terror fliers shot.

Q So you just wanted to let General Stroop know you were following his orders; is that correct?

A I wanted to let him know that a terror flier had been delivered at my office. That means at Gestapo Headquarters, and that he had been shot in accordance with Dr. Kaltenbrunner's orders and his orders.

Q Now, Dr. Trummler, one of these killings took place on the 10th of October 1944 and the other one on the 30th of December 1944. After which one of these killings was it that you passed out the box of cigars for a job well done?

A I'd like to state the following -- At the beginning of October 1944, through SS Lt. Colonel Wiebens who can come here as a witness immediately because he's in camp, I received 10,000 cigars. That means 200 boxes of cigars. I distributed these cigars, part of them to General Stroop for his Headquarters, of course, part to the Commander of the Order Police, Colonel Kiemann. In my Headquarters all officials received a large number of cigars and I, furthermore, distributed cigars to outlying Headquarters and to the three offices at Wiesbaden, Criminal Police, Wiesbaden, State Police, Wiesbaden, and Security Service, Wiesbaden. Colonel Kiemann, Moehler and other chiefs of other headquarters testified to that effect. In no way it was sought as a premium for the killing of the fliers. First of all, I had no hate towards the American fliers and, secondly, I considered my duties much too serious to distribute cigars for that.

Q So it was just a coincidence then that this box of cigars was passed out when they made the report of the execution, is that right?

A Dr. Stinger can testify to this too. I think he was even present when it was done. I would like to hear Koehler, whether he considered this as a premium for the killing of the flyer.

Q Can you remember whether this was the October killing or the December killing?

A It was on the nineteenth of October and the cigars, the boxes of cigars, I received from Himmler at the beginning of October.

Q Now Colonel Brunnlar, Major Seaman on direct examination asked you this question and received this answer from you. I will read it to you. It appears on page 2176 of the record: "Question. What if these men had refused to obey your order, what would you have done with them? Answer. I might say the following to that -- so long as I had the honor of wearing a German uniform nobody had ever refused to carry out one of my orders. Had this happened in the vicinity of the front in such places as Saarbrucken or Trier, I would have had his insignia removed, removed him from office and shot after a sentence by a summary court, within 24 hours. Had this happened in an area further to the rear where comparative peace prevailed, I would have, in the same manner, had him arrested, removed from his position and turned over to an SS court with a request for prompt and severe punishment. I and all other commanding officers of the Security Police had received this authority from Dr. Kaltenbrunner and I would have made use of this in any case arising." Do you remember that?

A Yes.

(Brunnlar - Gross)

Q Now, I want to ask you this question. What would you have done at Wiesbaden at that time?

A In Wiesbaden I would have ordered them to take off their insignia, would have arrested them and would have delivered them immediately to the SS and Police Court for prompt and severe punishment, at the time when these incidents happened. If it would have happened later on when Wiesbaden was under artillery fire, I would have done the same what I mentioned before in regard to Sandstrahm.

Q Dr. Trumbler you are putting in suppositions. This is the nineteenth of October at Wiesbaden. I want to know what you would have done on that date in Wiesbaden?

A I have just said it.

Q You would not have them executed within twenty-four hours, is that correct?

A At that time it wasn't a front line area yet.

Q Now about Charge VI. I believe you say that it is possible that Major Girke called you about this execution but you just can't remember it one way or the other, is that correct?

A Yes.

Q Now, on the fifteenth of February, 1945, were Girke, Hallenbreich, Stattmann and Reaf your subordinates and members of your command?

A Yes.

Q Now, this American that they executed on that day in Bensheim, you have no way of knowing whether that man was a terror flyer or not, do you Doctor?

A That is Case Number 6?

Q Yes.

A There are only two possibilities. Either, what seems to be certain, SS Major Girke, during a telephone call, informed me of the presence of the terror flyer at headquarters Buchheim, then I certainly have told them that according to the order from higher authority this flyer has to be shot. If a Major reports to me that the man is a terror flyer, I have no reason to doubt the truthfulness of this report.

Q Now, I believe you don't know exactly whether he called you or not, do you?

A Captain, Major Girke testified to this effect here in court. Major Hollenbreich confirmed it. I myself can't remember exactly any more this call, but if two of my Majors, whom I got to know as truthful and decent, confirmed this to me here, then it happened this way, and therefore also in this case I take the full responsibility.

Q Mr. Trumbler, you are testifying. Major Girke and Major Hollenbreich have furnished testimony. I am asking you what you know about it.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I pray the Court's judgment. He has answered that question in the answer to the previous question.

PRESIDENT: The reporter will read the last question and answer.

(Thereupon the last question and answer were read by the reporter.)

PRESIDENT: Objection sustained.

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q Who was the next higher police officer above Colonel Michel, if you know?

A To my knowledge also the commander of the Order Police.

Q And who above him?

A The Higher SS and Police Leader.

(Trumbler - Cross)

Q And is that the chain of command through which Colonel Eichel would receive orders and instructions?

A I can't decide that because I know too little about the office routine of the Order Police.

Q Dr. Trummler who was the highest police official in Rhein-Westmark in connection and in command of the Werewolf School?

A The Higher SS and Police Leader.

Q Was he the Commanding Officer of this School?

A I can't decide that. I knew only that Major Rank was attached to his staff as technical expert and adviser. The internal organization set-up is unknown to me.

Q Now in Charge X, on the twenty fourthof March, 1945, were Cirin, Hallenbreich, Stutzmin and Ranf still members of your command?

A Yes.

Q Now, I believe you said that that there was no communication with your headquarters at that time?

A Yes.

Q So you wouldn't attempt to tell this court that they were terror flyers that were killed on that day?

A I don't understand this question.

PROSECUTION: Will the reporter repeat the question?

(Whereupon the reporter read the last question.)

THE WITNESS: I heard about this case only here during my imprisonment, but I have to state once more, if two of my Majors investigated this and came to this result, they must have been terror flyers.

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q What two majors do you mean investigated this?

A Major Girke and Major Hollambrelch.

Q You haven't heard Major Girke claim he investigated anything, have you?

A I don't know that. Major Girke was the leader of this unit and Major Hollambrelch was his deputy.

Q Dr. Trumbler are you familiar with or did you ever hear of an order that was issued to the effect that it was forbidden for an American prisoner of war to ride in an automobile with a Colonel?

A This order is unknown to me, but I don't know which kind of orders the Swiss Police received.

Q Did you know Colonel Nichol while he was running the police forces in Offenbach?

A No.

Q Did you know Colonel Lesnik while he was running the police forces in Giessen?

A No. Both these police directors I met only here during my imprisonment.

Q Dr. Trumbler, I believe you testified last Friday that if any members of your command were to rob a dead body or to mistreat a flyer you would have them shot, is that right?

A If I had received notice Captain that one of the officers or men under my command had robbed the dead bodies, without any hesitation I would have them shot. There was no doubt about it.

Q Well it was very fortunate for Colonel Nichol that he was not a member of your command, is that right?

MR. WICHER: I would like to object to this question, since this witness testified that he didn't know Nichol.

CAPTAIN VANCE: I will withdraw it.

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q Dr. Trumler, when you first reported to Wiesbaden, I believe that you said you had the files brought out so you could see what orders were in existence at that time, is that right?

A I said that I had the orders of the last weeks compiled for me, the most important ones, because I was there as the commander of the schools and I had nothing to do with executive powers before.

Q After you familiarized yourself with outstanding orders, did you revoke or rescind any of these orders?

A I had no reason to do so. At least I can't remember. Furthermore I could not rescind orders of my superior headquarters.

Q Therefore the non-interference order which was passed down by Colonel Semmes remained in effect, is that correct?

A It had to stay in force. Colonel Semmes passed this order down just in the same manner as I passed down the order to shoot.

Q Now, I remember you described an incident where you saw two planes dog fighting and you said a German pilot parachuted to earth and that German civilians started to beat him, is that correct?

A Yes.

Q Did you ever see an American flyer parachute to earth where the civilians started to beat him?

A That American flyers came down with a parachute I saw on several occasions. That the German population beat an American flyer I have not seen.

CAPTAIN VANCE: Nothing further.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I would like to ask one question of Dr. Trumler.

REDIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY DEFENSE COUNSEL:

Q As you said just a moment ago, the non-interference order which was passed down by your predecessor, Inspector Ramm, remained in effect, so that the non-interference order was in effect at the same time as the order you got from Kaltenbrunner to shoot barver Ilyurs. That is true, isn't it?

A The non-interference order had not been rescinded.

Q That's right. So that both were in effect?

A Yes.

Q Now this is my question. When you gave Freundt and Fuchs the order and when you talked to Girke, as Girke says he talked to you, and when Girke gave the order in Charge X, which order was being carried out by Trumpler, the non-interference order or the order to shoot barver Ilyurs?

CAPTAIN VANCE: May it please the court, we object to that as to Charge X because Dr. Trumpler says this is the first time he has heard about this case.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I remember him saying that, but he can state his opinion as to which order was carried out.

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

THE WITNESS: The order to shoot.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Questions by the Court?

EXAMINATION BY THE COURT

QUESTIONS BY THE LAW MEMBER:

Q Colonel Trumpler, had you given orders to the men under your command that anyone found stealing from the body of a deceased Ilyur would be shot if they took anything from it?

(Trumpler - Redirect & Court)

A I didn't issue such an order, but it was a matter of course that if somebody would have done something like that he would be punished as a man who robbed a dead body.

Q Did all of the men under your command know that?

A I think so.

Q Did you or anybody under you [illegible] call it to their attention specifically?

A I think that the chiefs of the various headquarters during their meetings with their men brought this to their attention.

Q Would you say in your opinion that every German soldier or every German police officer, whether it was the Security Police or the ordinary police, knew that would be his fate if such a thing happened?

A I think so.

LAY MEMBER: That is all.

QUESTIONS BY THE PRESIDENT:

Q Dr. Trumpler, you mentioned that a certain town, I don't recall the name, was considered in the combat area if it was within artillery range, is that correct?

A Yes General.

Q And that is your idea of modern warfare, is that correct?

A If a city is under enemy artillery fire, we in Germany were of the opinion it was front line area.

PRESIDENT: No further questions by the Court.

REDIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY DEFENSE COUNSEL:

Q Dr. Trumpler, I believe you testified at sometime that any community, any town that was within twenty, thirty or forty kilometers of the fighting, was considered in the front, is that what you said?

A Yes.

Q And I think in talking about artillery you were testifying about something that happened when Wiesbaden was already under artillery fire, weren't you?

A Yes.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: That is all. Any further questions by the Court?

PRESIDENT: No further questions by the court. The witness will take his place in the dock.

(Thereupon the witness was excused and resumed his seat in the prisoners' dock.)

JOHANN KOEMM, called as a witness by the defense, being first duly sworn testified through an interpreter as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY MAJOR SAXON:

Q State your full name, age and present status to the court.

A Johann Koemm, born 29 December, 1893, business employee.

Q What is your present status?

A Prisoner.

Q Now what was your connection with the German Police force in the summer of 1944?

A I was criminal secretary.

Q Where were you stationed?

A Wurtsburg.

Q What wehrkreis was that in?

A Wehrkreis 13.

Q Sometime in the summer of 1944 did your headquarters in Wurtsburg get an order for some of you to come to Berlin for instructions?

A Yes.

Q Do you know about what date that was?

A That was on the 21st of July, 1944. We had an air attack on Wurtsburg, a few bombs were dropped and on this day I had to leave.

Q Are you the person who undertook this trip to Berlin to receive the instructions?

A Yes. I was ordered by the chief of our headquarters.

Q To whom did you report to in Berlin?

A I reported to the Reich Security Main Office, Department Five, War Apprehension Section.

Q Were you summoned up there for any other purpose than to receive these instructions I am about to ask you about?

(Koemm-direct)

A No. Only to pick up an order.

Q Do you know the wording of this order that you there received at that time?

A Yes, very exactly.

Q Will yo give it to the court as you received it that day?

A Yes. The wording was as follows, verbatim:

The British, as well as the American Government have denied that they have given the order to their flyers to bomb or to strafe non-military objectives or the civilian population. If they do so in spite of it they have to be treated as criminals and to be killed--if they are not in custody.

Q What did you to with that order after receiving it?

A In accordance with my custom I reported this to my chief.

MAJOR SAXON: Your witness.

CROSS EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q Who signed that order?

A This order was given orally.

Q From whom did you receive it?

A That was the Chief of the War Apprehension Department, First Government counselor and Lieutenant Colonel of the SS Schultz or Schultze.

CAPTAIN VANCE: Nothing further.

EXAMINATION BY THE COURT

QUESTION BY THE LAW MEMBER:

Q What explanation was given to you as to what was meant by "If not in custody."?

A Various questions were asked by the participants there. It was then explained like this, "If they are already arrested by Wehrmacht, rural police or rural guards, etc."

Q In other words if they had been taken into custody by the rural police, by the gendarmes or by the Wehrmacht then they were supposed to be considered as being in custody, is that correct?

(Kosma-court-cross)

pld-298-k

A Yes, when they were arrested in custody.

Q If they were in such custody they were not to be killed isthat correct?

A Yes.

Q Were any other orders given at that time?

A No orders, but a few explanations were given on request.

Q Did they pertain to orders previously given or treatment of prisoners that had been captured.

A Not in reference to previous orders only in reference to this order.

PRESIDENT: No further questions.

MAJOR SAYRE: I have one other question.

REDIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY MAJOR SAYRE:

Q How many other persons participated in the receiving of this command with you at the same time?

A This order was given out in various groups because the room was small. One group was ordered for 9 o'clock. An hour later another and an hour later another group. They were always 20 to 24 people present each time.

Q When you got your orders to come up there did you know what order you were going to receive or have any indication of what the order was?

A May be idea.

Q I understood you to say that you were giving the contents of this order to the court verbatim.

A Yes.

Q Can you tell the court how come you are able to do that at this time?

(Recross-redirect)

(Recess not)

A I remember these two sentences so well/so that I can't forget it at all.

EXAMINATION BY THE COURT

QUESTIONS BY THE LAW MEMBER:

Q What was the cause of your remembering these two sentences so well.

A I was here already once last year for Arial.

Q Were you permitted to write down this order when they gave it to you orally?

A No.

Q Were you told not to write it down?

A Yes.

Q Were you required to memorize it before you left?

A No, but it was given so slowly and so clearly that you couldn't mistake it to remember.

PRESIDENT: Any further questions by the defense.

MR. RACHAELS: This is cross examination on behalf of the defendant Girbe.

REDIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY MR. RACHAELS:

Q At this meeting in Berlin were there any other questions asked and were there any other explanations made with regard to the substance of those orders?

A I deliberately didn't ask any questions because I thought this order was so absolutely clear it is of no importance for our headquarters.

Q Do you know of anybody else at that meeting who asked questions?

A Yes. Various men were there who asked questions. One of them was there. He asked a question, "What had to be done if the flyer is taken prisoner and is being beaten?", and there the man answered, "It should not happen that the flyers are tortured because we don't want this. We want them dead.

(Kocmm-redi-ect)

Q In other words the answer to the question was that torturing was not permitted, that they wanted admissions, is that right? to all people.

A Yes, they did from the criminal police headquarters.

Q Were there any other questions that were asked?

A Furthermore the question came up about custody of the police and there it was said that we don't want that flyers in custody of the police are taken out. Then they should be handed over to the Wehrmacht.

Q Anything else?

A [illegible] Then there was talk that I don't remember this so exactly anymore-- about civilian population who are first on the spot when a flyer is shot down by partisans or a flyer who has dropped bombs or had strafed them. No action should be taken against such persons [illegible] will later [illegible].

Q Was there anything else said by the defense, being remained [illegible] stand and testified further through [illegible]?

A Otherwise I wouldn't know anymore.

MR. RACHAIL: No further questions.

DR. AHRENDT: Cross examination for the accused Hellenbreich.

QUESTIONS BY DR. AHRENDT:

Q Mr. Schenk, in which capacity did you go to Berlin at that time?

A I was Deputy Chief of the second department to which Apprehension Section was attached. Not the War Apprehension Section but the pursuit department. [illegible] as I mentioned, the latter was called as to Q You said your headquarters was the criminal police at Nuremberg, is that correct.

A [illegible] Yes, criminal police headquarters, Nuremberg.

Q In which manner were you requested to come to Berlin?

A At that time I was requested by the chief of our headquarters, or better the deputy chief, of our headquarters Kaltenbrunner criminal commander Rauh was not there and the deputy chief criminal commissar Barthaler ordered me to go to Berlin and to pick up the order there.

(Recess-Redirect)

Q To which group of people did the order given in Berlin apply?

A In Berlin itself there were approximately 20 to 25 people meant by Q. Were they all from the Criminal Police Headquarters? Similar transfers applied to the other areas.

Q Did Allied flyers in Schwarzes 12 go both to Oberursel?

MAJOR SAKOW: Does the court have any further questions of this witness? According to the orders they had first to come to Oberursel since

PRESIDENT: No questions by the court. The witness is excused.

(Whereupon the witness was excused and withdrew.)

MAJOR SAKOW: Call Reinhard Breder. If it please the court, the witness has heretofore been sworn.

PRESIDENT: You are reminded that you are still under oath. Interrogation

REINHARD BREDER, recalled as a witness by the defense, being reminded that he was still under oath, resumed the stand and testified further through an interpreter as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION

BY MAJOR SAKOW:

Q You were direct examination, is that correct?

QUESTIONS BY MAJOR SAKOW:

Q I don't want to ask you repetitious questions here Breder, but I want to ask you first, to make sure I understood you correctly, how many airmen you had as a total in Oberursel from the beginning until the end of the war? You, of course, [illegible] was no superior officer now from time to time

A In January, 1945, as I remember, the number was estimated as to approximately more than 35 thousand. These 35 thousand had gone through the Camp Oberursel. In addition to these another seven thousand flyers who without coming to Oberursel went directly to a prisoner-of-war camp.

Q Where was that camp located? The other day there were [illegible]

A [illegible] Those camps were in the middle of Germany or in Eastern Germany, I don't know their exact locations. One camp was in Wetzlar on the Lahn.

Q Was that in Schwarzes 12? Now, you

(Recess: 15 minutes)

(Breder-redirect)

pl4-290-7

Q How many did you have in Wetzlar at one time?

A I think that at Wetzlar there were approximately eight thousand flyers. This number, of course, always varied since from Wetzlar transfers took place to the other camps.

Q Herr Broder, did captured allied flyers in Wehrkreis 12 go both to Oberursel and Wetzlar.

A According to the orders they had first to come to Oberursel since Oberursel was the central office for that.

Q I believe you testified the other day that you had charge of the Gestapo Headquarters in Frankfurt, is that correct?

A Yes.

Q You had command of the detachment that was engaged in the interrogation of flyers for political reasons in Oberursel?

A Yes. One department of my headquarters was stationed at Oberursel.

Q They were directly under your command, is that correct?

A Yes, they were my officials.

Q Who was your immediate commander in Wehrkreis 12?

A The accused Colonel Dr. Trumpler.

Q Did you constantly report your activities there to Trumpler?

A Yes, of course. He was my superior officer and from time to time I informed him of my activities.

Q Was Dr. Trumpler entirely satisfied with the manner in which you handled and treated the prisoners, allied prisoners I mean, at Oberursel.

A Yes. He did not make any objections.

Q I believe that you mentioned the other day that there were around four thousand allied prisoners-of-war in there from September to the end of February 1945, is that correct?

A That is an estimate of mine, yes.

(Broder-redirect)

Q Did I understand you to say that one-fourth to one-third of that number came out of Wehrkreis 12?

A You can assume so in accordance with the transport condition as it existed at that time.

Q Was ever an allied flyer mistreated by any of your staff there at Oberursel during these interrogations?

CAPTAIN VANCE: We object. Camp Oberursel was a prisoner-of-war camp and has no place, connection, or bearing on the issues in this case.

PRESIDENT: Objection sustained.

MAJOR RAKOW: Might I mention it to the court. The other day the evidence, and I didn't want to repeat it again, was to the effect that this detachment took these flyers with them for periods of four or five days at a time for the purpose of interrogating them for political reasons. They were out of the immediate custody of the prisoner-of-war camp and were in the custody of one of Colonel Trumbler's men. Technical custody probably remained with the prisoner-of-war camp but physical custody was in their hands for four or five days at a time.

PRESIDENT: The court ruling stands.

QUESTIONS BY MAJOR RAKOW:

Q Did any captured allied flyers that were delivered to you there for the purposes of interrogation show any signs of physical mistreatment by anyone who had captured them?

A No. In general we received only officers and, the officers we received—all of them—praised the treatment which they had received. A few of them, for instance Lieutenant Colonel Charley Stark, Lieutenant Colonel Joseph Miller and the Lieutenant Colonel Stanislaski asked my interrogators to come to the U.S. after the war. Furthermore General Vanaman told my interrogating officer Schmidt that he should look him up if he should come to the U.S. after the war.

Q Herr Preder approximately when was General Vanaman captured?

A Approximately September or October, 1944 as far as I can remember.

Q Herr Breder, do you have the names of some other Americans who were there as your prisoners?

A Yes. I have here another list of Lieutenant Colonels and Captains and furthermore we have a good friend of Mrs. Roosevelt's who had been captured during the war and she too asked a private family where I had quartered her to start contacts again with her after the war. These invitations certainly would not have been made if we wouldn't have treated the prisoners correctly.

Q Herr Breder, you have the approximate date of the capture of Lieutenant Colonel Zemak?

A Approximately November, 1944. It might have been October too.

Q Do you have the date of the capture of Captain Silvermail.

A That was in October, 1944.

CAPTAIN VANCE: I fail to see the relevancy of this. The prisoners were over in Oberursel.

PRESIDENT: Are you objecting.

CAPTAIN VANCE: I think it is just killing time.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: We were showing the dates they were captured, may it please the court. That is the important thing here. Instead of being hung or shot the men captured in October or November of 1944

CAPTAIN VANCE: I am going to object to Colonel Everett testifying.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: That is what the record should be made.

CAPTAIN VANCE: I think everyone knows that Oberursel was run in a decent manner. I will be willing to stipulate to that, but that has nothing to do with this case whatsoever. I agree with them that if a man got to Oberursel he got pretty good treatment--if he got there.

PRESIDENT: Objection sustained.

MAJOR TAXON: Your witness.

(Breder-redirect)

RECROSS EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q These men were praising you about the treatment they got in Oberursel, were they not?

A They expressed it this way. General Vanaman for instance, when he left Oberursel wrote a letter to the German Commander in which he thanked him for the treatment through the interrogator Schmidt of the Gestapo Headquarters.

CAPTAIN VANCE: Nothing further.

MAJOR SAXON: Does the court have any questions.

CAPTAIN VANCE: I would like to ask one more.

RECROSS EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q Is this the same Schmidt that used to work for Major Girke?

A To my knowledge no Schmidt worked for Major Girke.

CAPTAIN VANCE: Nothing further.

EXAMINATION BY THE COURT

QUESTIONS BY THE LAW MEMBER:

Q Were all these flyers that you referred to that you interrogated prisoners at Oberursel before they came to you for interrogation?

A Yes. We got them from Oberursel. Usually we brought them to a hunting lodge of the family Opel in the Taunus for one or two days.

PRESIDENT: No further questions, the witness is excused.

(Whereupon the witness was excused and withdrew.)

DEFENSE COUNSEL: That ends the defense of Trumelers case subject to our right to produce anything that may come to our attention. Further on, after the recess, if I may so say, we will proceed with the last accused, Fonsmu.

PRESIDENT: The court will recess until 3:30.

(Whereupon the court recessed at 3:00 o'clock.)

Take 289 JG 80;2
8-10-47;JGMcD;1

(Whereupon the court reconvened at 1330 hours.)

PRESIDENT: Court will come to order. The defendant

PROSECUTION: May it please the Court, let the record show that all the members of the court, all the members of the prosecution, all the members of the defense, all of the accused, the reporter, and the interpreter are present in court.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: At this time, may it please the court, we will begin the introduction of evidence specifically on behalf of the accused Somann, who will now take the stand in his own defense. He will be examined by Dr. Wacker.

PRESIDENT: Do you desire to be sworn?

ACCUSED SOMANN: Yes, I do, for in my father's

OTTO SOMANN, an accused, voluntarily took the stand in his own behalf and, being first duly sworn, testified through an interpreter as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY DR. WACKER:

Q What is your full name?

A Otto Somann.

Q Are you the accused No. 3 in this case?

A Yes.

Q How old are you?

A Forty-seven years.

Q Are you married?

A I am married and have one boy, and a wife of my deceased brother and five of their children also live in my household.

Q Where does your family reside now?

A My family resides now in Hamburg, as refugees.

Q Mr. Somann, I will now ask you for your profession, and later I will ask you about your political career. What was your final professional job? intelligence service for the Army. I managed to become a soldier when I was fifteen years old, in 1915, and I was fighting at the very front lines from 1915 until the end of the war as an infantryman. I had suffered three wounds. After the war I studied agriculture for three years, attended agricultural college for the winter semesters, and took my final examinations before the state agricultural board.

Q What year was that? took job of inspector in

A From 1919 until 1922.

Q What did you do after you passed that examination?

A After that I worked as a farmer in my father's estate. was first an SS colonel and colonel of the Q How long did you work there?

A Until 1934, after I had bought an estate of my own in 1931 with the help of my parents and brothers and sisters.

Q What job did you get in 1934? was called to Berlin and

A In 1934 I received a call to the SS main sector on "North" in Hamburg held that job until the surrender.

Q What was your rank when you entered this service?

A At first as a master sergeant, and a short time later as SS second lieutenant. that time had been under the

Q How long did you stay in Hamburg? The matter to be changed

A I was first sent to the SS quartermaster troops called Hamburg, and later to the Waffen SS Regiment Germania. In 1936 I was then transferred to the SD by instructions of the Reichsfuehrer of the SS. the state protection police, and a

Q What was your job in the SD? went back to the finance

A I first received my training in the SD main sector

(Semann - Direct)

in Stettin. The duties there were intelligence service for the Party in general in the economic life, cultural instruction.

Q How long did you stay with the SD then?

A In 1938 I was sent to Liegnitz, where I received a sector of my own. The next station I had in the same capacity in 1939 was in Breslau. In 1941 I had the same job in Hamburg. And in 1943 I became the inspector of the security police in the SD in Wiesbaden.

Q How long did you have this job of inspector in Wiesbaden?

A From January 1943 until the end of July 1944.

Q What was your rank at that time?

A My final rank was SS colonel and colonel of the police.

Q We will get back to this time later, but what was your job after you left Wiesbaden?

A On the 20th of July, 1944, I was called to Berlin and there got the job of inspector of the border protection duty service. I held that job until the surrender.

Q What was your job at the duty protection service?

A My job there was to transfer the border duty protection service, which until that time had been under the financial authorities only, under the police. The matter to be changed was like this: that everything along the so-called Green Frontier--meaning the frontiers on the soil--was to be sent to the security police; all the frontiers along the sea-coast were to be sent to the water protection police, and a large number of officials were to be sent back to the finance offices. A further job of mine while I was in Berlin was to [illegible] to it. I came in close contact with [illegible] set up a security line along the fighting front, at first in the Western Front, from Switzerland all the way up to [illegible] Holland, and the close cooperation with the armed forces. I also organized fifteen combat battalions for the front. For that purpose of training and equipping these battalions I had organized an office in Donaueschingen. [illegible]

Q Mr. Somann, right now, in connection with your political career, I would like to discuss charge No 2. Did you read Charge 2 on the Charge Sheet? [illegible] Rossbach, [illegible] Ast Yesterday? and [illegible], who addressed us.

Q Which organisations described therein as criminal organisations did you belong to?

A Since December 1931 I was a member of the Allgemeine SS, and since May 1936 I belonged to the SD.

Q Mr. Somann, will you please tell the court when you first took an active part in politics?

A When I came back from the front, having first been in the hospital, in 1918, or rather the beginning of 1919, and when I still was an enthusiastic young soldier, organizations known as Freikorps were organized, whose job at first was to annihilate the revolutions perpetrated by the Spartakus movements.

Q What kind of an organisation was this Spartakus?

A A bolshevist unit. And these Freikorps or free corps were also called in by the government and sent to the east in order to fight the intruding enemy there. One of these free corps was a free corps Rossbach, which I came in contact with after the government did not fulfill the obligations it had promised to it. I came in close contact with that outfit, and upon the invitation of the commanding officer of that unit, Rossbach, I went to Munich in January 1923 together with three hundred more comrades.

Q At that time did you make contact with any of the men of the Party?

A On that 28th day of January 1923, the first three regiments of the National Socialist Party were dedicated, and in the course of a meeting, in the comradely meeting in the evening, I, upon invitation of the free corps leader Rossbach, also met Ludendorff and Adolf Hitler, who addressed us.

Q Did you join the Party at that time?

A No. Any party, whichever it might have been, was no

Q When did you join the Party?

A I went back to my home town and there tried to orient myself politically some more. At first I made no contact with any Party. The reason was that in my opinion none of the parties which were mushrooming out of the ground at the time had any right of claiming the support of a large percentage of the population.

Q When did you join the Party?

A On 20 March 1927 I heard and saw Adolf Hitler for the second time while he was at a meeting in the vicinity of my home town.

Q Why did you join the Party?

A At that time Adolf Hitler described and discussed the idea of the community and of socialism in such a manner to the persons present at that meeting that he impressed me very deeply as well. At that time I became a National Socialist and joined the NSDAP.

(Somann - Direct)

Q When did you join the SS?

A Since the political contest which up to that time had been found mainly in the papers and had as such been coming to the attention of the public was transferred to the streets by the communist tactics of physically attacking anybody who did not join their opinions, and since that even went so far that the communists sheltered the salute of Hail Moscow on the streets, it became to me, as a nationally educated person, obvious that this Hail Moscow had to be stopped by any and all means. Since the German economy was at a low ebb at that time, the number of persons unemployed grew daily. The Communist Party grew stronger constantly, and matters reached a state where any party, whichever it might have been, was no longer able to conduct a peaceful meeting without being attacked by communist partisans.

Q Were those the reasons you joined the SS?

A These reasons--the reasons of trying to protect my own party meetings as a National Socialist--led me to the SS.

Q What was the exact date of your joining the SS?

A December 1931.

Q What were the goals and the program of the SS at the time?

A The SS was instituted for the protection of the Fuehrer, of the leadership corps of the NSDAP. Another one of its jobs was to insure the security of the German Reich and to be prepared to fight the internal as well as the external enemies of the Reich at any time, to the last man if necessary. And the virtues proclaimed by the SS, namely, following the Fuehrer at any cost, complete obedience to orders, that sort of obedience which does not ask why any orders are issued, and comradeship--one for all and all for one--were factors which particularly drew me to the SS.

Q At that time did you recognize those factors which today have led people to describe the SS as a criminal organization?

A No. In no way.

Q Do you know what the charges were against the SS which were corroborated by the Nuernberg sentence?

A Yes.

Q Did you have any function in the Party?

A No.

Q As a member of the SS did you serve in any concentration camp?

A No, never.

Q What was your duty in the SS? What type of duty did you have in the SS?

A My service before the ascension and the power was purely police service--that is, we learned the handling of persons by police methods, jiu-jitsu, boxing, and to steel men so that they would be strong in personal combat and would not run away, and military drilling.

Q What was your job in the SS after January 1939?

A I was in the SD in 1939, and I remained in the area of the Reich, in the zone of the interior, that is, until the end of the war, and I was never in a foreign country.

Q Will you tell the court whether there is any difference whether you got out of the SS when you were taken into the SD?

A When I became a member of the SD I had no function in the Allgemeine SS anymore, nor did I have any power of command.

Q You did not do any work anymore either?

A No, no kinds of work either.

Q Are you familiar with the fact that the SD has also been declared a criminal organization?

A Yes, unfortunately.

Q Do you know what the charges against the SD are according to the Nuernberg judgment?

A Yes.

Q Did you have anything to do with the matters which are charged against the SD there?

A No, I did not have anything to do with them. The SD in the zone of the interior was purely an intelligence organization without any executive functions. The SD in foreign countries--in occupied territories--however, were under the command of the commanding officers of the security police and the SD and were used for executive functions there, as were the members of the state police and the security police in occupied territories as well.

Q Will you please tell the court briefly what your jobs in the SD were before you came to Wiesbaden?

A Since we were living in a Fuehrer state, and since our position within the government is not permitted in that type of a state as it is within a democracy, there had to be created some organization which would bring to the attention of the leading elements the opinions and the criticism of the population. Of course, the Party had its own information organization in its own organization from the ortsgruppenleiters through kreisleiters, gauleiters, and up to Bormann or, at that time, still Hess. But it was also necessary to have such an intelligence organization which would be unbiased, and which was unbiased as long as I had anything to do with the SD. And for that reason the SD was organized as the state intelligence organization. In a few words, the SD was the ear of the leadership of the state at the body of the population, and simultaneously the megaphone of the people towards the state.

(Somann - Direct)

Q Did you have to send in intelligence reports only concerning party members or others concerning non-party members?

A On account of my education to act honestly and decently, particularly when you do not feel yourself under obligation, I became a Nationalist Socialist) and, after becoming one, I remained true to this precept. My main task through the years that I was in the SD was to see that cleanliness and orderliness be maintained, particularly among our own ranks in the party, and primarily to combat all bribery, corruption, all improper actions within the state, the party, the economy or the armed forces, or at least to see that such corruption would cease. This I did by means of making our reports to the very highest offices in Berlin, hoping to have these transmitted to the Fuehrer himself, hoping to have corrective action taken.

Q Did I understand you incorrectly in implying that the actions of the SD were directed against Party members as well as non-Party members?

A Yes, I paid particular attention ever since the time I became a sector leader, ever since 1938, to have my unpaid directors throughout the area recruited from the ranks of non-party members primarily for the reason that I wanted to take precautions not to be unjust and to receive the opinions of the population, particularly from the opposing elements. The relationship was one of 20 to 80, meaning 20% of my collaborators being Party members and 80% non-Party members.

Q Mr. Semann, I will now start talking about your activities in Wiesbaden. On what date did you move into Wiesbaden?

in accordance with SS ideology. I had to supervise the work done by these officers.

Q. What did this title "Inspector" connote?

A. As the name says--duties of an inspector were to inspect the offices of the Security Police and the SD.

Q. Please elaborate on the manner in which this supervision would have to take place.

A. Every six or eight weeks I was supposed to call, call the chiefs of the various offices--State Police, Criminal Police and SD to Wiesbaden to inform them of the orders of a fundamental nature that had come down from the Reichs Main Security Office during that period and to have a discussion of any incidents of any unusual nature that might have occurred in any of the offices or perhaps my office, to get all chiefs of the offices lined up according to one standard to take note of reports from me or my office if by any chance they had any kind of disagreement with High

A. I took my position in Wiesbaden on 20 January 1945. [illegible] the chief's in the [illegible]

Q. What was your position? [illegible]

A. As Inspector of the Security Police and the SD. [illegible]

Q. What was your rank at the time?

A. Standartenfuehrer, Junior Colonel [illegible] of the Security [illegible]

Q. What was your task as Inspector of the Sipo and of SD? [illegible] to [illegible]

A. My task in the first place was a liaison to the Gauleiters, to the Higher SS and Police Leader, to the Commanding General of the Wehrkreis, and to act as a liaison officer with the Reichs Security Main Office. Further, to see that the Security Police and the SD, that is the State Police and Criminal Police and the SD would be oriented Party officials, to discuss the transfer of officials into the SS--anything in this general frame--if the chiefs in the offices for instance might have some personal questions that I could help them with or just removing any sort of difficulties.

Q Now, who was your immediate superior?

A My immediate superior was the Chief of the Security Police, SS Lt. General Kaltenbrunner and also the chiefs of the offices shown on the chart over there from 1 to 7, to the extent to which they transmitted to me or issued to me orders in lieu of himself or by his order.

Q When you are talking about this chart, Defense Exhibit Number 2?

A Yes, that's what I mean.

Q How was your official relationship to General Stroop?

A General Stroop was the Higher SS and Police Leader that had been selected for this area by the Reichsfuehrer of the SS, and for that reason as the highest ranking SS officer in the area, looking at it from the SS standpoint, he was my superior officer, but he could give me orders and instructions only to the extent to which these orders and instructions did not contradict the orders and instructions of the chief, Dr. Kaltenbrunner.

Q Do I understand you to mean that General Stroop could give you orders only concerning matters of the SS and nothing else?

A He could also give me other orders, but only when these orders did not contradict the orders or instructions or directions of the Chief of the Security Police.

Q When did you meet General Stroop?

(Schmann-Direct)

A At the time that General Stroop was transferred to Wiesbaden as Higher SS and Police Leader, November, 1943.

Q What was your personal relationship to General Stroop?

A My relationship to General Stroop was purely a technical one, purely a business relationship, whereas our personal relationship was not a very good one.

Q Why?

A Maybe it was my fault, because I was sort of touchy. At any rate, our opinions concerning all things really were very much divergent. The first time this really cropped up was during an official trip when General Stroop took me along and said, "Now is your time Bingel." I then told him that his position there wasn't an easy one--that he had to cope with three rather difficult candidates. Upon that he said, "That won't be so bad. I will take care of them all right, and if the Fuehrer needs three candidates for the area but only one Higher SS and Police Leader, and I am him, then you will see what my position is, won't you?" General Stroop had to realize that these candidates had a much higher position than he might have assumed in the beginning. I, however, knew this already since I had been around various Gaus of the Reich many times and had known that that two out of the three candidates, namely Sauer and Sprenger were absolutely dominating and had no regard for any person's opinion except themselves.

Q You just mentioned two candidates. Will you please tell the Court what area your command of Inspection of the Security Police and the SD included?

A The three Gaus of Hessen-Nassau, Moselland and

Ga 300, 3/10/47, 1st-3
Ga 300, 3/10/47, lab-6
SO

Westmark belonged to the area of the Higher SS and Police Leader of Rhine-Westmark. Now, in this area, there were, too, the Security Police and the SD from the standpoint of inspection, and one Commanding Officer. The Commanding Officer had the area of Westmark and Lorraine, and my area of command from the standpoint of the Security Police and the SD, including the two Gaus of Hessen-Nassau and Moselland

Q What were the orders that existed at the time you took your position in Wiesbaden concerning the treatment of allied flyers?

A At the time that I had this position, several orders came in, most of which I don't remember too exactly, but some of them which I remember positively. The order existing was the one that all captured flyers in general were to be turned over to the armed forces or to the Air Forces in particular, and in the beginning of 1944 I then received an order from the Reichs Main Security Office Number 4, with General Mueller in command, that flyers which came into the hands of the Security Police or were picked up by the Security Police were to be sent to the Camp Oberursel by way of the State Police, Frankfurt. The reason he said that was to be done was that the State Police in Frankfurt had bought or built or rented a house there in which captured flyers were to be interrogated about, in the first place, their political opinion in general, and, in the second place, their attitude and opinions of the population of the country they were coming from. At that time that seemed to be a rather competitive business set up against the Air Corps.

(Schmann-Direct)

Apparently there were some attempts to be the first ones to make these reports to Goering or perhaps to the Fuehrer himself.

Q Am I understanding you correctly--that the political interrogation was to be performed by the Police and the military one by the Air Corps?

A Yes.

Q Which was to take place first, the political or military interrogation?

A I don't know. All I know is that I received the order from General Mueller to turn over as quickly as possible to the State Police office in Frankfurt any flyers that might have been delivered or picked up by us so that they might be turned over further possibly to Oberursel.

Q How did you receive this order, verbally or in writing?

A I received the order verbally, and then I transmitted it verbally as well to the Chiefs of my offices.

Q To what offices did you transmit it?

A To the offices of the State Police, Criminal Police and the SD in my area.

Q And was that order carried out?

A I had no way of checking this, but I do assume it was. At any rate, I heard of no reports to the contrary while serving in this capacity.

Q Did you receive any other orders concerning the treatment of parachuted flyers?

A One order of a basic nature. This non-interference order came towards the end of June, 1944.

Q By what means did you receive that order?

Ta 300, 8/10/47, afb-7
SECRET, 8/10/47, afb-8

A That was a copy of an order of the Reichsfuehrer of the SS, Heinrich Himmler, reading as follows: "It is not the duty of the police to interfere in any altercations between the populace and parachuted flyers."

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I am sorry, I beg the Court's pardon--that was "terror flyers" and was omitted from the translation.

INTERPRETER: That's correct. I am sorry--terror flyers.

WITNESS: This order had a supplement signed by Dr. Kaltenbrunner saying that this order is to be brought to the attention of the subordinate offices verbally.

QUESTIONS BY DR. WACKER:

Q Now, in what manner did you carry out this order of Kaltenbrunner and Himmler?

A I brought this order to the attention of the Chiefs of the offices, among other orders which were also brought to their attention at the same time, in June or July, 1944, and in the course of a meeting at my office in Wiesbaden.

Q Where did that take place?

A As far as I remember in my official building in Wiesbaden, Paulinen Strasse.

Q Who did you ask to that conference?

A The men usually called to that conference were the chiefs of the State Police Office, Criminal Police Office and SD Sectors of Frankfurt, Koblenz, Darmstadt, Trier, the Kripo chief of Wiesbaden, Kripo Chief of Heidelberg, and I think the Kripo Chief of Mannheim belonged to that group yet, also my personal advisor was present.

(Session Recess)

Q Who was that?

A Captain Dr. Krieger was my personal advisor and the administrative official.

Q Now, what did you announce to these persons who were present? I mean concerning this non-interference order?

A Either I, or my personal advisor, Dr. Krieger read this order out aloud with the supplement of Dr. Kaltenbrunner, without any further comment.

Q Didn't you give any supplementary order?

A No, never.

Q Did you give any explanations to this order?

A I don't know of giving any general explanation, but even though I did not give a general supplement to this order, I might have expressed my opinion about this order, and about the way this order impressed me to one of the other office chiefs, by saying to him that it is out of the question that any of the men lay their pistols down so that perhaps a flyer will be shot by the civilian population with one of our pistols. The Chief of the Koblenz Office, Dr. Christmann, either after this meeting or after a meeting following that, expressed his opinion and desires to the effect that some more energetic treatment should be given these flyers or something to that effect--I don't remember his exact words; and he asked me to give him permission to turn his flyers over to the Luftwaffe directly.

Q What did he mean by turning them over directly?

A He, himself, did not like my former order that these flyers were to be turned over by way of the State Police Office in Frankfurt, or felt that somebody who was not his superior was paying undue attention to him.

Q And what was the position that you took concerning this?

A Upon that I expressed my views at the conference with the Gestapo Chief Breder who was here as a witness already, and he pointed out the instructions which had been given him by the Chief of Office Number 4. He was also familiar with the fact that I had received identical instructions from General Mueller; and upon that I said the orders that are issued still stand. Any flyer turned over to us or picked up by us will at first be turned over to the State Police Office at Frankfurt.

End ta 300,
C fols.

Q Will you please tell us, Mr. Somann, whether you yourself could change this order of General Muller's in view of the fact that this order existed?

A I always stuck strictly to the orders I received. I neither changed them nor did I add to them, and I had to be particularly careful since I knew I had been under supervision and observation for years.

Q Who was observing you?

A At first by the former chief of the security police of the SD Lieutenant General Heidrich and later by Gruppenfuehrer Major General Muller.

Q Now, let's get back to Wiesbaden and one point to the preceding answer. Why were you observed?

A During my training in the SS in Stettin I had succeeded in sending a personal friend of mine, an 18th degree Free Mason, to the Mason's congress in Paris in 1937. This order came from the chief of the SD, Lieutenant General Heidrich.

Q What order are you talking about?

A To send a man there who was able to participate in the congress -- this meeting in Paris. Since this man happened to be the brother of a friend of mine whom I had in an evil eye and it was the only case that occurred in the field of this nature, everybody was terribly distrustful that I had left the one to go, and this man, the chief justice counsellor Dr. Luckmann went to this congress, went with him to Paris and brought a lot of material with him.

Q Who did he bring this material to?

A At first to me and then transmitted it to the SD. The main office in Berlin at that time had a special office which was to free Masonry questions, but these papers, this material which was brought to me contradicted everything that had been written there by everybody.

particularly two gentlemen, Schwartzberg and the other Reich. On account of this material submitted by me and since it contradicted and made untrue everything that had been before used to base the standards, former members of the Free Masons could become members of the NSDAP and all the work which had been done in the main office in Berlin concerning Masonry was made pointless by that.

Q Now, Mr. Somann explain to the court how you know you were under observation?

A I heard this first from comrades in Berlin, without being able to put my trust in it, but later on I had to find out even my telephone was tapped.

Q What were you accused of?

A I was not actually accused of anything, but I know that this had been commented on and disapproved in conferences in Berlin.

Q What had been disapproved?

A That I had made the whole work of the SD concerning the Free Masons useless.

Q Now, let's get back to my former question. You know the testimony of your co-accused, Hellenbroich?

A Yes.

Q What do you have to say to that testimony?

A During the time I spent in Wiesbaden, I learned to know SS Major Hellenbroich as a clean cut and decent SS officer. I am sure he did not make this statement in order to produce evidence against me particularly and the only explanation possible for his statement here is an error or a mistake in identity.

Q Do you maintain the statement that you did not make any elaboration or supplement to that order even towards him?

A Yes, I will stick to that particularly for the reason at that time one living flier was of greater value to me than one hundred dead ones.

Q Why?

A I think so because otherwise he could not have said anything [illegible] political interrogations conducted by the state police, Frankfurt.

Q Was Hellenbroich present at your place at this general conference of police chiefs at Darmstadt or Frankfurt, either?

A I don't remember that exactly, but according to his own statement he arrived later after the order had been announced to the conference in general and I personally gave him the order.

Q While you served in that capacity in Wiesbaden, was any parachuted Allied flier beaten or mistreated by the civilian population?

A I never found out about any such cases officially nor did I privately. I am talking about any such cases of possible mistreatment or beating or killing of Allied fliers.

Q Was this non-interference order ever again subject for discussion while you served in Wiesbaden?

A No.

Q You said to the court a while back in reply to one of my questions you might have made an explanation approving a conversational remark. Did you do that towards Hellenbroich?

A I don't know that any more, but there certainly is a possibility for otherwise Hellenbroich would not say the supplementary order was issued or there was some talk about it and I would like to repeat what I might have said is the following: It is always out of question for a police official to give his pistol away so a flier could be shot by one of our pistols.

Q What were you trying to express by that?

A This order would be strictly obeyed as a non-interference order and it was not the duty of the security police or SD to either kill Allied fliers or participate therein.

Q Is it possible Hellenbroich might have misunderstood such a remark?

CHARGE SHEET
ANKLAGESCHRIFT

A I do think so because otherwise he could not have said anything and the only explanation for this is a misunderstanding or an error.

PRESIDENT: Court will adjourn until 0900 hours, 11 March 1947.

(Whereupon at 1615 hours the court adjourned until 0900 hours, 11 March 1947.)

Legal Form No. 8

MILITARY GOVERNMENT COURT
MILITÄRGERICHT

CHARGE SHEET
ANKLAGESCHRIFT

Place .....
Ort

Date .....
Datum

Name of accused .....
Name des Angeklagten

is hereby charged with the following offences:
wird hiermit wegen der folgenden strafbaren Handlungen angeklagt:

First Charge: ..... Erste Anklage: .....

.....

.....

.....

Particulars: ..... Einzelheiten: .....

.....

.....

.....

Second Charge: ..... Zweite Anklage: .....

.....

.....

.....

Particulars: ..... Einzelheiten: .....

.....

.....

.....

.....

The above charges are referred for trial to the *Summary *Intermediate Military Court to be held *General

Die Verhandlung wird vor dem *Einfachen *Mittleren Militärgerichte *Oberen

at ..... on ..... 194.....
in (Address of Court) am
(Anschrift des Gerichtes)

at .....
um Uhr stattfinden. By Order
Im Auftrage von

.....
(Signature of person preferring charges)
(Unterschrift des Vertreters der Anklagebehörde)

*Strike out words not applicable.
*Nichtzutreffendes ist durchzustreichen.

Copy of above served on accused ..... 194.....
Abschrift dem Angeklagten zugestellt am

.....
(Signature of person making service)
(Unterschrift des Zustellers)

CA/GI 13 Legal Form No. 8

MILITARY GOVERNMENT COURT

CASE RECORD.

Count 32

Pages 2266 - 2348

Case No. Superior Orders

Prosecutor Lt. Col. Dwinell

*Summary
*Intermediate Military Court.
*General

Defence Counsel Lt. Col. Berman
Rudolph Nathanson

Place DACHAU, GERMANY

Interpreter Herbert B. Rosenstock

Date 11 MARCH 194 7

Reporter Paula L. Silverman, William F. Jones, Peter DiCurti, John MacDonald, Imogene Butler, Evelyn Cohen

~~Members of Court~~: WITNESSES:

OTTO SOMANN	JOSIAS COUNT OF WALDECK	HEINZ WOLFGANG WILHELM PINDER
KARL KALESKE	REINHARD BREDER
WILHELM WIBBENS	HANS JUTTNER
WOLFGANG BERGER	FRITZ DIETRICH

Accused JURGEN STROOP, et al

Address Sex Age

	First Charge	Second Charge
Pleas
Findings
Previous Convictions

Sentence
- Imprisonment
  - Term
  - Beginning 194
- Fine
  - Amount
  - To be paid before 194 or in case of default of payment to serve a *further term of imprisonment.

Charge Sheet and Record of Testimony are annexed hereto.

(Signature of member of court.)

REVIEW

Action of Reviewing Authority

(Signature of reviewing authority)

*Strike out words not applicable.

RECORD OF TESTIMONY

in trial of

THE UNITED STATES vs. JUERGEN STROOP, et al

by

GENERAL MILITARY GOVERNMENT COURT

DACHAU, GERMANY BEGINNING 20 JANUARY 1947

21 MARCH 1947 Pages 2266 - 2338

TESTIMONY

	Direct	Cross	Redirect	Recross	Court
OTTO SOMANN (Contd)	2266
KARL KALEBER	2293	2307
WILHELM WOHLEBE	2312	2316
WOLFGANG REHDER	2317	2321
RICHARD BRIDE				2328
JOSIAS COURT OF WALDECK	2324
HANS JUPNER	2326
FRITZ DIEDRICH	2332
HEINZ WOLFGANG WILHELM FINDER	2334

EXHIBITS

NONE

CA/GI 13 Legal Form No. 8

MILITARY GOVERNMENT COURT

CASE RECORD.

Quartz 52

Pages 2266 - 2348

Case No. Superior Orders

*~~Summary~~
*~~Intermediate~~ Military Court.
*General

Place DACHAU, GERMANY

Date 11 MARCH 194 7

Prosecutor Lt. Col. Dwinell

Defence Counsel Lt. Col. Berman
Rudolph Nathanson

Interpreter Herbert B. Rosenstock

Reporter Paula L. Silverman, William F. Jones, Peter DiCurti, John MacDonald, Imogene Butler, Evelyn Cohen

~~Members of Court~~: WITNESSES:

OTTO SCHAMM — JOSIAS COUNT OF WALDECK — HEINZ WOLFGANG WILHELM PINDER

KARL KALESKE — REINHARD BREDER

WILHELM WIBBENS — HANS JUTTNER

WOLFGANG BERGER — FRITZ DIETRICH

Accused JURGEN STROOP, et al

Address ..... Sex ..... Age .....

	First Charge	Second Charge
Pleas
Findings
Previous Convictions

Sentence
- Imprisonment
  - Term .....
  - Beginning ..... 194.....
- Fine
  - Amount .....
  - To be paid before ..... 194.....
    or in case of default of payment to serve a *further term of ..... imprisonment.

Charge Sheet and Record of Testimony are annexed hereto.

.....
(Signature of member of court.)

REVIEW

Action of Reviewing Authority .....

.....

.....
(Signature of reviewing authority)

*Strike out words not applicable.

RECORD OF TESTIMONY

in trial of

THE UNITED STATES vs. JURGEN STROOP, et al

by

GENERAL MILITARY GOVERNMENT COURT

DACHAU, GERMANY BEGINNING 20 JANUARY 1947

11 MARCH 1947 Pages 2266 - 2340

TESTIMONY

	Direct	Cross	Redirect	Recross	Court
OTTO SCHAUB (Contd)	2266
KARL HALBURK	2293	2307
WILHELM WIESNER	2312	2316
WOLFGANG REINHER	2317	2321
REINHARD BREDER			2322
JOSIAS COUNT OF WALDECK	2324
HANS JUTTNER	2326
FRITZ DIETRICH	2332
HEINZ WOLFGANG WILHELM PFEIFER	2334

EXHIBITS

NONE

Camp Dachau, Germany
11 March 1947

MORNING SESSION

(Whereupon the court reconvened at 0900 hours.)

PRESIDENT: Court will come to order.

PROSECUTION: May it please the court, let the record show that all the members of the court; all the members of the prosecution; all the members of the defense; all the accused except Rost, No. 14, Opas, No. 15 and Michely, No. 16, who are temporarily absent in conference with defense counsel; the reporter and interpreter, are present.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: At the end of the last session the accused, Semann, No. 8 was on the stand, under direct examination by Dr. Wacker.

PRESIDENT: You are reminded you are still under oath.

THE WITNESS: Yes.

OTTO SOMANN, an accused, voluntarily resumed the stand and being reminded he was still under oath, testified further through an interpreter as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION (continued)

QUESTIONS BY DR. WACKER:

Q Mr. Semann, we discussed yesterday the non-interference order. Do you have anything else to testify about this point?

A No.

Q What other instructions did you receive in regard to parachuted enemy fliers?

A During the time several other orders came in.

Q What kind of orders were they?

A These were orders mostly in regard to agents who had parachuted and who had the assignment to commit sabotage and espionage behind the German lines, behind the German front.

Q Can you give us approximately, at least, the contents of this order?

A As soon as an enemy parachutist has been recognized as an agent, he was to be delivered without interrogation by the police to the State Police, that means the secret State Police. There, then, was decided about him.

Q When did this order come out?

A I can't give you the exact date but I think it was around the middle or end of 1943.

Q From whom did this order come in?

A From the Chief of the Security Police and the Security Service, Lt. General Kaltenbrunner.

Q Did incidents like that happen in your area during your time of service which had to do with agents of this type?

A During the winter of 1943 we succeeded in capturing an agent who had parachuted from an English plane in the neighborhood of Trier. At that time I ordered Major Mohr to take care of this matter. First, a counter espionage game was played with Moscow. He was an agent Moscow and he had parachuted from a plane.

Q May I ask the question again? Didn't you say that he himself was from the Ahr Valley.

A Yes, that's true. Later on he was transferred to the Reichs Security Main Office at Berlin. What happened later on I don't know.

Q That means you don't know what happened to the flier?

A He was not a flier, he was a German agent who had received his training and instruction at Moscow in order to commit espionage in Germany for Moscow.

Q Do you know of any other case which fell under this particular order?

A Not to my time at Wiesbaden.

Q Did you receive additional orders in regard to parachuted enemy fliers?

(Seemann-direct)

A I know about an order from Adolf Hitler, the high command of the Wehrmacht, according to which parachuted commando units, agents and saboteurs, in accordance with orders had to be rounded down to the last man. Such a case did not happen during my time of service at Wiesbaden.

Q How did you understand this order?

A That these troops of agents and saboteurs had to be killed up to the last man.

Q Were these troops supposed to be captured first and then to be killed, or how was it meant?

A They were to be killed on the spot where they were found.

Q Do I understand you right that they were not supposed to be taken prisoners?

A No, not to be taken prisoners.

Q Do you know of any additional orders?

A Additional orders? I can't remember right now.

Q Mr. Semann, please tell the court about all and any incidents where fliers have been shot during your period of service at Wiesbaden.

A Since the beginning of my activity as an inspector of the Security Police for the two Gaus, Hessen-Nassau and Moselland from January '43 until the end of July '44 not a single case came to my knowledge in which a flier had been killed.

Q Mr. Semann, did you read the charge sheet?

A Yes.

Q Do you realise that in the charges from 3 up to and including 10, you too are charged with a crime?

A I am only charged but I am not guilty.

Q What do you have to say about the individual charges?

A Of the cases 3 to 10 in which I am charged too, I heard about them for the first time after the 15th of July 1946.

Q Please tell the court once more when you left Wiesbaden?

A I left Wiesbaden on the 20th of July 1944.

Mr. Sauter, did you hear the testimony of the witness, Kaltenbrunner, yesterday?

A Yes.

Q What do you have to say about this testimony?

A I did not hear anything about this meeting in Berlin during my presence in Wiesbaden and even afterwards. It isn't even known to me that a member of my Criminal Police Headquarters was called to Berlin for such a meeting.

Q How do you explain this in view of your position as inspector of the Security Service and Security Police?

A It happened often that the chief of the Criminal Police Headquarters or the chiefs of Gestapo Headquarters or the chief of the Security Service Headquarters were called to Berlin for special meetings. It was customary and, of course, a matter of course, that afterwards these chiefs informed me of the discussions which had taken place at Berlin. Of this meeting on the 21st of July 1944 about which the witness, Kaltenbrunner, testified yesterday, I heard for the first time yesterday here.

Q Mr. Sauter, I come back once more to your relations with the Higher SS and Police Leader, General Stroop. Did you hear the remark which was made, I think it was done by the witness, Kaltenbrunner, about the relationship to the Gauleiters and Kreisleiters?

A Will you please repeat the question once more, I didn't hear it?

(Whereupon the reporter read the last question.)

A I must have overheard this remark. If I am not mistaken, that is a reference to the pressure of the Party about which there was talk on several occasions here in court.

Q Did you have to do with this Party pressure?

A I myself had to do with it a lot and, furthermore, I felt very much the pressure of the entire Party which was exercised on the entire police organization.

Q How was this Party pressure to be felt?

A The Party pressure against the Security Police came out especially this way -- that the chief of the Gestapo office in a Gau, was, at the same time, the political adviser and expert to the Reichsstatthalter in this Gau. It was the job of the Gestapo chief to inform the Gauleiter about all important events of a political nature. During these meetings the Gauleiter was able to exercise a pressure against the chief of the Gestapo Headquarters in this way -- that he informed him of his wishes, was able to make admonishments, and did so. If and when the Gestapo Headquarters did not act in accordance with the wishes of the Party. Mostly, the complaints against the Gestapo were that the Gestapo was not tough enough against enemies of the State. This was the complaint of the Gauleiter and others. This went so far that Kreisleiters in the Gau Hessen-Nassau, during a meeting of Party officials, made the request that the Gestapo officials in their districts should be put under their supervision as the Kreisleiters of the Party. Of course, I rejected this. Another influence was given because the SD chief, that means the man who was in charge of the Party information service, was the political expert and adviser to the Gauleiter for the Party sector. Here, too, arguments developed repeatedly --

Q Just a moment. With whom did it come to arguments?

A Between the Gauleiter on one side and the chief of the SD sector on the other side.

Q Did you report about these arguments?

A Yes.

Q By whom?

A Especially as an old SD man I was extremely interested in this matter and drew the SD sector man to me as closely as possible.

Q What kind of reports did you receive?

A Since there was an assignment of the SD, as I explained already yesterday, to investigate shortcomings, complaints and crimes in all fields -- I'd like to correct myself -- and it was his job to see that these things would be corrected, these cases were reported by the chief of the SD sector to the Gauleiter as the highest Party official in this sector.

Q Mr. Somann, what was your reaction to this Party pressure?

A Whenever an SD sector chief reported to me an incident and the Gauleiter did not remedy this condition, I personally took action by writing to the Gauleiter and asking him to remedy this condition, since the Party leaders, first of all, had the duty to live an exemplary life before the people. If even I couldn't be successful against the Gauleiter, which happened quite often, then the chief of the SD sector sent his report to the Reich Security Main Office at Berlin.

Q During these efforts did you have the assistance and help of General Stroop?

A Partly, yes, but unfortunately not always.

Q What do you mean, not always?

A Incidents happened which I reported to General Stroop and in these cases he probably didn't take strong action for the reason that he didn't want to have any difficulties with the Gauleiters. Another enormous Party pressure was exercised through the Gauleiter in his capacity as Reichsstatthalter.

Q Against whom?

SO tm 302 pls

A Against the president of the government. Furthermore, through the same channel of command against the police presidents and police directors, chief mayors and the chief magistrates of the counties. This same pressure was exercised especially since the individual Kreisleiters increased this pressure and tried and tried to enforce their wishes with the chief magistrates of the counties, the chief mayors, police presidents and police directors.

Q Mr. Semann, I return once more to your membership in the SD. When you entered the SD did you have to sign a certain statement?

A Yes, each member of the SD whenever he entered the SD or whenever he was used for confidential missions, had to sign a statement which read as follows: I swear absolutely to obey the Fuehrer and the men ordered by him. If, in spite of this oath, I become a traitor, I accept every punishment without sentencing by court.

Q What was the influence of this statement on the disobedience to orders?

A Before the war an SD man who had refused to carry out an order would have had to expect a long term at hard labor and, furthermore, transferred to a concentration camp.

Q How was it during the war?

A During the war there was only one punishment for that and that was death.

Q Mr. Semann, I come now to Charge No.1. How many of the accused did you know during the time of your service as inspector of the Security Police at Wiesbaden?

A Before I came to Wiesbaden I had met, in 1938 during my presence at Berlin, the accused, Rasp. That is the only one. Of all the other men accused with me during my service at Wiesbaden, I got acquainted with General Streep, SS Major Cirkc, SS Major Hellenbreich, M Sgt. Stattmann, and M Sgt. Fuehr.

Q Please tell the court what you have discussed or planned with all of the accused when you have mentioned or with any individual of these accused in regard to parachuted fliers?

A I passed down the non-interference order of 1942 to SS Major Heilenbroich. The non-interference order, as far as I can remember after it had been received by me, was reported by me to General Streep. Furthermore, it was discussed during a meeting which General Streep had called in view of the defense plan which was discussed here.

Q Mr. Semann, I think you misunderstood my question. I'd like to know which discussions and conferences you have held without the carrying out of orders which you had received?

A Never. I have never talked with anyone of the comrades who are accused with me.

Q Did you try to take any influence on the orders which you had received?

A No.

Q Was such an influence possible?

A The influence was possible in this way -- in that I either had taken an interest personally that these orders were carried out, or that a chief of one of my offices had reported to me that men under his command had refused to carry out this order.

Q I think here again you have misunderstood me. I wanted to say did you have any influence on the orders which you received from Berlin?

A No, all orders from Berlin were passed down in the same way I received them, without additions or deletions.

DR. HACKER: No more questions.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: May it please the court, I have a few that I want to ask as a continuation of the direct examination but at this time I'd like to raise one question. When the accused, Semann, was on the stand previously and under my instructions refused to answer questions certain presumptions were necessarily raised because of his refusal so to answer. I'd like to ask the prosecution, through the court, whether they are going to stand on that presumption or whether they are going to take advantage of their opportunity to address those questions now or any other questions they might have to the accused. If they don't care to do that or don't want to make any statements, then we will ask the questions ourselves. It occurs to me it might make a little better procedure if the prosecution will say, "Let's forget about the fact he didn't want to answer. We'll ask him now."

PRESIDENT: Do you have any remarks you'd like to make?

CAPTAIN VANCE: No, sir, I have no remarks.

PRESIDENT: Just proceed with the direct examination.

(Examination-direct)

Q Coming back just for a moment to your membership in the SS. Beginning with January 1st, 1939, tell very briefly what your contribution to the SS or the Allgemeine SS was.

A I had no activity in the Allgemeine SS since January 1st, 1939. Only from January 1st, 1939, until the beginning of the war I paid a monthly membership fee of fifty pfennigs. During the war even this fee was not paid anymore.

Q Now, I believe you stated that your entire service from January 1st, 1939, until the end of the war was with the SD and within the limits of continental Germany as it existed before the war, is that correct?

A Yes.

Q Did you, at any time, in any capacity, between January 1st, 1939, until the end of the war serve outside the original boundaries of Germany as it existed before the war?

A No.

Q I should put the question this way. Did you serve at any time between those dates in any place outside of Germany proper?

A No.

Q Did you at any time in the course of your duties have anything to do with the importation into Germany or the control in Germany of the so-called slave labor?

CAPTAIN VANCE: We object. This question is obviously leading. It suggests the answer.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: It is part of the denial of guilt, may it please the court.

CAPTAIN VANCE: I don't mind him denying anything but I don't want you to put words in his mouth.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I pray the court's judgment as to the form of the question.

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

THE WITNESS: No.

QUESTIONS BY DEFENSE COUNSEL:

Q Have you read or had read to you the Nuremburg decision with respect to the SD?

A Yes, I read it.

Q Can you tell the court some of the grounds or bases for the finding of guilty as mentioned in that decision?

CAPTAIN VANCE: We object on the ground that this document is in evidence. The document itself is the best evidence.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I am just trying to beat your objection about leading. I will withdraw the question.

QUESTIONS BY DEFENSE COUNSEL:

Q What did you have to do during the course of your duties with the SD with the so-called Einsatzcommandos?

A Personally nothing.

Q Did the course of your duties bring you in contact with the management or control in any way with concentration camps?

A No, never.

Q Will you please tell the court what reports you received during the entire time you were inspector at Wiesbaden which had to do with the mistreatment or killing of any Allied personnel whatsoever?

A I never heard anything or mistreatments or killings.

Q Now, you stated that previous to the end of the war you knew Fuehr. Did you ever sit down in a conference with Fuehr and plan anything?

CAPTAIN VANCE: We object on the ground that it is repetitious. The same question has been asked before.

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

THE WITNESS: No, never. The accused Fuehr during my term of duty at Wiesbaden was twice my driver and once he came to me with a personal matter in which I helped him.

QUESTIONS BY DEFENSE COUNSEL:

Q Were any of the other accused involved in that personal matter?

A No.

Q I think you mentioned Stattman and Raaf, that you knew before the war. Did you ever sit down in conference with those two men?

A I did not know Raaf. Stattman only through the fact that once he brought to me a file from the Gestapo headquarters Darmstadt to Wiesbaden. Otherwise I had no official contact with him and didn't talk with him.

Q Coming down to Cirke. Other than passing down to him directly or indirectly these orders you mentioned having to do with flyers, did you have any contact or conference with him in regard to other matters charged in this case?

A No, never.

Q Now, coming down to Party pressure that you talked about before, did you ever have occasion to go to the Higher SS and Police Leader with matters involving Party pressure?

A I can't remember any of the original cases, but it is certain that I discussed with the Higher SS and Police Leader, General Stroop, the party pressure.

Q On these occasions when you did discuss the party pressure, did that involve matters which came to your attention originally or were they brought to your attention by the headquarters of the other organizations under your command, or both?

A These were incident which had come to my knowledge through the chiefs of my various offices.

Q And why did they bring them to you?

A Because the requests of the party organizations were beyond the allowed limits and the chiefs of the headquarters refused to give in to all desires of the party. Then it was my business as inspector to get involved in the matter, to repudiate the Kreisleiter or to tell the Gauleiter that it was impossible to give in to their request since they were contradictory to instructions received from Berlin.

Q Prior to the end of the first session Herr Semann, I started to ask you what authority you had over the Gestapo, Kripo and the SD as inspector. I mean the first time you were on the stand and you started to explain also your disciplinary powers over the members of the Gestapo, Kripo and the SD. Will you tell the court what your personal powers of punishment were over the personnel of the Gestapo, Kripo and SD in the area of which you were inspector?

A My authority in regard to the members of the Gestapo, Criminal Police and Security Police Service was as follows ---

Q I asked you about your power to punish.

A Yes.

Q All right.

A I could -- the members of these organizations in case of bad behaviour inside the office and in off duty hours for unsatisfactory performance of their duties, I could punish up to four weeks of strict arrest and up to six weeks of light arrest.

Q What were your powers of punishment in the event of a refusal to obey an order which you passed down as having been received from higher headquarters, or which they received direct by passing you from higher headquarters?

A If a case of disobedience of orders came to my knowledge, according to the importance of the order, I would have relieved this man of his assignment, would have had him arrested and would have sent a report in regard to him to the Reichs Main Security Office, Berlin. The punishment would have taken place from there. In light cases it would have been possible that this case would have been transferred back to the SS and Police Court of the Higher SS and Police Leader at Wiesbaden.

Q Now, you said that the course of action you would take for the disobedience of an order would depend on the seriousness of the order disobeyed. What difference would that make as far as your action is concerned, or your authority to take action is concerned?

A For instance, if a member of the Gestapo headquarters had refused an order of little importance, for instance an order to repair a bicycle, he would have been punished with strict arrest.

Q Let's stop taking all year to try this case. I asked you what authority you had to punish for disobedience of an order which came to you direct from Kaltenbrunner's office or came direct to them and you said you would report the matter to Berlin or punish him according to how serious the matter was. Tell the court what action you would take?

A I had the possibility to check whether orders had been carried out only if and when I was informed of the order.

Q Let's assume that you knew please. Let's assume that you knew there had been a failure to obey an order that came down either direct or through you. What would happen. I will repeat the question. You testified before that if there was a case of disobedience to an order which came down from the Reichssicherheitshauptamt either direct or through yourself, you would relieve the man from his job, take off his uniform and put him under arrest or report the matter to Berlin, depending on whether it was a serious order or not so serious. What difference would that make in your opinion?

A The not carrying out of an important order, I would have reported to Berlin. The not carrying out of the less important orders I would have punished myself.

Q Now Colonel Somann, who furnished the information for the preparation of the charts which have been introduced in evidence as Defense Exhibits 1 and 2?

CAPTAIN VANCE: We object on the ground that the question is repetitious. The same question was propounded by myself and the accused refused to answer.

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: May it please the court, if the court would like to recess, I can stop right now.

PRESIDENT: Court will recess for twenty minutes.

(Whereupon at 1000 hours the court recessed until 1020 hours.)

(Whereupon the court reconvened.)

PRESIDENT: The court will come to order.

PROSECUTION: May it please the court, let the record show that all the members of the court, all the members of the prosecution, all the members of the defense, all of the accused the reporter and interpreter are present.

PRESIDENT: You are reminded that you are still under oath.

OTTO SCHAAN, an accused, voluntarily resumed the stand and being reminded he was still under oath, testified further through an interpreter as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION, continued

QUESTIONS BY DEFENSE COUNSEL:

Q Schaan, at the end of the last session I asked you the following question, "Colonel Scheerer who furnished the information for the preparation of the charts which have been introduced in evidence as Defendants Exhibits one and two.

CAPTAIN VANCE: I object on the ground that it is repetitious.

LAW MEMBER: That was overruled.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: That was overruled just before the recess.

THE WITNESS: On the request of the chief defense counsel Colonel Berenda we were working on this chart--General Stroop, Colonel Trumbour, SS Major Girke, SS Major Hollenbreich, Colonel of the SS Lassak and myself.

QUESTIONS BY DEFENSE COUNSEL:

Q Now Colonel Scheerer, calling your attention to the part of the chart which pertains to the Security Police from Kaltenbrunner down, who furnished the information for the preparation of that part of the chart?

CAPTAIN VANCE: Same objection, if it please the court, and to save time I will enter a blanket objection to every question read out of this record as being repetitious.

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

(Schaan-direct)

pld-3Gk-2

CAPTAIN VARCH: Will the court consider that I make an objection to each and every question separately as propounded?

PRESIDENT: It is so considered and so overruled.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: As it pertains, of course, to questions that are part of the record which were previously declined to be answered.

THE WITNESS: Colonel Trumbler, SS Major Girke, SS Major Hellenbreich and myself.

QUESTIONS BY DEFENSE COUNSEL:

Q Now on this chart, the personnel section, Amt number two which you testified was supply--that line in command goes directly to you, does it not?

A Yes. To department number one and department number two.

Q You drew that line on this chart, did you not?

A Yes.

Q I notice that the other section from Hattenbrunner's office, which is marked SD, Gestapo or Kripo, as a direct chain, skips your headquarters and goes down to the headquarters of Frankfurt, Coblenz and Darmstadt. I will ask you if you did draw that line and furnish that information yourself?

A Yes. In addition Colonel Trumbler, SS Major Girke and SS Major Hellenbreich.

Q Now a question of my own not on the record. I call your attention to the right hand side of Defendants Exhibit Number two--this part underneath the Reichssicherheitshauptamt all the way down. Who furnished the information for that as it stands?

A Mainly, I myself.

Q Tell the court what is meant by the line going from SD to Gestapo and Kripo, the line with the jagged teeth on it which goes down to your headquarters?

A The red and black line going from departments four and five to the Kripo, Stapo and SD offices at Frankfurt, Coblenz and Darmstadt shows the direct channel of command of these two departments to these headquarters. The line with black teeth from the Reich Security Main Office to the inspectors of the Security Police and the Security Service and then further down to the headquarters Frankfurt, Cologne and Darmstadt represents the channel of command from the Reich Security Main Office all the way down for orders of fundamental importance.

(Sommer-direct)

Q By your preparation of this chart you show that you had no connection with the SD, Gestapo and Kripo, is that correct?

A Connection I had. Only these lines were the direct channel of command from the departments in Berlin to these individual headquarters.

Q I believe, on direct examination, you described your position as inspector of the Stapo and SD, is that correct?

A Yes.

Q Tell the court exactly what your duties were as inspector of the Stapo and SD?

DEFENSE COUNSEL: May it please the court, in this connection it has been answered previously and in other testimony this would be merely repetitious and I am asking him to conform entirely to the record. May I ask if the court has any instructions in that one particular question?

PRESIDENT: The court does not desire a lot of repetition. If some of these questions have been answered then we don't want to hear them again.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Thank you sir, we will pass that one up.

QUESTIONS BY DEFENSE COUNSEL:

Q Did you know one Heinrich Himmler?

A Yes.

Q Did you know the head of the Security Police, one Dr. Kaltenbrunner?

A Yes.

Q Do you know General Wuennenberg?

(Seminar-direct)

A Only from seeing him.

Q To whom did you pass on orders that you received from whoever had authority to give you orders?

A To the chiefs of the Gestapo, Criminal Police and Security Service headquarters.

Q You have testified to the party pressure on the police. I will ask you if it wasn't also the duty of the police, particularly the Gestapo, to put pressure on the party?

CAPTAIN VANCE: I object on the ground that it was leading.

PRESIDENT: Objection sustained.

QUESTIONS BY DEFENSE COUNSEL:

Q You have testified already somewhat about the party pressure on the police. Can you tell the court whether or not the police in turn put pressure on the party?

CAPTAIN VANCE: Same objection, if it please the court.

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

THE WITNESS: The police were unable to exercise pressure on the party and never did exercise it.

QUESTIONS BY DEFENSE COUNSEL:

Q How would you know whether orders which were passed down by your superiors to your subordinates directly or which were passed down to your subordinates through you were obeyed or disobeyed?

A I could know about it only through the individual chiefs of my headquarters or through an inquiry from Berlin.

Q Can you tell the court how many times you attended conferences with General Stroop while you were inspector? Just by number.

A The number of conferences on which I participated with General Stroop--conferences which took place in a larger group--is certainly not larger than ten.

(Cross-direct)

Q Did you have personal conferences with him privately?

A First I went to General Stroop approximately once a week and informed them of all activities in my area in regard to security police and security service. This information was later on taken care of through my personal representative and expert, SS Captain Dr. Krieger.

Q During the same period, while you were inspector, did you have conferences with Kaltenbrunner?

A Yes.

Q How many?

A Approximately three to four times.

Q Tell the court in detail just what these conferences were about and where they were held.

A For the first time in December, 1943 I was gone to the chief of the Security Police, General Kaltenbrunner and asked him to be transferred since my relationship to General Stroop was not the best one. Kaltenbrunner told me that I could expect to become the commander in Norway in February or March of 1944.

Q Wait a moment. Did you tell Kaltenbrunner, at the time, why you wanted to be relieved?

A I explained before that since my relations to General Stroop were not good I asked him for transfer.

Q All right. When and where was the second conference with Kaltenbrunner

A The second conference with Kaltenbrunner was about the end of May, 1944.

Q Where?

A In Berlin.

Q About what?

A The chief of the branch office of the Gestapo, Frankfurt, SS Captain Knapp came to me and reported to me that his immediate superior SS Lieutenant

(Sommer-direct)

Colonel Pohl, the predecessor of SS Major Breder, had complained to him, Knapp, why he made a secret report about me. At that time I took a sworn statement from SS Captain Knapp, went to Lieutenant General of the SS Kaltenbrunner and asked him to be relieved if I didn't have his full confidence. SS Lieutenant General Kaltenbrunner gave orders to Brigadier General Schulte head of Department One at the Reich Security Main Office, to investigate this matter. Later on I heard from Schulte that Pohl had testified during his interrogation to have received the order to report to the Security Police, Wiesbaden from the Lieutenant General of the SS Heydrich. The Lieutenant Colonel of the SS Pohl was transferred then as a punishment and became the commander of the concentration group, Mittelbau. I didn't hear anything else about this incident.

Q. Was the [illegible] that you told you were talking about?

A. Myself.

Q. What was there in this sworn statement with which you go to Kaltenbrunner? What did it say?

A As I said before Lieutenant Colonel of the SS Pohl, at that time in charge of the Gestapo at Frankfurt, had admonished the SS Captain Knapp that he had made no reports about me.

Q Now come down to the third conference with Kaltenbrunner. When and where was that?

A This was very soon thereafter. Approximately the end of May.

Q What year?

A 1944.

Q Where was it held?

A In Berlin.

Q About what?

A I had technical conferences with the various heads of departments and in this connection I reported again to SS Lieutenant General Kaltenbrunner and asked again for a transfer from Wiesbaden.

(Sessions-direct)

Q Did you tell him why you wanted it?

A For the same reasons as before.

Q Now the fourth conference, when and where was that?

A The fourth conference I had forgotten. The fourth conference was already in January, 1944.

Q That was the second conference in point of time, was it not?

A Yes.

Q What was that about?

A At that time all the chiefs of Gestapo Headquarters, criminal police headquarters and Security Police centers, the inspectors and the commanders of the Security Police had been called to Koenigsberg for a large meeting. There, too, I talked to Lieutenant General Kaltenbrunner about matters of general importance.

Q Tell the court all the talk you had with Kaltenbrunner which had to do with the treatment of allied airmen and personnel?

A I never had any official talk with SS Lieutenant General Kaltenbrunner in regard to the treatment of allied prisoners of war.

Q Did you ever have any unofficial talks with him?

A No, neither. Not about this.

Q During the time you were inspector how often did you have conferences with the chiefs of Frankfurt, Coblenz and Darmstadt, of the Kripo, Stapo and SD?

A Approximately every six to eight weeks the chiefs of the Gestapo Headquarters, Criminal Police Headquarters and Security Service Sectors were called to me to Wiesbaden for conferences. There the orders of fundamental importance which had been received in the meantime were brought to their attention and knowledge and other matters too—personnel questions, transfers to the SS, etc., were discussed there.

Q Were these conferences held with the Stapo, Kripo and SD separately or would you have the meetings with two or three organizations at the same time?

(Seemann -direct)

A No, usually together.

Q Isn't it a fact that when you did have these conferences with the Gestapo, the Kripo or the SD, either together or separately, you discussed with these subordinates the treatment to be given to allied flyers?

A No. Only in case that order had been received, as I testified to before about arrested agents and their treatment and something similar like that.

Q Because it is a matter of great importance I want you to tell the court once more, but briefly, how many orders you received dealing with the treatment of allied flyers? Just a number.

CAPTAIN VANCE: We object on the ground that the question is repetitious. It has been propounded to this witness several occasions?

PRESIDENT: Objections sustained.

Take 305 - 30
3-11-47;JCMcD;1

Q Is it not true that at one or another or more of these meetings which you had with the several chiefs you issued orders to them individually or collectively that captured Allied air personnel were to be shot?

A No, never.

Q Tell the court how many Allied flying personnel were executed in the area under your jurisdiction while you were inspector of the Sips and SDs.

A None.

Q You testified a while ago about an order which came down to the effect that commandos who parachuted down were to be shot to the last man. Will you please tell the court to whom that order was directed, if you know?

A That was an order of the chief of the army, General Keitel, to the Wehrmacht, which we -- that means I as inspector of the security police -- received from the chief of the Reich Security Main Office, Dr. Kaltenbrunner, for information only.

Q There was quite a lot of testimony previously about the relationship of the Party to the police. I will ask you one more question: If you had taken up with the Gauleiter matters involving Party pressure on the offices in your jurisdiction unsuccessfully, did you have recourse to any other authority?

A May I ask you to repeat the question?

(Whereupon the last question was repeated by the interpreter.)

A Through Party channels, to nobody.

Q On any channel.

A As far as the security police was concerned, I would have turned to the chief of the security police, SS Lieutenant General Dr. Kaltenbrunner.

Q Prior to the last recess you testified that previous to the end of the war you had met, among the accused, Stattmann, Fuehr, Girke, Stroop, and Mellenbroich. Had you known any others of the accused prior to the end of the war?

A On the 24th of October, 1944, I met and talked to Colonel Trummler for the first time. I know this date so exactly for the reason because the 24th of October is my birthday; and I intended to spend this day with my family and interrupt my official trip on which I was at that time. And so I paid a visit to my successor, Colonel Trummler, and there I noticed that this was his birthday, too.

Q Did you have any talk with him at that time about any official matters?

A No.

Q Did you ever see Trummler after that before the end of the war?

A Then I have seen him again around the end of November 1944. I asked him to come to the neighborhood of Koblenz, where we had a conference as the inspector of the border police. It was the problem of determining the security line, and Colonel Trummler participated on this conference.

Q At any time did you talk with Trummler about the treatment or handling of Allied air personnel?

A No, never.

Q Mr. Somann, I call your attention to Prosecution Exhibit P-20, which is a document in German which apparently bears your signature. Will you please make to the court any statement or comment you have to make with respect to that particular exhibit?

CAPTAIN VANCE: We object, if it please the court. The document speaks for itself.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I said to make any comment or explanation he has to make.

CAPTAIN VANCE: It needs no explanation.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I pray the court's judgment.

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

THE WITNESS: From the contents of this letter it is clear that it is information or, better, an instruction, from the chief of the security police, which I had passed down in April 1944 to the chief of the Gestapo headquarters at Koblenz and Darmstadt, Commitment Group Luxembourg, and for information only to the leader of the SD sector Koblenz.

QUESTIONS BY DEFENSE COUNSEL:

Q Does that document make any special reference or any reference at all to Allied air personnel?

A First, it has a subject to inform the chiefs of the Gestapo headquarters that some men arrived from a British airplane--a flyer had parachuted wearing an insignia around his arm "German Wehrmacht". Since men with these armbands had access to secret installations or industry --

PRESIDENT: Just a moment. We have the document right here in evidence. You do not need to explain it.

QUESTIONS BY DEFENSE COUNSEL:

Q Have you any comment to make with respect to that order which does not appear on the document itself?

A No. It's an instruction and information from the chief of the security police which I passed down to the various headquarters.

Q Prior to coming to Wiesbaden January 1, 1945, where were you on duty?

A I was in charge of the SD sector at Hamburg.

Q When did you go to Hamburg and when did you leave?

PRESIDENT: I think all those questions have been answered once.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Have they? I am sorry. I withdraw the question. Any questions by any other member of the defense?

DR. AHRIMER: Cross examination in behalf of the accused Cirke, Hellenbroich, and Stattman.

QUESTIONS BY DR. AHRIMER:

Q Mr. Somann, this morning you testified about the so-called SD statement. Were these SD statements to be signed by any other people in addition to members of the SD themselves?

A The SD men and all confidential agents of the SD.

Q How was it with the members of the state police?

A As far as they were members of the security service, yes. This applies to the comrades Cirke, Hellenbroich, and Stattman.

DR. AHRIMER: Thank you. That is all.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Your witness.

CAPTAIN VANCE: No cross examination.

DR. WACKER: No more questions.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Any questions by the court.

PRESIDENT: No questions by the court. The witness will take his place in the dock.

(Whereupon the accused Somann resumed his seat in the dock.)

(Somann - Direct)

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Call the witness Karl Kaleske. He was sworn for the prosecution but not for the defense.

PRESIDENT: Is this atill on behalf of Somann?

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Yes, if it please the court, and I think for others of the accused too. I think with respect to Goss and Rost also.

KARL KALESKE, called as a witness by the defense, being first duly sworn, testified through an interpreter as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY DEFENSE COUNSEL:

Q You have previously testified as a witness in this case?

A Yes.

Q Will you please tell the court just what regulations and rules were in effect in the headquarters of General Stroop with respect to participants in conferences with him?

A There was always the personal instruction by General Stroop, whom he ordered for personal conferences at his headquarters. That is the way I understood your question.

Q Assuming that someone was ordered there, were there any rules as to who could participate in such a conference? For instance, how about yourself?

A No. General Stroop always decided personally who could participate on these conferences.

Q Can you tell the court whether or not conferences were held between General Stroop and individual members of the secret police or the order police?

A Yes. In general it was like this: that whenever a larger conference took place and the conference was finished, that the commander of the order police or the commander of the security police then remained in General Stroop's office, and then probably matters were discussed between these two gentlemen. But, of course, then witnesses or other participants were not present anymore.

Q What authority did you have to attend the conferences which you have just discussed?

A Personally I did not participate on official conferences. I was only supposed to sit in the anteroom and to make certain that the conference would not be interrupted by visitors, etc. From time to time it happened that General Stroop called me into the room and gave me some orders, perhaps that I had to take care of something over the phone.

Q Was there any way for you to tell whether or not a conference was one which could not be interrupted or was one which you could interrupt?

A A conference which was not to be interrupted was marked in this manner: that from his desk General Stroop turned on his light, and then in my anteroom a sign was lit which said "Do not enter".

Q When that sign was lit up who could enter?

A Nobody could enter. Not even I could, although otherwise the secretary, Miss Hoecker, and I myself had always the right to enter the room.

Q You knew Somann, did you not?

A Yes.

Q Do you know what the relationship was which existed between Somann and Stroop?

A In which respect?

Q Their personal relationship or their official relationship.

A Personally I had the impression that there was a certain tension between General Stroop and SS Colonel Somann.

Q Can you give the court any reasons for the existence of this tension that you know about?

A Of course, these reasons are unknown to me, because I did not participate on these official meetings.

Q Do you know whether or not differences of opinion existed between the two with respect to personal and official matters?

A That is beyond my knowledge.

Q Do you know whether or not Somann was under the supervision of anyone?

A Personally, I don't know anything about it.

Q Did you ever hear that he was?

A Nothing came to my knowledge.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Dr. Buerger will examine.

DR. BUERGER: Cross examination on behalf of Trummler, Best, Goss, and Michely.

QUESTIONS BY DR. BUERGER:

Q Did anything become known about the individual meetings on which you or Miss Hoecker were not permitted to participate?

A I personally did not hear anything about the contents of these conferences. Whether General Stroop later on gave orders to Miss Hoecker to put in writing the contents of such a meeting, I can't say that either, because I had nothing to do with it.

Q During the meeting, when you were allowed to enter the room from time to time, was it possible for you to hear part of the conversation between General Stroop and the participants on these conferences?

A In general this was not possible. When I entered the room I was told only by General Stroop to do this or that or call up this fellow. That was all. So that the conference as such was interrupted at this moment and no talks were going on.

Q Did you accompany General Stroop on his official trips?

A Yes.

Q Did conferences take place at branch offices, and did you participate on these conferences?

A General Stroop had the habit to visit the gauleiters, the presidents of the government--in general, the chiefs of all departments under his jurisdiction, in order to discuss with them official business. On these meetings, especially as they were with high government officials, I did not participate, but I had to stay in the anteroom of the gauleiter or whoever it was, and there I had to wait for instructions from General Stroop if something had to be taken care of immediately.

(Kaleske - Direct)

Q Were you with General Stroop also at the office of the Leader of the SS Regiment Saarbrucken, SS Colonel Stemmler?

A Yes, we, too, visited this Headquarters on several occasions.

Q Did direct conferences take place there between General Stroop and Colonel Stemmler--conferences in which you could not participate?

A The possibility certainly exists, but I don't know what you are referring to--whether you have any definite--

Q Did it come to your knowledge that General Stroop gave a direct order in regard to flyers to SS Colonel Stemmler?

A Certainly not in my presence.

Q During one of these conferences at Saarbrucken were toys or stilts for children taken along by you or General Stroop?

A Yes, I remember that SS Colonel Stemmler had made for General Stroop a pair of stilts.

CAPTAIN VANCE: May it please the Court, I would like some information. I understand he is cross examining and he is going into new matters. Am I permitted to do likewise, or am I bound by direct examination.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: This is really not cross examination--it's as much direct examination as mine was, only for a different accused.

LAW MEMBER: All right.

QUESTIONS BY DR. BUERGER:

Q Did you know at that time the SS Major Best?

A Yes.

Q Did you identify him already the last time when you testified here in Court as the witness of the Prosecution?

A I don't know whether Best was present during identification.

Q Could you identify Best when he is present here in Court?

A Yes.

Q If he is, please point him out.

A Number 14.

DR. BUERGER: The record may indicate that the witness identified the accused Best as number 14.

Q What was the position of Best on the staff of General Stroop?

A Best was sent as the Deputy of Lt. General Fruetzmann in Berlin for the Werewolf, and he was used as such on the staff.

Q Did he have any direct authority of command on the staff?

A As representative of the Werewolf he must have had authority of command in his sector.

Q What was the personal reputation of Best on the staff?

A Do you want to know the general attitude of the members of the staff?

Q Your personal attitude/

A I got to know Best as a very decent and valuable man whom I valued especially as a comrade, and his decent character gained him only friends in the staff.

Q Do you know the accused Goss?

A Yes.

Q If you see him in the court, please, will you point him out for the court?

A Number 15.

DR. EUERGER: May the record please indicate that the witness identifies the accused Goss as number 15.

Q Do you know when Dr. Goss came to the command of General Stroop, to his staff?

A That must have been the fall of 1944.

Q Do you know in which capacity he reported to the staff of General Stroop?

A Yes, Dr. Goss was supposed to be my successor as General Stroop's adjutant, since General Stroop was interested in having an SS leader as his adjutant.

Q And did not Goss report to you only as a member of the SS, an officer of the Waffen SS?

A After Dr. Goss started his assignment I got to know him only in the uniform of an SS man, as a First Lieutenant of the SS.

Q Do you know whether Dr. Goss came of his own request or had been transferred to the staff?

A This, of course, cannot be known to me since I never talked about this matter with Dr. Goss. I only know that SS Captain Keller recommended him as adjutant after he had heard that General Stroop wanted to have a change in the person of his personal adjutant.

Q Did Dr. Goss ever start this assignment as adjutant?

A No.

Q Do you know, Mr. Kaleske, whether General Stroop had a special authority from Heinrich Himmler which gave him special prerogatives and rights?

A Yes.

Q Did you read this authority?

A Yes.

Q Who showed you this authority?

A First General Stroop showed it to me after he had received it from Himmler or his adjutant, respectively, at Saarbrucken after an official meeting.

Q Do you know when this happened?

A Yes, that was after the troops in France did not resist any more and were flooding back, and Himmler attempted to stop this flooding back by all means.

Q Was the contents of this document limited to one individual case?

A As far as I can remember, this authority was on a plain, white piece of paper without any headquarters printed on it--without any letterhead--and only typewritten. The wording, as far as I can remember, was as follows: "I am giving herewith General Stroop all authorities. His orders have to be obeyed completely," properly signed by the typical letters of Himmler.

Q Mr. Kaleske, was this document in addition to you known to any other people at the Headquarters?

A Yes.

Q Who showed this document to the other members of the staff?

A That could have been done only by the bearer of this authority--that means General Stroop.

DR. BUERGER: Thank you.

QUESTIONS BY THE DEFENSE COUNSEL:

Q Herr Kaleske, do you remember talking with me and other counsel yesterday about certain questions and answers concerning your possible testimony this morning? Do you remember the fact that we did?

A Not all the questions which came up here were discussed there, for instance the question of authority.

Q Please listen to my question and answer only my question. Do you remember we talked about what evidence you might give? In fact, did we or did we not talk?

A Yes.

Q Now, do you remember your discussing with me your opinion of Schmann's character?

A Yes.

Q Do you remember my asking you who, among the members of Stroop's staff, would differ with Stroop?

A Yes.

Q Will you tell the Court what you told me about those two matters?

CAPTAIN VANCE: May it please the Court, that's certainly not proper--what they talked about in there in chambers. They were not under oath. If he wants to ask questions, let him ask them.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Yes, I agree, I am sorry.

QUESTIONS BY THE DEFENSE COUNSEL:

Q Will you please tell the Court what your opinion is of Schmann's character as you personally observed it.

A I got to know Schmann as a quiet man, absolutely certain of his position, who understood as one of the few to report his opinion towards General Stroop in a quiet, decent and efficient manner.

Q Do you mean his opinion to General Stroop or his opinion on matters of business?

A His opinion in regard to official matters were perhaps different.

Q Do you know what reactions took place with General Stroop when these differences of opinion were expressed by Scmann?

A General Stroop did not bring these to my knowledge, but Colonel Scmann when he left one of these official meetings when I asked him in short now "what has happened", then SS Colonel Scmann did tell me--

Q Well, let's skip all that, unless the Prosecution wants it before the Court. Yesterday, do you remember using one particular word descriptive of Scmann which you said was not to be found exactly in the German language?

A Yes, a word which is difficult to translate?

Q Yes.

A Yes.

Q Well, will you please tell the Court what that word was?

A I called Scmann a gentleman.

Q Now, likewise, didn't you express an opinion as to whether or not Best or Goss--

CAPTAIN VANCE: Are we still talking about what went on in your chambers? If you are, I object to it.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I am going to withdraw it, and let somebody else ask it. I am through; I think Dr. Buerger has something else.

QUESTIONS BY DR. BUERGER:

Q Mr. Kaleske, if Major Best testifies that in a certain matter he received an order, a definite order, from General Stroop, in your opinion is this correct, or do you think that Best is using another one to hide himself and to cover himself?

A No, I think that's impossible since Best, in accordance with his character and as a comrade would never act as vicious as that and as mean as that.

DR. BUERGER: Thank you.

QUESTIONS BY DR. WACKER:

Q Mr. Kaleske, please identify Mr. Scmann and point to him.

A Number 3.

DR. WACKER: The record may indicate that the witness identified the accused Scmann, Number 3.

MAJOR SAXON: Dr. Rau has something.

DR. RAU: Cross examination on behalf of the accused Stroop.

QUESTIONS BY DR. RAU:

Q Mr. Kaleske, did you never make a mistake in your life?

A I don't know what you are driving at, Dr. Rau.

Q My question--isn't it clear?

A I can answer you only with the proverb-"To err is only human."

Q That means to make a mistake would be possible also in regard to your opinion about Best and Goss?

A No, in this case it's impossible.

Q So you think there are cases where a man cannot make a mistake?

A In this particular case I am not mistaken, because I do not know of any act committed by Best which could change my opinion about him.

Q Since when was the light signal, "do not enter"?

A This sign existed already at the time when the predecessor of General Stroop, Lt. General Bergelmann was still on duty at Headquarters.

Q Do you have any indications when this light signal was put to use?

A The reason must have been that he didn't want to be disturbed, or perhaps that certain persons were not supposed to participate or know about it.

Q If I understand you right, this means that you or the secretary were not allowed to enter?

A Yes.

Q That means whenever the secretary was allowed to enter, this meant that they were not discussing matters in which he did not want to be disturbed?

A Yes.

Q Can you write shorthand?

A Yes.

Q Can you write shorthand well?

A Yes.

Q Did you make shorthand notes about the conferences between General Stroop and other people?

A I did not take the entire proceedings of a conference down by shorthand. Whenever I had participated in a conference,

I received from General Stroop short remarks "make a note about this and that."

Q Wasn't it like that that you yourself participated in conferences with the Gauleiters so that the Gauleiters complained about this fact?

A In personal conferences between General Stroop and one of the three Gauleiters I have never participated.

Q Did you participate in conferences with Gauleiters in which other people participated too?

A Yes, I remember especially a conference which was called by Gauleiter Sprenger at Koenigstein at which Party and police matters were discussed.

Q When was the official conference with Himmler at Saarbrucken?

A I can't give you the exact date, but I testified already to the conditions which brought this meeting to pass.

Q Don't you know approximately when, in which month, the flooding back of the troops in France started?

A That could be easily found out through official Army reports.

PRESIDENT: The Court will recess until 1:30.

(Whereupon at 1200 hours the Court recessed.)

AFTERNOON SESSION

(Whereupon the court reconvened at 1330 hours.)

PRESIDENT: Court will come to order.

PROSECUTION: May it please the court, let the record show all the members of the court are present, all the members of the prosecution are present, all the members of the defense, the reporter and interpreter are present.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: At the end of the last session, the witness Kaleske was on the stand. Will you bring him in, please.

KARL KALESKE, called as a witness by the defense, being reminded he was still under oath, resumed the stand and testified further through an interpreter as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY DR. RAU (cont'd):

Q You remained in your position as Stroop's adjutant until the end of the war, is that right?

A Yes.

Q Now, if any visitors came in for conferences, did you as adjutant not feel interested in what was talked about, later?

A I had no way of knowing whether these several cases were secret. Of course, I would occasionally ask one of the other participants after they left the official room, "Well, what went on."

Q Did you ever hear anybody say he received an order from General Stroop to have terror fliers shot?

A No.

Q Did you find out about these shootings?

A No.

Q So it came as a surprise to you yourself such shootings took place?

A I only found out about these shootings in the course of interrogations or trial.

Q Then you were thoroughly convinced that no such shootings by the police took place?

A The regular police?

Q The police in general, all police.

A No.

Q You mean you were thoroughly convinced such shootings did not take place?

A I was convinced they did not take place.

Q It was a mistake on your part?

A My answer to the last question?

Q No, a mistake on your part such shootings did take place.

A That can't be called an error on my part because I didn't know about it.

Q And in the same manner, you didn't know what Best said to General Streep?

A No.

CROSS EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VINCE:

Q Mr. Kaleske, from what date to what date were you with the police department?

A From the 6th of March 1940 until the surrender.

Q Were you with General Streep during that entire period?

A No.

Q During what period of time were you working for General Streep?

A That was from November 1942 until the collapse.

Q During the entire time you were with the police, were you a police official or with the German army?

A I was a member of the protective police and at the end was wearing the insignia of a reserve captain of the protective police and did not belong to the armed forces.

Q Did you have papers showing you to be a member of the Waffen SS?

A No.

Q Did you have what is called an SS sold book?

A No, however such book was supposed to be issued, the preparation of the book was being worked on and such papers were being issued to the police at the end of 1944, beginning of 1945.

Q I believe you testified you were almost all the time with General Stroop when he was out on official visits, is that right?

A Yes.

Q Did you ever witness any American planes shooting men, women and children?

A I didn't see it, no.

CAPTAIN VANCE: Nothing further.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Any questions by any member of the court?

PRESIDENT: No questions by the court. The witness is excused.

(Whereupon the witness was excused and withdrew.)

DEFENSE COUNSEL: May it please the court, I would like to offer on behalf of the accused Sommer a statement by one Dr. Hans Krieger, who is not here -- has been sent away. There is a stipulation agreed to between the prosecution and defense that Dr. Hans Krieger would testify in accordance with the questions and answers I now have here. I would like to read into the record.

CAPTAIN VAN S: That is so stipulated. The accused Sommer should be joined in the stipulation.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: The accused Sommer, his attorneys and prosecution.

(Kniedam - Cross)

PRESIDENT: Sommer, do you agree to the stipulation entered into between your attorneys and the Prosecution?

ACCUSED SOMMER: Yes.

PRESIDENT: The stipulation is accepted by the court.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: With the court's permission I will now read it into the record.

"Q What is your full name?

"A Dr. Hans Krieger.

"Q Do you know Otto Sommer?

"A Yes.

"Q Since when?

"A The end 1943 until the end of August 1944 in Wiesbaden and later I think it was beginning of November 1944 till April 1945 in Berlin.

"Q I was told by Sommer that he was relieved as the inspector in Wiesbaden July 20th and went to Berlin, does that correspond with your recollection?

"A I don't know the exact day, but it could have or might have been the end of July or beginning of August.

"Q So that your recollection is at the end of July, beginning of August?

"A Yes.

"Q What was your position under his command?

"A I was a referent (assistant) with the inspector in Wiesbaden in the same office.

"Q Were you present at meetings, helper at all the conferences which Sommer had with his subordinates?

"A Yes, with the exception of a time I was sick, as I had pneumonia. It was the first half of March 1944, I was two weeks in bed, and later one other week.

(Stipulation by Krieger)

"Q Did you become acquainted with what took place at the conference between Semmm and his subordinates at the time you were sick?

"A I do not think that a big (important) meeting took place at this time otherwise I would have heard about it.

"Q Do you remember the time the non-interference order came down?

"A Yes, in 1944, in early summer about June.

"Q How long before Semmm left for Berlin?

"A It could have been six or eight weeks.

"Q Was there a meeting held at which time this non-interference order was discussed?

"A Yes.

"Q Who was present?

"A There were two or three meetings held, one in the Kurhaus and another in our office. I do not remember the intervals of time and I do not know at which meeting the non-interference order was read.

"Q At how many meetings was the non-interference order read?

"A One time, as far as I remember.

"Q What was done and what was said by Semmm?

"A Semmm read the order, I knew nothing else.

"Q What else? Did anybody else say anything?

"A That is all I have in memory.

"Q When did Semmm become inspector of Wiesbaden?

"A I don't know, I arrived in Wiesbaden end of 1943 and he was already present there.

"Q During the time you were the referent for Semmm, what was the order with respect to Allied fliers?

"A They had to be turned over to Oberursel and a report had to be forwarded to the Gestapo, Frankfurt.

"Q What was Oberursel?

"A I know that there was a Dulag (transfer camp) West for prisoners of war.

"Q Who was in charge of this camp?

"A I do not know this with certainty.

"Q Was it the Wehrmacht?

"A Yes.

"Q During the time you were referent for Semann did you ever hear of a single case of an Allied airman being killed by the population?

"A No.

"Q Did you ever hear of a single case of an Allied airman being killed by anybody during the entire time you were referent?

"A No.

"Q Were your duties such that you would have heard about it?

"A Yes.

"Q How long did you stay there in Wiesbaden after Semann left?

"A I have changed my position four weeks after Semann left.

"Q Who was Semann's successor?

"A Wiebens, I think, but just for a little while.

"Q One Trummler was his real successor, were you present when Trummler came?

"A Yes, but he made me/be a criminal police referent (assistant) but I did not actually work any more.

"Q How long altogether were you in Wiesbaden after Semann left?

"A I stayed in Wiesbaden till the beginning of November 1944.

"Q When did you go on furlough?

"A The last days of October.

"Q You remember the date when Trummler came to Wiesbaden?

"A He came in the beginning of Octobe r, if I am not mistaken.

"Q Were you there when the policy with respect to the handling of fliers was changed?

"A As far as I could overlook it, there was no change in my time.

"Q And what were the duties of the SD?

"A The so-called "Information Service" (Counter Intelligence Corps) for example, the SD had to get the information what the German population thought and said about what happened in Germany."

(Whereupon the interpreter read the foregoing stipulation in the German language.)

DEFENSE COUNSEL: The next witness is Wilhelm Wiebens. He has not been sworn by the defense.

WILHELM WIEBENS, called as a witness by the defense, being first duly sworn, testified through an interpreter as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY DEFENSE COUNSEL:

Q Your full name is Wilhelm Wiebens?

A Yes.

Q Have you testified in this case before?

A No.

Q What is your present status?

A Sector leader of the SD in Coblenz/

Q No, are you a prisoner now?

A Yes.

Q What was your civilian occupation?

A Merchant.

Q What was your profession during the war, were you a member of the Krepo or SD?

A With the SD.

Q And were you with the SD in the years 1944 and 1945?

A Yes.

Q And where you at that time?

A Coblenz.

Q Do you know one Otto Sommer?

A Yes.

Q If he is in the courtroom, please point him out to the court.

A Number 3.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Let the record show the witness identified the accused Somann wearing placard Number 3.

Q When did you first meet Somann?

A I have known Somann from before that.

Q Were you on duty at Coblenz when Somann came to Wiesbaden?

A Yes.

Q Were you there when -- withdrew that. Do you know a man by the name of Hans Trummler?

A Yes.

Q If he is in the courtroom, please point him out to the court.

A Number 2.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Let the record show the witness identified the accused Trummler wearing placard Number 2.

Q Do you know what Somann's position was in Wiesbaden?

A Yes.

Q Will you state it to the court.

A He was inspector of security police SD.

Q Do you remember the time when he left Wiesbaden to go to another station?

A That must have been towards the end of July 1944.

Q Who was Semann's successor?

A Colonel Trummler.

Q When did Trummler come?

A That must have been toward the end of September.

Q Who was the inspector or acting inspector between Semann and Trummler?

A Well you couldn't really call it acting. There really wasn't any deputy there. I came over from Koblenz two or three times a week and took care of the business there.

Q What rank did you hold with the SD office in Koblenz?

A SS Lieutenant Colonel.

Q Who was your superior?

A The Reichs Main Security Office.

Q Was Semann your superior?

A From an SS standpoint he was.

Q How about from an SD standpoint?

A The Reichs Main Security Office, Office Number 3.

Q What authority did Semann have over you to give you orders with respect to this work as head of the SD?

A He couldn't give us any direct orders of that sort. We got our orders directly from the Reichs Main Security Office, Office Number 3 and that is where we made our reports as well.

Q What was the relationship between your office and the inspector?

A The inspector took care of the office in Koblenz from an SS standpoint.

Q What does that mean?

A Well the members of the office were SS men and they were taken care of from an SS standpoint by the inspector. For instance personnel files would go to the Reichs Main Security Office by way of the inspector and not directly, but the technical assignment of the men as to one certain office for instance, that was done by the Reichs Main Security Office, Office Number 3.

Q Did you ever hear of the so-called non-interference order?

A No.

Q Do you know what the non-interference order is?

A I knew it now.

Q Were you ever present at a meeting at which this non-interference order was read or discussed?

A I think now that there was a meeting in July, 1944, which might have had to do with this order, since I now find out there was such an order, as a subject, but I don't know whether that is correct or not. I think that is so now because a decision was made by Colonel Somann in that meeting which makes me conclude now that might have been what the subject was, but I don't know whether that is right. All I know is that after this conference, together with the Stapo chief of Frankfurt and the Stapo chief of Coblenz, Colonel Somann made the decision that captured flyers were to be turned over to Oberursel. I don't know the details, but I do know definitely -- I remember that the decision was made.

Q Who was present at that meeting so far as you remember?

A The Stapo chief of Koblenz.

Q What is his name?

A Christmann, The Stapo chief of Frankfurt.

Q What was his name?

A Broder.

Q Who else?

A The sector chief of the Frankfurt am Main.

Q Who was he?

A His name was Jaskulski. I think the Stapo chief of Darmstadt was also there.

A DEFENSE COUNSEL: That is all. Any questions by associated counsel? You may inquire.

CROSS EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANS:

Q Did Colonel Semann have the power to make decisions about orders?

A No.

Q Well you just finished saying that he made a decision about what to do with flyers, didn't you?

A Well the experiences which the various office chiefs had in their areas were discussed in the course of those meetings.

Q Experiences about what, in connection with what?

A About their work in their area. Experiences varied because the organization -- the structure of the various areas was also varied.

Q Did Colonel Semann make any changes in orders you had received down from Kaltenbrunner?

A Not for our sector of the SD.

Q What about SS matters?

A These were very definite from the very beginning. Any such as welfare matters concerning the men they were definite and there was no reason for change.

(Wiebens -CDirnes)

Q Did you ever get an order from Colonel Semann in substance that it was not the business of the police to interfere when civilians attacked allied flyers?

A No.

Q You never heard of any such order?

A No.

Q So if Colonel Semann testified you were in his office when he read that order, he is mistaken, is he?

A Yes. I don't remember that.

CAPTAIN VANCE: Nothing further.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Any questions by members of the court?

PRESIDENT: No questions by the court. The witness is excused.

(Whereupon the witness was excused and withdrew.)

DEFENSE COUNSEL: The defense calls Wolfgang Berger, likewise on behalf of the accused Semann.

WOLFGANG BERGER, called as a witness by the defense, being first duly sworn, testified through an interpreter as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY DEFENSE COUNSEL:

Q What is your full name?

A Wolfgang Berger.

Q During the war what was your official position?

A Chief of the Criminal Police, Frankfurt on the Main.

Q When did you become such and when did your duties as such end?

A I took my position in February 1942 and left it in March, 1945.

Q During that period of time were you in charge of the Criminal Police District in Frankfurt?

A Yes.

Q Do you know a man by the name of Otto Somann?

A Yes.

Q If he is in the room, will you please point him out to the court.

A Number 3.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Let the record show that the witness identified the accused Somann as wearing placard number 3.

Q Where did you meet Somann?

A I met Mr. Somann in Wiesbaden.

Q Do you remember what time that was? About when?

A That might have been about 1943.

Q Do you know what Somann's official position was?

A Inspector of the Security Police.

Q Do you know when Somann left Wiesbaden?

A I think toward the end of July, 1944.

Q As the inspector of the Security Police, what authority did Somann have over you and your office?

A Mr. Somann's duties were of a supervisory nature. He had to supervise me in my office. He had to see to it that MK got -- that I worked along with other offices well and he could give me orders which were not in contradiction with the main office of the Security Police in Berlin.

Q From whom did you generally receive your orders?

A From the Reichs Main Security Office in Berlin.

Q Was there any change in the relationship between the head of the Security Police and SD at Wiesbaden between the time Scmann was there and the time Trumler was there?

A When Mr. Trumler came in as inspector he was telling us that he had the strongest, most important authorizations with him; that he could relieve any one of his office chiefs right away.

Q What orders could Scmann give you?

CAPTAIN VANCE: We object. That is repetitious.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I don't mean it to be.

PRESIDENT: Is that an objection?

CAPTAIN VANCE: Yes sir. That is repetitious. He just asked that question and it was just answered about two minutes ago.

PRESIDENT: Objection sustained.

QUESTIONS BY DEFENSE COUNSEL:

Q Did Scmann ever give you any orders as to how the business of your office should be conducted?

A No. Scmann permitted me to do my work all by myself without disturbing me.

Q Do you remember a so-called non-interference order?

A Yes.

Q Were you ever present at a meeting in which such an order was read?

A Yes.

Q Will you tell the court what was said or done at that meeting at which such an order was read and by whom?

A I don't remember this meeting where this order was given me exactly anymore and can't give any details, but I do know this order was read to me.

Q Do you remember a man by the name of Breder?

A Yes.

Q What is Breder's official relationship to you?

A Mr. Breder was the chief of the State Police in Frankfurt on the Main from the end of 1943, or the Summer of 1943, until the first days of March, 1945. At the beginning of May he was then assigned as commanding officer of the Security Police by Dr. Brunnler, that is from that time on he had under him not only the State Police but also the Criminal Police.

Q Now at the time you heard this order read, was any discussion had about the order that you remember?

CAPTAIN VANCE: We object, may it please the court. The witness has said that he can't remember any such meeting and now he wants him to tell about a discussion that took place at that meeting.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: He says he thinks he heard it read at a meeting.

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

THE WITNESS: All I can remember, as I said before, was that in the course of some meeting that order was announced to me. Whether I was there by myself or with some other people too, I don't remember.

QUESTIONS BY DEFENSE COUNSEL:

Q During the time that Semann was inspector of the Stapo and SD in Wiesbaden, how many cases came to your attention involving mistreatment of allied personnel by the Security Police or the SD?

A I heard of no such during that time.

(Berger - Direct)

Q How many cases of killings of allied air personnel came to your attention, or did you hear about during the entire time Somann was inspector in Wiesbaden?

A I didn't hear of any case of killing either.

Q Did Somann issue orders to you as to how you should carry out the duties of your office?

A No.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Questions by associated counsel? You may inquire.

CROSS EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q Mr. Berger, how many flyers were shot in Frankfurt while trying to escape?

A I don't know.

Q What is your best judgment. Give us an estimate.

A I don't know anything at all about these cases. All I know about is this one case which I heard about after being captured.

Q You never heard about a flyer being shot while attempting to escape in Frankfurt, is that what you want to tell this court?

A No. With the exception of this one case which I found out about after I was captured, that is all I know.

Q Which case is this?

A Fuchs, Hechler.

Q And you didn't know about that one until after you were captured?

A I didn't hear about it.

Q What was your position in Frankfurt?

A My position? [illegible] until the end of March, 1945.

Q Yes. [illegible]

A Chief of the Criminal Police.

CAPTAIN VANCE: Nothing further.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Questions by the court?

EXAMINATION BY THE COURT

QUESTIONS BY LAW MEMBER: [illegible]

Q What was the connection between your office as Chief of the Criminal Police and Breder's office as Chief of the State [illegible] Police?

A Our positions were entirely different. All I worked on were Criminal Police matters and all Mr. Breder worked on were State Police matters.

Q Did you, as Chief of the Criminal Police, interrogate any captured Allied soldiers? [illegible]

A No, never. [illegible]

LAW MEMBER: That is all.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: May I ask that the witness be excused?

PRESIDENT: The witness is excused.

(Whereupon the witness was excused and withdrew.)

REINHARD BREDER, formerly a witness for the prosecution, was called as a witness by the defense and being reminded that he was still under oath, testified through an interpreter as follows:

RE DIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY DEFENSE COUNSEL:

Q I think you testified what your official position was during the years 1943, 1944 and 1945.

A Yes.

Q Were you the Chief of the Gestapo Office in Frankfurt?

A Yes, from September, 1943, until the end of March, 1945.

Q Have you previously identified the accused Somann while you were a witness here?

A Yes.

Q And Libourine Trumpler?

A Yes.

Q Have you previously testified as to when Somann came to Wiesbaden and when he left?

PRESIDENT: I think he has answered most of these questions before.

QUESTIONS BY DEFENSE COUNSEL:

Q Have you heard of the non-interference order?

A Yes.

Q Were you present at any time when such an order was read.

CAPTAIN VANCE: May it please the court, I am going to object to this line of questioning as being repetitious. We brought him into court in the beginning of the case and he told us all about this meeting and went into every detail.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I don't think it is in all respects.

PRESIDENT: The objection is sustained.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Any questions by associated counsel? Your witness.

CAPTAIN VANCE: No questions.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Questions by the court?

PRESIDENT: No questions by the court. The witness is excused.

(Whereupon the witness was excused and withdrew.)

DEFENSE COUNSEL: That ends the introduction of evidence at this time so far as Somann is concerned. I am informed by Dr. Rau that there are three witnesses he would like to call at this time for Streep. May I say in our own defense at this time we are winding up and there are a few small chinks we are trying to fill in.

JOSIAS COUNT OF WALDECK, called as a witness by the defense, being first duly sworn, testified through an interpreter as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY DR. RAU:

Q What is your name?

A Josias Count of Waldeck.

Q How old are you?

A Fifty one.

Q Are you a prisoner at this time?

A Yes.

Q Where?

A Dunker Number 2.

Q What was your final rank before the war?

A Before the war?

Q Before the end of the war. Excuse me.

A General of the Police and Waffen SS.

Q What was your official position?

A Higher SS and Police Leader in Wehrkreis IX.

Q Where did you have your headquarters?

A Headquarters in Kassel.

Q Did the Wehrkreis IX border on Wehrkreis No. XII?

A Yes.

Q In what direction of it?

A The other one was to my west.

Q Did you, as Higher SS and Police Leader have a commanding officer of the Security Police after August or September of '44?

A Yes.

Q Did this commanding officer of the Security Police ever transmit an order to you according to which allied terror fliers were to be shot?

DR. WACKER: I'd like the court to point out to this witness that he has a right to refuse to answer certain questions in view of the fact that he is a prisoner.

PRESIDENT: The witness is warned that he does not have to answer any question that may tend to incriminate him.

DR. RAU: Would you like to answer my question?

THE WITNESS: Yes.

QUESTIONS BY DR. RAU:

Q Did you have such an order transmitted to you or did you not?

A Never.

Q Did you have any inspecting powers at all to the effect that the Higher SS and Police Leader was following his job in informing you?

A You made a mistake there. I can't inspect myself, can I?

Q Did you have any way of checking up on the inspector of the Security Police to see whether he was informing you of all orders?

A Technically I didn't have any power to see whether he actually reported everything that came in to his office to me. The commanding officer of the Security Police had a duty to inform me but that duty was not clearly delineated.

Q So, if I understand you correctly, it depended entirely upon the attitude of the commanding officer whether he would inform you and about what?

A That is absolutely correct.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Any questions on this side? Your witness.

CAPTAIN VANCE: No cross examination.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Any questions by the court?

PRESIDENT: No questions by the court. Witness is excused.

(Thereupon the witness was excused and withdrew.)

HANS JUTTNER, called as a witness by the defense, being first duly sworn, testified through an interpreter as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY DR. RAU:

Q What is your name?

A Hans Juttner.

Q How old are you?

A 58 years old.

Q What is your present place of residence?

A Camp Dachau, here.

Q In what capacity?

A As a prisoner.

Q Were you a member of the German armed forces before the end of the war?

A Before the end of the war?

Q Yes, before the end of the war.

A Yes.

Q What was your rank?

A General.

Q Of what branch of the service?

A Of the army.

Q Were you a member of the Waffen SS also?

A Yes.

Q From when until when?

A I was in the Quartermaster troops beginning the 1st of January '45 and after that in the Waffen SS, when this Quartermaster unit was transferred into the Waffen SS.

Q What was your official position after 1943 and until the end of the war?

A I was Chief of the Leadership Main Office of the Waffen SS and after the 1st of July 1944 I was Deputy Commander of the Replacement Army.

Q What was the job of the Leadership Main Office of the Waffen SS?

A The Leadership Main Office had to train the replacements for the field units of the Waffen SS, to equip them, and to train and organize new units if such new units were to be formed.

Q What was the official terminology used for replacement units stationed in the zone of the interior after the summer of 1943?

A They had running numbers and their names also depended on the branches of service -- infantry, armored, signal, etc., training and replacement regiments and battalions.

Q Did they ever have the name of a town or of a location?

A I don't know about that.

Q What was the rank of the commanding officer of such a replacement battalion?

A Captain up to Lt. Colonel.

Q In accordance with military regulations was it possible for a Colonel of the Waffen SS to be assigned to such an outfit and that he would be transferred into such a battalion as a Colonel of the Waffen SS?

DR. BUERGER: I object to that question. It is phrased in an entirely improper manner and will give an entirely improper picture about the German military conditions.

MR. RACHAEL: And for the further reason that it is leading.

PRESIDENT: Objection sustained.

QUESTIONS BY DR. RAU:

Q When was a Colonel of the police transferred into the Waffen SS?

A In general, the officers of the police, of the regular police, that is, joined the Waffen SS through the police division.

MR. RACHAEL: If the court please, on behalf of the defendants Girke, Hellenbreich, Stattman and Haaf, the defense moves to strike all the testimony of this witness from the record on the grounds it is not germane to the issue of the defendant, Stroop, and also is wasting the time of the court.

PRESIDENT: Motion is denied. The court would like to know what points you are trying to bring out from this witness.

DR. RAU: I should like to prove to the court that the statements which the accused, Trumpler, has made concerning his membership in the Waffen SS and which statements are now in a position to be checked by other statements, were not of a truthful nature, and if it is possible to show that these statements were not truthful, then the court draw certain inferences concerning certain testimony of the remaining accused, as well.

PRESIDENT: Unless it has something to do with the defense of General Streop, the court does not desire to hear it.

DR. RAU: Thank you. I would, however, like to remark that in my personal opinion as his defense counsel it does have something to do with the defense of General Streop.

PRESIDENT: If it does then bring it out in the shortest possible manner.

QUESTIONS BY DR. RAU:

Q Was there an SS training battalion, Konitz, of the Waffen SS?

A I don't remember any such battalion, Konitz, existing unless it was a closer description of something or other, because I just said before that the battalions were described with running numbers and with the branches of the service. The name, SS Training Battalion Konitz, does not mean anything to me.

Q Who worked on the transfer of police officers to the Waffen SS?

A The Personnel Main Office.

Q Did the Leadership Main Office have anything to do with that?

A The Leadership Main Office had to do with it to the extent that anybody who was transferred to the Waffen SS was then examined by the Leadership Main Office to see whether he would find any use in accordance with his rank. I would like to remark, however, that in my testimony I am concerned only with the troops of the Waffen SS. Whatever else might have happened within the Waffen SS but not concerning the troops or Leadership Main Office, I cannot make any statements about.

Q Was any Waffen SS not under the Leadership Main Office?

A Yes, unfortunately.

Q What type was that?

A These were units attached to the Reichs Security Main Office and SS Main Office. Those are the ones I remember at the moment. They were under these offices and not under the Leadership Main Office.

Q Did these also have the title, Waffen SS, or did they not?

A Yes, they had this description, Waffen SS, attached to them by order of the Reichsfuehrer.

Q Since when?

A That must have happened about 1942 but I can't give the exact date.

Q Would a Colonel be assigned to a battalion?

MR. BACHAUS: The defense objects to that question as hypothetical and speculative.

PRESIDENT: Objection sustained.

QUESTIONS BY DR. RAU:

Q Were Colonels carried in higher ranking staffs?

A Carried? I don't quite understand the question. When they were assigned they were assigned to duty but practice among the Waffen SS, among the troops, that is, was that if somebody had a higher rank for which his qualifications did not make him useful, he would have to wear the lowest insignia of the next lowest rank below without, however, being demoted.

Q So, if a Colonel of the police was transferred as a Colonel of the Waffen SS, which outfit would he have to be assigned to?

A That would depend on the instructions of the Personnel Main Office, depending on which outfit they had assigned him to. So, if he were to serve on active duty in the Waffen SS, he would be assigned to a replacement battalion and he would have to prove his qualifications there.

As to outfits on the outside, among those, I just remember the Economic and Administrative Main Office which I forgot when I mentioned the other two.

PRESIDENT: I would like to have you come to the point. The court is not getting a thing.

DR. RAU: I have only one more question. Would this man have to be transferred to this new outfit or not?

THE WITNESS: He would have to be transferred.

DR. BUSSOER: One question in cross examination on behalf of Trummler.

QUESTIONS BY DR. BUSSOER:

Q Now, if a Colonel of the Security Police in the SD transferred to the Waffen SS as a Colonel, what kind of a Soldbuch would he receive and what outfit would be registered in there?

A If he was transferred to the Waffen SS he would get a Waffen SS Soldbuch, and in there, of course, it would have his Waffen SS rank since it's a Waffen SS Soldbuch.

Q Do you know what the outfits were that were mentioned in these Waffen SS Soldbuchs issued to SD and Waffen SS Officers? Was the replacement outfit the man belonged to registered in the Waffen SS Soldbuch.

A It had to be in there.

Q So in that case, even in the case of a Colonel, it might say "replacement unit","replacement battalion" so and so?

A Well, that might have been written in there by the office that issued the book, that is possible.

DR. RAU: Thank you.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Your witness.

(Juttner-direct)

CAPTAIN VANCE: No questions.

PRESIDENT: No questions by the court. The witness is excused.

(Thereupon the witness was excused and withdrew.)

PRESIDENT: Court will recess in place.

(Thereupon the court recessed in place.)

PRESIDENT: Court will come to order.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: The next witness is one Dietrich. He is also for Stroop.

FRITZ DIETRICH, called as a witness by the defense, being first duly sworn, testified through an interpreter as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY DR. RAU:

Q What is your name?

A Fritz Dietrich.

Q How old are you?

A 49 years old.

Q Are you a prisoner at this time?

A I am an internee.

Q Where?

A In Cage 1, Dachau.

Q What was your profession until the end of the war?

A I was an official until the end of the war, Police President of Saarbrucken.

Q Do you know the accused, Stroop?

A Yes.

Q If he is present in the courtroom, please point him out.

A General Stroop is wearing No. 1.

DR. RAU: Let the record show that the witness identified the accused, Stroop.

QUESTIONS BY DR. RAU:

Q Did you ever receive an order from this accused to the effect that an allied terror flier was to be shot?

A No.

Q Do you know one of Colonel Stemmler?

A Yes.

Q Where did he reside before the end of the war?

A In Saarbrucken.

Q Did you ever have a conversation with this Colonel concerning the shooting of allied fliers before the end of the war.

DR. RAU: I'd like to request the court to inform this witness he is not required to answer questions which he thinks might incriminate him.

PRESIDENT: The court wishes to warn you at this time that you can refuse to answer any question which will tend to incriminate you.

QUESTIONS BY DR. RAU:

Q Please answer the question.

A No.

DR. RAU: Thank you.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Any questions by the prosecution?

CAPTAIN VANCE: No questions.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Any questions by the court?

PRESIDENT: No questions by the court. Witness is excused.

(Whereupon the witness was excused and withdrew.)

PRESIDENT: Court will recess for thirty minutes.

(Whereupon at 1500 hours the court recessed until 1530 hours.)

(Whereupon the court reconvened at 1530 hours.)

PRESIDENT: The court will come to order.

PROSECUTION: May it please the court, let the record show that all the members of the court, all the members of the prosecution, all the members of the defense, all of the accused, the reporter and the interpreter are present.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: If it please the court, we have one witness I would like to introduce on a legal question. He has never been sworn before.

HEINZ WOLFGANG WILHELM PINDER, called as a witness by the defense, being first duly sworn, assumed the stand and testified through an interpreter as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY DEFENSE COUNSEL:

Q What is your full name?

A Heinz Wolfgang Wilhelm Pinder.

Q You are a prisoner at the present time in Dachau, are you not?

A I got into the status of a prisoner-of-war in May, 1945.

Q What is your civilian occupation?

A Lawyer.

Q What was your scholastic education?

A I attended high school after elementary school. After that the universities of Kiel, Heidelberg, Berlin and Leipzig. Upon that I passed my first bar examination and I worked in the legal service of the state of Saxony for three years in preparation of my second bar examination. I then took my second bar examination. I worked in the lower Burgstett as an assessor for a while. At that time I also completed my doctor's thesis in law. That thesis concerns, among other things, international law. After not quite one year of trial service and three years of preliminary service I would have completed the prerequisites for becoming a lawyer. I received my permission to practice before the state in lower courts of Leipzig after having been inducted into the armed forces, into the air force on 26 of August, 1939. That was the day of my being drafted.

(Pinder-direct)

Q I will show you, Dr. Pinder, a writing and ask you just if you have seen it and whether or not you have read it before.

A Yes, I have seen a copy of this, but may I first examine the individual sheets to see whether it is the same document? Yes, I saw a copy of this document a few minutes ago in a waiting room outside this courtroom.

Q Dr. I am going to ask you whether or not the contents of that paper are a true statement, so far as it goes, of the law existing in Germany? Before you answer that question I would like to know if you need time to read it again before you answer such a question?

A As to one point I can answer this question before rereading the statement.

Q As to some other point, do you have to read it again?

A Maybe it would be better for me to reread it briefly.

Q Well, in order to save time while the witness is doing that, Have I the court's permission to present a motion?

CAPTAIN VANCE: I would like to make a statement about this if I might. I will not take the court's time, because I am sure the law member knows how you put foreign law before a court. You bring in the ordinance or the case or what it happens to be and you introduce it in evidence. After it is in you may bring a lawyer in from a foreign state or foreign country to tell how that statute or law has been construed. Now here is a paper we know nothing about. The foundation hasn't been laid. We don't know whether it comes from a German law book or a decree of the German Government. All we know is that it is a piece of paper in his hand that contains a law. Until the proper predicate is laid we object to any further reference to this piece of paper the witness is discussing.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: There are certain legal situations existing in Germany which we desire to put into the record and so I drafted what I hoped would be a stipulation as to what the law was with respect to those one or two matters. It was a statement of the law as known to be by lawyers practicing in Germany. The prosecution, for its own good reasons, which I don't question for a moment, refuses to agree to the stipulation.

I produced here an expert who has studied in German law for a long time and I propose to ask him whether, insofar as the law of Germany is referred to in that paper, that is a correct statement of it with respect to those matters mentioned. I think it is perfectly proper. It has reference to the Weimar Constitution, some enabling act and all sorts of things of that kind. I wouldn't even know where to find them. I don't think the law library boasts of their possession.

The court may say his opinion isn't worth anything. That is a matter for the court to decide. All I want this man to say is that so far as it goes it is a correct statement of the law of Germany. Based on my own personal knowledge, I can't see where that is wrong.

CAPTAIN VANCE: May I ask the defense counsel, if their books are not in existence and around, where did he copy this law from?

DEFENSE COUNSEL: They made it up out of their own little heads Captain. The four German lawyers prepared it. They say it is a correct statement of the law. They feel it wouldn't be proper for them as counsel to testify and that is why we are bringing it out sir. I don't want to take up any more time in arguing. I will be content with the judgement of the court.

PRESIDENT: The court will recess in place.

(Whereupon the court recessed in place.)

(Whereupon the court reconvened.)

PRESIDENT: The court will come to order.

(PRESIDENT: The court will recess.

(Whereupon the court recessed.)

(Whereupon the court reconvened.)

PRESIDENT: The court will come to order

PROSECUTION: May it please the court, let the record show that all the members of the court, all the members of the prosecution, all the members of the defense, all of the accused the reporter and interpreter are present.

LAW MEMBER: Read the last question and the motion please.

(Whereupon the reporter read as follows:

"Q I am going to ask you whether or not the contents of that paper are a true statement, so far as it goes, of the law existing in Germany? Before you answer that question I would like to know if you need time to read it again before you answer such a question?

A As to one point I can answer this question before rereading the statement.

Q As to some other point, do you have to read it again?

A Maybe it would be better for me to reread it briefly.

Q Well, in order to save time while the witness is doing that, have I the court's permission to present a motion?

CAPTAIN VANCE: I would like to make a statement about this if I might. I will not take the court's time, because I am sure the law member knows how you put foreign law before a court. You bring in the evidence or the case or what it happens to be and you introduce it in evidence. After it is in you may bring a lawyer in from a foreign state or foreign country to tell how that statute or law has been construed. Now here is a paper we know nothing about. The foundation hasn't been laid. We don't know wether it comes from a German law book or a decree of the German Government. All we know is that it is a piece of paper in his hand that contains a law. Until the proper predicate is laid we object to any further reference to this piece of paper the witness is discussing.")

PRESIDENT: The objection is sustained.

HEINZ WOLFGANG WILHELM PINDER, called as a witness by the defense, resumed the stand and testified further through an interpreter as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION (continued)

QUESTIONS BY DEFENSE COUNSEL:

Q Dr. Pinder, can you tell the court whether or not the various matters referred to in that paper which you have in your hand have been reduced to writing and published officially by the German Government?

CAPTAIN VANCE: Same objection, if it please the court.

PRESIDENT: Objection sustained.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I was going to show that they never were published officially, so that the normal channel of proving it by official publications is non-existent.

CAPTAIN VANCE: If it has never been published, how is it the law?

DEFENSE COUNSEL: The court stands by its original ruling despite that offer of proof?

LAW MEMBER: Yes.

PRESIDENT: That is correct.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I would like to ask one more question, may it please the court.

QUESTIONS BY DEFENSE COUNSEL:

Q Limiting ourselves to the period of 1 January 1939 on to the end of the war, in the event that during that period of time a citizen of Germany wanted to test the legality of any order or decree published by Adolf Hitler or his cabinet, what if any sources of legal appeal did he have?

CAPTAIN VANCE: Same objection, if it please the court.

QUESTIONS BY DEFENSE COUNSEL:

Q Perhaps I might rephrase the question. Was there or did there exist, so far as you know, any system of appeal by him to the courts to test the legality of any such decree, order, or enactment?

CAPTAIN VANCE: Same objection, if it please the court.

PRESIDENT: The objection is overruled.

THE WITNESS: I don't know anything about the existence of any authority which would have the right to make that sort of a decision, but I do think that would have been known to me if such an authority had existed.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: That is all. Any more questions?

QUESTIONS BY DR. WACKER:

Q Dr. Pinder, what is the basic difference between a fuehrer state and democracy, so far as obedience to authority is concerned?

CAPTAIN VANCE: We object, may it please the court. It is irrelevant, incompetent, and immaterial and has no bearing on the issues of this case.

DR. WACKER: I think this point is very material indeed. The orders which we are talking about here were issued in Germany, a fuehrer state, and it seems extremely important to me that this difference is explained to the judges here, who come from a democracy.

PRESIDENT: Objection sustained.

QUESTIONS BY DR. WACKER:

Q Dr. Pinder, what are the regulations of international law about the question of when a member of an enemy nation becomes a prisoner of war?

CAPTAIN VANCE: Same objection, if it please the court, as made to the questions as propounded by Colonel Bowman.

PRESIDENT: Objection sustained.

QUESTIONS BY DR. WACKER:

Q May a belligerent power make a decision as to whom they desire to make a prisoner of war and whom they do not desire to make a prisoner of war?

CAPTAIN VANCE: Same objection, if it please the court.

PRESIDENT: Objection sustained.

DR. WACKER: No further questions.

MAJOR SAXON: Any cross examination?

CAPTAIN VANCE: No cross examination.

MAJOR SAXON: Does the court have any questions?

PRESIDENT: No questions by the court. The witness is excused.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: May it please the court, I would like to present a motion for the consideration of the court, a copy of which was given to the law member a few days ago and to the prosecution a few days ago. I would like permission to read it.

Take 311 - 30
3-11-47;JMMcD;4

DACHAU, GERMANY

Case No. 12-2000 4 March 1947

UNITED STATES

vs.

JURGEN STROOP, et al

MOTION TO STRIKE FROM THE RECORD

1. Now comes Julius Lassak, named as an accused in the above entitled cause, and moves that Prosecution Exhibits P-56, P-56A and P-57 introduced and received into evidence as confessions be stricken from the record and for reasons assigns the following: -

That the plain weight of the evidence shows that the aforementioned confessions were obtained through duress and coercion and were not voluntarily made by the accused.

WILLIAM BERMAN
Lt. Col. AC
Chief Defense Counsel"

I do not intend to make any extended argument. The court has in mind the evidence of Lassak himself as to the circumstances under which these confessions were received, and the court will recall that the prosecution produced a witness by the name of Coates who, on the stand, corroborated--and I say so most respectfully--everything which Lassak himself said as to the circumstances under which they were obtained.

I appreciate fully the fact that under the regulations now in vogue and in effect the burden is no longer on the prosecution to prove the confessions were voluntarily made, but in this case the defense has sustained the burden of proving that they were involuntarily made.

CAPTAIN VANCE: If it please the court, I will not attempt to answer the argument as to why the motion should not be granted or should be granted. I will say that the court at this time does not have the power nor authority to rule on this motion. If the court should entertain such a motion as this at this time it would be reading the mind of the prosecutor as to whether or not we intend to bring in rebuttal against Lassak on this. We would be foreclosed from bringing in any rebuttal testimony in regard to this particular matter if the court should entertain this motion at this time. We have a right to do so, and we say that the court has no authority to rule on this motion until all of the evidence is in and the case is closed.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: May I make just one more statement?

PRESIDENT: Proceed.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: The evidence produced, if I remember rightly, was direct evidence produced by the prosecution with the intent to negate at that time what Lassak had to say, and he was put on out of place because he had to go back to America. He was their rebuttal testimony, but unfortunately instead of rebutting it he corroborated it. I submit that a motion to strike from the record can be made at any time.

PRESIDENT: The motion is denied.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: My attention has been called to a stipulation apparently entered into between the prosecution and the defense --

PROSECUTION: And the accused.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: -- and the accused, that a certain witness named herein, if present, would testify about a certain wrist watch owned by the accused Eichel.

CAPTAIN VANCE: It is so stipulated.

PRESIDENT: Does the accused Eichel agree to the stipulation?

ACCUSED HANS EICHEL: Yes.

PRESIDENT: The stipulation will be accepted by the court.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: With the court's permission I will read it.

PRESIDENT: Permission granted.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: (Reading)

STIPULATION

"It is hereby stipulated and agreed upon between the prosecution, the defense and the accused that if August Herold from Dietzenbach were present he would testify as follows:

"From my own knowledge, I know that the accused Hans Eichel No. 6, wore a German wrist-watch which personally belonged to him until he was taken prisoner."

There is one other small thing, but it may be important in the minds of the court, and that is a correction of Prosecution Exhibit 146. The original exhibit, written in the handwriting of the accused Hoehler, has two lines, one beginning at paragraph 2 and closing the end of that paragraph 2. It is a straight line which shows on the original German and not in the English. It occurs to us that the court might read the English translation and not see the German. These are the two lines (indicating), one here and one there. The court may remember that there was some testimony that part of that thing was a restatement of a report which he made. We think that those lines may substantiate his testimony to that effect.

PRESIDENT: Is that offered as a stipulation?

DEFENSE COUNSEL: They have agreed that that does not appear in the English.

CAPTAIN VANCE: I see a little line in there, but I do not know what the straight line means. If you want to put it in there I have no objection.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: All I want is that the English should have the same line that the German has.

LAW MEMBER: Is it an exhibit?

DEFENSE COUNSEL: The original exhibit in German, written by Hoehler, is Prosecution Exhibit 146. It contains those two straight lines beginning and ending paragraph 2, and the English does not. This is the original exhibit in his handwriting. You see that paragraph 2 begins with that line and ends here with a line, and the English omits them.

PRESIDENT: You are just putting in a line and no words?

DEFENSE COUNSEL: That is all.

PRESIDENT: That may be entered on the exhibit.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: May it please the court, in view of the ruling of the court on the motion, we are now going to put into the record some testimony which, for the sake of a short definition, I will refer to as strafing testimony. I am going to ask Dr. Ehrgen, who is going to put it in, that perhaps before he puts it in he had better make a short statement to the court as to the subject matter of this, so that if we are going to run into any trouble as to the admissibility and relevancy of it we might as well do it now. With the court's permission I will have him make a very short statement.

PRESIDENT: Permission granted.

DR. BUERGER: Before bringing in these witnesses, I should like to state to the court that we intend to bring in witnesses residing in the towns where the accused resided or worked or in the vicinity of those towns. That is about things which the accused themselves know about. There is no intent whatever on the part of myself or my co-counsel to decide to make any decision as to the value of the air warfare as it was fought at the time. Rather, we are presenting this testimony for the purpose of presenting a psychological background for the attitude of the accused and the population in those areas. The first witness is Miss Irma Leonhard.

PROSECUTION: The court will recall that when the question of general or special individual reprisal was first brought to the attention of this court, at that time the defense offered evidence on the subject; that, as chief prosecutor, I made a strenuous objection to the introduction of that evidence and to the proposal of that defense, either as an affirmative defense or by way of mitigation. I objected on the ground that the testimony offered in that connection by the defense was irrelevant, and gave many reasons in support of my contention. My argument appears on pages 1161 to 1169 of the record. The court deliberated the question and, after much consideration, made a decision, which appears on page 1182 of the record:

> "The court will admit evidence of the character sought to be introduced by the defense and will consider it as being offered in mitigation or as reprisal by the accused, providing it is not irrelevant, immaterial or otherwise incompetent. The weight that should be given this or similar evidence will be reserved for future consideration. The court already has common knowledge of the propaganda that was disseminated generally by the German Government and further evidence of this nature is deemed unnecessary."

Recently the defense renewed its offer of evidence to support the defense of general reprisal, and made a specific offer of proof in that regard. This resulted in further consideration by the court, and a decision was made limiting the defense to proof of reprisals which affected the accused personally and which concerned itself only with their personal experiences and reactions.

Evidence of general propaganda by the German Government was especially declared again by the court to be inadmissible. To offer evidence again in line with the decision made by the court, the accused Stroop and Trummler were permitted to answer questions in which they discussed the bombings and strafings in their particular area by the Allied air force.

It cannot be said that the prosecution by cross examining those accused on those very points, keeping as they did within the scope of that direct examination, did by that means extend the scope of the defendants' evidence or open the door again to unlimited evidence on the subject. General Stroop and Dr. Trummler gave the court by their answers their own personal reactions and feelings based upon personal experiences in their areas. The questions on cross examination by the prosecution have pointedly tested their knowledge on the subject and were designed to show the court that the mental conditions were not based on truth and fact but on their bias and prejudice and on false premises.

So again we renew our objection, and, as evident from the statement made by counsel, that evidence will now again be submitted of general reprisal and evidence of strafing in general in Wehrkreis 12, which cannot be the personal feelings and reactions of the individual accused in the dock. They are the only ones that can tell us about that.

PRESIDENT: Do you have anything further?

DEFENSE COUNSEL: No, sir, what I said is that if what I understand is correct, we could introduce evidence as to what took place in the community where the accused lived or worked, and by Dr. Buerger's statement that evidence will be so limited.

DR. BUERGER: I would like to comment briefly on this point. As I have said before, it is not the intention of myself or the Defense to offer any proof concerning reprisals in general, but rather up to now we have only had the testimony of some of our accused, and the credibility of that testimony has to a certain extent been questioned, and what we, and I as a representative of the Defense now desire to do is to corroborate that testimony of the accused by some more or less unbiased witnesses.

PRESIDENT: The objection is overruled. Court will recess until tomorrow morning.

(Whereupon at 1650 hours the Court recessed.)

Legal Form No. 8

MILITARY GOVERNMENT COURT
MILITÄRGERICHT

CHARGE SHEET
ANKLAGESCHRIFT

Place .....
Ort

Date .....
Datum

Name of accused .....
Name des Angeklagten

is hereby charged with the following offences:
wird hiermit wegen der folgenden strafbaren Handlungen angeklagt:

First Charge: ..... Erste Anklage: .....

.....

.....

.....

Particulars: ..... Einzelheiten: .....

.....

.....

.....

Second Charge: ..... Zweite Anklage: .....

.....

.....

.....

Particulars: ..... Einzelheiten: .....

.....

.....

.....

.....

The above charges are referred for trial to the *Summary *Intermediate Military Court to be held *General

Die Verhandlung wird vor dem *Einfachen *Mittleren Militärgerichte *Oberen

at ..... on ..... 194.....
in (Address of Court) am
(Anschrift des Gerichtes)

at .....
um Uhr stattfinden.

By Order
Im Auftrage von

.....
(Signature of person preferring charges)
(Unterschrift des Vertreters der Anklagebehörde)

*Strike out words not applicable.
*Nichtzutreffendes ist durchzustreichen.

Copy of above served on accused ..... 194.....
Abschrift dem Angeklagten zugestellt am

.....
(Signature of person making service)
(Unterschrift des Zustellers)

CA/GI 13 Legal Form No. 8

MILITARY GOVERNMENT COURT

CASE RECORD.

33

PAGES 2349- 2396

Case No. Superior Orders

*~~Summary~~
*~~Intermediate~~ Military Court.
*General

Place DACHAU, GERMANY

Date 12 March 1947

~~Members of Court~~

Prosecutor Lt. Col. Dwinell

Defence Counsel Lt Col Berman

Interpreters Rudolph Nathanson
Herbert B. Rosenstock

Reporters Imogene Butler, Evelyn Cohen, Paula Silverman, Peter L DiCurti, John D MacDonald, Pvt William F Jones.

WITNESSES:

Gladstone Kohloss Margot Geis
Alfred Wunnenberg Wilhelmina Appel
Erwin Schulz
Karl Goetz
Maria Rechel

Accused JURGEN STROOP, ET AL

Address ..... Sex ..... Age .....

	First Charge	Second Charge
Pleas
Findings
Previous Convictions

Sentence
- Imprisonment
  - Term .....
  - Beginning 194
- Fine
  - Amount .....
  - To be paid before 194
  - or in case of default of payment to serve a *further term of ..... imprisonment.

Charge Sheet and Record of Testimony are annexed hereto.

..... (Signature of member of court.)

REVIEW

Action of Reviewing Authority .....

..... (Signature of reviewing authority)

*Strike out words not applicable.

RECORD OF TESTIMONY

in trial of

THE UNITED STATES vs. JURGEN STROOP, et al

by

GENERAL MILITARY GOVERNMENT COURT

DACHAU, GERMANY BEGINNING 10 JANUARY 1947

12 MARCH 1947 Pages 2349 -

TESTIMONY

	Direct	Cross	Redirect	Recross	Court
GLADSTONE KOHLOSS	2350	2353
ALFRED WUNNENBERG	2353	2355
ERWIN SCHILS	2358	2359		2364	2363
KARL GOERZ	2365	2370
MARIA RECHEL	2371	2374	2374 2377	2376	2375 2377
MARGOT GEIS	2378	2379	2379
WILHELMINA APPEL	2380				2382

EXHIBITS

NO.	DESCRIPTION	MARKED	RECEIVED IN EVIDENCE
P-148	Statement of Joseph Kiwitt	2390
P-12	(Withdrawn)
P-14	(Withdrawn)
P-70	(Withdrawn)
P-127	(Withdrawn)

the defense counsel have considered that question and we now have a statement to make to the court by Dr. Buerger who made the statement yesterday afternoon.

DR. BUERGER: May it please the court, discussed thoroughly last night and this morning whether it would be necessary to bring to discussion individual proof of the air warfare. The defense came to the conclusion that this is not necessary any more for the reason that two of the accused, General Streng and Colonel Semmler gave here a picture of the entire situation as it existed and because the defense is of the opinion that the members of the court as war experienced soldiers through their own experience in Germany had the possibility to make themselves a picture of the influence which the air warfare must have had on the German population. For this reason the defense desires not to bring any more evidence.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: The American defense counsel join in that desire and because of it, the defense rests its case, subject of course

[illegible]

[illegible]

[illegible]

to anything the prosecution may bring in. At this time I have a number of motions I wish to present. If it is the with of the court that I delay this until the prosecution brings in rebuttal, I will of course do that.

PRESIDENT: The court believes it will be better for the defense to make its motions at the end of the rebuttal testimony.

PROSECUTION: The prosecution calls Lieutenant Colonel Kohlose.

Lieutenant Colonel GLADSTONE KOHLOSS, called as a rebuttal witness by the prosecution, being first duly sworn, testified as follows: (Whereupon the proceedings were translated into the German language.)

DIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY PROSECUTION:

Q Colonel, please state your full name.

A Gladstone Kohloss, AGN O-[illegible].

Q You are a Lieutenant Colonel in the United States Army?

A Yes.

Q You are on duty with War Crimes here in Dachau?

A Yes.

Q Were you on duty here with War Crimes on the 23rd of October 1946?

A I was.

PROSECUTION: I hand the reporter a document and ask that it be marked Prosecution Exhibit 118 for identification.

(The document referred to was marked Prosecution Exhibit 118 for identification.)

Q I show you document marked for identification Prosecution Exhibit 118 and ask you if you will examine it.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I pray the court's judgment. I haven't seen it.

PROSECUTION: That document was used before the trial in connection with the cross examination of the accused Kiwitt.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Even though I don't know the contents, I question whether evidence which was available at the outset can be rebuttal.

PROSECUTION: Sometime during the trial, Kiwitt was on the stand and questioned about certain statements that were made on the witness stand and questioned about answers he made to questions, which were contrary to the answers in this document. When he was pressed for the reason of the inconsistency, it was claimed at that time this statement was taken he was not permitted to answer the questions the way he wanted to make them. For that purpose we have called Colonel Kohlers to rebut these statements made by the accused Kiwitt that he was not permitted to answer the questions the way he wanted.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Well, if the sole purpose of the witness is to rebut the statement that the accused was not permitted to examine the statement, that is allright, but that does not permit the introduction of the document.

PROSECUTION: We have not offered it into evidence.

QUESTIONS BY PROSECUTION:

Q Colonel Kohlees, I believe I previously asked you to examine Exhibit 148 for identification. Tell the court what it is and the circumstances under which it was asked.

A These are interrogatories which I propounded to Mr. Kiwitt in request to which was made in a letter, as I recall, in a letter as I recall from the leaders of War Crimes. They were trying to locate the perpetrators in the killing of American fliers.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I am willing to concede whatever he did was in the course of official duties.

Q Will you tell the court what happened at the time the interrogations took place.

A At the time I took these interrogatories, Mr. Kiwitt came in and I had an American civilian as reporter and a German civilian as an interpreter. I explained to Mr. Kiwitt the purpose of calling him in, and the information I was seeking. I also told him that it was necessary to have his testimony under oath, and would he object to testifying under oath, to which he answered he did not. The oath was administered by me and this is in response to questions I propounded to him.

Q After the interrogatories had been prepared, did he make any objection or complaint as to whether or not the answers were improperly reported in the interrogatories?

MR. RACHAEL: The defense objects on the ground it is leading.

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

A As I recall/the last page there was a change made in an answer. That is one reason I particularly remember this particular interrogatory.

Q What was the change made on the last page?

A In the whole five questions. I don't mean that all of them were changed, but I mean to read the whole five, it would show the change. In other words, I was trying to find out who it was who actually executed the fliers and in the former part of this interrogatory he mentioned this man's name, and the question was, "Is that the man whom you stated you did not remember his name?" The stenographer when she took it down, she had the answer as "Yes". When it was read back to Mr. Kiwitt he said it was not right, that was not the man and his answer was changed to "No," and there was another change, I don't know what it was, and as I remember I had Mr. Kiwitt make the changes in the one original, then the whole interrogatory from the beginning to end was read to him again, and he said, "That is all right." That was the way it was and he signed it and I signed it.

PROSECUTION: Your witness. Let the record show that the accused, Oess , Number 15 and Koehler, Number 5 have resumed their places in the dock.

CROSS EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY MR. RACHAEL:

Q Colonel, what was the name of the interpreter you had?

A Mr. Koenig.

Q Prior to the time these questions were taken down by the stenographer, did you have a conversation through the interpreter with the accused, Klutt?

A As I recall, and that is the way I usually took depositions, and I have taken quite a number of them for interrogatories, the accused along with the interpreter and stenographer all started from scratch, in other words everything was explained in the presence of the accused.

Q And that was taken down?

A That's right.

Q At any time during that interrogation, was there any conversation that was not taken down?

A Yes, probably quite a bit that was not taken down.

MR. RACHAEL: No further questions.

PROSECUTION: Any questions by any member of the court?

PRESIDENT: No questions by the court. The witness is excused.

(Whereupon the witness was excused and withdrew from the courtroom.)

ALFRED WUNNENBERG, called as a rebuttal witness by the prosecution, being reminded he was still under oath, testified through an interpreter as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q You are the same General Wunnenberg who testified for the defense?

A Yes.

Q I believe you testified you were the commander for the order police for the state of Germany?

A Yes.

Q I believe you stated you had approximately three and a half million men under your command?

A Yes.

Q General, at any time were these three and a half million men of yours ever taken into the German Wehrmacht?

A No.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: There never has been any evidence introduced that members of the Ordnungs were taken into the German army. The only evidence was as to members of the security police. If he wants to testify he knows who happened to the security police, I have no objection. I also move to strike his answer from the record.

PRESIDENT: Objection sustained. The motion to strike is granted.

Q General Wunnenberg, I will ask you the same question in reference to the security police in Germany.

A At least I didn't hear about it.

Q I believe you testified you were a personal friend of Dr. Kaltenbrunner's, is that right?

A Yes.

Q And did you see Dr. Kaltenbrunner various and sundry times on many occasions?

A Approximately over three months or six months.

Q Did you ever hear him make any statements about the security police being taken into the German army?

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I pray the court's judgment. The answer would be a presumption. It has no value and would merely be a presumption by the witness.

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

A I did not hear anything about it.

Q General, do you know the components of the various branches that make up the German army?

A The air force, the army and the navy.

CAPTAIN VANCE: Nothing further. Your witness.

CROSS EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY DEFENSE COUNSEL:

Q When was the last time you saw General Waltenbrunner before the end of the war?

A If I am not mistaken, that was the beginning of 1945 in Vienna.

Q And when did you see him before that time?

A I think it was on the 20th of July 1944.

Q And that was the date of the attempted assassination of Hitler?

A Yes.

Q And when did you see him after January 1945?

A Not at all after January 1945.

Q Now, on the 20th of July 1944, did you ever talk about anything but the attempted assassination?

A No, I didn't talk with him at all because he was so busy that we exchanged only short greetings.

Q How long did you see him in Vienna in January 1945?

A Perhaps half an hour, or an hour.

Q And what did you talk about that time?

CAPTAIN VANCE: We object on the grounds it is immaterial and irrelevant what these two generals talked about.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I withdraw the question.

Q Did you discuss during this meeting in Vienna to any extent at allanything concerning the security police?

A No, during this meeting, it wasn't really an official meeting, more like a discussion between two comrades, at the time I had some difficulties and arguments with SS Lieutenant General Wolff and I told him about these.

Q Now, it was the law was it not, that matters of a secret nature could be explained only to those directly concerned with the execution of that secret matter?

CAPTAIN VANCE: We object. It is beyond my examination.

PRESIDENT: Objection sustained.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: May I address the court? The whole purpose is to show something did not exist and he didn't know about it. Now I will show he wasn't supposed to know about the secret orders concerning the security police.

CAPTAIN VANCE: You mean he wasn't supposed to know who was in the German army?

PRESIDENT: The court's ruling stands.

QUESTIONS BY DEFENSE COUNSEL (Cont'd):

Q Now, you have testified that the German armed forces consisted of the army, navy and air force. Are you familiar with allthe components of the German army?

A You mean the army?

Q Are you familiar with all the elements which made up the Waffen SS?

A Yes, in general. Yes, I was a member of the Waffen SS myself.

Q Did you ever hear of an organization known as the Battalion Konits?

CAPTAIN VANCE: No objet, may it please the Court. That's going beyond direct examination.

PRESIDENT: Objection sustained.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Nothing further, Major Saxon has a question.

MAJOR SAXON: This appearance is solely in behalf of the accused Truemler, and I would like to ask the Prosecution at this time if they are willing to stipulate that Colonel Truemler was a member of the armed forces?

CAPTAIN VANCE: The Prosecution is willing to stipulate that Colonel Truemler was a member of the Waffen SS.

MAJOR SAXON: I would like the record to show that the Prosecution and Defense have stipulated that Colonel Truemler was a member of the Waffen SS at all times with which we are concerned.

PRESIDENT: Colonel Truemler, are you agreeable with that stipulation?

ACCUSED TRUEMLER: Yes, General.

PRESIDENT: The stipulation is accepted by the Court.

QUESTIONS BY DR. AHEIMER:

Q General, was the Waffen SS a part of the German armed forces?

A Yes.

DR. AHEIMER: That's all.

(Wannenberg-Cross)

CAPTAIN VANCE: Any questions by the Court?

PRESIDENT: No questions by the Court; the witness is excused.

(Thereupon the witness was excused and withdrew.)

CAPTAIN VANCE: Bring in Erwin Schulz.

ERWIN SCHULZ, called as a witness in rebuttal by the Prosecution, being first duly sworn, testified through an interpreter as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q Will you please state your full name?

A Erwin Schulz.

Q Are you presently interned in Camp Dachau?

A Yes.

Q Prior to the end of the war, what was your business or profession?

A I was commander of the Security Police at Salzburg.

Q How long did you hold that position as commander of the Security Police at Salzburg?

A From the first of May, 1944, until the surrender.

Q What was your rank?

A I was Brigadier General of the Police and SS Brigadier General, too.

Q General, before becoming Commanding Officer of the Security Police, what did you do prior to that?

A I was in charge of the Department 1 of the Reichs Security Main Office, in charge of personnel.

Q Was that office located in Berlin?

A Yes.

Q And was that one part of Kaltenbrunner's office?

A It was one of the Departments which was a part of the Reichs Security Main Office.

Q For what period of time did you hold that position, General?

A From the first of February, 1943, until April, 1945.

Q What is the total length of service that you have had with the police system of Germany?

A From 1923 without interruption until the day of the surrender.

Q General, was the entire Security Police system of Germany ever made a part of the German Wehrmacht?

A The entire Security Police was not transferred into the Wehrmacht.

CAPTAIN VANCE: Nothing further. Any questions by the Defense?

CROSS EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY MR. RACHAEL:

Q General Schulz, was part of the Security Police taken into the Wehrmacht?

A At various times various parts of the Security Police were put at the disposal of the Wehrmacht.

Q At any time were Waffen SS "soldbuchs" issued to members of the Security Police?

A At the end of 1944 when the pay schedule of the Wehrmacht was introduced for the Security Police, pay books of the Waffen SS were also given to the men.

DR. RAU: I must object to the translation. The witness didn't say Waffen SS pay books. He said only "SS pay books."

INTERPRETER: That's correct.

(Schulz-Cross)

QUESTIONS BY MR. RACHAEL:

Q In 1944, what parts of the Security Police were put at the disposal of the Wehrmacht?

CAPTAIN VANCE: I object, may it please the Court--that's going beyond direct examination. I proved one point by this man. Further, it's immaterial and has nothing to do with the issues in this case.

PRESIDENT: Objection sustained.

MR. RACHAEL: Will you explain to the Court, if you know, when various elements of the Security Police were inducted or made a part of the Waffen SS?

CAPTAIN VANCE: We object, may it please the Court--same grounds, and further that the question is misleading. This man has testified that it was never made a part of it.

PRESIDENT: Will you please read the question?

(Whereupon the reporter read the last question.)

MR. RACHAEL: May it please the Court, this witness has testified that the entire Security Police was not made a part of it at one time. I am asking as to parts of the Security Police on cross examination.

CAPTAIN VANCE: That's the only thing I rebutted--that's the only question I asked.

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

INTERPRETER: Will you please read the question?

(Whereupon the reporter read the last question.)

WITNESS: I cannot answer this question because it is beyond my knowledge. In my area a transfer of the security Police into the Wehrmacht did not take place.

MR. RACHAEL: Do you know whether a transfer took place where Germany occupied other countries?

CAPTAIN VANCE: We object, may it please the Court--it's beyond direct examination.

PRESIDENT: Objection sustained.

MR. RACHAEL: Do you know whether such elements were inducted into the Waffen SS in front areas or near front areas.

CAPTAIN VANCE: Some objection, may it please the Court.

PRESIDENT: Objection sustained.

MR. RACHAEL: When was Salzburg a front area or a near front area?

CAPTAIN VANCE: Some objection, may it please the Court.

PRESIDENT: Objection sustained.

MR. RACHAEL: If the Court please, I respectfully move that the entire testimony of this witness be stricken from the record on the ground that he, himself, does not know of his own knowledge what transpired in the Security Police in front areas or near front areas where Wehrkreis 12 is.

PRESIDENT: The motion to strike is denied.

MR. RACHAEL: Nothing further.

QUESTIONS BY DR. RAU:

Q You said that you had been a Brigadier General of the SS. Were you a Brigadier General of the Allgemeine SS or of the Waffen SS?

A I was a Brigadier General of the Allgemeine SS.

DR. RAU: Thank you.

QUESTIONS BY DR. AHRIMER:

Q General, were there any pay books of the Allgemeine SS?

CAPTAIN VANCE: We object--going beyond direct examination.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: There has been testimony on that subject already in the record, and we think it is wrong.

CAPTAIN VANCE: Not by this witness.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: By this witness.

PRESIDENT: Stop the argument.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: This witness testified about pay books just prior to the time that Dr. Rau got up and corrected the translation. Will you please read that question and answer?

(Whereupon the reporter read the question and answer referred to as follows:

"Q At any time were Waffen SS "soldbuchs" issued to members of theSecurity Police?

A At the end of 1944 when the pay schedule of the Wehrmacht was introduced for the Security Police, pay books of the Waffen SS were also given to the men.

DR. RAU: I must object to the translation. The witness didn't say Waffen SS pay books. He said only "S" pay books."

INTERPRETER: That's correct.")

DEFENSE COUNSEL: That's definitely associated with the statement he made as corrected. We are asking him now point blank whether there ever was such a thing as an Allgemeine SS pay book.

(Schulz-Cross)

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

WITNESS: I don't think so.

QUESTIONS BY DR. AHEIMER:

Q General, when you talked before about the issuing of pay books to the members of the Security Police, were you referring to pay books of the Waffen SS?

A These were the pay books with the heading "SS Pay Books" which were given to us by the Reichs Security Main Office centrally, and which, in my opinion were identical with the pay books of the Waffen SS.

DR. AHEIMER: No more questions.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Nothing further.

CAPTAIN VANCE: Any questions by the Court?

EXAMINATION BY THE COURT

QUESTIONS BY THE LAW MEMBER:

Q General, did you receive a pay book of the SS at the time when the pay schedule of the Wehrmacht was introduced for the Security Police?

A At the same time, together with all my men, I received the pay book.

Q Did that make you a member of the SS by receiving the pay book?

A No, of course I was already an SS member.

Q Did any other man in the Security Police, by reason of receiving that pay book when the new pay was introduced for the Security Police--did that of itself make that man a member of the Wehrmacht?

A Not in my area.

PRESIDENT: No further questions.

MR. RACHAEL: One more question.

RECROSS EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY MR. RACHAEL:

Q How about the near front areas?

CAPTAIN VANCE: We object, may it please the Court.

PRESIDENT: The witness can answer the question if he knows.

WITNESS: I cannot answer this question because I don't know.

QUESTIONS BY DR. RAU:

Q Did the pay book which you received make you a member of the Waffen SS?

MR. RACHAEL: May it please the Court, that question has already been asked and answered.

DR. RAU: No, the question was only whether it made you a member of the SS, and there's a difference between the SS and Waffen SS.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I join in the objection, may it please the Court. I don't understand why the question is being asked, and I don't understand a great many other things which I intend to find out about.

DR. RAU: The Court asked this question and I am only making a supplement to it.

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

QUESTIONS BY DR. RAU:

Q Please answer the question. Did the pay book which you received make you a member of the Waffen SS?

(Schulz-Court)

A Through the issuance of the pay book, no change took place in my personal position.

Q That means you did not become a member of the Waffen SS?

A No, otherwise, I would have received at the same time the equivalent rank in the Waffen SS.

Q Have you ever heard of the Battalion Konitz?

CAPTAIN VANCE: We object, may it please the Court. That's going beyond everybody's examination.

PRESIDENT: Objection sustained.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Nothing further.

PRESIDENT: No questions by the Court. The witness is excused.

(Whereupon the witness was excused and withdrew.)

CAPTAIN VANCE: Bring in Karl Coetz.

KARL COETZ, called as a witness in rebuttal by the Prosecution, being first duly sworn, testified through an interpreter as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q Please state your name.

A Karl Coetz.

Q Mr. Coetz, prior to the end of the war what was your business or profession?

A I was Police Assistant at Gestapo Headquarters, Luxemburg.

Q Who was your chief at that time?

A The Chief of the office was Chief Inspector Stein.

Q At any time did you work under Major Sinke or Major Hellenbroich?

A Yes, he was in charge of the entire headquarters.

(Schulz-Court)

(Coetz-Direct) 2068

Q Mr. Coats, I call your attention to the 15th day of March, 1945, and ask you if you had an American prisoner of war in custody on that date?

A Yes.

Q Did you have a conversation with Major Hellenbreich on that date in reference to this flyer?

A Yes.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Excuse me a second.

CAPTAIN VANCE: It's not charged. You won't find it in there.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Then I object to it--it's entirely new, and couldn't possibly be rebuttal.

CAPTAIN VANCE: Now, if it please the Court, Major Girbs, Hellenbreich, Stattman and Raaf testified to this Court with reference to the 24th day of March when they executed two flyers, and with the exception of that and the 15th day of February when they executed one flyer, they had never seen an American prisoner on any other occasion and didn't know anything about any other flyer. This is to disprove that testimony. We offer to show that on various and sundry dates other than the dates charged in the charges being tried here that they did have flyers in custody and what disposition was made of them.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I would like to state first of all that I don't accept the Prosecution's statement as to what the evidence was as it was actually entered. Secondly, it's evidence which could have been put in in the first instance under Charge I--that's the place it should have been put in as direct evidence. What the Prosecution is doing in here now is putting in evidence of other offenses, going far beyond the question of discrediting the witness with respect to one isolated statement, but if Gixha says he never saw anybody before they are bringing in evidence, I assume, of other executions. That goes far beyond part of their direct case. I think it is seriously prejudicial to the rights of every single one of these accused.

PRESIDENT: Do you have anything further?

CAPTAIN VANCE: Yes, sir. If it please the Court, I think the Court will remember that during the defense of these accused and other accused that Colonel Berman himself propounded questions, "Did you ever have any other flyers?" "No". "Did you ever mistreat any other flyers?" "No, we don't know anything about any flyers except the ones charged." When I took these accused on cross examination I said, "Are you sure of that?" "Yes." "Are you just as sure of that as anything else you told the Court?" "Yes". We are here to disprove those statements and prove them liars and prevaricators.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I never asked a single question, to my knowledge, of anybody in connection with Charges 6 and 10.

PRESIDENT: The objection is overruled.

The Court will recess for 20 minutes.

(Whereupon at 1005 hours, the Court recessed.)

(Thereupon the court reconvened at 1030 hours.)

PRESIDENT: Court will come to order. [illegible]

PROSECUTION: May it please the court, let the record show that all the members of the court except Lt. Colonel Walker, who is temporarily absent by permission of the appointing authority, all the members of the prosecution, all the defense, the reporter and interpreter, are present.

CAPTAIN VANCE: Will the court reporter please read the last question and answer?

(Thereupon the reporter read the last question and answer as follows:

"Q Did you have a conversation with Major Hellenbroich on that date in reference to this flier? [illegible]

A Yes.")

KARL GOETZ, called as a witness in rebuttal by the prosecution, resumed the stand and being reminded he was still under oath, testified further through an interpreter as follows: [illegible].

DIRECT EXAMINATION (continued)

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE: [illegible]

Q If you were to see Mr. Hellenbroich at this time, would you be able to recognize him? [illegible]

A Yes. [illegible]

Q If he is present in the court, will you point him out to the court? [illegible]

A No. 80. [illegible]

CAPTAIN VANCE: Let the record show that the witness identifies the accused, Hellenbroich, wearing placard No. 80.

Q What was this conversation which you had with Major Hellenbroich?

DEFENSE COUNSEL: We object, may it please the court.

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled. [illegible]

(Goetz-direct)

THE WITNESS: I called the headquarters at Bensheim. SS Major Hellenbroich answered the phone. I told him that I had a flier there. The Rural Police wasn't there, and then he said I should bring the man. I answered him I couldn't do it, I couldn't walk anymore. Then he told me he would send a car, a vehicle, motor bicycle, or something. That was the entire talk which I had.

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q Did he send anyone to pick up the flier?

A Yes.

Q Who came?

A The Criminal employee Hienkel and a man named Schmidt came.

Q Were Schmidt and Hienkel Gestapo agents employed by Major Girke?

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I pray the court's judgment -- employed by Girke? It's leading among other objections.

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

THE WITNESS: What do you mean "agents"?

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q Were Schmidt and Hienkel two men employed by the Gestapo Headquarters which was headed by Major Girke?

A Hienkel was a driver and Schmidt had come from the Order Police a short time before.

Q Now, when these two men arrived, what did they tell you?

A "This is the man, bring him to the hospital."

Q Did they take the flier away from you?

A No, he walked all by himself into the car. He stepped into the car.

Q Did they take custody of the flier from you and go away with him?

A Yes.

(Goetz-direct)

Q Did you ever see the flier again?

A No.

CAPTAIN VANCE: Any cross examination?

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Cross examination by Dr. Aheimer.

DR. AHEIMER: In behalf of the accused, Wirke, Hellenbroich, Stattman and, furthermore, Naaf.

CROSS EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY DR. AHEIMER:

Q Mr. Goetz, you testified before that you called the headquarters at Bensheim and spoke to Major Hellenbroich over the phone, is that correct?

A Yes.

Q From where did you call him?

A From Lindenfels.

Q What is Lindenfels?

A A small village.

Q How far away from Bensheim?

A Fifteen to eighteen kilometers.

Q You said before Major Hellenbroich told you on the phone you should bring the flier to Bensheim, is that correct?

A Yes.

Q And then you testified that he said he would send a vehicle after you since you said you couldn't walk anymore, is that correct?

A Yes, that's what he said.

Q Do you know whether this flier about whom you have just talked was ever at any time at the office of the headquarters at Bensheim?

CAPTAIN VANCE: May it please the court, I don't object to his going into that but he may be inviting some more trouble. I am attempting to rebut his testimony without prejudice. If they want to go into it, all right, but I want to warn him again.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Just a minute. We may be able to save some time.

(Goetz-cross)

ED to Sls pls/6

PRESIDENT: Court will recess in place.

(Whereupon the court recessed in place.)

PRESIDENT: Court will come to order.

DR. AHEIMER: I withdraw my last question.

QUESTIONS BY DR. AHEIMER:

Q To your knowledge, did Dirks, Stattman, Hellenbroich or Raaf see this flier?

A I don't know this.

DR. AHEIMER: Thank you.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Nothing further.

CAPTAIN VANCE: Any questions by the court?

PRESIDENT: No questions by the court.

CAPTAIN VANCE: Request the witness be excused.

PRESIDENT: Witness is excused.

(Whereupon the witness was excused and withdrew.)

CAPTAIN VANCE: Bring in Maria Rechel.

MARIA RECHEL, called as a witness in rebuttal by the prosecution, having been first duly sworn, testified through an interpreter as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q Will you please state your name?

A Maria Rechel.

Q Miss Rechel, I call your attention to the 12th day of September 1944 and ask you if you were working for the Gestapo at Darmstadt on that day?

A I remember this morning. It was the morning after the terrible air attack on Darmstadt. We did not work on this day.

Q Were you at your office on that day?

A I wasn't in our office because the building had been destroyed.

Q Were you in the yard or anywhere near your office?

A Yes.

Q Now, if you can, please answer my question yes or no, if it is possible. Did you see an American soldier on that day in Gestapo Headquarters?

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I pray the court's judgment. She said it was destroyed.

CAPTAIN VANCE: Yes, she said she was somewhere near the place, may it please the court.

PRESIDENT: What is the question?

(Whereupon the reporter read the last question.)

CAPTAIN VANCE: I will amend it to "near Gestapo Headquarters."

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I object to that, too, may it please the court, without some more definition as to what "near" means.

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

THE WITNESS: Yes.

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q Where was the American soldier when you saw him?

A May I make an explanation to this?

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I pray the court's judgment. Just answer where you saw this American soldier.

THE WITNESS: Shall I tell you?

PRESIDENT: There is an objection.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Yes, sir, I object. She should be confined to the question which is where she saw him.

CAPTAIN VANCE: I have no desire for this witness to volunteer any information. I shall appreciate it if the court will instruct her to just answer the question.

PRESIDENT: No explanation is necessary. Go ahead and answer the question.

THE WITNESS: In the park.

(Rechel-direct)

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q Where is the park in reference to the Gestapo headquarters?

A The park is in the back, directly closing on to the building.

Q Who had the American soldier in custody?

A A German soldier.

Q Did you see Major Girke on this occasion?

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I pray the court's judgment. I don't understand myself upon what occasion.

CAPTAIN VANCE: On the occasion when you saw the soldier having the American soldier in custody.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I still pray the court's judgment. "On this occasion" might mean within any degree of distance away from the flier and there might be a difference in time.

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

THE WITNESS: Yes.

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q Did you see Major Girke talking with the German soldier who had the American soldier in custody at that time?

A Yes.

Q Now, the Major Girke that you have been discussing -- if you were to see him today could you recognize him?

A Yes.

Q If he is present in the court will you point him out to the court?

A The accused, No. 19.

CAPTAIN VANCE: Let the record show that the witness identifies the accused, Girke, wearing placard No. 19. Your witness.

(Rechel-direct)

CROSS EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY MR. RACHAEL:

Q When was the first time you ever saw an American soldier?

A Then I have to go back to the 15th of February '45 where I saw an American soldier at Gestapo Headquarters Bensheim.

Q And the incident you are talking about happened on the 12th of September 1944?

A Yes.

MR. RACHAEL: No further questions.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Dr. Aheimer has one question.

QUESTIONS BY DR. AHEIMER:

Q Miss Rechel, do you know the uniform of the American soldiers?

A The general uniform or the flier uniform?

Q Yes.

A Yes.

Q How does the uniform look as far as the color is concerned?

A The brown-yellow uniform as shown here in the court and the flier uniform was not of this color.

Q How do you know then this was an American soldier?

A Because, during my interrogation to the Colonel, I was told this was supposed to be an American.

Q Then you drew your identification through the Colonel?

A Yes.

DR. AHEIMER: That is all.

REDIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q Which Colonel are you talking about?

A I can't give you the names. The one who took my interrogation, the first interrogation.

CAPTAIN VANCE: Any questions by the court?

PRESIDENT: Colonel Hunter.

(Rechel-redirect)

EXAMINATION BY THE COURT

QUESTIONS BY LAW MEMBER:

Q The court would like to know, Miss Rachel, if this soldier you say you saw on the 12th of September '44 was or was not an American.

A Yes, on the contrary.

Q Will then did you see another American soldier at Darmstadt? Do you know?

A Yes, it certainly wasn't a German soldier.

Q What American soldier are you referring to as being the first one you saw on the 15th of February '45?

A Might I say that might be even on the 12th. That is the case about which you are talking.

Q The court feels that you are somewhat confused in these answers in that in answer to a question you said that you saw the first American soldier on the 15th of February '45. Now, was that a correct answer?

A May I say that was a soldier which came for the first time to Headquarters Bensheim. I can't give you the date.

Q Before that time that you saw him at Bensheim you saw another soldier at Darmstadt the day after the big air raid, is that correct?

A That is what I said.

Q Was he an American soldier or was he an American flier?

A I said already he was an American flier.

Q Then you have seen at least two American soldiers or fliers?

A Yes.

Q And you also said that the color of his uniform was the color of the uniform of that soldier standing up in the corner.

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

THE WITNESS: One.

I don't remember saying anything of the sort.

(Rachel-court)

QUESTIONS BY LAW MEMBER:

Q Did you see one American soldier at Darmstadt?

A Yes, on the twelfth.

Q Well then did you see another American soldier at Bensheim later on?

A Before the twelfth of September. After the twelfth of September, I said before, I don't remember the exact date.

Q Then you saw two American soldiers, is that correct?

A Yes.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I am going to ask her a few more questions, may it please the court.

RECROSS EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY DEFENSE COUNSEL:

Q Now you saw somebody in Darmstadt sometime in February, 1945 — in Bensheim, I am sorry.

A Yes, that is correct.

Q And you say that the man you saw in Bensheim was an American flyer?

A Yes.

Q And you also say that sometime in September, 1944, you saw an American flyer in Darmstadt.

A Yes.

Q And you also said that the color of his uniform was the color of the uniform of that soldier standing up in the corner.

CAPTAIN VANCE: We object. The question is misleading. I don't remember saying anything of the sort.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: She said so, may it please the court.

CAPTAIN VANCE: She didn't say anything about a soldier standing in a corner.

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

THE WITNESS: No. That was a misunderstanding. I answered only the question how the uniform of an American soldier looked like.

QUESTIONS BY DEFENSE COUNSEL:

Q What kind of a uniform did the man you saw in September have on?

A As far as I can remember, a uniform something like grey blue.

Q And one more question. Your statement to this court that he was an American soldier was based, was it not, upon what an American colonel told you he must have been. Please answer that yes or no.

A Yes.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Nothing further.

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q Was it a German soldier?

A Yes, infantry.

Q How are you talking about the guard or the prisoner?

A Of course about the escort.

Q I am talking about the prisoner. Was he a German soldier?

A No.

CAPTAIN VANCE: Nothing further.

QUESTIONS BY LAW MEMBER:

Q Another question by the court. Did the soldier who was a prisoner, that you saw at Darmstadt in September, 1944, have the same kind of a uniform as the soldier you saw as a prisoner in Bensheim in 1945?

A I can't remember exactly anymore.

PRESIDENT: No further questions by the court.

CAPTAIN VANCE: May the witness be excused?

PRESIDENT: The witness is excused.

(Thereupon the witness was excused and withdrew.)

MARGOT GEIS, called as a rebuttal witness by the prosecution, being first duly sworn, testified through an interpreter as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q Please state your name?

A Margot Geis.

Q Mrs Geis, I direct your attention to the twelfth day of September, 1944 and ask you if you were working for the Gestapo at Darmstadt at that time?

A Yes.

Q Did you see an American soldier there on that day?

A Yes.

Q Was he dead or alive when you saw him?

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I pray the court's judgment.

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

THE WITNESS: Dead.

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q Where was that body located in reference to the Gestapo Headquarters?

A It was lying in the garden.

Q How long did that body lay there in the garden?

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I pray the court's judgment.

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

THE WITNESS: We saw it for the first time in the morning at eleven o'clock and we saw it still in the afternoon at five.

CAPTAIN VANCE: Nothing further.

CROSS EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY DEFENSE COUNSEL:

Q This was the day after the big raid on Darmstadt, was it not?

A Yes.

Q Now you said he was an American soldier. Who told you he was an American soldier?

A You saw it already from the uniform that it couldn't be a German soldier and then the comrades who were standing around him said he was an American soldier.

Q What is the difference between the American uniform and the British uniform, if you know?

A I don't know that.

Q So that your knowledge and the identity of this soldier whom you saw on that morning is based entirely upon statements you heard from people who were standing around you, is that correct?

A Yes.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: We have nothing further.

CAPTAIN VANCE: I would like to ask one more question.

REDIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q You say your comrades standing around said it was an American soldier. Which of your comrades did you see on that occasion?

A You can't say it exactly anymore. It happened too long ago.

CAPTAIN VANCE: Nothing further.

(Ceis - Redirect)

RECROSS EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY DEFENSE COUNSEL:

Q What do you mean by the word "comrades"?

A They were officials of our headquarters.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Dr. Ahelmer wants to ask a question.

QUESTIONS BY DR. AHELMER:

Q What was the color of the uniform of this soldier?

A Gray.

A Blue-green uniform.

Q Was it the same blue-green which you see here in court, or wasn't it?

A No, it wasn't that.

CAPTAIN VANCE: Any questions by the court?

PRESIDENT: No questions by the court. The witness is excused.

(Whereupon the witness was excused and withdrew.)

CAPTAIN VANCE: Bring in Mrs. Appel.

WILHELMINA APPEL, called as a rebuttal witness by the prosecution, being first duly sworn, testified through an interpreter as follows:

DIRECT EXAMINATION

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q Please state your name.

A Wilhelmina Appel.

Q Mrs. Appel, were you, before the end of the war, employed by the Gestapo Headquarters at Darmstadt?

A Yes.

Q When the Gestapo Headquarters moved from Darmstadt to Bensheim, were you still employed by them?

A Yes.

(Appel - Direct)

Q Have you ever seen any American soldiers in the G
Headquarters, either at Bensheim or Darmstadt?

A Yes, in Bensheim.

Q Did you ever see any in Darmstadt?

A No.

Q Do you recall the date that Gestapo Headquarters at Darmstadt was bombed and it was moved to Bensheim?

A Yes.

Q Now, you say you did not see any American flyers in Darmstadt. I will ask you if you have seen the body of any American flyer at Gestapo Headquarters?

A No. I saw only in the garden of the Gestapo Headquarters the corpse of a soldier.

Q How many flyers can you remember seeing in Gestapo Headquarters after it moved to Bensheim?

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I think the question was "Gestapo Headquarters". Did you translate it that way?

INTERPRETER: Yes, Gestapo Headquarters.

THE WITNESS: As I said before, I saw one American soldier in Bensheim.

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q Can you remember that date?

A I think it was in February, 1945.

Q Can you remember seeing any more besides that one?

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I pray the court's judgment. The question has been answered. It is repetitious.

PRESIDENT: Objection overruled.

(Appel - Direct)
(Appel - Court)

THE WITNESS: No, I haven't seen any more.

QUESTIONS BY CAPTAIN VANCE:

Q Were you still working there on the twenty fourth of March, 1945, when they moved from Bensheim?

A No.

CAPTAIN VANCE: Nothing further.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Nothing by the defense.

EXAMINATION BY THE COURT

QUESTIONS BY LAW MEMBER:

Q The corpse of the soldier you saw in the garden of the Gestapo Headquarters, was that at Darmstadt?

A Yes, that was in Darmstadt.

PRESIDENT: No further questions by the court.

CAPTAIN VANCE: Request that the witness be excused.

PRESIDENT: The witness is excused.

(Whereupon the witness was excused and withdrew.)

CAPTAIN VANCE: The prosecution rests.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: May it please the court, at this time the defense renews the motion which it made yesterday with respect to one Julius Lassak, which at that time was denied by the court. Of course, we don't know on what ground and so we renew it now at the end of the prosecution's case. It is a motion to strike from the record: "Now comes Julius Lassak, named as an accused and moves that Prosecution Exhibits P-56, P-56A and P-57 introduced and received into evidence as confessions be stricken from the record and for reasons assigns the following: That the plain weight of the evidence shows that the aforementioned confessions were obtained through duress and coercion and were not voluntarily made by the accused. I stated my grounds yesterday and I don't take the time to reiterate them. ... he testified that that was taken in the Frankfurt jail, and he ... CAPTAIN VANCE: May it please the court, Colonel Kimball's testimony was this in regard to the statement. He held that on the twenty seventh day of June, 1946, he was a prisoner at Nuernberg and that he was severely beaten during an interrogation by said member of the OSS. He was asked on cross examination and said that no statement was taken from him and refused to testify that the matters for which he stands charged before this court were not even told him and that he didn't know why he was being interrogated, except that the interrogator accused him of beating Jews. Certainly nothing that resulted from that interrogation was used during this trial, so he will forget about Nuernberg. Now secondly, he contended and testified that while he was in confinement in Dachau that he was interrogated and mistreated and threatened and talked about this case and that after that the interrogator gave him a pencil and some paper and told him to go back to his cell and write a statement. He says he did so and was alone for several hours and wrote down what he says is a statement in his own handwriting. Here in court, on the witness stand, he spent at least twenty minutes reading that document and said that he wished to make some changes. I had him go down the line through the document and he made three corrections, which were immaterial and did not ... affect the substance of the statement. After I had pointed out the three corrections, I think I asked him this question: "Now does the statement contain the truth and do you stand by its ... correctness", and he said "It is absolutely true." Now, if it is true, what has he got to complain about? We put them further to ... stand before this court. But, if you push him a little and insist on it, you can finally get the truth from him sometimes. He did not deny the correctness of the statement, merely claimed that he was mistreated. If these statements contained the truth and he says that they dop them there is no grounds for this motion. Even if the court believed that Lesnak was held at the point of a gun or with a pick at his head and made to make these statements, they would still be admissible for whatever probative value the court wished to give them, which, of course, in this case was not a fact but were exaggerated statements made by Colonel Lesnak. It seems strange to the prosecution that twenty one accused all made statements, but Colonel Lesnak was the only man that was tortured.

(Appel - Court)

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I don't want to argue the evidence because my memory is not exact. I do want to comment on the fact, however, that because Lesnak is the only man who testified to mistreatment it doesn't mean that he was the only man subjected to mistreatment and if ——

to the second interrogation, which is Prosecution Exhibit P-67. I believe he testified that that was taken in the Pisebeien jail, and that on that occasion the interrogator roughed him up a bit. The court will remember what Mr. Coates testified about so I won't go into that. Mr. Coates did say that the interrogator took him Lanzak by the coat, pushed him up against the wall and told him to tell the truth. Even Lanzak does not contend that he was struck on that occasion or mistreated in any way, but he said that he was pushed and we concede that he was pushed. I can understand the difficulty that the interrogator had in making Colonel Lanzak tell the truth because I had the same experience when he was on the CAPTAIN VANCE: I object to the statement. He is insinuating that some of the others may have been mistreated. If so, it is his duty to put them on the stand to testify about it.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I will withdraw the statement. My memory is, however, exact and definite about two things. First, Lasaak says that in addition to the treatment he actually received at the time he made the statement in Wiesbaden, that he was interrogated there by the same man who had badly mishandled him on a previous occasion and he had this mishandling in mind. He said that he was so afraid that he didn't care what he said as long as he got out and away from that man's presence. He also said that the statement made at Wiesbaden was not the truth.

Now, a prosecution can not blow hot and cold. It is either offered as a confession, in which case we submit it should be stricken from the record, or it is offered as an admission against interest. It has to be offered on one ground or the other and the prosecution must stand on that ground and my motion is that it was offered as a confession and as a confession, it must be stricken from the record.

One more brief comment. Whether the man is maltreated and beaten, according to the prosecution, doesn't make any difference. The Court has to decide that despite that beating what he said was the truth. I just want to wind up by saying that is not the American conception of how things should be done. Please, just one more sentence. The significant statement about that whole Wiesbaden business came from the prosecution witnesses. The statement as it was finally signed was drawn up according to this man's, this Zimm's, conception of what the truth would be and he was satisfied with it.

PRESIDENT: Motion is denied.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: The defense, at this time, makes the following motion on behalf of each and all of the accused:

In the case of each and every one of the accused mentioned in the above entitled case, that is the U. S. versus Jurgen Stroop, I move for a finding of not guilty with respect to each of them on charge one and the particulars thereunder. That is a charge, may it please the court, that could be argued in great length, so I am going to limit my argument on that question. The charge is that certain people, specified by name, did conspire to do certain things.

PROSECUTION: Colonel Berman, may I interrupt for a moment for the purpose of my interruption is to try and save time. The motion that counsel for the defense is making now is an automatic motion. It is a motion that is a renewal of a motion made at the end of the prosecution's case. In order to preserve the rights of the defense and under the legal subtleties that they raised at the time they made that motion. Now if the court desires to hear Colonel Berman and hear the prosecution in answer to Colonel Berman's argument it will be the same discussion that we will have at the conclusion when we make our final argument. It would seem to me if he makes his motion then we will argue it as part of our final argument and the court can make a decision at that time along with its findings.

I am merely trying to save time so there won't be any repetition. If I answer your argument now I will be answering it with the same argument I will be when I am making my final argument.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I will have to say three things, may it please the court. In the first instance I am not making this motion to preserve the rights which he thinks were established when the motion was originally made. That is the exact procedure in court martial cases. It is being made, of course, for that reason and also because of the evidence which has come in since that time. It is not a formal motion. It goes to the very substance of the case. Now, it is true that I could wait until sometime that we agree upon and present these motions one after the other. However, that would result in a situation which we feel is definitely harmful for the accused. I say, very frankly, that we are making our motions in the sequence in which we think there should be no question that they should be granted. That is our opinion of course. The result would be that if the court subscribes to our motions we will then join issue in the final argument on matters which are controverted, in our opinion, on the evidence as it actually exists. So far as repetition of arguments is concerned that won't bother us because we won't reargue it. Once I argue this motion on Number I, I don't intend to reargue it again and I don't think the prosecution has to, but that is their decision.

I would rather get it out of the way if the court should grant it in its entirety—that simply means when the final showdown comes we have lots to contend with and so will the court and it would be a lot easier for the court to have fewer issues or fewer individuals or charges to consider.

To sum up what I have said is that we believe we have a right to present it this way. We don't see how it is going to prejudice the court's time in any way and we respectfully request permission to proceed.

PRESIDENT: Have you anything further?

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Well, I plan to go ahead with my argument on my motion.

PROSECUTION: I have no objection to the motion as such. I was proposing something to save time. May I suggest an alternative procedure. If defense makes his motion will the court reserve decision on that motion until I have made my final argument so that I don't have to make my argument first.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I won't agree to that, may it please the court. We believe we have a right to raise these issues at certain periods of time and we have a right to a decision by the court at the time they are made. I am sorry I can't go along with the prosecution on it.

PRESIDENT: The court will be closed.

(Whereupon at 1145 hours the court was closed.)

Take 317 - 30
3-1-47; 7 CMcD; 1

AFTERNOON SESSION

(Whereupon the court reconvened at 1530 hours.)

PRESIDENT: Court will come to order.

PROSECUTION: May it please the court, let the record show that all the members of the court, all the members of the prosecution, all the members of the defense, all of the accused, the reporter, and the interpreter are present.

LAW MEMBER: Has this motion been presented to the court?

DEFENSE COUNSEL: That was not a motion. It was a suggestion by the prosecution.

LAW MEMBER: Did you present this motion to the court?

DEFENSE COUNSEL: No, sir! I presented one part of it as an independent motion, and that was the motion that a finding of not guilty be made as to Charge I and the Particulars thereunder, which is made on behalf of each and all of the accused. After that motion was made, and before I could argue it, Colonel Dwinell made his statement.

PRESIDENT: The court will take the motion under consideration and will rule on the same at the conclusion of the final argument.

CAPTAIN VANCE: May I ask the defense at this time if they have any more evidence or any more testimony to offer before the court?

DEFENSE COUNSEL: Actually, I do not think we have. I was just turning over in my own mind what I would do next, in view of the ruling of the court with respect to other motions which I have. Before making a decision as to whether we will rest or not, I would at least like to read into the record the remainder of the motions which we have.

CAPTAIN VANCE: May I ask the court if they have any desire to recall any prosecution witnesses and if there is any need to hold them here at all?

PRESIDENT: The court will recess in place.

(Whereupon the court recessed in place.)

PRESIDENT: Court will come to order. The court does not desire to recall any of the witnesses.

CAPTAIN VANCE: The prosecution does not intend to introduce any more evidence and asks that all of the prosecution witnesses be excused permanently.

PRESIDENT: They may be excused.

CAPTAIN VANCE: May it please the court, we introduced in evidence Prosecution Exhibit 12, which is a large wall map. We also introduced Prosecution Exhibit 14, which is a large organizational chart. We introduced Prosecution Exhibit 70, which is a large-scale diagram, and Prosecution Exhibit 127, which was a large-scale diagram. At the time these documents were introduced we asked the permission of the court to withdraw them at the end of the case, and we now ask to withdraw Prosecution Exhibits 12, 14, 70, and 127.

PRESIDENT: Any objection?

DEFENSE COUNSEL: We have no objection to the prosecution's withdrawing any evidence it sees fit.

PRESIDENT: Prosecution Exhibits 12, 14, 70, and 127 may be withdrawn.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I will now present further motions, may it please the court, which we, on behalf of the accused, ask the court to pass on before the defense rests its case, as we submit we have a right to ask the court to do. It is practically what I gave the law member, except that I have omitted a part of it, so I am going to read it with that part left off.

"UNITED STATES

vs.

JURGEN STROOP, et al

"1. Now come the accused in the above entitled cause as they are named herein below and move for findings of not guilty as to each of them with respect to the charges and particulars under the charges set forth in each instance, and for the reasons assigns the following:

"That the prosecution has failed to prove beyond a reasonable doubt that each of them is guilty of the crimes with which they stand charged.

"A. Otto Schwarz, with respect to Charges 5 to 10, both inclusive, and with respect to the particulars thereunder.

"B. Julius Lassak, with respect to Charge 5 and with respect to the particulars thereunder.

"C. Heinz Hellenbroich, with respect to Charge 5 and with respect to the particulars thereunder.

"D. Johann Kiwitt, with respect to Charges 7 and 8 and with respect to the particulars thereunder.

"E. Wilhelm Friedrich Geschrendt, with respect to Charge 7 and with respect to the particulars thereunder.

"F. Hans Kiebel, with respect to Charge 8 and with respect to the particulars thereunder.

"G. Paul Hohrgang, with respect to Charge 8 and with respect to the particulars thereunder.

"H. Bernard Fay, with respect to Charge 8 and with respect to the particulars thereunder.

"I. Philipp Haumann, with respect to Charge 8 and with respect to the particulars thereunder.

"J. Georg Best, with respect to Charge 9 and with respect to the particulars thereunder.

"K. Hans Trummler, with respect to Charges 3, 7, 8, and 9, and with respect to the particulars thereunder."

DEFENSE COUNSEL: May I say just this: Although the question has been covered by the ruling of the court, which is a matter of record, inasmuch as the defense has not yet rested we consider we have a right to ask that the court pass on our motions and announce its decision before we rest.

PRESIDENT: The court will take the motion under consideration and will rule on same at the conclusion of the final arguments.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I have just one more, which I am going to have to make orally as I go along:

MOTION FOR FINDING OF NOT GUILTY

Now comes Jurgen Stroop, Wilhelm Hoehler, Fritz Girke, Heins Hellenbreich, and Wilhelm Albrecht, and move that a finding of not guilty of the crime of murder be made with respect to each of them in each instance where such offense is charged, either in a charge itself or in any particular under any such charge, on the ground that the prosecution has not sustained its burden of proving beyond a reasonable doubt that such an offense has been committed by any of the individuals so named.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: May it please the court, in view of the ruling of the court that it will not pass on any of the defense motions as made until after hearing the final arguments, I now state to the court on behalf of the accused that we have no further evidence to offer.

PRESIDENT: The court will take the motion under consideration and will rule on same at the conclusion of the final arguments.

Take 317 - 35
Take 317 A 30
3-12-47;JOMcD;5

DEFENSE COUNSEL: That, I think, brings up now the question of when the final argument is going to be made. On the question, may it please the court, of when the arguments are going to be held, I would like to suggest to the court that it be held Monday morning and that we start with the prosecution's argument and then go all the way through. I cannot speak for the prosecution, of course, except that I imagine -- I will not put it any stronger than that -- that the prosecution would prefer to have the argument go on Monday rather than Friday. So would we, definitely. I realize when I make that statement to the court that we have two full days and a part of this afternoon.

I would like to ask the court to take judicial notice of the fact that there is a sign on the bulletin board now that the whole War Crimes is closed now on Saturdays, both civilian and military personnel. The question is whether or not two days plus the rest of the afternoon is excessive.

I would like to state on behalf of the defense that the rulings of the court are going to make a rearrangement of our plans for argument necessary. We had expected to dispose of a substantial part of our case now, and in view of the rulings of the court there is going to be a reassignment necessary among counsel, which means that whoever is going to write up the argument is going to have to do it himself.

The three American counsel are going to argue. Dr. Rau is going to argue for Stroop himself. He put in Stroop's case and he is going to argue for Stroop. We three are going to argue, and the German counsel have asked for fifteen minutes to half an hour themselves for certain specific accused where there is a conflict of interest, as there is in some charges. One man cannot argue for two people, each of whom is involved in the case, and particularly where these arguments want to be reduced to writing.

I cannot think of anything else to say. If the court should say "No, you are going to have to do it Friday," we are going to have to do it, of course, but it is going to be much more of a burden on us to meet the change in the situation and it is going to mean a lapse of two full days between the prosecution's argument and our own. I think Colonel Dwinell has previously told the court that it will take the best part of a day.

LAW MEMBER: Do you want all this in the record?

DEFENSE COUNSEL: That is up to the court. I have no objection to it being a part of the record. In fact, I am perfectly willing that my reasons for asking for the continuance be made a part of the record. Whatever the court wants.

LAW MEMBER: All right. Leave it in.

PROSECUTION: The prosecution will be ready to argue Friday morning. However, we do not want to take any undue advantage of the defense. Our argument will be ready Friday morning and will take about a half a day. Part of it will be conducted by Captain Vance and part of it by me.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: There is also this question of these findings of fact, which we have a chance to consider so that we can determine whether we are interested or not.

I would also like to state this: I quoted in my statement to the court my opinion as to what the prosecution's desires were. I had that feeling. I want the court to know that, even though Colonel Dwinell's statement does not back me up on it. I am unquestionably mistaken, but I really thought so.

PRESIDENT: Court will recess in place.

(Whereupon the court recessed in place.)

PRESIDENT: Court will come to order. Court will recess.

(Whereupon the court recessed at 1355 hours.)

(Thereupon the Court reconvened at 1458 hours.)

PRESIDENT: The Court will come to order.

PROSECUTION: May it please the Court, let the record show that all the members of the Court, all members of the Prosecution, all members of the Defense, all of the accused, the reporter and interpreter are present.

PRESIDENT: The Prosecution will be allowed in its final argument from 0900 to 1600, Monday, March 17, 1947. The Defense is allowed from that hour until 1200 hours, March 18th. Have you anything further?

PROSECUTION: Nothing further.

DEFENSE: May I ask a question? I assume that's the normal court hours and the normal recesses that have been taken by the Court.

PRESIDENT: That's correct.

PROSECUTION: Does the Defense desire to withdraw their wall chart, too?

DEFENSE COUNSEL: We would rather have it stay there because the Court may want to take a peek at it, but I assume that when the findings are finally in, we just move them out of Court.

LAW MEMBER: The record might as well show that they are withdrawn because they are not going to accompany the record.

DEFENSE COUNSEL: The Defense requests permission to withdraw Defense Exhibits 2, 2A and 2B.

PRESIDENT: Permission is granted to withdraw Defense Exhibits 2, 2A and 2B.

LAW MEMBER: Did you rest?

DEFENSE COUNSEL: I am quite sure that we did.

Place
Ort

Date
Datum

The Court would not pass on our motions at the time, but I am sure that I said we have no further evidence to offer. The Defense has nothing further to offer at this time, may it please the Court.

PROSECUTION: Nothing further from the Prosecution.

PRESIDENT: The Court will recess until Monday morning at nine o'clock, 17 March 1947.

(Thereupon at 1440 hours, the Court adjourned until 0900 hours, 17 March 1947.)

Particulars.

Legal Form No. 8

MILITARY GOVERNMENT COURT
MILITÄRGERICHT

CHARGE SHEET
ANKLAGESCHRIFT

Place .....
Ort

Date .....
Datum

Name of accused .....
Name des Angeklagten

is hereby charged with the following offences:
wird hiermit wegen der folgenden strafbaren Handlungen angeklagt:

First Charge: ..... Erste Anklage: .....

.....

.....

.....

Particulars: ..... Einzelheiten: .....

.....

.....

.....

Second Charge: ..... Zweite Anklage: .....

.....

.....

.....

Particulars: ..... Einzelheiten: .....

.....

.....

.....

.....

The above charges are referred for trial to the *Summary *Intermediate Military Court to be held *General

Die Verhandlung wird vor dem *Einfachen *Mittleren Militärgerichte *Oberen

at ..... on ..... 194.....
in (Address of Court) am
(Anschrift des Gerichtes)

at .....
um Uhr stattfinden. By Order
Im Auftrage von

.....

*Strike out words not applicable.
*Nichtzutreffendes ist durchzustreichen.

(Signature of person preferring charges;
(Unterschrift des Vertreters der Anklagebehörde)

Copy of above served on accused ..... 194.....
Abschrift dem Angeklagten zugestellt am

.....

(Signature of person making service)
(Unterschrift des Zustellers)

CA/GI 13 OK

Legal Form No. 8

MILITARY GOVERNMENT COURT.

CASE RECORD. Pages 2397 - 2577

34

Case No. Superior Orders

*~~Subsequent~~ *~~Intermediate~~ Military Court.
*General

Place DACHAU, GERMANY

Date 17 MARCH 194 7
18 MARCH 7

~~Members of Court~~

Prosecutor Lt. Col. Dwinell

Defence Counsel Lt. Col. Berman
Rudolf M. Nathanson

Interpreter Herbert B. Rosenstock

Reporter Imogene Butler, Evelyn Cohen, Patricia Stewart, Peter DiCurti, Irving Hayett, Sally Rose Hayett, John MacDonald, William F. Jones.

CLOSING ARGUMENT

Accused JURGEN STROOP, et al

Address ..... Sex ..... Age .....

	First Charge	Second Charge
Pleas
Findings
Previous Convictions

Sentence
- Imprisonment
  - Term .....
  - Beginning 194
- Fine
  - Amount .....
  - To be paid before 194
  - or in case of default of payment to serve a *further term of ..... imprisonment.

Charge Sheet and Record of Testimony are annexed hereto.

.....
(Signature of member of court.)

REVIEW

Action of Reviewing Authority .....

.....
(Signature of reviewing authority)

*Strike out words not applicable.

RECORD OF TESTIMONY

in trial of

THE UNITED STATES versus JUROEN STROOP, et al.

by

GENERAL MILITARY GOVERNMENT COURT

tried at

DACHAU, GERMANY BEGINNING 10 JANUARY 1947

17 and 18 MARCH 1947 Pages 2397 - 2577

CLOSING ARGUMENTS

	Page
PROSECUTION:
Captain Vance	2397
Lt. Colonel Dwinell	2412
	2427
DEFENSE:
Lt. Colonel Berman	2474
Major Saxon	2514
Dr. Buerger	2535
Dr. Wecker	2544
Dr. Aheimer	2553
Mr. Rachael	2565

Take 319 - SO
3-17-47;JGMcD;1

Dachau, Germany

17 March 1947

MORNING SESSION

(Whereupon the court reconvened at 0900 hours.)

PRESIDENT: Court will come to order.

PROSECUTION: May it please the court, let the record show that all the members of the court, all the members of the prosecution, all the members of the defense, all of the accused, the reporter, and interpreter are present.

May it please the court, at the conclusion of the evidence and at the time both sides rested the prosecution and the defense made certain requests of the court for permission to withdraw the large wall charts from the evidence. We neglected, on the part of the prosecution, to ask the court's permission to withdraw Prosecution Exhibit 7, which is the large book issued by SHAEF Headquarters, G-2 section, entitled "The German Police." Will the court grant permission to the prosecution at this time to withdraw Prosecution Exhibit 7 from the record?

DEFENSE COUNSEL: No objection, of course.

PRESIDENT: Permission granted.

CAPTAIN VANCE: If it please the court, my principal duties in the prosecution of this case have been to present the evidence in support of Charges 3, 4, 5, 6, and 10, and the particulars thereunder.

I would like to review the evidence for the court, first as to Charge 3. The accused Stroop, Trummler, Somann, Lassak, and Branner are accused of wrongfully aiding, abetting, and participating in the killing of an unknown American soldier at or near Giessen, Germany, on or about 3 October 1944.

The accused Leonard Branner has been tried in absentia before this court. Since the court has no power to make findings or adjudge a sentence against this accused, I will not take the court's time to discuss him. It goes without saying that he is a self-confessed murderer and it is unfortunate that he is not present in court so this court can brand him as a war criminal and give him a just sentence.

Julius Lassak is a full colonel and a member of the SS. This organization has already been proven to be criminal by the International Military Tribunal which sat at Nuernberg.

First, I would like to call the court's attention to what the accused had to say in his defense: Lassak contended before this court that the American soldier was a prisoner of the Gestapo and that all he did was return the American soldier to that organization, therefore that he had not ing to do with the unlawful execution. He says that that was the only thing and the only connection that he had.. About the only thing else that Lassak made as a matter of defense to this court was that he was mistreated by some American personnel. He said that on or about the 23rd of June, 1946, while he was a prisoner at Natternberg, he was severely beaten during an interrogation by some member of the CIC. On cross examination he admitted that no statement was reduced to writing and signed by him and that nothing connected with that interrogation has been introduced in evidence in this trial. Since the prosecution does not know the person alleged to have given him the beating, it was not and is not in a position to rebut it. Since he did not give evidence against himself at that time, then surely his rights so far as this case is concerned were not prejudiced.

He further contends that while he was a prisoner confined in the jail at Giessen he was mistreated by the interrogating officer, but stated that he was given some paper and made a statement in his own handwriting. On cross examination he admitted that it contains the truth with the exception of three minor changes which he made while sitting on the witness stand. This statement was introduced in evidence as Prosecution Exhibit 56. He further complained that he was mistreated at the time he made a statement in Wiesbaden, which statement is in evidence as Prosecution Exhibit 57. The court will recall that he testified that he had been assaulted in the presence of Mr. Gerald Coates, a U. S. civilian employee. I am sure the court will recall the testimony of Mr. Coates as to exactly what happened that day in Wiesbaden, and so I will not take the time of the court to go into that incident. These are about the only things that this accused has offered as a defense in this Charge.

The prosecution proved that on 3 October 1944, Ernst Muenk, a city policeman in Giessen, took an American flyer away from about 12 men, women and children on the streets in Giessen. This witness was also called as a defense witness, and at that time he emphatically denied that he had taken the American away from any member of the Gestapo. He says that he delivered the American prisoner to police headquarters and told Lassak that he had the flyer in custody. At that time Lassak was a police director, and he stated himself on the stand that he was the highest police official in that district. There was some testimony that Lassak pushed the flyer on several occasions, but since we are dealing with murder, these pushing incidents would be too minor to discuss. Lassak made a telephone call to the Gestapo, and immediately after the telephone call he stated that the American flyer must be delivered to the Gestapo. This was done, and the court will recall the evidence that shortly thereafter the flyer was executed by Leonard Branner, a Gestapo agent. By Lassak's position, being the highest police official in the area, he certainly could have kept this American prisoner in his custody, and it was his duty to protect this prisoner. Instead of this, he had him delivered into the hands of the Gestapo with full knowledge of the order that then existed that all fliers delivered to the Gestapo would be killed. In Lassak's statement he admits that he knew the flyer would be killed when delivered to the Gestapo, but that he did not know who was going to do the actual killing. At the time Lassak ordered the flyer to be taken to the Gestapo his order amounted to the signing of his death warrant. Lassak is equally as guilty of this murder as the accused Branner. Under our federal laws and the laws of most states, aiders, abettors, accessories before the fact and after the fact of a criminal offense are guilty as principals. The prosecution feels that it has proven beyond a reasonable doubt that Lassak did wrongfully aid and abet in the killing of this American soldier and should be found guilty as charged.

If I had any compassion for Lassak -- and I say "if" I had any -- I would have lost it after hearing him testify before this court. Lassak repeatedly contradicted himself from the witness stand, and it became almost impossible for him to speak the truth about the most immaterial matters. The court heard this accused testify about the functions and purposes of the Allgemeine SS. You will recall that he contended that it was some kind of a charity organization, about which the court certainly knows differently. If the court believes that Colonel Lassak was lying in part about any of his testimony, then the court has a perfect right to disbelieve his testimony in full. After hearing him testify I became convinced that he was not capable of speaking the truth.

In charges 4 and 5 the accused Stroop, Trummler, Sosmann, Hoehler, and Fuehr are charged with wrongfully encouraging, aiding, abetting, and participating in the killing of an American soldier, Sergeant William F. Perry, at or near Wiesbaden, Germany, on or about 19 October 1944, and with the exception of Hoehler, the killing of Sergeant Robert W. Garrison, at or near Delkenheim, Germany, on or about 30 December 1944. In both of these cases the identity of the deceased American soldiers has been proven. In both of these cases numerous witnesses were called to the stand to testify about the circumstances of these killings, and the prosecution established a strong case, disregarding the confessions of Hoehler and Fuehr. On both of these occasions Colonel Trumbler issued the orders to have the Americans executed. He had received this order from Stroop. It is undisputed that both the Americans were killed in cold blood at the places alleged in the charges. The only dispute is who actually fired the shots into the bodies of the Americans. In Charge 5 Arthur Fuehr admits having fired at least one shot into the body of the American, so we need not argue any more on Charge 5 on that point.

Fuehr is a self-confessed murderer by his own admission from this witness stand. About the killing which occurred on 19 October 1944, there is a dispute as to who actually fired the shots into the body of this American. The court has heard the testimony of the accused Hoehler and the accused Fuehr. They were the only witnesses at the actual scene of the shooting with the exception of Richard Fraund, who has never been apprehended. It was obvious from the testimony of the two accused that they were attempting to throw the actual shooting upon Richard Fraund. The prosecution contends that it is immaterial as to who actually fired the shots. On this particular occasion Fuehr admits that he was a chauffeur and that he drove the death car to its destination. In his written statement he testified that Fraund and Hoehler removed the American the car and that he drove on to turn the car around. Some shots were fired and when he had turned the car around the American was lying dead on the ground, but on the witness stand he could not testify as to who actually fired these shots. In his testimony from the witness stand he testified that he stopped the car, faking motor trouble, and was working on the engine of the car at the time Fraund got out and ordered the flyer to get out. He states that shots were fired at that time, but he still could not testify as to who fired the shots. Since there was no one else present, they must have been fired by Fraund or Hoehler, or both. The accused Hoehler testified that all he did was go along on the journey and took no part whatsoever in the shooting. He claims that he did not get out of the car and that the American soldier was shot by Fraund. He could not say whether Fuehr fired or not. In his sworn statement he said that the flyer was shot by both Fraund and Fuehr. The testimony is clear, undisputed and agreed in that at the time the death transport started from Wiesbaden all three of these Gestapo men were armed with pistols; that Fuehr was driving the murder car and that Fraund was sitting in the front seat by him. Hoehler and the American soldier were sitting in the rear seat. On cross examination Hoehler admitted that he went along and that he guarded the flyer during the trip. On this occasion after the murder had been committed, Hoehler and Fraund made arrangements with the police official, Eisenmann, to have the body buried. Hoehler made the report, he being the highest in rank.

It has already been stated that under our American law there are no degrees of guilt as between aiders, abettors, accessories and participants in the commission of the criminal act. The court can accept any theory of this killing that it desires to accept and convict both Hoehler and Fuehr. Hoehler admits guarding the prisoner, but even if he had done nothing but go along on this murder journey he was encouraging a criminal deed, and by not taking action against the commission of this crime he was giving it his stamp of approval.

On this occasion, if the court believes that Fuehr did nothing but drive the car, that is sufficient. I am sure that this court has knowledge of, and has heard of many cases where a person just drives the "get away" car where a bank is to be robbed. The person driving the car does not even have knowledge that a murder is going to be committed; that after the bandits leave the automobile and enter the bank a killing occurred which is unknown to him, but in driving the "get away" car for his accomplices he is equally guilty of murder and our courts give him the same punishment as the man who actually fired the shots. This case at hand is much stronger, due to the fact that all persons in this car, except the American flyer, knew that a murder was going to take place at a pre-arranged time and place.

Since Koehler and Fuehr were acting under orders which had come down from Dr. Trummler and from Stroop to Trummler, they are also equally guilty of this heinous crime. The court will recall that at the time Koehler and Fuehr made their report to Trummler that the flyer had been executed, that Trummler thereupon called General Stroop over the telephone and notified him of the execution. Trummler told the court that he made this report to Stroop so that Stroop would know that his orders were being carried out. The court can only reach one conclusion--that Stroop had been previously informed that the flyer was in custody and that Stroop either approved of the execution or ordered it also. It would seem strange for Trummler to make a report to his commanding general about something which he did not have previous knowledge of.

The prosecution contends that the court can only reach one verdict on Charges 4 and 5, and that is that Stroop, Trummler, Hoehler and Fuehr are guilty as charged.

Charges 6 and 10 charge the accused Stroop, Trummler, Somann, Oirke, Hellenbroich, Stattmann, and Raaf of wrongfully encouraging, aiding, abetting, and participating in the killing of Ray R. Herman, at or near Bensheim, Germany, on or about 15 February 1945, and also the killing of Lt. William H. Forman and Pvt. Robert T. MacDonald on or about 24 March 1945.

The evidence on both of these charges is clear and undisputed by any of the accused. The testimony shows that on 15 February an American officer named Ray R. Herman was in custody of the Gestapo in Bensheim, Germany. He was unarmed at the time and in custody. There can be no question whatsoever that he was a surrendered prisoner of war. Hellenbroich held an investigation and interrogated this American officer and determined that this American was a terror flyer and should be executed. Hellenbroich was not willing to take the responsibility of ordering this execution, so he went to his chief, Oirke, and reported to him that he had investigated the case and determined that the American was a terror flyer and had strafed some civilians in Worms, Germany. He admitted that he did not call any witnesses or leave his office, but on the contrary he reached his decision from talking to the American and to the police officials who brought him there from Worms. The court will recall that Hellenbroich had studied law and qualified to be a judge, but due to the outbreak of the war he had never been able to judge a person. This afforded him his first opportunity to judge a person, so on this occasion he acted as prosecutor, judge, and jury and found the American guilty and delivered his report to Major Girke. Girke thereupon ordered that the American officer be executed after first calling his superior, Dr. Trummler. Girke said that he knew what should be done, and that he only called Colonel Trummler because he had other matters to discuss with him, and during this conversation the American was mentioned and Trummler said, "Shoot him." After that Stattman and Raaf were given their instructions by Hellenbroich to take the flyer into the woods and execute him. There is no need to take the time of the court to describe the execution of this American. I will only point out that Stattman admits firing the first shot into the body of the American and that after he fell to the ground Raaf fired two bullets into the head of the American, thereby causing death, and that that is all he had to do with this killing.

Since Stattman and Raaf are both self-confessed murderers, I do not think it necessary to say more about them. Hellenbroich explains that he only delivered the order of Major Girke and that is all that he had to do with this killing. We cannot lose sight of the fact that Girke did not even know of the presence of the American until Hellenbroich reported it to him.

The court will recall that Hellenbroich admitted on cross examination that when he made his report to Girke he had in mind the orders and instructions that he had received from both Colonel Trummler and Colonel Somann. At that time he says that he knew what the orders were about terror flyers and he had already at that time determined that the American officer was a terror flyer. Hellenbroich was in a position to save the life of this American had he cared to do so, but he made an election to go to Girke and tell him that the American was a terror flyer and that was one of the links in the chain that caused the death of this American. In this case Hellenbroich was more than just an agent or conduit to pass on orders from Girke to Stattman and Raaf. He told the court that he was the immediate subordinate of Girke, and that in Girke's absence he took command of the headquarters. It was during one of these occasions that Colonel Somann ordered him to report to Wiesbaden when Somann read the non-interference order, and in addition stated that fliers would be killed and that no person should be heard of who failed to use his weapon or became a coward and handed his weapon to another. Since Hellenbroich had Somann's words in mind when he made his investigation and report to Girke, then certainly Somann played a part in the killing of this American. There is no evidence before this court that Somann ever rescinded any of his orders. Dr. Trummler testified that when he took command he did not rescind any of the orders that were in existence at that time. Since Trummler gave his stamp of approval and also ordered the execution to Girke he also is guilty of this murder.

Girke and Hellenbroich are both men with legal educations. They told this court that the orders to kill unarmed prisoners of war were, in their opinion, legal orders. I will leave it up to this court to determine whether or not they want to believe this kind of evidence from two highly educated men. Hellenbroich also contended that he was in fear of punishment if he did not do his job, but on cross Hollenbroich testified that when he returned to his office from supper on that night he was annoyed because the members of his organization had accepted two more prisoners of war when at that time they were in the progress of moving away from Bensheim. He again held a hurried investigation and determined that these two Americans were terror fliers and reported that to Girke. Girke was so annoyed that he asked Hollenbroich why he came to him and wasted so much time, and that he knew already that these fliers should be shot. Hollenbroich admitted on cross examination that on this occasion he had in mind the orders and instructions of both Colonel Trummler and Colonel Seuberm.

If it please the court, there is only one dispute about this case between the evidence of the prosecution and the evidence of the defense, and that is that Hollenbroich examination he did not know of any person who was punished for failure to kill a disarmed prisoner of war. Girke, on the contrary, stated that he was not afraid of being punished, but that as an SS officer he did his duty.

Stattmann's and Raaf's only answers to this question are that they had their orders and that they were forced to obey them.

Charge 10 is almost a duplicate of Charge 6. About the only difference is the fact that they had in custody two American soldiers instead of one. Raaf and Stattmann have both admitted that on the night of 24 March 1945 they executed the two Americans and Raaf buried the bodies in the garden behind the Gestapo headquarters. On this occasion they state that their orders again were received from Major Hellenbroich and Hellenbroich in turn states that his orders came from Girke.

and Stattman contend that the two infantry soldiers, whose bodies were dug up in the back yard of the Gestapo headquarters, were not the two soldiers executed that night in Benshéim. The court heard the witness Marion Kaminsky testify that he saw Stattman and Raaf take one American officer and one American enlisted man into the garden that night; that a few minutes afterward he heard shots and saw Raaf take spades and shovels and go to bury the dead. He testified that he took CIC agents into the back yard and pointed out two fresh graves from which the bodies of Lt. William H. Forman and Private Robert T. MacDonald were exhumed. The accused Raaf testified and showed to the court on Prosecution Exhibit 70, which is the large chart in evidence, exactly where he buried the two Americans on that night. The bodies of Forman and MacDonald were found at exactly the same spot.

The accused Hellenbroich and Stattman were asked on cross examination that if these were not the bodies of the two Americans that they executed, then to explain how the bodies of the two infantry soldiers got into the back yard. Neither of these accused had an explanation. Kaminsky was present when the bodies were removed from the grave and testified that they were the two bodies of the two soldiers that he saw Stattman and Raaf take into the garden.

The prosecution feels that it has proven definitely by all the evidence that it was Forman and MacDonald who were executed on that night, but if the court believes otherwise it does not make any difference as far as the guilt of these accused is concerned. If the court believes that this was not Forman and MacDonald, they could find by substitution that two unknown Americans were murdered on that occasion. It is clear to me why the defense contends that it was not Forman and MacDonald who were murdered. Hellenbroich has testified that he determined that these two soldiers were terror fliers and had been condemned to death, when, as a matter of fact, they were not fliers at all but were infantry soldiers.

The court heard Kaminsky describe the clothing worn by these two American soldiers. Pictures of the two bodies of the American soldiers are in evidence. I have never heard of an American soldier who was in the Air Corps and flying an airplane wearing a steel helmet with a camouflage net.

The defense with great force has tried to prove that all three of the Americans who were executed were terror fliers and had committed acts in violation of international law. We contend otherwise, but for the sake of argument suppose that these three Americans had been guilty of strafings and other violations of international law. Does this mean that they can be executed without a trial? We say "NO." Hellenbroich advanced the theory that Forman and MacDonald were not even prisoners of war, but he stated on cross examination that they were brought to his headquarters by members of the armed forces of Germany; that they were under guard and that they were disarmed. If it please the court, if this does not make a soldier a prisoner of war then I do not know what a prisoner of war is.

From the evidence produced by the prosecution, which we feel grew stronger with the defense's evidence, this court can reach but one verdict on these charges, and that is that Stroop, Trummler, Girke, Hellenbroich, Stattman, and Raaf are all guilty as charged in Charges 6 and 10.

clear to me why the defense contends that it was not Forman and MacDonald who were murdered. Hellenbroich has testified that he determined that these two soldiers were terror fliers and had been condemned to death, when, as a matter of fact, they were not fliers at all but were infantry soldiers.

The court heard Kaminsky describe the clothing worn by these two American soldiers. Pictures of the two bodies of the American soldiers are in evidence. I have never heard of an American soldier who was in the Air Corps and flying an airplane wearing a steel helmet with a camouflage net.

The defense with great force has tried to prove that all three of the Americans who were executed were terror fliers and had committed acts in violation of international law. We contend otherwise, but for the sake of argument suppose that these three Americans had been guilty of strafings and other violations of international law. Does this mean that they can be executed without a trial? We say "NO." Hellenbroich advanced the theory that Forman and MacDonald were not even prisoners of war, but he stated on cross examination that they were brought to his headquarters by members of the armed forces of Germany; that they were under guard and that they were disarmed. If it please the court, if this does not make a soldier a prisoner of war then I do not know what a prisoner of war is.

From the evidence produced by the prosecution, which we feel grew stronger with the defense's evidence, this court can reach but one verdict on these charges, and that is that Stroop, Trumpler, Girke, Hellenbroich, Stattman, and Raaf are all guilty as charged in Charges 6 and 10.

Throughout all of these charges the defense has offered testimony to the effect that members of the American Army Air Forces have violated international law; that the Germans, and in particular the German police system, took the measures that have been proven as a protection and reprisals. At many points during this trial I have objected to this type of evidence in that it was immaterial and did not constitute a defense to the crimes alleged. The court has admitted this evidence over the objection of the prosecution. I will not argue this point, as I am sure it will be covered by the Chief Prosecutor. I only have this to say: Two wrongs never made a right, and under all existing international law reprisals cannot be taken against prisoners of war, and all of these six Americans who were murdered at the hands of the named accused were surrendered and unarmed prisoners of war.

As to each accused that it has been my duty to prosecute, there cannot be any mitigation or compromise as to their guilt. If they encouraged, aided, abetted, participated, or took a consenting part, then they are just as guilty as the person who actually fired the shots into the bodies of these American soldiers and caused their death.

The prosecution has proven that each named accused did, in fact, occupy one of these positions in reference to one of these murders. I ask the court, in the interests of the United States Government, to find each of these accused that I have named guilty as charged. After the court has found these accused guilty as charged, then I, as prosecutor, have fulfilled my duty to my government.

The matter of punishment to be given to these accused is a matter for this court. Ordinarily I would not even suggest a punishment, as I feel that that is a matter for the court to determine after they have heard all of the evidence, but in a case of this nature, where there has been such a mass plan for mass murder, I would not feel that I had fulfilled my obligation to myself, my government, and to the next of kin to these deceased soldiers without saying this: I feel that each one of these accused, by the part that they have played in this mass plan of murder, has forfeited the right to live among the decent people that are left in Europe today, and as to each accused that I have named the United States Government demands the supreme penalty.

PROSECUTION: When we began this case two months ago we said:

> "The mere combination of persons to do a criminal act is a crime, even though the object of the combination is not consummated. If two or more persons set together with an unlawful intent to commit a crime, the common design and acting together make them conspirators, ipso facto, and a conspirator in a consummated crime thereby makes himself a part of what has theretofore been said and done by his fellow conspirators in the furtherance of the common design. The existence of the assents of minds which is involved in a conspiracy may be, and from the secrecy of the crime, usually must be, inferred from proof of facts and circumstances which, taken together, apparently indicate that they are merely parts of some complete whole. Proof of acquiescence in, or consent to, the actions of others is relevant to show criminal intention of the passive party and generally the smallest degree of consent or collusion among parties, lets in the act or words of one against the other." See pages 38 and 39 of the record.

In this case our first proof was a diagram and schematic, portraying the organization and channels of command of the Regular and Security Police, and particularly the organization and command of General Stroop, which were our Exhibits P-9 and the large wall chart, P-14. That descriptive evidence was never challenged during the trial but was emphasized by the defense Exhibit D-1, A, B, and C. There was then unfolded before this court the story of the world's greatest criminal conspiracy, a combination of many personalities of varying degrees of power and importance, deliberately designed to bring about a criminal result--which was the slaughtering of unarmed American prisoners of war.

Let us see how the conspiracy was developed and operated. Gunther told about the Werewolf school which General Stroop organized as an undertaking similar to the Maquis in France (page 119). Major Best, in cooperation with Goss, made this school operate. Proof of the activities of that school is important because it was one of the many things done in furtherance of the common plan. Stroop's secretary, Else Koecker, said that Stroop had said to Goss: "You know what the treatment of parachuted flyers is supposed to be. That also is one of the tasks of the Werewolf" (page 1059). The defense called Else Koecker to reiterate this testimony, because later in the trial she said again that Stroop had told Goss that the treatment of parachuted flyers was one of the assignments of the Werewolf, and by that she understood that the Werewolf was to do away with flyers (pages 2142 and 2143).

The accused, who were conspirators, secretly met and discussed the orders of Kaltenbrunner, Herrmann, and Himmler; and the principal perpetrator, Stroop, on numerous occasions gave his influence and exerted the pressure of his office to bring about the results. This was told to us many times by Gunther, his operations officer, and by Kalsow, his adjutant. See pages 124, 125, 128 and 129 of the record. It was also told to us by Breder, the chief of the Gestapo in Frankfurt (pages 155, 156 and 157), and by Frans Traeger, who worked in the security office in Frankfurt, who was told by his commander that all Allied flyers were to be rendered harmless because they did not deserve humane protection because of their deeds as gangsters and pirates (page 168). There is no doubt about the receipt, promulgation, and dissemination of all the orders issued by the Berlin High Command to slaughter American flyers as criminals and not as prisoners of war.

Stroop's secretary, Else Noecker, the Commander of the Order Police Colonel Niemann, and Stroop's chief of staff, Colonel Schlums, told us that in addition to the fact that these orders were received in Wiesbaden, that Stroop, Trumpler, and Sommn supplemented them by orders of their own to that effect. See pages 196, 198, 199, 200, 201, 202, 203, 204, 207, 208, 210, 211, 213, 214, 215, 216, 220, 221, 222, 223, 224 and 225 of the record.

Dirks's secretary, Martha Gelbrich, told us that she registered one of these orders in his office in a diary called "Secret State Matters". (pages 316 to 319)

When Stroop testified, he spoke of the channels of command to the SD, mentioned it as an extraordinary channel of command to be used only in emergency. Then he made the unusual statement that, when Allied flyers bombed Germany, such an emergency did not exist to enable him to take command, but his testimony on this point was somewhat evasive:

"Q You tell the court that you never did take command of the Security Police, is that right?

"A No --- Yes, I want to say that." (page 750)

Somann said his job was the supervision of the entire organization of the Security Police and Security Service, that it was his duty to pass on the orders of fundamental importance, and that when an order had not been executed he would make a report to that effect. See pages 759 to 762.

We heard much testimony in the case from Stroop and Somann and the Gauleiter Hildebrandt, concerning the pressure of the Nazi Party upon the police. That, of course, did exist because the evil influence of the Nazi Party necessarily inspired the criminals who activated the conspiracy that we have proven in this trial. Referring to the diagrammatic chart of the defense, Exhibit D-8, Hildebrandt said:

"Q Are there any other additional channels which, in your opinion, should be represented in that chart?

A Yes, there were also oral orders." (page 781)

Again we see the existence of the assents of mind which is involved in the conspiracy, may be, and from the secrecy of the crime, usually must be inferred from the proof of the facts and circumstances.

"Q Taking them one at a time, tell the court what additional indications of channels of command should appear on this chart.

A The position of Bormann and the influence he had on the entire organization is not shown sufficiently on this chart." (pages 780, 781 and 782)

Although Stroop declined to admit this, Hildebrandt said that Hitler himself had defined the Gau Westmark as a "front near area and in the greatest emergency." (page 784 of the record)

Can it be said that Somann was a passive party in this conspiracy? Hildebrandt said that when there was a necessity for energetic action, the state police chief could take action, or else he would turn to an inspector, but if the results were not to the satisfaction of the Gauleiter, he would turn to the inspector, personally, or to Kaltenbrunner or to Hitler (page 792).

He then made a statement which is clearly in accord with all of the facts, to the effect that in September 1944 a great change took place in that Himmler became the chief of the reserve army.

"Q What was the effect of that?

A In my opinion the effects were disastrous." (Page 794). And they will be disastrous to these accused.

Trummler did not say that his predecessor Somann was without power; he merely said that when he, Trummler, took office, his powers were enlarged and this enlargement was the result of the special emergency which existed through the advance of the enemy and the air warfare (pages 819 and 820).

At the very outset of the case there was received in evidence extracts from an official U. S. Government publication issued by the Supreme Headquarters, American Expeditionary Force, Evaluation and Dissemination Section G-2, entitled "The German Police", and bearing date April 1945. This extract was received as Exhibit P-8. We again recall to the court the conclusions of our G-2 who made a timely and thorough study of this police system. I now read from page 1 of Exhibit P-8:

"The local and central direction of the police throughout the Reich was not disturbed by these innovations, but the superficial character of local administration was further emphasized by the creation of certain high police officials to supervise the regional forces of the Orpo andSipo and set as their authoritative liaison officers with the local governments as well as the central police departments in Berlin. To each Wehrkreis (Military District), therefore, were assigned an Inspekteur der Orpo (Inspector of the Orpo) and an Inspekteur der Sipo (Inspector of the Sipo)." (Bottom page 1 and top of page 2)

"The principal duty of these General Inspectors is to bring forward proposals for the effective development of their respective branches, and generally maintain a careful check on the performance of duties." (page 2)

"Other measures directed towards the unification of the German Police concerned the new Sicherheitspolizei (Security Police), the more powerful of the two main branches of police laid down by Himmler on 26 June 1936.

"The first was a decree published on 10 July 1936, which empowered officers of the Gestapo (Secret State Police) and Kripo (Criminal Police), which together constitute the Sipo (Security Police), to conduct their activities in any part of the Reich independently of the area covered by their bureaus." (page 5)

"The Gestapo functioned for nearly three years before its position was defined by law. Though decrees dated 28 February 1933 and 8 March 1934, sanctioned the practice of protective custody, and a ruling of the Prussian Court on 2 May 1935 stated that the Secret State Police were not subject to judicial control, the fundamental legal basis on which the power of the Gestapo reposes is the famous Prussian (not Reich) Law of 10 February 1936, entitled Gesetz fur die Geheime Staatspolizei (Law concerning the Secret State Police). This law which consists of ten brief clauses, is so framed as to allow the very widest span of action to the Secret State Police; it is, in fact, nothing more than legal camouflage for unbridled police despotism of the most ruthless and sweeping nature.

"The essence of the decree is contained in the seventh clause, which is barely three lines long. It states that decisions in affairs conducted by the Gestapo may not be re-examined by the Judiciary. This means in effect that persons may be arrested and imprisoned without just warrant or cause. It also means that persons tried and found 'not guilty' in court, may be rearrested by the Gestapo, the most famous example of this kind being the case of Pastor Niemoller.

"In the course of their duties officers of the Gestapo may also invoke the cooperation of all types and branches of the local Police, whose personnel then enjoy the same legal protection as the Gestapo personnel." (pages 4 and 5)

"The decree issued by the Reich Minister of the Interior on 11 November 1938 made the SD officially responsible for the control of all persons, activities and events which might interfere with the dominance of the National Socialist idea. It stated:

'The Sicherheitsdienst of the RFSS, as the Party and Reich Government organization, has to carry out important tasks, in particular it must assist the Security Police (i.e. the Gestapo and the Kripo). The SD is consequently active on behalf of the Reich and this demands close and intelligent cooperation between the SD and the officials of the General and Interior Administration.'" (page 6)

"The principal functions of the HSSPf today are to ensure smooth cooperation between the regional SS and Police Offices and the local military and civil authorities, and, in the event of an emergency, to take over command of the combined SS and Police forces in his area." (page 9)

"The Superior SS and Police Commanders are also Himmler's representatives with the Wehrmacht and work in close cooperation with the Acting Corps commanders, who are the military chiefs and Commanding Generals of the Wehrkreise. Collaboration between these two high commanders in each area has become more and more important because, since about June 1943 'volunteers' have been drafted regularly and at an accelerated pace, partly through Wehrmacht channels, into the Waffen-SS, instead of into the regular Army, Navy or Air Force."

"The HSSPf has, as principal advisers and members of his staff, the Regional Commander of the Sipo and SD (BdS or IdS: see para 29), the Regional Commander of the Ordnungspolizei (BdO: see para 30), the Stabsführer (Chief of Staff) of the Allgemeine SS, and any other official who may be nominated for a specific task." (page 10)

"Regional Control: Befehlshaber (Inspekteure) der Sipo und des SD. Par. 31. Like the Ordnungspolizei, whose highest commander in each Wehrkreis is the Befehlshaber der Ordpo, the Sicherheitspolizei und SD are commanded in each Wehrkreis by the Befehlshaber (Inspekteur) der Sicherheitspolizei und des SD (Commander or Inspector of the Security Police and the Security Service of the C-in-C of the SS). The BdS or IdS is directly responsible to the HSSPf of the Wehrkreis, on whose staff he is the representative of the Sipo and SD. In the absence of the HSSPf the BdS or IdS assumes final authority in all matters concerning the Sipo and SD within the Wehrkreis or area. He is also, through the HSSPf, responsible for liaison between the Sipo and SD on one hand and the civil authorities, Nazi Party and Wehrmacht Headquarters and Internal Defense Authorities, on the other.

"When these officers were first appointed in 1936, they were given the title and functions of an Inspekteur (Inspector) der Sipo und SD, abbreviated IdS or IdSPuSD. As in the Orpo, however, further concentration of power was deemed necessary in many regions, and Inspekteure in occupied territories and in Wehrkreise close to the national frontier, such as Austria, Alsace-Lorraine and others, where partisan activities were increasing, were therefore raised to the status of Befelshaber (Commanders) der Sicherheitspolizei und des SD, abbreviated BdS or BdSPuSD. The distinction between IdS and BdS is, however, only of minor significance. A BdS has at all times complete command over his forces and supervises the state of training, preparedness, equipment and methods of the units under his command. The IdS normally has only supervisory functions but he is empowered in case of extreme emergency to assume complete command. As Allied troops advance into German territory, this state of emergency will undoubtedly be considered to exist, rendering the actual difference between a BdS and an IdS one of small consequence, if indeed such a difference has not already disappeared. In the following parts of the book and especially in the Annexes, the abbreviation BdS is, therefore, used frequently regardless of whether the latest reports on a particular city give the office as that of a Befelshaber or Inspekteur der Sipo und des SD.

"Whenever the Gestapo, SD and Kripo are assigned a combined operation, the BdS or IdS assumes full command over the united forces in the Wehrkreis in order to coordinate their actions. He may in addition, whenever necessary, request assistance from the Orpo. In occupied territory these commanders are known to have led such combined forces in large scale actions against guerilla and partisan formations." (pages 14 and 15)

These are the observations of our own G-2.

The Court will recall that throughout this whole trial the defense made a point of the fact that Colonel Somann was merely an inspector.

To show then the existence and development of the gigantic criminal conspiracy, the prosecution then submitted evidence by way of decrees and other documentary data emanating from the German Reich and disseminated to police and army officials and to the civilian population at large. These included the orders and directions of Hess, Keitel, the Chief of the Naval War Staff in Berlin, Himmler, Somann, the propaganda of Dr. Goebbels, the order of Bormann, the order of the Deputy Chief of the Armed Forces Operations Staff of the Fuehrer's Headquarters, the order of Kaltenbrunner, and the memoranda and correspondence between Ambassador Ritter at Salzburg and the Chief of the Supreme Command of the Armed Forces on the subject of the treatment of Allied flyers.

I want to call the court's attention to a very important piece of evidence that may have escaped the attention of all concerned. It certainly escaped the attention of the defense. There was received in evidence in this case Exhibit P-145, which was received in evidence by the International Military Tribunal as their exhibit GB 152 in the trial of Hermann Goering, et al, which began 20 November 1945. This document is another draft of the memorandum issued by Ambassador Ritter at Salzburg under date of 20 June 1944 and classified "Secret", and compares with the draft of the Ambassador's memorandum at Salzburg on the same date, which was received in evidence in this case as Exhibit P-25. I am asking the court to examine P-145 along with P-25. In the draft memorandum the paragraphs of the memorandum are noted throughout by marginal notes in pencil initialled by a man by the name of Harlimont. A comparison of the two exhibits P-25 and P-145 is significant to show the desperate effort on the part of the conspirators in the German High Command to create instructions and memoranda for the Police and the Armed Forces that would have an apparent legal justification. After comparing these two documents carefully, it will be noted that as a result of the comments made in the marginal notes by Warlimont on Exhibit P-25, Ambassador Ritter's headquarters rephrased the language in Exhibit P-145 more skillfully in an effort to prevent the world from knowing that they were, in fact, attempting to violate international law and violate the laws of war under some cloak or guise of legal justification. These two documents, P-25 and P-145, are not couched in precisely the same language but very clearly indicate when they are read together the mental processes of the authors of these documents and their criminal intentions and their definite attempts to bring about violations of the laws of land warfare in an apparently legal manner. If the court will look at paragraph II, document P-25 first stated that if an enemy airman is captured by the Armed Forces or the Police and handed over to the Air Forces Reception Camp "by this very fact he assumes the legal status of a prisoner of war". To make sure that their language would leave no doubt, in Exhibit P-145 they changed the wording to "he has received, by this very fact, the legal status of a prisoner of war." Referring to the prisoner of war treaty in paragraph II of P-25, they said "These orders are so precise that an attempt to veil a breach of them by means of a clever way of publishing an individual case would be hopeless." Apparently that statement was a bit raw and would be embarrassing to the High Command so therefore, in P-145, it was reworded as follows: "These rules are so specific that it would be futile to try to cover up any violation of them by clever wording of the publication of an individual incident."

In P-25 we find this statement in paragraph II: "On the other hand, the Foreign Office cannot recommend on this occasion a formal repudiation of the prisoner of war treaty."

In P-25 in paragraph II we find this statement: "A way out, if necessary, would be not to allow suspected enemy airmen to assume the legal status of prisoner of war at all to begin with." In P-145 it was reworded as follows: "An emergency solution would be to prevent suspected flyers from ever attaining a legal prisoner of war status."

In P-25, paragraph II, they said, referring to flyers: "They would then be sentenced ad hoc by a special summary court procedure. If, at the trial under this procedure, it becomes evident from the accompanying circumstances that this special procedure cannot be applied to an individual case, the airman concerned could be subsequently reinstated in individual cases, in the legal status of prisoners of war." When they realized in that statement that by using the word "reinstated," it was a determination that they had originally had a prisoner of war status, they reworded that paragraph, and in Exhibit P-145 they said the following: "If the evidence at the trial should reveal that the special procedure is not applicable to a particular case, the flyers concerned may subsequently be given the status of prisoners of war."

And further, in P-25, in paragraph II: "Naturally, this way out would also not prevent Germany being reproached for breaches of the agreements at present in force", but since this referred to "this way out", which would be embarrassing, they reworded it in P-145 as follows: "Naturally, not even this expedient will prevent the possibility that Germany will be accused of the violation of existing treaties." So we see the clear attempt to cover up their evil deeds by making it obviously legal.

It is, therefore, not inappropriate to remark at this time that the defense failed to appreciate the relative value of these two documents which were received in evidence. When they are read together, it clearly indicates the efforts on the part of the German High Command to create a document that would not too obviously be an attempt to violate international laws. Accordingly, the remarks of the defense when Exhibit P-145 was received in evidence, appearing on page 632 of the record are entirely incorrect, and I quote:

> "DEFENSE: My associates, may it please the Court, have the notion that the exhibit just received in evidence is identical with one already in evidence, number 25."

The conspiracy was then established beyond any doubt by the sworn statements of Stroop, Oirke, Hellenbroich, and Trummler, which verified their knowledge of most of these orders and the part they played in carrying out the letter and spirit thereof. Dr. Christmann testified and verified all of this by his testimony. It is significant to note that he said that "as far as the meaning is concerned, I can recall that Somann did not wish the Security Police to turn any flyers over to the Armed Forces." His testimony appears in Exhibits P-33 and P-34, and he corroborated statements made by Hellenbroich in his statement, which is Exhibit P-30.

August Schaper, the Chief of the Gendarmerie at Koblenz, confirms the issuance of orders in his statement, Exhibit P-35, and this was further corroborated by the statement of Gregor Hradetsky, who was Christmann's adjutant, Exhibit P-36, and the statement of Jacob Boesen, Police Commissar at Bendorf, in Exhibit P-37.

When Stroop took the stand for the second time, although much has been said in this case about the imminent death that awaited the disobedience of orders, he denied that he had the power to sentence his subordinates to death (page 1959). I think it was quite obvious to this court that Stroop tried desperately to evade the truth. Some of his testimony was an affront to this court--for example, that incredible testimony to the effect that he had visited Dachau in 1938 and found it to be kept clean and in good order, and that there existed especially excellent sanitary conditions. That is an affront to this court. (page 1977). However, he did admit the existence of orders from Keitel, Hitler and Himmler, and that he had taken steps to transmit these orders and to see that they were carried out (pages 1989 to 1994).

He attempted, however, to have it appear that the Gestapo were without sin. Here is another affront to the court:

"A The Gestapo had the job of combatting the enemy."

This was in answer to a question concerning the functions of the Gestapo.

"Q Will you elaborate on that a little?

A When I said to combat the enemies or to combat the opponents of National Socialism, and with that the opponents of the form of state under Adolf Hitler.

Q What did they have to do with prisoners of war?

A The State Secret Police?

Q The Gestapo.

A Yes, nothing.

Q But yet, a thousand or so flyers were delivered into their hands -- that is correct, isn't it?

A Yes, for examination. Those were only a special group of prisoners of war, not in general. I thought this question was meant a different way." (page 1999)

What an affront to a court of intelligent and experienced men.

He also said this -- and this is a mockery to this court -- that the notorious SS had come into this court with clean hands. "I know nothing about criminal activities of the SS." He did admit, however, that to be an SS man one had to take an entrance examination. How utterly ridiculous. Of course, he did not say that the requirements for entrance in the SS were that the applicant had to be willing to cooperate in their diabolical schemes. (pages 2007 and 2008)

Of course, he knew nothing about Hademar or the criminal activities of the SS in his area (pages 2008-2009). They all had lily white, clean hands. The witness General von Eberstein, called by the defense, gave us a clear picture of the leader of Wehrkreis XII:

"All right, did you not say a little while ago that the carrying out of the duties of SS and Police Leader depended to a great extent upon the character and energy of the man holding the job?

A Yes." (page 2060 of the record)

That is what Himmler thought, too, and this man, No. 1, had the character and energy to carry out the job that brought about the results you see before this court.

Let us reflect again for a moment upon the fiction of Superior Orders. The prosecution brought before this court several members of Stroop's personal staff, each of whom told the court how they had defied their commander's orders to do illegal acts in violation of international law. The defense went a step further and called Wehrkreis leaders of other Wehrkreise, and several witnesses who had defied Stroop's orders and the orders of other commanders and who are today alive and some of them entirely free from any connection with war crimes and able to come in and testify before this court.

PRESIDENT: Court will recess for 20 minutes.

(Whereupon the court recessed at 1000 hours.)

(Thereupon the Court reconvened at 1025 hours.)

PRESIDENT: The Court will come to order.

PROSECUTION: May it please the Court, let the record show that all members of the Court, all members of the Prosecution, all members of the Defense, all of the accused, the reporter and interpreter are present.

At the close of the last session of the Court, I had begun to make some observation upon the fiction of superior orders, and I recalled to the Court how several members of Stroop's personal staff came into this Court and told the Court how they defied his orders to do illegal acts; and that the Defense went a step further and called Wehrkreis leaders of other Wehrkreis and other witnesses who had also defied Stroop's orders and other commanders and who are today alive and some of them entirely free from any connection with war crimes.

The witness von Everstein said:

"Q Now you said on the 20th of June 1944 you received an order to arrest some colonel, but I didn't understand from whom you got that order. Will you tell me please?

A That was Col. Grosser, the G-3 of the deputy command of court area No. 7.

Q What I mean is who gave you the order to arrest him?

A The Reichs Defense Commissioner, Col. Giesler.

Q You refused to obey this order?

A Yes.

Q Now, I believe you were told to use your influence to have the prisoners confined at Camp Dachau shot, is that correct?

A Yes.

Q Did you refuse to obey that order?

A Yes.

Q About when did you receive that order?

A The beginning of March, the first days of March 1945."

The Court will recall that the order to arrest Colonel Grosser and shoot him was in June, 1944.

"Q Did you consider that an illegal order, to execute these prisoners in Dachau?

A Certainly.

Q And for that reason you refused to carry it out, is that correct?

A Yes." (page 2061 of the record.)

Of course, it became apparent as the trial proceeded that the accused strove to make themselves military men and thereby come within the concept of Superior Orders. The Court will recall how they desperately tried from time to time to show that the Police had been taken into the Wehrmacht. That this was false and a fiction in the minds of the accused was apparent from the statements of men, some of whom were brought by the defense as witnesses, and men who were in a position to speak authoritatively. General von Eberstein denied that the Gestapo was ever taken into the Wehrmacht (pages 2069 and 2070). Stroop's Chief of Staff, Colonel Schluma, said the same thing both with respect to the Order Police and the Security Police (page 2101). Breder, the Gestapo Chief, stated the same thing (page 2123). The defense confounded themselves many times during this trial, necessarily so because of the conflict of interests and the burden was cast about from shoulder to shoulder, the finger pointed by one accused to the other, each accused thereby attempting to be excused from blame. In this connection the defense produced a witness, Colonel Stemmler, who said that Stroop had given him oral orders that from now on flyers have to be shot, and that this order was repeated several times, and that it was also given to him by the Police President.

"Q You referred to the police president repeating the order referred to at Saarbruecken during the execution. Do you recall that?

A Yes.

Q What was the execution, or who was being executed at that time?

A That was a flyer. (page 2157)

Q Was this flyer tried by a court, do you know?

A No." (page 2158).

Trumler's testimony was very stright-forward and convincing, and it was refreshing to see such accused as the type of Trumler and Moller in a manly way concede the obvious facts. In referring to the orders from Stroop, Trumler said they were not in conflict with the orders that he had received from Kaltenbrunner concerning the treatment of flyers (page 2169). He then corroborated the accusations made in this case in Charges 4, 5, 6 and 10. If by any stretch of reasoning, there was any doubt at that point concerning the proof in those charges, his testimony removed any of that doubt forever (pages 2171 to 2178). He then made this very interesting observation: "I have no interest here of charging untruthfully, acts to a German General which will cause him to be severely punished, nor am I interested in seeing a German General forgetting about things two years after the war which he required of us during that time, namely, discipline, comradeship. I regret to have been forced to make this explanation here." (page 2195).

Trumpler, however, although pressed on cross examination to a great extent, refused to answer the questions put to him to determine why, if the orders in his opinion were legal, that they then had to be reported falsely to show that the flyers had tried to escape. He was first asked whether, in his opinion, the American flyers were executed in an honorable way, to which he replied: "I have no comment to make to this." (page 2216). He was then asked over twenty questions to elicit from him the reason why these reports were falsified, and his answers in each case, evaded the question. He did however, say this: "It was Dr. Kaltenbrunner's order that the whole matter should be kept secret to a certain degree" (page 2220).

Colonel Scheim also made a judicial confession on the witness stand and admitted his knowledge of the "Non-Interference" order and the shooting orders and the orders concerning the treatment of flyers, and that he had passed them on with favorable comment.

"All I know is that I received the order from General Mueller to turn over as quickly as possible to the State Police office in Frankfurt, any flyers that might have been delivered or picked up by us so that they might be turned over further, possibly to Oberursel." (page 2236).

"Q Did you receive any other orders concerning the treatment of parachuted flyers?

A One order of a basic nature. This non-interference order came towards the end of June 1944.
Q By what means did you receive that order?

A That was a copy of an order of the Reichsfuehrer of the SS, Heinrich Himmler, reading as follows: "It is not the duty of the police to interfere in any altercations between the populace and persecuted flyers." -foreign flyers. This order had a supplement signed by Dr. Kaltenbrunner saying that this order is to be brought to the attention of the subordinate offices verbally."

I am still quoting Seemann's testimony:

"Q Now, in what manner did you carry out this order of Kaltenbrunner and Himmler?

A I brought this order to the attention of the chiefs of the offices, among other orders which were also brought to their attention at the same time, in June or July 1944, and in the course of a meeting at my office in Wiesbaden." (pages 2258 and 2259).

Now, with respect to Charge Number V, which was the murder in Nieder on the 22nd of February, 1945, it is proven by eye witnesses, Peter Schrod, George Heberer, Peter Gass and Oscar Lucek. Heberer, Gass and Lucek told also that happened in the police station and it is clear that Michel and Kivitt reprimanded the policeman there for treating the pilot to a cigarette and a glass of water and that Michel specifically gave the order to shoot the flyer. Now, although Oestreicht denies this, Gass definitely said that Oestreicht was in the orderly room of the police station and after Michel had said, "This man will be killed," then Albrecht and Michel went into the yard. After some time Moller came back into the orderly room, loaded his carbine and took the flyer into the yard. (Record, pages 444 and 446). Later on, Albrecht came into the room and said, "Come, you fellow." Then Albrecht and Oestreicht left. The direct evidence by the Prosecution's witnesses leaves no doubt but that Michel gave the order, Kivitt assented, Albrecht received the order and passed it on to Moller. Oestreicht was there and went along to assist. Albrecht had been at the Police Station and knew Eichal's full intentions concerning the flyer and yet he said he went along on the march only because he had no idea whatever and had no intention whatever. (Page 1544-1545). He knew, of course, that Moller was supposed to shoot the flyer and when the shots were fired he ran directly to him.

"Q And you ran straight to him as soon as you heard the shot?

A No, I didn't run it straight away. I ran first on the path and then through the woods."

In addition to killing of this particular flyer, Albrecht went on to talk about the killing of another flyer on that particular day. The flyer which had been brought in by a priest. He said definitely that that flyer was also shot. (Page 1549). Goehrendt, of course, by his testimony, clearly indicated that when Moller got to the woods he directed them to the proper place for the killing. (Page 1555) He also admitted that in his "Circle of Friends" they talked of the treatment of captured parachutists and flyers based on the Goebbles propaganda (Page 1560). Goehrendt also admitted that after this flyer had been shot two other flyers were shot within a few days of this incident. (1574) He described the shooting of the third flyer by a man named Zaiger. (Page 1601). Referring to the flyer who was supposed to have escaped on Bierbrauer way, according to Goehrendt while he was on the stand during Charge V, it seems apparent that if he wanted to escape he could have tried while being transported by the two little policemen Michel and Schneider. Goehrendt confirmed this by saying, "They are my two most harmless policemen. If the flyer would have escaped then he would have gone away for good. Until they would have made up their minds who is to do the shooting he would have been far away." (Page 1582).

Now in Charge 7, Kiwitt definitely said he heard Eichel direct Albrecht to bring the flyer to the police station and, "He shall not arrive," or "He will be done away with." He also said he heard these remarks from the police director to Albrecht. "Do you understand this?" "Yes, I understand the flyer is to be bumped off or shall be killed." (Page 1592). It was apparent from witnesses called by the Defense, in Charge 7, that when they took the flyer from the police station they went in the opposite direction from Offenbach, where police headquarters existed. In this connection see the testimony of Schrod recalled by the defense, which indicates that they went in the opposite direction. (Page 1617). Peter Como, recalled by the defense said the flyer was killed at a place further from Offenbach than they were when they left the police station in Bieber. (Page 1633) Then the defense called Elizabeth Bluemel who did not testify about the shooting in Charge 8. Her only testimony was to this effect--that it concerned the shooting by Zager of the third flyer in Bieber (1640-46). Eichel's testimony was a desperate attempt on his part to evade the questions and avoid guilt. He admitted that in this police station he was furious and cursed the pilot. (page 1669 and 1671) He definitely admitted that he said, "This man is to be brought to headquarters of the Police director," and "He will be bumped off anyway." He gave as the basis of his remarks his instructions from Gauleiter Sprenger who had said, "All flyers will be shot and bumped off," and that he considered that an order. (Pages 1671 to 75). Then Eichel specifically denied having seen Moller before or having known him before that time or up until this time. (Page 1676). At this point the Court will recall that Moller was so purturbed by this that he had to be restrained in the prisoners dock from his attempt to lunge forward and get at Eichel on the witness stand. He admitted inciting the crowd in front of the police station and that he had intended to ride the flyer on the hood of the car but that he meant by that that he couldn't fit the flyer into his car and for that reason he would have ridden on the hood. (Pages 1680 to 1683).

At the request of the defense the sworn statement of Lt. Alt was received in evidence in which he said, definitely, that Kiwitt told him to shoot the flyer, on order of Kuhlenbeck, and that several weeks before that Eichel had informed the members of the police that all captured flyers were to be shot. (Pages 1689 to 1690). "Q You heard the statement that Kiwitt is supposed to have ordered a couple of flyers shot on the authority of Kuhlenbeck? Did you question the truth of that statement? A No, but I would like to give an explanation to it." Then followed a very ridiculous explanation about his difficulties with the kreisleiter. (Page 1692).

"Q These 600 men you had under you in Offenbach--how many allied flyers did they execute?

A They didn't execute any.

Q Nobody was executed?

A Officially and by orders, nobody was executed.

Q Are you sure of that?

A With the exception of the cases known here nobody was executed and anyway we can't talk about any executions except these." (Page 1705.

This is Eichel talking again. Eichel spent much time on cross examination explaining why he was angry with the flyer and pulled a scarf off of his throat. (Pages 1714 to 1717) He tried to tell the Court that he was unfamiliar with the activities of the Gestapo and knew nothing about their treatment of flyers. He never heard that orders were issued that captured parachuted flyers should be turned over to the Gestapo until this trial. (Pages 1717, 1718) But he said that he knew the flyer would be bumped off, having assumed this from the remarks made by the Reichsstaatshalter. "At that time it was already known that in Stalag Number 3 fifty to seventy flyers had been shot on orders."

> "Q You knew that this flyer would be killed because you knew that every other flyer that had fallen in the hands of the Offenbach police force were killed, is that right?
>
> A No.
>
> Q As a matter of fact, they all were killed, were they not?
>
> A But not through my fault."

That's Eichel's testimony. Moller, of course, made a very convincing witness. His testimony was direct, truthful and not evasive. He made a complete judicial confession involving himself, Eihel, Kiwitt, Albrecht and Coehrendt. With such inconsistent testimony, certainly this Court can pierce the veil of sham and fraud and see what was in Eichel's mind and what he had actually done. Moller was sincere and truthful and a comparison of his testimony with Eichel's clearly indicates that Eichel was not telling the truth. Eichel said the following; when Captain Vance asked him this question:

> "Q Either you or Moller are telling a deliberate lie, aren't you?

A Yes, one of us must be lying." (Page 1730).

I am sure the Court knows that Moller freely admitted his guilt and told the truth, but the Court must remember that all the evidence I spoke of was supported and strengthened by the sworn statements of the accused themselves. Moller's statements were positive and convincing--being Exhibits P-110 and 111 and P-115 and 116.

Albrecht made a statement, Exhibit P-112, in which he said that Kiwitt said, referring to the flyer, "You ought to beat him into his mouth." Whereupon Eichel said to Albrecht, "This man will be killed."

Goehrendt's statement, Exhibit P-113, that according to his opinion Eichel and Kiwitt were guilty of the murder for they were both instigators of the deed.

Kiwitt's statement, Exhibit P-114 is clear and convincing and implicates himself together with Eichel and Albrecht without any questions. He admits, also, the knowledge of the Himmler Order.

Moller's statement, Exhibit P-116, clearly indicates that Goehrendt had been lying in his testimony before this Court. I quote from that statement, "I show you a sketch designated Moller's Exhibit A and will ask you to indicate that marsh on the sketch. (A) When I got to point X Goehrendt said to me, 'Where do you want to go? You should turn right now.' (Q) Did Goehrendt convey to you by this statement that you should go into the woods at this point and shoot the flyer? (A) Yes, I think Goehrendt meant that if we had kept along Halweg we would have come out of the woods into a settlement. (Q) Was it your intention to walk with the flyer to the settlement or dispose of him in the woods. (A) My intention was to keep on going until some further order was given to me or something was said to me. (Q) By whom? (A) From my superior. (Q) What was Ceehrendt's position? (A) Ceehrendt was my superior. (Q) Would you say then that in the shooting of the flyer you acted under the general orders of Eichel and Kiwitt and the particular immediate orders of Albrecht and Ceehrendt? (A) Yes. I had received the order originally from Eichel and I believe that Eichel sent the other two along who were my superiors to make sure this flyer was shot. (Page 4 of the exhibit.) That's Moller's statement taken under oath and without any duress, which he reiterated on the stand and said was the truth.

Thus we have conclusively proven the commission of the crime in the first instance by the actual eye witnesses, Schrod, Heberer, Como and Lucek. Whereupon the accused Moller made a judicial confession in court admitting every essential element of the crime. The Court will recall that his testimony was positive, logical and obviously true. The Court will recall that his description of the facts were entirely consistent throughout the entire story and his demeanor and attitude on the witness stand is so positive and confident in tone and manner that it was without question a truthful recitation of the facts.

Albrecht and Eichel attempted desperately to avoid the issues but their testimony is so obviously evasive in many of the essential points that it became quite apparent while on the witness stand before this court they are attempting to deny the truth. From the evidence there can be no doubt that Richel and Kiwitt positively influenced Albrecht and Moller to com it the crime and although Goehrendt tried to indicate to the contrary, it is certain that he was at the police station at the time Richel gave the orders to Albrecht and Albrecht passed them on to Moller, so that when he left the police station with everyone concerned he went along and aided and abetted the commission of the crime and, in fact, directed Moller to the suitable spot where the shooting could take place under the cover of a wooded area and out of sight of the crowd. This was far from doing anything as a superior officer of Moller to prevent the crime, and we say that he went to the extent of fully cooperating in lending his aid and influence to see that the deed was accomplished. Whether there was any doubt on these points or not, when the case was first investigated shortly after the war and without any duress or compulsion, all of these accused admitted the essential facts and confessed to their part in the crimes. When they were ready to tell their stories, all of these accused admitted the essential facts in their stories.

Thus we have an accumulation of direct and circumstantial evidence and extra-judicial confessions and judicial confessions all together cemented as a whole, all of this added to a proof of the corpus delicti. Reference is made to Prosecution's Exhibits P-117, 118, 119 and 120, photographs of the dead body, with their accompanying affidavits certifying to the discovery of the body of the flyer shot by the accused. This is to be considered in connection with Exhibit P-121 which was the pathologist's affidavit giving a description of the wounds found on the dead body and describing the cause of death.

We come now to Charge 4, which is represented by this large wall chart. We began the testimony with Adam Jaeger, and he told us that an air raid alarm had been sounded, and a police captain drove by on his bicycle and said, "These flyers are going to be beaten to death", and all of Jaeger's comrades said that this police captain was Captain Kiwitt. This happened about 2 PM on 8 February 1945. In the evening between 8:30 and 9 another air raid alarm sounded and he and Zahn were standing guard when 2 policemen came by with a flyer.

He and Zahn were in the place marked "A" and "B" on the map, Exhibit P-126 (page 502). One of the policemen said, "He is supposed to be bumped off." Then Nahrgang came and he called Hammann. Nahrgang and Hammann were at the place marked bunker and the letter "B" on the charge P-126 (page 503). Hammann said "No" and then called "Guard". Then Fay enters the picture. Fay replied, "That is only a small matter. We will get it fixed up right away". One of the policemen then said, "Have you got a pistol?". The flyer was standing at the place marked "Bunker". The flyer started his march with Fay from the place marked "Bunker", (Page 505), and ending at an arrow at the place marked "E", Exhibit P-126. In describing the route of the flyer, the witness had previously said "And then went around here. There was a wooden shed here with a kitchen there and there was a shot" (page 504). Then suddenly somebody called out, "A parachutist is escaping". (page 506). Hammann came running out to the point marked "B" on Exhibit P-126 and pulled the witness's carbine away from him. Then Hausmann ran after the flyer and killed him at close range. Quoting the witness again: "Hausmann was at a very close distance to the flyer when he shot him (Page 507). Then some people carried the flyer to a place where the trees were and put him down and the witness indicated that to be a place on Exhibit P-126 marked "Garden. Body brought here". The witness said that when Fay first took the flyer from the bunker up to point E on the Chart, Exhibit P-126, that the flyer was "just walking and he wasn't escaping any". (Page 508.)

The Defense cross examined him on that point, and this is what the cross examination brought out:

"Q You said that shortly after the cries "the parachutist is escaping" were heard that Hausmann came running out to you and took your carbine?

A HE DIDN'T ESCAPE." (page 514).

Then the man Zahn, the policeman who was also on guard duty with Jaeger, corroborated all this. He said that the policeman came up to the gate and said, "We have here one man who is to be killed". That was in the evening. (page 525). The witness went up to the house where the pilot was sitting with one of the policemen. Then Mahrgang came out of the guard room (page 524). The witness told Mahrgang that the policeman had a man to be killed. Mahrgang went back to the door of the guard room and Hausmann came out with him.

Mahrgang called for Fay and Fay came out of the room and said, "We'll have it right away" (Page 525). The pilot came up the stairs and one of the policemen and Fay followed him.

Then the witness said this. Fay drove the pilot in front of him. In his right hand Fay had a pistol and he made signs "like when you drive cattle" (page 526).

Then Fay and the pilot went up to the staircase marked "E" on Exhibit P-126. A short while later he heard one or two shots and "Halt. Parachuted flyer escaped." The sound of the shots came from the place marked "E" on the map, P-126, so that we know that somebody did something up at point "E", and the second time from a place on the other side of the steps, at the first arrow as shown on Exhibit P-126. Then two men ran past the witness and along in a northerly direction. The witness pointed to the dotted line from "E" to the point "B" and then along Biesbrauer Weg in a northerly direction, as shown on Exhibit P-126. The witness went then to a place just next to the house Felsenkeller, at the south end of that place and heard two or three more pistol shots and three shots from a carbine (page 527). The witness then ran in a northerly direction to the spot where the shots had been fired and saw the pilot was lying on his knees and indicated the place on the map, P-126, marked with a star and with the words "Hausmann shot here".

Then a man by the name of Fabian came from the north and Police Director Kiehel came up. Kiehel said to the pilot "You son of a bitch" (page 528). That was repeated. What was the reason for that remark? It's quite obvious. Then four men picked up the pilot and carried him to the gate. The pilot was moaning at the time but the witness didn't know whether he was still alive or not. The pilot was then carried in and put down at the place marked on exhibit P-126 "Garden. Body brought here". Police Director Eichel was standing there, too (page 529). At the time the flyer was shot Nahrgang and Hammann were around the flyer and there were three or four people all together there (page 530).

Fritz Fabian testified that in the evening of 22 February 1945, he was walking with two girls on Bierbrauer Weg between 8 and 9 PM. One of the girls said "Shots have been fired" or "Shot has been fired". A short while later another shot was fired (page 552). The witness said at that time he was standing at a point to the left of the map, P-126, which would be in a northerly direction off the map. He ran up the street and saw men running towards him (page 553). After the shots were heard, he ran up the street in a southerly direction and saw men coming towards him, and behind them a few men. He said that the flyer might have been at the place where, on exhibit P-126, appears the word "shot" near the place where it says "Hammann shot here" (page 554). His testimony indicates this "the people came running." Where did these people come from? Up there somewhere in the left-hand corner of this chart there was an air raid shelter--at least Eichel said 150 people might have been there--at any rate, people came running.

While the witness was on the way, two or three or maybe four shots were fired and when the witness came to the place shown on P-126 marked "Hammann shot here", the flyer was lying on the ground dead. Then people came running. Then the witness went over to the flyer and at that place was standing Hammann, Nahrgang, and Karl Gunther. The witness and the other men picked up the flyer and carried him to the garden. Then Eichel came (page 555), and asked, "What has happened?" Hammann reported to him, "Flyer shot while trying to escape" and Eichel said "Good". (page 556).

The witness, of course, was quite excited because he was right in line of fire, in fact he said at the time the flyer was shot on Bierbrauer Weg to Hammann, "How could you shoot?" and Hammann answered "I saw you coming." (page 558.) Of course he saw him coming--he saw plenty.

Now all of this happened in a split second. Here we have a flyer standing. There are two policemen armed, others with carbines and pistols, talking and discussing the fact that he is going to be shot. Eichel orders, etc., "Let's get up this way," and drove him like cattle. Everybody knows his part like characters in a play. Why did Hammann run to the right spot? He knew where the flyer was going to be. He knew where they were going to shove him.

The witness Karl Gunter was also called to the stand. He says he remembers the 22nd day of February 1945 (page 560). On that date he was a Sergeant of the fire Protective Police and a flyer was shot (page 562). The witness says that he was standing at the gate as shown on exhibit P-126, and then from a northerly direction two policemen came with the flyer. One of the policemen asked "Who has something to say here?" Then Zahn went with the policemen to the guard room to tell the Sergeant of the Guard (page 563).

Then Hammann came out of the guard room and when the witness and Hammann were close together, a call was heard from up front "He has escaped", and that was from the general area of the wood shack and the place marked 25 steps on the map, P-126. Then Hammann and the witness went out through the gate and Jaeger was standing there. There Hammann took Jaeger's rifle and ran down with the witness along Bierbrauer Weg in a northerly direction and the flyer was there where they came out there on the road (page 564).

Then several voices called "Halt" and then Hammann shot, and this calling of "Halt" and the shooting by Hammann occurred at a place shown on Exhibit P-126, which is the arrow at the end of the dotted line right near the place which says "Hammann shot here". After several shots the flyer fell to the ground. Then the witness passed Hammann and when he nearly reached the flyer, Hammann shot once more. The flyer was not armed (page 565). Then the witness went to hold the crowd back--now notice what Karl Gunther said, "the witness went to hold the crowd back--where did all this crowd come from? And Eichel arrived. Eichel asked what had happened and Hammann said "Flyer shot while trying to escape" and Eichel said, "Good". This flyer must have been a man with a very low IQ. I never heard of a flier in the American Army, piloting bombers, etc., with such lack of intelligence that when he is surrounded by 150 people, five armed policemen--one with a pistol in his back--he decides to escape. Well, maybe he had wings and was going to act as a helicopter. But the whole thing is utterly ridiculous--these actors are trying to stage a play here for us and tell us that that flyer had hit poor little Fay. First, I can see Fay standing there crying and a piece of candy being taken away from him. I am sure this Court can see through all that nonsense. Then they all went over and picked up the flyer and carried him to the place marked on P-126 "Garden. Body brought here". Then one of the policemen said "The flyer is carrying a watch". Then the witness took off the flyer's watch and gave it to Eichel. Then Fay took off the flyer's ring and gave it to Eichel and Eichel gave these things to a Lieutenant or a 1st Lieutenant (page 566).

Now remember this--on cross examination that witness Gunther said Hansmann fired four shots from an Italian carbine.

Now we brought one of those "pee-wee" policemen in here that guarded the flier--Karl Schneider. If the flyer had really wanted to, he could have pushed Schneider over. Why didn't the flyer try to escape? He had plenty of time to do it while he was with that joker. The witness Karl Schneider said on 22 February 1945 he had a conversation with Goebrendt. The conversation was about a captured flyer, and he said we got the order from Goebrendt to bring the captured flyer from Bieber to Offenbach (page 571). In the evening he went with the flyer to the headquarters of the Order Police in Offenbach (page 571). Captain Kiwitt was called and said "How can you have the nerve to bring this man down here? Why didn't you do away with him?" (page 572). Kiwitt said, "These are the men who are killing your women and children" and further said, "The flyer has to be chained by you" and further "Get out. The flyer has to be shot" (page 573). Of course, little Schneider was going to carry this matter out, but down here there were men more capable of doing the job; so when they got to the Bierbrauer Weg and got up to these policemen, he said, "We have a captured flyer" (page 574). "We tried to hand him over to headquarters but we couldn't get rid of him. We are supposed to shoot him" (bottom of page 574 and top of 575).

Schneider testified that when he and Michel brought the flyer to the Bierbrauer ' eg at one time he was alone with the flyer, Michel having walked ahead about 500 meters (1758). Schneider on cross examination, again admitted that Captain Kiwitt had told him and Michel to shoot the flyer (1763); and that when he got to Bierbrauer We. he told the guards that they were supposed to shoot the flyer and that Fay know about that (1764). It was obvious from the cross examination of Schneider who had previously testified for the prosecution, when he got on the stand for the defense, that he conveniently lost his memory and could not remember any more of the details about the shooting. See particularly the cross examination at the top of page 1766 of the record. He further stated that in Bieber he received the order from Goehrendt to turn the flyer over to the Protective Police, but that Kiwitt came into the headquarters of the Protective Police and said: "Why didn't you bump him off?" and further, "You are supposed to handcuff him and shoot him in Mainz Strasse." (page 1767).

Michel testified for the defense--we had never called him--that Goehrendt directed that the flyers be delivered to the police headquarters at Offenbach and that that was done; but that Kiwitt came in and said that they had taken the flyer six kilometers through the woods and still hadn't bumped him off (page 1775). He further said that when he brought the flyer to police headquarters, Goehrendt had given him a note to give to Kiwitt, but that Michel didn't know what was in that note. You know what was in that note; we all know what was in that note. We don't have to see the note to know that. Michel further testified that, at no time while they were taking the flyer to the police station did the flyer try to escape (1776). Kiwitt then said: "Get out with the flyer and bump him off"; and that the flyer was in a position to hear that remark (1777).

"Q So the flyer was in a position to know that the high officials wanted him killed?

A Yes, he could hear it.

Q After you told them that you had a flyer that was to be bumped off and that you would not do it, what is the length of time that the flyer lived from then until the time he was dead?

A Approximately 15 minutes, I figured." (page 1778)

"Q If Goehrendt had told you to deliver this flyer to the Wehrmacht or the Luftwaffe, you would have taken him there?

A Yes.

Q And if he wanted to protect this flyer that would have been the place to take him, wouldn't it?"

I respectfully submit that the Court did not permit the answer to that question. I respectfully submit that we should have been allowed to elicit the answer to that question. We know what the answer is, however. (page 1784).

"Q What punishment have you received for the failure to kill that flyer?

A Nothing." (page 1785.)

Now Berthard Fay took the stand and testified that he was in the guard room on Bierbrauer Weg (1788); and was sleeping on his cot (1789); that Mahrgang had wakened him and said that 2 policemen had a flyer to be shot (1790). But that on his own account, he took charge of the man, although he said he never believed that the flyer was going to be killed and had never heard of police executing flyers (1797). How can he have the nerve to stand before this Court and make a remark like that? He said that his part in the shooting of the flyer was purely voluntary (1798). His memory has completely failed because he said he can not remember who the 2 policemen were and only assumed that they were Schneider and Michel, who testified in this case (1799). On cross examination he was asked several times what Michel had said after the body had been brought to the garden, but he refused to answer (1809).

"Q In your original statement, Fay, you make the statement that Nahrgang said the flyer must be killed. You now say you didn't make that statement?

A No, that isn't correct. That's the English translation.

Q Then your statement is wrong?

A I didn't make that statement. I remember now that at that time when the interpret r was reading it to me he read to me the sentence and read "has to be" or "must" and then I said, "No, that is wrong." It should say "It is supposed to be" but the interpreter told me, "That's the same in English. That's one and the same word in English."

What's the difference?

"Q Furthermore, you have stated also that some policeman said that Michel gave the order, is that correct?

A Yes. I asked who said so and then one of the men who came in there said, "The Police Director." (page 1810).

Now the trigger man, Philipp Hamann took the stand and said that Jaeger and Zahn were on guard duty there that night (1822). He was in the guard room and came out when he heard the shots (1823).

"A With the call, "cut off his way", I could visualize that if someone runs down the stairs and keeps on running, there's only one place where he can come out again, if he didn't hide on the way out or if he didn't go through some half-finished buildings on the side."

I don't know--that testimony is rather confusing.

"Q Where was the spot where he had to come out again?

A Otherwise he could come out only at the Bierbrauer Weg.

Q You said there was only one way which he could come out again. Whom did you understand was "he"?

A I supposed -- I assumed the man that was escaping.

Q Did you know who was the one who tried to escape?

A No, I didn't know that. (page 1884)

"Q You went to the guard Jaeger, and what did you do then?

A Since I didn't know whether the man who had escaped was armed, I took Jaeger's carbine. (page 1827 and 1828)

Now did he know it, or didn't he know it? Then he talked about running down and plugging the flyer.

On cross examination, we have this--Hammann testified that he was in the guard room and heard some shouting, but it only took a moment for him to leave the building. (1851).

"Q You knew that if someone was running down the stairs there was not but one way of escape, that is the way the flyer traveled, is that right?

A No. In this area there were other possibilities to get away."

Now what is the truth about that as far as Hammann and Fay were concerned?

"A --There had been air raid attacks before and some buildings were destroyed and not entirely repaired yet, no doors, no windows, nothing in them.

Q Did you not say on direct examination in answer to a question, "I knew there was only one way for the man to go?"

A There was only one road to the Bierbrauer Weg. If somebody wanted to hide in the field he could hide around there.

Q Did you not know when you heard those shouts up there near the stairs that you were down at the gate where Jaeger was?

A No."

What did he run there for, if he didn't know that?

"Q Did you not know it would be physically impossible for you to take the route you marked on that map and ever catch up with that flyer?

A I didn't want to catch any flyer." (page 1854).

"Q You never did hear anybody holler, "Somebody was escaping", did you?

A I didn't hear that." (page 1858).

Q And you and Fay worked out a plan whereby Fay would take the man up the steps, drive him down the steps and you would be waiting to shoot him when he came down the Bierbrauer Weg, didn't you?

A No, I didn't work out any plan. I did my duty and nothing else." (page 1860)

See how the picture revolves--making a desperate effort to avoid the real facts?

"Q Did you see Fabian at the place where the flyer was?

A I didn't see him but I heard later on that he helped to carry back the flyer."

It's contrary to what other people say.

"Q Did you see Guenther there?

A The same. I didn't see him, but I heard later on that he helped to carry back the body." (page 1844)

He, for convenience, heard a lot of things later.

"Q Neumann, do you recall any conversation which you and Jaeger and Nahrgang were present, in which Nahrgang presumed to ask you something in regard to shooting this flyer and you refused and said "No"?

A No, I never had a conversation." (page 1845).

Now, Nahrgang took the stand and said:

"A In the later evening hours of the 22nd day of February, during an air raid, a sergeant of the protective police appeared and a guard of our quarters.

This sergeant said that he was trying to get cover from the shrapnel. I said that I was not the sergeant of the guard and that I could not do anything for the prisoner. Therefore, I called Hammann who was the sergeant of the guard. In this conversation Zahn told me that the policeman was supposed to shoot this prisoner and that they were not doing it. As we were having this conversation Fay came in or else he was standing under the doorway. I don't know exactly how it happened. He said, "What is the matter?" I told him that they had a prisoner and they wanted to get him in the air raid shelter, and that the policemen had this prisoner and had orders to shoot him, but they were not doing it and so Fay said, "I will be going over to see what the score is." I didn't see any prisoner nor did I see Jaeger. All I saw was Fay and the policemen. All I saw was Zahn and the policeman.

Q Did Fay leave them?

A A short time after this Fay went out.

A I picked up my coat and put on my boots. I wanted to go out too, to see what was going on. A short time afterwards I heard calls, "Halt! Halt!" and a short time after that a shot, so I started running in that direction.

"A I had not seen Hammann before that nor had I talked to him. All I had done was to tell the guard Zahn that Hammann is the sergeant of the guard and that he ought to take care of it—

Take care of what? Take care of shooting the flyer?

"A—and he actually did call Hammann, but Hammann was a slow sort of a guy and he didn't always get up right away when you called him.

Q You said that you went over to the spot where the dead flyer was lying. Did you see Hammann at that time?

A I did not see Hammann.

Q When did you see Hammann at all later on that evening? (1848 to 1851)

Then he comes back with an answer—then he gave another answer.

"Q Who carried the body back?

A The body was carried by myself, Guenther and Fay. In my statement I said that Hammann carried it, the body.

back but I want to take this back at this point because I assumed that Hamsmann did the firing so he will probably carry the body back too." (1851)

"When did you first know that they had an American flyer there?

A I only found that out when he was dead.

Q Didn't Zahn come to you and say, "We have a flyer in custody and we need some help"?

A That wasn't Zahn who said that. That was a policeman who asked for protection."

He didn't know that there was a flyer there until he was dead, and in the very last answer said that wasn't Zahn that was a policeman. That testimony appeared to me like a fencing encounter--he had one in his hand you had the other foil in your hand; and he was attempting to duel quite obviously.

"Q Did Fay tell you, "I am going out and see what is the matter", after he heard about a flyer being there?

A Well, I was still waiting for Fay's answer.

Q Did he tell you that?

A He said, "I will be going out to see what is the matter".

Q When did he leave?

A Fay went out. I didn't see him any more after that.

Q You admit you told Fay about it but you deny you told Hamsmann, is that right?

A I don't know whether I told Fay or not.

Q Well, you either know whether you did or did not, don't you?

A I don't remember that I told Fay anything that evening.

Q You put in your statement that you told both of them, didn't you?

A I didn't put in that I said anything to Hamsmann. All I said was I called Hamsmann because he was a sergeant of the guard. Hammann didn't show up." (pages 1854 and 1855)

Now just remember a few minutes ago he said he didn't know the flyer was a flyer until he saw him dead. Referring to the written statement signed and sworn to by Wahrgang, he said:

"Q I want you to tell the Court what is wrong about that statement.

A In the first place, I didn't notify Hammann. I merely called Hammann. Nor did I tell Hammann that there was an American prisoner there, and that I was 5 meters away from where the shots were fired. That was out in the garden. When the first shots were fired, I was 30 yards away from it, from my shelter to that point. That is what it should say here."

Referring to the policeman he said:

"A The policeman was telling me that he was looking for cover from the shrapnel. Zahn just on the side sort of told me that the 2 policemen were to bump that flyer off but they didn't do it."

Now, if he would be consistent, he would again say he never heard about the flyer, but this is what he said:

"A --The policemen didn't say a word about such matters like shooting or anyone.

Q Zahn told you about it instead of the policemen, is that right?

A He just about whispered it in my ear. I didn't take the matter seriously." (pages 1857 and 1858).

"Q Do you know why they first explained it to you that they had the flyer?"

He didn't answer that question; he said:

"A He was looking for the superior there, and I said "Well, I am not the sergeant of the guard", and I called Hammann and Hammann got up. I called Hammann but Hammann didn't get up. He didn't get there.

Q What was the approximate length of time from the time you told Fay there was a flyer there until the time the flyer was killed?

A I didn't say anything to Fay.

Q You didn't?

A I didn't tell Fay anything. I didn't give him any order, either. He just said on his own, "I will be going out there to see what is the matter".

Q How did Fay lie in his bed asleep even though there was a flyer out there?

A I might have woke him up at the time when the air raid alarm started, but in this case, I did not call Fay.

Q You don't remember what you have just finished testifying at all, do you?

A Yes, I remember.

Q You can't remember telling the court 5 minutes ago that you did talk to Fay, can you?

A Fay was inside and he asked, "What is the matter?" and I told him in a low tone of voice, I didn't tell him to get out." (pages 1863 and 1864)

"A The first thing that happened is that the policeman told me they were looking for cover from the shrapnel and as he was walking by me, whispered in my ear they are going to shoot him and they are not supposed to do it.

Q Did he whisper in a normal tone of voice?

A In a normal tone of voice.

Q Then when Zahn spoke to you did he tell you they were supposed to shoot the flyer?

A Zahn didn't say at all we were supposed to bump off or kill the flyer. All he said was the policeman was going to do it, and --

Q I'll ask the question again. When Zahn told you that the policeman had a flyer out there that the policeman was supposed to shoot or bump off, did Zahn whisper that to you quietly?

A Yes, that was in a whispering tone of voice." (pages 1867 and 1868).

Now we have Hans Kiebel back on the stand in Charge 8. He admitted he was in command on Bierbrauer Weg when a policeman came in and shouted "parachutist" but said nothing else. At the same time several shots were fired. He heard steps on the stairway marked "E" on the large wall chart, prosecution exhibit P-127, and running down to the command post (1874). There was a large number of civilians streaming along the path at that time. Now we have the civilians again. Perhaps this flyer had been an outstanding football star, because think of all the men he had to dodge on that so-called escape--people streaming in and armed policemen. That must have been the outstanding cross-country field run anyone has ever seen down that road. He noticed that when he came out of the command post. They were coming out of the public air raid shelter (1875). After the body was brought to the garden he gave the order to have the property on the flyer taken away from him. Then he picked up the flyer's fur jacket and took it to his command post and turned it over to the fire police later on (1877). He said that when a guard came in they had already heard the wild chase down the stairs. He said he heard nobody holler "Halt" but he did hear several people rushing down the stairs but he did not hear anybody shouting nor did he hear anything said (1880).

> "Q Then you rushed out of the bunker, I believe you said, and went in the direction towards the Bierbrauer Weg, is that correct?
>
> A Yes.
>
> Q How did you know to go in that direction?
>
> A Because all these people who were in the public air raid shelter, all the civilians, were speeding towards point "G".

Point "G"--they were all speeding down there. Maybe some of them were carrying the flyer with them--it's quite possible.

A —"Upon that I assumed that something must have been going on there. (page 1880)

"Q You had no idea they were going to bring an American flyer there?

A No.

Q It is just a coincidence that every time you were around there was an American flyer who got killed?

A That's no coincidence. That's the truth.

Q So it is the truth that every time you were around an American flyer was present and he got killed?

A I don't have to repeat that I said the truth, do I?

Q That happened twice on the same day?

A Two accidents the same day.

Q Two accidents? The man that died at the hands of Moller, was that an accident?

A Yes." (page 1882)

"Q You have heard the witnesses testify that Captain Kiwitt ordered this particular flyer to be executed, did you not?

A Yes.

Q You knew that you had instructed Kiwitt and all the other members of your command that all captured flyers would be executed, don't you?

A No, never.

Q Captain Kiwitt was present that day at Bieber when you talked to Lt. Albrecht about the flyer being bumped off, was he not?

A No. Nobody said that the flyer was to be bumped off."

Nobody except Eichel himself when he talked about Charge 7.

"Q Was Captain Kiwitt present in Bieber on that day when you did discuss the flyer with Lt. Albrecht?

A Yes, he was present in Bieber.

Q So Captain Kiwitt knew what your desires were with regard to the treatment of flyers?

A No. I did not have any desires concerning the treatment of flyers." (pages 1888 and top of 1889). The Defense then brought some witnesses, but here is a strange thing that comes into this stage play. This witness, Ludwig Gruenheit, says there was no air raid in Offenbach or Bieber on that day. He also said that Nahrgang, Hammann and Fay were subordinates of Eichel and were under his command (1894).

Peter Brauweiler, a witness, said on the night in question he was in the air raid shelter (1901); that Eichel left for about 5 to 10 minutes and when he returned he had a leather jacket with him (1902). There was no air raid going on in Offenbach or at Bierbrauer Weg but the alarm was sounded and while all the civilians and people were in the cellars, an American flyer got killed (1903). Now what did happen? The civilians were streaming down there. They were definitely trying to get the civilians out of the way so they wouldn't see a murder--that was the reason for the air raid alarm.

Eichel said he heard all kinds of noises upstairs, and the witness Mia Brauweiler said that before the guard came downstairs to tell Eichel about the flyer she heard no shooting upstairs although her hearing is good (1906), and Eichel, away down below, is trying to give us a picture of a lot of noises with an escaping flyer.

Kiwitt took the stand and testified that on the 22nd of February, 1945, the 2 policemen, Michel and Schneider, came with the flyer to the police station in Offenbach (1906). I told him to get out. I reprimanded these corporals, Michel and Schneider. And after reprimanding him, I told the policeman Michel and Schneider to take him to the police jail and turn him over there. Lt. Alt got in the conversation and he said, "Captain, you can't do that. A major has already issued the order to get this flyer bumped off." Upon that I said,

"Well, if a major gave an order, I can't change it. I guess you will have to bump him off then." (page 1907). Then he said the only order he knew was the non-interference order and "I got to know about it when I was sent to Offenbach and I worked my way through all the secret files in order to find out about it. Among those I found the non-interference orders but nothing whatever of any other nature." (page 1916).

Now this evidence is strengthened again, as in Charge 7, by sworn statements of the accused. We didn't hear Nahrgang talk about any duress. We didn't hear Kiwitt or Hammann or Fay--nevertheless, Nahrgang's written statement says this: "He described the incident of February 1945 at Bierbrauer Weg. He said he was first notified by Zahn that an American pilot had been captured. He told Hammann to go out and see what was going on. Fay came in and turned and went out and said "I am going to see what is going on". Hammann, Fay and Zahn were his subordinates. Then he said Fay told him that he had shot in the direction of the flyer but did not see whether he had hit him. Then Fay told him that Hammann had shot the flyer. Nahrgang heard the shots from the direction of Bieber Strasse. Then he said Hammann, Guenther, Fabian and himself carried the body. Then he said: "Although I didn't actually fire the shot, I did nothing to prevent any one from doing the killing." (P-134).

Kiwitt made a statement admitting all essential facts (Exhibit P-135). He said he saw the flyer when he was brought into t e Offenbach police station. He had been called there at that time by Alt and that 2 policemen had brought the flyer and that one of the policemen's name was Michel. He then called up Major Kuhlenbeck on the telephone (page 2). Then he said that Alt received a phone message from Kuhlenbeck to the effect that the flyer should be killed. Kiwitt also talked to Kuhlenbeck on the telephone and got the same instructions. Kuhlenbeck said: "Yes, the flyer has to be killed as Police Director Eichel has ordered it." Thereupon, Kiwitt told Alt that he had better carry out his orders and he told Michel the same thing. Then the two policemen took the flyer away. Later in the evening, Alt reported to Kiwitt that the flyer had been killed, but not by the two policemen but by another party and that Eichel had been present (page 3). This is in the written statement:

"Q So far as you understand then, it was Eichel's wish and order that all captured flyers should be killed?

A Yes, that was clear to all of us.

Q Do you know former policemen Hamann and Fay who were stationed in the Bierbrauer Weg that night?

A No, I do not believe that I do, but the day after this incident a policeman assigned to that fire shelter spoke to me and said that the men assigned to kill the flyer were too cowardly to do it so he had to shoot him.

Q Do you know the name of this man?

A No, it sounded something like Matratt or Martratt."

Hamann made a written statement which agrees with all the facts (P-136). In discussing the shooting of the flyer on Bierbrauer Weg he said he first knew that some one was trying to escape after he had heard some shots. Upon hearing the noise, he ran outside. He then described how he ran out. Knowing the surrounding territory very well, he took Jaeger's rifle. He followed the flyer and shouted "Halt!" The flyer ran towards the woods where Lt. Fabian was and then Hammann shot the flyer. Eichel arrived so he had to report to him and did not help carry back the body of the American. Later, he wore the flyer's cloth jacket.

Hammann made another statement (P-137), in which he said he had not talked to Nahrgang at all that evening prior to the flyer incident and that Nahrgang did not come into his room at all and that he did not see Fay on the street at all (page 3). He described how he fired three shots at the flyer; also said that Eichel was running after the flyer.

Now Fay made a statement (P-138) under no duress in which he described the shooting of the flyer on Bierbrauer Weg. He said that Nahrgang came down into the shelter and said, "Fay, come out. The flyer must be killed" (page 2). Can you imagine making a statement like that? Then some one asked him who gave such an order upon which some policeman answered "The Police Director Eichel" and that Nahrgang and Guenther and 2 police officials and the flyer were present when Nahrgang said that the flyer must be killed on Eichel's orders (page 3). Then Fay said he was hit a blow in the chest by the flyer but that at that time there was gathered around the flyer Nahrgang, Guenther and the 2 other policemen.

> "Q You expect us to believe then that the American flyer, surrounded by 5 policemen, suddenly struck you a blow upon the chest? Is that correct?
>
> A Yes.

Q Did you attempt to stop the flyer when he began to run away?

A No."

But he said he did have his weapon in his hand at that time (page 4).

"Q Do you expect us to believe that the flyer deliberately made an attempt to escape from an armed guard of 4 men?

A I don't know."

He said he did not talk to Hammann before the attempted escape, nor did he see him (page 5). Then he described how he shot in the air after the flyer had gone down the steps. He learned later that Hammann killed the flyer. The flyer was dead when Fay arrived at the place where the flyer's body was lying.

"Q Did Wahrgang kick him in the face?

A I don't know. I did not see it.

Q Is it not a fact that this police officer received orders that the flyer be killed?

A Yes. This police officer knew the flyer was to be killed." (page 6)

The only significant fact about it is that he says at the end, "Furthermore, Eichel was to be blamed for the whole thing."

